

Source: The Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
August 4, 1888

Saturday

Champion - The improvements at the union depot are about completed, the painters having put the finishing touches on the building. The room is now one of the neatest on the entire line and is so well conducted that it is fast becoming very popular. The food served by Mr. Bellhumer is all ways good and is dished up in clean style.

DSS&A
M&N
Stations - Champion