

Source: The Mining Journal
Marquette, Mi.
February 13, 1892

Saturday

Ishpeming - The flour train sent out by the Duluth Imperial Flour Mills reached Ishpeming Thursday morning, en route for Boston, at 8 o'clock, and remained on the side track here a few minutes while waiting for the west bound passenger train. Every other car in the train was decorated with banners, flags, etc., advertising the flour and the mills. The train attracted considerable attention.