A PROPOSAL.
Is always in order, and is especially interesting to the one who receives it. Everybody in Marquette is intensely interested in our proposal to furnish a house on the Installment plan. This is the most tempting proposal ever made. The culminating bargain offering in furniture, which the shrewd wouldn't miss for money.

Let the eye tell the story of our parlor and bedroom suits, the prices tell the story of economy which always supplies the magnet of trade. Our proposal is worth accepting at once. To refuse such an offer as ours means a lost opportunity. Would anybody miss the chance to buy a parlor or bedroom suit for $10? We have none at that price but very near it. Give us a call as we sell on the Installment plan at cash prices.

VERY SENSIBLE MOVE.

Legislature Taking Steps to Relieve Itself of Burden of Charter Legislation.

CONSTANT CHANGING OF CITY CHARTERS USELESS.

James A. Crozer of Menominee Appointed on the Board of Control of the Soldiers' Home.

WORK OF STATE SOLONS.
STATE HOUSE, LANSING, Mich., March 1.—[Special.]—The governor sent to the senate today the following appointments: State Librarian to succeed Mrs. M. C. Calhoun, declined, Mary A. Spencer of Lansing; members of the board of control of the Soldiers' Home, James A. Crozer, Menominee; Loomis K. Bishop, Grand Rapids.

The following bills received favorable committee reports in the house today: For the repeal of the "squawbuck" illuminating oil law of 1891; for municipal suffrage to women; to provide for the selection of seats of members of the house by lot.

The Gladstone and Bessemer charter bills were passed, the latter being somewhat amended.

The following special committees were announced: Taxation, Willey, Bishop, Church, Tropp; to recommend legislation for the relief of the legislature from municipal legislation, Bishop, Ewing, Baell, Kline, Sullivan; on congressional apportionment, one member from each congressional district with Mr. Sumner as chairman. Mr. Fuller represents the Twelfth district.

A bill was passed authorizing two election districts in Forsyth township, Marquette county.

The governor has approved the bill appropriating $15,000 for the temporary relief of the Mining school.

The legislature tonight in joint session held memorial exercises in honor of James G. Blaine.

TAMMANY SHIFTING BLAME.
Incompetent New York Officials Censure Consuls for Cholera.

ALBANY, March 1.—The assembly committee on public health today reported favorably a long preamble and resolution introduced by Assemblyman Duffy. It recites that the cholera invasion of last summer was the result of an indifferent, negligent and careless consular service at the port of departure of the infected vessels. Congress is requested to fix a penalty by fine, imprisonment or removal from office of such consul, vice consul or other consular officer or medical officer attached to such consulate who neglects or fails to carry out the provisions of the law and that the surgeon general of the Marine hospital service of the United States furnish immediate telegraphic information to the health officers of the existence of epidemics of infectious or contagious diseases which are likely to imperil the public health.

CHICAGO CONTINGENT MOVES.
More of Grover's Peace-Destroyers on the Way.

CHICAGO, March 1.—Many prominent Democrats started today for Washington to witness the inaugural ceremonies. They were for the most part gentlemen who are not members of any of the Democratic clubs, although some of the latter left today to be in the capital in advance of their fellow clubmen. One of the largest parties left this afternoon over the Baltimore and Ohio. A special car attached to the regular train contained Daniel Corkery, Thomas Gahan, Roger C. Sullivan, John P. Hopkins, John J. Lane, Jacob Kern and a number of other leaders who will be the special guests of Congressman Larry McGann. Tomorrow the Iniquitous club and County Democracy will leave by special trains over the Baltimore & Ohio.

ALONE IN THE BUILDING.
Young Mrs. Blaine and Child Sole Tenants of Hotel.

NEW YORK, March 1.—The board of health has decided that Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr. and her 5-year-old son, who is ill with scarlet fever, must be allowed to remain in the New York Hotel until the child recovers or dies. As the hotel is now deserted on account of the expiration of the lease and all the carpets and furniture ready for moving out, the place has a most desolate appearance. The water and gas have been turned out and at night the mother continues her lonely watch by candle light, isolated as if in a wilderness.

ALL MARYLAND IS GOING.
BALTIMORE, March 1.—The Maryland attendance at the inauguration of President Cleveland will be unprecedented. All the militia and every Democratic club of the state will be in Washington and the state's official representation in the parade will number nearly 6,000.

STUCK BY A SNOW FLOW.
PAYNESVILLE, Mich., March 1.—A snow plow west bound struck a Thompson and his son near this city yesterday, killing Thompson and probably fatally injuring his son.

FORECAST OF THE WEATHER.
WASHINGTON, March 1.—8 p. m.—The weather bureau reports the following as its forecast for the next 24 hours: For upper Michigan: Generally fair; westerly winds.

MAXWELL MAY GET A JOB.
NEW YORK, March 1.—Robert A. Maxwell of Batavia, N. Y., is mentioned in a local paper as the probable first assistant postmaster general under Mr. Bassell.

referee. In the thirty-fifth round Needham received a terrific upper cut and went down and the referee awarded the fight to Maber, saying that Needham would fight until he died. The fight lasted two hours and twenty minutes. Maber was not much punished, having only a badly swollen eye. The fight was for a purse of $1,550.

THEY FOUGHT IN CHURCH.
Mrs. Sanders' Hoop-Skirt Raises a Bloody Row.

MILAN, Tenn., March 1.—In attempting to introduce the crinoline fad into the rural district of Daden Mrs. Sanders caused a fight in the church last Sunday. In entering the church her cumbersome skirts brushed against several persons and Andrew Watson made a remark which incensed the woman, who informed her husband. A fight ensued, the relatives and friends of both parties engaging in the battle. Women fainted, children screamed and pandemonium reigned supreme. Many emerged with broken and bleeding heads, vowing vengeance. Several of the parties are gunning for each other and the crinoline fad is on the decline.

CANADIAN LUMBER TRUST.
Mill Owners of the Winnipeg Region Forming One.

WINNIPEG, March 1.—All the principal mill owners and lumber merchants of Winnipeg Keewatin, and Kat Portage have formed a joint stock company under the presidency of D. L. Mathier, the lumber king of Keewatin. The object ostensibly is to economize the operating expenses. The combination controls an output of 65,000,000 feet and promises to reduce the price of lumber.

POLICE OR PINKERTONS?
President Thomas Given His Choice and Prefers Police

CHICAGO, March 1.—President Thomas of the Belt line today applied to Chief McClaughry of the city police for protection for his switch-tenders, several of whom have been assaulted recently by the strikers whose plaes they took. Mr. Thomas said something about employing Pinkertons to assist the police and was told to choose between them, that the police would not be allowed to do guard duty where Pinkertons were employed. He concluded to rely on the police alone.

DETROIT DEMOCRATS START.
The Hungry and Thirsty Are en Route to Washington.

DETROIT, Mich., March 1.—Chairman Campau of the Democrat state central committee left for Washington this morning accompanied by W. L. Churchill of Alpena, John Power of Escanaba, William E. Quinby, proprietor of The Free Press, William A. Moore, Judge Miner and S. L. Smith. Mr. Campau will live at the Arlington Hotel while in Washington. The Democratic club party left over the Grand Trunk this evening for the capital. They will go through with but one or two short stops and will arrive at their destination Thursday evening.

TRAINS RUNNING AGAIN.
The Grand Rapids & Indiana Finally Shoveled Itself Out.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 1.—Train No 5 from this city for Mackinac, which has been stuck in a snow drift at Westwood near Mancelona on the Grand Rapids & Indiana road, since 1 p. m. Monday, was shoveled out this morning. Trains are now moving on the Mackinac division of that road. Drifts are very bad near Alba and trains are still being run double-headed and are not yet attempting to make schedule time.

WILL INVADE THE STRIP.
Boomers Expect to Move into the Cherokee Strip Monday.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan., March 1.—A reporter made a tour along the line of the Cherokee Strip today and found hundreds of home seekers in camp ready for the proposed invasion on the 6th instant. A mile east of Chillicothe and six miles south of this city a company of cavalry has gone into camp but they are regarded as friends by the boomers. The executive committee of the Cherokee Strip association is holding a meeting tonight to perfect arrangements for Monday's invasion.

THEY WANT LOWER TARIFF.
Manitoba Farmers Demand Enlargement of the Free List.

OTTAWA, March 1.—The tariff reform movement is spreading in Manitoba and the northwest. Petitions signed by Manitoba farmers are daily presented to parliament demanding that the duty on American agricultural machinery be reduced. They also ask that binder twine, coal oil, lumber and barbed wire be placed in the free list.

SETTLED HATCH'S HASH.

House Decisively Refuses to Consider His Pet, the Anti-Option Bill.

ISSUE IS SQUARELY MADE AND HATCH IS BEATEN

This Lency Will Have Less Strength in the Incoming House and Is Feebly Dead.

WHO WILL MOURN FOR HATCH?
WASHINGTON, March 1.—The anti-option bill was defeated in the house today. Immediately after the reading of the journal Mr. Hatch moved to suspend the rules and concur in the senate amendments to the anti-option bill. Against this motion a point of order was made but was overruled. A second was then demanded on Hatch's motion. The opponents of the anti-option bill entered upon a filibustering campaign and the business of the house came to a standstill.

Finally the filibustering tactics were overcome. The anti-option bill was then considered by the house. Mr. Hatch's motion to suspend the rules having been seconded by a vote of 163 to 7. At length the house came to a vote. The vote resulted: Yeas, 172; nays, 134, not the necessary two-thirds in the affirmative. This defeats the measure.

NO SUNDAY CONCERT.
Outgoing and Incoming Administrations Agree on That.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The secretary of the interior today received the following telegram from the president-elect:

LAKEWOOD, N. J., March 1.—To the Secretary of the Interior: I am strongly opposed to the use of the pension building for a Sunday concert on the 5th inst. and object regarding such a thing as a feature of the inauguration.

GROVER CLEVELAND.
Secretary Noble immediately sent the following reply to Mr. Cleveland:

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Hon. Grover Cleveland and Lakewood, N. J.: Your telegram received. Orders have been issued already forbidding the use of the building on Sunday and I am gratified that this action is accordance with your wishes.

JOHN W. NOBLE, secretary.
President Harrison held his last public reception at the White House this afternoon. It is estimated that 1,500 people paid their respects to the president and that half that number failed to get into the East Room before the reception ended.

LEAVES LAKEWOOD TODAY.
Mr. Cleveland Will Start for Washington About Noon.

LAKEWOOD, N. J., March 1.—Mr. Cleveland had no callers of importance today. His last day in Lakewood was passed in packing up his private papers, correspondence and personal belongings. Everything was put in readiness today for tomorrow's departure. The Cleveland family will leave the cottage at 11:30 a. m. and the special train is expected at 11:45. The start from here will be made by 12:30.

GIRLS GOT OUT LIVELY.
Buffalo Print Shop Employees Flee in Great Haste.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 1.—The Agency building, one of the largest office blocks in the city, was today damaged by fire to the amount of $75,000. The upper story of the building was occupied by Paron's job printing office and the girls employed there had a narrow escape. In sixty seconds after the fire broke out the building was a mass of flames and the employees had to run for their lives. One girl's dress was burned as she ran down the stairs.

RELIEF COMMITTEE DISSOLVED.
Only Sundry Indictments for Murder Remain at Homestead.

PITTSBURGH, March 1.—The Homestead relief committee has ceased to exist. At a meeting of that body last night it was decided that there was no further necessity for the exercise of its functions, as there are at present no more than five or six families who stand in need of assistance, and today the committee was formally dissolved.

Where Is the Maroon?
NEW YORK, March 1.—Considerable uneasiness is felt for the safety of the new twin screw steamship Maroon of the White Star line which left Liverpool Feb. 11 and has not been heard from since. It is feared she has met with an accident. The only passengers on board are eighteen cattlemen.

Served the Beast Right.
BALTIMORE, March 1.—John Hudson of Hampstead was too familiar with young girls. Monday night masked men took him out of bed and carried him to the outskirts of the village where he was stripped and painted from feet to neck. Then he was rolled in the snow and marched home.

Kicking Against Edwards.
NEW YORK, March 1.—Typographical union No. 6 has appointed a committee to visit President Cleveland and protest against the appointment of C. E. Edwards of Wilmington, Del., as public printer. Edwards, they say, is an old and bitter opponent of organized labor.

Wagon Makers on Strike.
CHICAGO, March 1.—About five hundred union wagon and carriage makers, employed chiefly by the Kimball and Studebaker companies, struck today. They wanted a nine instead of a ten hour day and an increase of pay on piece work.

MR. WAGNER EXPLAINS.

THE MINING JOURNAL is in receipt of a lengthy letter from Representative George Wagner of this district, explaining his attitude toward the suggested division of Marquette county, also his relation to the skeleton bill providing for the creation of a new county, to be named Rich, in this state, and giving the facts bearing on the introduction of that bill and how it came to be introduced by another member at his (Mr. Wagner's) request.

Mr. Wagner states that four years ago he introduced a bill providing for the creation of a new county, to be named McMillan, from territory belonging to Houghton and Ontonagon counties. "While at Ewen last winter," Mr. Wagner states, "I was requested by some of my friends there to re-introduce this bill in case I should be again elected a member of the legislature. As I do not favor the erection of the county proposed I did not want to introduce the bill myself, as we already have too many small counties in the upper peninsula. I gave the bill to another member to be introduced, so that the Ewen people could have it to use if they desired." It appears that, by an arrangement between the two, Representative Jones, of the second district of Marquette county, was to open any of Representative Wagner's mail that appeared to contain matter for submission to the legislature which might reach Lansing during the latter's absence at the Republican state convention. While Mr. Wagner was away the Marquette charter arrived and the package containing it was opened by Mr. Jones, per agreement as stated. But with the charter was a letter from the city attorney embodying a suggestion that it might be well to introduce a bill providing for a division of the county in case an attempt should be made to take unfair advantage of this city in the matter of getting representation on the county board through an in case of the war of the other cities of the county for that purpose. When Mr. Jones learned that Representative Knight, of Saginaw, had introduced a skeleton bill for the creation of the new county of Rich in the state he at once concluded that this bill was to be used for a division of Marquette county, and that he had accidentally got wind of a very cute little game on the part of the Marquette people and their representative in the legislature. He gave the story to the newspapers and wired his people at Ishpeming detailing the nature and import of his "find" and thus started an excitement that has not yet died out.

Mr. Wagner states positively that he did not intend the skeleton bill to be made use of for the purpose of dividing this county; that he does not favor a division of the county, holding that to divide the county would be "detrimental to the interests of its people," and that to introduce such a measure "would be ridiculous at this time." He emphatically disclaims the purpose attributed to him in connection with the introduction of the skeleton bill mentioned, and THE MINING JOURNAL gives full credence to his statements and explanations regarding the whole business.

THE MINING JOURNAL has already given its views relative to the suggested division of the county, and as Mr. Wagner has set himself right in relation to the project that he was mistakenly saddled with responsibility for through the misconception placed by Representative Jones on his agency in having a skeleton bill opening the way for the creation of a new county in the state introduced, it is to be hoped that the impression which temporarily obtained in the minds of the citizens of Ishpeming and Negaunee will be removed, and that with its effacement the feeling created by the belief that an underhand effort to take them by surprise had been made by the people of Marquette and Mr. Wagner will disappear.

GENERAL BRAGG of Wisconsin does not deny that he has an eye on the Mexican mission and THE MINING JOURNAL hopes that if he wants it he will get it. There is more money in the position than in the senatorship that Mitchell got away from him, but not so much renown as Bragg could have knocked out of the legislative place. But Bragg never cared much for money, though he probably wished he had a "bar" or two at command at a certain stage of the recent senatorial contest at Madison.

WHETHER Carter Harrison will be chosen mayor of Chicago in the coming municipal election in that city or not, he has demonstrated that he has a tremendous "pull" on the Democratic party there. He was nominated by a most decisive majority Wednesday against Washington Hising, the man who claims the distinction of having swung Illinois for Cleveland last fall. In the election that resulted in the elevation of Washb. to the majority Carter ran as a stump Democratic candidate after he had been beaten in the nominating convention and showed surprising strength, getting about the same vote as the regular nominee of the party, though the entire power of the Democratic organization in the state was exerted to hold the Democratic voters in line. His bolt at that time does not seem to have hurt him with the body of the Democratic party in Chicago, for he obtained the nomination this time without much difficulty, though Hising rattled around at a great rate in the preliminary canvass. It has been an abiding ambition with Carter H. to be mayor of Chicago while the World's Fair is in progress, and he is likely to have his way about it.

The report of Director of the Mint Leech for the calendar year 1892 showing the production of the precious metals in the United States for that year, gives the value of the gold and silver produced as follows: The value of the gold product from the mines of the United States was, approximately, $33,000,000, about corresponding to the average product of recent years. The product of silver from our own mines is placed at $8,000,000 ounces, of the commercial value, at the average price of silver during the year, of $50,750,000, and of the coinage value in silver dollars of $74,989,900. This is a falling off of 330,000 ounces from the product of the preceding year. The amount of silver purchased by the government during the year under the act of July 14, 1890, was 54,129,725 fine ounces, costing $37,394,291, an average of 87½ cents per fine ounce. From this silver 6,444,245 silver dollars were coined during the year.

IT HAS been known for some time that the switchmen employed on all the railroads centering at Chicago have been getting ready to go on a strike if demands that they intend making on the roads are not granted, and it is now given out that the roads are preparing for the trouble apprehended from this source by engaging non-union men in all the large cities with a view to having a force in readiness to take hold when the union switchmen abandon their work. If the struggle comes it is going to be an ugly one, for the men feel that they have an advantage in the certainty that the opening of the World's Fair, now near at hand, will overwhelm the roads with work, while the roads, on the other hand, are powerful and well able to stand a fight. The strike is believed to be near at hand, or the roads would not be making definite dispositions to meet it.

THE story is now going the rounds that Andrew Carnegie has become a free trader. It is probably told as a joke, but if it should prove true there would be nothing surprising in it. Mr. Carnegie is so rich that he can afford to do anything he pleases, and it is only those who need to have the country prosperous in order that they may share in its prosperity who are strong advocates of protection. The free traders are welcome to Mr. Carnegie if they have got him. He would mate well with the eminent college professors who preach the doctrine that he is alleged to have embraced and who are presumed to know all about economics because they are wholly unfamiliar with practical business methods.

A VERY LARGE share of the legislative session will be taken up with the consideration of municipal charters. This is the case with every legislature of late years. The remedy is simple and easy and we do not see why it is not applied. It is to adopt a general law under which all municipalities must incorporate and put an end to granting each a special charter that it never gets fixed to its satisfaction and is consequently forever amending.

I feel it my duty to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without a dictation. I have used it more or less half a year and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since I was a little boy and I never hoped for cure, but Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrom, 45 Warren avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Indigestion, Dizziness. Take BEECHAM'S PILLS.

People troubled with sick and nervous headaches will find a most efficacious remedy in Ayer's Cathartic pills. They strengthen the stomach, stimulate the liver, restore healthy action to the digestive organs, and thus afford speedy and permanent relief.

RHEUMATISM QUICKLY CURED. Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right today, and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by H. H. Stafford, Son & Co. Druggists.

An obedience to the simple laws of hygiene and the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla will enable the most delicate man or sickly woman to pass in ease and safety from the icy atmosphere of February to the warm, moist days of April. It is the best of spring medicines.

MANAGING ENGLISH FARMS. The Benefits of an Intelligent and Capable Land Owner in England.

Mr. W. J. Harris gives a most helpful and interesting account of the Halwill Manor estate. This was poor land and much of it was untouched for long periods, being treated as a summer run for cattle.

Land not valued at more than five shillings per acre in its rough state became, when meadow land, worth from thirty to fifty shillings, and as the cottages were in demand the population increased, and farmers knowing that labor could always be obtained took the large farms, reduced though they were.

One secret of the small farmer's success is that one man works on his farm for no wages at all, and that is the farmer himself. The small farmers help each other, and they seldom let a crop stand too late or get behindhand, as is the fashion with some misguided men, who underman their large farms and depend on outside labor for chronic emergencies.

Old Time "Reviewing." The first age of the great modern reviews and magazines was an age of kicks and rough horseplay. Party spirit ran high under the reign of literary criticism, so far from being the "disinterested" affair which Matthew Arnold demands, was avowedly run upon political lines.

Why a Man Loses Faith. Ex-Judge Henry E. Howland is credited with the following: It is the gross and palpable subtleties, deceptions and evasions that are abhorrent to our natures in dealing with the outside world, like that in a prohibition town in Maine, where a lank and red nosed countryman called into a drug store and placed a demijohn on the counter, said to the clerk, "I want a gallon of rum, baby's sick," or the cautious sparring for an advantage suggested by the answer of the rector of a country parish who was revising his sermon one Sunday morning and was waited upon in his study by his organist, who asked what he should play. "I don't know," said the rector, absentmindedly; "what kind of a hand have you got?"—New York World.

A Cure for Snake Bites. Another treatment for snake bite is added to the long list of remedies that have come from many countries. It is said that the natives of Australia have comparatively little fear of snake bites. They keep always at hand a piece of string made of human hair. The string is tied tightly three or four inches above the bite, a small circle an eighth of an inch deep is cut around the two fang punctures with a knife, and the largest vein below the bite is slit to allow the blood to run out. The last stage of this heroic treatment is the turning on of a stream of water to the affected part and the rubbing down steadily of the limb for about twenty minutes.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

The Number Three in Daily Life. In the nursery rhymes and tales of childhood who cannot remember the "Three Wise Men of Gotham" who took a sea voyage in a bowl, not to mention the luckless trio of blind mice whose tails were cut off by the farmer's wife? Example of this sort might be multiplied indefinitely, but coming down to everyday life, one mode also required by the rule of these, while the sick patient would be guilty of treason to his doctor if he refused to take his medicine three times a day.—New York News.

Success of Electric Plants. The question, "Is light or darkness conducive to the growth of an electric plant?" was recently discussed by a debating society in a western college. Some stated that light was, because if no lamps were lit there would be no profits, while others said that darkness was, because if there was no darkness there would be no need of lights. The debate finally terminated in a draw.—New York Press.

WHY DO YOU SHUDDER? One of the Strange Things That Happens to Every Man and Women.

Few People Understand It—Fewer Realize What a Serious Thing it May Become—All Are Interested in What Follows.

What is a chill? A cold wind blows and strikes your throat and you feel chilly, or strikes your neck and runs down your spinal cord. You shiver; a cold thrill goes over your entire system; you go on about your duties and perhaps think nothing about it.

Let me tell you what it means. You have had a chill—you have taken cold, and it has gone to your kidneys. If you were sneezing or blowing your nose, you would know you had taken cold in your head. If your throat were sore, you would know at once what that meant.

What should you do? What should any sensible man or woman do? Take prompt measures to check the effects of the chill and get into sorts, into perfect health again. How? There is but one way. Use the only remedy, the only discovery which was ever known for these troubles, which is Warner's Safe Cure. You know very well, if you stop to think, that the highest medical and scientific authorities have unqualifiedly stated this, that while chills may come, will come, can be at once overcome if a prompt resort is had to this great, this grand Safe Cure.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. CURE SICK HEADACHE. Each Headache and relieve all the troubles incident to a bilious state of the system, such as Dizziness, Nausea, nervousness, Distress after eating, Pain in the Side, etc. While their most remarkable success has been shown in curing Headache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pills are equally valuable in the course of a recent interview: "About eight years ago my illness began, being peritonitis, and general kidney troubles; in spite of the attendance of skilled physicians, my ailments increased; upon advice of some friends I began to use Warner's Safe Cure, and was cured entirely. I feel as well today as in early childhood, and it is entirely due to this great remedy. Many of my old friends, to whom I have recommended the Safe Cure have been cured by its use, and their lives thus prolonged and their happiness assured." Such testimony is beyond question. If you feel a chill or any of those signs of sickness, act at once, delays are dangerous, life and health will not permit of trifling.

BOND PLAN IS DROPPED.

Senate Recedes From the Sherman Amendment to the Sundry Civil Bill.

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY CAN ISSUE BONDS.

But House Foolishness Forces Them to Hear Higher Rate of Interest Than Is Needed.

AND GOLD KEEPS ON GOING.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The post-office appropriation bill came before the senate today and was discussed to some extent. The senate had before it in the morning hour the McGarran bill, which went over without action, and the Hudson river bridge bill, which was taken up by a vote of 26 to 24, but disappeared immediately when the conference report on the sundry civil bill was taken up, a result which rankled in the mind of Mr. Hill and led that senator to upbraid Mr. Allison for his share in the legislative struggle.

After routine business the senate went into executive session. The doors were re-opened in about half an hour and legislative business was proceeded with.

The postoffice appropriation bill was reported and placed on the calendar. A conference was ordered on the naval appropriation bill and Messrs. Hill, Allison and Gorman were appointed conferees. On the part of the senate Mr. Teller announced consent to take up for consideration the McGarran bill and it was discussed until the expiration of the morning when the bill lost its right of way.

During the argument Senator Morrill mentioned Senator Wilson of Iowa, among others, as having an interest in the claim.

Mr. Wilson indignantly denied the suggestion that he had now or had ever had any interest, directly or indirectly, in the McGarran claim. Any one, he said, who asserted that he had such interest uttered a positive and unqualified falsehood of the worst character.

The discussion was again interrupted in order to have the conference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill acted upon. Mr. Allison asked unanimous consent to present the report and objection was made by Mr. Hiscock, his object being to have the report taken up on motion, which would have displayed the Hudson river bridge bill. The occupant of the chair however, (Mr. Harris) interposed with the remark that a conference report was pre-ferred and required no motion. The report was then read. Mr. Allison asked unanimous consent that the senate proceed to its consideration. This gave Mr. Hiscock another opportunity of objecting and he availed himself of it. This forced Mr. Allison to move that the report be now considered. The motion was agreed to and this had the effect of depriving the bridge bill of its right of way.

BOND AMENDMENT DROPPED. Mr. Allison made an explanation of the report and stated that in relation to the Sherman bond amendment he would—in order to test the sense of the senate upon it—move to recede from it.

Mr. Sherman explained and advocated the amendment. It had been, he said, submitted to the incoming secretary of the treasury who had gone before the finance committee and had there stated the reasons why in his judgment it might become important for him to have the power to issue bonds cheaper than 4 per cent. Mr. Carlisle had expressed a hope and belief in which Mr. Sherman was inclined to concur that it might not be necessary to issue any bonds. Mr. Sherman disagreed in order to pay a compliment to Mr. Carlisle, saying that he knew no man in the United States better fitted to hold the office of secretary of the treasury. He went on to say that when he offered the amendment he had no expectation that there would be any opposition to it. The pretension that it repealed any other provision of the assumption law was absolutely unfounded. If congress now denied to the secretary the power to sell bonds it would cripple the government and those whose fault it was would be responsible to the people. There was now in the vaults of the treasury a great mass of silver bullion. If it were coined it would undoubtedly disturb the financial world and bring about a panic. He had heard a good deal about bankers and plutocrats. "Gold bugs," said he—"there are no greater gold bugs in the world than owners of silver mines. In proof of that he read from a Nevada paper a notice of an assessment of twenty-five cents per share "payable immediately in United States gold coin."

Mr. Sherman's speech was replied to by Messrs. Stewart, Wolcott and Teller. Mr. Teller expressed his belief that no bonds, whether 4 per cent. or 3 per cent., would be issued by the incoming secretary of the treasury. Mr. Gorman stated that he had full authority for saying that the bond amendment had been reported after consultation with the president and with the next secretary of the treasury. But it was possible that the sundry civil appropriation bill would be defeated if the amendment were insisted upon.

Mr. Sherman—It certainly would not insist upon any amendment—however strongly I favored it—which the other house resolutely opposed or which—if insisted on—would result in defeating an appropriation bill.

The vote was taken and the senate without division receded from the Sherman amendment. The conference report was agreed to and a further conference was ordered on several amendments which had not been finally disposed of.

The business of the senate was suspended and after paying fitting tribute to the memory of Senator Gibson of Louisiana the conference report on the District of Columbia appropriation was agreed to. The war claim for the relief of William and Mary College was passed—yeas, 100; nays, 39—and the senate adjourned.

CRUEL FRIENDS.

How a Dear and Loving Woman Tried a Mother's Patience.

In no respect are the friends outside the sanctuary of home crueler than in acting upon the conviction that what Mrs. Stowe defines as "terms of undress intimacy" with us justifies them in parceling out our time to suit their convenience and pleasure. Women are most unscrupulous in this species of torture. Men have been slaves to business for so many centuries that the masculine guest or neighbor, albeit a favorite crony, has a glimmering appreciation of the fact that his associates must have time in which to earn a living. The cruellest of friends is the woman who does nothing in particular and at no particular time and is so fond of you, who have a specific occupation and set hours for carrying it on, that she cannot be happy away from you and finds the day savored which has not been salted by a comfortable talk between you and herself.

A very friend of affectionate barbarity was a rich and idle woman who chose as her bosom friend the busy wife of a city clergyman and the mother of five children. Of these children she was also the governess until the boys were ready for the college preparatory school and sent her three girls from the family schoolroom to Smith and Vassar. She judged rightly that she would lay the foundation rudiments of thorough scholarship more conscientiously than hired instructors and enjoyed the noble task.

Her husband's parishioners were cognizant of her expressed desire that that part of the day lying between 9 and 10 o'clock should be devoted to her pupils, and to the credit of those who did not aspire to the honor of such intimacy at the rectory as might warrant reversal of household arrangements, it may be stated that her eccentricity in this regard was generally respected.

The wealthiest vestryman's wife, by virtue of her peculiar attachment to the industrious housemother, spurned regulations not of her own making and declared her independence by word and deed. The rector's wife loved her for her many excellent qualities and valued her answering esteem. I think, nevertheless, that Mephistopheles would have been a more welcome apparition than the smiling visage that presented itself twice or thrice each week at the study door with the coaxing apology.

"I know you can't bear morning calls, but I was actually finishing for a glimpse of you. I'll just sit over here in the corner with my fancy work and never slip a syllable—just feast my eyes and ears. The children don't mind the presence of mamma's dearest friend."

The children did mind, and mamma more than they, an intruder who distracted eyes and thoughts and embarrassed recitations none the less for the frequency of the visitation. A gravel stone in the shoe is one of the minor ills of the daily walk to which the flesh is slow to become reconciled. A common acquaintance could have been denied at the outer entrance, or had she reached the parlor could have been bowed out into the drawing room. An uncommon friend grappled with the sufferer at a fatally short distance.—Marion Harland in Harper's Bazar.

Prior as a Diplomat. Prior had several qualifications for diplomatic work. Though he must sometimes have been hampered by his humble origin, he never failed to maintain the dignity of his official position. His special knowledge of commerce, his readiness, his humor, his fluency in French, his familiarity with Horace (a useful accomplishment in the Augustan age) and even "ce visage de bois," as Bolingbroke called it, must often have been of service to him. But Prior's life was not all honor and glory. His letters during that period show that he was uneasy about the prospects of his party and felt his own position to be insecure.

One Form of City Charity. A grocer complains bitterly because wealthy patrons of his establishment send tramps and paupers there with notes saying, "Mr. B.—, give this man a pound of crackers and a box of sardines," or "the bearer would like four bundles of kindling and a pound of coffee." The applicants get the stuff because the grocer wants to retain the custom of those who send them and who have not the slightest intention of paying for goods thus given away. "It's pretty cheap charity for those rich people to engage in," says he, "but my experience is that it hurts a rich man worse to give up a dollar than it does a poor man."—New York Sun.

Waiting to Be Called. The solicitor of a mountain district of North Carolina a few years back was J. M. Gudger. On one occasion five colored men of unusual blackness of tint were on trial. When the case was called, the judge, noticing the group, inquired, "What have you now, Mr. Solicitor?" Instantly came the reply, "A flush of spades, your honor."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Too Many Entertainments. Little Daughter—Say, mamma, won't you take me to Cousin Jane's funeral? Mamma—No, pettie. You went to the matinee yesterday and a party last night. You mustn't have too many entertainments at a time. You don't want to give yourself up entirely to mirth and frivolity.—Texas Giftings.

DITCHED BY BROKEN RAIL.

Iron Mountain Train Wrecked Near Hope, Ark., and Many Passengers Hurt.

NONE KILLED OUTRIGHT BUT SEVERAL MAY DIE.

Rear End Collision Kills a Little Child and Injures Half a Dozen Other Passengers.

CARS CRUSHED AND BURNED.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 1.—Train No. 32 on the Iron Mountain railroad, in charge of Conductor Whitesides and Engineer Eggleston, was wrecked by a broken rail just before entering the Hope station, 110 miles from here. The chair car, two coaches and a sleeper were set on fire by a overturned heater and destroyed. The baggage and mail cars were partially destroyed but their contents were saved, as well as the fittings of the Pullman. The wreck knocked down a telegraph pole and the fire destroyed the wires, stopping communication. Three physicians were taken to Hope from Texarkana. The list of injured has not been received. The train was making its regular speed and the break in the rail did not make itself apparent until after the engine had passed over it. Traffic was delayed five hours. The casualties in today's wreck near Hope are more serious than at first reported. Fortunately, however, not one of the passengers was killed, although several may die of their injuries. The following is a list of those seriously hurt:

J. W. CREEK, Little Rock, land agent of the Iron Mountain railroad, right arm fractured. MISSIE MARCUS, Louisville, severely cut arm and bruises about body. MISS F. MOORE, Chicago, painful cut on right arm. W. J. FOSTER, Battle Creek, Mich., side and back badly hurt. Mrs. E. J. ZACHARY, Van Poer, Ark., with four children, all more or less injured. The mother is thought to be seriously hurt. Mrs. C. C. THOMAS, Wynn, Ark., and two children, seriously hurt. Mrs. NEFF, Louisville, internal injuries that will prove fatal. J. L. TULLIS, editor of the Hope (Ark.) Gazette, received perhaps the most serious injuries of any of the unfortunate. While endeavoring to save a child from being killed he was thrown violently against a car seat, injuring his spinal column. He also received other injuries in the breast and on the shoulder. The passengers in the colored coach—ten or fifteen in number—were more or less injured and one old colored woman, it is thought, will die. The injured were removed to hotels and comfortably cared for.

KILLED A LITTLE CHILD.

Several Hurt and Baby Killed in a Train Wreck.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 1.—The midnight train from New York on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad collided with the Stonington boat train this morning at Norwood at 5:25 o'clock, killing one child and injuring half a dozen passengers. The dead child is the nine-months-old son of Andrew Vanich. The injured are: R. H. STANLEY, 62 Orchard street, New York; hand crushed. MISS HATTIE JENKINS, Everett, Mass.; injured internally. E. J. JOLEY, 28 Prince street, New York; cut and bruised about the head. B. MYERS, Providence; injured internally. ANDREW VANICH and wife; cut about the face and legs.

The boat train was stopped on the Pawtucket bridge for repairs and a brakeman was sent back to flag the New York train, but too late to avert a collision. The New York mail dished up and the engine crashed into the rear end of the boat train, smashing the carriages into kindling wood. The engine of the latter was wrecked and the combination car next to it was badly broken up. The fireman and engineer of the New York train remained at their posts until the wreck was cleared, the train blocked for a couple of hours. The injured were cared for by citizens of Norwood.

Two Faded Portraits.

Lovers of the mysterious will be interested in this authentic story. Two years ago the portraits of President Harrison, Mrs. Harrison and Dr. Scott were reproduced in a group on glass. Several copies were made. Each portrait was colored and touched up by the artist who took the group. One of these pictures was given to a near relative of the president, who lives in Baltimore. The portraits were all good likenesses, and prized them very highly. Here is where the mysterious part comes in. About three months before Mrs. Harrison's death the colors in her picture on the glass commenced to fade. When she died, only the head was visible, and that faintly. Then the same phenomenon was observed in Dr. Scott's portrait. It began to grow dimmer and dimmer until only the head remained. Dr. Scott died within a few weeks of his daughter. The curious part of the matter is that President Harrison's portrait stands out as clear and strong as it did on the day it was finished. The same colors were used on all these portraits, and there is no apparent reason why one should not last as long as the other.—New York Press.

Waiting For the Inevitable.

It was awfully funny until the quiet gaze of his chief rested upon him, then under that serene surveillance the humor seemed to vanish in an unaccountable way. However, as he had begun with the entertainment, he was resolved to carry it through. "So you are a staunch Democrat, are you?" remarked his chief. "From way back, sir," replied the clerk. "And have a heart filled with rejoicing, eh?" "Very well, you're too good a Democrat to labor under the degrading rule of a Republican administration," returned the chief. "I think that party is still in power. I'll call it attention to your case and see what can be done to relieve you from so vile a servitude."

There was some more fun for those who had witnessed the parade and listened to the speech of the chief, but there was none for the Democrat, who now exists in daily expectation of receiving notice that the government will be pleased to hear of his resignation.—Kate Field's Washington.

Why Mr. Depew Rides Home.

Until this winter Chauncey M. Depew has made it a practice to walk home from the numerous dinners he is called on to attend. He always found it, he said, an aid to digestion and a famous inducer to sound sleep to walk home in the quiet night after a public banquet and the attendant excitement. "But this winter," said he, "so many men began to step up to me in the street that I grew a little nervous. They all knew my name. Now, it is a bit startling when a man is walking through a quiet street at dead of night to have a man whom he has not noticed approach suddenly appear in front of him and wake him out of his reverie by a brisk 'good evening' or a request for one night's lodging. I haven't had any one make a more serious demand than for a night's lodging, but I began to think that a more unpleasant demand might be made some time, and the result was that I abandoned my late walks, and now I always ride home."—New York Times.

Awakened Conscience.

The following letter is published in a recent issue of the Kansas City Times: "Eleven years ago for my want column I stole Times from your office. I considered my theft no sin. Through an advertisement I obtained work. Thereafter I enjoyed an ever increasing prosperity. I married. Many times, while seated in my pretty parlor of an evening, his wife impromptu me to read the Times paper that was the cause of our good fortune. To me—a business man—the idea has seemed feminine and senseless. Since she attended the Coates House short skirt convention my wife's requests have ceased. She now commands. Today I reluctantly send thanks to The Times conscience fund. SURETY UOXUIS.

SHE WAS SURPRISED.

So Will You Be When You Read It.

It Certainly Has Been a Source of Wonder and Comment.

But the Lady Is Ready to Substantiate Everything.

CHARLESTOWN, MASS. There has been in this place much wonder and comment of late in regard to a certain lady—a Mrs. Agnes S. Morton, who resides at 188 Main street, Charlestown, Mass. She was seen at her home and explained the whole interesting matter as follows:

"I do not know how to express myself to you and the public at large about this matter," she said, "but I feel it my bounden duty to say something. "Everybody knows that I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia for twenty-five years and that I tried most everything and different doctors, but all were failures. I became so weak that I was unable to walk steadily, had no appetite and what I did eat was the most simple kind of food; but my stomach was unable to retain even that. "I could not sleep at night, had no ambition for anything, and was a total wreck. I knew I would have to do something as I could not stand it many weeks longer. Why, I could not go up stairs without sitting down, and my heart would beat and I would be all of a tremble. I got a bottle of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and had taken scarcely one-half of it when I began to have an appetite, and when I finished the remainder the trembling had left me, the palpitation was better and I could sleep nights. I took four bottles and then left off to see if the great benefit I had received was permanent for everything I had taken before had proved only temporary.

MRS. AGNES S. MORTON.

"But I found that it was not so in this case. I have not taken it now for some time and its results are just as good and permanent. "I must tell you I am like a new person. I have an excellent appetite, can eat anything and everything, and I feel buoyant and ambitious. "I cannot express half I want to, and all this is perfectly true, as all my friends and acquaintances are knowing to all the fact. "I never expected to be cured as my case had been of so long standing. I hoped for nothing more than relief for a while; but I am cured, perfectly cured. Yes, I do not hesitate to say that through the blessing of God and Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy I am completely cured. "Such is the lady's remarkable story, and we doubt if such wonderful cures have ever before been made as are effected by this truly valuable discovery, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. "It is a fact that everybody needs a spring medicine, something to tone up and strengthen the nerves, invigorate the blood and start up a healthy action of the organs; and no medicine in the world so perfectly and completely does this as Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is the ideal spring invigorant and restorative. "All can secure its great benefits as it is for sale by druggists for $1. It is, too, a purely vegetable and harmless medicine, the prescription in fact of the well known, successful specialist, in nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th street, New York, who can be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter.

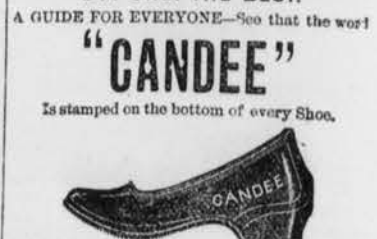

EXCURSION TO WASHINGTON.

A change has been made in the official route from the upper peninsula to Washington for the inauguration of Cleveland and Stevenson. Rates for excursion tickets to Washington and return will remain as already announced, viz.: From Sault Ste. Marie, $25.40; Newberry, $24.75; Marquette, $28.55; Negaunee, $29.10; Ishpeming, $29.20; Republic, $30.05; Champion, $29.85; L'Anse-au-Loup, $30.05; Soudan, $31.35; North Bessemer, $34.30, and proportionate low rates from all other stations. Excursionists leaving on the Lake Superior Limited, Tuesday, Feb. 28, will connect with a special train of Pullman palace sleeping cars leaving Detroit over the Grand Trunk railway at 9 p. m. REPORTORIAL PENOLLINGS

March did not come in so very much like a lion after all.

Sheriff Louie returned to Newberry yesterday after leaving a ninety day man at the prison here.

Regular examination of teachers by the county board of school examiners at the court house today and tomorrow.

Upper peninsula steam and street railroad men alike would be glad to see it rain hot water for a few hours just now.

Sheriff Catlin of Dickinson county arrived in the city last evening with John Collins, a ninety day prisoner for Marquette prison.

A bouncing boy made his appearance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dougherty on Mat St. street yesterday; mother and son are doing well.

Marquette architects are beginning to receive numerous orders for the coming building season. A number of handsome houses are already on the boards.

Spencer delivered yesterday to the fire department an elegant harness for the new horse house team. It is splendidly made throughout and tickled the drivers all over.

The Times' reference to Canon Karl E. G. Oppen as "Coroner E. G. Oppen" is probably excusable from the fact that its thought-naturally run largely in the direction of coroners and sheriffs. "A burnt child dreads the fire."

No more beautiful winter night could be imagined than last night. It was still and calm, not a cloud in the sky and a full moon shining upon the pure whiteness of the snow and the ice covered lake made the scene one of dazzling splendor.

Two bright lights were seen last evening about a mile out on the ice off the foot of Hewitt avenue. The sight attracted considerable attention and led to much speculation regarding the illumination. One of the lights was much brighter than the other and finally both seemed to move off gradually towards the north and disappear entirely.

In rehabilitating THE MINING JOURNAL'S article upon the Lake Superior academy the subsequent organ referred to Canon Oppen as "Coroner Oppen." Had it been acquainted with the gentleman in question it would have known better than to associate him with dead centers, crises of any nature. He isn't built that way, as all his friends can testify.

Hughes opens his school for dancing next Friday evening in Fraternity Hall. All who wish to join the class should be at the hall at 7:30 as dancing will begin at 9 sharp. Mr. Hughes has proven a competent and conscientious teacher and should have a large class. The ideal orchestra (including Mr. Hancock) will play for the "assemblies," which will be purely informal.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Louis Danto of Ew-n is in the city.

H. A. Howe of Houghton is a Marquette visitor.

Miss Edith Rowland of Republic is visiting the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Cameron came down Even last evening.

J. Rothschild returned yesterday from a spring purchasing trip.

F. McM. Stanton of the Atlantic mine, and Miss Stanton of New York, are in the city.

R. M. Gardner of the Iron Trade Review, Cleveland, is in the city and will be a caller at THE MINING JOURNAL office last evening.

J. M. Carr of Shingleton was in the city yesterday on his way home from a trip to the pine country of Minnesota up above Ely.

Mr. Regnier of Regnier & Gauthier returned yesterday from his first spring purchasing trip, forming the acquaintance of the snow blockade on the M. & N. on the way up.

General Manager Fitch, accompanied by Mrs. Fitch, arrived home in his private car yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, drawn by a freight engine. They left Milwaukee Monday evening and spent twenty-four hours in a snow bank on the M. & N. near Channing.

Max Endiceman, who went to Alaska with Governor Swineford from Islemping, arrived in the city last evening this being his first visit since he became a citizen of that far-away territory. He is now on his way back to Alaska from a trip to Washington and states that Cleveland will again appoint Mr. Swineford as governor.

It Has Ticked Off Nearly Two Centuries.

Mrs. Catharine Oylor of Kokomo recently came into possession of an old fashioned wooden clock of ancestral times that has been passing from generation to generation for nearly 200 years. It was bequeathed to Mrs. Oylor by her father, John Woodring of Preble county, O., who died a short time ago, aged 93. The clock is of English manufacture, of the style known as the "small sweep," made by Reed & Ward in the year 1711. The case is of English black walnut, and all parts of the running gear are constructed of wood. It is 7 feet tall and weighs 115 pounds. It has been ticking away for 182 years without a stop and has never been repaired. The wooden wheels show little or no wear, and it is apparently good for another century or more, ticking away as merrily, truthfully and tunefully as it did in England nearly two centuries ago.—Cor. Indianapolis Journal.

Looking For Money.

The following queer letter, it is said, was received by the treasurer of the World's fair several days ago from a man who lives in a small town in Pennsylvania: "I saw and advertisement in the practice farmer money for sal send me particals if chep anuff i want 500 hundrd dollars what is the lest 200 hundrd dollars cost of the 50 cent pees i would like to have 500 hundrd dollars of green goods if you no of eny compny that handles give them my nam an adres i want to get in to som thin thats some monyin."

Telegraphers to Contest.

The New York telegraphers will have a contest on March 11, which is expected to prove the most satisfactory and decisive tournament of the kind which has ever taken place on this continent. The decisive test will probably develop the extreme capacity of an absolutely "clean" conductor on wire manipulated by the fastest senders and most expert receivers in the United States and Canada.

A Popular Contribution.

A New York clergyman told his congregation the other Sunday that all those who put $5 in the contribution box would get $50 back in their business within a year, and that if they failed to realize that promise they could draw on him personally for that amount. The box promptly filled with crisp $5 notes, and if the contributors realize the tenfold return it is probably safe to say that this church will not be large enough to hold the congregation next year.—Chicago Tribune.

A Telegraph Along the Nile.

Cecil Rhodes, manager of the British South Africa company, is contemplating the advisability of extending a telegraph line from Cape Town to Alexandria via Uganda, Khartoum and the towns along the Nile. A company has been formed, it is stated, with a capital of $2,000,000 to carry the project into effect.

A Beggars' Ring.

The street beggars in Barcelona have entered into a solemn covenant to withdraw from circulation all the 2-centime pieces which they receive from the charitable public, so as to compel their benefactors to give them the coin next in value—viz., 5 centimes.—Dia.

The Executors of the will of W. J. Gordon, the Cleveland millionaire, have refused to accept the compensation provided for them in that instrument—$5,000 a year—because it is not explicitly specified that they shall each have that amount.

"General" Booth has so far succeeded in raising only some £16,000 of the £65,000 he wants to carry on his "Darkest England" scheme of social regeneration, though he has made remarkable efforts to secure subscriptions.

Whatever may be the outcome of Gardner's reported trip to the land of the gorillas, science must remain indebted to him for his discoveries and the opening up of new fields on the subject of animal language.

A Locomotive Jumps Over a Tree Trunk.

The short which fell on Wednesday night loaded the trees above the line of the Georgia Southern and Florida so heavily that some of them fell, and one dropped across the track. About 3 o'clock in the morning a passenger train came along. The storm was so severe that the engineer could not see ahead, and his engine went over the tree with a bound. The baggage car was broken into splinters, and the coaches behind were scattered through the woods in various directions. The engine ran on for 100 feet after jumping the tree and then struck out in the forest, finally landing against a giant pine.

One coach went off on the other side of the trunk and plowed through the mud for a few rods. The sleeper was the only car which did not leave the rails. Among the passengers in the Pullman was Dan Rountree. He says that he woke up, but thought the jolt was nothing more than the usual bump which the Central gives in coupling at Macon.—Atlanta Constitution.

GENUINE ACTIVITY IN REAL ESTATE.

The liberal propositions and terms of payment offered by the North Galvaston Association to investors, is rapidly bringing purchasers into the field. The numerous amounts—such as street paving and grading, tree planting and sewerage, public buildings, hotels, etc., have rapidly enhanced the value of property. Every new factory of other enterprise means a very healthy increase in valuation. There never was a better time than now to invest, as North Galvaston is a built upon a safe foundation. For full particulars call on or address M. E. Asire, the local agent, or the North Galvaston Association, Box 163, St. Paul, Minn.

CHOLERIA IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Schwelby, Penn.: We had an epidemic of cholera, as our physicians called it, in his place lately and I made a great hit with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I sold four dozen bottles of it in one week and have since sold nearly a gross. This Remedy did the work and was a big advertisement for me. Several persons who had been troubled with diarrhea for two or three years were cured by a few doses of this medicine.

Will guarantee a perfect cure in all cases of weakness or private disease of any kind or character they undertake or forfeit $250. They will therefore say to the unfortunate sufferers who may read this notice that you are treading on dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedies for your complaint. Then for the first time you will realize what negligence means. Our success in such cases can be best understood when we will positively declare that over 100,000 have been treated by us in different parts of the world. Call and get the benefit of our experience.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN. There are many of the age of 30 to 50 who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting sensation and weakening of the system in a manner which the patient cannot account for. On examination it will be found that the urine deposits aropy sediment and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear or the color be of a thin or milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of weakness.

LADIES Finding it inconvenient to call at the office can be treated by mail by sending a full description of their case.

DR. SPEER & CO.

Will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the organs. Examination and advice free to all. Remember the place, 146 West Washington street, Marquette.

P. S.—See our testimonials in the different papers from well-known people. Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today. If you feel alarmed about your lungs take Dr. Speer & Co's, new lung treatment.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

Joseph Larochele has taken a position as clerk in John Mugfur's Main street store.

The street car line will probably be cleared and the cars put in motion again today.

Charles Peterson got home from Chicago, where he has been the past few months, on Tuesday.

Dr. Vandevanter left on Tuesday for Washington, where he will attend the inauguration of President-elect Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Ely left Ishpeming Tuesday afternoon for Rochester, N. Y., where they will reside hereafter.

Joe Marion had an arm fractured Monday night at the Winthrop mine while working around the machinery in the engine house.

The accommodation train on the South Shore road running between Republic and Marquette got stuck in the snow at the rock cut about a mile from Republic yesterday morning, and remained there for several hours until assistance was sent from Ishpeming.

Charles, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parks re-riding on Oak street, cut an ugly gash in his leg just below the knee with an ax while chopping snow off the sidewalk yesterday morning. A surgeon from the Ishpeming hospital was called in and put several stitches in the wound.

Nobody never quite made out Jim: "Peadar" like they alters jest thought him queer. And kinder cranky and laughed at him.

But I knowed better. He's come to me many's the time heartick an sorrow. "I'm tired of the whole outfit," sez he, "They ain't no use ever tryin no more."

Jim was unlucky, no use to talk; folks wondered sometimes at the way he done.

So Jim went a-laughin right down to death, and he let go o' life not keerin a darn.

POLITICS WARMING UP.

Two Tickets for Village Officers Are in the Field at Hancock.

SOME FURTHER DETAILS OF THE POISON FIRE.

Notes of the Great Blizzard Tuesday and Its Effects Along Portage Lake and Vicinity.

All communications for copper country are partitioned intended for publication should be addressed to A. F. Isler, Houghton.

HANCOCK.

The whist club was to have been entertained at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Burnham Tuesday evening but owing to the severe storm the meeting was postponed to Friday night.

The heavy winds of Tuesday blew the smoke stack of the fire engine house and it landed in the road in front of the hall, a distance of fifty feet.

The Mineral Range passenger left Red Jacket yesterday morning with two engines and got as far as Raymbault-town crossing when the front engine left the track. This engine had to be pushed clear off the track in order to let the other get by with the train.

At the village caucus held Tuesday evening the following were nominated for the offices of the village for the ensuing term: President, Jacob Baer; trustees, George Ruppe, A. J. Scott, Michael Finkbe; recorder, M. Finn; treasurer, Edward Perso; attorney, J. T. Finnegran; marshal, Edward Lee; assessors, J. N. Mitchell and Fred Francis.

G. L. Perrenut of Chassell was up before Justice Finn Wednesday on two charges, one of selling beer without a license and another for keeping open on Sunday. He waived examination and was placed under bonds of $100 in each case to appear at the next term of circuit court.

The only train to reach here yesterday was the Hancock & Calumet from Lake Linden. It took three hours to make the trip of ten miles. Brown's theater troupe was on board and are loud in their praises of Engineer Shields and the train crew for getting here at all. The banks of snow are so high that one can step from the tops of them to the tops of the coaches.

During the blizzard Tuesday George Wiedmeyer, the drayman, while on his way from Houghton, picked up a man on the bridge and brought him to town. The fellow had a fair jaw and would undoubtedly have reached here but had an accident that could not possibly have been averted. They have a gang of men at work getting the engine on again.

Each train leaving here carries a load of men with shovels in case they are needed. The officials deserve much credit in getting and keeping their roads open. The Mineral Range passenger would undoubtedly have reached here but had an accident that could not possibly have been averted. They have a gang of men at work getting the engine on again.

J. H. Browne's Theatre company opened a two night's engagement here last night. The street parade was given but under difficulty as their instruments would freeze while the players were taking breath.

The common council met at the office of the recorder Wednesday afternoon. Present: Recorder, Ruhl, Baer, Scott, Hoeking and the recorder. The usual bills were allowed. Adolph Ruhl, Michael Finn and John E. Hoeking were appointed election commissioners. The financial report of the village which was accepted, ordered printed and placed on file. Paying along the chief items. Orders paid during the year: $40,387.42; orders outstanding, $1,702.68; receipts and expenditures for the year, $13,848.79; liabilities, $27,702.68; resources, $5,079.67; balance, $22,633.01.

Houghton.

The three story frame building owned by David Poisson caught fire in the third story about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. How the fire originated is not known. Mr. Poisson, who has been sick quite a while, was taking a nap and did not know anything about the house being on fire until informed by someone running into the house. The fire was first seen by Marshal Foley. The fire company was on the ground five minutes after the alarm was given and soon had four streams going. The building, valued at $6,000, is a total loss. It was insured in the Van Orden Bros' agency for $4,500. One part was occupied by Poisson as a boarding house and the other was used by Pelky as a saloon. The latter lost nearly all while Poisson saved nearly everything. The Hancock fire department came over and helped the Houghton boys. Much praise is due the companies who worked hard in order to confine the flames to this one building. Caspar Brand's building, about fifty feet from the fire, was in great danger as the wind was blowing in that direction. The thermometer registered 10 above zero and as the water fell off the building upon the firemen it froze and those holding nozzles were a mass of ice in a short time.

Tuesday's storm was pronounced the worst here in ten years. All passenger trains on the Mineral Range and Hancock & Calumet railroads were abandoned.

Browne's Theatre company will be at the opera house Friday and Saturday evenings. They have been playing to good houses in Calumet and Lake Linden and the people in those towns speak highly of their entertainments.

The caucus held at the fire engine hall Monday evening to nominate candidates for the People's ticket elected Jay A. Hubbell chairman and W. F.

Miller secretary. The chair appointed a committee of five to bring in names of candidates for offices and they reported as follows: President, E. M. Hoar; trustees, two years, Joseph Croze, Joseph Strobel and John E. Pfeiffer; trustee to fill vacancy, Peter McCarthy; treasurer, August Krellwitz; assessor, Ernest J. Dube. The report was accepted by the caucus.

The noon train on the South Shore road reached here at 4:45 p. m. and THE MINING JOURNAL was eagerly sought after, being the only paper to be had with late news.

The village council meets this afternoon to wind up the year's business and inspect the finance committee's report.

Learned Men Disagree.

That even honest doctors may sometimes disagree is an evident fact, and in literature as in medicine there are two sides to a shield. When Professor E. H. Palmer was teaching oriental languages at Cambridge university, England, he received a note, badly written and incorrectly spelled, asking if he could "read the inclosed document."

The document proved to be a prayer written in Persian, and presented no difficulty whatever to the professor, who sent it back, saying that it was a warrant or ticket for certain goods, setting forth in the name of Allah the quantity, quality and make of the stuff.

A day or two afterward another letter came from the same correspondent. It contained a ten pound note and the words:

DEAR SIR—Horary for old Cambridge! This was what the Oxford chap said it was. "This" proved to be a copy of the Oxford chap's translation.

"This very curious and most interesting document," he wrote, "appears to be a copy of an ancient Persian inscription, probably taken from a tomb or a triumphal column. It is, however, very incomplete. It reads as follows: 'In the name of God. This was erected by [name uncertain] in the year [uncertain]. It is one thousand four hundred and seventy-five—long and seven hundred and thirty broad, and it'—Here the manuscript abruptly ends."—Yonth's Companion.

The Jewels of a Saint.

The idea of sanctity usually carries with it a suggestion of poverty, and it may seem a contradiction to refer to the jewels of a saint. It has been customary for painters who choose for their subjects saints or martyrs to treat them with the utmost simplicity. In a majority of cases they are depicted as devoid of ornament or decoration, and in the few exceptional instances, as when the subject of the picture is a ruler or king, the gems are few and purely symbolic, being sufficient only to denote the rank of the individual portrayed.

Raphael, who was perhaps the greatest painter of religious subjects the world has known, has in most of his works adhered strictly to this rule, but in the head of "St. Cecilia" is to be noticed a departure from it. A row of pearls, which are attached three pendants, ornaments her gown at the neck, and this is her only jewelry. The hair is simply arranged and without a jewel of any kind. The single row of gems, themselves the emblems of chastity, emphasizes the exquisite simplicity of the face.—Jewelers Weekly.

An Unpardonable Offense.

A young woman condemns herself in the eyes of good society who is observed to enter alone with a young man a place for public refreshment, be the restaurant or tearoom ever so select. Bred under other conditions of a society so necessarily varying as that in our broad America, a stranger visiting New York, for instance, might readily and innocently make a mistake of this nature, and blush at finding herself condemned for it. In the same category of offenses is ranked that of maidens visiting places of public amusement under the escort of young men alone.

Many parts of the south and west along this to be done with the smiling consent of good society, but in eastern cities it is considered a violation of the code of good form, and for the comfort, if not the convenience, of the girl considering it, had better be ranked among the lost privileges upon which social evolution may look back with fond regret.—Mrs. Burton Harrison in Ladies' Home Journal.

When the young king of Spain has been a bad boy he is taken to church instead of being allowed to spend the Sunday in seeing a bull fight.

STOOD THE TEST.

Allcock's Porous Plasters are unapproachable in curative properties, rapidity of action, and are the only reliable plasters ever produced. They have successfully stood the test of over thirty years' use by the public; there virtues have never been equalled by the us ranculous imitators who have sought to trade upon the reputation of Allcock's by making plasters with holes in them and claiming them to be "just as good as Allcock's" and they stand today indorsed by not only the highest medical authorities, but by millions of grateful patients who have proved their efficacy as a household remedy.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Allcock's and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

THE POPULAR ROUTE TO CHICAGO.

The Chicago & Northwestern railway is now running a daily line of gas heated buffet sleeping cars between Northern Michigan points and Milwaukee and Chicago. Close connections is made at Negaunee with trains from Marquette, Houghton, Hancock, Calumet, Red Jacket and other points in the copper country, and passengers arrive at Chicago at an early hour in the morning, in ample time to make connections with trains of eastern and southern lines. To secure the advantages of fast time and the best accommodations, purchase your tickets via the Chicago & Northwestern railway.

Read the End of the story first. That's the part that will interest you most. What you want to know and to consider, is the result of washing with Pearlina. And it's all told in two words—it saves. Hard work, wear and tear to things washed (because there isn't any rub, rub, rub) time, money—all saved. You needn't bother with the other chapters in the book—doubt as to Pearlina's ability, fear as to the damage it may do if it does the work, &c. There's nothing in them. Any woman who uses Pearlina can tell you that.

Beware

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearlina." IT'S FALSE—Pearlina is never peddled, if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back.

TRAINS MOVING ON TIME.

The Snow Blockade On the South Shore's Connections Raised Yesterday Afternoon.

THE MARQUETTE RIFLES HOLD A SPECIAL ELECTION.

R. G. Dunn & Co.'s Marquette Branch Opens a Collection Department. Married Last Evening.

THE BLOCKADE RAISED.

The South Shore road cleared its line from one end to the other last night and trains are again moving on time. The west-bound freight on the Mackinac division, No. 21, was stuck at Allenville for some time yesterday afternoon, delaying the eastbound trains, and the Houghton passenger train in backing snow near Summit, where so much trouble has been experienced in the last three days, struck a broken rail and left the track, with little damage being done. This delayed the down train due here at 4:50 about three hours but the night train got down nearly on time and the train from the Sault was only a little over an hour of time.

On the Milwaukee & Northern the blockade was raised early in the afternoon and the copper country roads also succeeded in opening up their lines. The Michigan Central and Grand Rapids & Indiana, which had been compelled to abandon trains about seventy-five miles below Mackinac City, also succeeded in getting through the drifts and the efforts of the storm will by today be entirely overcome.

Telegraphic reports show that the storm was general all over the north-west and that it completely demoralized rail road and street railway traffic. Under the circumstances the record made by Marquette's electric road is nothing less than wonderful and proves that its snow-fighting equipment, though simple, is the very best that can be secured for this region. The road's "Walkaway" plow is invaluable and is the only thing that saved it from a hopeless blockade.

Rifles' Special Election.

The Marquette Rifles held a special election last evening to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Captain B. S. Kaufman upon his being appointed as colonel on the governor's staff. First Lieutenant Franklin E. Bay was unanimously elected as captain on the first ballot and then the company proceeded to ballot for a first lieutenant. The contest was between Second Lieutenant F. F. Werner, Orderly Sergeant E. L. Kellan and Sergeant A. D. Jacobs. Upon the sixth ballot Lieutenant Werner threw his strength to Kellan, giving him the election.

A Collection Department.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Marquette branch has become a recognized success and now has subscribers all over the peninsula. Accordingly it has been decided to establish in connection with it the collection department which is a regular feature of Dun & Co.'s agencies all over the country. Through this department collections will be made anywhere in the upper peninsula or in any part of the United States or Canada, a feature which will prove of great convenience to the business men of the upper peninsula generally. The following notice to the patrons by Mr. L. P. Witzleben, manager of the Marquette agency, gives the particulars of the new department which places the Marquette agency upon an equal footing with the other three agencies in the state, these at Detroit, Grand Rapids and Saginaw:

Wherever credit is given for merchandise sold the collection of debts from tardy debtors is an important feature in every man's business. We therefore beg to call your attention to the advantages we possess over any other method or company for doing your collections with safety, promptness and constant supervision of every claim. Attorneys to whom business is sent are fully investigated before being appointed, and their reports regularly revised. A subscription of $10 per annum to Collection Department entitles the subscriber to a written guarantee for all moneys collected by attorneys and also pays charges on twenty claims returned uncollectible except where costs or disbursements have been made at request of clients. Contracts for greater number of claims may be made at slightly reduced rates. Claims are closely watched and revised. Money received by our agency is absolutely safe and is paid over promptly. As evidence of the truth of our assertions we refer to leading firms who are and have been for years giving us all their collections, and others who have tried and lost money by other methods, companies or agencies who have made great pretensions and became defunct. Our New York office has a list of nearly fifty so-called collection bureaus or agencies which have collapsed within a few years. Give our collection department a trial and you will be convinced of its merits.

Married Last Evening.

Mr. Herman Morton and Miss Lillian Brittle, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brittle, were married at 8 o'clock last evening at the residence of the bride's parents on East Michigan street, corner of Cedar, by Rev. L. M. Waterman, pastor of the Baptist church, only relatives and a few very intimate friends being present. The contracting parties were attended by Miss Eva Brittle, the bride's sister, and Mr. Edmond S. Lavigne. Mr. Morton is employed by the Lake Shore Iron works and will reside with his bride on South Front street just beyond the Hotel Marquette. THE MINING JOURNAL extends congratulations.

German Measles.

THE MINING JOURNAL's impotent little Superior street subsequently expose its own ignorance and that of its medico-legal cypriads by attacking this paper for classing rotheln, or "German measles," as a "disease dangerous to the public health." The health officer of each township, city and village in Michigan is required by law (Act 137, Laws of 1883) to keep "the secretary of the state board of health constantly informed respecting every outbreak of a disease dangerous to the public health" and the blanks sent out by the state board of health for such reports are required to be filled out

"immediately upon the occurrence of a case of small pox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, rotheln, measles, cholera, typhus fever, yellow fever, or other diseases dangerous to the public health" while the blanks prepared for the reports required by law to health officers on the part of householders and attending physicians also specify rotheln among the diseases which are to be immediately reported.

Health Officer's Notice.

The health officer desires to give notice that all householders or parents who do not employ a physician are required by law to make an "immediate" report in writing of every contagious disease in their family or house. Blank postal cards for this purpose may be obtained at his office and at the drug stores.

In making these reports all spaces, including dates, must be filled and signed by the person making it. The date of death or recovery of the sick person should also be reported and cards placed upon the houses should not be removed except upon the order of the health officer.

Retires from Business.

Yesterday John C. Fassbender, after twenty years in the market business at the same stand on Front street, retired from trade, selling out to his son, John C. Fassbender, Jr., who has been identified with the business for about fifteen years and has had practically the management of it for the last seven or eight years. Few business houses on the upper peninsula can show so many years at the same stand in one line of business and under the new auspices "Fassbender's" will continue to hold its own against all comers.

MOTHERS' RECOMMENDATION.

We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day. From personal experience we can say it has broken up bad colds for our children.—Centerville, South Dakota, Citizen. 50 cent bottles for sale by H. H. Stafford, Son & Co. Druggists.

There is no one instrument, unless, indeed, it be a large pipe organ, capable of the variety of effects that are obtainable on the Aeolian. Unlike the pipe organ, however, the Aeolian is adapted to all classes of music; overtures and symphonies can be rendered on it with all the softness and delicacy of the flute and violin and cello and all the snap and brilliancy of the piano. See and hear them at Conklin's.
