SOCIALIST MUTINEER SHOT.

Captain Bakker of the Steamer Obdam Promptly Quells a Mutiny of Stokers.

MEN REFUSE TO WORK AND TRY TO TAKE THE SHIP.

They Draw the Fires and Stop the Vessel—Peter Duzer Attacks the Captain and Is Killed.

MUTINY ON THE HIGH SEAS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Captain Bakker, the commander of the Netherland line steamship Obdam, will never forget the last trip of that craft to Rotterdam. The vessel reached this port late yesterday and went to her pier this morning. As soon as the skipper got ashore this morning he went to the office of the agent of the line W. H. Van Den Toorn, South William street, and informed him that there was an attempt at mutiny on the trip home and that one of the ringleaders had paid the penalty of insubordination with his life. According to the story of Captain Bakker, the outbreak on board the vessel was the result of a plot to take possession of the ship.

The Obdam left this port on July 18 for Rotterdam. She had on board upward of three hundred cabin and steerage passengers. The craft had been running off shore but twenty-four hours when the officer on the bridge called upon the captain and informed him that there was evidence of dissatisfaction among the firemen and stokers. All of these were socialists and had given evidence of their antagonism to the line on the previous trip of the vessel to this port. Captain Bakker went below to the furnace room when informed by his officer that mischief was brewing. His presence was the occasion of a round of hisses. He said nothing to the men and returned to the deck, going to his cabin he sent for Chief Engineer Bol. The latter told his superior officer that the men were on the verge of mutiny and that he had pleaded with them in vain.

"I fear," he added, "that the men will draw the fires and leave us in a nice mess."

"You do your duty and let matters shape themselves," said the captain. "I have 300 passengers on this ship and any man below who tries to run this vessel will pay dearly for it."

Everything went well that night. A quiet search was made among the effects of the stokers for rum but very little was found.

The craft was 48 hours out from port and Captain Bakker had about made up his mind that the fears of his officers were groundless, when the vessel began to slow down and finally stopped altogether.

Captain Bakker went to the bridge and asked what was the matter. The second officer who was on duty told him that he had given the engine room no signal to stop, or even to slow down. Just then the chief engineer rushed to the bridge.

"Come below," he shouted to the captain. "The men have put out the fires and threaten to take my life if I insist on giving them orders. They refuse to obey me in any way."

Captain Bakker hurried below. He found twenty of the firemen and coal passers bunched together alongside the furnaces. They had drawn the fires and the vessel was simply holding her head to the wind with the aid of a few sails.

"What is the matter with you fellows?" shouted the captain. A general howl from the men was the answer to the skipper's query.

"I'll tell you what the matter is," said Peter Duzer, who appeared to be the ringleader. "We have grown tired of this life and we intend to run things to suit ourselves. That's what the matter is."

"Is that the expression of yourself," inquired Captain Bakker, "or are you acting as spokesman for the others?"

"I don't care the other fellows do," said Duzer. "I'm going to have a good time or know why."

"All right," said the captain, "you can accomplish your purpose when you do away with me."

"If that's so I'll do it now," said Duzer, and picking up a huge iron pick he sprang at the captain. The latter drew back, pulled a navy revolver from his pocket, aimed at Duzer and fired. The man fell at the captain's feet with an oath. The ball had entered his left breast and two hours later he died. The quickness and determination of the captain filled the remainder of the mutineers with alarm and they fled in every direction about the furnace room.

The body of Duzer was buried at sea. Papers in his bag showed him to have been a leading socialist and anything but a good character.

The killing of this man quelled the mutiny. The fires were re-lighted and the vessel proceeded on her way, reaching Rotterdam without further incident.

At Rotterdam Captain Bakker had all hands arrested. Then he gave himself up on the charge of murder. He was placed under $10,000 bonds to appear for trial on return of the vessel to that port next month. The matter will be fully settled on the return of the craft to the other side. Shipping men are confident that Captain Bakker will be honorably acquitted.

CALL IN THE HANGMAN.

Almy Confesses His Crime and Says He Deserves Death.

HANOVER, N. H., Aug. 21.—Almy, the murderer of Christie Warden, was arraigned today. He pleaded not guilty and waived examination. In a further talk with Almy today he emphasized his desire that people shall not rank him with common murderers. He said:

"I know I committed a brutal murder, nevertheless I am not a brute, paradoxical though that statement may appear. I do not desire any pity and I ought to suffer for my crime. Christie said she loved me; that I had many qualities she admired, but she added: 'You must attest the sincerity of your love for me by living an upright life and perhaps some time in the future your efforts will be rewarded.' I am sure that had there been no outside influence we would have got along much better."

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Iron Seems to Be Absorbed Somewhere Despite Large Production.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—R. G. Dun & Co's. Weekly Review of Trade will say: During the past week attention had been absorbed by a great excitement in grain. The general business of the country does well, with gradual improvement in nearly all branches, based on actual increase of demand from farming states. It is a surprising fact that the great iron industry does not yet meet the set-back which the enormous production threatens. Though the movement of rails is unusually small, while iron is pouring out of the furnaces at the rate of 169,576 tons for the week of August, against 164,798 tons last year, prices do not fall for pig or finished products nor do stocks appear to increase. The production of domestic iron alone is at the rate of 3½ pounds for every inhabitant of the country, far in excess of the consumption of all iron, domestic and foreign, until last year, and it is rightly inferred that the demand for other iron than rails must be unprecedented. Some increase is seen for bar and structural mills are fairly well employed. The coal movement is also large.

The business failures during the last seven days number 216, as compared with a total of 227 last week. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 192.

FAMOUS BANDIT KILLED.

Castillo Is Surrounded and Shot After Three Hours Fight.

WALSLEBURG, Colo. Aug. 21.—The famous bandit Castillo was shot and killed this morning at 3 o'clock on Halo Duro Creek, this county. Deputy Sheriff Wilson and Vocum, of Park county and Deputy Sheriff Tom Bromer of this county and three others surrounded him and he refused to surrender. He was wanted in Park county for the murder of two Swedes. The fight lasted for three hours. The bandit was well armed and had a large supply of ammunition. He was surrounded by the officers' bullets took effect, although many of them grazed his body wherever it was exposed. He fought desperately and although he was subjected to attacks from six directions he fired so rapidly and with such accuracy that it was impossible to close in on him. The county is infested with other notorious and desperate characters, members of his band, who will either be captured or meet the fate of their leader.

WHAT DID HE CATCH?

Gross Carelessness of Reporters Accompanying Presidential Progress.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 12.—President Harrison with his overcoat on his arm walked from the Arkell cottage on Mt. McGregor alone to the front of the Hotel Balmoral promptly at 7:30 o'clock this morning, paused a moment to look across the valley, half shrouded in a cloud of mist, and entering the hotel joined his companions for the day's fishing excursion. The place of destination was McAdams Lake. The party left Mt. McGregor in a special train on the Mt. McGregor road. The boat provided for the president was rowed by McAdams and Mrs. McAdams also accompanied him. At 1 o'clock the party took the wagons and left the McAdams homestead for Wiltonville. A photographer took a snap shot at the president's survey after he had entered. Mr. Harrison good-naturedly assenting to a first attempt, but also good-naturedly declining a second. Arriving at Wiltonville a special train carried the party again to the summit of Mt. McGregor. At 3:20 the special conveyed the party to Saratoga where they arrived at 4 o'clock.

BOODLING COUNTY OFFICIALS.

Citizens of Stevens County, Kas., Implore Governor Humphrey's Aid.

TOPEKA, Kas., Aug. 21.—A petition signed by a large number of the citizens of Stevens county has been received by Governor Humphrey, asking him to cause an investigation into the financial affairs of the county. The petition sets forth that the indebtedness of the county is $75,000, one-half of which was incurred in a fraudulent way by the county officers. The petition claims that the county officers have conspired to loot and are now looting the treasury by paying themselves illegal allowance and fees. If this robbery continues, the petition says, the citizens of the county will be driven from their homes by excessive taxes. The governor is asked to investigate the county's affairs and see that proper punishment is meted out to the officials.

HELD UP THE TRAIN.

Georgia Bandits Rob an Express Car of a Large Sum.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 21.—The night express train from Macon last night was held up at Collins station by three masked men and the express safe robbed. Messenger Byne says he does not know the amount taken but in their hurry the men overlooked some very large packages. It was rumored the amount was $40,000, though the express officials only acknowledge to about $2,500. It is believed that a passenger who got off at Collins was a confederate.

The valuation of those counties will doubtless be raised materially.

The board will also attend a meeting of the state geological survey board and confer with the commissioner of mineral statistics with reference to mines in actual operation.

Governor Winans will accompany the board and tender the vacant World's Fair commissioners to a prominent upper peninsula man.

SHE PULLED HER POP.

John Dinger's Sister-in-Law Drives Him From the House.

KALAMAZOO, Aug. 21.—[Special.]—A sensational case was developed today in the filing of a declaration for divorce and the serving by Sheriff Downey of an injunction against John Dinger, a wealthy farmer near Vicksburg, to restrain him from disposing of his property. The Dinger family has had more than the usual number of "jars" and it is alleged that Dinger has cruelly treated his wife and three children. Dinger was notified by his wife that she would sue for divorce. He then sought to take the children from her, but her sister pulled a revolver and drove him from the house.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kas., Aug. 21.—One of the leaders of the Cherokee invasion came in from the strip at noon today. He says that there are now between two and three hundred Cherokees there now selecting claims and that the number will be doubled within 48 hours. The boomers here are greatly agitated and talk seriously of making a raid into the strip. If they do there will be war.

TRAFFIC AT A STANDSTILL.

Lake Erie & Western Strike Stops All Trains at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 21.—The Lake Erie & Western strike presents no new phases tonight. No trains were moved today and Superintendent Hill states that no effort was made to run a train at Lafayette. The strikers offered to return to work. No. 1 freight house here was closed today, throwing out of employment about fifty men, making the number now over one thousand. Manager Bradbury and the local officials are confident that the blockade will be lifted Monday and without bloodshed.

THE decision of Governor Winans to visit this peninsula before making an appointment to complete the World's Fair commission is wisely taken. It foreshadows the selection of an upper peninsula member to take the place on the commission that Mr. Burt declined.

WHAT unconscionable liars those socialist agitators are! Take the statement of the seamy Sanials at the Brussels Socialist congress, for example. Sanials claims to be an American and assumed to inform the gathering of malcontents that he addressed regarding the condition of the laboring class in this country.

THE Grand Rapids Press admits that it is not sure of the figures that it gave recently as to the copper and iron ore production of the upper peninsula mines, and isn't certain that it was right in its estimates of the profits realized by the mine owners.

The real facts are, however, that the official reports of our commissioner of mineral statistics for years proclaim that the whole business is carried on at an enormous profit, while it is a matter of notoriety that the iron barons of the upper peninsula have rapidly grown into millionaires and are now classed among the heavy capitalists of the world.

THE EDITOR of this paper is in receipt of a letter from Mr. Hugh McLaughlin, of Iron Mountain, relative to the report charging him with being a defaulter, which appeared in the issue of the 19th.

TAKE CARE OF YOUR HEALTH

Another Epidemic of Typhoid Fever and Other "Dirt Diseases" Now Threatens Negaunee.

RESULTS OF BAD WATER AND LACK OF CLEANLINESS.

Clean up Your Premises at Once and Watch Your Water Supply—Work at the Elba.

DREADED EPIDEMIC IN SIGHT.

Typhoid fever has again made its appearance here and judging from the rapidity with which it has spread there is some reason to fear that this community will be visited again with the dreaded epidemic of two years ago. Seven cases have been reported already this week. Five of them are mild forms of the disease but two of them are dangerous. The most careful precautions should be taken to prevent the spread of the fever, lest it become epidemic. Typhoid fever is not communicable by contact from person to person like small pox or scarlet fever, but everyone should take the greatest care that his food and water supplies, particularly the latter, are not tainted by wastes or excreta from those having the disease or fouled in any other manner. Drinking and cooking water should be the subject of particular care, as experience has shown that foul water is the greatest cause and conveyor of typhoid. There were also six cases of scarlet fever reported to the health officer this week. Scarlet fever is highly contagious and demands quarantine. Both typhoid fever and scarlet fever are known to the medical profession as "dirt diseases" and it behooves everyone to clean up his premises at once and see that they are kept clean.

At the Elba.

The work of searching for the vein of ore at the Elba mine which was struck a few weeks ago near the surface is being continued at a lower level. The vein was struck first in a drift about 100 feet below the surface and although the quality of the ore was fine, in fact similar to that being mined at the East Range, yet it was not found in sufficient quantity to warrant the cost of mining it. The company then decided to adopt the same tactics which led to the discovery of a fine vein of ore a few months ago at the East Jackson mine. The main shaft was sunk 112 feet deeper and is now down 212 feet below the surface. A force of miners is now at work drifting from the bottom of the shaft to the north and south. The north drift is now open for a distance of 25 feet and it is expected that the same vein which was struck in the drift on the first level will be reached before they have gone double the distance. It is believed that the vein widens in a triangular form from the surface down and when it is reached at the bottom level ore in good paying quantities will be found.

A New Building.

Miller Bros. have decided to erect a brick building on their property adjoining their store on Iron street. The decision was made known yesterday and Surveyor Clark at once set to work measuring out the ground between the store and Woolner & Elliott's furniture establishment, as every inch of space will be taken up by the new building. No plans have yet been drawn up for the new block but an architect will be engaged, as soon as the ground has been surveyed, to draw plans and specifications after a design which the firm has selected. The new building will be about eleven feet in width, extending back fifty feet. It will be joined to the present substantial block by a common wall and will be the same height. The front elevation will conform in design to the old block and will be lighted by a plate glass front. The first floor will consist of one single store room in which new shelving and fixtures will be placed. The second floor will be divided off into commodious office rooms. The new building, which will really be an addition to the present building, will be lighted from the second floor by windows on the west side and at the rear. Miller Bros. expect to have the contract for its erection let before another week has passed, and work on the structure will be rushed along as rapidly as possible so as to have it up and enclosed before cold weather sets in.

An Asphalt Walk.

The old sidewalk in front of the Brechtling House was torn up yesterday morning and will be replaced by a fine asphalt walk which has quadrupled the lasting qualities besides combining smoothness and beauty of appearance. Thomas La Fort has the contract and will have 100 feet of the new material laid in three days if the weather permits.

STREET GOSSIP.

H. J. Atkinson, of Michigamme, was in town yesterday. Don't forget the Temple of Honor excursion to Iron Mountain today. Fifteen boys will leave next week under Prof. T. H. Corbett's care to attend chool at Watertown, Wis. A. J. Rice has bought out Messrs. Stoikel & Moyle's notion store and will continue the business at the old stand. The foundation for E. C. Anthony's new residence on the corner of Case street and Brown avenue was commenced yesterday. The Marquette man who lost his overcoat in this city a few days ago can have the same by proving his ownership to Officer Choquette. A little child of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Donovan died Thursday morning and was buried yesterday afternoon, the funeral taking place from the Catholic church. Hart Cady, of Palmer, was in town yesterday and boasted of having been the hunter who killed four bears near the lake east of the village Wednesday afternoon. As soon as accounts and business matters can be straightened up, the Star Clothing house will remove from this city to Ishpeming, where the firm will double its present stock and do business on a larger scale. Messrs. Jacobson, Levitan & Co. will occupy the store as soon as the Star Clothing house has moved out.

John Stewart has a large force of men and teams at work repairing Snow street. The street has been repaired many times before, but because of the steep incline the material used in filling washed away with every heavy rain. The material now being used for grading is more substantial, and when the repairs are completed the street will be in as fine a condition as any in the west end of town.

The Horse Among the Israelites.

The Israelites became acquainted with the horse through the Egyptians. They do not show that love for the horse which is characteristic of most nations. In the early ages they were forbidden the use of them to any great extent, lest they might be tempted to idolatry by the easy access to heathen nations; and, further, as they were a chosen people they were not designed to extend their territories by conquests. The lack of horses often put them to disadvantage with their neighbors, and Miriam's song of victory, "The Lord hath triumphed gloriously; the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea," had special significance with a people suffering the want of horses, which at that time were used chiefly for purposes of war. David was no lover of horses or he never would have said, "Be not as the horse or as the mule, which have no understanding," and no Egyptian, Assyrian or Persian would have said, "A horse is a vain thing for safety." Solomon was no aversary, but one of evidence of his wisdom was that he had 40,000 stalls of horses for his chariots and 12,000 horsemen, which may account for the fact that "Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and fig tree all the days of Solomon."

No poet of ancient or modern times could vie with Job in that magnificent description of the war horse: "Hast thou given the horse strength? Hast thou clothed his neck with thunder? The glory of his nostrils is terrible. He paweth in the valley and rejoiceth in his strength. He mocketh at fear."—Caroline K. Sherman in Chicago Herald.

Advance in Dentistry.

The first dental college in the United States was established in 1840 at Baltimore, and at that time no one had to go to a college before practicing dentistry. In 1864 there were but three others in this country, two here in Philadelphia and one in Cincinnati. Even as late as the civil war a college education was not requisite; but at this time there are twenty-six or twenty-eight schools in the United States, and I think nearly every state has laws compelling a collegiate course to the would be practitioner. All the work was done by hand up to 1871, when the dental engine was invented by an American. In 1890 teeth were filled with gold principally, and with gutta percha and, of course, all the cutting and hammering had to be done by hand. Until 1888 there was no such thing as a rubber dam either, and the use of this has almost revolutionized the practice of dentistry. Then, too, soft gold was used, but now cohesive gold is a very important factor in the art of filling teeth.

The year after the war closed the first automatic mallet was invented, and it sprang into immediate and universal favor. Chisels, excavators and pluggers of one kind and another were then used, but prior to 1871 all the excavating had to be done by hand with these instruments and a few hand burrs. The dental engine, however, lessens the time of torture fully one-half, and does the work perfectly.—Interview in Philadelphia Record.

ONLY POWER FOR MISCHIEF.

Parnell Still Fighting With Sole Effect of Making Home Rule More Remote.

TORIES ARE CHUCKLING OVER FATAL IRISH QUARREL.

Parnell Is Politically Dead and His Only Power Is to Make Mischievous—Other Foreign News.

EVIL DAYS FOR IRELAND.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—(Copyrighted.)—Parnell's letter admitting the inaccuracy of the amount attributed to Mr. Dillon's drawing from the evicted tenants, fund had brought to a pause the wretched controversy in the Irish commons, ranks, which really centers in the desire of each side to obtain control of the Paris fund. Parnell, brought to bay, is meeting out the same treatment to Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien which he has already meted out to the Healyites and the liberal leaders but he is fighting an impossible battle. Nobody doubts the scrupulous integrity of Mr. Morley and on the question of veracity Parnell, with his record of the wildest statements, stands no chance of credence. However, he still knows the weak points in his enemies' armor and compels them to wince and take refuge in ambiguities. This unedifying spectacle, which gains undesired attention, occurring as it does at the dead-end of the political season, can have but one result—the destruction of Ireland's chances of home rule. The tory press and party are delighted that Parnell has succeeded in drawing from Messrs. Gladstone and Morley an admission of anxiety to reach Parnell through secret channels. Long leaders in the tory papers dwell upon the discomfiture and humiliation of the liberal leaders, while the liberal press vainly appeals to the party to leave Parnell alone. The clerical are incensed at Messrs. O'Brien and Dillon for adhering to the plan of campaign in defiance of Rome. Altogether the position of the Irish problem, from whichever side it is viewed, is extremely perplexing. The only patent fact is that Parnell is dead. The spathy of the parnellite organization and the constant accession of parnellites to the national federation have induced the latter organization to instruct its registration agents to make no distinction between parnellites and m'Carthyites in making the election lists.

CRIMINALS AGAINST CAPITAL PUNISHMENT. The hideous scene at the Conway execution in Liverpool has caused an outcry throughout the country which is not unlikely to prove the beginning of the end of capital punishment and is certain in any case to greatly strengthen the agitation for its abolition.

TICKLING FRANCE'S VANITY.

Adverse weather today partially marred the Portsmouth review but as nothing was lacking to ensure it was a success. The queen was unable to attend the review and her place was taken by the queen mother. The French government could entertain the absence of the queen with indifference. The function of foreign office approval. The radicals declare that Lord Salisbury declined thus openly to display friendship which might be interpreted as a disregard of the triple alliance. The French crews are disappointed that Friday, a Catholic fast day, was chosen for the chief ceremony, while on Sunday, a feast day, they are offered no kind of entertainment. It was noticeable at today's review that the Frenchmen were less brisk than the English in firing salutes.

CHINA'S GOOD INTENTIONS.

Little is hoped for from China's naval cabinet, but the movement is welcomed as an indication that the pressure of the powers has made an effect.

Premier Rudini of Italy informed the cabinets of Germany, England and France that Italy would cooperate with those nations if combined action was necessary, but if the powers declined to act Italy would herself send a fleet to Chinese waters to act independently and immediately if necessary to protect Italian subjects.

The English colonial office has just consented to the appointment of a Chinese consul at Hong Kong for one year as an experiment.

PACKING OF COTTON CARGOES.

The government has notified Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister at Washington, as the result of long correspondence with Lloyds, to bring under the notice of the United States government the question of the improper packing of cotton cargoes for England.

MENACE TO AUSTRIA.

Russia Massing Troops on the Frontier and Preparing Transports.

LONDON, Aug. 21.—The Standard's correspondent at Braila reports an enormous increase of the Russian troops on the Austrian frontier. He says that the Bessarabia frontier guards, formerly a mere gendarme corps to prevent smuggling, have grown into a permanent advance guard ready to invade Austria on a few hours notice. Large forts and observation towers are being rapidly built and the Russian government has given a heavy subsidy to the Black Sea & Danube Shipping company to erect a large dock yard at Reni and to forward troops to any part of the Black Sea. The construction of pontoons is actively proceeding at Reni, to be placed at various towns for the transportation of troops, and barracks are being built in the vicinity of Reni for 5,000 men.

STIRRING UP DISSENSION.

Kansas Republicans Hope Thus to Break Up Farmers' Alliance.

TOPEKA, Kas., Aug. 21.—S. C. Bradford, ex-attorney-general of Kansas, presided at a meeting of republican Farmers' Alliance men this afternoon. Bradford called this element of the Farmers' Alliance together to organize a revolt in the new party. It was planned that in each sub-alliance there should be formed a self-constituted committee of members who have not gone into the political movement of the organization, whose duty it should be to reclaim those republicans who deserted their party for the Alliance and to keep in the party those who show symptoms of desertion.

ACCIDENT OR MURDER?

Mysterious Death of Three Children in an Old Chest.

INOTON, O., Aug. 21.—A terrible occurrence here this afternoon has almost driven the place wild with excitement. George Hamilton and his wife went visiting this afternoon, leaving their three children of 8, 4 and 2 years respectively. On their return the children were missing but after a lengthy search the parents found the three little ones confined in an old tool chest, where they had died from suffocation. The mother is almost insane in her grief. Circumstances indicate murder and the police are investigating the case.

LEBANON, Pa., Aug. 21.—Notwithstanding a heavy local rain at Mount Getz a large crowd of about twelve to fifteen thousand people congregated at the farmers' encampment here today, the special attractions being the speeches of Senator William A. Peffer and Congressman Jerry Simpson. Both were attentively listened to by large audiences and both paid their respects to Congressman Marriott Brosius of Lancaster, who in his speech yesterday attacked the alliance, especially in its sub-treasury scheme. Hon. Chauncey F. Black of York also spoke in the forenoon and William D. Derr of Lebanon in the afternoon.

BETTER AMERICAN ARMY.

Plan of Regular Army Officers to Increase the Efficiency of the State Troops.

NEXT CONGRESS WILL BE ASKED TO ACT ON THE PLAN.

Militia to Remain Under State Control in Peace but to Be Immediately Available in War.

SEEMS A VERY GOOD IDEA.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 21.—The Post-Dispatch this afternoon says: A scheme is on foot by which the militia of all the states will be put under national pay and supervision. It was started by officers of the regular army at the encampment of the state militia at Camp Wickham the other day and circulars and personal letters concerning it are now flying thick and fast about the country. It is the most radical plan to change the condition of the militia of the country that has risen since the war. The officers, Lieut. Robert E. Evans, of the Twelfth Infantry and Lieut. Joseph B. Batchelor, of the Twenty-Fourth Infantry, gave a resume of the plan to the encampment. After making a careful comparison of the standing army of the United States with those of other countries they had concluded that something must be done to dignify the forces of this country. Steps were at once taken to bring about the change recommended and will be successfully carried out. The constitution of the "Association of the National Guards of the United States," as the organization is known, provides that the national guards of the various states are to be enrolled as the national guards of the United States, remaining under the state control in time of peace, but being immediately available for national defense in case of war. The governor of any state will forward to the secretary of war the application of any company of not less than sixty men which desires to join the association. Each cavalry troop will be paid $5,000 the first year it is organized and $3,000 for subsequent years. The artillery receives the same. Lieutenants Evans and Batchelor said the organization was to be effected by a bill which congress was to be asked to pass at the coming session. Petitions are being gotten up in all states and the movement is widespread but has been kept quiet until it leaked out at Camp Wickham. The plan is approved by all officers and men of the state militia and also by Adjutant-General Wickham.

REELD ON THE STREET.

One of the Sad Consequences of the Hot Weather—A Timely Suggestion.

A man was walking along Broadway, in New York city recently, who was seen to stagger. The observers first thought him intoxicated but as he reeled and fell to the sidewalk heavily, it was discovered that he was sun-struck. People said it was the result of the hot weather. It was not. The man had failed to take proper care and precaution.

Do you know, gentle reader, what you need in hot weather?

Is it rest? Not necessarily. Is it plenty of iced drinks? By no means.

Is it hearty food? Not at all. It is not your body that gets run down; but your nervous system that becomes debilitated. Weakness, despondency, weariness, and the indefinite thing known as malaria, do not come from bodily weaknesses, or physical causes, but are invariably due to nervous exhaustion or disorders. Did you not know that the nerves require a food? Did you not know that the nerves require care, nursing and attention just as much as a baby does? Bring up your nerve tone and see if you do not seem to be another person; see how troubles will vanish and how pleasant life will seem.

Do you ask how this can be done. Ah, there is the difficult question. Many things have been suggested; few are good. There is, however, one recent discovery which is reliable, which is pure, which is an absolute nerve food. This preparation, which is a scientific discovery and not a bitter, nervous or sarsaparilla, is Paine's celery compound. It is surprising what an effect this pure and palatable compound is having upon people's nerves. Where there was weakness, exhaustion, trembling and entire loss of happiness there is now strength, activity, clear complexion, bright eyes and happiness. There are thousands of people who have discovered this secret of health and long life; there are thousands of others who are destined to do so. Are you one of the number? Every reliable dealer in America has it. Most persons who try to keep pace with the march of improvement use it. From its use the American nation, which has been considered a nervous nation, is becoming stronger and more happy.

Affection of Men and Women for Dogs.

A liking for domestic animals, particularly for dogs—these appear to own virtues that many men do not—is an amiable quality denoting sympathy and benevolence. He who hates dogs is apt to be at heart a misanthrope; he who abuses them is a greater brute than they. But there are degrees of liking; there are attachments to animals, it seems, that transcend reason and trespass on the confines immemorably assigned to humanity. Such are the attachments which many women feel or feign for dogs of the most diminutive and ignominious breeds. Men in general do not dog-crazy other fancy dogs of size and dignity, such as St. Bernards, mastiffs, spaniels, setters, collies, hounds. They make companions of them, educate them, and get great pleasure and comfort from their intelligence, fidelity, affection. But they do not treat them as they would their dog-friends, or as superior beings. They neither idealize nor adore them.

A Yankee Trick.

Every one knows that the genuine "Down East" Yankee shrewdness was born in the first generation of such Yankees, was practiced by them and has been handed down by them to their sons, grandsons, and even the third and fourth generations, etc. But whether this trick is original or not—that has nothing to do with it, for in this case it illustrates the facility of trying to get the best of a Yankee. This particular Yankee owns a farm and he hired two new men to mow one of his hayfields. As he could not watch them at all, he resolved to arrange affairs so that instead of talking and doing no work the two men would keep away from each other.

Here is the prescription. Farmer says to one man: "This other fellow is deaf as a post; can't talk either; dumb as an oyster. But he's a good man on a hayfield. Only don't worry him. He's sensitive about his deafness and dumbness, and will get madder than a hornet if you talk to him. Just let him alone and he'll show you a thing or two about mowing hay." Then he went to the other man and gave him the same story. The two farm hands went out and worked like Trojans all day. Neither dared speak to the other and each tried to outstrip the other. The Yankee farmer smiled benignly when the men quit work, and could not be made to understand that he ought to be ashamed of his lie. He was a Yankee, you see—New York Tribune.

Value of Mud Baths.

Mud baths are rarely administered in this country, whereas in certain parts of Europe they are often resorted to, and are generally believed to be of decided therapeutic value. At Carlsbad a peat is used, which is rich in iron elements and vegetable products, and it is mixed with hot Sprudel water.

This peat bath raises the temperature of the body, quickens the heart's action and sends the blood rushing to the head. It is held to be especially efficacious in promoting the absorption of abdominal growths.

More than likely much too high an estimate has been put upon the value of these baths, and it is doubtful if their remedial effect is much greater than hot water baths. At any rate, there would be danger in them for many people, for, besides stimulating, as would a hot poultice, they greatly depress the bathers unless they are very strong and rugged.—Boston Herald.

Melons Better Than Emancipation.

The day before the anniversary of emancipation a farmer unloaded a load of water-melons at Johnson's store to have them cared for until the following day. An old darky stepped into the store late in the evening and stood looking at the fine melons. Frank Johnson asked him if he was going to have a fine time on emancipation day.

"I don't care much 'bout 'manicipation, boss," he said, "but I would like to have one o' dem melons awful well."—San Marcos (Tex.) Free Press.

Rome's Baths Eclipsed.

Some of the wealthy men of New York have spent small fortunes in fitting up their private bathrooms. Mr. Manquand is reported to be the owner of the handsomest one in the city. It has been described as uniquely magnificent. The bath tank is faced with old Saracenic jewels brought from Spain. The angles of the tank are cushioned with polished metal. Above is a barrel arch. The water flows through the throats of carved dolphins.—New York Sun.

DUROFF, THE ANIMAL TRAINER.

A Man Who Preferred to Teach Five Geese Rather Than One Boy.

Signor Domino, biographer of clowns, bareback riders and circus people generally, has written a curious lot of reminiscences of the Russian Duroff, the most famous trainer of trick animals in the present generation.

Duroff was originally an instructor in Latin and modern languages in a Russian high school. He practiced then his powers over domestic animals—first of all his dog—and decided that the docility of dogs, cats and geese was far greater than the docility of school children.

Domino met him one morning in the empty ring of the Circus Schumann. After talking a few minutes, Duroff said: "And now you must excuse me for an hour, as I have a class to instruct at this time."

"But surely you haven't gone back to teaching?" exclaimed Domino. "No, no; you don't understand. I have just begun teaching, in fact. The recitation in question is by my rats and mice."

Domino got permission to listen to the recitation. Duroff fetched a load chest and set it down in the middle of the ring, lifted the cover a little, and then began chirping, trilling, and whistling on a little lead flute. A mouse stuck its head through the crack under the cover, tumbled out, and trotted gaily over to Duroff's feet.

The clown stepped a few yards backward and his little flock followed. He fed them cake and retreated again. They followed and he rewarded them as before.

When three or four of them fell behind the procession to play or fight he attracted their attention by tossing sand at them. Finally he invited them to come up, and in an instant they were on his shoulders, in his coat pockets, and racing up and down the back of his head.

Duroff was the first man to train a pig to grunt accompaniments to songs, dance around a ring and jump and wait to order. He had then also taught a rooster to crow at command and had instructed successfully a goose in the business of fetching and carrying.

"Instruct children? Instruct animals? These are two processes which can hardly be compared. The difficulties vary so there is no comparison."

"You misunderstand me," explained Domino. "I acknowledge that your work now is much more difficult."

"More difficult? More difficult?" shouted Duroff. "You must be crazy. Why, it is easier, indescribably easier. I would rather teach ten pigs than a single child. I would rather teach five geese than a boy. A pig or a goose never forgets, is never impudent, is never noisy. But a child! With it you never know where or how to begin, and when you stop—bumps!—all forgotten."

Previous experience with hippology had so prepared me for a descent in the gastronomic scale, that I one day received without a shock the announcement of our camp cook that we had "come down to ground."

Perhaps the circumstances may have had something to do with it, but really, as I look back upon those banquets under the snowdrifts, they do not leave an unpleasant memory in my mouth.

I do not wish to be understood as disdaining the roast beef of Old England, which, as we all know, mostly comes from the United States nowadays, nor even as preferring the product of the stall to the product of the pasture; but I can affirm, with a good conscience toward my digestion, that there are less salutary dishes served at nobler boards.

There's a patent medicine which is not a patent medicine—paradoxical as that may sound. It's a discovery! the golden discovery of medical science! It's a medicine for you—fired, run-down, exhausted, nerve-wasted men and women; for you sufferers from diseases of skin or scalp, liver or lungs—its chance is with everyone, its season always, because it aims to purify the fountain of life—the blood—upon which all such diseases depend.

The makers of it have confidence enough in it to sell it on trial. That is—you can get it from your druggist and if it doesn't do what it's claimed to do, you can get your money back, every cent of it.

Tiny, little sugar-coated granules, are what Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are. The best liver pills ever invented; active, yet mild in operation; cure sick and bilious headaches. One dose.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled such remedies that sell so well, or that have given such universal satisfaction.

A GAME TO REMEMBER.

The Ball Cranks All Wild Over Thursday's Great Calumet-Marquette Game.

TWO CHILDREN EAT PARIS GREEN BUT ARE SAVED.

Calumet Again Downs Marquette by One Run—Winding Up the Ball Season—The Michigan Here.

NO BETTER EVER PLAYED.

Oh, how the base ball cranks kick because they missed seeing Thursday afternoon's game between the Calumets and Marquettes! No better game was ever played on any ground. Umpire Hillock sang out "batter up" at just a quarter past three. Shepherd of the Marquette team opened the scene by making a nice hit; Tanner got to first on an error of Hoff; Cull went out on a foul fly to Jantzen and then Rathbun got a base on balls but the bases were full only for disappointment, for Pedrores batted the ball right into Ryan's hands who threw to Hoff and Hoff to Halpin, retiring Rathbun and Pedrores. For the Calumets Adams sent a long fly to Pedrores, Zeigler another to Cull, and then Larkin made a splendid hit into right field but Doc Shepherd ran hard, made an elegant stop and threw to Tanner before the batter reached first bag. For twelve innings the batters on both sides found the pitchers, with the exception that Renwick struck out Shepherd and Tanner in succession in the third and Ganss and Corbett in the eighth inning. From the tenth inning on the game was intensely exciting and when Zeigler made an elegant two base hit in the last half of the thirteenth were heard loud cheers. Taddy Larkin, the old reliable, then took the stick, got one ball and a strike and then sent the ball over the heads of the infielders, out of the way of the outfielders, bringing Zeigler safely across the home plate and ended the most notable game ever played on these grounds.

Hillock's splendid umpiring had much to do in making the game interesting, for had he not kept the batters hard at work thirteen innings could not have been played in only one hour and three quarters. The following was the score: MARQUETTE. A. B. R. I. B. S. H. E. R. P. O. A. E. Jay A. Hubbell and T. B. Dunstan, accompanied by Senators Mills, Taylor and Kenney, arrived here Friday forenoon. They were met at the depot by General Manager Whiting, Supt. John Duncan and others and taken in carriages to the great mine to examine its extensive surface plant, etc.

A Finnish family at this place with quite an extensive potato patch bought a few pounds of Paris green to kill potato bugs. The mother of two small children was busy last Wednesday in applying the poison to the vines and left the can containing it where the children could reach it. When she went back to where she left it, to her horror she discovered that the children were eating it and that both of them had their mouths full of the deadly stuff. She picked them up and ran into the house with them and then ran to the mine physician's office for the doctor but he had gone on a professional call ten miles away into Keweenaw county. Some one told Burman, the blacksmith who keeps a shop on the county road, about the matter; he at once out his horse into a road cart and ran him at his greatest speed to the Calumet & Hecla hospital, four miles away, where he secured the services of Dr. J. A. Bobb, who on reaching the children promptly administered an emetic and gave an abundance of dialyzed iron, the antidote for arsenical poisoning. Strange to relate, although the children had swallowed a considerable of the poison and had their mouths still full of it when the doctor arrived their lives were saved and they are now making a rapid recovery from its ill effects.

Mr. Lawrence Caesar, the merchant at the store, stated to the reporter that it was only 25 minutes from the time that Burman left until he returned with the doctor. It is considered good driving to make that time going one way. Burman's horse was covered with foam when he finished the trip; he deserves great praise for his prompt service for a neighbor.

Arrangements are being made for closing the base ball season with a grand game between the Marquette and Calumets at the Houghton park on tomorrow afternoon. A special train will run from Red Jacket, where no doubt will give the park the largest attendance of the season.

A special train leaves Red Jacket at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow; fare 50 cents for the round trip.

The government steamer Michigan arrived in port on Thursday evening and anchored just abreast of L. Henne and Co.'s dock. The music of the band on board attracted quite a number of boys. Among them was Traynor, the diminutive short stop of the defunct Houghton club; he was so charmed with the music that he tried to straddle a railing on the edge of the dock but it broke in two and Traynor got a bath in the copper colored waters of Portage Lake.

The Calumets and Marquettes play an exhibition game at the Houghton park tomorrow afternoon. Game will be called at three o'clock. The Calumet team, the pennant winners of 1891, will do their best to defeat the Iron country team and add to their laurels by a still better record.

CALUMET. Mr. Henry B. Paull, clerk of the Soudbury nickel mines, arrived here on Thursday evening for a visit with his relations. Mr. Paull was formerly a clerk in the Calumet & Hecla's general office. In an interview with the reporter he stated that the mines, which had been closed down on account of over-production, are now starting up again, that all the product which had been mined had been consumed and that sales of 4,500 tons of 40 cent matter had been made to the United States government.

HANCOCK. Superintendent Johnson Vivian has gone to the National mine to look after matters there.

PLAYED A CLOSE GAME. CALUMET, Aug. 21.—(Special).—Calumet defeated Marquette this afternoon. In the sixth inning Jantzen sent the ball over the left field fence with three men on bases and brought in four runs. Score by innings: Calumet.....2 0 8 0 5 0 0 0—15 Marquette.....0 2 0 0 2 1 3—14

George H. Thompson, operator and ticket agent at the Michigan Central railroad depot, Court street, Saginaw, west side, makes the following statement regarding the skill of a local medical firm whose marvellous cures have won them a high reputation as successful physicians. To whom it may concern: For a long time I have been a constant sufferer from catarrh of the bladder, accompanied by pain in the back, loss of flesh and, what is worse, that feeling of lassitude which overcomes sufferers from this disease, rendering them wholly unfit for work and making life a complete burden. I treated with several different physicians without obtaining any relief and had almost abandoned hope when I was prompted to seek the advice of a specialist. Accordingly in June last I consulted Dr. Speer, Emslie & Co., placed myself in the care of the physician in charge and now am happy to say that I am completely cured, thanks to his skillful treatment. Any further information will be gladly furnished to all who may feel interested. GEORGE H. THOMPSON, Agent and ticket clerk Michigan Central railroad, Court street, west side. [8-15-91]

MOVING INTO ITS OWN HOUSE

The Mining Journal Leaving the Quarters Chosen in the Time of Need.

SEVEN MONTHS AGO TODAY IT HAD ONLY A NAME.

Today It Takes Possession of the Largest and Finest Printing Office in the Upper Peninsula.

THE OLD AND THE NEW.

Seven months ago today the MINING JOURNAL went up in smoke and of the finest newspaper establishment in the upper peninsula there was left only a name. But not a single issue was missed, the life of every advertisement was saved and in a short time the paper was again at home in Marquette and made its bow to the public cleaner and handsomer than ever, while the new plant far surpasses the old in every point. Today, seven months from the date so fated in its annals, the MINING JOURNAL takes possession of its new and permanent home, a block built especially for its use and considered by all to be the handsomest and best arranged newspaper building in Northern Michigan.

The MINING JOURNAL on leaving the quarters which were so opportunely placed at its disposal when it looked as if the street were the only place where it would be possible to set up its new presses, feels that the occasion must not pass without some mention of the many acts of courtesy and kindly thought shown the paper and its publishers by General Manager Holley of the Lake Shore Iron works. Since the day the paper took possession of the second floor of the Lake Shore machine shop building Mr. Holley has put forth every possible effort to make the situation as convenient and pleasant as possible and has in every way shown his good will toward his tenants for the time being. The MINING JOURNAL is proud to acknowledge its debt of obligation to so mainly a man and courteous a gentleman as the general manager who has opened up for the great shops on the shore of Iron Bay a new career and has already made them known in every corner of the upper peninsula for the excellence of their work. That his already brilliant reputation may continue to grow and the work continue to pour in upon him is the sincere trust of the MINING JOURNAL and everyone connected with it.

The MINING JOURNAL is not as much given to tooting its own horn as are some of its younger contemporaries but in connection with its move into its own building there are some statements which it is fitting that it should make. At no time in the history of the paper has its business been in so prosperous a condition and this is true in every branch of it. The circulation is steadily increasing, not only in Marquette but in Ishpeming, Negaunee, the copper country and throughout the peninsula. And this is true although within the last year three new competitors have appeared in its home county, competition appearing only to stimulate its business.

Its popularity as an advertising medium has kept pace with its circulation and so great has become the pressure upon its columns—and the MINING JOURNAL is proud to point to an array of home advertising unequalled in any other paper in the state outside of Detroit and Grand Rapids—that the publishers have been compelled to decide that another enlargement of the paper is inevitable and that is the next improvement which they promise their patrons.

The only thing lacking to make the MINING JOURNAL a thoroughly metropolitan paper in every respect is its publication upon a web perfecting press; its circulation is now so large that no ordinary press can handle it to advantage and correspondence has already been commenced with manufacturers and agents regarding the purchase of a new press. All the arrangements in the new building have been made with a view to the enlargement of the paper and the introduction of a web perfecting press. When the change comes Marquette and the upper peninsula will be still prouder of their pioneer daily, now well launched into its eighth year.

Sporting Circles Wild.
The excitement in sporting circles over the coming contest between the Fats and Leans is becoming intense and front seats in the grand stand promise to command a good premium on the eventful day. Meanwhile the work of preparation goes bravely on. The Fats have unearthed a phenom. catcher at the Lake Shore Iron works; he weighs 310 pounds and, to use his own expression, "can eat speed." Negotiations are in progress with two other players of the requisite avardupois, but the management of the team is very close-mouthed about such matters until it has the names on a fat contract.

The latest addition to the Leans is Captain Russell, of the Marquette Rifles, who will stand guard at second base. With Robbins at first, Kehoe at short and O'Meara on third, Russell will complete a picket fence which will be quite as formidable as the stonewall of the Fats.

There is still a great deal of "beefing" over the result of last year's game, the Fats declaring that the game was won by the silms through trickery. Billy Coles is ready to testify in open court that on the night before the game the bases were moved and placed one hundred feet apart instead of ninety. Base running is serious work with the Fats and they don't propose to have any such racket worked on them this year. The distances will be carefully measured by the umpire before the coming game in the presence of the spectators and rival teams.

Another Circuit.
The electric light board held a meeting last night and voted to ask for bids on wire for a new incandescent circuit, the bids to be opened on September 1st. The new circuit will bring the smaller of the two incandescent machines into steady use again and will increase the earning capacity of the plant about $400 per month. The plant is now earning $10,000 per year and the running expenses and construction account amount to between $5,000 and $6,000, leaving a handsome balance over the interest charges. Marquette's electric light plant is fulfilling all promises in addition to giving the cheapest electric light in the United States.

On Wednesday Evening.

Blind Boone, who is to appear at the Casino on Wednesday evening next, was born in Missouri, Miami, Saline county, in the federal camp, in 1863, Seventh militia, company I, his mother being a contraband cooking for the soldiers. He lost his sight by brain fever when six months old. His first instrument was a tin whistle, on which he could play any ordinary air after once hearing it. Next he was presented with a mouth organ, by which he charmed the whole neighborhood, children coming from far and near to hear him. Later he was sent to the St. Louis blind school to learn a trade. This was a failure, however. Once hearing a pupil in the institute practicing on the piano, he would leave his work and steal to the piano, as it was impossible to keep his fingers off the key-board. He soon became able to finger out several pieces, and it was impossible to get his mind on anything else. He was dismissed from school and wandered around St. Louis making his living by playing on the mouth organ and such instruments as he could get his hands on. After many vicissitudes he was educated in music and now has been on the road ten years.

Had His Mouth With Him.

The following from the Detroit Tribune will cause much amusement in this city, inasmuch as Mr. Andrews is so well known here that Marquette people have long been expecting some one to use the pin. If he got $250,000 for selling the verde antique quarries it is proper to ask why they are all in the hands of the original owner and have never been elsewhere:

J. P. Andrews of Grand Rapids is one of the busiest young men in the state of Michigan. He was a guest at the Russell house yesterday. Last year he traveled 64,000 miles, 40,000 of it being by water, having crossed the ocean nine times during the year. For cablegrams he expended $4,000, and his telegraph bills have amounted to $8,000 a year, and yet he does not own a newspaper. Mr. Andrews is a promoter of companies. He conducted a deal for the sale of the marble quarries of Julian, Case of Marquette, and his commission was $250,000. He said:

"I came in today to see General Alger on a matter of business, but found him away. I sail for Europe again on Sept. 5. I cannot give particulars of the deal that is under way, but it is a big one. Last week I purchased a property in Canada from which which asbestos is taken. In New York Saturday I was offered ten times the amount I gave for a half interest. Last year 8,000 tons of asbestos, bringing $1,200,000, was shipped from Canada. I believe the supply I own is inexhaustible, so you see it's a good thing."

"Are the English syndicates doing much in this country now?"
"No, the syndicates in London are dormant at present. The suspension of Baring Bros. and Morretto Bros. caused all owners to realize on American stocks to cover South American investments. Things will be better there now."

Insurance at "Actual Cost."

When people are offered a thing at "actual cost" they can afford to hesitate. Nobody in this day and generation does business for the fun of it. The case in point is the advent of a special agent of the "Michigan Mutual Benefit association" of Hillsdale, a concern which on January 1, 1891, had policies outstanding to the amount of $6,678,000 and to protect them had $6,082,522, total net or invested assets. In other words the solvency of the company depends entirely upon the willingness and ability of the policy holders to put up assessments as called upon. The prudent people of Marquette will do well to ponder upon these facts before parting with their money.

A New School House.

Choccolay is to have a new and handsome school house. The plans were drawn by A. W. Lovejoy of this city and provide for a building 40x50 in extreme dimensions with a fuel room 12x20 in the rear. The building will be of one story only with low sweeping roofs surmounted by a bell tower. There will be two rooms, each 24x30, two cloak rooms, teacher's closets, etc. Including the lot and improvements the new school will represent an investment of about $2,500. The bids for the erection of the building will be opened Monday.

At Baraga.

The Marquette team will play an exhibition game at Baraga tomorrow with the Baragas, its last game of the season. The Baraga ball cranks are all in a flutter over the event and large attendance is expected. The Baraga grounds are enclosed and a grand stand capable of holding 250 people has been erected.

Will Celebrate Labor Day.

The Bricklayers and Masons union of Marquette has determined to celebrate "labor day," September 7th, with a parade and picnic, the latter being held at Messke & Hoel's gardens. All other labor unions in the city are cordially invited to join in the celebration.

An Error of Omission.

In its account of the Mystic Shrine proceedings here on Thursday night the MINING JOURNAL overlooked a point which the Shriners were most anxious should be touched upon and that was the action of Mr. George N. Conklin in placing at their disposal a fine organ for use in the ceremony in Masonic Hall. The courtesy was greatly appreciated.

Will Visit the Soo.

A meeting of Morse Hose Co. No. 3 was held in Firemen's Hall last evening and the invitation of the Soo firemen to visit that city on Friday, September 4th, was unanimously accepted. The boys will go down in style accompanied by the Marquette City band.
