COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF VEASEY GETS DIAMOND BADGE.

Ex-President Hayes Makes the Presentation Speech—Contest for Commander-in-Chief.

OLD SOLDIERS IN LINE.

DETROIT, Aug. 4.—This has been a proud day in the history of the Grand Army of the Republic. It has witnessed the grandest parade in the history of the organization and has made the Twenty-fifth or "Silver" encampment an occasion of magnificence and grandeur surpassing the fondest dreams cherished by the order's founder, Dr. Stephenson, who sleeps in an unmarked grave at Decatur, Ill.

For six hours today, under a bright sun, 40,000 veterans, tramped sturdily over the line of march, and such was the inspiration of the moment that even the feeblest of the maimed and crippled comrades found himself adequate to the ordeal of the five miles march.

The firing of a salute from the United States steamship Michigan in the harbor announced to the waiting veterans at 10:30 o'clock that the command to move had been given by the commander-in-chief.

When General Veasey appeared before the reviewing stand, the vast concourse of people clustered about the Campus Martius cheered themselves hoarse. The commander-in-chief reined up his charger. General Alger and the Detroit posts, his escort, passed by him and drew up before the reviewing stand fronting it with canes at present. General Veasey look on with a gratified smile then lifting his hat gracefully from his brow, he allowed his horse to pass with slow steps before them.

As he passed the reviewing stand, the band struck up a lively air and the crowd cheered once more. General Veasey then rode to the stand and dismounted, entering his box in front. The Detroit posts passed by and the parade continued toward the massive war arch. Besides the staff of the commander-in-chief there were on the reviewing stand Secretary-of-War Proctor, Secretary-of-the-Navy Tracy, General Miles, Assistant Secretary-of-the Interior Bussey, half a dozen past commanders-in-chief, Governor Page of Vermont, Governor Winans of Michigan, Senator Manderson, President Palmer of the World's Fair, and General Henry A. Barnum of New York.

GENERAL VEASEY GETS A BADGE.

The day was marked with many pleasant incidents but none attracted more admiration than the spectacle of an ex-president of the United States honoring the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. Ex-President Hayes, accompanied by Col. F. J. Hecker and the committee that purchased the $1,000 diamond G. A. R. badge for General Veasey, called at the national headquarters today to make the formal presentation. The ceremony took place in the large parlor of the hotel where General Veasey stood with his wife, surrounded by his entire staff.

"Commander-in-Chief Veasey," said ex-President Hayes, "the comrades who with me have been honored with places on your staff have assigned to me the agreeable duty of presenting to you this badge. We ask you to accept it as a token of the esteem, the admiration and the affection in which you are held by ourselves and by our comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic. It will, we trust, bring present joy to you and your family. It will remind you and them of the honorable part you bore in the great event of this age—in the sacred and stainless war for union and liberty. (applause). During your term of office, you have, as you promised when you were chosen, amply kept between yourself and comrades, not only the touch of the elbow, but also the touch of the heart. Our hope is that this simple gift will remind you after times those who bear your name and comrades of the great conflict—that it will recall the famous day of Gettysburg—the day of your opportunity, of your honorable service and of your signal triumph. It will also we hope be to you a well-spring of gratifying meditation upon the future. In after times those who bear your name and share your blood will rejoice as they look upon this emblem—their prized family heirloom—and be filled with gratitude that Providence allotted to them the inspiring privilege of tracing their origin to a man who in his young manhood was a splendid figure in the decisive battle of the divine war, and who stood faithfully and bravely by Abraham Lincoln from its beginning to its end. (applause) Our wishes and our prayers are that your life may be long and happy in the land, which in the day of its deadly peril you did your part to save." (applause)

General Veasey replied briefly, thanking the donors for their good wishes and graceful compliment.

WASHINGTON WILL WIN.

The next national encampment of the Grand Army Republic will be held in Washington. The justice of this assertion may not be conceded by the partisans of Lincoln, Neb., but the logic of the situation fully justifies the statement. Diligent inquiry at the various department headquarters indicates that when the roll of states is called on the location of next encampment, Washington will get the prize by a vote of nearly two to one.

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF CONTEST.

The various candidates for commander-in-chief are pressing their claims with increased energy tonight and the contest is by no means over. Charles P. Lincoln, of Washington, assistant commissioner of pensions, has withdrawn from the race. As it stands tonight the choice of commander-in-chief is between Weissert of Wisconsin, Smedberg of California, Hurst of Ohio and Hedges of New York. Weissert's candidacy is the only one that is sharply defined as to states. The situation is complicated tonight by sudden extravagant claims of Ohio for Hurst and a rumor that Illinois may decide to present that name of ex-Governor Richard J. Oglesby for commander-in-chief.

FIGHTING ON THE COLOR LINE.

The race problem still looms up ominously in the Grand Army and the question on every lip is now, "Can this dispute be settled by the encampment without a serious disruption of the southern division?" The whites of the Louisiana and Mississippi still insist the negro ex-soldier ought not to be admitted with the whites while the colored veterans vow they will reject the Grand Army rather than submit to the conditions of a separate organization in each southern state for the colored members of the order. The colored delegates from Louisiana will make a request tomorrow to present their side of the case in an address to the encampment.

MAY SHUT O'BRIEN OUT.

Cannot Sit in Commons if Adjudged a Bankrupt.

DUBLIN, Aug. 4.—Further action was taken in the bankruptcy court here today in the case of William O'Brien, against whom proceedings to adjudge him a bankrupt were taken while he was serving two concurrent sentences of six months under the crimes act. The basis of the action was the failure of Mr. O'Brien to pay the costs of the action for libel brought by him against Lord Salisbury at the Manchester assizes in July, 1889, in which action a verdict was returned for the defendant, thus throwing the costs upon the plaintiff. The registrar in bankruptcy today issued an order granting Mr. O'Brien a further extension of three days in which to show cause why a decree in bankruptcy against him should not be issued. Mr. O'Brien will not fight the matter to the bitter end, as should a decree be issued declaring him a bankrupt, he would be debarred from sitting as a member of the house of commons.

JOINS THE PEOPLE'S PARTY.

Harrison Kelly, of Kansas, Kisses the Hands That Smote Him.

TOPEKA, Kan. Aug. 4.—A letter from Harrison Kelly, ex-congressman from this district, in which he renounces the Republican party and declares that in the future he will be found fighting with Peffer, Polk and Simpson, has created more talk in political circles than any event of the kind in the past few months. Mr. Kelly's letter was in response to a communication from Major Hudson, editor of the Topeka Capital, requesting him to deny a statement published in a people's party paper concerning his political faith. Mr. Kelly says he has turned to the new party the people's party—as the best means through which to accomplish the reforms demanded by the people. Favoring their measures and believing their enactment would result in great benefit to the people and both the old parties having rejected them, he thinks the logical thing to do is to support the party that favors them.

EIFFEL MAY BUILD A TOWER.

Famous Paris Iron Worker Wants to Come to Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—President Baker of the directors of the World's Columbian Fair today received a proposition by cable from Mr. Eiffel, the builder of the Eiffel tower of the Paris exposition, saying he would like to make a proposition for building a tower on the World's Fair grounds. Mr. Baker replied saying that the management would be glad to receive such a proposition from him.

A cablegram was received from Commissioner Shufeldt, at present in Turkey, saying that the sultan had decided on making an exhibit and desired space. A large amount of money, the cable said, would be appropriated.

Other Packers Inspired by Victory of the "Big Three."

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.—The success of the "Big Three" packers in bringing the Union Stock Yards company to their terms by threatening to move their plants to Tolleston has, it is said, given the smaller packers an idea by which they hope to secure equally as good terms as did Armour, Swift and Morris. The method outlined, it is said, is very similar to that adopted by the "Big Three," with the difference that Stiekney will take the place of Tolleston as a cudgel to be held over the head of the Stock Yards company.

READING, Pa., Aug. 4.—The Pottsville Iron & Steel company put another furnace in operation at West Humburg, this county, today, and five large double furnaces are now running with non-union men. Next week it is intended to run the mill on double turn. The feeling between union and non-union men is very bitter, and personal encounters are imminent.

HAVE HOPES FOR 1891.

Knights of Labor Expect Third Party President Then.

GRAND RAPIDS, Aug. 4.—A special from Lansing to the Democrat says: The general state assembly of the Knights of Labor has been in session with closed doors this afternoon and evening with 20 delegates present, representing 100 assemblies throughout the state. The one point of importance was action on the recent greeting sent by the general secretary and treasurer of the order at Philadelphia by which the assembly was earnestly requested to take independent political action.

There has been an effort to induce the assembly to endorse the people's party platform, but the alliance forces were routed by the sudden appearance of John DeWitt, of Detroit, member of the general executive committee of the order. It is doubtful if the effort would have been successful anyway, as Master Workman Henry I. Allen, of Schoolcraft, was heartily adverse to such radical measures and had in a measure prepared to fight the move. In lieu of such action the assembly adopted a resolution endorsing the action of all industrial councils or conventions that have inaugurated work looking to a consolidation of all industrial people at the ballot box, trusting that this great movement of industrial consolidation may culminate in the full emancipation of the masses from industrial slavery.

Following this a greeting was extended to the Farmers' Alliance, the Patrons of Husbandry, the Patrons of Industry, the Citizens' Alliance and the National Citizens' Alliance promising support in all well directed efforts for the advance of the cause of industrial reform.

The act of the legislature in reducing the test of illuminating oils was heartily condemned as being in the interest of the monopolists.

Master Workman Allen said that the circular sent by the general secretary and treasurer of the order was the first move toward a grand co-operation of all the labor leaders throughout the country for strong and full effort for an advance of industrial reform. He has great faith in the efficiency of the movement and in its organizations. He says the time is not far distant when the people's interests will triumph. Evidently the coming presidential election will find them but just getting a first strength, as he does not hope to place the industrial movement presidential candidate in the White house until 1896. He reports Michigan coming rapidly to the front within the past six months.

The assembly adjourned at 9 o'clock after electing the following officers: State master workman, Henry I. Allen of Schoolcraft; state worthy foreman, W. D. Smith of Fort Gratiot; secretary and treasurer, Theodore H. Holt of Grand Rapids; statistician, H. F. Baker of Lansing; executive board, D. E. Fleming of Hillsdale, Charles Hasse of Lansing and William E. Adams of New Buffalo. E. H. Belden of Horton was elected a delegate to the general assembly to be held in Toledo in November with H. J. Allen of Schoolcraft as alternate. The next state assembly will be held at Grand Rapids the second Tuesday in February.

BOYS CANNOT EXPERIMENT.

Bell Telephone Company Seems to Be in Small Business.

GRAND RAPIDS, Aug. 4.—[Special.]—The Bell Telephone company has commenced suit in the federal court against the Rev. Dr. Charles Fluhrer, E. A. Moseley and John W. Chase for infringement of patent. The real offenders in the case are the sons of Dr. Fluhrer and of Mr. Moseley. The boys studied about electricity in the high school last spring and were inspired thereby to try experiments. They constructed telephones of their own, using the Bell telephone for a model, and then placing the instruments in their respective attics connected them by private wire. The wire was extended to John W. Chase's electrical works. The boys used the wires for private purposes entirely. One day the wire got crossed with a telephone exchange wire, and in the investigation that followed the contraband instruments were discovered and the prosecution was instituted.

MARQUETTE, MICH., AUGUST 5.

LET US BE THERE. It is obvious that the state administration does not intend to do anything adequate toward having the resources of this peninsula represented at the World's Fair.

What shall we, of the upper peninsula, do about it? Consent to let the great exposition which is to take place in a city within twelve hours ride of us pass without utilizing it to advertise the extent and value of our resources, or do for ourselves what the state should do for us but will not, and place an exhibit there that will do this peninsula credit and put the beggarly state administration which has insulted and sought to belittle it to the blush?

The latter, by all means, say we. Let us take the matter in hand ourselves, and at once, and there will be an exhibit from the upper peninsula at the World's Fair that will attract more attention, and excite greater interest in the region furnishing it, than will that which Governor Winans and his commission will have there to represent the resources and products of the great state of Michigan.

To do this we must go down in our pockets and work unitedly and harmoniously to make the exhibit from this peninsula commensurate with the importance of the grand region that it will represent, of the unexampled variety and marvelous richness of its natural resources, and of the superb spirit and enterprise of its people.

The state has taxed us for an exhibit at the Columbian exposition in which we are, manifestly, not to have a just or creditable share. If we would not submit to this wrong there is but one thing to do. That is to tax ourselves for an exhibit that will be all our own; that will be representative of what the upper peninsula possesses and produces; that will be managed by upper peninsula men, and that will speak in a manner that cannot be misunderstood of the progressive spirit and high courage of the upper peninsula people.

This paper believes that the great mining and lumbering interests of our peninsula will loyally aid in getting up such an exhibit as no state in the union can equal if the people generally take hold of it in such a manner as to leave no doubt of their earnestness and determination. It knows that with their aid and co-operation an exhibit can be placed at the World's Fair that will spread far and wide the fame of this peninsula, and do more to familiarize visitors to the exposition with the great possibilities of this region and the grand future before it than can be done in any other way. Are not the objects to be attained by doing this worth the effort that must be put forth to secure them? Beyond question they are. Every dollar in money and labor that is put into such an exhibit will be returned to us a hundred-fold in the attention that it will direct to the opportunities which this peninsula holds out to both capital and labor, and the capital and people that it will bring here to take part in the development of our varied and marvelously rich resources.

If Detroit can afford to put $100,000 into a Grand Army encampment as a business investment (and that is what the money was put in for) surely the whole upper peninsula can afford to put one-half that amount into getting up an exhibit for the greatest exposition that ever been held in this country, if not in the world.

But how should we go about doing this? If there is the will to do it the way can be found. Suppose a convention of the leading citizens of the upper peninsula counties be held for the purpose of arranging a "plan of campaign" and making all needed dispositions for getting up the exhibit, procuring space for it, and providing the means to render it thoroughly representative of the mineral, forest and agricultural resources of the peninsula, as also of its progress in mining, manufacturing, quarrying, and in the various other industries that have obtained a foothold here? Is there a doubt that such a gathering of the men who lead the march of progress in this peninsula and have accomplished such splendid results as managers of our great enterprises, would not be able to find ways and means for an undertaking in which the end to be attained dwarfs into insignificance the outlay required to secure it? To doubt this is to doubt the existence of the very qualities in our people that have already made the upper peninsula the wonderland of the country in the magnitude of its enterprises, the daring of its stupendous undertakings and the value of the producing industries that they have directed to a successful issue.

Let us have an upper peninsula exhibit at the Columbian exposition that will be paid for by upper peninsula money, representative of upper peninsula products and resources, typical of upper peninsula pride and energy, and managed by upper peninsula men, and we shall effectively turn the tables on the small-souled chief executive of the state who denied us representation on the commission that he has just formed, and the "cheap and nasty" politicians who counseled him to that action.

THE MINING JOURNAL complains long and loud against Governor Winan's Columbian fair commission because a resident of the upper peninsula was not included. The great wealth of the upper peninsula consists of its mineral deposits, and no doubt Dr. Wadsworth, of the mining school and state geologist, or some such capable scientist, will be put in charge of the mineral collection of the state, and in that appointment the interests of the upper peninsula will be fully represented. We believe the MINING JOURNAL is fair and candid enough to admit that such an arrangement should be entirely satisfactory to the upper peninsula.—Grand Rapids Press.

This peninsula is fairly entitled by reason of its great interests, its importance as a wealth-producer, and its political influence, to at least one member of the commission. Being denied that it will accept nothing less. Prof. Wadsworth will not be available for the services mentioned by our Grand Rapids contemporary: neither will any other upper peninsula man of the standing and reputation required to qualify him for taking charge of an exhibit for this region. We are mad all through up here over the insult put upon us and the gross injustice done us by the governor, and there will be either a purely upper peninsula exhibit from this peninsula at the World's Fair or none at all.

Every citizen of the state will be gratified to learn that the Grand Army encampment at Detroit is proving an unqualified success, all the more so because Detroit and her citizens put up for it in a right princely fashion when forced to choose between doing that and having the encampment turn out a humiliating fizzle. There is plenty of public spirit in Detroit when it is waked up, as it seems to have been, and quite thoroughly, in the case of the G. A. R. encampment.

When a newspaper, daily or otherwise, employs a large share of its space in telling what an all-fired good advertising medium it is, there is some reason to believe that it finds the business men whom it has occasion to approach distressingly skeptical as to its value for advertising purposes. The point of this observation lies mainly in its proper application, and those whom it concerns are at liberty to apply it wherever it will fit.

WHERE will Gov. Winans find the authority to appoint an "extra" member of the World's Fair commission, and where would the "extra," should one be appointed, get his pay and allowance for his expenses? Will the newspaper "freak" which has discovered a way out of his self-created dilemma for the governor please answer? We all want to know, you know, the matter being one of pressing importance.

Worthy of Strict Investigation. EDITOR MINING JOURNAL.—Pardon me for commencing this screed by pelted the first thing at the heads of your readers that chestnut of chestnuts which tells how the gods help those who help themselves, etc. In introducing here this antiquated aphorism, I intend the force of the "observation," as what-you-may-call-it would say, to lie in its application.

Here's a big, diversified mineral country, most of all of which is under the directing influence of rich land corporations and successful mining companies. These independent pecuniary bodies, unlike the business men and other traders up here, outside of their safe and agreeable circles, are not on the jump all the time for the "great stake," for the simple reason that they "don't have to." What is the consequence? The landed proprietors in question are looking on and waiting for the outsider to do the exploring and work of development for them, while the mining companies have all they can do to look after their own bailiwick and turn out satisfactory dividends for their eastern stockholders. In the meantime the population of this district is increasing in a greater proportion than industrial opportunities for labor and business are opening up.

If my position in this matter is correct, it will not be out of place for me to perpetrate again the inquiry, "Can coke pig iron and steel be made in this grade ore, so as to meet all demands of industrial and commercial economy?" This is a subject that it will pay to keep hammering away at. Its successful outcome means a great deal, one way and another, to Marquette county. And while "dress parade" is good in its place, practical "general action" is what "keeps the pot boiling," to use a venerable but very true expression.

PREACHING NIGHT BY NIGHT. DR. C. D. WALKER.—Dear Sir: Last winter I was very much troubled with my throat, especially when preaching night after night. I received the bottle of White Wine of Tar Syrup you so kindly sent me, and am glad to say I was much benefited by its use, and regard it a most excellent medicine for the throat and lungs. Rev. W. F. WAGONER, Pink Hill, Mo.

Honest New York Shop Girl. A gentleman who lives in Cincinnati returned home a day or two ago after a fortnight's sojourn here deeply impressed with the honesty of the New York shop girl.

On the day after his arrival in town he went into a large retail shop in Fourteenth street and made some trifling purchases. The next day he missed a pocketbook containing fifty dollars in currency. He thought that he had mislaid it in his room at the hotel, and a diligent search was made for it. He gave it up as lost, and would have dismissed the matter from his mind had not the clerk of the hotel suggested that he might possibly have left the pocketbook in some store.

The gentleman attached little importance to the suggestion, but about a week afterward he stepped into the Fourteenth street shop and laughingly asked one of the floor walkers if a pocketbook containing fifty dollars had been found there. Much to his surprise, an affirmative answer was given, and in a few seconds his property was restored to him. He learned that the saleswoman from whom he had made his purchase found the pocketbook on the counter after he had departed and promptly turned it in at the office.

"Are all your clerks as honest as that?" asked the Cincinnati man. "Certainly," replied the superintendent of the store. "We have never yet failed to return property lost in this store to claimants who could prove their right to it."

"Well, that beats some towns," said the westerner. "Here's a 'V' for the saleswoman."—New York Times.

Those Wires on the Bridge. Thousands of people cross the bridge every day, but comparatively few of them know much about the wires that are trained across the big structure. They are there in great numbers and of almost endless variety. Their resting place is on the girders. Through them countless messages—telephonic and telegraphic—are transmitted at all hours of the day and night.

Some of them resemble ropes, but they are not, for each contains 500 telephone wires. Of these there are five. Besides them are many other black, snakelike strands, which are other means of communication with Brooklyn and points beyond. Of course, nearly everybody is aware that the land ends of the Atlantic cables of the Commercial company also cross the bridge, but their location is generally misunderstood. They are securely fastened to the under side of the promenade flooring, in plain view of passengers on the trains.—New York Herald.

Magnificent Tobacco Crop. Good news for smokers comes from Havana. It is expected by the best authorities on the subject that the present tobacco crop will even surpass that of ten years ago in quality and quantity. It promises, moreover, to "cure" early enough to enable it to be sampled by July. The interior harvests of the last nine years—with the exception of 1888, which was a comparatively good one—had all been late in arriving. For instance, that of 1890, in spite of the most careful treatment, could not be got to "cure" fit for smoking until last January. The crop is roughly estimated at a quarter of a million bales, each of 100 pounds weight.—London Telegraph.

Merchants of the City Getting Around to the Cash System—Personal Notes, Etc.

IN A STUDIO.

At the invitation of Artist Shrotsky the reporter paid a visit to his studio in the new Lobb block and spent a very enjoyable half hour gazing at the latest oil paintings which Mr. Shrotsky has finished.

The reporter next had his attention attracted by a copy of Rose Bonheur's famous picture, "The Horse Fair." It occupies the whole farther corner of the studio and is eight feet by five in size.

The Cash System.

The cash system of doing business has become very popular with the merchants of Negaunee. But though the system has been generally enforced by our merchants for several months, it has not been the avowed policy of any, and there has not been any material change made in the selling price of goods.

John Mitchell, dealer in general merchandise, took the initiative yesterday and circulated the following announcement that from this date his business will be conducted on a strictly cash basis.

UGHT TO SEE HIS PARTNER.

Olsen Well Used Up in a Bear Fight, but Nothing Like the Other Man.

A man who looked as if he had been trying to hug the cylinder of a threshing machine when it was in motion was seen offering a pack of furs to a dealer up town.

"You are rather late getting your furs to market," said a reporter who happened to be present.

"Yes," was the reply, "but I have been laid up and could not get to town before."

"What has been the matter with you?" asked the reporter, who was anxious to know how the man had been so fearfully scratched.

"The matter with me was an attack of 'bear'."

"You had it bad, judging from your looks."

"Yes, I had it bad, and no mistake, but you just ought to see my partner."

"A great deal worse. He had so much meat scratched off one side of him that he has to carry a weight in his jacket pocket to enable him to walk straight."

The sale of the furs having been completed the old trapper was asked for the story of his encounter with the bear.

He said his name was Hans Olsen, that he lived on the edge of the big burn in Clackamas county, and he went out on the headwaters of the Clackamas trapping with Peter Hansen, who lives in the same section.

After a while the snow became so deep that they could hardly move around, and could not get out of the mountains at all.

On their way home toward night, as they were crossing a little ravine on a fallen tree, Olsen slipped and fell near the roots of the tree and came down plump into a bear's den.

The bear leaped over and the two trappers keeled over also.

Olsen says he intends to go trapping again, but he never wants to meet another bear in his own den again.

WAR ON CATTLE THIEVES.

Ranchmen on the Texas-Louisiana Border Organize Against a Gang of Bandits.

BLOODY BATTLE ENSUES BETWEEN THE PARTIES.

Nine Men Reported Killed and Sixteen Wounded—More Trouble Expected as Thieves Are Still Defiant.

DRIVING OUT DESPERADOS.

HOUSTON, Texas, Aug. 4.—The news of a border war on a much more than ordinarily extensive plan has reached here. The fight occurred some twelve or fourteen miles from Westlake, La., on Lock, Moore & Co's logging tramway. In the battle as reported here nine men were killed and sixteen wounded. The point at which the encounter occurred is just on the line of Texas and Louisiana and the neighborhood has long been the headquarters of a gang whose depredations have made them a terror to all who have any permanent interests there. It is known that some of them reside on the Louisiana side and others in Texas and it has been the custom for the forays into each state to be made by those from the other side, thus escaping the penalty of the law and at the same time sharing the unlawful gain. The gang is known as the "Ashworth People" and is made up mostly of a lot of half-breeds who take delight principally in stealing cattle and fighting.

The cattle owners of the section have lived in dread of these men and suffered severely at their hands for a long time. At last the ranchmen sent them a notice that they must desist or take the consequences. Not only this but they must leave the country. The depredations continued, however, and so bold did the thieves become that the cattlemen found it necessary to organize and arm in order to protect themselves and their property. When it was learned that the gang was again on a foray the cattlemen assembled and set out to find the marauders. They suspected a man named Morris as the leader of the thieves and ordered him to leave. Morris was supported by the whole strength of his faction and defied the cattlemen to banish him or compel him to leave. The quarrel grew bitter and one of the Ashworth crowd, named Ward, drew his gun and shot Peter Tyson. Then the battle began. Firing became general and Marion Markle and Lee Perkins, of the cattlemen were killed and Willets, Dupree and Lacombe were wounded. Hostilities then ceased for a time but in the afternoon another attack was made on the gang by the cattlemen, in which William Swann of the cattlemen and John Owen and Henry Ashworth of the other party were killed.

Dr. Myers and his brother, who had come to attend the wounded, were fired on by the thieves but were not hurt. It is impossible to get the exact number of the wounded as the men were carried away by their friends. Word was sent to Lake Charles, La., for the sheriff, a posse and the coroner, the presence of the latter seemingly being the most important.

WILL LYNCH THE BRUTE.

Mulatto Rape Fiend Captured and Will Swing at Dawn.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Aug. 4.—Florence Sutton, a young colored girl, was outraged and murdered last Saturday near Ivanhoe, a station on the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley railroad. The crime was committed by a mulatto named John Johnson, who made his escape but was captured today at Parkersburg, 10 miles from the scene of the murder. Johnson was taken to Ivanhoe this afternoon. There is every possibility that he will be lynched before morning.

CAUSED BY A NERVOUS SHOCK.

Illness of Belgium's Queen Is Not at All Serious.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 4.—The alarm occasioned by a sudden attack of illness which the queen suffered yesterday is abating. There is scarcely any doubt that her majesty will soon have entirely recovered from her indisposition. Her illness is entirely due to the nervous shock entailed upon her by the sight of the unfortunate ex-Empress Carlotta who, when she was visited by the queen yesterday, was suffering from one of the periodical attacks of violent insanity to which she has been subject ever since the tragic death in 1867 of her husband, Emperor Maximilian of Mexico. Mr. Bernaert, the prime minister, announced to the chamber of deputies today that King Leopold had charged him to assure the members of the house that illness of the queen was only temporary and that she was in no danger whatever.

REAPPEARED IN PARLIAMENT.

Dillon and O'Brien Come Back to Their Seats.

LONDON, Aug. 4.—Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien appeared in the house of commons today for the first time in many months, their absence having been due to their imprisonment in Galway jail. They were met in the lobby of the house of commons by members of both sections of the Irish parliamentary party, and were the recipients of hearty congratulations from all the Irish representatives. Upon entering the house, Mr. Dillon took a seat beside Justin McCarthy, who leads the majority of the Irish party which refuses to accept Parnell as a leader.

GERMANY WILL BE THERE.

World's Fair Commissioners Very Cordially Received at Berlin.

BERLIN, Aug. 4.—William Walter Phelps, the United States minister, today accompanied Messrs. Handy, Bullock, Butterworth, Lindsay and Peck, comprising the foreign committee of the Chicago Columbian Exposition, to the office of Mr. von Boetticher, secretary of the imperial home office and representative of the chancellor. Mr. von Rottenburg, under secretary in the chancellery of the empire, was of the party. Mr. Phelps presented the members of the committee to Mr. von Boetticher, who welcomed them in a very cordial manner. The committee described the plan and scope of the exhibition, and in the conversation that ensued Mr. von Boetticher expressed his confidence that Germany would be represented at the World's Fair in a manner worthy of the occasion, and said he felt certain that the friendly relations existing between Germany and the United States would be further strengthened by such an exhibit. Ex-Congressman Butterworth responded to the remarks of Mr. von Boetticher. He declared that the assent of Germany to take part in the Chicago Fair had created the greatest satisfaction in the United States. He felt convinced that the exposition would contribute to knit more firmly the ties binding the two countries. After the interview with Mr. von Boetticher the committee visited Chancellor von Caprivi, who warmly received them. Subsequently the committee held a conference with Mr. Wermuth, the German imperial commissioner to the Chicago Fair, in regard to the form of negotiations to be conducted with German merchants and others whom the committee desired to exhibit at the Fair.

PILLS FOR SILVER CRANKS.

Circulation Per Capita Greatest in the Nation's History.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—A statement has been prepared at the treasury department in regard to the amount of money in circulation on the first of July of the years 1860, 1865, 1880 and 1891, from which it appears that the assertion that there has been since the war a great reduction of the amount of money in circulation is without foundation. All the statements furnished are made upon precisely the same basis. The amount of each kind of money in the treasury is shown and the remainder is given as the amount in circulation. There is nothing omitted from the statement which should appear there except minor coins (nickels and pennies), and they are left out of all the reports, because of the difficulty in estimating the amount in use. As the amount at present time is certainly greater than in the earlier years their omission will not be unfavorably criticized by those who contend that there is now a scarcity of money.

The amount of money in circulation in 1860 was about $135,000,000 and the amount per capita was $13.85. In 1865 there were $723,000,000 in circulation and the per capita amount was $20.82. Twenty years later the circulation was $1,292,000,000 and the per capita was $23.62. On the first of January last the amount was nearly $1,592,000,000 with $24.10 as the per capita allowance, the highest in the history of the United States. Owing to shipments of gold to foreign countries there has been a decline since January 1 not only in the per capita amount but in the total circulation. On the first instant, notwithstanding the outflow of gold, the money in circulation was about $1,500,000,000 and the amount per capita was $23.37.

ELEVATED ENGINEERS WIN.

Chief Arthur's Proposition Accepted by Kansas City Road.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 4.—The engineers on the elevated road who were discharged a week ago last Sunday are on their engines today running regularly. They are working at the rate of $2.70 a day and not by the hour. The settlement is exacted on the terms proposed by Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. The committee of engineers waited on Receiver D. N. Edgerton of the elevated road at his home yesterday forenoon. There was long serious talk and finally Mr. Edgerton said the proposition of Mr. Arthur would be accepted.

STOLEN PAPERS RECOVERED.

Securities Valued at $30,000 Turn Up in Strange Fashion.

BELOIT, Wis., Aug. 4.—A stranger recently left notes, mortgages and other papers representing a value of over $30,000 with City Attorney Menzies for examination. He claimed to have loaned $30 on them to a man in Milwaukee, who represented himself as an agent of Erastus Thayer, of Brandon, Vermont. Mr. Menzies' suspicions were aroused and he opened a correspondence with Mr. Thayer, who is a banker, and learned that the documents were stolen from a train on the Rock Island road recently. Mr. Menzies today forwarded the papers to Mr. Thayer.

SERVED THE WHELP RIGHT.

Rejected Suitor Seeks Revenge in Public Prints and Is Shot.

OAKLAND CALIF., Aug. 4.—B. S. Colvin, a newspaper man who was shot last evening by John G. Howell because of published references to the latter's daughter, who, it is stated, had rejected Colvin's attentions, was not killed as at first reported though four bullets took effect in his body. His wounds in the chest and abdomen are serious and medical men are divided in opinion as to whether or not he will recover. Howell is still in jail. He claims the shooting was not premeditated.

BIG PENSION PAYMENTS.

Seven and One Half Millions Paid Out Since August 1.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—Pension payments aggregating seven and a half million dollars have been made by the United States treasurer since the first instant and has reduced the cash balance from $55,782,715 to $48,277,443. Of this latter amount $20,886,164 is in national banks and $19,332,447 is in subsidiary coin. The pension money was distributed in New York, Philadelphia, Toledo, Indianapolis, Knoxville and Louisville.

Sending Small Notes West.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The United States treasurer continues the daily shipment of small notes to the west for use in moving the crops. The total amount sent so far is $2,800,000.

Street Car Sprinklers.

In St. Paul, where not long ago a brand new cable plant valued at $400,000 was consigned to the scrap heap in order that the street railway company might install electric cars on its lines, an ingenious method has been adopted for the laying of the dust which in summer time causes much annoyance to passengers. A line of water cars, very much after the fashion of the ordinary street sprinklers, are being built, and on each water car will be mounted a tank 6 by 6 and 12 feet long. Two or three cars will be connected by hose and attached to the locomotive, so that one train can sprinkle the whole track. The journey between St. Paul and Minneapolis will thus, in future, be as rapid and pleasant as it was formerly tedious and distressing, and the inhabitants of those cities are looking forward with much satisfaction to the prospect of cool and enjoyable travel.—New York Recorder.

Costly Food for a Goat.

Heated with his work in the field Farmer Kalbach, of Reading, hung his vest upon a fence post. In one of the vest pockets inclosed in a wallet were greenbacks to the amount of forty-one dollars.

In the field was Mr. Kalbach's pet goat. In the goat's stomach, when Kalbach returned, were the bank bills, most of the wallet and a large portion of the vest.

Kalbach at once slaughtered his pet goat. All but fifteen dollars of the greenbacks had been properly chewed in aid of his goat's digestion. The twenty-six dollars thus chewed was past redemption.—Philadelphia Record.

Seven Boats in Tow of a Monster Shark. The singular sight was witnessed in the harbor recently of a man in a small boat making a cruise with a shark for motive power. Boat after boat went to his assistance, until a string of seven, manned by twelve hands, was in the procession; but the shark's movements increased with the increased weight, and after leading his captors a merry dance for a long while, he succeeded in throwing out the harpoon and effecting his escape. We hear that the length of the brute was estimated at being nearer twenty than fifteen feet—a customer not to be rashly tackled single handed.—Panama Star and Herald.

A Rattlesnake at School. The other day, when the teacher and pupils of district No. 7, of Clay township, Anglaize county, arrived at the school house they found a large rattlesnake quietly dosing on one of the desks. The lady teacher and the young scholars, none over ten years of age, attacked the reptile with sticks, when it suddenly rose, rattled furiously and sprang at them—the first evidence they had that it was a rattlesnake. It put the scholars to flight. A neighboring farmer was summoned, who shot it, and the frightened teacher and scholars went back to work.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A NATIONAL EVENT. The holding of the World's Fair in a city scarcely fifty years old will be a remarkable event, but whether it will really benefit this nation as much as the discovery of the Restorative Nerve by Dr. Franklin Miles is doubtful. This is just what the American people need to cure their excessive nervousness, dyspepsia, headache, dizziness, sleeplessness, neuralgia, nervous debility, dullness, confusion of mind, etc. It acts like a charm. Trial bottles and the book on "Nervous and Heart Diseases," with unequalled testimonials, free at H. H. Stafford & Son. It is warranted to contain no opium, morphine or dangerous drugs.

The regular monthly meeting of those company No. 1 and the hook and ladder company was held Monday evening.

The playing of the Star cornet band was a very agreeable feature of the electionary entertainment given by Miss Minnie Calkins at the City opera house Monday evening.

Tomorrow evening Mrs. F. P. Tillson will entertain a party of friends at her comfortable home on Main street.

The Star Clothing house, of which Blumental & Rutenburg are the proprietors, will soon start a branch store in the new Ekre block now in process of erection on Cleveland avenue.

Ed. Smith, the photographer, has returned from his vacation trip and Mr. A. Van Sickle, who has been in charge of the gallery during Mr. Smith's absence, left for Escanaba yesterday.

The private picnic held yesterday at the Iron Mountain grounds was a most enjoyable affair, and the ladies and gentlemen who were present are loud in their expressions of appreciation.

The next theatrical attraction at the City Opera house will be Vaclav's Minstrels. They are booked to appear Monday evening, Aug. 17th.

If indications amount to anything the Switchmen's ball at the City Opera house next Friday evening will attract a large attendance, and there is little doubt that the enjoyment will be equally great.

Mrs. Chas. L. Sheldon gave a "Grandma" party at her home yesterday afternoon. Nine ladies having grandchildren were eligible to be present.

A couple of safe blowers are said to be headed in this direction. At least Marshal Peterson has received word to that effect from the police officials of Oshkosh.

Yesterday afternoon the C. & N. W. passenger train almost ran over a double carriage containing several persons on the Main street crossing.

There was Tom, the Son of the Piper, Jack Skid, and Mary Kincaid, and the Three Wise Men of Gotham.

These were some of the old favorites, but they have been supplanted by the "Pansy" and "Chatterbox" stories.

This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.

It is reported that a thief has been identified at St. Louis by a blind man, whose hearing was so acute that he was able to identify him by his pronunciation of "Good morning."

The Smithsonian institution has received from China a pair of stockings manufactured from human hair.

I am an old man and have been a constant sufferer with cataract for the last ten years. I am entirely cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm.

John Gately, of the well-known Chicago firm of book publishers, is in the city looking after the business connected with the firm's branch office.

The contract for doing the painting and interior decoration of M. C. Quinn's new residence at Negannee has been awarded to Wm. McNabb, of this city.

Sinclair & Outerson, have been given the contract for laying 3,000 feet of stone sidewalk on North Lake and Barnum streets by the board of school district No. 1.

Fashion's Frenks.

The fashionable young man now writes with a quill pen, the feather parts of which bear pansies, violets or lilies, painted thereupon by his best girl.

But quill pens are not the only hand painted novelties. Imagine a man wearing, with a dress suit, a shirt, the bosom of which bears work in colors!

Of course the innovation created a good deal of talk, and is hardly to be followed by residents of a civilized land; but, all the same, the idea originated a year ago at Paris.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Howells in New York.

Mr. William D. Howells' determination to take up his abode in New York city is due less to any dissatisfaction with Boston than to his discovery that New York is the place to make money, even for a realistic novelist.

Mr. Howells does not believe in sentiment, professionally, yet it has had a powerful influence in keeping him in Boston. He has also been led to overcome his aversion to the public press, and has joined the number of those who sell their literary products to the syndicates.

One of his stories is to appear in one of our Sunday newspapers serially, and he got a bigger price for it than he has for half a dozen of his novels published in book form.

Yet it is something of an experiment to lay Mr. Howells' writings before average newspaper readers. Those who admire him admire him immensely, and make up by the intensity of their devotion, perhaps, for the smallness of their number.

One of his books an edition of only 1,500 copies was printed, and had he not received a good price for it from the magazine in which it appeared the time that he had spent in writing it would have been worse than wasted.

E. J. Edwards in Philadelphia Press.

On Thursday morning Mr. John C. Condon, of Belfast, caught the king of lobsters in the waters of Penobscot bay.

The lobster was caught southeast of Moose point, in a line with Brigadier's island. The monster was too large to enter the trap, but as the trap was drawn up he became entangled in the heading and was safely landed in the boat.

The lobster was perfect in all his parts. He measured 37 inches from the end of the tail to the end of the longest claw, 20 inches around the body and 17 inches around the large claw.

When taken from the water he weighed twenty-three pounds, but after boiling shrank to seventeen.

Mr. Charles E. Sanford, of New York, offered Captain Bramhall five dollars for the lobster, but he would not take it.

Saturday Captain Bramhall boiled the lobster in strong pickle to preserve it. The captain expects to realize a handsome sum from the crustacean.

Williamson's "History of Belfast" mentions the capture of a lobster at City Point many years ago that weighed twenty-two pounds.—Belfast Journal.

One of the Ways of a Queer Old Town. Passengers who take the 2 o'clock car on Walnut street every morning enjoy a decidedly novel treat, through the kindness of the driver, a policeman and a baker.

The car passes a bakery at a certain hour, and just before it gets opposite the door a policeman standing near whistles shrilly, the grating is raised and a flour dusted arm hands out a hot loaf of bread.

This the policeman hands to the driver, whose invariable form of thanks consists of the words, "God bless you, old man." Then the driver ties the lines around the brake, enters the car, and divides the bread with the passengers.

There were eight solemn looking passengers in the car on a recent morning, as a man getting aboard at the Baltimore and Ohio depot was visibly astonished when he saw every one of them munching hot bread and talking politics.—Philadelphia Record.

Blocked the Game. A well known Main street business man of Holyoke received a telegram a few days ago bearing the signature of his brother-in-law, asking him to send him fifty dollars, as he was "strapped" at Chicago.

The telegram did not give the Holyoke man's full name, but it named his business and Main street address. After thinking the matter over a few moments he concluded it was a bunco game, and sent a telegram to his brother-in-law in St. Louis asking if he was at home.

He soon received an affirmative reply and the invitation, "Come and see me." It was a shrewd game, but it did not work.—Springfield Republican.

It is reported that a thief has been identified at St. Louis by a blind man, whose hearing was so acute that he was able to identify him by his pronunciation of "Good morning."

Strange to say, the blind man's assertion was conclusively proved by the accused confessing his culpability.

The Smithsonian institution has received from China a pair of stockings manufactured from human hair. They are worn by fishermen over cotton stockings (being too rough for the naked skin), and under straw shoes as a protection against moisture.

DEAFNESS CAN'T BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies.

Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever.

nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular now.

The dealer is right in saying he can't afford to sell them at the prices of common glass chimneys.

THEY HIT HARD AND OFTEN

The Marquettes Fattened Their Batting Averages Off Heyn and Morkin Yesterday.

A GRAND BALLOON ASCENSION WHICH WAS NOT ADVERTISED.

Fifteen Runs in the First Two Innings Told the Story—The League Standing This Morning.

KNOCKED THE COVER OFF.

Fifty men at bat, six bases on balls, one man hit by pitcher, twenty-five base-hits, and twenty runs was the record made by the Marquettes yesterday off the Ishpeming aggregation of ball pounders. The slaughter was terrific, the hitting sharp and incessant and the fielding superb. Heyn, of agricultural notoriety, was in the box for the visitors. Shepherd was the first to face him and went out from Roberts to Morkin. Then the band began to play. Tanner answered to roll call with a single. Cull was present to the same extent, Wilbur varied the monotony by a two bagger and the runs began to pour in across the plate; Rathbun and Pedroes singled, Houseman's first on fielder's choice killed Pedroes at second, Ganss answered to his name with another single and then with five men across the plate Corbett pounded the air and sat down. "Cull to Tanner" was the story for Adams and Kirby and Morkin was thrown out at second by Houseman while trying to make two bases on a misjudged fly. Marquette 5, Ishpeming 0.

The second opened with Shepherd again at bat. He walked, Tanner reached first on an error by a hit into Kirby's eye, and then Cull, Wilbur and Rathbun kept the procession moving with singles, and Pedroes, reaching his base on a double error, Heyn and Adams fumbling, (Kirby having retired from short after being killed by Tanner's hit) changed the regular order by stealing second. Then Houseman took a walk and Tanner bobbed up for his second hit. Corbett's hit to third gave him his base but out Pedroes off at the plate and then the batting list began over again. Shepherd sacrificed by a fly to Augustine, Tanner got his usual single and Cull's third hit, a screaming drive to deep center, was good for a home run by sharp running but the man who was putting up such a marvelous game at second was content to take his time and let it go down as a three bagger. He tarried at third until given a promenade home with the tenth run of the inning on Wilbur's sharp single. Sheehan then had the luck to nip Marquette's noted base runner at second and the Ishpeming came in to bat. Meister flew to Pedroes, Roberts got a base on balls and then Corbett doubled him up with Sheehan on the latter's hit. Marquette 15, Ishpeming 0.

In the third Morkin went into the box for Ishpeming, Kirby came in from left field to play first and Heyn went into left. Rathbun was out from third to first, Pedroes flew to center and Houseman to right. For Ishpeming Harland was hit by Corbett, reached second on a passed ball, third on Heyn's sacrifice after Augustine had struck out and scored on another passed ball. Adams gave Cull his fourth assist and died at first. Marquette 15, Ishpeming 1.

Ganss opened the fourth for Marquette by being hit by Morkin, but Corbett flew to Meister and the Marquette catcher was found off his base. After singles by Shepherd and Tanner Cull hit to short and died at first. Then the fire works commenced for Ishpeming. The visitors for three innings had not got a hit off Corbett but they jumped on him hard in this, the fourth. Morkin commenced the slaughter with a single, Kirby and Meister followed his example, and Roberts reached first on a hit that laid Meister out at second. Sheehan found his old pitcher for a double, Harland flew to Wilbur at short, Augustine flew a hit, Heyn picked out four bad ones, Adams struck for a base and then Morkin came up to bat for the second time and sent the seventh run across the plate by a double. Pedroes relieved Corbett's feelings by gobbling Kirby's fly. Marquette 15, Ishpeming 8. A base on balls, a single and Augustine's error sent Wilbur across the plate in the fifth and then Houseman's base on balls filled the bags, but Ganss, hit to third doubled Pedroes and Rathbun and Corbett flew to left. The Ishpeming chances had come and gone for the last five innings gave them only four hits off Corbett to add to the seven they had secured in the eventful fourth. Meister reached first on Wilbur's excusable error, Roberts flew to Cull, Sheehan reached first on Rathbun's error and then Wilbur and Cull made a great double off Harland's hit. Marquette 16, Ishpeming 8.

Morkin struck out Tanner and Cull in the sixth and was applauded for the feat while a star stop by Wilbur and another double play, Wilbur to Cull to Tanner, retired the Ishpeming. The seventh gave the same result. Wilbur flew, Rathbun pounded out a double and Pedroes sent a drive in to left for a single. A great throw in cut Rathbun off at the plate and then Houseman, reaching first on an error at short, was caught stealing second. For Ishpeming Kirby flew to Pedroes and Marquette's long-legged short stop and ex-centre fielder did the business for Meister and Roberts.

In the eighth Marquette got in some more good work. Ganss came up for his third single, Corbett was given a promenade, Shepherd and Tanner flew out and then Cull made his fourth hit, Wilbur following with a case on balls and Rathbun with his fifth hit in six times at bat; with three runs in and two men on bases Pedroes went out from Meister to Roberts. Sheehan opened for Ishpeming with a big two-bagger but was caught trying to stretch it into a dresicker by perfect throws from Pedroes to Wilbur to Rathbun. Harland struck out and Augustine was caught trying to make second on Wilbur's over throw to first.

of his hit to short. Marquette 19, Ishpeming 8. Houseman opened the ninth with a drive for two bases, Ganss came up with his fourth hit and stole second, and then Corbett's hit to first cut Houseman off at the plate and Corbett, supposing that Kirby had touched first before making the assist, sauntered in and was also touched out by Sheehan. Singles by Shepherd and Tanner scored Ganss and then Cull flew to Roberts. A fly to middle and another splendid double play put an end to Ishpeming's agony. Marquette 20, Ishpeming 8.

Except in the fourth inning Corbett pitched a great game, only four hits being made off him in the other eight. The features of the game were Cull's work—three singles, a three-bagger, four runs, and, out of fifteen chances, eight putouts and seven assists—Wilbur's playing at short, covering an immense territory with one put out, eight assists and two errors, neither of which was costly, and one of which was excusable, and Rathbun's great stick work, four singles and a double. Pedroes put up his usual great game in left, while Wilbur with a double and two singles, and Tanner and Ganss with four singles shared in the batting honors. Sheehan caught a fine game for Ishpeming, his throws to second being perfect. Craft umpired the game and there was very little kicking done on either side. The following is the mathematical account of the slugging match:

Probable Origin of Fire.

Mr. John Gould, the steward of the upper peninsula prison, states that he left his house on Park street Monday night at 8 o'clock after writing a letter and returned to the prison for the night. The house was then all right and as he did not go up stairs at all it is very evident that the light he used was not the cause of the fire as the blaze started upstairs and did its worst work there. Mr. Gould is certain, however, that other parties had a key to his house, for nine days ago on entering it one morning he found that while everything below was all right and the doors and windows undisturbed yet upstairs both beds had been slept in. It is very probable, therefore, that the trespassers, whoever they were, returned again Monday night and some carelessness of their's caused the fire.

Mr. Gould figures the value of the furniture and contents of the house at $1,500 and states that the building, which was completed just a year ago, cost him a little over $1,400. He is insured in the Cochran and Wilkinson agencies and will rebuild as soon as he can get his losses adjusted.

Home Again.

Will P. Schwalm arrived in the city last evening, after an absence of over four years. Five years ago he left his position with Hager & Johnson here to represent J. C. Iverson, of Milwaukee, on the road, and for several years his headquarters have been at Marshalltown, Iowa. He now returns to his old home to accept the position of traveling representative of the Michigan Polygonal Turning company. For the present he will be in the office to assist the general manager, G. W. Hager, but as soon as the company's trade exhibits are ready he will go on the road. Mrs. Schwalm went directly from Marshalltown to her old home, Cortland, Ohio, where she will visit for a time, joining Mr. Schwalm here as soon as he can secure a house.

REMARKABLE FACTS.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Elmira Hatch, of Elkhart, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Ovid, Mich., were cured after suffering 20 years. S. C. Linburger, druggist at San Jose, Ill., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which cured the former, "worked wonder for his wife." Levi Logan, of Buchanan, Mich., who had heart disease for thirty years, says two bottles made him "feel like a new man." Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guaranteed by H. H. Starford & Son.
