Bills Introduced to Erect Monuments in Washington to Lincoln and Grant to Cost $1,000,000 Each.

The Construction of Two Government Gun Foundries and a War Cruiser Contemplated—Thurman's Nomination.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—A number of petitions were presented praying for the suspension of silver coinage. Mr. Harrison reported favorably from the committee on territories an original bill to admit Dakota, and provide for the organization of the territory of Lincoln. Mr. Butler reserved the right to submit a minority report, if after perusal and consideration of the majority report he should conclude to do so.

EACH INFANTRY REGIMENT

shall consist of twelve companies, one colonel, one lieutenant-colonel, three majors, one adjutant, one quartermaster, one quartermaster's sergeant, and one chief musician. All appointments to the original vacancies above the grade of second lieutenant created by the act shall be filled by seniority in the infantry of the service.

CLOSED THE CIVIL WAR, and the maintenance of that number of men from the time of the Mexican war to that of the rebellion would not have equalled one-fifth part of the money cost of the civil war, to say nothing of the fearful loss of human lives.

PREPARED FOR WAR.

Not only were we liable for the happening of a foreign war, but we were constantly menaced with Indian outbreaks, and for even the latter we were unprepared. Mr. Manderson spoke warmly of the unceasing ravaging in the west, and the constant fears entertained by thousands of settlers that the "incarnate devils" would commit atrocities upon them and their households.

IN TIME OF WAR, thus violating an important maxim of military science that the peace organizations should be such as to admit of proper expansion in time of war.

TO ERECT MONUMENTS

becoming the greatness of the men and principles to be commemorated in these instances, and the government should therefore undertake the task as it had completed the monument to Washington.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The speaker laid before the house a communication from the clerk, transmitting papers in the various contested election cases.

Loyalists in Ireland Fighting the Home Rule Policy—England's Parliament to be Short Lived—Miscellany.

GERMANY.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Intelligence has been received that Germany has seized the islands of Samoa, in the Pacific Ocean. The king and his chiefs were insulted, and finally fled. Marines were landed from the German war ship Albatross. The German consul then hauled down the Samoan flag and ran up the German colors in its stead.

NOT CREDITED IN BERLIN.

BERLIN, Jan. 11.—No news of the reported seizure of the Samoan Islands, by the German war ship Albatross has been received by the German government.

REBELS CAPTURE A FORT.

LONDON, Jan. 11.—Advises have been received from Spain that rebels seized Fort St. Julian in Carthagena, and wounded the minister of war. The commotion attracted the attention of troops in the vicinity and they hastened to the scene of the disturbance.

THE REBEL FORCE.

MADRID, Jan. 11.—The rebels who made the attack on Fort Julian numbered seventy, including forty belonging to the garrison. A man-of-war has gone in pursuit of them. Carthagena has been declared in a state of siege.

THE CANNON CAPTURED

by the United States military or naval forces to be obliterated. Second, that he caused to be removed from the dry dock a tablet placed there at the time it was reconstructed, and bearing the inscription, "destroyed by rebels in 1822."

THE NORFOLK NAVY YARD,

and their places filled by men who fought against the government during the rebellion; by John Hayes, of Ohio, authorizing the secretary of the navy to be directed to inform the house on whose order, on what authority, and in pursuance of what law, such persons were discharged.

SENATE CONFIRMATIONS.

The senate to-day, in executive session, confirmed the following nominations: Benjamin F. Jones, of Louisiana, to be collector of customs for the district of New Orleans; Alfred P. Edgerton, of Fort Wayne, Ind., to be civil service commissioner; William L. Trenholm, of Charleston, S. C., to be civil service commissioner; Dorman B. Eaton, of New York, to be civil service commissioner.

ADDITIONAL HOUSE BILLS.

Among the house bills introduced was one by Adams, providing for the presidential succession. The bill introduced by Mr. Weaver for the issue of fractional currency directs the secretary of the treasury to reserve fractional currency to the amount of $75,000,000 in denominations of 10, 15, 25 and 50 cents.

OHIO.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 10.—The democratic members of the legislature held an open caucus to-night and nominated Allen G. Thurman for the United States senate, to be voted for in each branch of the legislature to-morrow, and in joint convention of the two bodies Wednesday.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The speaker laid before the house a communication from the clerk, transmitting papers in the various contested election cases.

THE PURITY OF THE BALLOT.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—The Union League club, republican, the Troop club, democratic, and the citizens association, representing both political parties, appointed representatives to meet January 20th to inspect and decide on the merits of certain patent ballot boxes, to determine which should be used.

THE GOLD WAVE IN TEXAS.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL. Presidential Nominations Reported to the Senate—Wyoming's Legislature.

EATON A MUGWUMP.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—In the executive session of the senate to-day nearly 500 nominations were reported from the committees, chiefly postmasters. The nominations sent by the president last Wednesday and to-day were referred to committees.

THE MISSING COUPLE.

They and many others claimed that if they had not been drowned they would be picked up by some passing vessel. They were finally given up as dead. The published statement is made to-day that the boat in which Mr. O'Rourke and Miss Larned embarked was not capsized, and that the couple, after rowing on the lake till dark, landed safely on the pier at the foot of Thirty-ninth street.

THEY OBTAINED ROOMS

at a hotel, but subsequently moved into cheap lodgings. As O'Rourke's purse was becoming empty he began to look around for employment, finally obtaining work as a porter in a dry goods store at a small salary.

THEY ARE NOT CUTTING RATES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The report that the Pennsylvania Railroad company has ordered a cut in passenger rates west from Baltimore to California with the Baltimore & Ohio, is denied by the company's officials in this city.

FOR THE UPPER LAKES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—A. M.—The signal service notes the following as its predictions for the next thirty-six hours: Fair warmer weather; variable winds generally shifting to southerly, and following in the northern portion during Wednesday by local snows; falling barometer.

A GARDEN CITY ROMANCE.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—During the early part of last September J. T. O'Rourke, a St. Louis lawyer, with a wife and family in that city, came to Chicago on an ostensible business trip.

OUT INTO THE LAKE

and were run into by a propeller or tug, and drowned. The boat was found September 6th at the foot of Sixty-third street, half full of water, and with both cars missing. This strengthened the supposition that the occupants had perished.
