Afterglow
I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways, of happy times and laughing
times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun, of happy memories that I leave when my life is done.

The Class of 1964 began its journey toward graduation in the Fall of 1951. Across the middle of Menominee county from the Menominee River to the Bay of Lake Michigan in Cedar River, we entered the doors of one or two room township schools, church fellowship halls and basements. The towns with larger numbers like Stephenson moved our class around; Kindergarten in the Methodist Community Hall behind the Methodist Church, then first grade in an empty classroom at the High School, Second and Third Grade at the Grant School in Palestine, and back to the High School for Fourth grade.

The children from the Wallace area have a similar history. They entered Kindergarten in a small school building then progressed for First grade to a church in Wallace. Their Second and Third grade years were spent in the Ingalls School and another building for Fourth grade.

Children in Cedar River, Greenwoods and Daggett seemed to remain in one building until they attended Stephenson Consolidated Schools. Lake township had 3 classrooms in operation during this time. In Fifth grade students in Stephenson attended a new K-6 Elementary School . The students from the Wallace area attended their new K-8 building. The children attending Cedar River School , Lake township, and Greenwoods School transferred to Stephenson in Seventh Grade. Students at Daggett Elementary and Mellen Elementary joined Stephenson in their Freshman year. Along the way all the groups of children lost members who moved away or gained members who moved into the District.

By our Freshman year, 1960, we were the Class of 1964.

I hope you enjoy the walk down memory lane as you look at our pictures and remember a simpler, less complicated time in our lives.

number of pupils outgrew the elementary portion of the main school building, the Stephenson School District rented the Community House from the Methodist Church. The former Seventh Day Adventist Church was purchased by the Methodists and moved from the east side of town to a site just to the west of the church. The building was moved across the Little Cedar River when the ice was thick enough to accommodate it. It was also used for church suppers, ladies' aid meetings, Sunday School classes, youth gatherings, etc. The church has since expanded into the area where the Community House once stood.

In 1902, Victor and Mary Decaine deeded a piece of property to the Township of Stephenson School District. The property was to be used for a school. In 1910, Lake Township was created out of part of Stephenson Township. In the early 1920s, the Edison School, located just west of Stephenson on G-12, was opened as one of three at that time in Lake Township. At first, students in grades kindergarten through eighth were taught there. Later, the school went through the sixth grade. It was closed at the end of the 1958-59 school year. Ann Linderoth was the last teacher at the school. Eventually, Lake Township became part of the Stephenson Consolidated School District. In 1956-57, Cecelia Parrett, standing in back row, was the teacher. Students were, front row, left to right, Jerry Parrish, Dale Pell, Jim Leaveck, Linda Krueger, Rodney Parrish, William Hanson, Lee Thoney, Larry Kruhmin; middle row, Jim Parrish, Scott Szapa, Kathy Koldos, Karen Koldos, Karen Broslavick, Sally Leaveck, Nancy Parrett, Darlene Foley, Mike (Corky) Koldos, Jerry Mulheron; back row, Kathy Mulheron, Kathy Kruhmin, Mrs. Parrett, Georgia Olson, Cheryl Kruhmin, Frances Leaveck, Marvin Gerue, Wayne Thoney.

We made the news!

- Stephenson defeated Newberry 34-6. Joe Petrin scored two touchdowns for the Eagles. Petrin has a great personality and I'm sure it served him well in his lifetime vocation. Joe taught school at Escanaba for more than 30 years. Nothing unusual about that except that he taught all of those years from the same classroom.

1962

■ Stephenson defeated Newberry, 34-6. This was the first football game that was ever filmed by Stephenson.

Joe Petrin scored two touchdowns for the Eagles.

In this game, I thought our wide receiver was going down the sideline, but as I released the football he cut toward the middle of the field, making my pass a pass to nobody.

In the film session there was a lot of amusement at my expense. Coach Axel Anderson kept going forward and backward with the projector, and then he finally said, "other than that being the best pass that I ever saw you throw, I want to know who you were throwing the pass to?"

I met coach Anderson in 1958 when he was hired as the football coach at Stephenson. I was riding my horse in the Ingalls area and he was lost and looking for the home of Jim and Don Erickson, two prospective football players. Anderson asked me if I knew where they lived. I said I didn't even know who they were. He gave me a look like "you sure don't know very much," and I gave him a look like "at least I'm not lost."

■ Eventual Barber Trophy winner, Escanaba Holy Name, defeated Stephenson 7-0. No. 2 Kingsford defeated Stephenson at Stephenson. Dick Berlinski scored for Kingsford. No. 3 Gladstone defeated Stephenson at Stephenson, 26-19. Harry Westrich scored on a run. Jon Wangerin threw touchdown passes to Westrich and Joe Turek. Manistique defeated Stephenson at Stephenson, 19-13. Mike Dissinger caught a touchdown pass for Manistique. Wangerin passed to Clarence Peterson for a touchdown and Wayne Thoney scored on a long run.

There were some outstanding players to play at Stephenson in 1962, Berlinski and Dissinger went on to Michigan State. They played in the "Game Of The Century" against Notre Dame in 1966.

■ Dick Yenchesky, who had a 18-2 record in his only season as a head varsity basketball coach, resigned his position at Wausaukee to go into school administration.

Yenchesky never coached again, but his .900 winning percentage in varsity basketball competition has to be one of the top lifetime winning percentages in state history.

■ Escanaba defeated Menominee and Stephenson in a triangular track meet at Walton Blesch Field. Clarence Peterson of Stephenson won the pole vault with a height of 11' 3", Paul Dougovito of Stephenson won the 440-yard-dash.

■ The Stephenson Eagles behind sophomore right-hander Roger Wood, defeated Escanaba 8 to 1. Wood fanned nine and walked two.

■ Jerry Lutri of Stephenson won the Great Lakes Conference high jump title.

Lutri, an outstanding all-around athlete, did not have the typical slim high-jumper's build. When Lutri was drafted as an offensive lineman out of Northern Michigan University by the Dallas Cowboys, he was 6-foot-4, 265 pounds and wore a size 15 shoe.

When Jerry would run up to the high jump bar it would sound like a herd of buffalo but when he left the ground he was like a big feather flying in the air.

■ The Stephenson Eagles won the district tournament with a 76-59 win over Kingsford. Craig Sundquist led Stephenson with 21 points. Ron Graves contributed 11 points for the Eagles.

■ Coach Bob Kuntze's Carney-Nadeau Wolves defeated Vulcan 87-60. Bob Macco scored 20 points and Earl LaCount 17 points for the Wolves, who lost only one regular season game.

■ Coach Dick Yenchesky's Wausaukee Rangers defeated Bay Port.

■ Kuntze and Yenchesky are hunting, fishing and golfing buddies and talked of the two schools, only a little over 30 miles apart, playing one another.

SHS Class of 1964 gathers for 50th reunion

On July 19, 2014, the Stephenson High School, Class of 1964, gathered at the Little Nugget for their 50th reunion. The class numbered 102 at graduation. Twenty-five members have passed away over the years. Fifty-one graduates and their guests returned to celebrate this occasion. Class members came from as far west as California, Washington, Montana and Colorado and from Tennessee and Florida, with most everyone else having settled somewhere in the Midwestern states. The class also invited teachers who taught them to join them, and seven teachers and their guests also attended the reunion. A total of 93 people shared memories and much laughter, said organizers.

Joe Turek, class president, welcomed everyone with opening remarks. He was followed by class member Rev. Alvin Beyer, who shared thoughts about the class members who have passed away and gave the invocation. After the dinner open mike time allowed classmates to further share their memories.

A weekend of festivities took place with an informal get together for pizza at Saz's Pub in Stephenson and a golf outing. On July 20 Joe Strohl had the grill going for an opportunity to cookout and continue visiting.

"There were many opportunities for we class members to reconnect, and people left looking forward to the next reunion," said attendees.
