

Source: The Daily Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
August 23, 1888

Thursday

The big electric lights of the South Shore at the street crossings were put up here this afternoon and were lighted last night for the first time. They worked well and will give great satisfaction, to both citizens and railroad men.

✓DSS&A
Docks
Stations - Marquette