

Source: The Newberry Independent, Newberry, Luce County, MI
Thursday, Oct. 17, 1889

A lady passenger on the Duluth limited gave birth to a child Sunday evening just after the train pulled out of Marquette. The train was backed, the lady taken off and placed in a hotel. The train was about a half hour late getting into Ishpeming, but it shall never be said that a railroad owned by the junior senator of this state was guilty than doing other than the fair thing by a lady.

-Cheboygan News.

✓DSS&A Ry.
Passenger