A Coupling Link Parting Lets Five Rock Cars Down an Incline-Serious Results

Special to the Daily Mining Journal: HANCOCK, Jan. 7, 7 P. M .- This afternoon at Lake Linden, owing to the breaking of a coupling link, five rock cars were allowed to dash down the Calumet & Hecla incline. Three persons were riding in the cars when they started on their wild journey, but only one retained his perilous seat until the cars left the track, the other two having presence of mind enough to jump. George Rader kept his seat until a point between the mills, at the bottom of the incline, was reached, when the runaway cars telescoped a lighter standing on the trestle-forty feet from NEW YORK, Jan. 7 .- A Montreal special the ground-completely wrecking it and to the Post says that the government has throwing Rader over two hundred feet. received urgent and earnest warnings Horrifled witnesses ran to the injured formed priests in the northwest, that diately called. New Sewer. A petition is being circulated among citizens living on Washington street, between Third and Fifth, praying for the laying of a sewer on Washington street from Third to Fifth. All the property owners who have been interviewed thus far are in favor of the improvement, and it will doubtless be made at the earliest date practicable. There are other localities in the city that would be rendered much more healthful by the laying of sewer pipes, and there never will be a better time for doing the preliminary work than time for doing the preliminary work than between a hundred, a hundred and fifty and now. SOMETHING NEW FOR MARQUETTE.

A CLERGYMAN'S TONGUE. in waiting for an opportunity to "do them up" is the same, and it is a pity that the hero of the woods and the parasites that make a specialty of him cannot be portrayed by the gifted artist who wrought the pen-picture entitled "Waiting for Jack." Poor Jack!

A CLERGYMAN'S TONGUE.

Rev. R. Priest says tongues cannot express the good that Warner's White Wine of Tar Syrup has done for me and my family. I have altored in the cause fifteen years, and have never found anything that will relieve hoarseness, and irritation of the throat and lungs like White Wine of Tar Syrup. At H. H.
