

Source: The Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
December 4, 1886

The St. Ignace Republican says: Logs are at present being hauled over the Seney logging railroad at the rate of 200,000 feet per day. It is confidently expected to bank in the neighborhood of 25,000,000 feet. Some will be sawed at the company's mill at Manistique, but the greater portion of them will be towed below.

~~BSS&A~~

Manistique RR.