THE CONVENTIONS.

The Results of the Deliberations at the Republican State Convention Yesterday.

THE DELEGATES TO CHICAGO INSTRUCTED FOR GEN. R. A. ALGER.

Meeting of the Michigan Greenbackers—Delaware Democrats for Cleveland. New Hampshire Republicans.

MICHIGAN REPUBLICAN MEET.

THE WORK DONE.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 8.—The republican convention to select delegates to the Chicago convention was called to order shortly after noon by temporary chairman Lacy. Mr. Lacy in his speech referred to General Alger in a happy manner and traced his career, dwelling particularly on his army record. He spoke of his charities, his executive abilities and took strong grounds in favor of working for Alger in the Chicago convention. Mr. Lacy was frequently interrupted by applause. The usual committees were appointed and the convention took a recess until 2:30 p. m.

District delegates to Chicago was chosen by five districts as follows: Fifth district, A. B. Watson, Cyril P. Brown; Alternates, Jos. Crysp, James H. Kidd; Sixth district, Wm. McPherson, W. B. McCree; alternates, C. S. Brown, J. Sumner Roger; Seventh district, Edgar Weeks, Harrison Gees; alternates, John McGill, James S. Ayers; Ninth district, E. O. Shaw, George Crawford; alternates, Wm. Mears, T. S. Germany; Eleventh district, S. M. Stephenson, Perry Hannah; Alternates, Joseph Sellwood, W. H. Rood.

The following have been chosen as the state central committee: First district, Henry M. Duffield, Charles Wright; Second, Thos. Applegate, Joel G. Jacobs; Third, B. A. Ingler, W. H. Withington; Fourth, D. A. Giddings, R. A. Copley; Fifth, G. W. Webber, Wm. A. Smith; Sixth, S. F. Kimball, Otis Fuller; Seventh, Wm. Hecker, A. R. Avery; Eighth, N. J. Brown, E. C. Stone; Ninth, N. McGrath, E. B. Martin; Tenth, F. Carrington, D. C. Page; Eleventh, T. T. Bates, H. O. Young.

The platform denounces the administration for its tariff policy, for its pension policy, for its fisheries policy and its "pretence" of civil service reform. The platform is particularly severe upon the wool clause in the Mills tariff bill; denounces the democratic party for identifying itself with the interests of the wool dealers throughout the country and instructs the delegates to Chicago to use every honorable means to place in nomination a ticket that will command universal confidence, parry every assault and be resistless at the polls.

The resolutions reaffirm the principles of the republican party as enunciated by previous national conventions; declare that the protective policy furnished the means to pay off the war debt, quadrupled the prosperity and the financial resources of the American people, rendered the nation absolutely independent, and employed and elevated labor and capital alike; it arraigns the present administration for its selfish and sectional tariff policy and especially for singling out the four great industries of Michigan for punishment and destruction.

The closing resolution presents the name of Russel A. Alger for president and calls on all Michigan delegates at Chicago to use every honorable means to secure his nomination for president.

The following were elected as delegates-at-large to the Chicago convention: Robert E. Fraser, J. K. Bois, W. Q. Atwood (colored) and F. Dunstan.

GREENBACK CONVENTION.

LANSING, Mich., May 8.—The national greenback state convention was called to order at 2 p. m. James I. Mead and W. H. Innes were chosen as delegates-at-large to the Cincinnati convention. Four delegations from each congressional district were elected. W. D. Fuller was made chairman of the state central committee. The resolutions were lengthy, declaring renewed fealty to greenback principles, and instructing the delegates to the national convention to unite with any organization adopting the essential principles of the greenback party, but no sentiment favoring a fusion with either of the old parties was apparent. The delegates were instructed to vote for the nomination of General Weaver for president.

DELAWARE DEMOCRATS.

WASHINGTON, Del., May 8.—The democratic state convention assembled to-day. Robert Hill was elected chairman. The platform renews the pledge of the democrats of Delaware to the principles of the party; endorses the administration and the course of Mr. Bayard as secretary of the state; endorses President Cleveland's views on the tariff and his opposition to monopolistic trusts; favors his renomination and closes by endorsing the Mills tariff bill.

The convention was harmonious and enthusiastic.

NEW HAMPSHIRE REPUBLICANS.

CONCORD, N. H., May 8.—The republican state convention to elect delegates to the national convention met to-day. J. H. Gallinger, temporary chairman, made a short address of congratulation upon the favorable outlook for the party. A reference to Blaine was greeted by long continued applause. Henry Burnham was made permanent chairman. Mr. Burnham made a long address in which he reviewed the career of the republican party, which, he said, had been of great benefit to the country, while the democratic party had given us "Grover Cleveland and three years of pretence and hypocrisy."

The Water in No. 5 Shaft of the Calumet & Hecla Believed to Be That Deep.

CALUMET, May 8.—[Special.]—No. 5 shaft of the Calumet & Hecla mine was opened this afternoon, and a skip went down to the twentieth level with Captain Daniels and six men on board. They had penetrated about two hundred feet toward No. 4 shaft, when they were stopped by gas. The air was very bad below the twentieth level. It is supposed that the water is above the twenty-fifth level. Pipes will be placed in this shaft and the work of pumping out will be begun immediately.

FATAL DYNAMITE EXPLOSION

At the Colby Mine—One Employee Killed and Three Others Injured.

BESSEMER, Mich., May 8.—[Special.]—A dynamite explosion occurred at the Colby mine at 8:15 this morning. Several boxes of dynamite, which had been brought from the powder house into the small rope house near the main engine house, exploded, killing Frank Robatsky and seriously injuring Richard Riddlestone, John Riddlestone and William Williams, employees of the mine. The engine house caught fire and was burned to the ground. The loss is about five thousand dollars.

ACCIDENTLY KILLED.

A Spectator of a Street Brawl Is Almost Instantly Killed in Ohio.

PITTSBURGH, May 8.—A special from East Liverpool, Ohio, says: A. T. Shaffer was killed on the street here last night. Wm. Boyd who had been drinking all evening approached a companion, and offered him a drink of liquor from a bottle. The man refused, and upon being pressed knocked the bottle from Boyd's hand to the ground, it being broken. Boyd became enraged, and picking up the fragments, threw them at his friend. The pieces missed him, but a large one struck Shaffer, in the neck, severing the jugular vein. He died in a few minutes. Boyd has been arrested.

A Banker's Mysterious Death.

NEW YORK, May 8.—The dead body of Nathaniel Hatch, banker, was found this morning in the yard in the rear of No. 64 West Twentieth street. Mrs. Scofield said that Mr. Hatch dined with her at a restaurant late last night. It was, she said, after midnight when they left the restaurant and Mr. Hatch accompanied her home. Arriving there she invited him in. Mr. Scofield was asleep at the time in the back parlor, but was aroused by the movements of his wife and Hatch. The latter was hastily concealed in a room on the second floor. Scofield's jealousy was aroused and he questioned his wife in the most violent way concerning the man. She refused to give the man's name, insisting that he had gone. There was a quarrel between the husband and wife which only ended when Scofield left the house. She searched the room but was unable to find Hatch. She then retired and knew no more of the banker or what had happened until the body was discovered. Scofield and wife have been arrested and will be held for trial.

Hon. James Birney Dead.

DAY CITY, Mich., May 8.—Hon. Jas. Birney died this forenoon after a week's illness from kidney and heart trouble. He was the son of Jas. G. Birney, who ran for president on the liberal ticket in 1840. The deceased was elected state senator in 1858, then lieutenant governor and then served as circuit judge for four years. In 1875 he went as United States minister to the Netherlands, resigning in 1882 and he has been practicing law since.

THE HEWITT AFFAIR.

Mr. Bryce, of New York, Has Read Minister West's Denial of the Story.

MR. WOODBURN REFUSES TO WITHDRAW HIS ACCUSATION.

The Tariff Debate Continued—Land Grant Forfeiture Measure in the Senate. Voorhees Apologizes.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Mr. Bryce (N. Y.) rising to a question of privilege, read a message received by Mr. Woodburn (Nev.), Saturday, in reference to ex-Congressman Hewitt's having apologized to the British minister for offering a resolution in the house as to the case of O'Donnell, under sentence of death in Great Britain. Mr. Bryce stated that he had denied the correctness of the statement and in vindication of his denial, read a telegram from Mayor Hewitt energetically denying that he had ever apologized to the British minister. Mr. Bryce also sent to the clerk's desk and had read a statement by Minister West in 1884, denying that Mr. Hewitt had apologized to him for his part in the transaction.

Mr. Bryce said: "It was plainly the purpose of the gentleman from Nevada to excite against Mr. Hewitt the animosity of a warm hearted and generous people, with whose struggles for liberty Mr. Hewitt had sympathized. I now leave the matter to the house without regard to partisanship and to the proper judgment of the American people which is always right."

Mr. Woodburn (Nev.) said he had never in his life knowingly made a charge that he could not substantiate. He did not regard the denial of the British minister as a denial of the charge. In fact it was an admission. When he made the charge he was informed by a gentleman who was on the floor at the time that he was one of the committee of three representative Irishmen delegated by an Irish organization to investigate the truth of the charge made against Mr. Hewitt. That gentleman had stated to him, and said he could prove it, that the result of the investigation was that A. S. Hewitt was guilty of the charge. One of the committee was a correspondent of the New York Irish World. It needed better authority than a letter over the signature of Mr. Hewitt. He had made the charge, and would not take it back.

After remarks on the subject by Mr. Brumm (Pa.) the subject was dropped and the house went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill.

Mr. Stockdale (Mass) took the floor and continued of his speech in favor of the bill. He said that the cotton plants had received little consideration in the legislation of the past. The cotton industry was the favorite of the colored man. In the name of justice and humanity he appealed for relief for the colored people. They should no longer be held in servitude to the gigantic protected industries from which they derived no benefit and to which they were under no obligations.

Mr. Hopkins (Ill.) opposed the bill. He said the fact could not be kept from the people in the coming campaign that the democratic party stood committed to the doctrine of free trade. That the party had come into power by practicing a system of false pretences upon the American people unparalleled in the history of political parties. Did the party send Mr. Carlisle to New York before the last election to explain the tariff plank of the Chicago platform? Did it send Mr. Henshall there to talk to the laborers as he had talked during the debate on the floor? No; the managers of the democratic party knew that New York could never be carried in that way. When the columns were shaken and DEFEAT SEEMED INEVITABLE, they turned to the brainiest and ablest man in the party. They called for Samuel J. Randall, and he went to New York to explain to the voters there that the manufacturing interests could not be disturbed in the event of the success of the democratic party. It had been Mr. Randall's boast that his efforts had made it possible for Mr. Cleveland to occupy the presidential chair. How had the democratic party repaid his efforts? If rumor was correct Mr. Randall was no longer a visitor at the White House; his counsel was no longer sought or heeded by his party; his influence had been curtailed by raising up a rival whose control of federal patronage had been used to humiliate and disgrace the once honored leader of the democratic party. In conclusion he entered his solemn protest against this attempt to overthrow the business industries of the country.

Mr. Mansur (Mo) delivered an exhaustive speech in support of the bill.

Mr. Taylor (Ohio) spoke against the bill, and Mr. Richardson (Tenn) and Mr. McAdoo (N. J.) in its favor. The committee then rose and the house took a recess till 8 p. m., the evening session to be for debate on the tariff bill.

THE EVENING SESSION.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—At the evening session the debate on the tariff was resumed. Mr. Shipman (Mich) denied that Mills' bill was a free trade bill. He did not pledge himself in advance to vote for it, as he had some amendments to propose, but these amendments he would offer in perfect good faith because he believed the bill to be an honest endeavor to benefit the people.

Mr. Martin (Tex.) contrasted the respective status of the two sides of the house on the tariff question, declaring that the democrats were boldly struggling for the interests of the country while the republicans, standing on the tariff of 1861 and 1883, resisted all efforts for tariff revision. He was opposed to protection. (Applause.) He was for labor. (Applause.) In concluding Mr. Martin said: "We have now before us a campaign in which the democratic party calls for a reduction of taxation. We are fighting for it and the republican party is fighting against it. (Applause.) We will have hoisted at the mast head the name of the glorious Cleveland and in fighting the battle of the people we will go into Kansas, Iowa and Michigan and all other western states and carry them against protection. We will carry this great nation for Grover Cleveland, the president of the United States. (Loud and long continued applause in the galleries and on the floor.) The house then, at 9:20, adjourned.

THE SENATE.

VOORHEES APOLOGIZES.
WASHINGTON, May 8.—After the transaction of the morning's business, and while Mr. Harris was in the chair and Mr. Ingalls on the floor, Mr. Voorhees rose and said: "Mr. President, if I do not interfere with the business of the senate I desire to make a statement which I conceive to be due to the senate and which is personal to myself. It is well known that I have been seriously indisposed and confined to my room for the past week. I visited the senate yesterday for the purpose of making the statement which I shall make now; but the opportunity did not present itself yesterday so I withdrew. Referring to the discussion in which I participated last week, I desire to say to the senate that however severe the provocation which was given, yet I made use of language at the time contrary to parliamentary rules and usages and to the decorum of the senate. I regret having used such language and tender the proper apology to the senate of the United States for doing so. My high respect for the dignity of this body, of which I have been for many years a member, as well as my self-respect induce me to make this statement."

Without any comment on his part, Mr. Ingalls resumed his seat as presiding officer. The senate then resumed the consideration of the railroad land grant forfeiture bill, the question being on an amendment offered yesterday by Mr. Palmer, to one offered by Mr. Spooner, on the 30th of April.

Mr. Dolph moved to lay on the table Mr. Palmer's amendment to Mr. Spooner's amendment, it being that nothing in the act shall be construed to confirm any private entry for land heretofore settled upon and now claimed under color of the homestead or pre-emption laws, but that in all such cases the commissioner-general of the land office and the secretary of the interior shall hear and determine the claims of the parties respectively, according to the provision of the existing law. The amendment was laid on the table.

Mr. Berry moved to lay on the table the amendment offered by Mr. Spooner—that the provision confirming the title of persons holding or claiming lands in the state of Michigan be disposed of by the proper officer of the United States under the public land law, provided that the secretary of the interior be satisfied that the cash purchases were made without fraud and in the belief that the purchasers were obtaining a valid title shall not be construed as confirming any sales or entries upon land which were bona fide preemption or homestead claims on May 1st, 1888.

Mr. Palmer offered an amendment that nothing in the bill be construed as excepting from forfeiture that portion of the grant conferred by the state of Michigan on the Marquette & Ontonagon Railroad company lying west of Lansing.

Mr. Edmunds moved to recommit the bill to the committee on public lands with instructions to report it back amended as soon as might be. He wished this committee to reframe it so as to keep it within the definite decisions of the supreme court and to protect every real right of every citizen and wind up every unexecuted railroad grant and make an end of it.

The motion to recommit was opposed by Senators Blair and Dolph and defeated, only nine senators voting for it.

The question was then taken on Mr. Palmer's amendment and was agreed to—yeas 16, nays 16. Mr. Palmer then moved an amendment to patent the lands covered by the part construction of the Ontonagon & Brule River railroad. Rejected.

Mr. Hoar offered an amendment affecting the lands in Michigan and was asked by Mr. Berry whether the effect of it would be to confirm the lands held by the Portage Ship Canal company.

Mr. Hoar replied that it would have that effect if it should turn out that the land was conveyed to the canal company by the officers of the United States. He was at a loss to conceive how any man born with a sense of justice could refuse to confirm a title under such circumstances.

To this Mr. Berry retorted that he was at a loss to conceive how any one born with a sense of justice and right would undertake to confirm a title founded in fraud, as this title was shown to be by the report of the house committee on pub-

The Atlantic Mining company will thoroughly explore section six of its property the coming summer. This section is near the six mile hill on the Ontonagon road where Mr. E. Ryan has discovered a very rich vein in a shaft sunk by him a year ago.

County clerk Primeau has issued marriage licenses No. 167 to Olat Kallatga and Eva Mathilda Tunovara, both of Quincy; No. 168 to Moise St. Jean and Telense Gouvreuse, both of Franklin; No. 169 to Agne Emar and Mary Marcotte, both of Lake Linden; No. 170 to Henry Weber and Jeannette E. Stewart, of Jacobsville.

Miss Nettie Richards, the accommodating and efficient postmistress, returned to duty yesterday morning, after a two weeks' absence caused by sickness.

Mrs. Robert Bryant, of Huronton, fell down stairs last Saturday and broke her arm just above the wrist. This is the second time within a few months that Mrs. Bryant has had her arm broken.

CALUMET.
CALUMET, May 8.—John C. Glassen, one of the oldest members of the Calumet cornet band, left this morning for Vancouver, British Columbia. Glassen has been with the band for twelve years, and played solo B-flat cornet.

Number 5 shaft of the Calumet branch of the mine was opened yesterday afternoon, and in the evening a party of miners went down 700 feet, where they found the shaft closed by a solid mass of ice. It seems like a joke on the mine authorities, who have been taking the temperature daily near the surface for the past six months, to find the thing frozen up at the bottom.

LAKE LINDEN.
LAKE LINDEN, May 8.—Editor Wilson and Mr. Joseph Basch left this morning for Grand Rapids as delegates to the democratic state convention.

Preparations are being made at the Calumet & Hecla smelting works for the erection of an additional furnace.
Mr. Theodore Elyoff, a brother of Mrs. A. A. Guck, died here Saturday evening. His remains were taken to Marquette for burial.

Joseph Gregory's mill will start its season's cut for 1888 on Monday next.

RED JACKET.
RED JACKET, May 8.—The dry goods store of Messrs. Hosking & Culnan and the office of T. M. Lyon were yesterday connected with the telephone exchange.

Judging from the preparations the ladies are making for their leap year party at the opera house next Friday evening it will be a grand success. A special train will be run on the Mineral Range, and they have secured the Calumet cornet band to furnish the music.

The opera house last evening held a good-sized audience of French Canadians to listen to the drama "Le Retour de l'Exile," presented by the Lake Linden Club d'Alert. The play is a very interesting one and the actors each and all read their lines well. After the performance a social dance was given.

OPECHEE.
OPECHEE, May 8.—Fire broke out yesterday afternoon in the roof of the Osceola compressor house. The roof being slate, the flames were confined to the interior. The Red Jacket fire department, which had been telephoned for, arrived very promptly and did splendid service. The boys say "it was fun to see the slate shingles forced off by the stream of water." The damage done to the building was $1,200. The machinery was uninjured and there was no detention from work.

CHASSELL.
CHASSELL, May 8.—The new township of Chassell had its first election yesterday. The following ticket was elected: Supervisor, Thomas A. Trevathan; clerk, Albert Thiboutot; district commissioner, George J. Bentley; school inspectors, Charles H. Warner and Delphice Brunelle; highway commissioner, Peter Destrap; overseer of highways, August Pidgeon; justices of the peace, Otin D. ALUM BAKING POWDERS Declared Adulterated Food and Their Sale Illegal.

The result of a trial just concluded at Canton, N. Y., before Judge Kellogg will have a salutary effect in checking the sale of one class of adulterated food. Two men, named Moon and Akerril, were arrested for selling adulterated baking powder in violation of the State food adulteration act. The indictment was for both selling baking powders that were inferior, adulterated and injurious to health by reason of being made from alum, and for selling them under a pretense that they were a wholesome, cream of tartar baking powder. A stubborn defence was made, the claim being set up that baking powders were not articles of food and that the powder the defendants were selling, which was known as Gillett's, was a standard article of trade, and that alum baking powders inferior to it, like Davis' and others, were being sold by other dealers in the same town without complaint. The court held that baking powders were articles of food within the meaning of the law, and the jury found the defendants guilty upon all the charges. The case has attracted much attention from being the first brought under the State Food Adulteration Act against dealers in alum baking powders. The result of the trial is to class such baking powders as adulterated articles of food and to make their sale illegal. There are many alum baking powders put up in cans, under some name or brand, in addition to those sold in bulk, the sale of all of which cautious dealers will probably be unwilling to continue.

HOW TO CATCH $300,000 AT FORTUNE'S HAND.

As the sun rises and sets daily with equal regularity, so the drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery company occur: so the 215th Grand Monthly Drawing was at New Orleans, La., on Tuesday (always Tuesday) April 10th, when large money prizes were sent blither and yonder over the world. It may interest you to glance over the result: The First Capital Prize of $150,000 was won by No. 12,615 and was sold in two half tickets at $5 each, sent through office at Washington, D. C. to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.: one $75,000 was paid through First National Bank of Pittsburgh, Pa., to Col. W. H. Barclay, the U. S. pension agent there; the other half was paid the Adams Express for George Groz and three other workers in an India rubber factory—neighbors—at No. 2,938, Alter street, Philadelphia, Pa. No. 19,882 drew the Second Capital Prize of $50,000, sold in fractional tickets at $1 each, sent to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La.: one paid to J. Hall, Richmond, Va.; one to Charles F. Morse, No. 880 Harrison avenue, Boston, Mass.; one the National Bank of the Republic, Washington, D. C.; one to R. J. Humphreys, Santa Rosa, through the Pacific Bank of San Francisco, Cal.; one to Thos. Patr, Philadelphia, Pa.; one to W. A. Francis, Salem, Va.; one to Wm. Severance, Lebanon, Ky.; one to a depositor through Wells, Fargo & Co., San Francisco, Cal.; one to a party in Detroit, Mich., etc., etc. No. 10,079 drew the Third Capital Prize of $20,000, which was sold to a party in New Orleans, La., whose name is withheld by request. Nos. 36,629 and 55,175 each drew one of the two Fourth Capital Prizes of $10,000, which were scattered around promiscuously. Be sure to participate in the Grand Quarterly and 217th Grand Monthly Drawing at New Orleans, La., on June 12th, 1888. Do not allow the opportunity to seize $300,000 at Fortune's hand escape you.

"MAY GOD BLESS YOU!"

A Boston Paper-Hanger's Trouble and How He Got Out of It—Plain Words From the Sunny South.

When we are in trouble we cry for help. When we are relieved we often forget to be thankful. But not always. Mr. W. W. Green, of Front Creek, St. Clair Co., Ala., writes: "I had a bad attack of malarial fever. My system was full of malaria. For two years I was scarcely able to work at all. Some time my heart would palpitate for two hours at a time. My legs would get cold to the knees, and I fully expected to die. In September, 1881, I bought a bottle of Shaker Extract of Roots, or Seize's Curative Syrup, of my agent, Mr. R. M. King, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt better, and in a short time was able to go to work. May God bless you for the good you have done." Mr. Wm. J. McLean, 59 Handel St., Boston writes: "Six months ago I began to throw up my food after eating. I thought I was going into consumption. I soon began to have pain in my chest, stomach and sides. I got little sleep and would all tired out. I once lost five pounds in four days. I began using Shaker Extract of Roots, or Seize's Syrup, and when I had finished the sixth bottle I could eat three square meals a day, and go to sleep the minute I struck the bed. I am a paper-hanger by trade, and have worked every day since I took the second bottle, and gained eighteen pounds. I ought to be thankful and I am. This remedy opens all the natural passages of the body, expels the poison from the blood and enables nature to rebuild what disease has destroyed. Shaker Extract of Roots, or Seize's Syrup, is sold by all druggists, or send to the proprietor, A. J. White, 54 Warren street, New York.

NEGAUNEE'S BUDGET.

One of "Our Girls" Gets Married at San Diego, Cal.—To Assist at the Sacred Concert—Social, Business and Personal Notes.

Mr. Newton L. Sample and Miss Florence Cyr were married Tuesday evening, May 1st, at St. Paul's Episcopal church, San Diego, California. The newly wedded couple will take up their residence in that city. Miss Cyr is a daughter of Dr. L. D. Cyr, of this place, who spent the winter in California, and a sister of Mrs. W. J. Crane, also of Negaunee. Mr. Sample is known to Negaunee people by reason of his visits here in the past. The MINEING JOURNAL wish Mr. and Mrs. Sample unbounded prosperity in their journey through life.

A meeting of Negaunee parties who are interested in the sacred concert to be given at Marquette at the close of the present month was held at the rink last night. That it is under the direction of Prof. Fohrman, of this city, who has achieved great success in entertainments of a similar character, insures its success, and it will undoubtedly attract a large attendance from here. Those having the management of the concert in charge are now negotiating with the C. & N. W. company for special trains from Menominee and intermediate points to Marquette, to accommodate people from outside who desire to attend the concert.

On the second page of this paper appears the announcement of Fohrman Bros., of this city, who now have the wholesale agency of the celebrated Steck pianofortes for the upper peninsula. The firm's office is at the Breitung House. This piano is an instrument of excellent tone and workmanship, as is attested by the many testimonials from renowned musicians. The firm has an established reputation on the peninsula, and those contemplating the purchase of a piano should not fail to see the Messrs. Fohrman.

The workmen are rushing things at the new school building. The furniture has been removed from the rink and seats are being put down in the new structure by the dozen, while P. F. Donahoe and his men are cleaning up the store trimmings and otherwise improving the exterior of the building.

The Edwin Clifford Dramatic company will open a two-nights engagement at the opera house this evening. "A Wife's Peril" and "Two Orphans" are the plays to be rendered. Clifford has been a visitor to Negaunee for years and his popularity ensures him good houses. Reserved seat tickets are on sale at Kirkwood's.

Negaunee talent has been quite liberally drawn upon for the production of the "Chimes of Normandy" under the direction of Prof. Owen, of Ishpeming. The opera is an excellent one and a good house in Negaunee may be counted upon.

Beach & Bowers' minstrels played here Monday night to a crowded house. This company improves every year and this season it gives an exceedingly fine entertainment. It has the best band that has visited the peninsula this year.

C. S. Mitchell has no room to continue the wall paper department of his store and offers to close it out either by job lot or retail, at low prices. Those interested will do well to examine his announcement this morning.

Amey Mohrer, wife of Alfred Mohrer, died Monday morning at the residence of her husband. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

A large addition has been built to the house at the corner of Peck street and Teal Lake avenue, formerly owned by G. Carmichael.

Three D. S. S. & A. engines were sent to the western division of the road yesterday via the C. & N. W.

NOTING that somebody quotes Capt. Sellwood as asserting that the Colby mine "will ship 300,000 tons of ore this year", the Gogebic Mining Record pronounces the statement misleading. The Colby could ship that quantity if there were a demand for it, the Record says, but it will not be likely to place it on a sluggish and reluctant market.

HARD WORK is beginning to tell on Sam Randall, and he has been compelled to absent himself from his seat for several days at a time recently to "rest up." Probably his position of antagonism to the tariff-reform policy of his party is impairing his resisting powers. A man needs tremendous vitality to stand up against his party as Randall has done for years, and aid the opposition to defeat its purposes.

On the heels of the reported sale of the "Sop" line to the Canadian Pacific company comes a well-authenticated denial of its verity. A Minneapolis gentleman who is heavily interested in the line, and connected with its management, declares that no such sale has been made, the report to that effect having no more tangible foundation than the fact that a traffic arrangement between the consolidated lines—known as Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie—and the Canadian road has been entered into.

In convention assembled yesterday, the republicans of Michigan decided to give the delegation from this state to Gen. Alger in the national convention at Chicago. They did it as if they meant it, too, and with a cordial enthusiasm denoting that they intend to make a robust effort to capture the first place on the party ticket for their candidate. If they should succeed at Chicago, the MINING JOURNAL begs to suggest a change in the popular designation for the state. It should be called the "Algerine" instead of the "Wolverine" state in that event, so as to perpetuate the victory achieved by its dashing ex-governor.

This office is in receipt of James M. Swank's compilation of statistics of the American and foreign iron trades for 1887, just issued by the American Iron and Steel association. It is a very valuable work, giving, as it does, statistics covering the production of iron ore, iron and steel in this and foreign countries, and a brief but comprehensive review of the condition of the trade generally. Persons engaged or interested in any of the various branches of the iron industry will find it an invaluable source of reliable information, and should secure a copy if not already provided with one. The price is $2, and it can be obtained by sending the money to the secretary of the association, 261 South Fourth St., Philadelphia.

The Catholics of Ireland are not manifesting much inclination to accept the pope's rescript regarding their political affairs as having binding force, though they are careful to state that they do not rebel against his authority in spiritual matters. A meeting of laymen of that faith was held at Dublin Saturday, which was presided over by the Lord Mayor, to consider the rescript. Resolutions denying the pope's right to dictate the policy to be pursued by the Irish people in their struggle to secure for themselves the blessings of self-government were adopted, and the sentiment evoked unmistakably indicated that the effort of the tory ministry to accomplish through papal interference what it has failed to bring about by its brutal policy of coercion will come to naught.

There will be a big gathering of "Cleveland democrats" at Grand Rapids to-morrow, when the state convention of that party will meet there to choose delegates to the national convention at St. Louis. In fact, there are no other kind of democrats in Michigan, however it may be elsewhere in the union. President Cleveland is solid with the Michigan democracy, and nowhere in the state are the members of that political faith more enthusiastic for him than in the upper peninsula, where every democrat is a believer in the principle of protection, and in favor of its application to guard our industries from hurtful foreign competition. This seems very singular to republicans, but the explanation of it is that the democrats don't believe that Cleveland is a "free trader," though their republican neighbors are very decidedly of the opinion that he is "simply that and nothing more." It is certainly very queer that although the president's message was couched in plain and easily understood language, democrats and republicans should differ so as to what it means. For that matter, when men want to differ it is pretty hard to make them agree, and perhaps it is just as well that they shouldn't. It would be mighty dry work for newspaper writers if the only political issues raised were real ones.

The Sunday Telegraph, of Milwaukee, has this comment on the late Matthew Arnold's churlish criticisms on this country, which is the most forcible and just reply thereto that we have yet seen put into so small a compass. It is from the pen of Elizabeth Baker Bohan, whose occasional contributions to that paper are one of its many valuable features:

Because it has no magnificent public buildings, no ruined castles, and few really great works of art, America is an uninteresting country. So says Matthew Arnold. Now, every lover of nature knows that if we have not so much of man's work, we have more of God's than fifty Englands. What they have upon canvas we have in reality. What is a pictured mountain to a real one? What is a ruined castle or man-made cathedral to our Cathedral rocks, our Garden of the Gods, our Royal Gorge? What of our Yosemite, our Niagara? Mathew Arnold, where was your soul when you wrote that America was uninteresting? Truthfully have you said that it has no past, but untruthfully that it is uninteresting. Better—far better—is the promise of a glorious future than the memory of a decayed past.

WOMEN IN BUSINESS.
In this age of extreme activity and wonderful development, it is a noteworthy fact that many women have made their own way in mercantile life, and successfully compete with men in many lines of business. Women, whether the labor in work, or in the household, are liable to suffer from functional derangements and the cares of maternity. For all troubles known under the category of "female weakness," Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a tonic and tried specific. It relieves the greatest sufferer, and restores the patient to vigorous health and strength. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee, from the manufacturer, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. The guarantee has been printed on the bottle wrapper and faithfully carried out for many years. Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, bilious headache, and all derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

IS CONSUMPTION INCURABLE?
Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable Consumptive. began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."
Jesse Middleler, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health. I sample the bottle free at H. H. Stafford & Son's drug store."

AN END OF BONE SCRAPING.
Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 50c per box by H. H. Stafford & Son.

New Swedish Paper Projected—An Excursion to Iron Mountain Talked Of—Crystal Wedding Celebrated.

Another Newspaper.

Ishpeming is, apparently, a favorite field for newspaper enterprises, and to the list of papers already published here one more is to be added.

A joint stock company is now being formed with an ample paid-up capital in cash to publish a weekly Swedish newspaper. The movement was set on foot by pastor Stolpe, of the Bethany Swedish Lutheran church, and he has been assisted by the pastors of all the Swedish Lutheran churches in the Green Bay district. This district, which is under control of the Augustana synod, numbers about thirty congregations in northern Wisconsin and the upper peninsula of Michigan, and stock in the new publishing company will be held by members of all these congregations.

It is expected to issue the first number of the paper next week if the necessary arrangements can be perfected in the meantime. A name for the paper has not yet been chosen. The paper is to be a five column quarto, or just twice the size of the late Forposten. It will be republican in politics, and will also be a strong organ of the Lutheran church.

Crystal Wedding.

A number of friends assembled at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jochim, on North Pine street, Sunday evening last, the occasion being the fifteenth anniversary of their wedding day. A number of valuable presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Jochim, and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. Mr. and Mrs. Jochim left Ishpeming the following day for New York, and on Monday next will sail for Europe on the steamer City of Berlin. Their address, till August 8th, will be Metala, Sweden.

An Excursion.

Giteche Gumeo lodge No. 22, Improved Order of Red Men, will give an excursion from Ishpeming to Iron Mountain and return via the South Shore and Milwaukee & Northern lines on Saturday, May 20th. Arrangements are now being made for special trains, and if the price at which they can be obtained is satisfactory, round trip tickets will cost only two dollars. The excursion train will be the first ever run direct from Ishpeming to the metropolis of the Menominee range, and it will doubtless carry several hundred people.

The city assessor has begun his rounds, and will complete the assessment roll of the city this month. The board of review will meet before June 1st.

THE RUSSIAN BEAR.

INFERIORITY OF THE MUSCOVITE
AS AN ALLY.

The Great Unknown Quantity in Russia.
Defensive Strength of the Country.
Risks of a Franco-Russian Alliance.
Military Point of View.

So much for France and her army; what is the Russian situation? It was not the French, but our deplorable military administration that beat us in the Crimea, say the Russian generals. And the scandals revealed during the Russo-Russian war of 1877-8 show that not much improvement in that quarter had been made in the 21 years which separate Sebastopol from Plevna. The czar is the sworn enemy of peonage and corruption, but, alone at the summit of the bureaucratic pyramid, Alexander cannot reach the legions of filibusters who swarm around his base. He may make examples of colonels and some of generals, but abuses continue in spite of imperial efforts at their suppression. It was ascertained very recently that in some of the cavalry regiments neither the men nor the horses received their proper rations; the guilty parties are meditating in the Oural over their misdemeanors, but there is no assurance and there can be none that, with the same maladministration, the imperial troops will not suffer from the same shortcomings of quartermasters and commissaries that disgraced the last campaign in Bulgaria. It is a awful pity, too, for otherwise Russia would be the first of all military powers. She has numbers and she has quality; her infantry soldier is unequalled; the steadiness of the German and the dash of the Great Britain unites the sobriety of the Spaniard and the resignation of the Turk; he is enduring and he is ingenious; and to these splendid footmen Russia can add an indefatigable and invulnerable cavalry, her sotas of Cossacks, these centaurs of the steppes which, like the hordes of Attila, can inundate the territory of her enemies, although the thickly wooded and marshy frontiers of European Russia are less appropriate than is commonly imagined to the movements and deployment of mounted troops.

RUSSIA'S INFERIORITY.

But Russian generals know not the value of their men. Many of them learned the practice of the art of war in Bulgaria. All are educated officers, bold and brave. Their officers are confident, and inspire confidence, and yet it must be admitted that neither Russian generals, nor Russian officers, nor the Russian staff possess the same cohesion, the same science or the same experience as those of Germany. And supposing them to be their equals, supposing an analogous unity of command, there would still always exist a double inferiority—that arising from defective administration and defective or insufficient means of concentration. This last point, given a general European war, is of capital importance, especially for Russia's eventual allies.

In France and in Germany the time necessary for the mobilization of 1,000,000 of men can be estimated in four and twenty hours. In Russia, that time is an unknown quantity of the redoubtable problem, and without that unknown quantity it is impossible to calculate the real value of Russian co-operation. How many days may be required or how many weeks or even months; how many hundred thousand soldiers can be mustered in the first line, how many in the second, how many in reserve, nobody can answer, for nobody knows how to answer, and only one thing is absolutely certain, and this, the Russian newspapers confess, Russia's mobilization must be incomparably and vastly slower than that of either of her neighbors. Nor could it be otherwise, with distance instead of the railways less numerous, less well appointed and managed, of which the majority have only a single track, and very few have special platforms for the embarkation and landing of horses, troops and material. These disadvantages cannot be contested, and they alone are sufficient to explain why, in provision of events, the imperial government should have taken those precautions along the frontiers which have so exercised the susceptibilities of Austria-Hungary.

This undeniable inferiority of Russia is especially dangerous to her future allies. At home Russia is safe; she may be invaded, as she was by Charles VII and by Napoleon, but Russia's invaders generally fare badly, and to get out of her vast territory is easier than to get into it, and what would be the fate of a western ally not prudent enough to adjourn its action until Russian mobilization be entirely completed? True, Russia's enemies will scarcely allow her allies to select their moment.

THE RISKS NOT EQUAL.

In a Franco-Russian alliance the risks are not equally shared by both powers. Russia can hide her time, but France must meet all the brunt from the outset. The gain of the first battle would bring the Germans into the heart of Champagne; with a second victory they might surge on to Paris, while the northern coasts would scarcely feel the blows received by her provinces of Lithuania, Esthonia and Poland. Every invasion of Russia has always ended in disaster to the enemy; every invasion of France has been successful. Perhaps railways may have deprived Russia of that invulnerability which was secured to her in former days by distances, and, perhaps, with a railroad at his disposal, Napoleon might not have been forced to evacuate Moscow. But there is something about Russia which cannot be seized upon. She is, as one might say, a species of inorganic being without either heart or head at which a fatal blow could be dealt. She is not possessed of one capital of which the capture would conquer a peace, and with her climate campaigns cannot be indefinitely prolonged. Supposing the czar's armies to be always defeated, the victor would be troubled in gleaning the fruits of his triumphs. And to what point must an enemy advance before he can force Russia to ask for terms? Russia has a power of resistance resulting from her size and from her structure, but this power of resistance cannot be communicated to her allies. The czar may confine his struggles on the banks of the Don and the Volga for months after any western ally has been obliged to cry enough.

Spite of her millions of soldiers, Russia's strength is, above all, defensive. Her advantages, which in the course of another century must make her the mistress of Europe, is in her mass, but in that mass, the cause of her great superiority in the defense of her soil, is an obstacle to offense. And so it has been proved by the last great war in which Russia took part, when three campaigns were needed to crush the Turks in Armenia and Bulgaria. Without any doubt, united France and Russia, well commanded, could hold their own against all the rest of Europe; but France, by her situation, would be the most exposed, because she is the most vulnerable. She must face an enemy on every side, on every frontier, on sea and on land, in Europe and in Africa, and without any certainty that her distant ally would have time or means to come to her assistance. From a military point of view, all the advantages of a Franco-Russian alliance will be for Russia; all the dangers would be for France.—Paris Cor. New York Times.

AFFAIRS AT IRON RIVER.

Mining and Exploratory Operations There and Thereabout—The Furnace About to Close Down—Other News Gittings.

IRON RIVER, May 8.—At Sheridan's mine, on the McKinnon tract, southeast of southeast 1/4, 26, 43-35, work was resumed a few days ago. The contract was first let to Richard Peters, of Florence, who came on the ground but for some reason gave up the job and returned home. Mr. Sheridan then let the contract to John Lrke, lately of Wauceedah, who had considerable experience in tunnelling, rock work and stripping in the east. He is to mine and load the ore on board the cars as soon as the track is laid. He has now about twenty-five men employed, which force will be increased in about another week to fifty men, divided into day and night shifts. It is expected to begin stocking ore in a week or so. What is known as the east dock is now completed for a length of 100 feet and the west dock, the same length, will be finished in a week. The principal work for the past few days was keeping surface of water out of the working, and getting the boilers in place.

Quite a large body of ore has been struck in the south drift of the Nanatno mine. The company is driving two other drifts, in one of which it is expected that the ore will be struck in a few days.

John McDonald, general merchant and former pusher of the Beta mine, which has been idle all winter, returned from the south on the 2d to stay. He says that he will resume operations at the Beta within the next two weeks, as he sold all the ore that can be mined during the season.

Capt. John Westerberg has again taken hold of the Isabella mine and is expected to push work there as hard as he can.

There are but five or six men employed at the Iron River mine, Stambaugh, but the force will soon be increased.

The Gogebic furnace is expected to close down for good this week, and there is no telling when it will start up again. There is no ore or coal on hand, and as a change of ownership must soon take place, it is thought hardly worth while to make any further arrangements for material. The kilns will be kept busy until all the wood on hand is charred, after which the coal will be shipped to the Ashland furnace.

The water in the rivers and creeks in this vicinity has been very high for several days and the logs are going down in good order.

Nick Gilman, of this village, has purchased a saw mill at Wilson, and is now engaged tearing it down preparatory to removing it to Iron River. It is yet uncertain where it is to be located. The plant includes a lath and shingle mill, and is expected to saw about 25,000 feet daily.

Eleven saloon keepers have taken out licenses here. Three of last years number failed to put up, and have gone out of business.

The Presbyterians here have decided to build a church. The building is to be 60x25. The lumber will soon be on the ground, when the work of erecting it will begin.

The Catholics are engaged now in building a parsonage for their priest which is another step in the right direction.

Gust Corberg, who has been employed by John McDonald as clerk in his store for the past fourteen months, returned to his home at Green Bay last Friday. Mr. McDonald and his sons will hereafter attend to their customers.

Michael Boskey, an old-time blacksmith and one of our pioneers, sold out his property here last week and removed to De Pere, Wis. The purchaser was Robert Quinn, and the consideration $800.

An examination of the Peterson Bros. explorations on section 28, 44-36, Ayers' estate, last week, shows sufficient encouragement to warrant further work. A boiler and pump is daily expected.

THE SOO RIVER OPEN.

A Big Fleet Reaches Sault Ste. Marie at 5:30 Yesterday Afternoon.

MARQUETTE MEN LOOKING INTO A GOOD VENTURE.

Primary School Fund—Wheat For Seed—Clifford's Engagement—Marine Cossid—The Brunswick Farm.

Reached the Sault. Navigation will open at Marquette this week. On Saturday the little passenger propeller Minnie M., a great ice boat for her size, left Cheboygan for the Sault determined to be the first boat to break through the icy barrier in Mud Lake. She has been pounding away ever since and yesterday got through closely followed by the Osage, another local propeller. Both arrived at Sault Ste. Marie at 5:30 o'clock, P. M., opening the river for navigation for the season of 1888. The coal fleet must be close at their heels and will probably reach Marquette before Thursday night. Now's the time to name the hour for a new hat. A later dispatch, received by the MINING JOURNAL says: The Wilson line steamers Kalluga, Mecosta, Sitka, Spokane and Missoula for Duluth, the Toledo of Ward's line, arrived at 5:30 with the Minnie M., and Ossage which had been in the in Mud Lake for 48 hours.

A Good Thing. Mr. George Korter, of Negaunee, exhibited to a representative of the MINING JOURNAL a number of specimens of fine mineral paints and caustic tile stuffs yesterday. Mr. Korter is negotiating with Marquette capitalists, and a mill will probably soon be erected for the grinding of the materials and the making of paints and floor tiles. He had six splendid natural pigments with him yesterday, and eleven colors for tiles, while the Milwaukee tile works can produce only three colors. The tiles are made by mixing the colors with cement, and are the same as were used for the flooring of the First National bank here. Marquette builders have carefully examined Mr. Korter's specimens, and are greatly delighted with them. The cost of the necessary paint is not great while the mineral paints bring $20 a ton on the market and are in great demand. The raw material costs almost nothing.

Mr. Korter also has a fine deposit of clay near Negaunee and a fine grade of granite. If the right arrangements can be made both deposits will be opened up speedily. The brick exhibited by him were of a very good quality, the clay being very smooth and free from lime while the color is all that could be desired, being a cherry red. Further particulars in the matter will be made public as soon as the developments will warrant it.

"The Brunswick Farm. Mr. Dan Sullivan, proprietor of the Hotel Brunswick, has leased seven acres of land just west of the brewery from Mr. Hennessey for two years and will at once become a grazer. Since entering the hotel business, Mr. Sullivan's patronage has steadily increased and most of the time the Brunswick has not had an empty room within it. The host declares that he has the hungriest lot of guests in seven states and when a few weeks ago he found that he had paid out very nearly $500 for potatoes alone he concluded that there was one business on the upper peninsula that is better than gold mining—farming. The result was an advertisement headed "Wanted, the Earth" which appeared in the MINING JOURNAL and excited the wildest curiosity throughout the city. By the way Dan's advertising instinct comes to him naturally. That he would make an artist in that line the ad. referred to shows; while E. C. Sullivan, his brother, is probably the best known and most wide awake advertising agent in Michigan, handling the business of several immense Detroit houses and is up to all the latest dodges, from a cyclorama guide to a "change" warranted to drive a foreman crazy in five minutes by the watch.

But to return to the potato patch. Through the advertisement Mr. Sullivan secured the Hennessey tract of seven acres of land, splendidly adapted for market gardening; he will use five acres for growing potatoes and vegetables for the Brunswick tables, and two acres for pasture, where he will keep three cows, thus entering the milk business also. He will purchase a horse and wagon and the necessary farming implements, and begin operations at once. Jacob C. Brenner, who has been with him almost from the day he began business in charge of the Brunswick, will manage the farm, having had a good deal of experience in such work. It's a new departure in the hotel business here, though common in some places, the farm connected with Baggs' Hotel at Utica being famous throughout New York state. Certainly the venture should prove a profitable one here.

Marine Cossid. Cleveland ore shippers are trying to secure tonnage at 25 cents from Escanaba. The steamer Haddock and consort McGregor take coal from Toledo to Marquette at 70 cents; the schooner Wagoner coal from Cleveland to Marquette at 65 cents; schooner Thomas L. Parker coal from Buffalo to Chicago at 75 cents. Vessels are seeking coal cargoes from Cleveland to Lake Superior. The Nipigon, Wayne and Melbourne will carry coal to Portage during the season, returning with lumber from Hancock and Marquette to Ogdensburg. The Lake Michigan & Lake Superior Transportation company will carry 7,000,000 feet of lumber from Ashland and Washburn, during the season, for the Thompson & Walkup company. The iron steamer Roanoke takes dry lumber from Escanaba to Chicago at $1.75 per 1,000 feet.

Friday and Saturday. Edwin Clifford and his excellent company begin an engagement at the Casino opera house. Friday, May 11th, producing for the first time in this city "A Wife's Peril," made famous by Mrs. Langtry, the "Jersey Lily."

On Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock Mrs. Henry Wood's dramatization of "East Lynne" will be given and on Saturday night, the last appearance of Edwin Clifford as Jacques in D'Ennery's seven-act drama, "Two Orphans." Night prices, 75 and 50 cents; matinee prices, children 15 cents, adults 25. Seats on sale at the postoffice news-stand.

Wheat for Seed. Mr. A. Bertrand, of the Marquette flour mills, has on hand a quantity of fine seed wheat for the farmers of this vicinity. Increased acreage is being put into wheat now that a fine mill is within easy reach and last year, even, many near here raised more than enough to give them their own supply of flour. The move is one which should be encouraged for farmers here can get from Mr. Bertrand a much higher price for their wheat than they would prefer to pay a higher price here at home to paying out the same cash for railroad freights.
