

Source: The Daily Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
July 20, 1888

Friday

New employes are getting thicker than mosquitoes all along the line of the DSS&A. Nearly every day a new station agent is checked in by the traveling auditor, who is on the jump all the time attending to the changes as they occur in his line.