His object seemed to be to show off, and, as a knot of passengers began to applaud his shots, he grew what might be called triumphantly reckless. The steamer presently overtook a flatboat loaded with hoop poles, bound for the New Orleans market. The steersman, wearing a broam-brim hat and red shirt, was a very

"I've seen the day," remarked a passenger, "that I could put a bullet through that chap's hat and not harm a hair of his head." "I can do it myself," replied the shooter.
"I doubt it, sir; doubt it very much. If you make that shot, you can call yourself the champion of the world."

What did the idiot do but haul off and p away! We saw the man's hand go up his ear, and it wasn't half a minute beand he was pulling off for us in a small boat. He was soon alongside, and not a man of us moved as he rushed up stairs with a bowie knife as long as the leg of a chair in his mad right hand. The shooter was whiter than chalk, but his sang froid was the genuine article. Before the man with the blue of the same and the same article was the genuine article. Before the man with the blue of the same article was the genuine article. Before the man with the blue of the same article was a same and the same article was a same article. The poorhouse of Menominee has had a man there who had sore eyes for over fifteen years, and been treated without success. For one year he had been entirely blind, and being unable to support himself, went to the poorhouse. He has been under the treatment of the doctor five weeks, and can already see enough to go all over. The doctor expects to have him cured as well as ever in about a month.
