My dearest Fannie:

Your postal for Montreal came safely to hand. I am thankful you found the journey so pleasant. You got away for here just in time to miss a disagreeable storm. We had six inches of snow at the location on Thursday and Friday. The road is horrid! Mrs. Mason arrived on Friday. She is very sprightly. Was sorry to miss you. She will live in Houghton this winter.

Our mine matters are arranged so that I can now push the work. The new shaft ^{E.} is going down well in the sand, with little water to trouble us, and we shall soon begin to timber at D. The R.R. will also haul our freight up to the Baltic. This will be quite a saving, both in time and in money.

Mr. Millroy sent the patterns you selected. I have ordered suit No. 1 but think the other materials too thick. Have asked him to send other samples and to buy the $60. coat.

Ch. expects to go to Chicago tomorrow. She sends a great deal of love and will write you soon.

Am going out to the loca. this P.M. if I can get away. Excuse brevity.

Love and kisses to all,

Affy Julius.
