Tuesday and Wednesday were fruitful of brawls. Henry Warner, the First sireet failor, got too demonstrative in his affectively gazing into vacancy. His craces of an all-night sitting. The tall-glender man shifted requently from one foot to the check, and played with his watch his hand. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Eugene, but after the case had been tried before Justice Kennedy his honor deedded that Henry must pay the costs, and the defendant was dismissed.

The reporter acknowledges receipt of an invitation. Mr. Blair has made a good road from the switch to the eamp, making a big improvement over last year.

Concerning Polo.

It is to be regretted that the Adelphis and Vineyards cannot have a frieudly game at the rink here. But it seems they can't. Hard words and plentiful abuse were fired back and forth for a time, and were followed by things more substantial. George threw a stick of cordwood at Austin and missed his mark. Austin returned the compiliment in kind with a stone, but took letter alm. George tied up his head in a meal sack and sought justice. A warrant for Waldlen's arrest was issued on the strength of Revette's graphic recital of his grievance. On the trial Wednesday afternoon Revette was unable to substantiate the stadements set forth in his complaint, and had to pay the costs, which he did like a little man.

Superiors vs. Vineyards.
The game between the Superiors of this eity, and the Vineyards, the champions of Houghton country, at the Superior rink last night, resulted in a straight victory for the Superiors, who took the first goal in two and a half minutes, the second in ten minutes and the third in seven. The game was marked by very good playing, and although defeated so badly, the copper country visitors showed many good points, and are a club not to be sneezed at. After the game the visitors were taken in charge by the home team and were of course well treated.
