PRELLER'S MURDERER.

Dr. Maxwell, the Man of Many Aliases, Arrives at St. Louis in Charge of Detectives.

He Absolutely Refuses to Talk, Well Knowing That His Safety Depends on His Silence.

A Brakeman is Shot by Negro Runabouts Trying to Steal a Ride—Crimes and Casualties.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 16.—Walter H. Lennox Maxwell, alias T. Guegler, alias Hugh M. Brook, the supposed murderer of C. Arthur Preller, at the Southern Hotel in this city, on the 5th of last April, arrived here about 7 o'clock this morning, from San Francisco, in charge of detective Tracy and officer Badger, of the St. Louis police force. A crowd of from 2,000 to 3,000 men, women and children were at the depot when the train arrived, and there was a great scramble among them to get.

A VIEW OF THE PRISONER, but good order was preserved. Maxwell and his custodians were met at the train by chief of police Harrison, with a detachment of police, and placed in a patrol wagon and driven to Four Courts, where after a short stop in the detectives' room, in police headquarters, he was put in the "hold over," and is being held under an alias warrant, which was sworn out Friday by the prison authorities. According to a reporter who rode in from Halsted on the train with Maxwell, and had free access to Maxwell, and to the officers in charge of him, and to the warden that he is absolutely returned to talk about his case, and positively asserted he had no time or place made any statements in regard to it, or in any way acknowledged that he had anything to do with Preller's death, or knew anything about it. He says all stories to the contrary are entirely untrue. Detective Tracy says Maxwell has made no statement. Maxwell wrote out, while on the train, for a reporter of the Republican, an account of his trip from St. Louis to Cleveland, his arrest there and return trip, but it is a commonplace story of minor events, and contains no information of interest.

Tracy thinks further developments will show Maxwell to be weak mentally. He will startle nobody with a surprising or romantic defense. Tracy thinks he KILLED PRELLER FOR HIS MONEY.

That the very few admissions he has made point in that direction; that his voyage from St. Louis to Cleveland was a money spending debauch; and that it was the lack that took the form of a bribe and money that stood him instead, and not any good management of his own.

RECEIVING CALLERS.

St. Louis, Aug. 16.—Maxwell was in chief Harrison's office an hour or so this afternoon, and a large number of callers called on him. Notably, the attorney representing his case, or what line he will pursue, was obtained from him. Chas. Bierer, trunkmaker, residing at 1001 North Broadway, was the man who turned the key in which Preller was found, had been sold, and a porter at the Southern Hotel recognized him as having been a guest in April. Maxwell will be turned over by the police authorities to the sheriff, and will be placed in jail.

Brakeman Killed by Negroes.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 16.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon, as a southbound freight train on the Louisville & Nashville railway was pulling out from Edgelyville junction, ten miles north of this city, two young negro runabouts got into a taxicab car for the purpose of stealing a ride. They were ordered out by the brakemen, when an altercation ensued between the brakemen and the negroes, one of the latter throwing a stone, which hit one of the brakemen. The latter chased the negroes up the road and into a cornfield. The foremost of the negroes following into the cornfield, and was shot and killed by one of the negroes, both of whom escaped. The brakeman killed was named J. B. Linding. His body was found in a cornfield a few minutes after the shot was fired. The sheriff and posse are out searching for the murderers.

Killed from His Injuries.

New York, Aug. 16.—Jacob Engel, a butcher, lived at 823 Eleventh avenue, New York, and this afternoon was found lying on the sidewalk before his residence, with his left leg cut through, and his skull fractured. He died soon after being taken to the hospital. Engel had been beaten, his wife, when P. McKenzie and Peter McNally interfered, and Engel turned on them. They promptly knocked Engel down, and his injuries were the result of the fall. McNally is a brakeman on the West Shore road. No arrests have been made at a late hour to-night.

An Old Misunderstanding Settled.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 16.—A Vicksburg dispatch to the Times Democrat says: "News has been received here of the killing at Summyville, on the Tallahatchie river, last Sunday, of A. A. McKee, manager of Jno. Tyler's Belle Chase plantation, by Dr. Adair, manager of D. W. Dunden's Beverly place. An old misunderstanding was renewed, and McKee rode up to Adair's door, called him out, and threatened to shoot him, when Adair shot and killed McKee. Adair was arrested, but was subsequently released on $1,000 bail."

Disemboweled His Adversary.

New York, Aug. 16.—Fritz Fien and Julius Wolf, belonging to the German bark Mozart, from Hamburg, fought last night on board the ship. Fien stabbed Wolf with his knife. Wolf, in turn, opened a wound a foot long in his assailant's abdomen, killing him. Wolf will also die.

Found Dead in His Bed.

SEDALE, Mo., Aug. 16.—Henry Toggensberger, a young man from Bluffton, O., was found dead in his bed last night with three ghastly wounds in the head, made with a hatchet. The perpetrator of the crime is not known, but he is supposed to be a man with whom Toggensberger had trouble about a woman.

Four Boys Drowned.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 16.—A skiff, in which were six boys, from 8 to 13 years of age, capsized in the middle of the Monongahela river, below Lock 1, this afternoon, about 4 o'clock, drowning Charles and Mark Rich, Courtland Ahlers, and Jacob Mesler. The other two boys, Chas. Meizer and Geo. Skidlander, succeeded in reaching the shore in safety. The accident happened in sight of hundreds of people, but before rescue could reach the kids, they had sunk for the last time.

GEN. GRANT'S MONUMENT.

Gen. Burdett Says It Ought to be Erected in Washington by the Government.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—Gen. S. S. Burdett, commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., returned here yesterday from the G. A. R. encampments at Gettysburg Pa., and Springfield, Ill. To a Republican reporter he said that at each of these places he spoke to the veterans regarding the erection of a monument to Grant. They are in favor unflinchingly of its erection in Washington. "It would have done you good," said he, to have witnessed the enthusiasm awakened at the chance given the boys to honor their DEAD COMMANDER.

The grand army proposes to subscribe 10c from every member, and there are 300,000 of them throughout the country. They mean to erect a monument to Grant in Washington, and I don't think the day is far distant when Gen. Grant's remains will be placed for burial in Washington. In reply to Gen. R. B. Hayes' letter, suggesting that the authorities of the G. A. R. encourage the comrades to contribute to the building of a monument on

THE GRAVE OF GRANT.

Gen. Burdett says: "I have been unable to bring my mind into accord with you on that point. I hold to the view that the grand army will desire that of all to erect its own distinctive monument to our comrade, not at a great cost, but for that purpose raising only such a sum, as composed of equal contributions of each individual comrade, shall be within the glad gift of the poorest."

THE NATIONAL MONUMENT.

To be erected to Grant, should be of such proportions and cost as to be beyond the reach of private benevolence, and of right and propriety ought to be ordered by the congress of the United States, and paid for out of the national treasury, and consequently the G. A. R. should not be called on for the effort you indicate."

THE CHAUTAUQUE ASSEMBLY.

Three Thousand People Were in Attendance at the Various Meetings Yesterday.

CHAUTAUQUE, N. Y., Aug. 16.—There were 3,000 persons in attendance at the various departments of the Chautauque assembly Sunday school this morning. At 11 o'clock, in the amphitheatre, Rev. Chas. F. Deems, of New York, delivered the commencement sermon to the graduating class of the Chautauque library and school for the present year.

This afternoon a Y. M. C. A. platform meeting was held. B. F. Jacobs, of Chicago, presided and addresses were delivered by Maj. H. C. Wright, of St. Louis; J. Y. Lemong, of Akron; J. Q. Gordon, of Erie, Pa.; W. A. Dunlap, of Syracuse, N. Y.; Hon. Clem. Studebaker, South Bend, Ind.; Col. Hyatt, of Pennsylvania; and Rev. A. E. Dunning, of Boston. Much interest was manifested, and a Chautauque Y. M. C. A. organized, with Hon. Clem. Studebaker, of Ind., as president; J. J. Gordon, of Pennsylvania, as vice president; and J. Y. Lemong, of Ohio, as secretary. About 200 members were enrolled.

Chancellor Vincent addressed the society of Christian Ethics, which is composed of young people, at 4 p. m.

At 8 p. m. to-day addresses on Aggression, by Christian Ethics, were delivered by F. Jacobs, of Chicago, and Rev. Dr. Trowbridge, of New York.

The International Sunday school executive committee has been in session here several days. There were present B. F. Jacobs, of Chicago, chairman; Ira H. Evans, of Andover, N. H., secretary; J. L. Swanton, of Vt.; V. A. Dunlap, of Syracuse, N. Y.; and Rev. A. A. Hobbs, D. D., of Louisville, Ky. The executive committee was re-elected statistical secretary for two years: Edwin G. Wheeler, of Wallawalla, Washington territory, was appointed secretary for the territory including Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Washington territory, Alaska and British Columbia, and was instructed to co-operate with the local Sunday school associations in the territory, and to gather statistics. It was decided that a series of Sunday school meetings should be held in the New England states, in the fall of 1935. A series of similar meetings in the southern states, in the winter and spring of 1936, and another series in the northwest, in the fall of 1936.

It was decided to hold the next annual meeting of the executive committee at Chautauque, on the Thursday before recognition day, in 1936.

Dr. Newman's Sermon.

ASHBURN, PA., Aug. 16.—It is estimated that fully 25,000 persons came here to Ocean Grove yesterday. Seven thousand persons attended morning service to-day in the Ocean Grove auditorium, under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary society. Rev. Dr. Jno. P. Newman presided at the service. "The Lord gave the word, and sent the company of those who published it." He discussed the women's labor and its religious work. Dr. J. K. Morrison preached this morning to an audience of 6,000 persons.

Grant-Montefiore Memorial.

New York, Aug. 16.—A Grant-Montefiore memorial meeting by the associate members of the literary society of the Young Men's Hebrew association, was held to-night in the rooms of the association, at Lexington avenue; G. A. Etinger presided, and delivered the address. Other speakers followed with eulogies, and resolutions presented by the committees, were adopted.

A Newspaper Financially Embarrassed.

FOUR WORTH, Tex., Aug. 16.—The Fort Worth Daily Gazette, the leading paper of this section, temporarily suspended last night owing to financial embarrassments. The newspaper is now being operated by the City National bank, looking toward reorganization of the paper on a sound financial basis, and the immediate resumption of the paper.

Two Fatal Accidents.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 16.—One of Sell's Box, electric was tipped over to-day at Sandusky, killing Edward Fuller, the driver.

Philip Easterbrook was killed last night while walking on the railroad, in an intoxicated condition.

Killed by a Locomotive.

KINOSTON, Ont., Aug. 16.—Dr. Metcalf, superintendent of the Rockford asylum, who was stabbed by a lunatic Thursday, died yesterday.

Assigned.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 16.—J. C. Suthill, a Lancaster book and stationery dealer, has assigned; liabilities, $15,000; assets not known.

A BASTARDY ACT.

Miners Throw a Hand Grenade Through a Suspected Informer's Window.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 16.—A State Journal's Shavone special says: "Between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning an effort was made to assassinate the family of Hugh Kinney, by throwing a hand grenade into his sleeping chamber. The windows were shattered, walls cracked and large holes torn in the floor. Kinney was found lying at the foot of the bed, badly mangled and bleeding. Mrs. Kinney ran into the room and found her husband lying on the floor. Kinney is looked upon by the community of miners as an informer of important national affairs, and was suspected of keeping operators posted on their movements, and had been threatened. The village council held a meeting this afternoon and offered a reward for the apprehension of the perpetrators. The feeling is very high in the community, and it is thought that if the proper parties are found there will be a building. The injuries of Kinney and his wife, it is thought, will not prove fatal."

TORTURES OF SING SING.

Two of the Delightful Features of the Famous Prison—The Dark Cell and an Invention of the Keepers.

The keeper was an Irishman, with a clean-shaven and crafty-looking face. He had an observant eye, and did not smile while he was showing the party around, until he came to a room which was fitted up with dark cells. A real professional dark cell is about the blackest thing on the face of the earth—when you are in it and the door is closed. The party played a pleasant and agreeable little trick on the oldest member. He said he had heard a great deal about the exaggerated notions men had of this spot in a dark room, and he asked the keeper if he would not look him in there for five minutes by the watch, and let him have the experience; so he was locked up in a little whitewashed cell, in which he could scarcely turn round. Not a particle of light was admitted, and a man might well believe himself in a tomb, without being heard outside. Having locked him in securely, his kind friends went cheerfully off and investigated the iron foundry, saw-mills, and docks. "Nearly an hour elapsed, and then they returned and released him. "It seemed a pretty long five minutes, didn't it, colonel," said the youngest man blithely.

"No," said the colonel, who had a strained, round-shouldered, hollow-eyed, nervous, melancholy and unattractive air; "I shouldn't think that I was there more than five minutes. You see it's a great thing to have a strong hold on your imagination and not let it get away with you. Still, I must say that that three-legged stool was rather uncomfortable."

At this moment the attention of everybody was attracted by the keeper, who was actually smiling. It was the first time his face had relaxed during the day, and the crowd gathered around him. "I'm going to show you a little invention of my own," he said, pleasantly. "which has been patented, and is sold to us. I suppose you know that the criminals often get ugly. A DOUBLE-HEADER.

A Big Excursion Yesterday from the Copper Country and One from the Straits of Mackinac.

Neither the people of Marquette, the railroad companies nor the fifteen hundred excursionists, who came from all directions of the compass to visit the upper peninsula metropolis, were disappointed yesterday. The weather was propitious, and the excursions on both the D. M. & M. and the M. H. & O. roads were complete successes.

The Houghton train arrived at noon, and the numerous coaches were crowded to overflowing with people from all along the line, nearly a thousand alighting with the train arrived. Accompanying this large "delegation" from the line was the Houghton silver cornet band, which discoursed a great deal of excellent music during the day.

The train from St. Ignace arrived at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and deposited somewhere in the neighborhood of five hundred excursionists, the run from the straits having been a good one, and all reached here in fine spirits.

The two bands from "outsides," together with the Chequamegon, a portion of the time, so filled the ambient air with mellifluous symphonies that one might imagine—if his imagination were vivid enough—that he had been suddenly transported to some musical eddium, where to dwell were bliss.

There was no special program arranged for the day here, and consequently the visitors devoted the day to slight-seeing and calling upon friends and acquaintances. The order maintained the most excellent, notwithstanding the fact that the refreshing extract of malt flowed like water, down many throats, during the day.

There was not an arrest made in the part of "outsides" dealers. And these are but initiatory deals which will be followed by others, and by a general improvement in this industry throughout the upper peninsula.

One of the most expert lumber inspectors in the state, at present in the city, says that the lumber resources of the Marquette district—including both pine and hard woods—are wonderful, and that the lumber industry here is only in its infancy. He asserts that there is no finer Norway in the world than is to be found in great quantities in this county and the surrounding territory.

And the hardwoods be pronounced unexcelled anywhere. The yellow and black birch are found in abundance, as well as the soft maple, the latter being the "finest in the world," the grain of which, unlike that in maple found further south, is solid. There also is a great quantity of dappled woods, which is becoming as valuable and is as susceptible of high polish as mahogany.

The day is coming, and that not very long hence, when these hardwoods, even on Lake Superior, will be worth more than pine. As for the hardwood industry of the upper peninsula, the gentleman predicts that it will be immense, in time, and that Marquette will yet become known as a great lumber point, where large yards will be located, and lumber will be sorted and sold to the trade, the same as is now done at places in the Saginaw valley.

A Visitor's Good Opinion of Marquette. As was stated in the last issue of the MINING JOURNAL, it was paid a very pleasant visit by Mr. Charles Adams, of Rochester, Oakland county, this state, who, accompanied by his wife, is the guest of his daughter and son-in-law, Mrs. and Mr. Sydney Adams. Mr. Charles Adams is an exceptionally hale and hearty old gentleman, seventy-four years of age, but his wife is considerable of an invalid, being afflicted with partial paralysis of one side, and was brought to Marquette in hopes of being benefited by the invigorating climate. These hopes have been partially realized, the change having resulted beneficially.

Mr. Adams is an enthusiastic admirer of Marquette, which he had not visited before in ten years. He observes a great improvement in the city since then. He is especially struck with the excellent health of the community, and says that people not familiar with this Lake Superior region have no idea of the splendidly exhilarating and health-producing properties of its climate. "I have," said Mr. Adams, "observed pretty closely, and have made inquiries regarding the matter, and I have yet to learn of a single case of paralysis here, excepting imported ones. And I see as many sickly children, either. It is remarkably healthy of the people, young and old, of Marquette. And another thing I want to mention," continued Mr. Adams, "is the excellent order on your streets, and also the culture and gentility of your young people—and old people, too, for that matter—but I speak in particular of the younger class of your citizens. I don't know as that ought to surprise any one, though, after seeing that sixty-five thousand dollar brownstone school-house up on the hill there. It is very fine, and a great credit to your city, the beauty of which is by no means confined to Ridge street. Your churches, too, are worthy of such a place—they are very fine. As for the lake view here, and the bay, they are superb. It doesn't cost a fortune, either, to enjoy them. A party of us had a row-boat three-quarters of an hour, the other day, and rowed all around the bay, and what do you think the charge was?—fifteen cents. Of course, that's a small matter, but I mention it as an instance of the fairness with which strangers are treated here. In a business way, Marquette, I think, also has great advantages. Taking it all in all, it's a very fine city indeed."

Mr. Adams will remain in the city until the latter part of the week, and the MINING JOURNAL is assured that he will carry with him, where he goes, a good report, as may be judged from the above, of the upper peninsula metropolis.

Base Ball at the Driving Park. The game between the Negawane and Marquette base ball clubs, at the driving park yesterday afternoon, had the merit of being a close one, and notwithstanding the size of the score—eighteen to seven—there was some very good playing by both clubs. At the beginning of the fifth inning the score was even, sixteen to sixteen, and a splendid running fly catch with the left hand, by a member of the visiting club alone gave it the lead.

The Marquette being at the bat, had two men out and two men on bases, when a high fly was batted that seemed to be going over the heads of all the fielders, but Louis Sporley got his left hand onto it and won the game for the Negawanes, by preventing the two men on bases from scoring. The visitors then went to the bat and batted two more innings, which gave them the coveted majority of one. All who witnessed the game pronounce it a very interesting one.

Change of Management. Superintendent McCool's official connection with the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette railroad company ceases to-day, and to-morrow morning the new general superintendent, Mr. Andrew Watson, will take charge of affairs. Mr. McCool, as has been previously announced in these columns, resigned the position for the purpose of accepting a desirable situation with a Missouri railway company, and expects to leave for that state the latter part of the week.

Mr. Watson, of late, has resided at Jackson, this state. Some years ago he was general superintendent of the Detroit, Grand Haven and Milwaukee road, and afterward occupied the same responsible official relations with the Great Western railway company, of Canada, so that in assuming the duties of superintendent of the D. M. & M. he brings with him a ripe experience and an established reputation as a railroad man.

Grand Concert. At Adams' hall next Saturday evening, manager W. A. Ross will present to the Marquette public, the celebrated Ideal concert company. Among the artists of the company are Madame Debbie Clemelli, soprano, Herr Paul Krueger, the renowned harp virtuoso, and Herr Carl Zoberler, pianist and accompanist. The following program will be rendered:

- 1. Harp solo, Cloud and Sunshine, Overture by Cavatina, from "Lucia." "In silence all by slumbering." Donizetti.
2. Piano solo, Andante and Ron-do Capriccioso, Mendelssohn.
3. Harp solo, Serenade, Parish Alvers.
4. Soprano solo, Valse Bel-lante, Leliet Arditi.
5. Piano selections, (a) Melody, Rubenstein. (b) Polonaise, Chopin. (c) Santa Maria, Liszt.
6. Zither selections, (a) Balade, Krueger. (b) Soprano solo, Irish melody. "The Last Rose of Summer."
7. Harp solo, "Nocturne, au reve de Mer." Overture by Schumann. "Ariadne's song." Braza solo. (Why fate Obligate.) Admission fifty cents. Reserved seats at Conklin's jewelry store.

Open Air Concert. The seventh open air concert, to be given by the Chequamegon band, will occur this evening. The following is the program:

- 1. March, "Kimberley Guard." Petoe.
2. Overture, "Hip Van Winkle." Brooks.
3. Song from the opera "Lucia." "To Earth I Bid a Last Farewell."
4. Waltz, "Wine, Woman and Song." Strauss.
5. Overture, "Elegance." Petoe.
6. Reverie, "Frammer." Schuman.
7. Galop, "Why Not?" Schlegelgrill.

CONDENSED CITY NEWS ITEMS. An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hallam was buried yesterday.

The Chicago Tribune estimates that one-third of all the tonnage on the lakes could be spared.

Manager Ross has been making some very noticeable improvements in the Adams hall during the past few days.

A young daughter of Capt. C. D. Blanchard was quite painfully injured by a fall at the Casino rink, Saturday afternoon.

S. Kaufman has leased, for three years, Hiram A. Burt's house on Ridge street, and will move into it the first of September.

George Andrews is retelling in Marquette a liquid ink-exercise, together with a recipe for making the same. The cost is small, and the work the "eraser" does is thorough.

The circuit court dispatched work lively on Saturday, having exhausted the call of cases—eight in number—by noon. The official report will appear in to-morrow's paper.

Regular meeting of Albert Jackson post, G. A. R., to-night. As it will be three weeks before another meeting occurs, except a special meeting be called, all comrades are expected to be present.

The distinguished speakers whom it is known will be present at the Irish national picnic and address to be given, next Saturday, are Dr. Betts, St. Louis, and Hon. John Power, of Escanaba.

Tug Jim Reed cleared, yesterday, with a raft of short logs—two million feet—in tow, belonging to mayor Thurber, of this place. The Reed will tow the logs to Detroit. It is the first lot of short logs ever towed out of this harbor.

The MINING JOURNAL to-morrow will contain a somewhat detailed account of the drama "Rank and File," which the G. A. R. will present the four last days in the first week in September, and possibly the full cast of characters may be announced.

Contractor J. B. Sweet, of this place, has drawn plans and specifications for an addition to the congregational church, at Hancock, which, if adopted, says the Hancock Herald, "will make it one of the finest edifices on the upper peninsula." The contemplated improvement will cost about $4,000.

Those holding subscription tickets are reminded that the diagram for the next installment of the series, so suspiciously begun last Friday evening, will be ready for the selection of seats this morning at nine o'clock, sharp. The next attraction will be Helen Potter, who will be assisted by the Chequamegon band.

The Chequamegon band has arranged to give a concert in the Houghton rink, at Houghton, on Wednesday next Saturday evening—August 20th. The band is one of the best in the state, and all who go to hear the entertainment announced for that evening may rest assured that they will get their money's worth long before the "curtain goes down."

With the Irish National picnic and the Negawane and Hancock base ball clubs to entertain them during the day next Saturday, and with the Ideal concert company at Adams' hall, and the roller skating contest for the MINING JOURNAL championship at the Casino rink, in the evening, everybody in Marquette, without regard to race, color, or previous condition, ought to be able to find something in the way of amusement to engage their attention.

The Hancock base ball club seems to be enjoying sort of a perennial "spice" in its matches with other clubs of this region. The matches with that club, the Calumets got six points out of twenty-three. Marquette county will look to the Negawane boys to make a better showing than that next Saturday, or an outraged community, will lose control of itself and fire the offenders into the lake. There is a point beyond which it is not safe to humiliate a proud and spirited people.

Marquette gallants who are blessed with sweethearts should reflect on a wise paragraph in the MINING JOURNAL in one of its exchanges. It is to the effect that "young men who are disposed to pass on the other side of the street and in other unfeeling ways dodge the ice cream seasons, when walking with their girls, should remember that all through the long winter these same girls cheerfully and uncomplainingly furnished light and fuel for their comfort, and the little cream they are willing to accept is but a small return for last winter's favors."

The readers of the MINING JOURNAL will be interested in learning that the piano used at the Ursula school, Friday evening, is the smallest grand piano made. In it are contained all the advantages of the grand action and scale, yet it is not so large as to prove objectionable in an ordinary parlor. The manufacturers, Messrs. Sohmer & Co., have long enjoyed the reputation of being in the very front rank of the great makers of the world, and their instruments are remarkable for purity of tone, great power and a scale that is certainly near if not quite perfection. All who heard it were delighted with its brilliant yet sympathetic tone. The reporter did not ask Mr. Conklin the price of the piano, but those who are interested can see him and the piano, too, whenever they are so minded.

"By the way, speaking of a site for the branch state prison up here, there's an Outing country but we forget that shire isn't like Marquette county—it doesn't want the whole earth and a good share of the utter unattainability," says the Houghton Gazette. That thing will be passed, unnoticed, albeit the iron hath entered the soul, if the Gazette had spared the MINING JOURNAL the spectacle of audacious effrontery it exhibits in another paragraph, where it coolly remarks that the commission to select a point for the branch prison on the upper peninsula will soon be rushing around looking for the best site, and Houghton county, with its usual modesty, can't be trusted to meet the members, as it should, more than half way. Unobtrusiveness is a commendable quality, but we "kick" to see "Yesters of grace defend us from such 'unobtrusiveness' and meekness as the Gazette would instill into its copper country readers. With the mining school recently awarded to Houghton, at the Gazette's word, and their interest cut for the other state "piano." It may be the greater of the two, but the copper country must be content with the one it has.

PERSONAL MENTION. Mr. Roger Williams, of L'Anse, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. R. F. Berde, of Newberry, called on his brother, Philip Berde, of this place, yesterday.
