Rev. L. A. Dunlap, of Mt. Vernon, says:

Who requires it of them is recreant to sulting from Measles, my wife with a cough resulting from Measles, my wife with a cough that had prevented her trom sleeping more or competency, or willingness to evade an irksome duty, he shifts to the shoulders and your white Wine of Tar Syrup has cured them all. At H. H. Stafford irksome duty, he shifts to the shoulders of men chosen for another service a part of his own work, thereby impairing their usefulness to the public, and degrading them to the position of officebrokers between the president and the Hancock people. Mr. Cleveland is not such a president as this; he fears neither the labor nor the responsibility, and if the reform instituted by him in this respect should prove a permanent one, both the country and the more high-minded of its representatives in the national congress will have much to thank him

A convention of postmasters in charge of third and fourth-class postoffices in the lith congressional district of Michigan will be held on Thursday, January 7th, 1886, at 4 o'clock P. M., in the city of Ishpeming, for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent the district in the third and fourth-class postmasters' convention, called to meet in Chicago on the the 15th of February, 1886. The object of the movement in which the Chicago convention is to be an important factor is to obtain equitable treatment at the hands of the government for the classes of postmasters named, and it is carnestly desired that a strong attendance of those interested will be had at the Ishpeming delegate convention.

Found Dead. Sunday is a great day for casualties Many of the great battles of the world were fought on Sunday. Sunday is a day of life and action rather than a day of suffering and endurance, though it must be confessed that it is somewhat noted in the latter particulars. John Stewart, of the powder mill, and Let. Hall, of Conklin's, had business in the country Sunday, and they hired "Gray Nell," a well known and popular animal, of Freeman brothers' livery stable. Arrived at their destination, they obtained permission of a resident to the first place, and the tickets will be good put the mare in his barn. After they had for fifteen days from the date of the sale. fed and blanketed Nell they left the stable and started out upon the business they of the opportunity offered by the D., M. & had in hand. They had been gone but a M. to visit in lower Michigan points durlittle while when they heard a shot fired ing the holidays, at a moderate expense, that sounded near the stable, but they while many more have requested that the thought nothing of it, and continued on sale be continued, thereby permitting their way.
