

Source: The Alger County Republican
Au Train, Alger County, Mi.
November 17, 1888

Saturday

The railroad has completed the building of about a mile of new snow fence, running west from this station, and about 100 feet north of the old fence, which has been repaired. It is expected that the wind currents will drop the snow between these fences and leave the track comparatively clear.

✓DSS&A

Stations - Au Train