

Source: The Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
August 17, 1889

119
Saturday

Mr. F. E. Worcester, for several years past in the employ of the DSS&A as foreman of the water supply, has severed his connection with the company. Almost instantly upon leaving the employ of the railroad and on the same day, he was appointed inspector of break water for this port, an important position for the coming year or more.