First—It insures good feeling and better digestion.
Second—It makes you think more of your own affairs and less of your neighbors.
Third—It makes your husband feel better, look handsomer and live longer.
Fourth—It makes him get up earlier, make better fires and go to church without grumbling.
Fifth—It makes him come home early in the evening and forget to go to the lodge or club.
Sixth—It makes the baby grow louder, cry less and grow fat.
Seventh—It makes the cold weather warmer, the rain seem a blessing and the mud a necessity.
Eighth—It makes dinner easier to get, makes the roast juicier, the bread lighter and the dessert delicious.
Ninth—It makes everybody happier and better, healthier and wiser.
Therefore do it and make us happy and you will never regret it.

Prince Bismarck Hands His Resignation to the Emperor.

THE JUVENILE KING ACCEPTS IT.

Caused By a Desire to Propitiate the Center Party.

ROW WITH WINDHORST THE IMMEDIATE CAUSE OF THE CHANCELLOR'S ACT.

English Government Defeated On a Vote in the House of Commons—Balfour Summoned to London—Foreign News.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, March 18.—Prince von Bismarck, the "Iron Chancellor", has resigned and his resignation was accepted by Emperor William at noon to-day. All the members of the Prussian ministry resigned at the same time. The effect of Prince Bismarck's resignation upon affairs in Germany and all Europe cannot be guessed. For nearly thirty years he has directed the policy of the three rulers Germany has had in that time and to his great mind is due the credit for the greatest political moves that have been made in all these years. It is stated to-day in well informed political circles that the present difference between the emperor and Prince Bismarck is irreconcilable. It arises from the chancellor's refusal to accede to a request made by Dr. Windthorst, the leader of the clerical party in Germany, to restore to the Duke of Cumberland, the claimant of the throne of Hanover, the larger portion of the Guelph fund. A report is repeated to-day that the emperor proposes to appoint Gen. Von Caprivi, who is now commander of the Tenth army corps, to the chancellorship. The emperor has called a meeting of the commanders of the various army corps. He had a conference with the minister of war this afternoon.

The attitude of the emperor in opposing Prince Bismarck in this matter is taken as an indication of his desire to conciliate the clerical party. If the government is to secure a working majority in the new reichstag it cannot get on without the party of the center, which Dr. Windthorst controls.

The National Gazette says: "The gratitude toward the restorer of Germany that is filling the hearts of Germans at this critical time proves that Prince Bismarck will long be regarded as the personification of Germany's growth and prosperity."

The National Gazette believes Count Herbert Bismarck will remain in office. It says the Prussian ministry has not resigned.

Prof. Bramann, one of the doctors who attended the late Emperor Frederick during the time he was suffering from cancer, has been appointed to succeed Prof. Volkmann at the Halle university. The medical faculty views the appointment with disfavor.

Count Herbert Bismarck hinted recently that he would be obliged to resign. Of late his demeanor has been gloomy.

The ship carpenters at Sesthin have struck for higher wages.

A shock of earthquake has occurred at Bonn.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 18.—The cotton mills Accrington, Blackburn, Bury and Bolton are stopping work owing to a scarcity of coal because of the miners' strike.

The Arab masters have unanimously accepted the terms of Mr. Mackenzie, the agent of the British East Africa company, by which nearly 3,000 runaway slaves who settled in Fulladove will procure their freedom by doing work equivalent to 50 shillings each.

THE GOVERNMENT DEFEATED.

LONDON, March 18.—The government was defeated in the house of commons this evening on the motion of Mr. Buchanan, liberal, complaining of encroachments upon the public right of way in Scotland and asking that the laws be reformed and that the matter be entrusted to the county councils. Mr. Chamberlain, a number of unionists and a few Scotch conservatives supported the motion, which was adopted by a vote of 110 to 97. The government has summoned to London Mr. Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland.

Lord Randolph Churchill, in a bawling reply to the Paddington conservative council, twits them with prudently refraining from expressing an opinion as to the rectitude of his action. He predicts that in future the Tories will designate the Parnell commission with adjectives more common than polite. He declines to accept the council's resolution as the opinion of the electors.

Christian and Mussulman clergy have been prohibited from taking part in the approaching election for members of the Cretan assembly. Two Mussulman gendarmes have been killed near Rethymy by Christians.

Fifteen thousand miners in Lanca shire and many thousand strikers of other districts resumed work on the terms of a compromise proposed by the men. There is a general stoppage of cotton and other factories dependant upon coal.

FRANCE.

PARIS, March 18.—The statement read in the senate and chamber of deputies to-day shows that the synopsis given out yesterday did not fully cover the governments policy. It says that the government will vigorously defend republican institutions and the entire democratic work of its predecessor. It appeals cordially to all sections of the republican party. It will find a broad open, tolerant peaceable way. "We live in a time of social transformation, when the condition of the workingmen is the just object of special consideration. Our first duty is to turn to the toiling people and assist in improving their position. No government, especially that of a republic, can escape this duty. We shall shortly propose laws the purpose of which will be to secure a progressive improvement in the condition of the laboring classes, especially with the view of their making a suitable provision for old age. Our aim will be a government in the true meaning of the word—a government not only to enforce the law at home, but to secure to France the respect due to her abroad. Such government we can be if your confidence is granted." The reading of the statement was greeted with applause.

PORTUGAL.

LISBON, March 18.—A dispatch from Mazambique says a British flag was hoisted at Chiloma. The Journal Comercio Damalita, referring to the dispatch, says it does not know where Chiloma is, but if it is south of the confluence of the Shire and Rio, the British occupation is inexplicable, and if north of the confluence, the British action is not in good faith, in view of the pending negotiations. The opposition journals declare that if the action of the British at Chiloma is the result of the Portuguese government's policy, the government might have spared itself the trouble of stirring the national outbreak of patriotism. The evening papers print London telegrams stating that the hoisting of a British flag on a British steamer at Shire gave rise to the report of the hoisting of a flag in the Shire district.

BULGARIA.

SOFIA, March 18.—An ex-officer of the army, who was arrested for complicity in the Banitza conspiracy, has made a confession implicating many persons. A number of cipher documents belonging to the conspirators have been discovered.

WEST VULCAN STILL AFIRE.

Five Miners Narrowly Escape Death and a Rescuing Party Overcome by Smoke.

ASHLAND, Wis., March 18.—The destructive fire that began in the sixth level near the new shaft in the West Vulcan mine near Norway is still raging. An attempt was made to check the flames, but it failed. At 6 A. M. to-day the fire was issuing from the shaft, threatening the pump house, shaft house and the large pockets contingent to the shaft. The money loss is hard to estimate but is probably not less than $30,000 so far. During yesterday afternoon five miners were missing. They were driven to the skip shaft by the smoke. All got into the skip to come up, but found it necessary for one to get out to signal the brakeman to hoist the basket. Each was afraid to get out and when two hours later a rescuing party from above found them, the five were nearly dead from cold. General Superintendent Kelly and Captain St. Landry party, who went into the mine, narrowly escaped death by suffocation, being brought out insensible.

In Favor of the Defendant.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 18.—The state supreme court in the case of the St. Landry party regulators decided in favor of the defendants. The accused were convicted and sentenced to serve various terms in the state penitentiary for entering the house of one Duplechin at midnight and shooting at him with intent to kill. The defendants allege that they belong to a "band of regulators" or "Whitecaps" and that it was in pursuance of the principles of this organization that the assault on the woman Tillie was committed. The court quashed the indictment, holding that a criminal offense is not complete without felonious intent.

Alger Refuses to Talk Politics.

MILWAUKEE, March 18.—There is a very large attendance here upon the annual department encampment of the G. A. R. Five hundred delegates have registered to noon. General Alger arrived this forenoon and a reception and camp fire in his honor was held this evening. He steadily refuses to talk politics, but is willing to talk freely on Grand Army matters.

The Steele Court Martial.

CHICAGO, March 18.—The court martial for the trial of Lieutenant Steele, of the Eighth United States cavalry, assembled at noon to-day, and after formally organizing, proceeded to hear the testimony of Private Dell P. Wild, the complaining witness. Corporal William Spott corroborated Wild's story. He said Steele ordered Private Wild to assist him in some work about a building for Steele's private use; Wild refused to obey the order on the ground that he had not enlisted in the capacity of a private servant; Steele struck him and subsequently abused him to be court-martialed and sentenced to a year's imprisonment with hard labor.

Bad Man to Tackle.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 18.—J. E. Weston, of Colorado, was met in this city last night by two strangers who gave him drugged whiskey and then took him into an omnibus and made a desperate attempt to rob him. He drew a revolver and fatally shot Fred Werner, one of the toughs. Weston and Granville, the other tough, ran out of the omnibus with drawn revolvers and exchanged shots. The bullet from Granville's revolver glanced from Weston's head while Weston shot Granville through the head, killing him instantly. Weston gave himself up.

Ives Secures Bail.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Henry Ives succeeded in getting bail this afternoon. Shortly after 3 o'clock George H. Stoyner entered the district attorney's office and stated that Ives' bail bonds might be made out. A deputy sheriff was at once sent to the Ludlow street jail and returned with Mr. Ives. Henry Humbleton, a liveryman, furnished the bond.

THE INDIANAPOLIS HORROR.

The Work of Searching for the Dead Firemen Goes On.

All the Dead Recovered Save One—The Entire City in Mourning—Incidents of the Work of Rescue.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 18.—The work of clearing away the wreckage of the great fire was continued throughout to-day with renewed energy. Those who began work immediately after the crash labored on through the day without regard to themselves. The band of rescuers that extricated Firemen Jones and Burke from their perilous positions and welcomed them back to life, for they had felt death if that be possible and yet live, at 3 o'clock this morning, was still manfully working away at daybreak. When Jones and Burkhardt were removed, late Monday night, all human sounds from the struggling, imprisoned men ceased and the silence of death came over the wreck and the rescuers in their work. It was then known that there were no more living beneath the debris. Four others were still in the mass, but it was evident that they were dead. The body of Robert Lowrie was near Burkhardt and was

SOON TAKEN OUT.

It was not until 9 o'clock that the efforts of the rescuers again bore results. Then crushed and mangled remains were found. About 8 o'clock someone noticed a hand protruding from the debris near the front of the store. Quick work revealed a form in an almost standing position leaning slightly forward with one hand clasped on the head. It would appear that he had been struck by something and placed his hand there before the fatal blow came. The most horrible of all was the condition of poor Espy Stormer, whose dead body was taken out at 2:15 this afternoon. Wedged in by the burnt timbers the awful death which he had met was apparent. The upper part of his body was crushed. His helmet was still on his head, but one leg was burned off at the hips and the other foot was partially consumed. The whole city is in tears over the calamity. The work now going on is to find the last one of the brave firemen who answered their last alarm on Monday.

Tommy Says No.

NEW YORK, March 18.—A unique breach of promise case is that of 35-year-old Miss Isabella Brady against Thomas Miskell. The lady asks for $10,000. The case was in court to-day. The plaintiff has an independent fortune, while the man is said to be a deserter from the British army. Miss Isabella also, it is said, spent much money to get him pardoned for that offense. Thomas begs to be excused, but Miss Brady says she has purchased an expensive trousseau, spent $2,000 to furnish a house and purchased a wedding ring for $17. In 1888 Thomas declined positively to marry her. He claims that Miss Brady did the wooing and that he did not say yes.

Desire a Duty of Silver Ore.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 18.—Resolutions requesting congress not to place a duty on ore containing silver were adopted last night and to-day by the boards of trade and the commercial exchanges of Arkansas City, Winfield, Emporia, Topeka, and Kansas City, Kas. The resolutions recite that the smelting and refining industry at Kansas City, Kansas, is the most extensive manufacturing industry in the state; that until now, when the industry is fairly established, ore containing silver has always been admitted free of duty; that recently the rulings by the treasury department applying a tariff tax on these ores will still further increase Mexico's ill feeling against the United States.

To Remove the Injunction.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Before Judge Andrews, of the supreme court, to-morrow morning, the trustees of the big sugar trust will make a desperate effort to have removed the injunction restraining them from paying dividends. The injunction was obtained by several of the stockholders with the aid of the attorney-general, and ever since the trust has been quietly but steadily working to have it set aside. Attorney Root, on behalf of the trustees, late yesterday quietly appeared before Judge O'Brien and requested an order to show cause why the injunction should not be set aside. Judge O'Brien granted the order, which is returnable before Judge Andrews at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning and the papers were served upon the enjoined stockholders this morning.

Was Healy Drunk?

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—The investigation of the charges of cruelty and misconduct against Capt. M. A. Healy, of the revenue cutter Bear, which was postponed two weeks ago, was resumed to-day. Several merchant sailors, who were at Ounalaska last summer, testified that they saw two sailors taken from the bark Estrella to the Bear in irons. One of the witnesses heard Captain Healy order the men "triced up." The witnesses were of opinion that Captain Healy was intoxicated at the time.

Born in Mid-Ocean.

NEW YORK, March 18.—While the steamer Scandinavia, which arrived to-day from Hamburg, was in mid-ocean, two little passengers were added to the list of 948 in the steerage. Olga Ascanavisch gave birth to twins. The family left for Chicago this afternoon.

Statuary Seized.

NEW YORK, March 18.—Two cases of statuary from Italy on the way to Fort Dodge, Kas., were seized at the custom house to-day, because they had been invoiced at one-third their value.

Drilling the Supernumeraries.

"That's Larry McCarthy, our stage manager; he goes ahead of the show to drill the 'supers.' Ours is a great 'super' piece. We use about one hundred of them in big cities. There were about one hundred men on the stage. A friend asked where they all came from. 'Don't know,' he said. 'Most of 'em stuck on the stage, I guess. They only get a quarter a night, and don't get that if the captain of the 'supers' can stand 'em off. Which 'em now.'"

"Now," said the active McCarthy to his cohorts, "all who are 'exiles' will please walk over to this side of the stage." He was as polite as a dancing master to his rabble, and every one walked over. They were evidently all "exiles." This general movement surprised McCarthy. "Why, where are the Russian officers?" he asked. Then four shamofaced "exiles" left the ranks and came forward. "We forgot we was Russian officers," said one, apologetically, as he touched his cap. "And where are those 'dress suit' men?" demanded McCarthy. Four more left the ranks. This quartet was told to stand aside with the "Russian officers." The eight looked like safe blowers. "Now," said McCarthy, blithely, "I'm Mr. Delmore. He makes this speech." Then he rattled off a red flannel tirade, after which he said: "You 'exiles' must say, 'And we fight!'"

"Finally McCarthy gave up the 'exiles' as a bad job and called the 'dress suit' men to the front. They came. Then he said: "Now, ladies, and a bevy of young girls in checked blouses made their appearance. "Give your arms to the 'dress coat' men and march around this way. Be sure and bow as you pass me. I am Mr. Delmore." The "dress suit" men held their arms by their sides, and the young ladies bowed on as best they could. It was hard work for McCarthy. Over and over again he told them what to do, and over and over again they failed to do it. He was patient and polite. The "supers" liked him for this, and they tried to do what he told them, but it was not in them.

A Curious Endorsement.

The Manistique Sunday Sun gives an apparently prominent citizen of that place the following endorsement: "Ruffian" O'Brien is very much worked up over a statement which is said to have been uttered by a fellow convict at the time of "Ruffian's" late sojourn at Marquette, to the effect that he had known Mr. O'Brien for many a year, and never knew him to do a winter's work. At "Ruffian's" request we wish to correct this false statement and assert that Mr. O'Brien is an honest, industrious, moral young man, of sober habits.

It may be explained that Mr. O'Brien recently sojourned at Warden Tompkin's elegant summer and winter hotel for sixty days for disorderly conduct against the peace and dignity of the people of Michigan and contrary to the statute made and provided.

Not Paralyzed. P. J. Delf explains that his father, Mr. Arthur Delf, is not suffering from paralysis, as stated in yesterday's MINING JOURNAL, but is only confined to his house by a severe cold. The MINING JOURNAL received its information from one of Mr. Delf's employes, and supposed it to be authentic. Mr. Delf's many friends will be glad to hear that his ailment is not of the serious nature supposed.

Talk of the Town. Work has been resumed on the interior of the new Mathews residence. It is understood that H. B. Swain, who has recently sold his house here, will remove to Dakota next May. The straits steamer St. Ignace is now in dry dock and will probably be ready for work again early next week. Sheriff Therian, of Mackinac county, yesterday brought up a new member for the distinguished colony at the branch prison. Antoine Mantei is passing the cigars around among his friends, because there's another young butcher at his house. Every citizen desirous of advancing Marquette and at the same time of enhancing the value of his own property should be sure to vote for the electric light bonds. The Musical Association held a well attended rehearsal last night. The chorus is progressing rapidly under the skilful direction of Prof. Johnson. James Dwyer is moving out of his house on the opera house site. The building has been sold and will be moved out upon West Washington street. Guy Gillett, a youth who has earned a good deal of unappreciated notoriety in the last year or two, undertook to clean out the Upper Peninsula Business college yesterday and was forcibly ejected from the building by Principal Glenn after a lively scuffle.

Mrs. Stephen DeHart, formerly a resident of this city, died, aged 87 years, on Tuesday, March 11th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Childs, in Arkansas City, Kansas. The remains were taken to Boonton, N. J., for interment.

From Nick Barth's radiant visage yesterday afternoon his friends and acquaintances all jumped to the conclusion that his Crystal Falls mine had struck Bessemer ore. It wasn't that—but a boy, born yesterday. Just missed being an Irishman by one day you see. Many persons who read the MINING JOURNAL's editorial comments in yesterday's issue, failing to read the letter referred to, were led to infer that Judge Charles R. Brown, of Marquette, was the author of the letter, whereas it was written by Judge B. J. Brown, of Menominee.

Twelve young people will appear in a singing and declamatory contest for silver medals at Knights of Pythias hall tomorrow evening. The affair is under the auspices of the local branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which presents the medals. Admission is free and all friends of the Union are cordially invited to attend. One of the Brush dynamos got out of order last night, making it necessary to shut off the midnight circuit of street lamps. Such accidents are likely to occur with old machinery, especially when new, and the difficulty will probably be remedied to-day. Otherwise the plant never worked better than it did last night.

PERSONAL MOVEMENTS. John Quincy Adams was in the city yesterday. D. W. C. Gooding went to Iron Mountain yesterday. Sheriff Adams returned from Traverse City yesterday. D. W. Powell has returned from his trip to North Carolina. Postmaster Stephenson, of Escanaba, was in the city yesterday. C. H. N. Cavis, consulting engineer of the South Shores road, went to St. Paul yesterday. Miss Amy Delf has been spending a few days at home, but expects to return to her homestead near Michigan to-morrow. Ed. C. Anthony, of Negaunee, started for the G. A. R. encampment at Owasco yesterday, but finding the straits impassible concluded to spend the time in Marquette.

The Best Gift to Man. The best gift that can be conferred upon a man is the treasure that cannot be purchased, because it is not a marketable commodity—a loyal and loving wife. She is ever by a man's side to pilot him among and through the shoals and rocks that beset life's critical journey. She is ever willing to sacrifice her own comfort. She is ever ready to cheer and encourage. She is always anxious to let in sunshine and happiness. She is constantly planning to save his resources and subserve his comfort. In fact, there is no limit to what she can do and will do if she is given the opportunity. Beside her all possessions pale into insignificance. Money cannot bring the joy that a loving wife can bring. Ambition cannot satisfy the highest demands of the nature so thoroughly as a loyal wife. Fame and honor are gongwags, empty baubles, when placed side by side with the substantial comforts that cluster around the happy fireside. Who make the happy fireside? Can men make them? No; because a man is in no sense a home maker. He is below the birds of the air in this respect. Only a woman, an affectionate and true woman, can complete man's life and make him truly happy.—Master Geoffrey in Detroit Free Press.

Little Eighteenth Century Wonders. The deft fingered artist flourished just the same 150 years ago as he does today. Croty, a London shop keeper of 1745, fashioned a tea table, ten board, a dozen cups and saucers, sugar dish, slip basin, bottle, funnel, fifteen drinking glasses, five bowls, ten rummages, a pestal and mortar and a set of ninepins, so minute that they were all kept in a filbert shell. They were all made of polished ivory, and so small that they could not be seen without a microscope. A rival named Dovernick put on exhibition a cherry stone from which he took a table, twelve chairs, dishes of all kinds and six ladies and six gentlemen dressed so that they could be distinguished the one from the other by aid of a strong glass.—St. Louis Republic.

Mileage Books. On the Milwaukee & Northern railroad are good on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, Wisconsin Central, Green Bay Wisconsin & St. Paul, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie and Atlantic, St. Paul & Duluth railroads, and their 1,000-mile books are good between Negaunee and Michigan. These can be secured at any agent on the line of the road or of J. P. Wilbur, T. P. A., Marquette, Mich. 12-311

A Few Things to be Remembered. That T. F. Pollis is located at room 18, Harlow block, Marquette, Mich. That he is the leading installment dealer in the upper peninsula. That he carries the most elegant line of family bibles in the state of Michigan. That his line of subscription books is well worth an inspection. That his variety of photo albums is unsurpassed. That his place is headquarters for Smyrna rugs, lace curtains, clocks and other home furnishing specialties. That he considers it no trouble to show goods. That he deals honestly. That he solicits your patronage. Give him a trial. (1-711)

QUEEN CITY DAY'S DOINGS.

Much Needed Meeting of Marquette Business Men's Association Called For Friday Afternoon.

NOW LET EVERYONE TURN IN AND WORK FOR CITY'S ADVANCEMENT.

Present Supervisors' Last Session To-day. Tramps For Whom State Prison Yawns—Base Ball Convention.

Get Ready For Work.
The MINING JOURNAL is informed by Secretary Mathews that a meeting of the Business Men's Association has been called at 4 p. m. on Friday next in the office of Mr. C. H. Call. Every member of the association is earnestly requested to be present and take part in the proceedings. The present officers of the association have expressed a desire to retire and it will probably be necessary to elect others in their stead. Now is the time for the business men of Marquette to show by their deeds whether they intend to revive the Business Men's Association and set it to work in its proper field of advertising the manifold advantages of Marquette. There is no time for shilly-shally or idle inquiry into the failures of the past. Let the Business Men's Association be revived, elect a good, active set of officers and do some effective work toward promoting manufacturing and other industries for which Marquette is by its location and resources so well fitted. "If ever this town had a future it has it now." Therefore it is the duty of every good citizen to go in with a will and give the Queen City of Lake Superior genuine and substantial advancement.

Last Meeting of Supervisors.
The board of supervisors of Marquette county meets for the last time before election to-day. There is a considerable amount of routine business before the board but the most important matter is the proposition to provide a set of county abstract books. The committee having this in charge, with Supervisor Wagner as chairman, will report in favor of the plan and recommend that the register of deeds be authorized to get up a set of abstracts at an expense not exceeding $5,000. Little opposition to the plan, either within or without the board, has appeared, and the abstracts will doubtless be ordered with practical unanimity.

Prison Yawns for Them.
There are two fellows somewhere about this town for whose services the state has great need out at Warden Tompkins' hermitage. Their names are not known, but the police have been furnished with descriptions and should arrest them on sight.

In the small hours of yesterday morning James Wright, the night watchman at the Hotel Marquette, heard a great noise toward the rear of the building. Upon search he found two bums in the coal house just emptying a bottle of whisky, singing and yelling and making ready to encamp for the night with horse blankets they had stolen somewhere. Wright seized the blankets and ordered them out, accompanying them around to the front of the building. There they demanded liquor and to get into the house. Being of course refused a scuffle ensued which they attempted to throttle Wright. The latter smashed his lantern over their heads and breaking away went inside after a more effective weapon. Before he could return the rascals had run off towards South Marquette, firing a volley of foul language as they retreated. Wright had his shirt collar torn off but was not otherwise hurt.

Base Ball Convention.
The various base ball clubs of the upper peninsula will meet in convention at the Nelson House, Ishpeming, tomorrow afternoon, pursuant to the call of President Mason, to be found in another column. Delegates are expected from Marquette, Negaunee, Republic, Houghton, Hancock and Calumet. Ishpeming has not yet chosen delegates but holds a meeting to do so tomorrow.

It is the intention to organize a six club league, three from the iron and three from the copper country. Republic is, however, making a strong effort to get in and may succeed. In that case it would be necessary to find an eighth club, as a seven club schedule would be too difficult to arrange. It is proposed in some quarters that the difficulty be solved by Ishpeming and Negaunee unite in one club. This would be rendered easy by the fact that both cities will use the same grounds. Sentiment here, however, is in favor of a six club league and the exclusion of Republic, as that place has as yet no inclosed grounds.

A Celebrated Case.
The celebrated and long continued case of Cofrode & Naglor against Brown, Howard & Co. will be taken up at Detroit this week. The plaintiffs were sub-contractors under the defendants for the construction of fifty-four miles of the South Shore road between Nestoria and the West Ontonagon river and are suing for increased pay because the excavations contained more rock than represented. Mr. R. R. Kinkeade of this city is of counsel for the defendants, being associated with Ashley Pond of Detroit and ex-Governor Hoadley of Ohio, now of New York. Colonel Atkinson, of Detroit, Judge Deady of New York and Mr. West of Philadelphia appear for the plaintiffs; so that the array of legal talent on either side is greater than usual.

This case has latterly attracted much attention over the country from the fact that while the work in controversy was done in the upper peninsula advantage was taken of an act of the last legislature to transfer it to the circuit court of Wayne county for the greater convenience of the parties. The Wayne county court refused to try the case but the supreme court has compelled it to do so.

Last Ladies' Night.
This is ladies' night at the Snow Shoe club, and as it is probably the last of the season an effort will be made to have the evening a memorable one. Those ladies who desire to tramp will meet at Hodgkin's barn at 6:30 o'clock. Those who prefer to ride will rendezvous at the houses of Mrs. Orr and Mrs. Mapes at 7:30 o'clock sharp, whence sleighs will convey them to the club house. This will be a basket party and supper will be set at Mr. Stewart's house. The road to the club house will be shoveled out to-day so that sleighs can drive to the door. The club desires as many ladies as possible to be present because, as mentioned already, this will probably be the last ladies' night of the season.

Sailors Cutting Ice.
Capt. Daniels of the schooner Chris Grover, which lies at the end of the merchandise dock, had a gang of men busily at work yesterday cutting ice from the bay and loading it into the vessel. As soon as navigation opens the schooner will start for Cleveland where the scarcity of ice in the lower country promises a good market for the Lake Superior product. Capt. Daniels intends to take down about 300 tons. It is reported that other marine men who have vessels wintering on Lake Superior intend to follow his example and rush down cargoes of ice as soon as it is possible to get through the St. Mary's river.
