

Source: The Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
December 31, 1892

Saturday

Houghton - Passenger engine No. 108 got off the track near the South Shore depot as the train was coming in Saturday night. The railroad men were unable to get her on the track in time for the train to leave Sunday noon and passengers were delayed going out.

✓DSS&A
Locomotives