THE M'KINLEY BILL.

Senate Finance Committee Reports Tariff Bill—To Be Called up About July First.

RIVER AND HARBOR BILL PLACED ON THE SENATE CALENDAR

Conference Report on Anti-Trust Bill Leaves It as Originally Passed By The Senate. The Election Bill.

THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18.—Mr. Morrill from the finance committee reported back the tariff bill and said that it was not expected that it would be brought up for consideration earlier than a week from Monday next. The tables required by Mr. Plumb's resolution would be ready probably within about four days. The bill was placed on the calendar. Mr. Frye from the committee on commerce reported back the river and harbor appropriation bill with a written report as to each item and it was placed on the calendar.

Mr. Quay offered a resolution which went over till to-morrow, instructing the sergeant-at-arms to make no changes in his subordinate appointees or employees prior to July 1st next, without the consent of the senate. Mr. Everts gave notice that the eulogies on the late Representative Cox were postponed till Thursday of next week. The senate at 1:30 proceeded to the consideration of executive business.

The doors were re-opened at 1:30. The conference report on the anti-trust bill was presented and agreed to. Both houses recede from their respective amendments and the bill remains exactly as it was passed by the senate. On motion of Mr. Manderson the house bill extending the time of payment to purchasers of land of the Omaha tribe of Indians in Nebraska, was taken from the calendar and passed with amendments, and a conference was asked.

The conference report on the bill for a public building at Alexandria, La. was presented and agreed to. The cost is limited to $60,000. The senate then proceeded to the consideration of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill.

An amendment was agreed to increasing the salary of twenty-six committee clerks from $1,500 to $1,800 and the salary of clerks to senators from $1,500 to $1,800. The senate disposed of seventy pages of the bill and adjourned.

THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 18.—On motion of Mr. Payson (La.) a bill was passed to confirm the title to certain cemetery land in Sault Ste Marie, Mich. The house went into committee of the whole, Mr. Allen (Mich) in the chair, on the Indian appropriation bill. The committee was in session but a few moments when it rose informally to allow the house to receive a message from the senate. Secretary McCook announced the passage of the silver bill with sundry amendments. The democratic side of the house broke out in loud applause, which was continued for a minute.

The committee having resumed its session, Mr. Blind (Mich) moved that the committee rise, his purpose being to have some action taken on the silver bill. The standing vote resulted 79 to 89. (Republican applause.) The consideration of the Indian bill being resumed, on points of order raised by Mr. Cannon (Ill.) despite the strenuous protests of Mr. Perkins, of Kansas, and Mr. Pool, of Arkansas, appropriations of $12,200 for the Creek Indians and $48,800 for the Pottawatomie Indians and $27,000 for the Mexican Pottawatomie Indians were stricken from the bill. The committee then rose, the bill was passed and the house adjourned.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—The house committee on the election of president and vice-president and representatives in congress to-day formally decided by a party vote to report to the house with some amendments the federal election bill agreed upon in the republican caucus on Monday night. Representative Lodge will prepare the report and expects to get it before the house to-morrow. The minority members of the committee will also prepare a report in opposition to the measure for submission to the house.

There is an effort making to have a republican caucus tomorrow night to consider the senate amendments to the silver bill.

The army shooting contest will take place this year at Camp Douglas, Wisconsin.

The president has approved the act for the relief of the Southern exposition at Louisville.

The president to-day sent to the senate the following nomination: George J. Collins to be postmaster at Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mysterious Fire.

DETROIT, Mich., June 18.—Shortly before noon to-day fire broke out in the crucible department of the Detroit Spring works, destroying that building and entailing a loss of $5,000, partially covered by insurance. Forty men are thrown out of employment. The origin of the fire is unknown.

National Life Insurance Association. BOSTON, June 18.—Delegates from the various life underwriters associations of the country met today and formed a national association. The object is the advancement of the best interest of the cause of true life insurance throughout the country.

Owens Renominated.

CINCINNATI, June 18.—A Commercial-Gazette special from Zanesville, Ohio, says the Fourteenth district convention yesterday nominated Congressman James W. Owens (dem.) for reelection.

Fired Five Shots.

DENVER, Col., June 18.—This evening at 5 o'clock George McCartney met L. A. Milburn on Sixteenth street, between Stout and Champion, one of the most crowded thoroughfares of the city. McCartney pulled a revolver and fired five shots at Milburn, two of which entered his breast, producing wounds from which Milburn will not recover. Milburn is a carriage manufacturer and McCartney had been in his employ, but later on they entered into some kind of a partnership. Trouble arose between them and Milburn had McCartney indicted for embezzlement. This was the direct cause of the shooting this afternoon. Both men have families and stand well in business circles.

GOING TO TEST THE LAW.

Immates of Dance Houses Think They Are Not Liable to Punishment.

EAU CLAIRE, June 17.—The question whether any law exists to punish inmates of houses of ill-repute in Wisconsin is about to be tested and will doubtless get to the supreme court. As a result of a row in a dance house den near here several women are in jail. Their attorney has discovered that the legislature of 1889 in amending section 4,587, Revised Statutes, as amended by chapter 315, laws of 1887, failed to re-enact section 2 of the latter law, which section provides for punishing inmates. The claim is, and it is supported by commentaries in the annotated statutes, that chapter 388, laws of 1889, containing no punishment for inmates is a complete substitute for the whole of the previous enactment. The women were taken from jail this afternoon on a writ of habeas corpus, and the court adjourned by the court commissioner till to-morrow. The law of 1889 was gotten up as a result of the pincery den agitation and the fruit of the labors of Dr. Kate Bushnell and her coadjutors. It made keeping a dance den a penitentiary offense, but overlooked the inmates.

A CHECK LASSOED.

Novel Manner of Capturing a Capitalist. Ten Thousand the Price of Release.

HAMBERG, La., June 18.—Three desperate men with a lasso secured a $10,000 check from J. H. Stewart, a Kansas City capitalist, yesterday. Mr. Stewart was in a precarious condition last night from his rough usage. He was riding near the city in a buggy when John F. Charles, W. R. and Doc Golden attacked him. They threw the noose of a long rope about his neck and dragged him over the dashboard of his buggy. He was helpless in their hands and signed the check to escape. The trouble grew out of litigation over the title to lands claimed by the Golden and Stewart.

Crewly Grows Virtuous.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Chief of Police Crowley announced yesterday that he would make an effort to stop glove contests between professional pugilists as given in various athletic clubs of this city. He intimates strongly that he will arrest the principals, seconds, club officials and probably the spectators at the next contest to be given in any of the clubs and will have them prosecuted under the state law which prohibits prize fighting. The next contest to occur here will be the match between Le Blanche and young Mitchell at the California Athletic club June 27th.

British American Convention.

PHILADELPHIA, June 18.—The third annual convention of the British American association of the United States began here to-day. The attendance comprises delegates from state organizations in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Illinois, Wisconsin and Michigan. George Gooch, of Chicago, is president. The objects of the association is the naturalization of British born residents of the United States, ballot reform, anti parochial education and universal peace.

A Tour of Inspection.

BALTIMORE, June 18.—United States Senator Davis, president of the West Virginia Central Railway company, and Mr. J. B. Lee, left to-day for a tour of inspection of the road. The guests of President Davis are Hon. James G. Blaine, Hon. Redfield Proctor, Hon. William Windom, Hon. Thomas F. Bayard, Hon. Martin Goff, Mr. E. Kurtz Johnston, President William Keyser, of the Baltimore Copper works, General Ober and Messrs. William Clements, G. M. Boyler and B. F. Smith, a bank president of this city.

North Star Seized.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 18.—Mr. Young, inspector of customs for British Columbia, reports that he has seized the schooner North Star for infractions of the customs law. The vessel cleared from Victoria via Prevost Harbor, but instead of going to the destination reported to the collector, the captain ran the vessel along the coast of Vancouver Island and then took on board nineteen Chinamen for the purpose of smuggling them into the United States.

Eighteen Rounds and a Row.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Reddy McBride, of Philadelphia, and Jimmy Lynch, of New York, fought at Oak Point this morning, with skin-tight gloves, for $1,000 and an added purse of $500. Eighteen rounds were fought when the affair broke up in a row and the referee gave the fight to Lynch, McBride being almost knocked out.

Striking Switchmen Stand Firm.

CLEVELAND, O., June 18.—Notwithstanding the rumors of Tuesday that an attempt would be made to resume operations in the railway yards this morning, no work was done by the switchmen on any road.

W. L. Scott Named for Congress.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 18.—A Meadville, Pa., special says the Crawford county democratic convention yesterday nominated Hon. W. L. Scott, of Erie, for congress.

CALDWELL-VON ZEDWITZ WEDDING.

One of the Eccentric. Wealthy Sisters Married to a German Diplomat.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17.—Miss Lena Caldwell was married this morning to Baron Von Zedwitz, German minister to Mexico. The ceremony was performed in the chapel of the Catholic university which has been largely built by the generosity of the wealthy Caldwell sisters.

The baron came here from Mexico on Friday and took apartments at Welcher's, and the Misses Caldwell, with their aunt and cousin, Mrs. E. C. Donnelly and Miss Donnelly, came over from New York Sunday and took quarters at the Arlington. The wedding arrangements were all conducted by Miss Gwendolen Caldwell and Mrs. Donnelly and were very simple in character. Less than fifty invitations were issued verbally to the chapel and to the wedding breakfast at noon at the Arlington.

The main chapel of the university, where the wedding took place, was built of a donation of $60,000 made by the bride of to-day for that purpose. The interior of the chapel was decorated with the conventional palms and other greens, the roses and twining plants. The altar, with its bright candles, shone forth against a background of green, and gave an air of grandeur to the simplicity of the other parts of the chapel. There was little formality about the scene other than that given by the impressiveness of the ceremony and the quiet grandeur of the altar decorations. With one or two exceptions the members of the diplomatic corps present wore conventional morning dress.

At the conclusion of the marriage service, a low mass was celebrated. Before the newly made baroness and her husband left the altar, Bishop Spalding in a voice that trembled with emotion, gave them his blessing and a few words of advice and announced that he had received a cablegram from the pope sending congratulations and a blessing. Two years ago the Misses Caldwell, Gwendolen and "Lena," accompanied by their aunt, Mrs. T. Donnelly, went abroad, making their home in Paris. It was at the French capital that Baron von Zedwitz met Miss Caldwell, and a year ago it was announced that they were engaged. Miss "Lena's" full name is Mary Elizabeth Breckinridge Caldwell, her mother having been one of the celebrated Breckinridges of Kentucky.

CENSUS RECORDS CONFISCATED.

Officers Attempt to Regain Them, But Are Driven Off With Revolvers.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 18.—A party of officers armed with a search warrant went to St. Paul at an early hour this morning to recover the census records confiscated last night by Deputy Marshal Daggett. They were driven out of Commissioner McCaffarty's office at the muzzles of revolvers. The city is in a state of wild indignation over the high-handed and irregular proceedings. Neither United States District Attorney Eugene Hay nor Supervisor Davnport were parties to the proceedings.

A MILLION AND A QUARTER YEARLY.

Offer of an English Company to the Louisiana Legislature For Lottery Privilege.

BATON ROUGE, La., June 18.—When the house met to-day the speaker received from Mr. Isadore Newman, president of the New Orleans Stock exchange, a proposition from Benjamin Newgoss, of London, Eng., offering a million and a quarter of dollars yearly for the same lottery privilege applied for by John A. Morris with the additional tender of security for the payment of the amount annually to the state.

Fat For Kansas City.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Charles Birchall and John H. Kennan, of Liverpool, and W. B. Lawson, of London, are in the city. They represent an English syndicate which proposes to invest about $20,000,000 in this country. They have been looking at desirable properties in various cities and Mr. Birchall says that the greater portion of the sum mentioned will be invested in Kansas City.

Even Clubs Must Obey the Laws.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 18.—A jury in the criminal court yesterday decided that social clubs possess no more rights than private citizens and found August Bender and Alphonse Mayeth, president and secretary of the Carrollton club, guilty of selling liquor on Sunday.

Leuth Granted a Respite.

COLUMBUS, O., June 18.—The supreme court this morning refused to grant the motion for a new trial in the case of Otto Leuth, the Cleveland boy murderer of Maggie Thompson. A petition was at once made to Governor Campbell for a respite, which was granted till August 29th, in order to bring the case before the board of pardons.

Young Attorney Suicides.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 18.—Joseph C. Thornton, a young attorney, who came here a month ago from Logansport, Ind., committed suicide in his room last evening by hanging himself. The cause of the suicide is not known. He is said to be a graduate of Yale and highly connected.

Wallace and Lowitz Plead Guilty.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Robert L. Wallace and Ignatius B. Lowitz, who went to Cuba after stealing $50,000 belonging to Wallace's uncle, the proprietor of Wallace's Monthly, were arraigned in court to-day. They pleaded guilty to grand larceny in the first degree and were remanded for sentence.

The Regular Thing.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The Missouri Pacific directors to-day declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent, payable July 15th.

SAULT STE. MARIE papers will please take notice that the Sunday laws of Marquette, though of sufficient inherent force to maintain proper seventh-day decency, are not at all akin to the Blue laws of Connecticut. Promiscuous drunkenness is not encouraged by the authorities of this city and the saloons keep within the bounds of law. Excursions on the boundless, blue expanse of Lake Superior, by steam, sail or oars, however, are not among the pleasures interdicted by the municipality of Marquette.

HOPE FOR ALASKA.

For the comparatively contemptible sum of $7,300,000 the United States acquired an empire in the purchase of Alaska. As orator, author, patriot and diplomatist William H. Seward has many titles to future fame, but his name will be handed down to posterity as the far-sighted statesman who, in spite of the criticisms of a blind and perverse generation, made a magnificent addition to the domain of his native land. He was the discoverer of Alaska in a far better and higher sense than the mere mariner who first sighted its headlands and skirted its coasts. But the United States did not for decades properly value its newly acquired territory. Engrossed in the manufacture of political capital congress has continued to ignore, year after year, the royal realm of the extreme northwest. No encouragement has been given by the government to the development of Alaska. A great monolithic corporation has, hitherto, dictated legislation for this wonderful region and has succeeded in using its vast resources for its own selfish profit. The national legislature now seems to be on the point of opening up Alaska to American immigration and enterprise. Facilities for the acquisition of title to land will probably be provided before this congress adjourns. Members of both houses are crowding such measures with indignant energy.

The man who has done most to awaken this country to a realizing sense of the treasure it has in Alaska was formerly a resident of Marquette, Alfred P. Swineford, and future Alaskans will arise and call him blessed.

FOR STATE TREASURER.

It has become an axiom in the republican party of the state of Michigan that the upper peninsula is entitled to name one man on the state ticket. The importance of this section in the commonwealth demands so much consideration and its splendid, unvarying allegiance to the republican party emphasizes the demand. The republicans of northern Michigan have rights which must be recognized and they will, this year, ask for the substance and refuse to be comforted with the shadow. The mere ghost of political power, the lieutenant-governorship, will no longer be accepted as commensurate with our merits. The good sense and natural justice of our brethren of lower Michigan will hardly permit them to say: "The upper peninsula is entitled to one place on the ticket," adding the odious proviso, "and we will name the place." Such a proposition savors to much of arbitrary, unbridled authority, to be attributed to the equitable disposition of members of the party below the straits. It being conceded, then, that we have a just claim to one state nomination and to some choice as to what that nomination shall be, no one will question the right of Marquette county, the banner republican county of Michigan, with a glorious record of 2,400 majority in 1888, to put forward a candidate.

The pulse of public opinion has been carefully consulted and, as a result, the MINING JOURNAL feels justified in the assertion that Marquette county republicans, without dissent, are prepared to support James M. Wilkinson for the office of state treasurer, and that his candidacy will be enthusiastically espoused by the upper peninsula.

James M. Wilkinson is a man in the prime of intellectual manhood and worldly experience. He is no stranger to the people of this region, or of the state of Michigan generally. He was born, bred and educated in the state. For twenty-six years he has been a resident of Marquette. He has been tried in private and in public life and has never been found wanting. For sixteen years Mr. Wilkinson was receiver of public moneys in the United States land office at Marquette. For years he has toiled without compensation as a member of various municipal boards of our city. He is now a member of the board which has in charge the management of the state penitentiary in this here. Since the establishment of the banking firm of Campbell & Wilkinson he has been its active manager. Through all ordeals of private transactions and exposure to the public eye as a public servant, Mr. Wilkinson has maintained

LOCOD HORSES.

Singular Effects of the Loco or Rattle Weed Upon Horse Sense.

Col. Juan D. McCarthy, of California, sat alone at a table in the Hoffman house nervously fingering the big quartz links of his watch chain and wondering what had become of all the men of his acquaintance. He wanted somebody to hear him talk, and he was just about to send for Billy Edwards and ask him to bring somebody in by main force when his eye fell upon a man who was known to him as a good listener. The colonel shoved his slouch back and cheerily said, "Hi, there!" Then he added, "You're just the man I wanted to see."

"Did you ever see a locod horse?" said the colonel. "Of course you never did, but I was reminded of the subject by seeing the term used in last Sunday's Sun. It's a subject that causes more argument and row among the stockmen of California than the price of beef ever had. A locod horse is the worst piece of property a man can own, next to a corner lot in addition to a bursted boom town. You never can tell what the critter will do nor when he will do it. He behaves as though he were half asleep most of the time, but just when he ought to be asleep he'll do more fool things than you can keep cases on. If you stake him out near camp he'll wind himself all up in the stake rope until he can't walk, and then he'll suddenly pretend that something has frightened him and begin to kick and snort and turn somersaults.

The racket awakens you, and supposing that a panther has jumped the horse you rush out to help him. It takes you ten minutes to untangle the horse, and as soon as he gets upon his feet he kicks at you or knocks you down with his stupid old head. And then you're sorry a panther hadn't tackled him.

The locod horse may have been used under saddle all his life, but some day when you want to saddle him he will discover that the blanket is a ravenous monster that wants to devour him, and you can't get anywhere near the brute. If he's tied up you have to cut the rope to save him from dislocating his neck in his efforts to escape from that bloodthirsty saddle blanket. Such tricks as lying down in the middle of a creek or tumbling heels over head into a bunch of cactus you've got to be prepared for at any time.

"I remember a locod horse that Sam Beacham had when we were prospecting on the Castac. Sam thought that plug was a Jim dandy, and wouldn't admit that he was locod. Billy had the meanest gait you ever saw, something between loping and pacing, and he snorted with every breath he drew. If you tried to lead him he'd fall down in more ways than a circus clown could think of, and sometimes when he stuck his nose into a pan of barley his lurid imagination would transform each grain into a sea serpent or a roaring wolverine, and away he'd go, snorting like a locomotive and tumbling down hill over his own feet.

"You want to know the cause of loco? Well, that's what the stockmen quarrel about. Most people believe that the loco plant is responsible for the disease. It is a low plant that grows in plenty all over the semi-barren lands of the west. It bears pods that become very dry in the summer and rattle when the wind moves them. I don't know the botanical name, but one of the popular names is 'rattle weed.' It is not good forage, but stock will eat it when feed is scarce.

Some stockmen declare that this rattle weed will make a horse crazy, but others scout the idea and protest that the loco property of the rattling pod is all superstition. A cattleman in southern California assured me that his horses had eaten rattle weed for twenty-five years, or at least had had free opportunity to eat it, but he never had a locod horse on the range until after the sheep began feeding over the country in big bands. His theory is that the sheep tick crawled in the horses' ears, burrowed and laid eggs, and affected the animals just as a spider might affect a man by crawling into his ear and waiting around on his tympanum. If you have ever had a bug in your ear you know how that feels.

Now, I don't know how much truth there is in the tick theory about locod horses, although the cattleman swore he had found ticks in the ears of his crazy broncos. You see, every cattleman hates sheep with religious fervor, and attributes everything bad to them. I asked a Kern county cattleman one day how he accounted for such antics in California, and he replied: "It's them infernal sheep, I reckon."

CATARRE.

Catarrhal Desires—May Fever—A New Home Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and throat. Modern research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrhal desires, hay fever, and other ailments are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks.

N. B.—This treatment is not a snuff or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free on receipt of stamp to pay postage, by A. H. Dixon & Son, 105 West Fifth Street, Toronto, Canada.—Christian Advocate.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should carefully read the above.

Ask Your Friends About It.

Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. LOCOD HORSES.

Singular Effects of the Loco or Rattle Weed Upon Horse Sense.

Col. Juan D. McCarthy, of California, sat alone at a table in the Hoffman house nervously fingering the big quartz links of his watch chain and wondering what had become of all the men of his acquaintance. He wanted somebody to hear him talk, and he was just about to send for Billy Edwards and ask him to bring somebody in by main force when his eye fell upon a man who was known to him as a good listener. The colonel shoved his slouch back and cheerily said, "Hi, there!" Then he added, "You're just the man I wanted to see."

"Did you ever see a locod horse?" said the colonel. "Of course you never did, but I was reminded of the subject by seeing the term used in last Sunday's Sun. It's a subject that causes more argument and row among the stockmen of California than the price of beef ever had. A locod horse is the worst piece of property a man can own, next to a corner lot in addition to a bursted boom town. You never can tell what the critter will do nor when he will do it. He behaves as though he were half asleep most of the time, but just when he ought to be asleep he'll do more fool things than you can keep cases on. If you stake him out near camp he'll wind himself all up in the stake rope until he can't walk, and then he'll suddenly pretend that something has frightened him and begin to kick and snort and turn somersaults.

The racket awakens you, and supposing that a panther has jumped the horse you rush out to help him. It takes you ten minutes to untangle the horse, and as soon as he gets upon his feet he kicks at you or knocks you down with his stupid old head. And then you're sorry a panther hadn't tackled him.

The locod horse may have been used under saddle all his life, but some day when you want to saddle him he will discover that the blanket is a ravenous monster that wants to devour him, and you can't get anywhere near the brute. If he's tied up you have to cut the rope to save him from dislocating his neck in his efforts to escape from that bloodthirsty saddle blanket. Such tricks as lying down in the middle of a creek or tumbling heels over head into a bunch of cactus you've got to be prepared for at any time.

"I remember a locod horse that Sam Beacham had when we were prospecting on the Castac. Sam thought that plug was a Jim dandy, and wouldn't admit that he was locod. Billy had the meanest gait you ever saw, something between loping and pacing, and he snorted with every breath he drew. If you tried to lead him he'd fall down in more ways than a circus clown could think of, and sometimes when he stuck his nose into a pan of barley his lurid imagination would transform each grain into a sea serpent or a roaring wolverine, and away he'd go, snorting like a locomotive and tumbling down hill over his own feet.

"You want to know the cause of loco? Well, that's what the stockmen quarrel about. Most people believe that the loco plant is responsible for the disease. It is a low plant that grows in plenty all over the semi-barren lands of the west. It bears pods that become very dry in the summer and rattle when the wind moves them. I don't know the botanical name, but one of the popular names is 'rattle weed.' It is not good forage, but stock will eat it when feed is scarce.

Some stockmen declare that this rattle weed will make a horse crazy, but others scout the idea and protest that the loco property of the rattling pod is all superstition. A cattleman in southern California assured me that his horses had eaten rattle weed for twenty-five years, or at least had had free opportunity to eat it, but he never had a locod horse on the range until after the sheep began feeding over the country in big bands. His theory is that the sheep tick crawled in the horses' ears, burrowed and laid eggs, and affected the animals just as a spider might affect a man by crawling into his ear and waiting around on his tympanum. If you have ever had a bug in your ear you know how that feels.

Now, I don't know how much truth there is in the tick theory about locod horses, although the cattleman swore he had found ticks in the ears of his crazy broncos. You see, every cattleman hates sheep with religious fervor, and attributes everything bad to them. I asked a Kern county cattleman one day how he accounted for such antics in California, and he replied: "It's them infernal sheep, I reckon."

CATARRE.

Catarrhal Desires—May Fever—A New Home Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membrane of the nose and throat. Modern research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated whereby catarrhal desires, hay fever, and other ailments are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks.

N. B.—This treatment is not a snuff or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent free on receipt of stamp to pay postage, by A. H. Dixon & Son, 105 West Fifth Street, Toronto, Canada.—Christian Advocate.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should carefully read the above.

Ask Your Friends About It.

Your distressing cough can be cured. We know it because Kemp's Balsam within the past few years has cured so many coughs and colds in this community. Its remarkable sale has been won entirely by its genuine merit. Ask some friend who has used it what he thinks of Kemp's Balsam. There is no medicine so pure, none so effective. Large bottles 50c and $1 at all druggists. Sample bottle free.

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price, 25 cents per box. For sale by H. H. Staff and Son.

A HISTORY OF SUGAR.

CRYSTALLIZATION FROM JUICES BY ANCIENT RACES.

Some Rude Methods of Early Preparation—When Sugar is Mentioned in Ancient History—Progress of the Industry. Theories of Its Introduction.

Hesiodus, one of the earliest writers of whose works there is any record, informs us that a tribe in Africa called the Zygnantes had, "besides honey of bees, a much greater quantity made by man." It also stated that Nearchus, the chief admiral of Alexander the Great, "discovered concerning canes that they make honey without bees." Very ancient races, therefore, were acquainted with the fact that certain canes yield sweet juices, and being ignorant of any methods of purifying these juices, their sugar could not be got to crystallize and resembled honey in consistency as well as in taste. Megasthenes, however, writes much later concerning "the India stone, sweeter than figs or honey," so that by this time some rude method of crystallizing or solidifying the juice had been discovered. The early Jewish historians make no mention of sugar, the only sweet substance habitually used by the Hebrews being honey; but Isaiah speaks of "sweet cane," and there is a disputed allusion to it in the Song of Solomon.

It was not until about the commencement of the Christian era that sugar was spoken of by an appropriate name. "In India and Arabia Felix," writes Dioscorides, "a kind of concrete honey is called saccharon." This term is evidently adapted from the Arabic assakar or shaker, which itself is derived from the Sanskrit sukara. Speaking of names, it is rather odd that the Hebrew word for being intoxicated is shakar, a word which is evidently closely connected with the Arabic. It is interesting, too, to remember the ready conversion of sweet liquids into alcohol. There seems to be little doubt that the origin of the manufacture of sugar must be sought for in India and Arabia.

AMONG THE ANCIENTS.
Apart from the evidence of Dioscorides we are always disposed to trust Pliny, to whom we are indebted for so much information concerning the manners and customs of the ancients. In Holland's translation, book 12, chapter 8, we read: "As for sugar, there is of it in Arabia, but the best cometh out of India. A kind of honie it is, gathered and candied in certain canes—white, this is, like gumme (Arabicke), and brittle between a man's teeth. The graines hereof, when they are at the biggest, exceed not a fibred nutte, and serve for physike."

Sugar, as known to the ancients, was doubtless far less palatable than it is now. In preparing it the canes and the roots were frequently boiled, so that certain bitter and aromatic principles must have been extracted. The quality imparted to the sugar by this process might have determined its use for medicinal purposes. It is certain that sugar was only regarded as a sort of medicine for several centuries, and confirmation of this statement may be found in the fact that it is rarely mentioned, except by physicians and learned men, nor with tolerable precision except by the former.

The Greeks and Romans used sugar as a medicament almost entirely, and it is occasionally alluded to by the physicians of the Augustan age. During the Seventh century the empire of the Saracens was scarcely inferior to that of Rome in the times of her greatest prosperity and, we may add, rapacity. The conquered western Asia, certain northern Africa and carried their arms into the south of Europe. To these semi-barbaric Saracens Europe was indebted for the manufacture of sugar—a commodity the consumption of which may now almost be taken as a measure of a nation's civilization.

DID THE CRUSADERS INTRODUCE IT?
There are many who attribute the introduction of sugar to the Crusaders. But sugar has undoubtedly been cultivated in Spain for near 1,000 years, and it has been asked, since the Crusaders were collected from all parts of Europe, how is it that Spain was the only country favored with this valuable commodity? Of course the Crusaders did find sugar in Syria, and they may have assisted in making it better known on their return to Europe. We read in the history of the second crusade that Richard Coeur de Lion captured seven camels laden with sugar, and that his knights found "sweet honied cannes called zuera." These they gathered and sucked and were "much pleased with the sweet taste thereof, with which they could scarcely be satisfied."

It was long before the mechanical arts were applied to the preparation of sugar and longer still before any method of clarifying the juice of the cane was discovered. The use of alkalies is believed to be an invention of the Moors who settled in Spain. Sugar appears to have been very little known in England till the fourteenth century. In 1329 the Lord Chamberlain of Scotland speaks of loaves of sugar, which were sold at one ounce of silver per pound, a price equivalent to about $4 of our money. The manufacture was not carried on in Great Britain at this time, but small supplies were imported from Venice, where sugar refining had already become an important industry. Although old Harrison, the chronicler, speaks of sugar and wine as being a common drink among the upper classes during the sixteenth century, it is probable that sugar did not become an article of ordinary consumption until the middle of the Seventeenth century.

AS AN INDUSTRY.
The sugar industry was started in Barbados by some English merchants in 1643. It is commonly supposed that the cane was introduced into the Western hemisphere by the Portuguese and other early European settlers, but it is decidedly stated by the first explorers in these regions that the aborigines of Virginia and other parts of America prepared sugar from the maple juice and also from a native variety of sugar cane. The Spaniards did, however, transplant the cane, which they cultivated in their own country, and to them must certainly be ascribed the introduction of the sugar industry into Madeira and the Canaries.

The history of sugar cultivation is one of successive migrations westward, due chiefly to the rapid exhaustion of the soil inseparable from the cultivation of the cane with slave labor, and to an ignorant carelessness in the treatment of the land. The opening up of new highways of commerce, the facilities of communication and intercourse among nations, the more scientific methods of cultivation and processes of manufacture, and the fresh sources from which sugar can now be derived, have all contributed to the phenomenal development of trade in and consumption of this commodity which has characterized the present century.

In 1760 the amount of sugar consumed in Great Britain was 10,000 tons; in 1800 it had risen to 150,000 tons, while in 1885 the amount of sugar consumed was 1,100,000 tons.—American Analyst.

Record of Death—Malicious Mischief by Drunken Loafers—Base Ball and Minor Items.

A Sad Death.
Mrs. John M. Sheehy died at an early hour yesterday morning after a brief illness. The deceased had been married just a year, had a few days before given birth to a child and had had only the brightest prospects before her of living a happy life in her home. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fitzpatrick, well known residents of Ishpeming, and has a very large circle of friends in both cities who will sincerely mourn her untimely death. At this writing the funeral arrangements had not been made, but the interment will probably take place at Ishpeming, her former home.

Bullets and Boats.
Richard Kappes had a pretty lively time of it in his saloon in the bank building Tuesday night. During the evening his place was frequented by a large number of drunken men who sought to turn the usually orderly saloon into a perfect hades. Kappes managed to keep things all right though and there were no serious rows there. Just before 11 o'clock someone who probably stood near the cars that stand on the Northwestern track fired a revolver, the bullet striking the brick wall, just missing a window. The inmates of the place rushed out but were unable to find the marksman. A little while later Kappes closed up, and while standing over on the railroad crossing with Nightwatchman Lentz, he heard the crashing of glass. Both ran over as quickly as possible, but the men who had smashed the glass had escaped. Several panes of glass in the windows were smashed and some damage was done inside by the stones. Mr. Kappes thinks the last two outrages were perpetrated by some drunken man whom he had offended earlier in the evening, and he promises to make it uncomfortably warm for the guilty parties should they ever be caught.

Negaunee's base ball club has entered in the contest that is to take place at Union park Saturday, the occasion being the Forester's celebration. The prize is $100 and Negaunee will bring it home with them if she can.

News was received here Tuesday evening of the death at Low Moor, Virginia, of Mrs. Henry Merry, wife of Captain Merry who has for a number of years been in charge of the Jackson mine at this place. No particulars accompanied the sad tidings. The deceased was a most estimable lady and her many Negaunee friends, and particularly those whom she befriended with her many charities while she lived here will deeply regret the news of her death.

Adam Zeien, who bought the city building, has started to tear it down. He must have it removed from the site within ten days. The appearance of Silver street will be greatly improved when the old structure has been removed.

The heat of summer has caused the salvation army to come out with slightly smaller crowds than they have showed up with for the past few months. Last Sunday they held an open air meeting on Teal Lake bluff.

Lovers of the national game should remember that Negaunee and Hancock will cross bats at Union Park next Sunday afternoon. Regular trains on both roads stop opposite the park.

The Noble Dramatic Company's band parades the streets every day and plays some splendid selections. Last evening "East Lynne" was presented to a large audience at the opera house.

Cinders are being hauled from the pile that has for so long a time stood on Gold street and are being used to repair the streets.

The C. & N. W. train from the south was two hours late yesterday and Marquette passengers had to lay over here until 5:45.

L. H. Kellan has the contract for building the house that S. P. Kline will put up on his lot in the K. & K. addition.

A man employed at one of the East range group of mines had his leg broken by a fall of ground yesterday afternoon.

A party of students from the Michigan Mining school visited Negaunee mines yesterday.

Mr. Nute, agent for the Duluth Mining & Manufacturing Review, was in the city yesterday.

The funeral of the late Levi Ethier will occur this morning at 9 o'clock.

The high school commencement takes place one week from to-night.

Mrs. D. L. West, of McMillan, is visiting friends in the city.

The wreck at the diamond crossing has been cleared up.

Well, how about that Fourth of July celebration?

ANSON'S RABBIT FOOT LOST

Chicago Captain Tries Luby, The Young Texan Pitcher, With Disastrous Results.

BOSTON MAKES A WARM DAY VERY CHEILY FOR MURTRIE'S AGGREGATION.

Bison's Shut Out—Gruber Does Fine Work in the Box—Allegheny Plays Ball.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 18.—The home team of the National league shut out the Clevelanders this afternoon in a game complete with pretty plays and good batting on the part of the Alleghenies. Baker's pitching was very effective, the visitors getting but two hits. Attendance, 300. Score: Cleveland.....1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 Allegheny.....1 0 0 0 0 0 0 2—3

Earned runs, Allegheny, 3. Two-base hits, Davis, Miller. Sacrifice hits, Allegheny, 1; Cleveland, 1. Stolen bases, Allegheny, 2. Double play, Crane and Hecker. Bases on balls, Allegheny, 1; Cleveland, 4. Struck out, by Baker, 3; by Bes, in 1. Time, 1:35. Umpires, Wilson and Deves. Base hits, Allegheny, 0; Cleveland, 2. Errors, Allegheny, 0; Cleveland, 3. Batteries, Baker and Decker; Beatin and Zimmer.

LUBY BATTED OUT OF THE BOX.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, June 18.—Captain Anson put Luby, the young Texan pitcher, in against the Cincinnati this afternoon and he was batted so hard in the second and third innings that Hutchinson was substituted. The Chicago scored their only runs in the first inning, when a base on balls for Conroy and Wilnot and Burns' three base hit sent two men over the plate. The fielding of Conroy and Burns was the feature of the game. Attendance, 1,743. Score: Cincinnati.....0 1 3 2 0 0 0 0—6 Chicago.....2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—2

Earned runs, Cincinnati, 3. Two-base hits, Marr, Stenzel. Three-base hits, Holliday, Burns. Base hits, Cincinnati, 7; Chicago, 4. Errors, Cincinnati, 0; Chicago, 3. Base hits, Boston, 11; New York, 5. Errors, Boston, 2; New York, 8. Batteries, Nichols and Bennett; Burkett and Sommers.

PLAYERS LEAGUE.

CHICAGO, June 18.—The Cleveland, Players league, defeated the Chicagoes to-day in one of the most interesting games played this season. Gruber's work in the box was superb. Score: Chicago.....1 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—3 Cleveland.....0 1 0 0 0 0 1 0—2

Base hits, Chicago, 3; Cleveland, 8. Errors, Chicago, Dwyer and Farrell; Cleveland, Gruber and Sutcliffe. Earned runs, Cleveland, 1. Three-base hits, McAleer. Two-base hits, Duffy, Larkin. Base on balls, Pfeffer, McAleer, Boyle, 2. Hit by pitched ball, Latham. Passed balls, Sutcliffe, 3. Wild pitches, Dwyer, 1. Struck out, Larkin, McAleer, Gruber. Umpires, Ferguson and Holbert. Time, two hours.

BUFFALO SHUT OUT.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 18.—In the Players' league contest, Buffalo was treated to a dose of white wash. The Pittsburghs only had seven hits but they were so well placed that they earned three of their runs. Attendance, 1,300. Score: Pittsburgh.....0 3 0 0 2 0 1 0—6 Buffalo.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0

Earned runs, Pittsburgh, 3. Three-base hits, Kuehne. Home run, Gray. Sacrifice hits, Pittsburgh, 2; Buffalo, 1. Stolen bases, Pittsburgh, 3; Buffalo, 2. Double plays, Kuehne and Beckley. SENTENCE DEFERRED.

Christian Merkle Confesses The Crime For Which His Wife Was Convicted.

NAPA, Cal., June 18.—Mrs. Margaret Merkle, convicted of manslaughter for the killing of Joseph Von Wyle, was to have been sentenced yesterday, but her attorney asked for a new trial and offered an affidavit by her husband, Christian Merkle, stating that he and not his wife killed Von Wyle. He alleges that it was done in self-defense during a quarrel in which they were all engaged, and says his reason for not making it known before was that he thought his wife would surely escape conviction. The court reserved its decision.

YAPA, Cal., June 18.—Margaret Merkle, recently convicted of manslaughter for killing J. Von Wyle, and whose husband yesterday made an alleged confession that he and not his wife did the killing, was sentenced to five years in the state prison to-day, the court holding that confession should have been made during the trial. The case will be appealed.

DETROIT CARPENTERS' STRIKE.

Contractors Ask The Courts to Restrain Strikers From Interfering With Workmen.

DETROIT, Mich., June 18.—The firm of Vinton & Co. filed a bill of complaint against the members of the strike committee in the circuit court this forenoon. They ask that the court issue an injunction restraining the strike committee from attempting to get any non-union men to leave their employ or to harass or intimidate them and from congregating with other strikers or urging strikers to congregate in the vicinity of their shop or any place where they in any way attempt to interfere with the business or employ of the firm. Judge Hosmer granted the injunction. There is considerable difference of opinion as to what effect it can or will have. The unions are not incorporated and the strike committee is not considered to be a legal representative of the various unions. The object of the injunction is to reach the strikers through their representatives; but as the committee is not legally their representative, it is considered doubtful if the injunction will have any effect. Judge Hosmer indorsed a proviso on the injunction providing that the defense should not be restrained from peaceable argument to induce any non-union man to unite with the strikers or demand the scale. The injunction will therefore simply restrain the committee from any violent or illegal methods such as frightening or intimidating to attain their ends.

To Fight Whisky Trust.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The wholesale liquor dealers of this city are thoroughly in earnest in their fight against the whisky trust. At a meeting, held to-day they decided to raise a fund of half a million dollars with which to build one or more distilleries. When finished they will bind themselves to sell no whisky but that made in their distilleries. Several large subscriptions to the fund were made this afternoon, and at a public meeting called for Monday it is believed all the money necessary will be forthcoming.

Amalgamated Convention.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 18.—The sessions of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers for several days have been taken up with routine work. To-morrow the committee on the steel workers and the nomination of officers will report. It is thought the old officers will be re-nominated and elected. An effort will be made to finish up the work of the convention this week.

FOREIGN NEWS NOTES.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, June 18.—The Times commenting on the session of Heligoland says it thinks England was very fortunate in possessing a bit of land valueless to her for which she secured such an adequate concession. The Times approves of Mr. Smith's proposal but regrets his attempt to put a quart of liquor into a pint bottle. The Standard urges the government to take a firm stand. It says the government must pass the licensing and titles bills this season and must show no more pliability. The Standard thinks that the East African settlement with Germany, while nothing for which she need blush, is not an ideal solution of the problem but perhaps it is as good as it was reasonable to expect. German friendship is a valuable asset and like other precious things it must be purchased with a price.

The Standard's Berne correspondent says that the vatican's proposal for the restoration of the nunciature in the Swiss capital. The Telegraph says that the session of Heligoland to Germany will raise sentimental regrets, but that the agreement should be received with thankfulness, in that so thorny a problem can be solved in a manner honorable alike to the pacific intentions of both nations.

The steamer West Cumberland, from Carthagen for Mastyn, was sunk off Finisterre at midnight on the 11th inst. by the torpedo boat Minerva from Newport for Calais. The latter is settling in a damaged condition. There was no loss of life.

The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day is £270,000. A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from its correspondent at Brussels says that Henry M. Stanley has been appointed by King Leopold governor of the Congo Free State. Mr. Stanley will resume the duties of the office in 1891.

ITALY.

ROME, June 18.—The Opinion, commenting on the return of Italian laborers, says: "Two great republics, America and France, have set a hard example in the exclusion of foreign labor. The movement failed to triumph in France, because the workmen there are weaker than they are in America, where the irresistible course of public opinion, after the exclusion of the sober, parsimonious and exact labor of the Chinese, led to an attack on European labor."

FRANCE.

PARIS, June 18.—The telegraph conference yesterday decided that its next meeting should be held at Buda-Pesth. It is officially announced that the agreement relative to the Newfoundland and lobster fisheries is being loyally observed by the French fishermen and that no complaints have been received.

SPAIN.

MADRID, June 18.—There has been five more deaths from cholera at Puebla de Rugat. The disease is generally increasing in Valencia.

Barge Sunk.

NEW ORLEANS, June 18.—This evening the tug boat Ella Andrews, belonging to D. B. Wood & Co., ran into and sunk barge No. 74 of the St. Lawrence & Mississippi Valley Transportation company. The barge was valued at $8,000 and contained 24,300 bushels of corn in bulk. The total loss is estimated at $33,000.

Smith College Commencement.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., June 18.—The commencement exercises of Smith college took place at 10 A. M. to-day. The oration was delivered by Prof. John Dewey, of the University of Michigan. The graduating class numbered sixty-two.

Bad Freight Wreck.

ASHVILLE, N. C., June 18.—There was a terrible wreck of freight trains on the Asheville and Spartanburg branch of the Western North Carolina railway at Melrose Station last night. Four men are reported killed and three badly wounded.

Jay Gould Fined.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Jay Gould has been fined $100 by Judge Fitzgerald for not answering a summons to act as a petit juror.

Snow Nominated.

FAIRBURY, Ill., June 16.—The democratic convention of the Ninth congressional district yesterday nominated Col. W. H. Snow, of Sheldon, for congress.

Magee Gets There.

LANCASTER, Pa., June 18.—D. F. Magee was to-day nominated for congress by the democrats of the Tenth congressional district.

Yale Defeats Princeton.

BROOKLYN, June 18.—Four thousand persons saw Yale defeat Princeton at base ball, to-day by a score of 6 to 5. Stagg and Young were the pitchers.

High Prices for Real Estate.

The highest priced real estate in this country is in lower Broadway and around Wall street. It ranges upward from $75 a square foot to prices that even millionaires are ashamed to acknowledge they have paid for it. I know of sales that have recently been made at $105 a square foot, and offers for some at $150. What is more to the purpose, when high office buildings are put up on the property the rentals prove that the ground is worth the price.—Interview in New York Press.

THE BALL WENT THROUGH HIM.

The Soldier Thought So and He Sat Waiting to Die.

"I was wounded three times during the war," said Maj. L. with a merry twinkle in his fine brown eye; "once right away, but you see I am still an inhabitant of this beautiful earth."

"Perhaps you suggested one of his listeners," you were like the man of whom the newspaper man wrote: "The ball entered his left side, inflicting a mortal wound. With good care he will be able to pull through all right."

"That's just where the ball did enter," replied the soldier cheerfully. "I was in the Shenandoah valley with Sheridan, and we were having a lively little time of it, a regular hare and hounds race all the time, it seemed. We were chasing the enemy out of the country, and in one of our charges I suddenly stopped short, feeling as if a red-hot sword had been thrust through me. I was wounded, badly, too. The ball had entered my left side and had passed clean through my body, leaving a fierce burning trail."

"Well, I said to myself, 'Abe L., this time you are a dead man. No man can live when a bullet has plowed its way through his vitals.'"

"I staggered out of the line. The fighting business was so brisk just then that wounded men were looking out for themselves. I managed to get to a log and sat down on it to wait until I should die. The pain was so fearful I seemed to paralyze my nervous and muscular force. As I sat there watching the men scampering along, one of my old comrades passed me."

"What's the matter, Abe?" he cried. "Hi?" "They've done me this time," I answered. "I hope not," he turned and yelled back to be ran. One doesn't expect delicate attention at such times.

"Well, I waited to die until finally I said to myself, 'If this is dying it isn't so bad after all.'"

"I unbuckled my belt to ease the pain and thought that I would take out what a deadly wound looked like. I took a look and there was no wound there. I could not believe my eyes. I knew I had been hit, for I could feel where the ball had come out in my back. I put my hand around there to touch the hole and could not find it. There was a faint, slightly wounded on my side, not a mark on the skin. It took me not more than thirty seconds to buckle my belt around me and make a run for my company. I caught it in twenty minutes."

"How's this?" two or three of the boys panted. "We thought you were killed." "Well, you see I am not," I said, falling into the ranks.

"I had been hit by a spent ball, and that night when I examined my side I found a black and blue spot on it as big as my cap. I didn't mind it in the least. A man who suddenly recovers from a mortal wound feels pretty cheerful."—New York Tribune.

A Railroad Car Used for a Barn.

For months a box car, that for present purposes may be known as No. 1,458, had been bothering the man who keeps track of the cars on the South Shore road. He traced it to a certain station, and there all was lost. In the mountainous region of the far west a car had been known to tumble down a precipice and thus become lost, but here such a thing could not happen. The subject of the mysterious car grew upon his mind to such an extent that he determined to find that car or perish in the attempt. Accordingly he went to the station at which places the car was last heard from and started after the truant box car. Coming down the line to a point but a few miles above Ipswich, he went in on a branch to a mine that is a small shipper, and where the track is not kept open in winter. Getting a mile or so out on the branch he suddenly came out on No. 1,458. Upon investigation he found that a farmer who lived in the vicinity had been, and was still, using the car as a barn, there being six horses in the car at the time. It is needless to say that the track was plowed out the next Sunday, and the farmer's barn is now engaged in the wheat traffic.—Mining Journal.

Acting Its Song.

The white banded mocking bird of southern South America—the finest feathered melodist in the world—is one of the species that accompany music with appropriate motions. And just as its song is, so to speak, inspired and an improvisation, unlike any song the bird has ever uttered, so its motions all have the same character of spontaneity and follow no order, and yet have a grace and passion and a perfect harmony with the music unparalleled among birds possessing a similar habit. While singing he passes from bush to bush, sometimes delaying a few moments on and at others just touching the summits, and at times sinking out of sight in the foliage, then in an excess of rapture soaring vertically to a height of a hundred feet, with measured wing beats like those of a heron, or mounting suddenly in a wild, hurried zigzag, then slowly circling downward to sit at last with tail outspread fanwise and vane, glistening white in the sunshine, expanded and vibrating, or waved languidly up and down, with a motion like that of some broad winged butterfly at rest on a flower.—Longman's Magazine.

Three Trips to Europe Yearly.

A Franklin street merchant has for six years taken his vacation regularly in the summer by making three round trips in succession on an ocean steamer. It gives him a little over six weeks on the water during the summer, and he is long enough in London and America between the trips to attend to the details of his business. The expense when figured up is remarkably light, but a man must be very fond of the sea to undergo continued trips in this fashion practically all summer.—New York World.

THE TINKERS WITH TIME.

A MAN WHO REMEMBERS WATCHES BUT FORGETS FACES. The Physiognomy of a Timepiece—Have a Regular Hour for Winding—The Watch Case Record—How a Man Sent a Valentine to His Son. In a jewelry store not a thousand miles from the City hall the watch department is in charge of a pleasant faced, good natured man, whose weight must be close to 200 pounds. Among his other duties is that of winding watches, and this is a duty which has to be attended to on Sundays as well as on other days. It is his custom to look after the finer grades of watches, particularly when they are being regulated, with especial care, and he says that a good watch ought to be wound about the same time in each twenty-four hours.

THE WATCH FOR A LIFE TIME.

WASH GOODS.

This is the season when the ladies desire light wash goods for cool summer wear. To give a complete enumeration of our stock would take all the space at our command. We have the largest stock in the city. We also consider it the best. The prices will be found lower than at other stores. We would like all the ladies to call and look over our stock of dress goods for summer wear. If we can secure their presence a sale will certainly follow. Our big stock of dress goods in all varieties, and at all prices, is, of course, complete.

BOOTS AND SHOES

for the entire family, from the baby up to paterfamilias. This department we pride ourselves in keeping always complete. The largest stock in the city to select from. Remember that we buy shoes by the carload. We can fit anyone.

CLOTHING.

Our clothing department covers more floor space than any exclusive clothing store in the city. The size of our stock and number of clerks employed in this department may give you some idea of our clothing business.

LAST, but not least, if you can't find what you want anywhere else, call on us and secure it. We like to have people come to us who have been led through other stocks without getting what they want. We keep it in stock.

HAVE YOU

Seen Our Store Recently? If not You have missed it. Our place is a veritable HIVE of INDUSTRY, and well worth seeing. Groceries coming in by the carload. Dry Goods in endless quantities. Millinery—an ordinary store full. Carpets and Crockery have been moved up-stairs on account of a lack of room on the first floor. Come and see us. It will be for your interest as well as ours to do so.

The Census, the Circus, and the Express Company Constitute the Sum of a Day's News.

Stand up and be Counted.

The three enumerators who are taking the census here are doing their level best to make the work as complete as possible, but in the nature of things it is not possible to get a complete count. For this reason it is important that everyone who has not had his or her name taken by an enumerator should report it to Mr. Newett, the supervisor of the census. There will be no break-neck effort made here to pad the census of the city, but it is just as well to have the count as complete as possible.

The Circus. Prof. Williams' circus, which was here last season, pitched its tent upon the ground back of the high school yesterday morning, and gave an afternoon and evening exhibition, which will be repeated to-day.

The company is a small one, and but a small admission fee is charged. There is some very good tumbling, vaulting, and trapeze work, and for those who are fond of that sort of thing the exhibition given is well worth the money charged for seeing it. If the proprietor of the show will take a little advice, the MNING JOURNAL would suggest that he kill the band, and cut out the street parade feature. The dismal wailing of the band and the sorry appearance of the procession on the street are features that do not assist any in filling the tent.

The Express Company. The American Express company, is, like all other corporations, soulless, but it has the respect of the public, if not its love, for the expeditious and business-like manner in which it performs any services that may be asked of it. It charges enough for the work, but it does it, and does it promptly and well.

The advantages pointed out in the MINING JOURNAL a week ago, that would be had by sending mail from Chicago and Milwaukee to Ishpeming by the fast train of the Milwaukee & Northern all apply with equal force to the business of the express company, and the latter, which has not quite so much red tape as Uncle Sam has to contend with, has already begun forwarding its express matter between Chicago and Ishpeming via the M. & N. Express matter that is delivered to the office at Chicago in the afternoon leaves there at 7 P. M. instead of 9 P. M., and reaches here at 8:30 A. M., instead of 12:30 P. M. Now all we want is for Uncle Samuel to get a hump on himself and make as good time with his mail bags as the American Express company does with its parcels.

GROCERIES can be bought as cheap as Johnson & Co. as in Milwaukee or Chicago. 3-18

Notice to Contractors.

Bonds For Sale.

The city of Ishpeming offers the following city bonds authorized by popular vote, bearing interest at four (4) per cent per annum payable semi-annually on the first day of March and September in each year, at the Hanover National Bank in the city of New York, and maturing in classes as follows:

$7,500 payable in 1906
$7,500 payable in 1907
$7,500 payable in 1908
$7,500 payable in 1909

These bonds are in denomination of $500 each, and will be sold to the highest bidder.

Sealed proposals will be received up to noon of July 2, 1890, by Andrew Sandberg, City Recorder, and each bid must specify the amount of bonds wanted, the class (date of maturity) and price bid.

THE DAY IN MARQUETTE.

Architect Charlton's Plans Show That New Opera House Will Be Beautiful Structure.

SOME DETAILS CONCERNING ARRANGEMENT OF AUDITORIUM.

Sneak Thieves Are at Work in Town—Marquette's New Battery Arrives—Session of Scottish Rite Masons.

Opera House Plans.
Architect Charlton has the opera house plans sufficiently well forward that a good idea may be formed of the interior of the auditorium. An inspection of the designs shows that a very pretty and comfortable house will be the result of Mr. Charlton's labors.

The broad corridor from the front opens, after passing the box office, upon the parterre and dress circle. Passing to the left one enters the crush room at the back of the house. From this two broad doors open upon the ground level, giving plenty of exit room and perfect safety. The balcony is reached by broad stairs rising through an archway beside the box-office. The gallery has a separate entrance and ticket window, reached from the paved alley beside the building. Stairs from balcony and gallery lead directly to the ground and both also open upon iron fire-escape platforms with iron stairs leading to the ground.

There will be eight private boxes, four on the parterre and four on the balcony level. The proscenium arch is 28 feet high by 28 feet in width. A huge inclined sounding board over it and absence of flat surfaces in the ceiling or walls will make the acoustics perfect. The ceiling is divided into panels by the great trusses of the roof, affording opportunity for rich effects in decoration and electric lighting. The stage will be sixty feet clear under the "grid-iron" and forty feet between the fly galleries, giving sufficient room for the largest scenery.

Ample arrangements are made for ventilation, toilet rooms, etc. A smoking-room will be placed over the parterre lobby and be reached by a stairway in the corner of the latter. The dressing rooms are on the stage level and in the front section of the building and are very conveniently arranged. Altogether Marquette will have an opera house to be proud of artistically and one which the connected business block will make a success financially.

Look Out For Sneak Thieves.
Persons going out for the evening will do well to fasten up their houses securely for the sneak thief is abroad in the land. Wednesday night the residence of E. H. Towar was entered during the absence of the family. The thief effected an entrance through a back window. The unexpected return of a servant surprised the minion of the moon while he was making a comfortable lunch in the kitchen and he bolted precipitately from a window and vanished in the darkness. Apparently he thought he had all night for the job and that he might as well fill up before considering what he might most profitably steal.

New Battery Arrives.
Wilder and Thorpe, the new pitcher and catcher signed by the Marquette Base Ball club, arrived in this city yesterday. Wilder has made a fine record as a twirler at Lansing and elsewhere. Thorpe played with Elmira in the New York State league last year and caught for Lansing this season up to the time the latter team disbanded on the breaking up of the Michigan State league. The local managers hope and believe that they have secured an effective battery at last. The ten day rule will prevent the new men from playing in Saturday's game with Hancock unless an agreement can be made to allow them to go in.

Scottish Rite Session.
The three bodies of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Masonry having their seat in the Valley of Marquette, Peninsula Chapter of Rose Croix, Lake Superior Council of Princes of Jerusalem and Marquette Lodge of Perfection, begin their semi-annual session to-day and will conclude their work Friday evening. Quite a class of candidates for the grades up to and including the eighteenth will be present. These are the only bodies of this rite in the upper peninsula and north of Grand Rapids. An effort is making to establish a Concoitsy of the thirty-second degree which will probably be brought to pass at the session of the Supreme Council next year.

Decided for First Filer.
The Foster-Walker homestead contest has been decided by the local land office in favor of the first filer, Joseph Foster. The case has excited much interest among the homesteaders on account of its peculiar complications. As brought out the facts were that Foster filed on the land in the O. & B. grant in the spring of 1888. He went on September 10, 1888, built a house and remained until the middle of November. The act of forfeiture went into effect March 2, 1889, and O. R. Walker went on the land on March 6th, and took possession of Foster's house. On March 13th Foster reappeared and demanded his house. That night the cabin was mysteriously burned and Walker moved into another which he had been building. By various means, among which threats of violence were alleged, he kept Foster from building another house until May 20th. Walker also swore that he had obtained a relinquishment from Foster but had lost the document. Foster denied making relinquishment. Many witnesses were sworn and charges of perjury were made. Messrs. Mapes and Byrne appeared for Walker and F. O. Clark for Foster. First filers have not been generally considered to stand much show as against first settlers, but in this case it was held that Walker clearly "jumped" Foster's claim. No appeal has yet been taken.

"And So They Were Married."
Miss Minerva Ralph and Mr. James A. Jilbert were united in marriage last evening at the house of the bride's parents on Genesee street, Rev. F. C. Pillsbury officiating. Mr. Jilbert is a member of the Marquette City band and that organization turned out in a body in honor of the occasion and played a number of fine selections at the reception following the ceremony. The gifts were numerous and a host of friends wished the young couple happiness and prosperity.

Got the Wrong Man.
It turned out yesterday that the man Roche, arrested at Negaunee Tuesday night for disorderly conduct, was not Ed. Young as believed by the police. It is thought, however, that Roche is in some way connected with the recent burglaries here, as he had on him eight knives from the lot stolen from White & Packard's and Neidhardt's stores. Roche says he bought the knives from some man whom he never saw before and does not know. His story is considered very thin by the police. Roche was brought to this city yesterday, having been sentenced to thirty days in jail by the Negaunee justice on the disorderly charge.

Wreck Causes Delay.
About a dozen freight cars were ditched on the Chicago & Northwestern road a few miles south of Wrightstown early yesterday morning, delaying over three hours the mail train from Chicago. This train should have arrived at Negaunee at 12:25 p. m., but did not get in until 4 p. m., thus delaying until evening Chicago mail and Milwaukee papers. No one was hurt in the smash-up.

There Are Two Such Men.
The item published in Wednesday morning's Mining Journal, stating that there is but one electrical man in town who dare repair a burned out converter, is a mistake, as I positively know there are two men in town who, had either one known of the trouble, would have replaced the fuse link at once and with the current on as they have done so before and thought nothing of it, as it is customary and a common occurrence.

J. D. LADUE.
Hold it to the Light.
The man who tells you confidentially just what will cure your cold is prescribing Kemp's Balsam this year. In the preparation of this remarkable medicine for coughs and colds no expense is spared to combine only the best and purest ingredients. Hold a bottle of Kemp's Balsam to the light and look through it; notice the bright, clear look; then compare with other remedies. Price 50c. and $1 Sample bottle free.

A SAFE INVESTMENT
Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised druggist a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of throat, lungs or chest, such as consumption, inflammation of lungs, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough, croup, etc., etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste, perfectly safe, and can always be depended upon.

Trial bottles free at H. H. Stafford & Son's drugstore.
"What More Can We Ask?"
Since the Milwaukee & Northern have furnished us two trains each way to Chicago & Milwaukee and by the last change one of these being a limited leaving Chicago 7:30, Milwaukee 10:30 p. m., arriving at Ishpeming 8:19 a. m., Negaunee 8:28 a. m., and Marquette, 9 a. m., in other words decreasing the time about six hours, it would seem our wishes have been anticipated and that this gigantic stride toward placing the upper peninsula on an equal footing with other sections in regard to rapid transit by the M. & N. R. R. can but meet the approval of our citizens and secure their patronage for this enterprising line. 17w1

Special sale of Hats and Flowers for the next week, at Miss H. Howard's.
Wanted.
