

DSS&A Ry.

1890

Claim No. 157

By John Larue, St. Ignace, Mi., for damages for personal injuries and damages to wagon, May 15, 1890, at Truckee St., crossing at St. Ignace. Team frightened by passing ore cars and wagon upset, Larue slightly bruised. May 23, 1890, advised D. M. Philbin that company is not liable.

Claim No. 244

By Bernard Kelly, Green Bay, Wi., or Port Huron, Mi., for personal injuries May 5, 1890, Republic, Mi. See suit no. 77.

Claim No. 240

By Mrs. Emma C. Lively, Henningford, Province Quebec, for damages on account of killing of Prisque Lively in an accident May 21, 1890. Settled for $300.00 claim and $23.23 expenses, January 28, 1891.

220