

Source: The Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
June 12, 1891

Republic

Christ Peterson with a force of men arrived here from Marquette on Tuesday evening to do the grading for the new spur to the Riverside mine. The work is now nicely underway, the track between here and the Riverside is also being put in good shape so that active shipments will soon commence. This mine has shipped 200 tons of ore to the Northwestern furnace at Manistique via the DSS&A within the past week.

DSS&A
Riverside Mine