

131

Source: The Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
September 14, 1889

Ishpeming.- The South Shore stocked its coal near Third street about a year ago and since then the supply has been steadily depleted, though but few engines took coal there. As the company did not think it could afford to supply the neighborhood with coal, the stock is now being reduced by having the engines draw on it.