Pickands, Mather, Morse and Elv. of Cleveland, who hold an option on what is known as the Silver Mountain mine, Ms children were afflicted with a cough rewhich is located about forty-two miles sulting from Measles, my wife with a cough resulting from Port Arthur. Mr. Jeffery is a thoroughly capable mining man, [9-14tf] whose opinion will carry weight wherever he is known, and the MINING JOURNAL did not neglect this opportunity of obtaining from so reliable a source such information as he was prepared to give concerning the muchvaunted silver properties on the polar shore of the "Great Lake." If his report is not as favorable as might be wished, the fault lies with the properties, and not with this paper or its informant—neither of whom have any interest in the matter further than a desire to present the facts as they exist, we keep our stock full.
