

Source: The Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
November 16, 1889

Saturday

152

Negaunee - Considerable difficulty was experienced in getting the engine and cars which were thrown off the track Wednesday night at the Buffalo mine on the rails again. While handling the wrecking cars the big road engine got off twice, and when the switch engine was at last got on the track it had to be pulled along very carefully owing to the damage it had sustained and the unevenness of the track.

DSS&A