

[RAILROAD VELOCIPEDA-TRAIN ACCIDENT IN MARQUETTE COUNTY--1891]

An ingenious Marquette county homesteader constructed a bicycle to fit the railroad, and had no end of fun with it until he went to sleep on it and was hit by a train. The bicycle is a wreck and the genius has not yet finished swearing at the engineer. He was not hurt by the crash.

[Michigan State Items column, p. 2]

[Newberry News, 03 July 1891]

File: DSS&A

: VELOCIPEDS

CJB to WP