

Source: Sault Ste. Marie Democrat
Sault Ste. Marie, Chippewa County, Mi.
December 8, 1887 Thursday

A Snow "Bucker."

The special train which brought the officials of the DSS&A to the Sault exchanged engines when they reached here, and left the one which was equipped with a snow plow, so that there would be no delay on account of snow between here and the junction. This was a very timely action as the drifts had already begun to bother the trainmen, and the prospects were for a good deal of annoyance from this score.

✓ DSS&A
Passenger