

Source: Northwestern Lumberman
February 26, 1887

Railroad building in upper Michigan has created a good demand for labor in the (Saginaw) valley and has reduced the surplus. Two or three hundred men have been sent from the valley to work on the DSS&A.

Logging, General
DSS&A Ry.