

Source: Sault Ste. Marie Democrat
Sault Ste. Marie, Mi.
December 1, 1887

Thursday

The first train over the CPR arrived in the Canadian Sault yesterday afternoon. The village people turned out en masse. Captain Wilson's battery saluted the iron messenger of prosperity and the whole town united in another day of celebration. Just as soon as the bridge is completed we will be able to kick up our heels with glee and it will not be long.

✓DSS&A
MSSM&A
SSMB Co.