HOLOCAUST IN A HOTEL.

Sudden Fire Early on Sunday Morning Causes Large Loss of Life.

HOTEL ROYAL OF NEW YORK TOTALLY DESTROYED.

Five Persons Known to Be Dead, Several Fatally Hurt and Many Missing—Thrilling Escapes.

SUFFOCATED AND BURNED.

New York, Feb. 7.—A disaster appalling in horror, bringing to mind the terrible occurrences in Park Place, occurred in this city early this morning. The Hotel Royal, that well-known landmark which has stood for more than a quarter of a century at the southeast corner of Sixth avenue and Fortieth street, was burned to the ground and a large number of people burned, suffocated and crushed in the ruins.

There were nearly 150 guests in the hotel. The hotel employes numbered fifty-five. Fire has thus far been found dead, four are in the hospital and sixty-three have been reported alive. The number of dead will probably not exceed, at a later estimate, thirty.

The scenes were heartrending and appalled even the firemen and policemen. Soon after the fire broke out ambulances arrived from the various hospitals, many physicians whose residences are in the neighborhood were quickly on the scene and did all they could to relieve the injured.

Nearly every one of the one hundred and twenty-four rooms which the hotels had on its five floors were occupied last night by guests, many of them transient. In fact all the rooms but four had been taken at 1 o'clock this morning when Richard Meares, the proprietor, went to bed. When the fire burst forth from some unknown origin near the elevator shaft, the entire building was instantly enveloped in flames.

LIST OF THE INJURED.

CLARENCE W. KLEIN, 39 years, single, lawyer, Hazleton, Pa. suffocated and burned, injuries not fatal.
WALTER L. YATES, 69 years old, clothier, Philadelphia, condition serious, burns and contusions.
MRS. ISABELLA MEARES, wife of the proprietor, injuries not serious.
HERBERT HARDING, engineer of the hotel; fatally burned while trying to rescue a woman.

STORY OF THE DISASTER.

Mrs. Isabella Meares, wife of Richard Meares, proprietor of the hotel, awakened her husband at 3:05 o'clock, telling him the house was on fire. She heard the crackling of the flames and saw smoke coming through the crevices of their bedroom door. Mr. Meares had only retired at 1 o'clock and was aroused with difficulty. He sprang out of bed and ran into the hallway.

Volumes of smoke filled the halls and the flames were making their way rapidly up the elevator shaft. Their apartments were on the third floor and forty feet from the stairway. One glance at the situation was enough to tell him the story. He ran back to his room and shouted: "Now you follow me," snatched up a coat and again ran into the hallway. He fought his way straight to the staircase, supposing that his wife was close behind him.

The passage way was choked with dense smoke which almost strangled him. Throwing his overcoat over his head he groped his way to the balusters. Flames were shooting up from below. His hand on the railing was burned and his hair was singed. His situation was perilous. To run down the stairs for two flights meant death and so swinging himself over the hand rail he dropped twenty feet to the ground floor. He landed on his feet without a broken bone and made his way to the street.

Mr. Meares was among the first to leave the burning building and when he made his exit not a fire engine had arrived. But even in those few minutes the flames had gotten their grip on the fated structure and fire was shooting from all the windows of the upper floors. When Mr. Meares reached safety in the street then he realized that his wife was not with him. At that moment a hook and ladder truck arrived. Meares implored them to save his wife.

A ladder was quickly placed in position to a window which he said was his wife's room. Up the ladder Policeman Merritt ran. The window selected was not the right room. In it was an unknown woman who quickly stepped out on the ladder and was carried down in safety. Then the ladder was placed against the window of Mrs. Meares' room. A young man ran nimbly up to help save the woman, who had already stepped upon the ladder. Meares ran up the ladder and stepped on the roof of the veranda over the entrance to the office to steady his wife when she came down. She was very nervous and in making the descent slipped and fell to the sidewalk. She was picked up with a sprained ankle and had several body bruises.

LEAPING FROM THE WINDOWS.

The scenes at the fire before the fire companies arrived was heartrending. One man, whose name is not known, sprang from a third story window and was dashed to death on the ground below. People turned their faces away, horrified at the sight. This was on the Sixth avenue side of the building. A moment later another man leaped from a window on the Fortieth street side and was instantly killed.

Shortly afterward two women jumped from windows on the Sixth avenue side and were dead when picked up.

Several others dropped from windows or slid down ropes with which every room in the hotel was provided and escaped with severe burns while many more were injured in the same way in descending the fire-escapes. The surgeons had their hands full in taking care of the injured and maimed.

All this time the fire was raging fiercely and it was plain to be seen the building was doomed. The structure burned like so much kindling wood. The work of the rescuing guests still went on and many were taken from the windows by firemen and policemen.

Sergeant Ward and Patrolman Phillips went into a room on the fourth floor front and took Walter H. Phelps and wife down a ladder safely. They also succeeded in saving Mrs. Samuel Kniff, who was about to leap from one of the windows on the third floor.

FREDERICK UHLMANN'S CLOSE SHAVE.

Frederick Uhlmann, a dealer in hops, has been a guest of the Hotel Royal for years and lived with his brother Simon and their mother. The latter yesterday went to their country residence at Lake Wood, N. J. Mr. Uhlmann had gone to bed shortly after 1 o'clock and was sleeping soundly when he was rudely awakened by the cry of fire and the screams and shouts for help of the inmates of the house. He ran from his room on the second floor into the hall. He found it filled with smoke and was forced back into his room. Again he made an attempt and falling over some object in the passage way succeeded in making his way down the stairs to the street below. He escaped with only an overcoat to cover his nakedness. Mr. Uhlmann lost everything in his room, including $12,000 in cash. Several checks and notes and other valuable business documents were lost. Despite his loss, however, Mr. Uhlmann was cheerful today, for as he said: "If my mother and brother had not gone away on Saturday they would have been burned."

SOME OTHER NARROW ESCAPES.

Among the narrow escapes was that of H. C. Tompkins of this city. He was awakened from his slumbers by the cry of fire. He got up and went into the hallway but escape down the stairs was impossible. Mr. Tompkins kept his head about him and collecting all his valuables escaped out of one of the windows down a rope. In descending the flames from the second floor windows burned his hands slightly and scorched his hair.

Mrs. E. Knapp of Chicago had a room on the fifth floor. She had presence of mind enough to wrap a wet towel around her head to prevent being suffocated and went to the window and waited until rescued by a policeman.

Mrs. Kueber and daughter of Flemington, N. J., occupied a room on the second floor. They were taken from their room down a ladder by the firemen. They lost all their clothing save the night dresses which they had on and were cared for by Mrs. S. Knight of West Fortieth street. Mrs. Knight made a temporary hospital of her flat and had no less than nine homeless people there at one time.

NOONAN'S THRILLING DESCENT.

One of the most thrilling escapes of the night of terror was that of a young man, J. Noonan of Jersey City. Noonan had been recently married and had just returned from an extended wedding trip. He had come over to the city to receive the congratulations of his friends. He was awakened by the shouts of fire and the cries for help of men and women in the building. He looked out in the hall but there was no escape there. No ladder was near him so with the confidence of an athlete he swung himself from the window sill to the window below and from one window to another until he reached the ground.

Mr. T. M. Schoenfeld of Rockford, Ind., probably fared better than any one in the place. He occupied a room on the ground floor back of the office. He thinks he slept through a good portion of the fire but when he did awake he found escape through the hall out off. His room overlooked the court yard and after packing all his belongings he tossed the trunk through the window and followed it himself.

The Hotel Royal was built more than 25 years ago. In 1882 the building was remodeled and an addition was made on the south side. The house was the home of many persons in the theatrical profession and many families made it their permanent place of residence. The elaborate restaurant was liberally patronized by the class of people who kept late hours in the upper part of the "tenderloin" district.

BODIES FOUND IN THE RUINS.

After the ruins had sufficiently cooled to permit a partial examination a search was made for the dead. It was at once rewarded by the finding of a charred body almost burned to a crisp. It was identified as that of Henry J. Levy by a ring on one of the fingers.

The walls were in a dangerous condition and it was deemed necessary to pull them down before continuing the search for the dead. A force of 100 men will be put to work early tomorrow morning clearing away the debris.

The loss on the hotel and furniture is estimated $250,000. The building is owned by Hyman Israel, furniture dealer on the Bowery.

BLAINE NOT A CANDIDATE

Secretary of State Formally Withdraws His Name From Consideration of Republicans.

TEXT OF HIS LETTER TO CHAIRMAN J. S. CLARKSON.

Thanks His Many Friends for Their Support and Requests All Their Zeal for the Party.

HE HAD ONLY TO TAKE IT.
WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—The following letter explains itself:
WASHINGTON, Feb. 6, 1892.—Honorable J. S. Clarkson, Chairman of the Republican National Committee: My Dear Sir:—I am not a candidate for the presidency and my name will not go before the republican national convention for the nomination. I make this announcement in due season. To those who have tendered me their support I owe sincere thanks and am most grateful for their confidence. They will, I am sure, make earnest effort in the approaching contest, which is rendered especially important by reason of the industrial and financial policies of the government being at stake. The popular decision on these issues is of great moment and will be of far reaching consequence. Very sincerely yours,
JAMES G. BLAINE.

GOVERNOR THAYER QUILTS.

Notifies Governor Boyd That Will Turn Over Office Today.

OMAHA, Feb. 7.—This letter was handed to Governor Boyd at 10 o'clock this evening:
Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 7, 1892.—Gov. James E. Boyd, Omaha, Neb.—Dear Sir:—When I commenced proceedings one year ago to test your title to the office of governor I did so in the full belief that there was great doubt in the public mind as to your citizenship and eligibility. I then took occasion to publish that as soon as your citizenship was established by the courts I would gladly surrender the office to you. The contest was not one of personal strife nor to satisfy any ambition of my own but to comply with and uphold the constitution of the state. Now that the public press has announced that the highest tribunal has declared under the constitution and laws of our country and state your rights to the office, I cheerfully yield the office of governor to you without awaiting the mandate of the court. As I am about to leave the state on Monday, to be absent some weeks, it would be most convenient to me to turn the office to you at 2 o'clock of that day if it is your pleasure to accept the same at that time. Very respectfully,
JOHN M. THAYER.

MANIFESTO OF CLEVELAND MEN.

Opponents of the "Snap" Convention Urged to Fight in Primaries.

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—The following has been issued by a committee of members of the democratic party who are opposed to the calling of a party convention in February: "The state committee has called its convention for the 22d of February for the manifest purpose of forestalling public opinion and of influencing the political action of other states by an apparent unanimous delegation of New York in favor of the preferred candidate of a majority of the committee. This action we have opposed and shall continue to oppose to the end that all democratic electors of the state shall have full opportunity to be represented and heard." The notice concludes as follows: "In our judgment you should fight at the primaries to elect delegates who regard the 'snap' convention as detrimental to the true party interest."

TREACHERY JUSTLY PUNISHED.

Fired on Man With Whom He Had Just Shaken Hands.

GREEN FALLS, Feb. 7.—Joe Pegg, a cow-boy, was shot and fatally injured early yesterday morning at a ranch near Shelly Junction by Dick Crawford, another cow-boy. The shooting was the result of an old feud. Last night a dance was given at a ranch at which a large number of cow-boys were present. Several times during the night the two men quarreled but were kept apart by friends. As the dance was breaking up Crawford approached Pegg and asked him to shake hands and be friends. This Pegg seemingly agreed to but as Crawford turned to ride away opened fire upon him. Crawford instantly returned the fire. Several shots were exchanged and one ball entered Pegg side just below the heart. Crawford was hurried away by friends and is still at large.

OBJECTING FATHER STABBED.

Disliked Dr. Aylsworth's Suit and Gets Fatally Carved.

SHREVE, Ohio, Feb. 7.—Robert Cowell was fatally stabbed by Dr. Charles Aylsworth last night. The men quarreled because Cowell objected Aylsworth's attentions to his daughter. Aylsworth and a friend named Dick Pocock, who was present, are under arrest.

BLAINE NOT AVAILABLE.

If a brief note addressed to the chairman of the republican national committee Secretary Blaine has announced that he will not allow his name to go before the republican national convention, and that he is not, and will not be, a candidate for the republican nomination for president this year.

This will be disappointing news to a great many republicans throughout the country, for the "man from Maine" has a large and enthusiastic following which desires above all other things political to see their favorite among the leaders of the party placed in the presidency. But they must take the bitter medicine, for the hand that administers it is that of Blaine himself, and under the circumstances his refusal to be regarded as a candidate in any sense must be accepted as conclusive and final.

SHOULD DROP PROHIBITION.

It is the opinion of ex-Governor Stone, of Iowa, that the republicans of his state can regain control of it by dropping the prohibition issue and making their fight on those which divide the parties in other states of the union. The election of Boies in Iowa was no test of the relative strength of the parties in the state, or of the sentiment of the people on the tariff issue.

"It was the liquor question, pure and simple, that caused the defeat of the republican party," he declares. There can be no doubt of the truth of this. The republicans made Iowa a prohibition state, in name at least, and as a consequence have lost it in two successive elections. This establishes that the people of Iowa are not in favor of rabid sumptuary legislation and will not stand by the republican party, even, if that party insists in giving it to them.

MADE THEIR WAY EASY.

In an editorial article discussing the marked advance that Minnesota has made as an iron producing state, the Minneapolis Tribune, taking the census statistics as the basis of its remarks, says: In 1880 Minnesota iron was not mentioned in the census. In 1889 Minnesota ranked as the fifth state in quantity of ore mined, and fourth in value of ore.

There is no gainsaying that Minnesota has made marvelous progress in the development of its iron fields within the last decade, but it owes much to Michigan for the advancement made, for without what had been done in the upper peninsula to educate an army of miners and devise improved methods of mining no such headway could have been made in developing the Minnesota field as has been witnessed there since the Vermilion mines first began to place ore on the market.

Not only that, but the Michigan mines had contributed to the lake traffic an immense volume of ore for many years prior to the opening of the Minnesota mines, the effect of this being to induce the government to make provision for the improvement of the connecting waterways, and also to promote the building of ore carriers, all of which was just as necessary to the successful operation of the Minnesota mines as were the capital and skill required to make them give up their hidden treasures. The large fleet that was ready to handle Minnesota ore when its mines were finally in readiness to send out their product was really created by Michigan's iron industry, and had it not been in existence the rapid development of the Minnesota iron range commented on by the Minneapolis paper could not have taken place.

The MINING JOURNAL is not seeking to detract from the glory that the record that state is making as an iron producer is bringing to Minnesota, but it feels that our Minnesota friends ought to be reminded, when they plume themselves on the wonderful advancement they have made in that respect, that they have been only progressed along a beaten way that Michigan energy and skill had made very smooth to their feet in comparison with the rocky road that the pioneers of the upper peninsula iron region had to travel.

Then, too, the record of the Minnesota field as a producer pales into comparative insignificance beside that made by the youngest of the Michigan ranges, the Gogebie, which first shipped ore to market in 1884, the same year that the Minnesota mines made their debut as producers. Since that year their output for 1891 included, 4,117,185 tons of ore, while the output of the Gogebie mines for the same interval was 10,281,923 tons. A study of the figures will enable our friends of the Gopher state to perceive that while they may have distanced New York and Pennsylvania in the production of iron ore Minnesota has a long stretch to cover yet before it can rank as a "good second" to Michigan.

DAVID A. WELLS, of Connecticut, who is known to fame slightly as "the father of tariff reform," is said to have given his endorsement to Springer's plan of attacking the tariff system, which contemplates assailing it in detail—one industry at a time. This is a most excellent plan provided it will work, but the MINING JOURNAL opines that the enemies of protection in this country underrate the vigilance and devotion of its friends. The latter are not going to be caught napping when Mr. Springer comes at the tariff with his little "divide and conquer" plan, and the iron interest will be found fighting the battle of protection in the interests of the woolen men just as vigorously as though the iron schedule were made the first object of attack, and so on through the list. It is worth something to be so fully informed as to the plans and purposes of the enemy, and if, having that knowledge, the defenders of the protection system allow themselves to be trapped in the simple manner that Springer's plan contemplates they deserve to be defeated.

The troubles of the Detroit Evening Journal culminated Saturday in the seizure of the property by the sheriff under chattel mortgage foreclosures aggregating in amount $60,000. One of the mortgages was held by Wm. Livingstone and the other by ex-Senator Palmer. The first was given to secure a claim for $35,000 held by Livingstone and the second represented an indebtedness of $25,000 to the ex-senator. The paper is said to be $100,000 behind, and the seizure will be followed by a re-organization of the management, Mr. Brerley going out to be succeeded as manager by Mr. Livingstone. The Journal has "played in hard luck" ever since it started, and the crisis in its affairs that came at last has been long expected.

The Iron Trade Review, of Cleveland, has this regarding the ore situation in its issue of Thursday last:

The ore market is rather sluggish, despite the large sales hitherto reported from the Vermilion range and the Norrie. The latter sold at $4.00, while some Gogebie Bessemer of equal guarantee sold at $4.50. The ore men expect a large increase in the volume of their business over that of the preceding year, but the market is slow to take up the matter of non-Bessemer ore. The furnacemen are in no humor to stock up in the face of a declining market, and since the ore men, by reason of increased freight charges, are compelled to ask an advance of from 35 cents to half a dollar, the prospect of a speedy adjustment seems as far off as ever. The expected combination on coal freights may have the effect of helping out the ore business, but the chances are hardly as good for the sending down of large quantities of unsold ore as to justify the anticipation of the ore interests.

Those Iowa democrats are not a bit backward in coming forward. On the strength of his accidental elevation to the gubernatorial chair in that state they have formally placed Governor Boies in the field as a presidential candidate. If the democrats should by any possibility trot out the Iowa man as their candidate the republicans would have a heap of fun with the Iowa Boies in the coming campaign, but we can hardly hope for an election with such a large provocation to boisterous enjoyment in it.

The Power System of the Baldwin Locomotive Works.

The distinction between the real and apparent relative economies of steam plants is seldom observed, yet conditions may very easily be such that one is the exact reverse of the other. In other words, it is perfectly possible to make a change in a steam plant, that, according to most experiences, would seem to favor an increased economy, while as a matter of fact the net results might prove a considerable loss. An expensive economical device may be imposed upon a system with the fact of actually lowering the efficiency of the combination in that particular case. For instance—a vacuum is almost certain to raise the economy of an engine under almost any condition, but if the circulating pump uses more steam in that particular case than is saved by the engine, a mistake has been made. The quality of an oil usually improves as the price increases, but it would be a positive error to use an oil whose increased useful effect would be insufficient to justify the greater cost. On the other hand, it would be just as false economy to use an oil of half the cost, if it required more than twice the quantity to produce the same effect. If the saving caused by an expensive attachment will not pay for the interest on the investment, cost of maintenance and operation, etc., then the plant is better off without it. An improvement is not an improvement if the increased production will not pay for it, and it is poor engineering that lets a dollar pass to save a cent. At the same time, it is an unnecessary expense to continue with an inefficient machine when a change can be shown to be a considerable benefit. The Baldwin Locomotive works realize all this most thoroughly, and show their appreciation of it in a very practical way. Years ago they used Corliss engines to drive their works, whose indicated water rate would probably be in the neighborhood of 25 pounds, but on substituting Westinghouse Standard Automatic engines, with an indicated water rate of about 32, the apparent loss becomes nearly 15 per cent. Practically, however, by splitting up the power and distributing it around wherever needed, the saving by the consequent loss of friction amounted to considerably more than this, so that the net fuel consumption was less by the amount of this difference. They had hardly finished substituting these high-speed engines for their Corliss type when the Westinghouse Machine company put on the market their high duty compound and a comparative test at the locomotive works showed that this new engine would, under the same conditions, save them about 30 per cent of the fuel consumed by the single-expansion engine of the same type. It was rather disheartening, considering that they had barely finished replacing one lot of engines, but they set manfully to work and now have nearly all Westinghouse high-speed compounds in place of the standards that in their time replaced the Corliss. They say it pays them and they ought to know, inasmuch as they are builders of locomotive steam engines themselves, and are regarded as in the very front rank of the steam engineering and mechanical profession. When this firm pays for the change and are more than satisfied with the result it is pretty good evidence that they have made no mistake. We illustrate from a photograph an interior view of one of their engine rooms, which, while it exhibits nothing of particular interest, yet is a fair type of what may be met with in works of such magnitude. Engines are here regarded as simply a means to an end. They are the laborers of the plant, and are housed accordingly. At the present time there are eighteen Westinghouse engines in use by the Baldwin Locomotive works.

BATTLED WITH A SNOW STORM.
The Electric Street Railway Engages
in Its Initial Boat With a Blizzard.
Negaunee Visitors in the South Heard
From—Will Quit Banking to Take Up all Kinds of Insuring.

BLIZZARD BOTHERED 'EM.
Yesterday's heavy snow storm rewarded the traffic on the street railway. The first car reached the Breitung about 11 o'clock A.M., and the trips were made about every half hour thereafter. It was much as they could do to keep the track open during the afternoon. How the road will fare today remains to be seen. In all probability men will have to be engaged to shovel the snow off of the track. One of the employes stated to the reporter that they could not use the snow plow on Iron street owing to the ice on the track. After the storm abates and the tracks are cleared they will be able to make regular trips. Saturday was a great day for the road, the traffic being large all day, and hundreds had planned to take a round trip over the road yesterday,
but the snow storm knocked their plans
out of joint. Superintendent Guy did well yesterday in keeping the cars running and the track open, although the proceeds were not large. The street railway company intends to run all winter and for the start it did well in beating its first storm. THE MINING JOURNAL hopes that the road can be kept open, for it is a great convenience
to the public.
Likes the Climate.
Mr. P. B. Kirkwood received a letter yesterday from H. E. Bennett, dated St. Augustine, Fla. It will be remembered that Mr. Bennett and his mother left here for the south two weeks ago.
The trip was taken for the benefit of Mrs. Bennett's failing health, and their many friends here wish for her a speedy recovery. They leave St. Augustine for Tampa, where they will spend a few days. From Tampa they will return to St. Augustine and then leave for Havana, Cuba. Mr. Bennett reports the climate delightful. The oranges have been picked and the trees are already beginning to blossom again.
The MINING JOURNAL joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. Bennett and his mother a pleasant stay in the
"sunny south."

Will do Insurance.
Mr. George A. McDonald has resigned
his position in the First National bank,
to take effect on March 1st. Mr. Mc-Donald will then open an insurance
office in this city and will handle fire, life and accident insurance. He is an experienced insurance man, having been in the business for a number of years. He also handled Mr. T. C.
Yates' insurance business when he first came to Negaunee. Mr. McDonald is a thorough business man and during the two years of his residence here he has made many friends who wish him every success in his new venture. He leaves his present position, which he has ably filled, with the best wishes of his employers.

LOCAL LACONICS.
A young child of Mr. and Mrs. William Frezza was buried yesterday afternoon.
The supervisors of this city have received notice of a meeting of the county board to be held at Marquette on Wednesday.
Eddie, the young son of Mr. Sam
Hooper, is out again after a three-week struggle with typhoid fever,
looking as bright and happy as ever.
Aed Either has secured the services of Peter Chivette, of Marquette, as an assistant. Mr. Chivette is a good all-round blacksmith, but he makes horse shoeing a specialty.
Ishpeming people were almost as numerous on our streets Saturday evening as sparrows on a spring morning. Every ear arrived here crowded to its utmost capacity and departed in the same condition.
Rumor has it that several entertainments by local talent will be sprung on our people in the near future. Negaunee is possessed of the material and such ventures have always been attended with success.
Mr. Maurice McKenna, the well known and popular lawyer, poet and editor of Fond du Lac, Wis., spent an hour in Negaunee yesterday and favored the MINING JOURNAL office
with a pleasant call.
The Negaunee Independent made its first appearance Saturday afternoon.
It is a seven-column quarto, is neatly printed, and bids fair to take root and flourish here. THE MINING JOURNAL wishes the youngster success.
Mr. and Mrs. Chris. White arrived here Saturday after spending their honeymoon at Aurora, Canada, where they were married on the 20th nit.
They will settle down to housekeeping
in a few days and will make Negaunee
their permanent abiding place.
The English Oak band is practicing some new music which it will favor the public with at the benefit concert to be given March 26th. This band is the pride of the city and can furnish as good music as any band in the state.
The boys intend adding another instrument, and an E-flat bombardier player will be well taken care of. Parties who play this instrument wish to join can call or write to William Winn, secretary of the organization.
Tom Collins left yesterday afternoon
for Minneapolis where he goes to procure an artificial leg. Tom had the misfortune to lose his leg at the knee joint in an accident at Iron Mountain about six months ago. At that time he was bracing in the railroad yard in that city. The substitute for the lost limb will be procured from the Winkley Artificial Limb Co., of Minneapolis. He expects to remain about a month.

Bevie's Original Knife.
Ten days ago Colonel John R. Davis, of Mississippi, who had been a resident of the Old Man's home since a year ago
last April, received a stroke of paralysis.
This was followed in a few days by another, and then a third, which proved fatal.
The deceased was a cousin of Jefferson Davis, and during the war was the colonel of a Mississippi regiment known as the Tigers. Colonel Davis had in his possession the original knife constructed for Colonel Jim Bowie, who, though a native Kentuckian, moved to Texas and married the daughter of ex-Governor Veramendi. The knife was said to have been invented while Colonel Bowie was confined in his bed in Natchez, suffering from the effects of a wound he had received in a border fray. He was a man of great mechanical ingenuity, and whittled it out of white pine as a model for a hunting knife, which he sent to two brothers named Blackman, in the city of Natchez, and told them to spare no expense in making it. It was made from a large sawmill file and afterward
perfected by an Arkansas blacksmith.
Davis, who was a young man at the time, was present the first time the knife, as perfected, was used in a duel,
and, as he described the scene, the parties cut the underbrush down and fought to the death. The peculiar part of the operation was that the end was poisoned, an operation that cost Colonel Bowie ten dollars.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

A Fish Swallowed His Watch.
A rather strange as well as amusing
incident happened on board the schooner Emma Clara while at sea Saturday on her way up from Rockport. They were well out at sea where the water was blue and clear and the wind very light,
when one of the passengers discovered
a large fish which is known in those waters as a linn, following close behind
the boat.
Several of the boys were soon leaning over the stern admiring the fish, when one of them accidentally dropped his watch overboard out of his overshirt pocket. It was a large old fashioned Swiss silver watch, and when it hit the water it glanced off sideways and darted
on its voyage to the bottom of the sea,
but the linn saw it, and as he is a fish
that bites at everything that shines, regardless of flavor or taste, opened his huge mouth and swallowed the watch at one gulp. The surprised and chagrined young man says that the watch had just been wound up and was good to tick away for twenty-four hours at least.
The fish seemed to enjoy the meal, and followed leisurely after the boat for some time.—Yelaco Times.

ALLOEK'S POROUS PLASTERS are unap-proachable in curative properties, rapidity
and safety of action, and are the only reliable plaster ever produced. They have successfully stood the test of over thirty years' use by the public; their virtues have never been equalled by the unscrupulous imitators who have sought to trade upon the reputation of Alloek's by making plasters with holes in them, and claiming them to be "just as good as Alloek's," and they stand today indorsed by not only the highest medical authorities, but by millions of grateful patients who have proved their efficacy as a household remedy.
Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentations. Ask for Alloek's, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

A WARNING—DON'T USE BIG WORDS.
In promulgating esoteric cognitions or artificially superior sentiments, philosophical or psychological observations, beware of platitudinous ponder-osity. Let your statements possess a clearness, conciseness, compacted comprehensiveness, consistent consistency and a concentrated cogency. Eschew all conglomerations of flatulent garrulity, jejune babbling of asinine affectations. In trying to impress upon others the superiority of the Wisconsin Central Lines, the direct line to and from Milwaukee, Chicago
and points east and south, and Ashland, Duluth, St. Paul, Minneapolis and all points north and west, and why you and so many others use this thoroughfare it is not necessary to use jaw-breakers. Let your extemporaneous descantings end unpremeditated expatiations have intelligibility
and vigorous vivacity, without rhodomontade or thyrasylabic profundity, psittac-ous vacuity, ventriloquial verbosity, and grandiloquent vapidity, and double entendres, purrulent jocosity and pestiferous profanity, obscure or apparent. In other words, talk plainly, naturally, sensibly and truthfully say the Wisconsin Central Line is the route that ends it. 1-4-14.

CATARH CAN'T BE CURED
with local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It

MILES' NERVE AND LIVER PILLS
An important discovery. They act on the liver, stomach and bowels through the nerves. A new principle. They speedily cure biliousness, bad taste, torpid liver, siles and constipation. Splendid for men and women and children. Smallest, mildest, surest. 30 doses for 25 cents. Samples
free at H. H. Stafford & Son.

HOW TO SUCCEED.
This is the great problem of life which few satisfactorily solve. Some fail because of poor health, others want of luck, but the majority fail from deficient grit—want of nerve. They are nervous, irresolute, changeable, easily get the blues and "take the spirits down to keep the spirits up," thus wasting money, time, opportunity and nerve force. There is nothing like the Restorative Nerve, discovered by the great specialist, Dr. Miles, to cure all nervous diseases, as headache, the blues, nervous prostration, sleeplessness, neuralgia,
St. Vitus dance, fits and hysteria. Trial

A LARGE REGISTRATION.

First Papers Issued to 466 Persons at Ishpeming by County Clerk Smith Saturday.

LOOK OUT FOR A BIG VOICE HERE NEXT FALL.

Prize Winners in the Griffin Drawing. An Entertainment for Charity's Sake—Joins a Marquette Choir.

MADE SOME CITIZENS.

County Clerk Gad Smith, of Marquette, was on hand Saturday afternoon and evening, per previous announcement, at the Swedish Home society hall over the co-operative store on Cleveland avenue, to issue naturalization papers to those desiring the same. Four hundred and sixty-six persons signified their willingness to become citizens of this great republic, and as regards nationality they are reported as follows: English, 199; Scandinavians, 152; Finlanders, 191; Irish, 16; French, 4. The number of applicants for first papers was greater than had been expected. It was thought that not more than 300 candidates for naturalization papers would show up. The papers will be filled out at once by Mr. Smith, and those who have given their names in can secure the same free of charge at the store of Mr. A. W. Lindholm, on Bank street in this city, by the latter part of the week. Mr. Smith was assisted in taking the names by Judge of Probate Nels Clifton, who conversed with the Scandinavians who made application, and Mr. Adam Kangas took care of the Finnish people.

Won the Prizes.

About two months ago Mr. M. Griffin of this city had his barn destroyed by fire, with several horses, cows, sleighs, cutters, buggies, harnesses, etc., which it contained, his loss by the disaster being over $1,500. After the fire Mr. Griffin got together the remaining material that escaped injury and offered to dispose of it by a drawing on Jan. 2. About the first of the year he was called to Canada, through the illness of his daughter, and the drawing was postponed until last Saturday night when it took place at the grocery store of Mr. Wm. Andrews on Division street. The following were the lucky ticket holders, and the prizes drawn: Wm. Walton, first prize, a 3-seated sleigh, valued at $65; H. Routhier, second prize, a 2-seated sleigh, valued at $40; Aug. Jacob, third prize, a cutter, worth $15; Mat. Tomkin, fourth prize, a single buggy, worth $20; Jas. McKutcheon, fifth prize, a set of double harness, valued at $30. The drawing was conducted in a fair and impartial manner. The numbers were all placed in a large bowl, the top of which was covered, and a boy was blindfolded and drew the numbers from the bowl. The 10th number drawn was given the first prize, the 20th second prize and so on, every 10th number being agreed upon as the winning one. Mr. Griffin sold about 275 tickets.

On Washington's Birthday.

On the evening of the above day an entertainment will be given at the city opera house under the supervision of Carrie Conrad Austin, the proceeds of which will go to the poor fund of this city. The entertainment will be in the nature of a literary contest in which a number of boys and girls from 12 to 14 years of age will take part, and the one making the best record at each contest will be given a silver medal. A series of these entertainments will be given and a silver medal will be awarded the best pupil at each contest until six medals have been won, then another series will be held at which six gold medals will be contested for. Grand gold medals and diamond medals will be contested for also in the same manner. Mrs. Austin should receive the support and assistance of every person in Ishpeming who is interested in this good cause. It has not been stated that the proceeds of all the contests will be given to the poor fund, but it is quite probable that they will be devoted to some charitable purpose. Let a full house greet the lady on her first attempt to help the poor and needy.

Will Sing at Marquette.

Miss Minnie Sullivan, Ishpeming's well known soprano, who has been so prominent a member in the St. John's Catholic church choir, has accepted a position in the Catholic cathedral choir of Marquette, and will sing there on Sunday hereafter.

"Esther."

As has been previously announced through the columns of the MINING JOURNAL the cantata "Esther," will be produced in this city by the M. E. church Harmonical society. The date for the performance has not yet been settled on, but it is quite probable that it will take place about the 18th of April. Frequent rehearsals are being held by the ladies and gentlemen taking part and good progress is being made. A fine production of the cantata may be looked for. The exact date will be announced in due time.

Instruments Not Here.

The Swedish Home sextette of this city some time since sent an order to Sweden for six instruments and the same were expected to reach here the early part of last week, but owing to some mistake in the transfer at New York the horns have not yet arrived. It is expected they will arrive without fail some day this week.

The Shin Fanes.

Tonight the Shin Fane Snow Shoe club will meet at its hall on Division street. Four or five new members will be initiated at the meeting. A good old-time tramp will be taken, the late fall of snow making the conditions just right for this. Action will be taken at the meeting on the matter of initiating the members of the Marquette branch of the club, and it is quite probable that Wednesday evening of this week will be selected as the night when the Marquette contingent will visit Ishpeming and be made full-fledged members of the parent organization. A good time is looked for by the members, and it is quite certain that the Shin Fanes will put in the jolliest night their club has known since it was organized when the Marquette delegation is taken in and done for. A supper will be served after the tramp tonight.

Beach & Bowers' Minstrels.

The well-known minstrel aggregation will appear in Ishpeming on the 25th. The date has been decided on but the terms are not yet agreed upon by the company and the local manager. The company is a good one and will be the first to open the theatrical season here.

Sellwood & Co. offer free transportation, both ways over the electric street railway, between this city and Negaunee, to all Negauneeites making a $2 purchase at their store.

The heavy snow-fall of yesterday brought joy to the hearts of the many snow shoists here, who have not had an opportunity to indulge in a good tramp thus far this winter.

Miss Ceina Charbonneau, of Champion, who is well known in this city, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends here. She sang in the St. John's Catholic church choir yesterday.

The snow storm of yesterday blocked the tracks of the electric street railway line so that cars could not be run here during the afternoon. Regular trips were made during the forenoon.

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY MINING JOURNAL can be found on sale in this city at the drug stores of P. P. Tillson, C. H. Kirkwood and H. Harwood, and at the bazaar of M. A. W. Lindholm.

Joe O'Neil has been secured to drive the new team lately purchased for the horse cart at No. 1 engine house. Mr. O'Neil is an experienced horseman and will be remembered by many as the man who jockeyed the black horse of Mr. Geo. Voelker last fall in the races held at Union park. He was recommended for the place by some of the leading horsemen of Ishpeming, and will no doubt prove to be the right man for the position.

Talk's cheap, but when it's backed up by a pledge of the hard cash of a financially responsible firm, or company, of world-wide reputation for fair and honorable dealing, it means business!

Now there are scores of sarsaparillas and other blood-purifiers all cranked up to be the best, purest, most peculiar and wonderful, but bear in mind (for your own sake), there's only one guaranteed blood-purifier and remedy for torpid liver and all diseases that come from bad blood.

That one—standing solitary and alone sold on trial, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If it doesn't do good in skin sculp and scrofulous diseases—and pulmonary consumption is only lung-scrofula—just let its makers know and get your money back.

Talk's cheap but to back a poor medicine, or a common one, by selling it on trial, as "Golden Medical Discovery" is sold, would bankrupt the largest fortune.

Talk's cheap, but only "Discovery" is guaranteed.

A REMEDY FOR THE GRIPPE COUGH.

A remedy recommended for patients afflicted with the grippe is Kemp's Balsam, which is especially adapted to diseases of the throat and lungs. Do not wait for the first symptoms of the disease, but get a bottle and keep it on hand for use the moment it is needed. If neglected the grippe has a tendency to bring on pneumonia. All druggists sell the Balsam.

BOSTON IGNORANCE SHOWN

Those Who Know Least About Copper Mining Most Ready to Criticise.

SOMETHING APROPOS OF CAPT. JOHNSTON VIVIAN.

Speculations as to the Future Policy of the Calumet & Hecla—German Song and Drama.

HANCOCK.
Boston papers say: "It is probable that Johnson Vivian will be asked to resign the position of superintendent of the Centennial mine. No doubt some of those down east fellows who have been lying about the condition of the mines up here and allowing them to get irretrievably swamped under a load of indebtedness do not approve of Captain Vivian's vigorous English with adjectives thrown in when he has been imposed upon. He, like all mining men, has some faults but he has had loads of good qualities and eastern mine directors will have to look a long while before they can find another mine agent who will put his hand in his own pocket and pay $15,000 on the workingmen's payroll to protect a protested draft on the eastern office so that the miner's Christmas would not be one without money, credit or food."

Remember the veterans. The annual ball of E. R. Stiles post, G. A. R., is next Wednesday evening. The proceeds will go to assist needy soldiers of the union. So this appeal to your charity and appreciation of the patriotism of those who went forth "to battle for the best country on earth" should not pass unheeded.

CALUMET.
Friday and Saturday were auspicious days with the Masonic fraternity of the copper country, being the occasion of the initiation of a class of nine into the mysteries of the Knights Templars by Montrose Commandery, No. 30. The class were principally from Ontonagon county and consisted of Messrs. A. T. Stannard, W. A. Hill, James Marcer, W. F. Sawyer, J. H. Comstock, Dr. J. P. Jordan, Jno. W. Clark and R. A. Parker, with Dr. W. T. Whistler of Calumet. Landlord North of the Calumet hotel served the banquets on both evenings. On Friday evening eighty-four Knight Templars sat at the banquet table and on Saturday evening there were nearly that number. The Houston contingent came out on Saturday with large four-horse sleighs.

The Calumet & Hecla Mining company received a new 20-ton boiler this week, Copper Journal, just put it 53 tons; the C. & H. does not handle toy-boilers.

The Boston News Bureau has the following to say about our great and only Calumet & Hecla: "The strength of Calumet & Hecla in the face of a weak copper market has been to some a little mysterious, but there are those who expect to see copper at 10c. per lb. and Calumet & Hecla at $400 per ounce. The Calumet & Hecla is tired of combinations and contracts in respect to a metal so widely distributed and in such general consumption. The directors of the company say that copper must take its place with iron and find a natural market. This declaration may well make other copper producing companies shiver, for the Calumet is several miles in one, and its production is only limited by its stamping and smelting facilities, and these are being gradually increased, while the company has entered upon a policy of concealing the amount of its product. It is said that the enormous construction expenditures of Calumet will be substantially over the present calendar year. With fifteen years ore product fully opened by shafts and levels, the machinery above ground as well as that needed in Calumet's production when it starts to supply the copper market with its round capacity."

YOUNG MEN
Who may be suffering from the effects of youthful follies or indiscretions will do well to avail themselves of this chance.

DR. SPEER & CO.
Will guarantee a perfect cure in all cases of weakness or private disease of any kind or character they undertake or forfeit $250. They will therefore say to the unfortunate sufferers who may read this notice that you are trading on dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedies for your complaint. Then for the first time you will realize what negligence means. Our success in such cases can be best understood when we will positively declare that over 100,000 have been treated by us in different parts of the world. Call and get the benefit of our experience.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.
There are many of the age of 30 to 50 who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting sensation and weakening of the system in a manner which the patient cannot account for. On examination it will be found that the urine deposits aropy sediment and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear or the color be of a thin or milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of weakness

DR. SPEER & CO.
Will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the organs. Examination and advice free to all. Remember the place, 146 West Washington street, Marquette.
P. S.—See our testimonials in the different papers from well-known people.

To the Public.
I have great pleasure in adding my testimony to that of others as to the ability of Dr. Speer, and I do so voluntarily, believing it my christian duty as a member of the "Young Men's Christian association," and also of the "Epworth league," to give credit to a physician of such marked ability as Dr. Speer, that others may be benefited by his skill. For two years I have been subjected to the most terrible pain; I could not work or sleep; my constitution was so terribly impaired that insanity seemed imminent and life itself a burden. Several physicians whom I consulted could do nothing, and I thought that earth had no cure for me. In my despair I consulted Dr. Speer, whom a friend of mine described as one who had skill, discretion and a wonderful power of healing; as the drowning man will grasp at the straw, so did I at my friend's suggestion.

After several weeks' treatment I AM CURED, AND AM IN FULL ENJOYMENT OF MY NATURAL VIGOR. I feel like working full time; eat well, sleep as peacefully as a child, and have that grateful sensation that only a man can have who is conscious of being literally snatched from the very jaws of death.

The skill displayed by Dr. Speer in the diagnosis of my case was simply astounding, my ailment seeming to be to him as clear as day. This testimony I am willing to substantiate under oath at any time, and my feelings are of profound thankfulness that the hand of Providence directed me to such a physician.

FRED J. HAYEN,
1631-11 315 Bluff Street, Marquette.

WELL WORTH READING.
Dr. Speer & Co., Marquette, Mich.
I am glad to write you that I am entirely cured of the distressing disease that has long made life a burden to me. When I began treatment with you I had for years been afflicted with severe pains across the back, my skin was yellow and discolored. I was nervous and constantly depressed in spirits, being unfit for work and knew scarcely a moment when I was free from pain. At our first interview you described my case so correctly that I was satisfied that you understood every symptom. Under your treatment I received relief at once and in a few weeks my pains and nervousness disappeared and my skin changed to a healthy color. I am now fully cured and gladly recommend other sufferers as I did to consult Dr. Speer & Co. and give you full privilege to refer any afflicted person to me for reference.

AT THE NEW OPERA HOUSE

The Scenery and Stage Fittings All Thoroughly Tested Last Evening, Working Splendidly.

SCENERY A CREDIT TO FAMOUS FIRM OF SOSMAN & LANDIS.

The Curtain a Perfect Beauty—Fine Work of W. H. Clifton Who Set Up the Scenery and Pictures.

COMPLETE AND MODERN.

Last evening the stage manager of Marquette's beautiful new opera house, Mr. Frank A. Lathrop, late of the Columbia theatre, Chicago, had his stage force busy at work literally "learning the ropes" and the stage was set in succession for the three acts of "Hazel Kirke" as it will be presented by Effie Ellsler at the opening of the house this evening. The occasion was seized by Mr. W. H. Clifton, of Chicago, who has had charge of the placing of the scenery for the great scene painters, Sosman & Landis, of Chicago, to exhibit the full line of scenery to representatives of the Mining Journal, Hon. Peter White and a few others, the last piece having been hung Saturday afternoon.

The scenery of the new opera house is the very finest turned on by this celebrated house, which stands at the head of this business in the United States. There are thirteen full sets of scenery and by combinations these can be presented as twenty different scenes which included in the scenery with which the house is supplied are a set bridge, two bridge rocks, four small rocks, three rows of set waters, one set cottage, one set house, balustrade, balcony for the house, garden wall, two set statues and two vases.

The full sets, six interiors and seven exteriors, are a fancy set, Gothic set, plain chamber, prison, kitchen, palace arch, forest, light landscape, horizon, rocky pass, garden, street and cut wood. Each interior set has four wings and two doors and there are also eight wood wings, four horizon wings, four street wings and two "tormentor" wings all with corresponding borders. There are four sets of grooves and four border lights, and a full set of modern traps and bridges.

The drop curtain is entirely new in design and alone cost about $500. It is a beauty in every sense of the word, rarely being equalled in artistic merit and softness of coloring. The design is an Italian landscape hung in a heavy frame of gold and surrounded by the most exquisite yellow satin drapery caught up here and there in an effective way and at the top of the curtain embellished with cupids and roses. The scene pictured in the framed painting is Italian in every feature. A broad road stretches along by the side of a little lake while on the other side rise bold and rugged mountains one of which is surmounted by a castle, a little city nestling down among the hills at the farther end of the lake. Overhead is the world-famed Italian sky with its intense blue, the clear light mellowing every part of the landscape. But the striking feature of the painting is furnished by three figures in the roadway, squarely in the center of the picture. Two are Italian peasant girls and the vivid coloring of their dresses together with the equally striking costume of the mounted figure by their side, sets off the whole picture, giving it the very dash of life and color needed to complete its charm. The curtain is the work of Mr. Frank Gates, one of Sosman & Landis' most noted artists, and though Mr. Clifton has hung curtains for them for years he states that in the whole number there has not been one in the slightest degree resembling this—the design is entirely new and strikingly so also. To gain a better idea of the curtain and scenery the dimensions are needed. The stage is 29x53 and 64 feet to the gridiron, giving a splendid rigging loft. The curtain opening is 26x28 and the curtain and five drops are of a corresponding size while the flats are each 18x24. The curtain is stretched as flat as a board and at the top of the bell is hoisted bodily up into the flies.

Everything worked like clock work last night and Manager Ross, who was seated in the center of the parquette critically watching every shift, expressed himself as thoroughly delighted with the scenery and the work of Mr. Clifton while Stage Manager Lathrop after setting the wood scene for the first act tonight was so struck with its excellence that he traveled back into the house to get a better look and then declared that it was the best set of the kind that he had ever seen. The fancy interior for the second act is equally fine.

The Jury Disagreed.

The case in which the most interest was centered at this term of court, was that of the People versus Andrew Mattilo, charged with assault with intent to kill and murder Conductor Patrick Connolly of the D. S. S. & A. railroad, in November last, at O'Brien, this county. It is not necessary to go into the particulars of the affair here, as they were told at the time in these columns.

Tuesday morning the case was called, the court appointing Attorney F. C. Chamberlain, of Bessemer, to defend Mattilo, when the tedious work of drawing a jury was begun, which consumed all day Tuesday and half of Wednesday. The regular panel was exhausted, and some 35 or more were drawn before twelve men satisfactory to the defense were secured. Mattilo's counsel asked for an interpreter, and one was granted him. Prosecuting Attorney W. W. Wendell presented the case of the people in its strongest light, but an ingenious Chamberlain set up such an ingenious defense, that at one time it was thought the prisoner would be acquitted. The theory advanced by him and sworn to by Mattilo was that his (Mattilo's) partner did the cutting, although he had no partner on the train. Mr. Chamberlain fought every point hard, winding up with an eloquent plea for his client. Mr. Wendell then closed the case with a good logical argument, which was followed by Judge Haire's charge. A very fair and impartial one indeed; instructing them that they must bring in one of three verdicts: first, assault; second, assault with intent to kill and murder, or, not guilty. The jury retired at about four o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, and were out all night. Thursday morning they filed back into the court room and announced that they were unable to agree, and asked to be discharged. Whereupon the court discharged the jury and ordered that the prisoner be confined in the county jail till the next term of court, when he would be given a new trial. At one time the jury stood six for a verdict of assault with intent to kill, and three for simple assault, but none of them believed the prisoner not guilty.—Ontonagon Herald.

Chautauqua Circle Meeting.

The Marquette Chautauqua circle held a well-attended meeting in the main hall of the Upper Peninsula Business College Saturday evening. Mrs. Teal presented a well prepared essay on the life and character of John Adams and Mr. J. H. Rood gave a graphic description of the New England meeting houses and Sabbath observances of colonial times. The remainder of the evening was occupied by the regular work which is in American history and the social institutions of the United States. Bryce's "American Commonwealth" being the text book for the latter. An interesting episode of the meeting was the exhibition by Mr. D. M. Farnsworth of a pocket book carried by his great grandfather at the battle of Bunker Hill and a seven dollar Continental bill received by the same person in payment for services in the American army. Mr. Farnsworth was one of the soldiers who helped carry General Warren out of the press and off the field when that gallant patriot received his fatal wound. Mr. Farnsworth prizes this interesting relic very highly. The Marquette circle now has about thirty members, and judging from that Saturday night its meetings will be very interesting. Having begun the year's studies four months behind the circle it will for the present stick pretty closely to the regular work and will, until further notice, hold meetings every Saturday evening, beginning at 7:30 o'clock sharp.

Seats For the Opening.

There was a good sale of seats on Saturday for the opening engagement of the Marquette Opera House and at the conclusion of the sale Saturday afternoon the diagrams were placed at Stafford's where the remaining seats will be sold today. The few remaining seats on the parquette floor are in the first and last rows and are offered at $2 each (by the way though everyone seems afraid of the front rows they are as good seats as there are in the house as all who have tried them are agreed) while the remaining seats in the balcony, with the exception of a few in the front are offered at $1.50. At 6:30 this evening the diagrams will be removed to the box office of the new opera house and all seats remaining unsold can be secured there. The admission in the gallery has been placed at 50 cents and this low rate for the opening night should fill every seat in that part of the house.

The doors will be open tonight for the first attraction, "Hazel Kirke," at 7 o'clock and the curtain of the new house will rise for the first time at 8 o'clock sharp. See that you are there and there on time.

Will Prosecute All Disturbers.

The management of the Casino give notice that the young men who created a disturbance at the rink on Saturday night will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law if any further trouble is experienced with them. Their names are all in the possession of Mr. Trempe and some of them are no strangers in justice courts. When they became disorderly in one corner of the rink one of the floor managers, Tom Sparrow, ordered them to desist and when they refused and an attempt was made to eject them they started a fight. Mr. Trempe is entitled to special police protection to guard against any such trouble and is willing to pay for it. He is determined that no disorder shall occur at the rink and in this determination he should be backed up by the authorities.

Instantly Killed.

A brother of Oliver Gebreau, the well-known South Shore brakeman residing in this city, was instantly killed Saturday morning by being struck by a train while walking on a bridge about two miles east of Front Street, on the Duluth division of the road. His remains were brought to this city and taken to the undertaking rooms of Charles A. Hager pending the arrangements for the funeral which will take place today or tomorrow.

In Touch With the Times.

Effie Ellsler will open the pretty new opera house at Marquette next Monday night. This will be an upper peninsula event that will place the enterprising people of that region in closer touch with the times than any other like occurrence of the decade.—Detroit Free Press.

The Aeolian!

[WHAT]

■ BILL NYE ■

Thinks of it.

"While in Chicago I had the pleasure of hearing one of your Aeolians, and the melody is still ringing in my ears. If you could see me since I heard that wonderful and accurate music, you would see a different man. I am more hopeful. My victrols and my wife both agree with me, and in my once sad heart the little pee wees are singing. Seriously it is a most wonderful instrument."

Mr. Nye is only one of the many who are surprised by this wonderful instrument. If the Aeolian had no other qualities than its beautiful tone and wonderful orchestral effects, it would be a marvelous instrument, but when to these are added that simplicity of operation that enables anyone to play it with a few days practice, it becomes phenomenal.

Herr Anton Seidl, leader of the German opera, New York city, has an Aeolian for his personal use and endorses it highly.

You are earnestly invited to call and hear this wonderful instrument at
