JUDICIAL CONVENTION. A Republican convention for the Twenty-fifth judicial circuit of Michigan is hereby called to meet at the city of Escanaba on Friday, the 10th day of March, 1893, at 8 o'clock p. m., to nominate a candidate for circuit judge.

The several counties in the district will be entitled to representation as follows, being one delegate for every 500 votes, or majority thereof, cast for governor at the last election, viz:

Table with 3 columns: COUNTY, VOTE, DELEGATES. Delta, 3,288, 6; Dickinson, 3,192, 6; Iron, 1,544, 3; Marquette, 7,319, 15; Menominee, 3,872, 8.

By order of the judicial committee, GAD SMITH, Chairman.

Dated February 28, 1893.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION. A Democratic convention for the Twenty-fifth judicial circuit of Michigan is hereby called to meet at the parlors of the New Ludington Hotel in the city of Escanaba on Friday, the 10th day of March, 1893, at 8 o'clock p. m., to nominate a candidate for circuit judge.

The several counties in the circuit will be entitled to representation as follows, being one delegate for every 500 votes or moiety thereof cast for governor at the last election, viz:

Table with 3 columns: County, Votes, Delegates. Delta, 3,288, 6; Dickinson, 3,192, 6; Iron, 1,544, 3; Marquette, 7,319, 15; Menominee, 3,872, 8.

By order of judicial committee, R. C. FLANNISMAN, Chairman.

Dated Feb. 28, 1893.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S inaugural address is a sincere, forcible and manly declaration of his purposes as president, and quite in keeping with the public career and character of the man.

He evidently proposes to hold his party to a strict performance of its promises to the people and intends that there shall be no shirking that it will be in his power to prevent.

If he follows the course that he has marked out for himself the Republicans will have no special cause to complain of his administration, but he has a large contract on hand to hold his own party up to the exacting standard of duty that he has set up for it.

The house held a session Saturday but spent the entire day in a disgraceful wrangle over abstract questions of "right" and "principle," transacting no business.

In the course of the debate, if such it could be called, one gentlemanly representative called another a "little pup," intimating that he could "lick the pup" in short order, and the solon so alluded to invited him to pitch in right then and there, saying if there were to be any "licking" done "the circus couldn't begin any too soon."

The impression begins to obtain among the people of the state that the circus at Lansing cannot end its season engagement there any too soon.

Performances like that of Saturday in the house have a tendency to make the taxpayers of the state feel very tired of the legislature and its work.

The show may be amusing to those who witness it from reserved seats in the auditorium, but it isn't a pleasant thing for the people who foot the bills to read about.

It is well that President Cleveland indicated in no uncertain manner in his inaugural address his position with reference to reckless financial legislation.

"Manifestly," said he, "nothing is more vital to our supremacy as a nation and to the beneficent purposes of our government than a sound and stable currency."

Holding to this belief, it follows that the president cannot but discontinue any movement that has in view the depreciation of our currency, such as advocated by the champions of free and unlimited coinage of silver.

The party that elected Cleveland to the presidency now has control of both houses of congress, and as it is known to be seriously infected with the free silver mania it is fortunate indeed for the nation that the chief executive holds to views on this question that are as sound as they are positive.

The free coinage cranks will get a little aid and comfort from President Cleveland as they did from his predecessor in the White House.

Discussing what may be expected from England in relation to getting at an international agreement for the coinage of silver, Bradstreet's points out that "the attitude of the present English administration in reference to the international monetary conference was disclosed in some remarks made by Premier Gladstone and his chancellor of the exchequer, Sir William Vernon Harcourt, in the house of commons recently."

A motion was made declaring that the British government should use its influence to bring about a reassembling of the international monetary conference, with the object of finding a remedy for the evils attendant upon the divergence of values between gold and silver.

Mr. Gladstone, in reply to some arguments in support of the motion, said that the international monetary conference met at the initiative of the United States, and that it would be an unprecedented proceeding now to deprive America of the initiative.

England, he said, had followed the Brussels discussion with more or less sympathy, and had a right to expect from the United States a declaration as to what that country proposed to take next.

The chancellor of the exchequer said that if the United States should reconvene the conference and submit definite proposals the British government would be happy to send back its delegates, but could not be expected to provide a scheme for the more extensive use of silver.

If the legislature imagines that the people of Michigan will be pleased with its niggardly policy in the matter of providing for a proper exhibit from this state at the World's Fair it does not understand their desires on the question.

Michigan has much to gain by bringing the extent, variety and great value of her resources to the notice of the millions who will visit the Columbian exposition, and every dollar put into making that exhibit what it should be, within a reasonable limit, will be returned to the state ten-fold.

The people understand this and want to have the legislature sustain the state commission in what it is seeking to do, but the legislature appears to be dominated by the idea that the tax-payers desire the moderate appropriation called for cut in two.

It would be much better to double it instead. The last legislature was too niggardly in providing for the state exhibit, and the people showed what they thought of that legislature last fall.

"One good turn deserves another," and the numerous lectures on behavior given the people of this country by Englishmen who affect to be able to detect faults of breeding in Americans call for retaliatory reminder when opportunity arises.

Wherefore THE MINING JOURNAL takes the liberty of suggesting that it was in very bad form for a lot of youthful Tories who doubtless imagine that they are immaculate gentlemen to hoot and jeer at the venerable premier of England, Mr. Gladstone, as he was leaving the church at Brighton where he worshipped on Sunday, after the services were over.

Political feeling sometimes runs high with us, but no public man has ever been insulted as Gladstone was on Sunday by these insufferable snobs, within the knowledge of THE MINING JOURNAL.

Such a thing would be regarded as a revolting exhibition of partisan rancor in the United States and would bring down unparagoned censure from all quarters on the persons who would dare to perpetrate the outrage, no matter what their position or standing.

The proposed repeal of the clause of the McKinley act providing for the imposition of a duty of four cents a pound on metallic tin is not by any means to be regarded as a step toward the abandonment of the attempt to build up a tin manufacturing industry in the United States.

There has been, as the Age of Steel remarks, a considerable amount of mystery and equivocation in the matter of the native deposits of ore, and if, in the discussion of the proposed measure something tangible and definite is secured in reference to extent and quality of these home resources for the benefit of an obfuscated public, we shall know more than we do of the real situation.

If it should be sustained by evidence that the workable tin-bearing deposits of this country are meagre and inadequate, we should still be in possession of equal advantages with the Welsh manufacturers of tin plate, who largely depend on the imported ore.

If our tin resources are practically inadequate to home demand, the maintenance of a duty on what is practically non-existing would be but a legislative farce and a hindrance rather than a stimulus to our tin plate industries.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube.

When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

RHEUMATISM QUICKLY CURED. Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.:

"I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right today, and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by H. H. 'OLD SOL' AS AN INCENDIARY. His Ferret Rays Started a Fire in a Negaunee Druggist's Establishment Yesterday.

New Way of Collecting Church Revenue. Ministers Meet to Confer on a Church Matter.

SUN'S RAYS START A FIRE. Yesterday morning a very singular thing happened in H. Elfrandt's store. One of the windows are two ornamental jars of glass, filled with colored water. Directly back of these jars, and about six inches distant, stood a box of imperial headache wafers. The rays of the sun were focused by one of the jars upon the wafer boxes. Suddenly the boxes took fire and began to burn as if ignited with a match.

A New System. At the Negaunee Presbyterian church a new system of raising the revenue required to meet expenses was recently adopted. Under the new method the pews are free. Each member is furnished with envelopes, one for each Sabbath, beginning with the first Sunday in March, bearing the number of the week and running from one to fifty-two. Four envelopes are sent out to the members on the first of each month. Every Sunday the envelopes, containing the amounts contributed for the preceding week, are handed in to the trustees, who open them and credit up the different amounts to the parties whose names appear on the envelope. At the end of the month the envelopes which contained the different amounts are returned to the donors, to serve as a receipt for the money paid in. If a member's envelope fails to come in during the month the delinquent will be reminded of the fact and will be asked to send in a donation.

Met at Marquette. Rev. C. M. Brown, pastor of the Negaunee Presbyterian church, and Rev. H. M. Hasbitt of Cascade, went to Marquette yesterday afternoon, where they conferred with Rev. J. B. Bonar of Marquette and Rev. C. D. Jacobs of Ishpeming upon the proposed "Revision of the Confession of Faith." The gentlemen composing the committee will prepare their decision and submit the same to the Lake Superior Presbytery, which will convene at Iron River next month.

New Superintendent. Ed Ball of Florence, Wis., arrived in Negaunee yesterday and will take charge of the Platt mine, Cascade range, succeeding Chas. L. Lawton, who resigned the position last week. Mr. Lawton goes to North Carolina to take charge of a mine in a town in that state called Bessemer. The mine in North Carolina of which Lawton is to have charge produces a Bessemer ore and has been wrought on a small scale for several years. Mr. Ball will enter on the duties of his new position at the Platt today.

A Candidate for Treasurer. The friends of Benjamin Richards have asked THE MINING JOURNAL to bring his candidacy for the office of city treasurer at the coming election before the readers of the paper here. Mr. Richards has been afflicted with rheumatism for the past seven or eight years, during which interval he has been able to do but little toward supporting his wife and children. He is capable and deserving and his friends think the office could not be more worthily bestowed.

D. McDonald left here Sunday afternoon for Chicago, whence he departed yesterday for Benton Harbor, Mich., where he will attend a Grand Army convention which will be in session at that place today, tomorrow and Thursday. Mr. McDonald went as a delegate from Charles Towne Post. He will arrive home Saturday or Sunday.

LOCAL LAOAGICS. W. Rothschild of Ironwood is in the city, visiting Messrs. Decker & Simon. The Sons and Daughters of St. George enjoyed a social entertainment last evening after the regular meeting of the Sons.

A number of the members of Lake Superior commandery, Knights Templar, of Negaunee attended a meeting of that order at Marquette last night.

There will be a big burrah at the local Salvation Army barracks tonight. There will be good music, also speeches without number. Admission ten cents.

A number of Negauneeites attended the performance at Ishpeming last evening. "Chain Lightning" is the play to be presented tonight. Seats can be secured by telephoning Tillson.

Chausse Bros., contractors, will today resume work on the dwelling house of H. St. Arno, which they started last fall but did not finish. Mr. St. Arno having decided that the work could be done to better advantage in the spring.

The funeral of Herman Kuitamaki was held Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the Finnish church, Rev. Tolonen of Ishpeming conducting the services. Kuitamaki was a married man but had separated from his wife prior to his death.

The funeral of Pearl, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goodman, who died Sunday, will be held this afternoon at 2:30. Services will be conducted at Mr. Goodman's residence by Rev. Wood, pastor of the Episcopal church.

work was also done on the sidewalks on Iron street in the way of removing snow and ice. James McCoy of sewer fame, who came to Negaunee Friday from Red Jacket, where he had been bidding on sewer work, left yesterday morning for Duluth. Mr. McCoy is superintending railroad construction for Wolf, King & Co. on a section of road between Duluth and the Mesaba iron range.

A Novel World's Fair Idea. Is it worth while to offer a suggestion for the next vast assembly in Chicago—that of May, for example? Is it worth while to set the American people thinking about the difference between what appeals to the eye and what to the ear? If it be, let the value of the pageant be considered. Let us imagine a vast room, or a great space in the open air, with a dias, on which the colors should be effective and harmonious. Let there be standards and floral decorations in abundance, arranged by some artistic hand. When the few chief dignitaries have been received, let other representative people be brought forward in groups bearing emblems or symbols which indicate their claims to consideration. Let delegations of the various professions and arts, in their appropriate robes, uniforms or traditional dresses, be introduced.

Let the workmen in every craft—the workers in wood, iron, brick, stone, the architects, sculptors, painters, decorators, manufacturers, engineers, carriers—all who have been concerned in making the exposition a success—send their representatives to participate in the opening ceremony. A simple act, the bestowal of medals, wreaths, flags, would give point to the assembly. A sentence from the mouth of some high official, a collect and a doxology would express all that language need say on such an occasion.—Professor D. C. Gilman in Century.

Insane From Excess of Wedded Joy. Dr. N. A. Keys of Kansas City and Miss Kate Cameron of Princeton, Ky., aged respectively 63 and 54 years, were married here last week. They had never seen each other until they met here one week before marriage and were drawn together by their belief of sanctification. In her excess of joy over the event the bride of three days has become a lunatic, pronounced so by physicians. She had to be sent away from home. Miss Cameron was a very estimable lady and well off in this world's goods.—Princeton Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Small Town Enriched. The heirs of Charles P. Knight, a millionaire, who died in Brooklyn in September, live in Whitteville, Washington county, for the most part, and the little community is greatly agitated over this unexpected great acquisition to its wealth. The will is now being probated, and the necessary records have been forwarded from Washington county to re-establish relationship, etc.—Bangor (Me.) Commercial.

A Boston Man's Conclusion. A Boston writer has reached the conclusion, evidently not without careful thought, that "the one great misfortune which has befallen literature in the ages has been the invention of printing." This is doubtless worthy of as literal an interpretation as Talleyrand's famous saying about the use of language to conceal thought.

An absentminded New York woman went the other day to do some shopping for the family, and only discovered that she had forgotten to put on a bonnet when she caught sight of her reflection in a big store window on her way home.

Out of 4,652 persons in the mercantile marine who were candidates for masters and mates' certificates last year, 27 were rejected through their inability to distinguish colors.

Americans and Cedars. For some unknown reason the cedar of Lebanon has never been a favorite with American planters, although it is hardy in the latitude of New York, and the few specimens here which have attained the age of 50 years and upward are noble trees.—Garden and Forest.

Safety in Narrow, Crooked Streets. It is scarcely probable that the balloon styles which the Empress Eugenie revived are likely to be seen in the streets of Boston.—Boston Transcript.

ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY. W. J. Arkell, publisher of Judge and Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, writes: "About three weeks since, while suffering from a severe cold which had settled on my chest, I applied an Alcock's porous plaster and in a short time obtained relief. In my opinion, these plasters should be in every household for use in case of colds, coughs, sprains, bruises or pains of any kind. I know that in my case the results have been entirely satisfactory and beneficial."

MOTHERS' RECOMMENDATION. We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day. From personal experience we can say it has broken up bad colds for our children.—Centerville, South Dakota. Citizen. 50 cent bottles for sale by H. H. Stafford, Son & Co. Druggists.

'SHE SECURED A BARGAIN.' A Woman's Familiar Remark. Overheard at the Dry Goods Store.

An Interesting Incident—A Chat Full of Interest to Women—Some Things Are Told That Are Not Generally Known. Why So Many Ladies Feel Tired and Worn Out After Visiting the Stores.

"I secured a splendid bargain." I overheard a lady make this remark to a companion just after coming out of one of those extensive houses that conduct bargain counters. Her face was very earnest and her eyes sparkled, but I could see in the paleness, in the lines upon her face, that she had been suffering and was even then suffering. I understood that she had saved money in the purchase she had made, but I could see that she had lost the greatest of all human bargains—good health.

How many women there are today who are unhappy and suffering, and yet who do not fully realize why it is so. They feel weak, weary and often discouraged. They care little for food and less for exercise. Their sleep is disturbed, their minds are not at rest. They are unhappy. To all such the following experience will be interesting and valuable.

Mrs. M. A. Brenning, who resides at No. 137 W. 137th street, New York, has passed through a most wonderful experience, which should be of interest and value to all ladies. She said: "A few years ago, I was suddenly seized with an illness which I could not account for. My body was in constant pain and very sensitive, so that I could not bear the contact of any but the lightest garments. I can scarcely tell of the agony that I suffered during that time. The physicians informed me that I could not possibly live, and my friends were called in to bid me farewell. I was almost in the embrace of death when my husband sent for a remedy which he had heard and gave me a small quantity. After taking a second dose, a peaceful, restful feeling seemed to steal over me, and for the first time in several days I slept. From that time my recovery was assured. I grew gradually better until my health was fully restored, and I thank God that my life was spared through the agency of Warner's Safe Cure. It cured me, and I know that it will cure others."

Testimony that is beyond question is given by Mrs. R. F. McMurray of St. Paul's avenue, Staten Island, N. Y., who says: "My mother, Mrs. S. A. Vanderbilt, and myself owe our health, and I almost feel like a new person. Other members of our family and also many friends and acquaintances have received equal benefit and all highly recommend it."

Mrs. J. E. Beale, residing at 363 Lexington avenue, New York, said: "About eight years ago I suffered from peritonitis and general kidney trouble and in spite of the attendance of skilled physicians my ailments increased. Upon the advice of some friends I began the use of Warner's Safe Cure, and was cured entirely. I feel as well today as in my early childhood and it is entirely due to this great remedy. Many of my friends to whom I have recommended the Safe Cure have been cured by its use, and their lives prolonged and their happiness assured."

Mrs. M. M. Simonson of Buckley, Mo., says: "My daughter, who was once the perfection of health and happiness, was for years afflicted with kidney and liver disease, complicated with scrofula, the hip joint being affected. She became so bad that the doctors wanted to amputate the hip. I would not consent to it and began administering a remedy which I had heard much about, and am happy to say she is now cured, well and healthy by the use of Warner's Safe Cure. Reader, the greatest bargain known to the world is good health. Do you not wish to secure and retain it?"

PATRIOTIC CATHOLICS AHEAD.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Mgr. Satolli, apostolic delegate to the United States, has received a communication from Pope Leo XIII, defining his powers in connection with the office.

"We command all whom it concerns to recognize in you, as apostolic delegate, the supreme power of the delegating pontiff. We command that they give you aid, concurrence and obedience in all things; that they receive with reverence your salutary admonitions and orders. Whatever sentences or penalties you shall declare or inflict against those who oppose your authority we will ratify and with your authority give us by the Lord will cause to be observed inviolably until condign satisfaction be made, notwithstanding constitutions and apostolic ordinances or any other to the contrary."

JEALOUS HUSBAND'S CRIME.

He Cuts His Wife's Throat and Then His Own. CHICAGO, March 6.—Frank Eck, formerly a fireman of Wichita, Kas., murdered his wife tonight by cutting her throat and then committed suicide by slaying his own from ear to ear.

An Aged but Skillful Skater.

A curious thing happened the other day. A gentleman called to thank a reporter for writing an article on skating on the park lake. It was a surprise because callers ordinarily come to "kick" and not to praise. This was an old gentleman of more than threescore and ten, but as active and hearty as most men of middle age.

Safety on the Big Ocean Liners.

The strange, eventful history of the overdue Cunarder proves two things for, say, the 500th time. One is that the engineers know their business. The other is the still more patent fact that there are not a few persons in and out of newspaper offices who dearly love an excuse for making a commotion. It is disagreeable to be delayed for four days on the north Atlantic, just south of Newfoundland and in a stormy December. It is like being kept for an hour outside Cannon Street station in a freezing fog.

A Life Job.

The solitary man who pecks at a stone step in front of the capitol with his mallet and chisel does just enough pecking to keep warm. He does not care to hurry his job, and nobody cares to hurry him. The longer he is at it the longer it will be before anybody has to provide him with another job. The man himself is not interesting, but as a type he is worth observing. His method is the universal one in government service. The disposition to do the least possible work in return for pay is manifest in all the clerks' desks in all the bureaus, and something very much like it seems to take hold upon congress itself now and then.—Washington Cor. New York World.

Wholesale Perjury.

A foreign steamship lately arrived at New York brought 900 stranded passengers, each one duly provided with a sworn certificate that he or she was an American citizen or the relative of an American citizen or a tourist. The whole crowd was promptly landed. And yet of all the 900 American citizens, relatives of American citizens and tourists, singularly enough, not one could speak the American language. The ways of some immigration agents are ways that are dark and vain.—Boston Journal.

Denial of the reported subsidence of Mount Fuji comes somewhat late in the day to convince those who have seen for themselves so frequently the disfiguration caused by the reported sinking. The fact, however, remains that the shrinkage at the top of the sacred mountain has written denying that any subsidence has taken place. He states that practical investigation made during the summer proves the report to have been entirely groundless, but immediately following this statement he admits that a spot of some extent has been found which was free from snow—between Jukakake and Higashi Yasukawara—volcanic action of some kind having taken place there. This, he says, is still free from snow and may have been taken to be a subsidence, though such is not the case.—Japanese Gazette.

A Slave's Will.

There will be a queer last will and testament offered for probate in the ordinary office soon in this county.

Some years before the war Julia Phinizy, a bright and buxom young slave woman, with health and energy, contracted with the late Ferdinand Phinizy—her owner—for her freedom, agreeing to pay a stated sum therefor. By industry, frugality and economy she managed to pay the amount and gain her freedom just before the emancipation proclamation was issued.

She named as the beneficiary in this carefully drawn document Mr. Marian Phinizy, a son of the late Ferdinand Phinizy, who lives in this city and who is worth in his own right a quarter of a million.

Having no heir of her own, this honest and devoted old slave left her earthly possessions as a monument of her love for her old master's family, which will be perpetuated by being spread upon the records of the courts of the county.—Aikens Cor. Atlanta Constitution.

Nineteen Days in the Woods.

W. H. Beller recently turned up at his home in Mercer county, W. Va., after having been lost for 19 days in the New Pine mountains. For the first four days he traveled constantly in the endeavor to find his way out of the wilderness in which he was lost. When he found that he had but two matches left, and fearing that he might use them up and be unable to kindle a fire, he picked out a permanent camping place, started a fire against a pine tree and made ready to live as best he could until aid came.

He slept as best he could by night, and by day never lost sight of his fire. Once an antlered buck came within rifle shot, but Beller had the chagrin to see his rifle leaning against a tree, with the buck between him and the weapon. He hallooed at intervals each day, and the noise at last brought a hunter to his aid. Beller was then a haggard wretch, his clothing burned in many places and his fingers both burned and frozen. He believes that he could not have held out two days longer.—New York Sun.

THE LEADERS UNDER ARREST

Originators of Swedish Salvation
 Army Meeting Row Sunday Night at Ishpeming in Limbo.

CAPTAIN VON KNUTSON SWEARS OUT WARRANTS FOR TWO.

Chance to Buy Lots in Detroit—An Old Lady's Misadventure—Church Entertainment Planned.

APPEALED TO THE LAW.
 Captain Vonknutson, of the Swedish Salvation Army, who was put in jail Sunday night for refusing to go home when requested to do so, in order to prevent what threatened to develop into a riot, by Marshal Peterson, evidently intends getting even with the young men who tried to break up his meeting Sunday night. The captain and his assistants were around at an early hour yesterday morning and swore out warrants for the arrest of John Edquist and John Peterson, the two young men who were instrumental in starting the row. The papers were served and the two Johns were taken before Justice Kennedy who placed them under bonds of $200 each, which they furnished, to appear in court next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, when they will be given a hearing.

Will Sell Detroit Real Estate.
 P. J. McGinty has been appointed sub-agent for the sale of lots at St.
 Clair Heights, Detroit, by W. J. Dawson, who has been on the peninsula for the past week or two.

There are 1,400 lots in the addition and with every fourteenth lot a house valued at $1,000 will be given, the winners of the houses to be settled by lottery. Every purchaser stands an equal chance in the drawing when the lottery takes place. The prices of the lots run like this: The first 500 lots, $300; the next 250, $350; the next 250 $375, and the remaining lots will be sold for $400 each. The terms are $50 down, the balance running three years. The property is situated three miles from the center of Detroit and has three car lines running to it.
 Mr. McGinty began disposing of lots yesterday morning, and he sold several during the day.

A Distressing Accident.
 Mrs. Thomas, mother of Mrs. Benjamin Trevail, fell on the ice near her home on Morris street Sunday evening and fractured her thigh. Mrs. Thomas is quite a feeble lady, being seventy-eight years of age, which will render her recovery quite doubtful.

Church Entertainment.
 The members of the Swedish Methodist church, corner Cleveland avenue and Third street, are formulating plans for an entertainment to be given at their church on the evening of Good Friday. The program will consist of musical numbers and literary selections by members of the congregation. An address will also be delivered by the pastor. The money realized will be used to help pay off the debt on the church, an installment of which becomes due next month. The admission to be charged has not yet been determined.

A. O. U. W. Ball.
 Ishpeming lodge, No. 113, A. O. U. W., will give a grand ball on Thursday evening, April 20, in that society's hall, Anderson block. The committee of arrangements appointed at the last meeting is made up of A. W. Gibbs, D. Maloney, A. Schmelz, G. Kalink and John C. Ryan. Crim's orchestra will furnish the music and James Gaynor will do the prompting. The price of tickets will be $1 per couple. Invitations will be issued in due time.

Will Open a Quarry.
 J. M. Lally went to L'Anse yesterday where he will remain a few days. Mr.
 Lally is about to open a stone quarry at L'Anse for a number of Michigan parties. While there this week he will make the preliminary arrangements, and during the coming summer he will superintend the operations there.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

Will Crowley of Milwaukee has been in Ishpeming the past few days.
 Mike Tobin expects to leave Ishpeming next week for Denver, Co., where he designs remaining.

Harry Torrance, the tailor, can give employment to two first class coat makers and one vest maker.
 Invitations for the dedication of the K. of P. Hall to take place on April 3, will be out in a few days.

Rev. Joslyn of the Division street M.
 E. church, conducted services at the Ne-gaunee M. E. church Sunday evening.
 Miss Loe McBride of Paulding, Ohio, who has been visiting in Ishpeming the past three or four months, returned home yesterday.

The uniform rank, K. of P., will meet every Thursday evening instead of every alternate Thursday, hereafter, until further notice.

Geo. Haslam, who has been spending the winter in the south, is expected home today. Mr. Haslam has been absent over three months.

The parties interested in the production of "Queen Esther" have decided not to present the piece at Negaunee as was calculated a few days ago.

There will be a host of prominent Salvationists at the English Army barracks tomorrow evening. An admission of ten cents will be charged those who attend.

Aug. Kilstrom, of Anderson & Kilstrom, dry goods merchants, is in Chicago buying his spring stock. He will arrive home Thursday and the goods will reach here a few days later.

The Browne Theatre company was greeted with a full house last night, when the company opened a week's engagement at the City Opera house, presenting the "Gold King." The work of the company was very good. The play tonight will be "Chain Lightning," in which Gavin will take the leading comedy part. The specialties by Mullaney are great.

Zenith lodge K. of P. will meet at 7:30 this evening in order to complete business in time to allow members to attend the Browne Theatre company's performance at the City Opera house.

The parlor suit to be given away by the James H. Browne Theatre company Saturday evening, which is valued at $40, is now on exhibition in the window of Hamilton Stewart's furniture store,
 Main street.

In yesterday's issue of THE MINING JOURNAL in the Negaunee department the types were made to say that the barber shops of Ishpeming have been kept open on Sunday for the past year.
 This was intended to apply to the shops of Negaunee instead of Ishpeming.

CHOLERINE IN PENNSYLVANIA.
 Swickley, Penn.: We had an epidemic of cholera, as our physicians called it, in this place lately and I made a great hit with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I sold four dozen bottles of it in one week and have since sold nearly a gross. This Remedy did the work and was a big advertisement for me. Several persons who had been troubled with diarrhoea for two or three years were cured by a few doses of this medicine.

Get out one of these fine days and take a walk down Main street, and call into Cahoon's and buy a pair of shoes while the sale is on. By so doing you can save a dollar or two. The object of the mortgagee has in view is to get rid of the stock quickly so as to save expenses, time, etc. 3-3-14

SHADDER IN FLORIDA WATERS.

Catching Fish in the Lower Part of the St. John's River.

Shadding is a subject striking home to the stomach of every good man and true, and any man with a taste for sport would consider himself in piscatorial paradise could he view the wholesale capture of fish bearers, and particularly shad, in the lower St. John's river.

There is nothing of the lone fisherman about shadding in Florida waters. Two men or a man and a boy, put out in a rather large sized boat, man's rowing and other paying out a seine over the stern. The seine end first thrown out is attached to a gayly colored spherical float, which marks one limit of the net and thus defines distinctly the course taken by it when operations are in full progress.

The sight is one which may be watched for hours without fatigue. One sees perhaps 15 or 20 handicap races between long lines of dancing bobs. Inequalities in "dropping" turns in the channel and changes in the wind are factors which constantly threaten to cause the lines to interfere and occasion much nautical emphasis among the shadders.

The danger from vessels is considerable even in daylight. Just as the shadder has slipped the last bob over the stern of his boat and is anxiously watching the seine as it spins merrily away on the tide around some sharp turn in the channel...

Just across the famous old Straits of Malacca is the sultanate of Johore, the only independent Malay kingdom on the peninsula. Under the wise and humane rule of its enlightened prince Johore, kept abreast of the more stirring English civilization of Singapore, and her 15,000 square miles are under as good cultivation as any part of the English colony...

The sultan, in his work of building up his country, has gone outside the limits of products of the soil and has experimented with staple productions that are native to other sections. In coffee, tea and pepper his experiments have proved so far successful that today they comprise the chief output of his little kingdom.

On the adoption of the word "jolly" into the English it had the meaning of beautiful, as it has among the French today. The English dream of the beautiful of the century speaks of our first mother as "the jolly Eve."

Yule indeed means noise or outcry, praising in loud voice, chanting, singing, making merry in honor of their god. From yule, then, to jolly the step is short and easy—both meaning revelry, rejoicing. Ours is a risen Lord; theirs the same. The words are identical. So, too, in large degree the Christmas jollities, praises and those of heathen Yule.

It seems not to be generally known that the regal "man in the moon," who for ages or longer has been looked up to as the ruler of his planet, shares his throne and divides his honors with the loveliest semblance of woman. Would you see her at her best let it be on a cloudless night as near the full of the moon as possible.

Seen on an Ostrich Farm. It is no uncommon thing to see a male ostrich strutting about followed by three or four distinct broods, all of different sizes. When the incubating process is completed, the cock bird leads his young ones off, and if he meets another proud papa engages in a terrific combat with him.

I AM SO NERVOUS.

The Cry and Plaint of Many Thousands.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN IN THIS AGE OF CIVILIZATION.

Are We Becoming a Nation of Nervous Wrecks.

The Warnings Are Plain and Unmistakable.

Heed Them Now, Or It May Be Fatally Too Late.

Hundreds of thousands of our people are nervous, thousands upon thousands suffer from mental exhaustion, brain fatigue, weak and irritable nerves, sleeplessness, gloomy depression of mind and exhaustion of nerve power, especially at this season of the year.

It is nerve and brain exhaustion which makes the brain tired, the arm nerveless, the limbs trembling, muscles weak and the whole body without strength, energy or ambition.

The answer is positive and convincing. Nature in her boundless mercy has provided a balm for every ill, and fresh from the bosom of the earth yields the nerve strengthening, nerve invigorating and health restoring vegetable medicines which certainly and unfailingly cure these terrible diseases.

Do not despair, nervous sufferer. Neglect alone is dangerous. Now is just the time to be cured, now when this great spring medicine will do so much for you.

It is perfectly and completely cured Mrs. Janet Johnson, of 161 Cedar Street, Boston Highlands, Mass., and without doubt saved her from insanity.

"I suffered from nervous prostration," she says, "and was so weak and prostrated I could not attend to my household duties, closed my house and gave up my home, as I was so restless I could not remain in one place. I could not sleep for weeks at a time, and insanity seemed sure to result."

Follow her example and you will be well. Remember the doctors prescribe and recommend this medicine. It is the prescription and discovery of the well known specialist in the cure of nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene of 35 W. 14th Street, New York, who can be consulted in regard to any case free of charge, personally or by letter.

Dyspepsia is the bane of the present generation. It is for its cure and its attendant, sick, headache, Constipation and Piles, that have become so famous. They act speedily and gently on the digestive organs and assimilate food. No griping or nausea.

BY THE COMMON COUNCIL.

Marquette's City Dads Maul Each Other Verbally and Incidentally Transact Business.

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT THIS MORNING.

Wreck in the Yards—Morse Hose Company Elects Officers—A New Proprietor—The Measles.

IN REGULAR SESSION.
The common council at its regular session last evening found so much business before it that a large share of the matters pending were shoved over to Thursday night. After the reading of the minutes the petitions and communications were taken up.

M. W. Miller, through his attorney, presented a bill against the city for $67.85 for injuries caused to his horse by stepping through a scraper which contractors had left in the street and which was concealed by the snow. The claim was tabled.

Jerry Sharland's application for an equalization of his taxes because of an error in the assessment roll was referred to the city attorney while the resignation of Albert Foubert from the police force because of other business was accepted.

The street commissioner's pay roll for February, $349.17, was allowed as were the estimates on Crescent and Prospect streets, $700 each, and the city attorney's bill of $16.81 for clerical work in connection with the charter amendments.

The deeds of sewer right of way from Mayor Adams and Frederick Ayer and J. M. Longyear to the city were reported as correct in all respects and were accepted.

Mrs. Ward's petition regarding her West Arch street property was finally, after much discussion, referred to the city attorney.

The committee on police, claims and grievances was again given "more time" on the Van Iderstine claim.

An ordinance was adopted and given immediate effect providing that in cases where assessment rolls are extended the utmost limit shall be 150 days in addition to the time named in section 9 of the charter but that for every thirty days after the ninety 2 per cent. shall be added in addition to the interest.

Under the new ordinance the Crescent and Prospect street improvement rolls were extended to May 15 and the balance of the Third street sewer assessment roll was also extended to the same date.

A resolution was passed calling upon the electric light and power committee of the council for a report in writing regarding the city's electric light plant, to be presented at the next council meeting whether regular or special.

The road roller investigation committee then presented its report. As soon as it chairman, Alderman McGregor, began reading it Alderman Desjardins moved that it be printed in full. This was finally lost by ayes and nays. A red hot debate ensued in which everyone joined from Alde man Powell, who presided in the absence of the mayor as president of the council, to the members of the committee. Although the committee was appointed to investigate supposed charges in the heading of a petition it appeared to have devoted most of its time to investigating a newspaper and was called to account for this by Alderman Desjardins. The discussion turning very largely upon the doctor's success as an editor. Alderman Powell gave a very solemn warning about the use of his name in a newspaper. Alderman Moore thundered as usual and the chairman from the Fifth stood the racket imperturbably while others assisted occasionally in making things more interesting.

After a motion from Desjardins to accept the report and place it on file Alderman Tennessy moved to defer the report to the next meeting and that idea prevailed.

The city engineer presented a report covering his entire term of office, or since Oct. 13, 1890. In that time 15,292 feet of macadamized streets have been completed, and 19,144 feet of main sewer laid besides 6,360 feet of laterals and forty-two man holes. For the two years and three months the amount paid him for assistance is $86.63 or $3.21 per month.

The city engineer also reported on the lines of Lake street, finding that the fence built by the Breitung estate in the rear of the Maynard place is from two to three feet in the street and the wall and fence built by D. H. Merritt back of his place is 5 1/2 feet in the street at the southwest corner of his property while the Bartis sawmill is 27 feet into the street. The report was accepted.

The claim of Geo. C. Preston for a rebate on his Ohio street sewer assessment was taken from the table and after a long and heated wrangle in which Alderman Tennessy championed the claimant's rights the matter was referred to the city attorney with instructions to settle it if possible without litigation.

Alderman McGregor had been ruled out on a point of order earlier in the evening when attempting to bring in the bill of $15 for a stenographer's services for the road roller investigation committee which was rejected at the last meeting, and he now made a second attempt at it, the effect being to precipitate an adjournment, which was taken to Thursday evening.

A New Proprietor.
Mr. P. J. Carey, a brother of Thomas Carey, the well known Republic hotel keeper and former resident of Marquette, has purchased the interest of Mr. and Mrs. John Cochran in the Hotel Brunswick and has assumed the management of that popular hotel. Mr. Carey is an experienced man in the business and under his management the popularity of the house cannot fail to increase.

Death of an Old Resident.
Mr. Charles Kitts died at his home, 208 West Ridge street, this morning at 2:30 o'clock after an illness of about two months which was probably more the effect of old age than anything else. Mr. Kitts was eighty-three years of age on Dec. 2 last and had been in this city about thirty-three years. He was born in Kingston, Canada, and was a professional hewer, getting out square timber for the English market for many years. He was in the employ of the M., H. & O. R. R. Co. here for about twenty years and hewed much of the timber used in the company's ore docks here. Mr. Kitts leaves two children, a son, W. M. Kitts, and a daughter, Miss Lizzie Kitts, who has been keeping house for her father.

Wreck in the Yards.
As the Chicago freight was entering the Marquette yards at 8 o'clock last evening and taking her usual siding the switch broke after the engine and first car had started on the siding, the rest of the train trying to keep on the main track. The result was disastrous, a big refrigerator car loaded with meat and eggs being twisted around sideways and overturned, tearing up the main track, and obstructing it so that the Lake Superior limited due at 10:45 was held up by the scales and was not able to reach the depot until about 11:30.

Morse Hose Company Election.
The annual meeting of Morse Hose company was held last evening at Fireman's Hall. First Assistant M. V. Mullally was elected captain for the ensuing year but declined the honor on the ground that he was about to withdraw from the company and give up the joys and sorrows of a fireman's career. Mr. Mullally has always been an excellent fireman and has taken a very active part in the company. His withdrawal led to the re-election of Captain Martin Hogan with Kit Bushnell as his leading competitor. H. E. Kellan was then elected first assistant, Louis Doussere second assistant, N. Etiz foreman of hood and ladder, F. H. W. Bailey secretary and James J. Donovan treasurer. The company's finances are in good condition and it is prospering in every way.

The Measles.
The health officer's report for the last week shows that at the beginning of the week there were eight cases of measles on record, twenty-five were reported during the week and three are convalescent.

Dr. Northrop has received a letter from Dr. Henry B. Baker, secretary of the Michigan state board of health, commending him for the zeal and activity with which he has met the recent outbreak here and also complimenting THE DAILY MINING JOURNAL for the stand taken by it in the recent discussion regarding the health officer's duties.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.
Mr. J. R. Finlay of the class of '91, Harvard University, has kindly consented to give an informal talk on "College Athletics in the East" before the business men's gymnasium class next Friday afternoon. Mr. Finlay's remarkable record as an athlete qualifies him to present in a most interesting manner certain phases of athletics in the great eastern universities. While an undergraduate he secured the world's college record for throwing the 16-pound hammer and took many prizes in contests which required great strength, while he was a member of the Harvard crew and of the famous football eleven which was the last team to beat Yale.

In the absence of Mr. F. J. Schultze Willis Maguire will conduct the young men's gymnasium class tonight. Last Saturday was a busy day at the association rooms; seventy-five men enjoyed their spare moments over the papers, twenty-four exercised on the gymnasium floor and thirty performed their ablutions in the bath rooms.

Their First.
Hughes' Ideal orchestra will give a concert in Fraternity Hall on Tuesday evening, March 28. Special music has been in rehearsal for the past two weeks for this occasion and every member is working with a will. Arrangements are being made to secure a very fine celloist, and also a viola player, which will give the orchestra a good string section, besides making a string quartette possible. The organization is certainly a credit to the city and will no doubt be given a good send-off on the occasion of its first concert, full particulars of which will be given later on.

About the Size of It.
Marquette's electric cars have run all winter and have run regularly. This knocks out the statement that an electric road cannot be operated in this region in the winter. This winter has been one of the most severe on record and still has a rigid backbone.—Soo News.

GREAT PROMISE FOR WOOD MANUFACTURERS.
It is only quite recently that manufacturers of furniture, wagons and wood work generally have become aware of the wonderful promise offered by North Galveston, Tex. Directly tributary to this young city, and not many miles distant, in Eastern Texas are over 46,000,000 acres of timber which comprises all of the high grade hard and soft woods.

Many people are coming in and are now doing business, but there is room for a great many more. With rail and water facilities for shipping, and markets in all directions, there should not be any restriction about the entrance of manufacturing ventures. For further particulars call on or write M. E. Asire, the local agent. The address of the home office is North Galveston Association, Box 903, Minneapolis, Minn.

PROF. NIEL.
Government chemist writes: I have carefully analyzed your "Royal Ruby Port Wine," bought by me in the open market, and certify that I found the same absolutely pure. This wine is especially recommended for its health-restoring and building up properties; it strengthens the weak and restores lost vitality. Be sure you get Royal Ruby; $1 per quart bottle. Sold by H. H. Stafford, Son & Co. Marquette, and J. M. Perkins, & Co., Negaunee.

People with delicate stomach find Ayer's Sarsaparilla agreeable to the taste, and, therefore, prefer it as a blood-purifier to any other. This is one reason for its great popularity as a spring and family medicine. Safe, certain, and palatable.

"I've tried all sorts of blood-purifiers," said an old lady to a "cutter," "and you can't persuade me that any other Sarsaparilla is as good as Ayer's." There's where she had him. She knew that Ayer's was the best—and so did he, but it paid him better to sell a cheaper brand.
