Cowboy Civil Service Commissioner
Lashes Law-Breaking Federal Officers of Baltimore.

THEY THINK PUBLIC OFFICE IS A PRIVATE SNAP.

Marshal Airy Ran Primaries and Engaged in Fisticuffs and Postmaster Johnson Assessed His Clerks.

VIOLATED CIVIL SERVICE LAW.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—In the latter part of March information was received at the office of the civil service commission that the provisions of the civil service law relating to political assessments were being violated by persons in the service of the United States in the city of Baltimore and that the influence of federal officers in that city was also being unlawfully used to control a primary election. An investigation was immediately begun and continued through a part of the month of April, conducted by Commissioner Roosevelt, and a copy of his report has been submitted to the president with the approval of the commission. The following statements are taken from Commissioner Roosevelt's report as embodying some of the results of his investigation.

"The primaries held on March 30 were marked by a very bitter contest between two factions of the republican party. In its essence it was, without doubt, mainly a fight between the office-holders on one side and the dis-appointed office-seekers on the other. Apparently they cared primarily for the offices, party success being a purely secondary consideration, important only because it facilitated getting them. It seems to me that this fact alone furnishes a tolerably accurate measure of the much vaunted uses to any party of the office-mongering, office-seeking, and office-holding variety of ward-workers.

"As a whole, the contest was marked by great fraud and no little violence. At present the ordinary office-seeking ward-worker and very large percentage of office-holders have grown to believe that it is part of the natural order of things that those who hold or seek to hold offices should exercise the controlling influence in political contests. The ward-worker who is simply in politics for the offices, is a curse to the community and the sooner this is recognized the better. His political activity is purely unhealthy and mischievous. Take it out of the power of any politician to give him any office and he will cease from his noxious labors in a very short space of time. As for the government office-holder he must be thought in one way or another that his duty is to do the work of the government for the whole people, and not to pervert his office for the use of any party or any faction.

"In regard to the postoffice and the marshal's office, the evidence seems to be perfectly clear that both of these offices were used for the purpose of interfering with or controlling the result of the primary election and that there was a systematic and sometimes a direct effort made to assess the government employes in both for political purposes.

"Marshal Airy was undoubtedly one of the leaders of one of the factions at the primaries and took a very active part therein, even to the extent of coming into physical collision with one of the opposing judges whom he accused, whether rightly or wrongly, of cheating."

Commissioner Roosevelt then asks the dismissal of twenty-five men in the marshal's office and other departments. "It is evident," he says "from the testimony that the non-classified service in the Baltimore post office as is the case with the non-classified service in almost every patronage office, was treated as a bribery chest from which to reward influential ward-workers who were useful or likely to be useful to the faction in power. The appointments were made secondarily with a view to the well-being of the public service.

TOBACCO SMOKING BABY.

ILLINOIS Humane Society Proceeds Against His Unnatural Parents.
CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—The Illinois Humane society has decided to prosecute the parents of two-year old Leonard Turner, the tobacco smoking baby. The child's case was brought to public notice but a day or two ago. Ever since the baby was two months old his father, who is said to be a dissipated character, has been teaching him to smoke. The child has now become so accustomed to the weed that he cries for his pipe and tobacco. The mother has had to work out to support the family and of late has been leaving the little fellow at a day nursery. The matron of the nursery refused to allow the use of tobacco and reported the case. The Humane society at once took up the matter and yesterday two physicians examined the child. He was found to be in a very feeble condition; already suffering from acute nicotine poisoning and having what is known to physicians as "tobacco heart." His skin, eyes and brain are also affected; he displays but little intelligence and brightens up only when his pipe is placed before his eyes.

Acting on the report of the physicians the Humane society has sworn out warrants for the arrest of the parents. The penalty for such an offense is not less than $10 nor more than $500 fine or one year in the penitentiary, or both. Doctors express doubts as to whether the child can be brought back to a healthy condition.

DR. CLEMENS ARRESTED.

Suspected to Be the Man Who Robbed Banker Frayser.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 16.—Detectives last night arrested a man who they strongly suspected having perpetrated the outrage on Col. Dudley Frayser in this city, on Thursday last. He is Dr. James Edwin Clemens, a young physician. He has been partially identified by every person who saw the robber as that individual. He can give no satisfactory account of his whereabouts on the day of the robbery and his statements as to what he did that day are at variance with other positive testimony on the subject. Dr. Clemens wore a full brown beard until Thursday night. He was seen only once on that day by persons who knew him and that was between 7 and 8 o'clock in the evening. If Colonel Frayser's identification of him is as strong as the minds of the detectives that Clemens will be convicted. Colonel Frayser was enticed into a room in the Gayoso Hotel and forced at the point of a revolver to endorse a check for $5,000. He was then chloroformed and left in the room. The robber failed to get the check cashed.

TO COLONIZE MEXICO.

W. H. Ellis' Scheme to Settle Southern Race Problem.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—W. H. Ellis of Texas, who is actively concerned in the scheme to colonize a large number of southern negroes in Mexico, is in the city. Speaking of the plan today he said he believed that if Afro-Americans were to colonize a state in Mexico, they would own it in five years and be as prosperous as Americans. The project is favorably received by all but colored politicians. Ellis thinks the loss of a large number of colored laborers would do more than any thing else to solve the race problem in the south. The concessions which have been obtained from the Mexican government embrace lands in the states of Vera Cruz, Queretaro, San Luis Potosi and Oaxaca. In cotton, Ellis asserts, the colonists will have the benefit of a market price about double that of the United States. The cotton is perennial there, he says, and not planted every year as here and half a bale an acre more can be raised. Ellis says that he already has the names of 6,000 people who desire to go from various southern states.

JOSEPH WORE SILK.

But It Was Smuggled and He Had to Leave It.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The custom house officers made several important seizures of smuggled goods on the steamship Umbria, which arrived last night. Joseph Seiter, of Syracuse, N. Y., was found to have fifty yards of silk wrapped around his body and in his trunk were found fifty yards more of the silk besides two gold watches, six shawls, twelve sets of fine cutlery, a number of meerschaum pipes and a quantity of lace. Two other passengers on the same vessel were also detected in an attempt to smuggle various articles of jewelry, valued at $600. They were Abram Yesser and Jacob Rosenberg of Chicago and they were discovered through their passing a package to a friend on the pier. The officers followed the three men to a saloon in the vicinity, arrested them and found several hundred dollars worth of jewelry in their possession. The jewelry was confiscated and the men were locked up.

THROUGH THE CABOOSE.

Two Men Killed and One Badly Hurt in Colorado Wreck.

BRIGHTON, Colo., Aug. 16.—A fatal accident occurred on the Union Pacific about two and a half miles north of here at 4 o'clock this morning, by which two men were killed and another badly wounded. The engine of train No. 2 died out and while it was standing on a curve a special came tearing into it, running clear through the caboose and part of the way through a car of ore. Engineer Nally of the special had orders to stop at an hour but was going about 15 miles an hour when he struck the other train. A little mist was falling and a dense fog hung over the valley, shutting out everything from sight so that the rear lights could not be seen ten rods away. The fireman on the special jumped but the engineer struck his post. Chas. McCallum and J. Marden were killed in the caboose and cooked by the escaping steam and Dave Flaherty was injured. The dead and injured were taken to Denver this morning.

DANGEROUS WEDDING TRIP.

Couple Married in a Balloon Narrowly Escape Death.

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 16.—A balloon ascension this afternoon at Manhattan Beach, a summer resort near here, came near resulting fatally for three persons. Several thousand people had assembled to witness the ascension of the mammoth air ship, which was to carry beside Professor King a couple who were married in the basket just before the rope was cut. The balloon shot up in the air and at a height of 8,000 feet it encountered a storm and burst. It fell for over a mile like so much lead. Then this couple for the occupants of the parachute the silk formed itself into a parachute, thus stopping the rapidity of the fall. The three lit in a corn field about seven miles from this city but with such force that they were unconscious for several hours afterward.

OLD VERMONT'S GREAT DAY

Elaborate Preparations for the Dedication Today of the Bennington Battle Monument.

CENTENNIAL OF THE GREEN MOUNTAIN STATE.

First of the Glorious Galaxy Added to Original Thirteen—Historic Bennington in Gala Dress.

HONORS TO PATRIOT SIRE.

BENNINGTON, Vt., Aug. 16.—When the legislature last fall passed an act providing for the ceremonies attending upon the dedication of the Bennington battle monument and the centennial celebration of the admission to the Union of the state of Vermont, it probably realized in a small measure the great proportions which the celebration would assume. Today Bennington is decked from its eastern boundary to the old Bennington on the hill and is one complete mass of bunting and flags. Midway in this panorama stands the triumphal arch lighted to-night with more than two hundred electric lights. This arch bears on its eastern side the motto:

"1791—The Best Legacy of Vermont's First Century Is Her Sons and Her Daughters—1891." On the opposite side are the following: "1777—You See the Red Coats, They Are Ours or Mollie Stark Sleeps a Widow Tonight," being the historical words uttered by Stark as he rallied his men to fight on the field of Bennington. The other half of the same side of the arch has these words: "Peace Hath Her Victories No Less Renowned than War—1891."

These are the mottoes that were used on the arch of 1877. This is a living arch and will represent on both sides the 13 original states by young ladies in costume with banners. The arch is built to represent the stone of the monument in coloring and general appearance. As the president passes under this arch in the great procession of August 19, a choir of 200 voices will sing "America," "Hail Columbia," "Star Spangled Banner" and other patriotic songs. Preparing for the great celebration, the Vermont militia are now in camp, named "Vermont" in honor of the finish of the first century of statehood.

Prominent guests of the state are expected to begin to arrive tomorrow. Governor Page and staff arrived this morning and went into camp with the Vermont National Guard. It is expected the guests of the state will number fully 1,500.

Vermont has never seen a celebration arranged upon such a magnificent scale. This celebration is the culmination of a long series of events covering a century. The 16th of August, the anniversary of the battle of Bennington, is to the people of Vermont what the Fourth of July is to the nation.

NEW HARD COAL FIELDS.

Extensive and Valuable Discoveries Reported in Northwestern Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The reports of the discovery of extensive anthracite coal fields in the state of Sonora, Mexico, are confirmed by advices received by the bureau of American republics. Operations at the coal fields are being carried on about forty miles from Ortiz, a town on the Sonora railway between Hermosillo and Guaymas. The concession is owned by a Mexican company covering 4,000,000 acres. Coal has been found in borings fifty miles apart. The diamond drill has gone through three veins, one of two feet, another of four feet and a third of seven and one-half feet and in a fourth it has already penetrated twenty-two feet and is still working in coal. The coal, which by test is said to equal the finest Lehigh valley product, can be traced for miles on the surface; the four veins showing the same thickness throughout the whole extent. A railway sixty or sixty-five miles in length will carry the coal to the harbor at Guaymas whence it can be laid down in San Diego, Calif., for $5 a ton.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

E. B. Preston Kills His Wife and Fatal Wounds Himself.

OTTAWA, Kas., Aug. 16.—E. B. Preston, a lumber merchant of North Ottawa, shot and killed his wife this afternoon and attempted to commit suicide. Mr. and Mrs. Preston separated some time ago during a quarrel over the attention of a certain young man to their daughter. Mrs. Preston returned to her husband three weeks ago, but the quarrel was renewed today. During the altercation Preston drew his revolver and killed his wife at the first shot. He turned the weapon on himself and shot himself in the head, inflicting a wound from which he cannot recover.

HIS NINTH MURDER.

Bandit Antonio Carrasci Shoots Deputy Sheriff Pastrango.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Aug. 16.—Antonio Carrasci, a noted bandit chieftain and desperado and the slayer of eight men has added another victim to his list. Torribo Pastrango, a deputy sheriff who had secured evidence showing that Carrasci was the murderer of Charles Fusselman, a sergeant of Texas Rangers, attempted to arrest the bandit Friday night at a fandango given on the Texas side of the river. As the deputy sheriff advanced into the room the bandit chieftain drew a revolver and shot Pastrango dead, after which he made his escape. Fifty Mexican rangers followed his trail into the mountains, but it is unlikely he will be captured. The residents of the peninsula have made application to Governor Hogg that a detachment of state troops be stationed there.

REMARKS the Escanaba Mirror of one of the chiefs of its party in this peninsula:

DETROIT'S experience in handling the Grand Army encampment has given the people of the state metropolis a better idea of what they can do if they try that they had before.

ONLY a fortnight or so ago it was announced with a great deal of exultation by the alliance prints that one Judge Kelly, of Kansas, a republican congressman who was defeated for re-election in his district by an alliance man last fall, had publicly renounced republicanism and given his adhesion to the people's party.

DESTROYING WRECKS. THE WORK OF THE YANTIC IN REMOVING OBSTRUCTIONS.

She Has Blown Up Eleven Sunken Vessels, Each One of Which Was a Dangerous Menace to Navigation Along the Coast—Dangers of the Work.

Five people, outside of those who navigate the waters along the north Atlantic coast and the marine insurance people, appreciate the value of the employment in which the sloop-of-war Yantic has been engaged, destroying the sunken wrecks which for a long time have menaced the safety of steam and sail vessels.

WE quote from the Cleveland Iron Trade Review of the 13th relative to the iron ore market and the iron ore situation generally:

DETROIT'S experience in handling the Grand Army encampment has given the people of the state metropolis a better idea of what they can do if they try that they had before.

ONE of the sunken wrecks is now doing duty at Wachpague inlet, on the Virginia coast, as a danger buoy. It is a large iron vessel which would be dangerous to navigation unless entirely removed.

IT IS A VITAL QUESTION.

How Shall Negaunee be Assured a Supply of Pure Water?

DR. AVERY SUGGESTS A SIMPLE PLAN.

And There is Likelihood of Its Adoption. A Warning to Hoodlums—Mr. Beney's Axident.

PURE WATER WANTED.

It is hardly possible to overestimate the interest awakened here by the sanitary convention held in this city last week on the subject of the city's water supply. Many who had paid little attention to the matter before are now so wrought up by what has been disclosed concerning the impurity of Teal Lake water that they declare they will not use another drop of the water supplied by the city while the surroundings of the lake remain as they are at present. But what can be done to give the city pure water? It appears that the Jackson spring and many of the wells are as unsafe, considered as sources of water supply, as is Teal Lake. It looks as if we will have to import water until the city takes steps to keep the lake free from contamination.

Members of the state board of health, in company with several prominent citizens, took a trip around the south and east shores of the lake Friday. The members of the board were surprised that a condition of affairs such as they found should be allowed to exist in a place of this size. In the evening Dr. Avery, president of the board, made a vigorous appeal to the city authorities to do something at once to remove the source of the lake's pollution. He referred to his visit here a few years ago, when through his efforts, the council was induced to have the slaughter houses then situated on the brink of the lake removed. On his visit to the place Friday last he was amazed to find these filth-breeding places located on the sides of ravines leading to the lake—in fact as badly located as before. Dr. Avery told the reporter Saturday morning that the slaughter houses were not by any means the greatest source of danger, as the dirty water conducted to the lake directly from the mines near the upper shore and residences situated close to the shore were doing the greatest harm.

Recently the Iron Cliffs company planned an addition directly on the south shore of the lake and already over thirty residences have been erected on lots in that addition. It is likely that the number will be doubled before another year. When it was deemed an absolute necessity some time ago to clean up about the lake the only course suggested to the minds of the city officials was to move all the buildings along the shore. The great expense of making such a change put it out of the question, of course, and the subject was dropped. Dr. Avery read a paper Friday evening bearing on the matter of preserving the lake from contamination that had some excellent suggestions. The course which he advised was to build an independent system of sewers extending from the mines around the shore of the lake to the outlet. Such a system would be comparatively inexpensive, and would not necessitate the removal of a single building except the slaughterhouses, which must go. This is a simple and effective way of meeting the difficulty.

The members of the common council are very much in favor of it and if the statement of some of them can be credited the residents along Teal Lake shore will have an independent system of sewerage inside of a year, and probably years before a system of sewerage is built in this city. It is not necessary at this time to go into details of how the system is to be operated; it is enough to say that it appears to be the most inexpensive plan that could be adopted for preserving the purity of Teal Lake water.

Must Vacate That Roost.

Officer Choquette complains that he has been having more than his share of work lately by being called out after dark, as he was four evenings last week, to break up a bummer's roost on Case street. Notorious characters congregate in groups night after night on the steps and doorways of Winter & Suess' warehouse, and by loud talk and the use of obscene language make themselves obnoxious to persons passing by. In fact a number of ladies had been insulted by the gang and ladies find it unpleasant to walk without an escort that vicinity. Complaint was made to the officers by the residents on the street last Thursday and a last warning is given the bidders to keep away from the place. The next person found loitering about the corner will be run in and made to pay heavily for the offense.

His Wall of Toe.

Frank M. Beney met with a serious accident while on a piscatorial trip with several others to Bass Lake, about thirty miles south of here, Friday morning. He was felling a tree when the axe in his hands slipped and struck his foot, inflicting a bad wound. Luckily Dr. L. D. Cyr was along with the party and dressed the wound. Mr. Beney returned home in the evening, thus missing several days of the sport which he expected to enjoy, and is now tending to his business affairs on crutches. It will probably be a month yet before he will have full use of the injured foot.

Confirmed a Large Class.

Right Rev. Bishop Vertin administered the sacrament of confirmation to a large class at St. Paul's Catholic church yesterday afternoon. The ceremony and attendant exercises were very impressive and the church was filled with worshippers. Bishop Vertin was met at the corner of Silver and Iron streets on his arrival from Ishpeming by the Hibernian, Chevalier de LaFayette and St. John's societies, by which organizations he was escorted in state to the church.

Card of Thanks.

We, the undersigned, do hereby wish to publicly thank Mr. Frank N. Beney, agent for the Germania Insurance company, of New York, for the unlooked-for kindness he has shown us in the recent loss by lightning of our residence. Although the company he represents was not liable for loss by lightning, according to the policy in our possession, yet he has assumed all expense of making repairs to our dwelling and in every way has recompensed us for our loss.

THOMAS GRIFFIN, MRS. GRIFFIN, Negaunee, August 14th.

The new express wagon for the local office of the American Express company is expected to arrive here in a day or two.

The Vreeland Minstrel company will hold down the boards at McDonald's hall this evening. Those who have seen the show report it to be far above the average minstrel performance.

A dispatch was received here Saturday morning announcing the sad news that Felix Marquette had died at the hospital at Florence. The young man was born and raised in this city and leaves a large number of friends who mourn his untimely demise. The remains will probably be brought here this afternoon for interment.

Dan Morgan was arrested Saturday evening Choquette on a complaint sworn out by Peter McSwitche. He was lodged in jail and will have a hearing this morning. Morgan went into Mr. McSwitche's store on Case street a few days ago and ordered a number of cans of fruit. When pay was asked for them he became very insulting and finally threw one of the cans at the proprietor, striking him on the head.

The Broadway of the Business Man.

The business man knows Broadway as a street blocked with moving drays and wagons, with pavements which crack with unbroken lines of men, and that are shut in on either side by the tallest of tall buildings. It is a place where no one strolls, and where a man can as easily swing his cane as a woman could wear a train. Pedestrians do not walk steadily forward here or in a straight line, but dodge in and out like runners on a football field. They all seem to be trying to reach the bank to have a check cashed before 3 o'clock. The man who stops to speak to a friend or to gaze into a shop window is jostled and pushed and shouldered to one side. Every one seems to be trying to catch up to the man just in front of him, and every one has something to do, and something on his mind to think of, too, if his face tells anything.

So intent are they on their errands that they would not recognize their own wives if they passed them by. This is a spot where the thermometer marks fever heat. It is the great fighting ground of the city, where the battle of business goes on from 8 o'clock in the morning until 3 in the afternoon, at which time the work flags a little and grows less and less hurried until 5, when the armies declare an armistice for the day, and march off up town to plan a fresh campaign for the morrow.

The armies begin to arrive before 8, and gather from every point of the compass. The ferryboats land them by thousands and hurry back across the river for thousands more; the elevated roads marshal them from far up town, gathering them by companies at each station, where they are unloaded and scattered over the business districts in regiments. They come over the Brooklyn bridge by tens of thousands in one long, endless procession, and cross the City Hall park at a quick step. It is one of the most impressive sights the city has to offer.—Scribner's.

PRESIDENT POLK'S NOMINATION.

Its News Received by the Candidate as a Joke While in Court.

Colonel John Brownlow, a son of the famous fighting parson, tells me there is a letter in existence, written by James K. Polk a few weeks before he was nominated at Baltimore. In this letter Polk writes to Andrew Jackson Donelson, endeavoring to get the support of "Old Hickory" to make him vice president. After stating his qualifications for the place, he closes as follows: "I hope the Tennessee delegation will exert its influence in my behalf as the candidate for vice president; this has been the ambition of my life. Four years ago I desired the nomination, but I gave way to others, and now I hope my friends will support me."

"The Tennessee delegation," said Colonel Brownlow, "had no idea of making Polk their candidate for the presidency, and their support of him as vice president was merely nominal. The convention, however, did not know this. The friends of the other party were fighting hard, and it was in one of the bitterest of the struggles that, merely to divert the attention of the convention, Major Donelson arose and nominated James K. Polk as a candidate for the presidency. Donelson was supposed to be the mouthpiece of 'Old Hickory,' and the influence of Andrew Jackson was such that this caused a stampede toward Polk, and he was nominated. When Andrew Jackson heard of it he was not pleased. He had a contempt for Polk because he would not fight a duel with Henry A. Wise when he pulled his nose during his stay in Washington as speaker of the house of representatives."

"What did Polk say as to his nomination?" I asked. "They tell a queer story concerning it in Tennessee," replied Colonel Brownlow. "The news was announced to him by his brother, William Polk, and James K. Polk would not believe it. William Polk was a much brighter man than James K. Polk. He was the 'Tom Corwin' of Tennessee in his days, and was noted as a wag. He could tell stories by the yard, and President Lincoln, who knew him well, was a fond listener."

"Well, William Polk was the first man to get the news of James K. Polk's nomination. He heard of it while his brother was trying a petty ten dollar justice of the peace case in the town, and he came into the lawyer's office and interrupted the trial, saying:

"Jim, have you heard the news from Baltimore?"

"The future president replied that he had not."

"Well, Jim, the nominations are made, and you are nominated for the presidency!" "James K. Polk laughed, and so did the rest of the crowd. They all thought it was one of Bill Polk's jokes, but they soon learned that it was the truth, and Polk made an active canvass during the campaign."

"President Polk was killed by anxiety and hard work," Colonel Brownlow went on. "He was laid in his grave by the Mexican war, and in some way he got the idea that the responsibility for that war rested on him. He was conscience stricken, and felt himself responsible for the lives lost in it. This feeling preyed upon him, and the anxiety and hard work connected with his position brought him to his grave. When he entered the White House he was young, straight, black haired and about fifty years of age. When he came out he was a stooped, wrinkled old man, whose hair was gray and whose step was feeble. He went back to Nashville, and he died in a few months after he left the presidency."—Washington Letter.

There's a patent medicine which is not a patent medicine—paradoxical as that may sound. It's a discovery! the golden discovery of medical science! It's a medicine for you—tired, run-down, exhausted, nervous, wasted men and women; for you sufferers from diseases of skin or scalp, liver or lungs—its chance is with everyone, its season always, because it aims to purify the fountain of life—the blood—upon which all such diseases depend. The medicine is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The makers of it have confidence enough in it to sell it on trial. That is—you can get it from your druggist and if it doesn't do what it's claimed to do, you can get your money back, every cent of it.

That's what it's makers call taking the risk of their words. Tiny little sugar-coated granules, are what Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are. The best liver pills ever invented; active, yet mild in operation; cure sick and bilious headaches. One a dose.

GERMANY CRIES FOR BREAD

Russian Prohibition of Exports of Rye Causes Great Agitation Throughout the Empire.

CABINET STILL REFUSES TO REDUCE GRAIN DUTIES.

Socialists Take Advantage of Rising Price of Breadstuffs and General Discontent to Push Doctrines.

POOR FEAR A FAMINE.

BERLIN, Aug. 16.—Despite positive assurances to the contrary, it was generally hoped that the cabinet meeting yesterday would resolve on some reduction in the grain duties. It was hoped that the influence of Minister Miquel, who still strongly urges a reduction, would have the effect of persuading his colleagues to consent to such a measure. The result of the ministerial deliberations, as announced in the Reichsanzeiger, shows that although the government's decisions are modified, still they are determined not to reduce the corn duties until absolutely compelled to do so.

MUST HAVE MORE GRAIN.—Although this concession will increase facilities of transport to distressed provinces their want is an increased stock of grain. Advices from various parts of the country show that large importations of grain will be imperatively needed. The government evidently relies on America to supply the deficiency, but the public, and especially workmen are not so easily satisfied as to that. The radical press, in attacking the government, dwells on the probability that the corn syndicates of America are not likely to show much consideration to Germany, if by withholding their grain they can force the market's and so get their own price. Letters from Vienna also indicate that although the official relations of Austria and Germany are of the most cordial nature, private individuals are not disposed to sacrifice probably exceptional business profits to mere sentiment. Grain merchants are elated at the continual advance of grain here. The enormous surplus of Austria-Hungary, it is expected, will all come to Germany, promising exporters their biggest profits in many years.

SOCIALISTS ARE ACTIVE.—Socialists are not letting the grass grow under their feet in taking the fullest advantage of the gloomy situation to actively push their propaganda. Since they obtained greater freedom there has been a notable reduction in the number of their converts, which recent internal dissensions have not tended to improve. But the coming of winter, with that appears to be inevitable distress, perhaps almost famine, promises a rich harvest to Socialism. Workmen pinched with hunger and goaded by savage articles of the Radical Socialist press, will fall an easy prey to the propagandists. Chancellor von Caprivi's visit to Emperor William at Kiel is understood to have been connected with today's ministerial decision as to corn duties. There are evidences that the government is working in complete harmony with the emperor, who has been in constant communication with the chancellor since he arrived from Norway. The government is now held responsible for the advance in prices in the grain market, the allegation being that the ruthless speculation for a rise could not have preceded in such absolute security had it not been for the chancellor's positive statement to the Diet that there was no reason to fear that the export of rye from Russia would fail.

BREAD IS OUT OF REACH.—LONDON, Aug. 15.—The Vossische Zeitung recently gave an exceedingly discouraging view of the present condition of the poorer classes in Germany, and the Berlin correspondent of the Daily News immediately made a tour of Germany to personally investigate the matters. He telegraphs today that undoubtedly great numbers of ordinary laborers in Germany are just now suffering from the high prices of bread, potatoes, and meat. Of meat, whether in fresh or salted form, German workmen have never been able to partake except once or twice a week. The recent rise in the prices of breadstuffs has substantially increased the cost of living, but in a few important industries wages have also risen during the past two years. In the coal mining districts and in the iron industries they have advanced very considerably. In the cotton and some other industries, also, wages have tended upward. Certainly, however, the work people employed in the smaller branches of the industry have been unable to obtain better remuneration for their labor. Included in these are the people engaged in the productive, that is to say, salable, household work. In respect of these the old order is passing away, and the competition of the larger and better organized works is steadily supplanting the smaller ones. It is amongst these that the present trouble is arising as well as amongst the common laborers on the land.

WIDDINSEN RAN AWAY.—American Seal Thief Returns Disconsolate From Bering Sea. SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—The sealing schooner C. H. White, Captain Widdinsen, arrived yesterday from Unalakleet. She is the vessel that ran away from the Thetis in Bering Sea, July 7, as reported by Captain Reiter to the navy department recently. Captain Widdinsen says he had not received any notification to leave the sea and when the Thetis bore down on him he fled and succeeded in avoiding capture. He

RACE FOR HEAVY STAKES.

NORWAY, Mich., Aug. 16.—[Special.]—George Wright of this place yesterday won from Jimmy Collins, the great hundred yard sprinter, probably the biggest and most exciting one hundred yard foot race that ever took place in Michigan. The match was for a purse of $1,000 and the gate receipts. Over $6,000 changed hands. A special car from Menominee brought Collins and his backers. Iron Mountain bet heavily on Collins. Three weeks ago Wright won a hundred yard race from Joe Amberson who won considerable money on Wright today.

THROWN BY DEATH.

Matsada Sorakichi, the Famous Japanese Wrestler, Dies Suddenly. NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Matsada Sorakichi, the noted Japanese wrestler, died suddenly in the parlor of the Nippon club at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. For the past three months "the Jap," as he is known all over the country, has been suffering from consumption. For a while he was a patient at St. Vincent's hospital. Recently he has lived in a Japanese boarding house in West Twenty-fifth street. The Japanese club, the Nippon, is directly opposite at 227 West Twenty-fifth street. Of late Matsada has been without money but his friends at the club saw that he did not want for anything. He had been in the habit of strolling about West Twenty-fifth street. Saturday afternoon he walked out but was too weak to go far. He crossed over to the club rooms and sat down in a chair in the parlor. In a few moments he fainted and did not recover. A doctor was summoned but the wrestler died before his arrival. Saturday night the body was removed to the undertaking establishment of John Roth. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon and the remains will be interred in Wood Lawn cemetery.

SOCIALISTS IN CONTROL.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 16.—The International Labor congress, or, as it is now called, the International Socialist Workers' congress, opened here today. Mrs. Aveling and numerous English trade union delegates are in attendance, despite the fact that but few English delegates were expected. The Belgian delegates, Verriens and Volders, delivered addresses in which they heartily welcomed all the delegates to Brussels and urged the socialist sects to harmonious action. Their remarks elicited hearty applause.

The land will be used to establish another Jewish colony, one having already been established about two miles above the tract mentioned above.

IN THE LIFE OF A CONDUCTOR.

Six small boys in a row stood in East Broadway, a few feet from the car track, the other evening. There was an expression of angelic innocence on their faces, and they were looking intently at the stars. One of them held in his hand, behind his back, a piece of telegraph wire bent into a hook. The other end of the wire was fastened, as if by accident, to a battered milk can. Along came a car and passed the boys, and the looks of innocence vanished. With a grin on his face the boy with the hook sneaked after the car and annexed the milk can to the bottom of the dashboard. There was a bumping, rattling sound as the can was dragged over by the rough stones, and the boys roared with delight.

THE BAD BLUE JAY.

Like some persons that you and I have known the beauty of the blue jay is his only attraction. His habits are singular, and he does not walk in the ways of righteousness nor in the paths of peace. He is a regular dupe, a smart, disagreeable tattler, an overbearing bully, a murderer, a robber and a petty sneak thief all combined. Yet he seems to be supremely happy all the time; perhaps it is because he has no conscience. It may have been these vicious traits of the blue jay that gave rise to a curious legend among the colored people of the south that this bird owes to the devil one day's work in each week, and that at precisely one minute past 1 o'clock every Friday morning all the jay birds start for the lower regions to render the service due to their master.

A MONKEY THAT ATE SCORPIONS.

Of that unpleasant trio, the scorpion, centipede and tarantula, the first is, perhaps, the most formidable. The sting of the very large black species, which is common about decaying stumps and hollow trees, is, I should think, the most agonizing pain known, judging from its effect on the almost nerveless Chinaman. A specimen was once brought me which was covered, tail, claws and all, with young scorpions about half an inch long in constant motion. It seemed half dead, and wishing to see whether the native belief is correct that scorpions are devoured by their young, I placed it in an empty seditz powder box. Unfortunately, I was called away for a few minutes, and on returning found the box and its contents in the possession of "Chelaka," or "the scoundrel," a monkey so named from the singular enormity of his crimes, who was crunching up the scorpion and progeny with the relish of an excruciated over a plate of shrimps.—Chambers' Journal.

THOSE BRIGHT CHILDREN.

"This morning," writes a Sunday school teacher, "I gave the children a little talk about their souls. When I had done, I thought I would ask them a few questions to see if they understood what I had told them. So I began: "What did God give us besides our bodies?" "Perhaps you can imagine what my emotions were when they instantly responded, 'Laigs!'—Harper's Bazar.

For expulsion of these emetics and castor oil are given. It takes a long time to recover from a case of arsenical poisoning that has been given even the best of treatment.—Kansas City Star.

OH, THE POWER FOR GOOD OR FOR EVIL WHICH RESIDES IN THE SIMPLE LEAD PENCIL HELD BY THE JOURNALIST!

Think of an audience of half a million souls. This is the vast congregation to which any of the men writing for the great journals, preaches today and tomorrow and every day. And all at once, or little by little, his influence must be felt by some of this vast society.

EXPERIMENTS WITH STRAWBERRIES INDICATE THAT POLLEN BEARING IS AN EXHAUSTIVE PROCESS.

And that larger yields of fruit as a rule may be expected from those varieties which produce pollen so sparingly that a small proportion of other varieties producing pollen abundantly must be planted with them in order to insure a full crop. According to Blackstone, will serve, among other purposes, to prevent strife and confusion. Some of us, perhaps, would not have suspected this to be a characteristic of wills, and a counsel practicing in the probate court probably considers that they were primarily intended to create instead of prevent it.

FLATTERING INDEED—KIND WORDS, UNSOLICITED, FROM OUR OWN PEOPLE PROVE WHAT IS ACCOMPLISHED DAILY BY GOOD PHYSICIANS.

George H. Thompson, operator and ticket agent at the Michigan Central railroad depot, Court street, Saginaw, west side, makes the following statement regarding the skill of a local medical firm whose marvelous cures have won them a high reputation as successful physicians. To whom it may concern: For a long time I have been a constant sufferer from catarrh of the bladder, accompanied by pain in the back, loss of flesh and, what is worse, that feeling of lassitude which overcomes sufferers from this disease, rendering them wholly unfit for work and making life a complete burden. I treated with several different physicians without obtaining any relief and had almost abandoned hope when I was prompted to seek the advice of a specialist. Accordingly in June last I consulted Drs. Speer, Emslie & Co., placed myself in the care of the physician in charge and now am happy to say that I am completely cured, thanks to his skillful treatment. Any further information will be gladly furnished to all who may feel interested. GEORGE H. THOMPSON, Agent and ticket clerk Michigan Central railroad, Court street, west side. [8-15-3mos.]

THE SEASON ENDED HERE.

Marquettes Close the Season on Home Grounds by Defeating Calumets Handsomely.

BALLOON WENT UP IN THE SECOND AND ANDY WEPT.

Brilliant Fielding and Splendid Double Plays the Features of the Game. Andy Forgot His Mouth.

A BRILLIANT ENDING.

A splendid day and a great crowd, a great game and the famous Dalton beaten was the story of the close of the league season in Marquette Saturday. When Doc Shepherd pranced up to the plate and faced the wily scalp-lifter who occupied the box for the league leaders it was with an air of grim determination-Marquette had met with two straight defeats and revenge must be had! The doctor sawed the air three times and subsided. Then Tanner came up and stopped a hot one with his anatomy and Cull got the same kind of a base hit-it hurt the boys undoubtedly but it tickled the crowd immensely. Wilbur sent a hot one to short and the procession started. The Marquette captain stole second in fine shape and came home with the third score of the inning on Pedroes' hit after Rathbun's out from Dalton to Halpin. Houseman sent the locals into the field on a grounder to Larkin which beat him to first. For Calumet Adams got a hit but was caught at second. Zeigler got around to second on Cull's error, took third on a wild pitch and scored on Larkin's fly which was misjudged by Shepherd. Then Jantzen struck out and as the third strike landed in Ganss' hands Larkin tried to steal second and the Marquette catcher had one of the chances to throw to second for which his soul continually yearns-Mr. Larkin was out and a queer double play went on record, catcher to second. Marquette 3, Calumet 1.

The second opened with Ganss at bat. He brandished his wagon-tongue viciously and opened a fusillade which knocked all the smile out of Dalton's face by smashing the ball for a single into right, Corbett following with another into center. Then Shepherd was fooled again and sat down but Ganss kept the procession moving by boldly stealing third, trotting home on Tanner's drive into right. Cull was "due" just about this time and he arrived on schedule time. Two strikes were called on him and then as he stood glaring his disgust at Hillock something came sliding over the plate just where he wanted it-there was a sudden collision and then the crowd howled itself hoarse as the ball dropped gracefully on the other side of the fence while the festive Edward trotted around the bases. Corbett and Tanner walking in ahead of him. The balloon had gone up and nine gentlemen from Calumet were painfully aware that they weren't in it. After Wilbur flew to center Dalton poked Rathbun and Pedroes in the ribs with the ball and Houseman moved them along with a single. Then Ganss hit the air three times. "Old Pike's Peak" Jantzen failed to make connections with the third one and Ganss for some reason didn't stop to help him. When the ball was finally fished out from under the grand stand by the elongated Calumet catcher two more runs were in and Ganss was roosting on second where Corbett's hit to second left him.

A base on balls, a misjudged fly, Ryan's two-bagger and two wild pitches sent three men across the plate for Calumet. The three next batsmen sat down in order, Marquette 9, Calumet 4.

After having been fooled twice, Shepherd came to bat with a determination to break something, and he put so much vim into his drive that it was too hot for Ryan and went down in the base hit column. Tanner forced him at second, was moved along by Cull's single, stole third and scored the last run of the season for the Marquettes on their own grass patch when Rathbun hit for a base. Pedroes received an ovation when he came up to bat but followed Wilbur's example and struck out, leaving Cull and Rath on bases. For Calumet Zeigler flew to Pedroes, Larkin to Houseman and then Jantzen while trying to stretch a single into a double. Marquette 10, Calumet 4.

The fourth yielded nothing, but in the fifth Dalton found his tongue, which the crowd had commenced to think he had left at his hotel by mistake. Ortman got four bad ones and walked. Then Adams came an act of very bad faith on Wilbur. The long-legged Marquette captain was standing in right center with an air of expectancy, when the left-handed hitter who was the pride of the late lamented Ishpenings patted the ball into left center instead of where he should have sent it and made two bases on the drive. Zeigler followed with a three-bagger in the same place and as the runs came in with no one out, the crowd observed with a feeling of pain that Mr. Big Injun Dalton was the only spectator who had much smiling to do. Larkin hit to Corbett who held Zeigler on third by a neat play and then retired the batter at first, but Jantzen reported with his usual hit and another run came in. A beautiful double by Houseman and Cull in the third next batsmen sat down. The last copper miner had inspired the plate. Marquette play by Ryan marked the sixth. Pedroes got a base on balls and second on Zeigler's high throw to first after Houseman's fly. Then Ganss hit to Ryan who caught Pedroes on the base line and yet retired the batter at first. It was a great play. Calumet retired in one, two, three order. The seventh saw Marquette retired with Shepherd on third and Tanner on second while Larkin's second attempt to steal second ended Calumet's chance. In the eighth Calumet tried for a double twice but each time the Marquette batter beat the ball to first. Adams' fine catch of Ganss' long hit retired the side. The last half of the inning side. The last half of the inning side brought out the star play of the game.

With two men on bases and two men out Ortman started the ball for the fair buildings. The spectators watched it sailing eastward and sadly murmured to each other "no one there." Pedroes and Wilbur were both making the sand fly but no one dreamed that either could reach it until there was heard amid Andy's joyful cackling the well-known call of the Marquette captain "I've got it." Pedroes stopped and sure enough "the patrol wagon" was there when the ball game down and it was promptly run it. The look of surprise and sad reproach in Dalton's face was worth the price of admission-the hit was into left center and was one of the longest drives ever caught on the Marquette grounds. It cut short Calumet's last chance for a very neat double play in the ninth from Rathbun to Cull to Tanner sent the side to grass promptly.

The game was a fine one throughout; both pitchers were wild but neither was hit hard and Corbett had the best of it. The magnificent fielding of Pedroes and Wilbur, Houseman's errorless game at short, Cull's batting and play at second and Ganss' stops and throwing were the features of the game for Marquette while Ryan gathered in the honors for Calumet.

The season was splendidly closed on the home grounds and it was fitting that it should be closed with the Calumets with whom the Marquettes have been fighting all the season for the lead yet for whom every Marquette ball crank has a warm liking. The Calumets are gentlemen and play ball in a gentlemanly manner. Not a single kick on either side marred Saturday's game and the same has been true of every game played here by the Calumets this season. If the home team does not win the pennant this year no one here will feel hurt to see Calumet walk off with it. The following is the score:

REPORTORIAL PENOLLINGS.

A reception will be given this evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Towar, East Arch street.

James Pendill is building a new house on Hewitt avenue, east of the house recently moved from Arch street.

Carl Tonella & Co advertise a complete closing out sale of their entire stock of furniture, picture frames, etc.

The Gooding and Ormsbee families have returned from two weeks at the Adams cottage on Middle Island point.

Felix Hunt, drunk and disorderly, contributed $3 and costs to the library fund Saturday at the request of Judge Crary.

The railroad boys are all figuring now on the time made by "Joe Sheff's special" from Thomaston to Bessemer on a tie pass.

Yesterday the rush to Presque Isle was the greatest the street railway has known since the opening days. The whole city was out there.

The Cameron-Young case has been postponed until an important witness now in the woods can be subpoenaed. Meanwhile Cameron languishes.

The Union Stars defeated the Cyclones yesterday by a score of 14 to 12. They lead the city amateur teams, having played eight games this season without losing one.

Harry Byrne took some magnificent pictures of the great electrical display after the storm on Saturday, the 8th inst. Three of the views are now on display at Toles' drug store and are attracting great attention.

The G. A. R. men are recovering from the Detroit encampment sufficiently to declare that it was the grandest organization has ever known and that Detroit hospitality surpassed anything the Grand Army men had before encountered. The "Silver Encampment" was a grand success and a great feather in Detroit's cap.

After the regular services at the Presbyterian church yesterday morning the two elders recently elected to fill vacancies caused by death, Charles Kelsey and E. W. Allen, were installed by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Bonar.

Vreeland's minstrels drew a fair house at the Casino Saturday evening and gave a first class performance. Arthur Deming's work was very fine and he is undoubtedly the best minstrel star who has yet been seen in Marquette.

No one fully realizes the beauties of Presque Isle who has not been clear around it in a row boat. Choose a day when the lake is clear and row around visiting all the caves and coves-you will then understand what a grand gift Uncle Sam made to Marquette.

Marquette lost a majority of the games played here under Hillock as umpire, but it was because the other fellows played better ball, not because of poor umpiring and there's a heap of comfort in the thought. Hillock knows his business and does good work-it is some satisfaction to have such an umpire.

The New Helmeft block on Washington street was formally opened Saturday. The stand is Mrs. Helmeft's venture and starts off with a first-class patronage. With its plate glass front, iron shingles, iron siding and electric lights, it is a very attractive place and is sure to draw trade. The stock of candies is expected today while the finest fruits of the season are already on sale.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Colonel Howe has arrived from Pittsburgh for his usual Lake Superior outing.

Mayor Longyear and family have returned from their camping trip to Isle Royale.

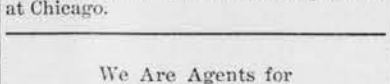

Dr. Sherman and wife, of Marinette, are visiting in the city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Reed.

Frank Pendill, Dr. O. D. Jones, L. M. Spencer, N. M. Kaufman and C. H. Call were Marquette passengers to Chicago yesterday.

R. M. Bradley is up to look over affairs at his new shingle mill here. This is only a flying trip and he returns to Bay City today.

Wm. Cadwell and E. Franklin, of Chicago, were in the city for several hours yesterday on their way home from a fishing trip to Eagle River, west of Gogebic lake. Mr. Cadwell will be remembered as the agent here of the American Express company in 1885 and had a very enjoyable time hunting up old friends during his short stay. He is now the western representative of the West Shore road with headquarters at Chicago.

A Sensible Query. Mr. Ashmead-Bartlett tells a good story about his going to Ireland for the first time. "As soon as I landed in Ireland I attempted to look for traces of some of my ancestors, who came from the extreme north of Ireland. Meeting an intelligent looking Irishman, I informed him of my mission, saying that my ancestors emigrated from about that spot 100 years ago, and I was there trying to look them up. He answered: "Ye say your ancestors emigrated from our town about 100 years ago? Thin why are ye looking for them here?"

About Arsenic Poisoning.

Medical men here state that arsenic may sometimes be criminally administered with fatal effect, and its use as a toxic agent never known. It would be difficult to do this with strychnine or any of the forms of opium.

The technical name of arsenic-or white arsenic-is arsenious acid. It is odorless, of a faint, sweetish taste, and is soluble in water or alcohol.

The symptoms of acute arsenical poisoning are much like those of the disease known as cholera morbus. The drug also causes a manifestation something like that seen in epidemic cholera.

Whoever would resort to this murderous method should bear in mind that if suspicion is ever aroused detection is almost certain.

Under scientific examination traces of arsenic administered in poisonous doses are probably more readily discovered than those of any other drug.

An adventure was related over a soldier's camp fire at San Carlos that is worth preserving, and has not yet been in type.

The captain said that he had been fishing in one of the smaller canyons near Fort Apache shortly before, and he had hooked an immense trout.

There was a lull at the end of this story. The hearers waited to hear what the general would say.

"What did you do with the bear, captain?" "Gave him to some Indians," was the reply.

"Gave him to some Indians," was the reply. "He was such a fine one that I put him back in the creek. I don't believe in spoiling the sport of future generations."

There was another lull. Presently the general asked, "Do you call that a 'bear story' or a 'fish story,' captain?"

The captain replied, "I don't call it either." Then again came the general to the charge.

"Could you fix that story up so that you could be killing a rattlesnake with one of your feet at the same time?" The captain rose and walked away.-New York Sun.

SAM LEE AND AH UN IN COURT

A Chinese Question for Consideration Before Justice Crary's Court This Morning.

THE STREET RAILWAY COMPANY AFTER THE SMALL BOYS.

Record of a Marquette Flyer—Cards Received Here—Burglar Proof Work Let—Accepted by City.

A QUESTION OF VERACITY.
Chinatown is agitated. No collars and cuffs will get a three ply celestial polish in Marquette today for it is the great day on which the trial of the case between Mr. Sam Lee and Mr. Ah Un comes off before Hizzoner, Judge Crary. A Chinese interpreter has been imported from Chicago especially for the occasion and a nice fat hen has been selected for the administering of the Chinese oath. The case is slightly a question of veracity. Mr. Lee declares that on the fifth day of July Mr. Un, who holds the fort on Main street in Charlie Yim's old place, came to his famous Spring street laundry and in the quiet nontide of that Sabbath day borrowed from him $87.50. Mr. Ah Un intimates quite forcibly that the culprit Samuel is a liar and that the truth is not in him. He denies all knowledge of Mr. Lee, the fifth of July or the $87.50, and seems to believe that Sam was celebrating the Fourth too patriotically.

The above are the facts real or supposed, in the case. The fun was started within a very few weeks after the fifth by a discussion of the matter on the streets between the principals and their henchmen. The discussion became so animated that finally all the Chinese residents of Marquette united in a "walk-around," sailing down Front street in single file shouting choice selections of Chinese billingsgate at each other in the shrillest of shrill Chinese tones and gesticulating wildly and incessantly. Then Sam interviewed W. S. Hill in the matter and at his request the attorney called upon Mr. Un but got no satisfaction from him and withdrew from the case. He was greatly surprised a few days later to receive a call at his residence from Ah Un who in all earnestness requested him, if Sam Lee came to him again about that "money, to tell him to "go hellee." Mr. Hill took a day off to recover from the soreness in his sides after the interview. Later Ah Un, bearing no malice for his refusal to recommend a warmer climate to Mr. Lee, returned to ask him to take his side of the case but was sent to Clark & Pearl as he had already been interviewed by the plaintiff. A rich time is expected in Judge Crary's court this morning.

McDougall's Pig.

Edward B. Bartlett is the name of the latest addition to the whale-back fleet of steamers, the one which is expected to arrive in Marquette today as the first McDougall steamer to visit this port. She made a trial trip from West Superior and took on 80,000 bushels of wheat for Buffalo last week. The Bartlett is an exact duplicate of the Wetmore, now loading machinery at New York to equip the American Steel Barge company's ship yard on Puget Sound. The Bartlett's engines were furnished by the North Eastern Marine Engineering Company, Limited, Sunderland, England, and their performance is being watched with great interest by lake engine builders.

Quick Trips and Big Loads.

The Republic Iron company's steamer Republic has just finished eight round trips with ore from Marquette in forty-five days, including time of loading and unloading in every case. The Republic has been getting one-day dispatch in unloading of late, and some idea of the way in which this class of boats can bring down ore under such dispatch can be formed when it is known that she was in Marquette loading on Monday last and will be there again Saturday. The round trip distance, Marquette to Cleveland is 1,218 miles and the Republic carries about 2,200 gross tons of ore, so that in these eight trips of forty-five days the boat has delivered 17,600 gross tons of ore and has travelled 9,744 miles. It is doubtful if any of the flyers in the ore trade can show a record better than this. Even the boats of individual owners are getting good dispatch. The propeller George T. Hope has just made a six day trip to Marquette including time of loading and unloading. She left on Thursday, the 6th inst., returned with a cargo of ore and left again on Wednesday night last. The steel steamship E. C. Pope has added a few tons to her own record from Lake Superior, which is far in advance of any of the other big carriers. She has just taken 2,781 gross or 3,144 net tons of ore from Two Harbors to South Chicago on a draft of 14 feet 5 inches.

The Emily P. Weed, which is reported to have made the run from the Sault to South Chicago at an average better than 14 miles an hour, loaded, took 101,000 bushels of wheat from Chicago to Buffalo. This is the largest wheat cargo ever carried on the lakes but does not equal in weight some of the corn cargoes taken out of Chicago during the early part of the season—Marine Review.

Campbell-Cheverton.

Cards were received here Saturday announcing the marriage of Miss Lida Campbell to Mr. Edwin G. Cheverton at Chicago on Wednesday, August 12th. Mr. Cheverton, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church here, is now a member of the banking firm of Cheverton, Martin & Co., Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Cheverton will be at home with Mrs. Campbell after September 15th at 3,614 Prairie avenue.

A Warning.

The street railway company has been greatly annoyed lately by boys jumping on and off the cars, especially on Third street. Saturday afternoon after the ball game a whole regiment of boys swarmed after the cars and the same annoyance was experienced yesterday. The company is determined to put a stop to this and every boy caught jumping onto the cars will be turned over to police and properly punished. If the halt is not soon called, deaths will surely result—one youngster had a narrow escape from the wheels Saturday.

The Contract Let.

On Saturday the contract for the burglar proof work in the Marquette County Savings bank building, including the safety deposit vaults, was let to the Diebold Safe and Lock company, of Cincinnati. The order amounts to between $7,000 and $8,000.

Accepted by the City.

The board of fire and water commissioners, at a special meeting held to consider the official test of the Worthington pump, accepted it formally for the city and accordingly the first payment was made Saturday in accordance with the contract, one-half of the purchase price, or $5,950.

The pump has been working for some time and very satisfactorily. It shows the greatest economy on light service while the big Gaskill does best on heavy work, accordingly the Gaskill is run days and the Worthington nights.

Died at Houghton.

The Marquette relatives of Mr. Albert McIntosh of Houghton, received the sad intelligence yesterday of his demise at Houghton on Saturday evening at 9 o'clock. The deceased was well known in the city, having lived here for a number of years but for the last 10 years he had been a resident of Houghton. He had been ailing for some time and on last Saturday was taken with a hemorrhage from which he died. It is not known here whether the remains will be brought here for burial beside his father and child or will be interred at Houghton.

How About "The Devil?"

To the report current that the Lake Superior Democrat will soon remove from Ishpeming to Marquette, Editor J. Maurice Finn says Bah! with a big B. a "screamer" and all the rest of the attachments indicative of surprise and denial. Ishpeming is good enough for the Democrat. S'mother paper can go to Marquette, or to the devil if it likes.—Diamond Drill, Crystal Falls.

The editor of the Drill didn't get that from the Democrat. He simply guessed it. This paper has never affirmed nor denied that it would be removed to Marquette.—Lake Superior Democrat.

The League Standing.

Marquette has closed the season on the home grounds but has six games to play in the copper country and still has a chance for the lead in spite of the fact that while her opponents have each had a long rest her team has played nine games in six days and now tackles six more games in succession. The following is the standing this morning:

	Won	Lost	Per cent
Calumet	23	24	.578
Marquette	23	25	.550
Houghton	25	34	.424

On Wednesday.

Presque Isle will see its third Sunday school picnic for the month on Wednesday when the Presbyterian Sunday school, teachers and pupils, will take the cars for Marquette's famous park to spend the day.
