NO SCRAP WITH SENATE.

Another Silly Story About President Cleveland and Senators Hill and Murphy.

CONSIDERING STATUS OF APPOINTIVE SENATORS.

Senate Committee on Elections Will Try to Settle the Points Involved Once for All.

MR. CLEVELAND IS NO FOOL.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—A story has been published to the effect that President Cleveland had inaugurated a big fight against the senate because of his displeasure on account of the manner in which the committees of that body have been organized. It was said that Mr. Cleveland was very indignant because of Mr. Hill's assignment as a member of the judiciary committee and Mr. Murphy's to the committee on commerce and that he had served notice on the senate that no nominations would be sent in until these assignments were changed.

The story is without foundation. Mr. Cleveland might have been better pleased if some senate committees, for instance that on finance, had been organized differently but he has not and does not intend to manifest any displeasure or disappointment he may feel. Mr. Cleveland recognizes the fact that the senate has a perfect right to organize its committees to suit itself and he has no desire to interfere. The attention of the several senators who called at the White House was called to the published story and they unanimously denied any knowledge of the alleged strained relations between the senate and the president.

THOSE APPOINTIVE SENATORS.

The first of the reorganized committees of the senate to get to work was that on privileges and elections which held a session this morning lasting about two and one-half hours. The only cases discussed and that, too, in an informal manner, were those of Mr. Mantle and Mr. Beckwith, appointed by the governors of Montana and Wyoming respectively. In these two cases the vacancies in the senate occurred by reason of expiration of the terms of service of Senators Sanders and Warren on the 4th of March. The legislatures in the meantime had adjourned without exercising their prerogative by the selection of their successors. Both the new men came to the senate bearing certificates of appointment by the governors of their state. The question before the committee was whether, it being the beginning of a full term and the legislature having refused to elect, the certificates were valid and whether the governor was authorized to appoint under that clause of the Constitution (Art. I, Sec. 3), which says:

"If vacancies happen by resignation or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any state, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies."

The conditions in the case of Mr. Allen of Washington, whose credentials have not yet arrived, are somewhat different. When the term of his predecessor expired the legislature was still in session and did not adjourn until the 10th of March. There was a vacancy in this case which it could have filled but did not and after the legislature adjourned the appointment was made. In the other cases the law required the legislature to anticipate the known vacancy and elect.

The result appears to be the same in all three cases and it is probable that it will be considered from the same basis. The precedents most referred to in the senate are in the case of Mr. Sevier, a senator from Arkansas. That state was admitted in June, 1836, and in the following October Mr. Sevier was elected senator. On the allotment to their respective classes, as required by the Constitution, Mr. Sevier was placed in the class of senator whose term expired in March, 1837, and the legislature had no opportunity to fill the vacancy, not having been in session after the result of the allotment was known in that state. In January, 1837, Mr. Sevier was appointed to fill the vacancy occurring March 3rd next and the committee held that he was entitled to his seat for the reason that the time when he was to go out of office was determined by lot and the legislature, not being in session after this decision, had no opportunity to fill the vacancy.

The other case is that of Mr. Bell of New Hampshire, appointed as senator by the governor at the beginning of a term in March, 1879. In this case the governor also appointed to a new term. Under amendment to the state constitution two legislatures had been elected, one under the old constitution whose term would terminate in March, 1879, and the other under the new constitution, whose term would begin June, 1879.

The senate committee had in the previous congress reported that the last named was the proper legislature to elect a senator. There was no election, however, by either legislature and the majority of the senate committee reported in favor of unseating Mr. Bell. This report was signed by Mr. Vance, the present chairman of the committee, and the minority report by Mr. Hoar and these are the only members of the committee as then composed who are now in the senate. The minority report was, on motion of Mr. Hoar, adopted and Mr. Bell was given his seat.

In 1825 James Lanman, appointed by the governor of Connecticut to fill a new term, was denied his seat and according to the records of the senate his case was for more than fifty years the established precedent of the senate in such cases. It was held that the constitution conferred upon the legislature alone the power to appoint a senator for a new term.

The present committee is divided on the question and the division is not according to party lines. There will probably be a majority and minority report and this, it is thought, will bring up a protracted debate with the end in view of finally establishing a precedent that shall be the law of the senate. As is the cases in question come before the senate they present a phase of the case that has never been met by the body, and the desire of both sides seems to be to dispose of such cases in a way that will leave nothing uncertain for the future. The committee will meet again Monday afternoon and the two senators-elect will be permitted to come before the committee and make such statements as they may see fit.

NO ATTENTION TO KICKERS.

The statement in New York papers today that a protest numerously signed by prominent citizens against the consummation of the extradition treaty with Russia would be sent to Secretary of State Gresham was shown to the secretary this afternoon. He said he had not received the protest and in reply to a question whether it would avail anything said he thought not. He never heard of the withdrawal of a treaty by either party to it after it had been ratified and pending exchange of ratifications. This is the position the Russian extradition treaty now occupies. It has been ratified by the senate and the exchange of certificates of ratification is expected to take place within a very short time.

Messrs. Castle and Thurston of the Hawaiian commission and Mr. Paul Newman, attorney for Queen Liliuokalani, left Washington tonight. Mr. Castle is en route home, intending to sail from San Francisco for Honolulu on the 21st inst. The others will return to Washington an await the outcome of Mr. Blount's visit to the Hawaiian island.

NO PARADE IN WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The only distinctive celebration in Washington in connection with the anniversary of the patron saint of Ireland was the celebration of high mass by the papal legate, Archbishop Satoli, in St. Patrick's church. There was no parade but there was the customary uncomfortable St. Patrick's Day weather which took the shape this year of a snow fall.

ALL CONGRATULATED GRESHAM.

The cabinet was in session an hour and a half, although several of its members were behind for some time. Discussion of the affairs of their departments with the president. All of the members remembered that today was the sixtieth anniversary of the birth of the secretary of state and did not fail to congratulate Mr. Gresham. Secretary of War Lamont suggested that it would be the president's turn tomorrow to receive congratulations, as he will celebrate his fifty-sixth birthday on that day.

SIX RAILROADS ENJOINED.

Ann Arbor Wants Them Compelled to Receive Its Cars.

DETROIT, March 17.—The Toledo, Ann Arbor & Northern Michigan Railway company appealed to the United States court this afternoon for protection from alleged illegal discrimination exercised against it by seven railroad companies connecting with its line. On the filing of a bill of complaint and affidavit signed by William H. Ashby, general manager of the road, Judge Taft issued an interlocutory injunction restraining the defendant companies from refusing to extend to the complaining company the same equal facilities. The defendants are the Michigan Central, the Wabash, the Detroit, Grand Haven & Milwaukee, the Chicago & Northern railroad companies, The Toledo & Mackinaw and the Detroit, Lansing & Mackinaw. The bill charges that the plaintiff company's business consists of transporting freight between points in Michigan and other states west of Michigan, as well as from Minnesota and Wisconsin to points in Michigan and Ohio, and that therefore the company is engaged in interstate commerce. The interchange of cars of freight between complainant and defendant is said to be an important part of its business subject to the act of congress of February 4, 1888, and within the jurisdiction of this court.

Since March 11 last, the bill then states, the defendant companies and their officials have given out and threatened that they will refuse to accept or haul cars for the reason that on the complainant's line men are employed as locomotive engineers who are not members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. The locomotive engineers in the employ of the defendant companies, the bill says, have refused to handle cars to be interchanged with the orator's railroad. It is claimed that the defendants continue to afford to other railroad companies full and free facilities for interchange of freight while refusing the same to the Toledo & Ann Arbor road, thereby discriminating illegally against it. It is shown that if the defendants persist in their refusal a large and important part of the company's business will come to a complete standstill and the transaction of interstate commerce will be paralyzed, causing irreparable and continuing loss and injury to the complainant and to the public.

Inquiry among local railroad officials shows that as yet no discrimination had been made against the Toledo, Ann Arbor & Northern Michigan Railway company and that this bill for an injunction was brought to anticipate any action which might be taken by any of the companies named in the bill.

MAY ADJOURN MAY 25.

House Adopts Concurrent Resolution to Close Up on the Date Named.

OLDER MEMBERS WANT TO TALK BY SOMEWHAT LONGER.

Marquette Prison Committee Roasts Warden Malmberg but Says No Investigation is Now Required.

ISHPEMING'S CHARTER PASSES.

STATE HOUSE, LANSING, Mich., March 17.—[Special.]—The house today adopted a concurrent resolution for final adjournment on May 25. It went to the senate and there was tabled. Nearly all old members are opposed to this action, believing it impossible to finish the work but it was a result of caucus dictation held today.

The Ishpeming charter went through the house as framed by the city council, giving that city twelve wards; also the bill making two voting precincts in township of Wauceslau, Dickinson county.

The committee on Marquette prison made a flattering report on the character of the institution but roasted Warden Malmberg for his management but said inasmuch as the prison board had acted in the matter an investigation was not advisable. The scheme of converting the prison into an insane asylum was declared impracticable and was not recommended.

The senate held a long discussion over the house joint resolution for a constitutional amendment to authorize the employment of convicts on public highways and struck out all after the enacting clause; therefore it will not be submitted.

That body also gave the woman suffragists a ray of hope. A bill precisely like that defeated in the house yesterday was taken up on a yeas and nays vote on a motion to indefinitely postpone but eight members were recorded in favor of such action and twenty-one against. The bill is now an order of unfinished business.

The house committee on municipal corporations has stricken out Chapter X (providing for an electric light and power board) of the Marquette charter, has refused to take the appointing power from the mayor and will recommend that Marquette have eleven wards.

The senate adjourned until 9 p. m. Monday and the house until 2 p. m. tomorrow.

CONSTANT SUPPLY OF SUCKERS.

Another 'Endowment' Bubble Has Burst and Members Mourn.

WEST BAY CITY, Mich., March 17.—The West Bay City members of the endowment society of the Order of Juno are about to apply to the United States court for the appointment of a receiver for the order. The society was organized two or three years ago under the laws of Ohio with George Harper of Cleveland as the visible head. Harper was here last night trying to get members to surrender their certificates, for which they are to receive membership certificates in a new order called the World's Mutual Benefit association, organized under the laws of West Virginia. Harper states that it has been known for several months that the affairs of the Order of Juno were in a bad way and that the order could not survive, although he had sent out several circulars containing contrary announcements. Members claim that there should be $40,000 or $50,000 in the endowment fund. Harper read a report showing only $14,800 and he says he does not know where that is now. Harper left the city this morning. The members of the order here have each paid in from $50 to $125.

DEATH OF GENERAL BROWN.

Distinguished Soldier of the Civil War Passes Away.

ST. CLAIR, Mich., March 17.—General Simon Brown, aged 81 years, is dead. He was born of military stock in New Hampshire, his father being an officer in the war of 1812. He moved to Michigan in 1825. At the breaking out of the civil war he was commissioned major in the Sixth Michigan Cavalry and in 1862 was made colonel of the Eleventh Michigan Cavalry. For meritorious service in battle at Marion, Va., he was brevetted brigadier general. He participated in seventy-two engagements. General Brown was formerly deputy grand master of the Masonic order and was an honored member of the Union Veterans' union and of the Grand Army of the Republic.

OLDEST SETTLER IN ILLINOIS.

GALENA, Ill., March 17.—Daniel S. Harris, the oldest surviving settler of Illinois, a soldier of the Black Hawk war and a veteran steamboat man, died this morning, aged 83 years. He came to Galena in 1812 from Cincinnati.

FUGITIVE STEPHENS SHOT.

Bartender Gutches Perforates Him in Morehead's Saloon.

COLUMBUS, O., March 17.—Daniel Stephens, a well-known local pug list, was shot and instantly killed tonight by Charles Gutches, a bartender, formerly of Circleville, O. The murder occurred in a saloon conducted by Lewis Morehead, a local sport also of some notoriety. There were no eye witnesses and the murder is supposed to have been the result of a feud. The bullet entered Stephens' temple. Gutches is under arrest.

HAD ENOUGH OF THE WEST. A Negaunee Man's Experience in Trying to Better His Condition by Moving to a Pacific State. Recharities Elect Officers--Yesterday's Observance--Snow Shoe Club's Last Meeting for the Season of '93.

TOO DEAD FOR HIM Robert Lee, who left Negaunee for Washington a few months ago, returned Sunday evening, pretty thoroughly disgusted with the state of affairs in that country. He had been working in a silver mine near Seattle and a short time ago the mine shut down and seven hundred men were thrown out of employment.

"Silver Ball" Tent. At a meeting of the parties interested in the organization of a tent of Recharities in Negaunee held at the Forester's hall Thursday evening, the following officers were chosen: P. C. R., James Dunston; C. E., Anthony Richards; D. C. R., T. H. Roberts; S. G. R., Harry Hamby; B. S., John A. Johns; F. S., W. T. Dunstan; treas., C. H. Jennings; chaplain, Louis Vowler; trustee, Robt. Uren; I. G., Joseph Thomas; O. G., William Lanni.

A Good Turnout. A goodly number of the members of Negaunee Division A. O. H. turned out yesterday morning and marched to the music of the English Oak band from the society's hall in the Malvey block to St. Paul's Catholic church where a high mass was celebrated and a sermon appropriate to the day was preached by Rev. Fr. Wallace. The music by the choir, with solos by Miss Maggie Keating, was a special feature of the service.

The Wind-Up. The Negaunee Snow Shoe club decided at the meeting held Thursday night that the tramp and meeting of that evening should be the last of the season, as indications point to a break-up at a near date. The last meeting was as largely attended as any held during the season and just as much enthusiasm was displayed as when the season opened.

LOCAL LAOONICS F. G. Horton of Negaunee was in town yesterday. Mrs. W. H. Childs arrived home from a visit below yesterday. Louis Corbett celebrated his fifty-first birthday yesterday. Ward caucuses will be in order the early part of next week. Frank Sharon got home Wednesday evening from his trip to Davenport, Iowa.

T. J. Hayes "celebrated" St. Patrick's Day at Ishpeming yesterday, as also did Jerre Driscoll. The Misses A. McDowell and L. Fisher, Ishpeming teachers, paid a visit to the Negaunee high school yesterday. Miss Josephine Gaffney went to Hancock yesterday, where she took part in an entertainment given under auspices of the A. O. H. of that place last evening.

Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald, an old resident of Negaunee, died at the home of Patrick Lyons at Ishpeming yesterday morning. Her funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at Ishpeming. The Kansas inquest, which was to have been held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, was again postponed until this morning at the same hour on account of the illness of Justice John Jones. Mr. Jones was unable to get out of the house yesterday but he hopes to be about today.

Alderman O'Leary of the Second ward, who has been suffering from a complication of ailments for several weeks past, was out yesterday for the first time since he was taken down. He says he wouldn't have come out then if it hadn't been for St. Patrick. P. B. Kirkwood had a pot of real shamrocks in his store window yesterday. He shared them liberally with those who desired a bouquet. Mr. Kirkwood brought a bunch of the genuine shamrocks over from Ireland ten years ago when he was visiting across the water and every St. Patrick's Day he presents his friends with some of them.

Alderman O'Leary of the Second ward, who has been suffering from a complication of ailments for several weeks past, was out yesterday for the first time since he was taken down. He says he wouldn't have come out then if it hadn't been for St. Patrick.

ARE YOU WEAK? Do You Feel Tired, Nervous and Prostrated? Here Is Some Advice for You by Two Prominent Ladies. Spring a Dangerous Time--You Should Heed This Matter Now.

This is not only the season of sickness but everybody feels weak, tired, languid and emaciated as the spring approaches. You need something to strengthen your nerves, invigorate your blood and start up the action of all the organs. In other words you need a spring medicine, and should use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

"I was sick with extreme prostration and for three months I was on my bed. No one knows what I suffered. Many times I thought I was dying. I saw Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy advertised in the papers and sent at once and bought a bottle. Here is what Mrs. Lydia A. Cornen of Ridgefield, Conn., says of this great spring restorative: 'I was sick with extreme prostration and for three months I was on my bed. No one knows what I suffered. Many times I thought I was dying. I saw Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy advertised in the papers and sent at once and bought a bottle.'

"I commenced to improve and when that bottle was gone I was able to go down stairs. I got another bottle and when that was gone I was able to ride eight miles. I have had no more of that nervous sickness. I have taken a great deal of medicine but I never had any that did me the good that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy has." Read also what Mrs. E. F. Meigs of 178 Fifth avenue, New York city, says of this wonderful invigorator: 'Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy cured me of that tired, languid feeling and extreme nervousness. I took medicine from several doctors and got no relief. I never saw such a wonderful medicine as this; it cured me completely.'

"I crossed Boston to the Fitchburg station and took the train for Groton or Littleton. There I took a stage for Lancaster, where I slept. In the morning, with a Worcester man who had been caught in Boston as I was, I took a wagon early, and we two drove across to Worcester. That is to say, as late as 1845 there were but two men in Boston to whom it was necessary that they should go to Worcester that afternoon, and this was 10 years after railroad communication had been established.—Dr. Edward Everett Hale in Atlantic.

It was the vogue at one time in Venice to gild the rolls of bread and the oysters on the supper table. The candles were also coated with gold. We read of dinners of state which lasted four hours. Something of their nature may be discerned in the brilliant pictures of Veronese, which, seen in Venice, give us so vivid an idea of Venetian life three or four centuries ago. There were of course also banquets of quite exceptional lavishness in honor of the distinguished guests who were constantly drawn in the vortex of Venetian gaiety.—National Review.

Jay Gould abhorred all business dealings with women. This dates from an experience early in his career on the market. Two maiden aunts up in the country sent him their savings, $500, to speculate for them in stocks. He did so and lost it. The money was strictly returned to them and at no inconvenience to Mr. Gould. But this was not business. It seemed to open depths which might become deeper. He was frequently entrapped afterward by women who were near to him, as by women outside, but his dealings thenceforth were with men.—New York Sun.

The Temple of Osiris. The temple of Osiris in Egypt was 300 feet long and 155 wide. It contains an enormous hall, the store composed of the roof being supported by 28 columns 69 feet high and 28 in circumference at the base. Cholera in New England. Ely's Cream Balm gives satisfaction to every one using it for catarrhal troubles.—G. K. Mellor, druggist, Worcester, Mass. I believe Ely's Cream Balm is the best article for catarrh ever offered the public.—Bush & Co., druggists, Worcester, Mass. An article of real merit.—C. P. Alden, druggist, Springfield, Mass. Those who use it speak highly of it.—Geo. A. Hill, druggist, Springfield, Mass. Cream Balm has given satisfactory results.—W. P. Draper, druggist, Springfield, Mass.

Cholera in Pennsylvania. Swickley, Penn.: We had an epidemic of cholera, as our physicians called it, in this place lately and I made a great hit with Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I sold four dozen bottles of it in one week and have since sold nearly a gross. This Remedy did the work and was a great advertisement for me. Several persons who had been troubled with diarrhoea for two or three years were cured by a few doses of this medicine.—P. P. Knapp, Ph. G., 25 and 30 cent bottles for sale by H. H. VIRGINIA, MINN.

Is the most centrally situated town on the great Mesaba iron range. It has a great natural location, sloping gradually from the mines to the shore of two beautiful little lakes and surrounded by charming scenery. The Duluth, Mesaba & Northern has reached the place and building is going on at a lively rate. The townsite surrounded by one of the best groups of mines on the range, mines capable of producing anywhere from 1,000,000 to 2,500,000 tons of ore annually. The surrounding country is well timbered, pine predominating. A saw mill is now operating and a large one is about to be erected, the lakes affording excellent boating. The village has a system of water works, a bank, feed stable, several stores, saloons, restaurants and hotels. A post-office and newspaper is now established, the latter by Dr. Fred Barrett. Virginia is destined to have a population of at least 5,000 and people seeking new locations would do well to look it over. For further information write to Kennedy & Gleason, VIRGINIA, MINN.

COLONIZATION THE THING.

LARGE LAND OWNERS SHOULD DRAW SETTLERS IN

A Bill introduced in the Legislature Which Apparently Prepares the Way for This Very Thing.

NOW IS THE TIME TO START.

It is a matter of the utmost importance that the agricultural resources of the upper peninsula should be developed to their utmost. The day is not very far past when that expression, "the agricultural resources of the upper peninsula," would have been greeted with a howl of derision but time has shown once more that "the proof of the pudding is in the eating" and year by year our farmers are becoming recognized more and more as an important and prosperous body of citizens.

There are scores of farms in Marquette, Chippewa and Ontonagon counties which prove conclusively that there is big money for the agriculturist on this peninsula. The soil is good, the climate the same as that in many northern countries where agriculture is the chief pursuit while at his very door the upper peninsula farmer finds a cash market where the very highest prices are paid for everything that he can grow.

Not a day passes but that between twenty and thirty teams come up into the city on the Chocoma road from the farms to the south, hauling wood, hay, charcoal, grain and general food products. The trade of these farmers is a very important factor in the calculations of every Marquette merchant and the development of fine farms in that vicinity as well as immediately west of the city is doing much for the prosperity of Marquette.

In Alger large farming communities are already in existence and in Chippewa county an organized effort is being made to bring about the development of the lands suitable for farming purposes, a New York company having taken hold of the scheme. As upper peninsula lands are stripped of their pine or their charcoal timber they must either be improved as farms or must be allowed to go to waste and finally be sold for taxes as has too often been the case in the past. The number of acres of the peninsula, as shown by recent figures in THE MINING JOURNAL, is now perfectly enormous and this means that thousands of acres are being denuded of timber each season. It is incumbent upon the large land owners of the peninsula, whether corporations or individuals, to begin to consider seriously the problem which is looming up before them in huge proportions. "What shall be done with the land after the timber is gone?"

The Chippewa county concern is planning to try colonization as the proper solution. In the opinion of THE MINING JOURNAL, that is the right and only solution. The upper peninsula offers to the immigrant from northern Europe physical conditions closely resembling those which he leaves behind him and which he and his ancestors before him have been accustomed to for generations. The people from Sweden, Norway, North Germany and the mountain countries, Bavaria and Switzerland, prosper here and feel at home. There should be organized effort to bring them to the peninsula which the upper peninsula has to offer. If landowners will co-operate with the railroads this can be done through the immigration agencies which all the American roads maintain across the water and can be done easily.

What appears to be a move in the proper direction is a bill introduced into the legislature by Representative Chamberlain of Gogebic and Ontonagon counties, at the request of parties in his district. It is entitled "A bill to promote and encourage the agricultural development of lands in the upper peninsula, to authorize the formation of corporations for acquiring, holding, leasing and selling real estate and for the erection of buildings and for the borrowing and loaning of money for all purposes connected with the development of said lands."

The bill contains the provisions usual in acts governing the incorporation of companies but specifies that the capitalization shall not be less than $5,000 nor more than $100,000 while the directors shall not less than five nor more than fifteen, a majority of them to be residents of this state. Sections 8 and 9 of the proposed act are as follows:

Sec. 8. Every corporation organized under this act shall have power to acquire, own and hold all such real estate and personal estate as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying on the business of such corporation, and the same or any part thereof convey, lease or demise, mortgage, improve, use and dispose of at pleasure, and may loan money to occupants of said lands, provided that the lands of any such corporation may hold at any one time shall not exceed 5,000 acres. The title to such real estate shall not remain in any such corporation for a term exceeding ten years.

Sec. 9. Every such corporation shall have power, being first authorized by a majority of its stockholders at a meeting duly called for that purpose, to borrow money and to secure the payment thereof and to issue its bonds therefor, secured by mortgage on its property.

The act would seem to be a step in the right direction and will undoubtedly be passed by the legislature. It shows, too, that attention is already being directed to this matter and THE MINING JOURNAL believes that the rest will be only a matter of time.

REPORTORIAL PENALTIES.

Hughes' dancing class for children meets this afternoon as usual.

Skating at the Casino this evening with music by the Marquette City band.

Two dead dogs ornament Ridge street up on cemetery hill, the work of the poison fiend.

Yesterday was a beautiful day, the weather being in decided contrast to that experienced on most St. Patrick's Day.

St. Patrick's Day was honored by the mercury in due form, the reading last night at 10 o'clock at Pendill's being three below zero.

There was a good attendance at the hop following the session of Hughes' dancing class at Fraternity Hall last evening and all had a good time.

Jerry Brennan, of the M. C. & P. I. force of motormen, claims St. Patrick's Day as his birthday and declared last night that yesterday was the first pleasant birthday he could remember in his life. He usually celebrates with a blizzard.

The Marquette and Agnosse Snow Snow clubs, with the families of members, will go out to the M. S. S. C. club house this evening. Ladies or gentlemen wishing to walk will notify Mr. E. B. Palmer and ladies are requested to "remember the cups." The street cars will leave as usual at about 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Hestis of 421 West Washington street are rejoicing over the son and heir who arrived at their home this week. It is ten years since Mr. Hestis formed the acquaintance of his fifth birthday and as this is his first son he naturally feels that the arrival is an event to be celebrated with all the formality.

The Times in its issue for Thursday stated that the act passed in 1891 taxed companies 5 per cent. on the amount of their capitalization when they were incorporated and that accordingly the L. S. & I. R'y company had to pay $7,500. In reality the tax is only one-half of one mill on each dollar of the authorized capital stock and a proportionate fee on every increase of stock. This, instead of being 5 per cent., is one-twentieth of 1 per cent. and the charge upon the L. S. & I. company was only $75. Dizzy should look at act 182, Public Acts of 1891.

An English Reply.

Not long since an English artist wrote to an English evening journal complaining of the incorrectness of an "interview" which its reporter had forced upon him. The reporter—a complete stranger to the artist, who had shown himself into the artist's studio while the artist was in the middle of his work—replied that the incorrectness of the report was owing to the incivility with which he had been received.—All the Year Round.

A Sand Tree of Prussia.

We are accustomed to regard sand as utterly barren, but the plants native to the coastlands of Prussia have been enumerated by naturalists, whose estimates vary from 171 to 234 varieties. Of these one of the most available is the Arundo arenaria (marram), which thrives only in sand and in the salt air of the beach. This in time serves to produce the seed for larger plants.—Popular Science Monthly.

ISHPEMING'S CHARTER.

The House Passed It Yesterday in the Form Sent to Lansing, Giving the City Twelve Wards.

IT WILL DOUBTFULY BE EQUALLY WELL IN THE SENATE.

St. Patrick's Day Observance in Ishpeming—An Aged Lady Pays the Debt of Nature—New Herman Sons Lodge.

PASSED THE HOUSE.

Special telegrams were received in Ishpeming from Lansing yesterday afternoon by prominent citizens conveying the intelligence that the bill amending the city's charter had passed the house.

Our citizens have been patiently waiting for that message, as the question of a charter revision in this city has aroused unusual interest. There has been a great deal more said regarding the proposed amendment of the Ishpeming charter at other places throughout the state than at Ishpeming, simply because it is thought that the passage of the bill will be the means of removing the county seat from its present location to Ishpeming or Negaunee.

Ishpeming is entitled to all she asks in the way of additional wards simply because she contributes more toward the county and state in the way of taxes than any other city in the county; and because she has the largest number of voters.

Messrs. F. Braastad and H. O. Young have been in Lansing the past week laboring in the interest of the Ishpeming charter amendment bill, while prominent citizens of Marquette have been there also working in the interest of the bill.

Messrs. F. Braastad and H. O. Young regarding the taxes contributed to the state and county every year by the taxpayers of Ishpeming, in comparison with what is paid by the other towns of the county, have had a convincing effect on the house, and doubtless will on the senate.

Observed the Day.

The very appropriate manner in which the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Robert Emmet Light Guards, of Ishpeming, observed St. Patrick's Day is deserving of more than a passing notice. The interest manifested in the celebration of the day was never greater in Ishpeming than it was yesterday.

At 9 o'clock a. m. the Emmett Guards marched two deep from their hall in the convent school building, headed by two drummers, Messrs. C. H. West and Guy Crawford, to the A. O. H. Hall in the Anderson block, where lines were formed and the command was given to march to St. John's Catholic church. The Guards appeared in their new uniforms and presented a fine appearance. The members of the A. O. H. order were their regulars.

At St. John's church Rev. J. A. Keul had everything arranged in the best of order for the reception of the marching column. His address was brief but eloquent. He dwelt upon the life and virtues of St. Patrick and was listened to with the greatest attention by the members of the church assembled.

The music, which consisted of Irish airs, was furnished by Miss Millie Page on the organ and Professor C. D. Crim on the violin, assisted by the full strength of the church choir. The work of the choir was a very pleasing feature of the exercises.

In the evening an entertainment, the program for which was printed in Wednesday's MINING JOURNAL, was rendered at the society's hall and afforded great pleasure to the members of the order and their families. The addresses were excellent and interesting while the musical selections were very pleasing. All things considered, St. Patrick's Day in Ishpeming this year was one that will be long remembered by those who participated in its observance.

Died of Old Age.

Mrs. Fitzgerald resided in Negaunee for a great many years and a short time ago removed to Ishpeming, where she had a son working on the railroad. Her exact age is not known by her relatives or friends but it is supposed that she was over seventy years of age.

Hermann Sons of Menominee.

J. J. Voelker, grand vice president, and T. M. Weiler of the judiciary committee of the Hermann Sons of Michigan, instituted a branch of that order at Menominee Tuesday evening last.

The price cuts no figure. The goods must go and that mightily lively. Call at Caboon's and see what you can save on a pair of boots or shoes. "Clodging out" is what we are doing, and in earnest.

LOOK AT THIS.

On and after today F. Braastad & Co. will sell Pillsbury's Best XXXX flour at $4.90 per barrel.

The sacrifice sale of boots and shoes at Caboon's continues to be as lively as it was the first day the sale was opened.

Ed LaLonde arrived here from Duluth Thursday evening on a visit of a few days to his family in this city.

Mrs. James Connell of Marquette, who has been visiting in Ishpeming the past few days, returned home yesterday.

Wm. Kinsman, manager of the Ishpeming Co-operative society's store, will leave tomorrow for Chicago on a purchasing trip.

Ladies wishing their seal skin cloaks repaired can find a professional furrier at Sellwood's dry goods store on the 23rd and 24th lots.

Fred Collins has five car loads of hay on the tracks in Ishpeming that can be bought cheap. If you want hay at a bargain call on Fred.

Mrs. P. Jaedecke will start keeping boarders April 1st. She guarantees first-class accommodations. For particulars see Mrs. Jaedecke at 217 W. Ridge street.

Arthur Noval, the shoemaker, is confined to his home by sickness, consequently his place of business will be closed for a few days until he is able to get out again.

Mrs. Mills, who has been visiting at Marquette the past week, accompanied him home.

Rev. J. H. Green, of the Calvary Baptist church, this city, will fill the pulpit of the Baptist church at Marquette at the morning services tomorrow in the absence of Rev. Waterman, the pastor.

The morning services at the Calvary Baptist church tomorrow will be entirely devoted to the children. Sabbath school at 11:45. In the evening at 7 p. m. the pastor's theme will be the "Ups and Downs of David."

A. Kroghdahl, blacksmith for the Dead River Milling company, has been transferred from the company's camps north of Ishpeming, to Marquette, where the company is doing work. He left here yesterday afternoon.

In the publication of the cast of characters for the drama "Little Emily" in yesterday's issue the name of Miss Mullins in the roll of Mrs. Grummidge was unintentionally omitted. Miss Ellen Urghart will take the part of "Martha" instead of Mrs. Grummidge, as given yesterday.

Severe Anderson, who left Ishpeming a few months ago for Norway, has been heard from. "Seve" says the farm that he expected his father would leave him when he died has been left to another son that he has been left out in the cold, so it were, as far as the family estate is concerned.

A New Telephone Receiver.

There are few things more tiresome or irritating than the holding of a telephone receiver to the ear. A Canadian inventor, with a view of relieving this discomfort, has designed an air-cushion made of soft rubber, which is fitted over the end of the telephone receiver.

Give Good Tea.

It is related of Lord Lyndhurst that when some one asked him how he should succeed in life he said, "Give good wine." Talleyrand would have said, "Give good dinners," and Napoleon I would have said that is the reason one tolerates Talleyrand.

A King's Neat Retort.

To remove the hat in the presence of a sovereign is an old mark of respect. Most of us are familiar with the story of the interview of Fox, the Quaker, and Charles II. The latter, upon observing that the former kept his hat on, promptly removed his own.

RED JACKET.

The weather was all that could be desired yesterday for those who turned out to celebrate St. Patrick's day. Appropriate mottoes were hung across the principal street and several merchants had their show windows decorated. The Ancient Order of Hibernians attended solemn high mass at the church of the Sacred Heart in the morning. At 1:30 o'clock the society, headed by the Fifth Regiment band, went to the Hecla & Torch Lake crossing to receive the Lake Linden division of the Hibernians. The two societies then paraded through the principal streets of the city. A matinee was given the children in the Opera House during the afternoon. The societies presented a fine appearance. They were under the marshmanship of John R. Ryan with Jerry L. Sullivan, J. Dunnigan and J. B. O'Neill as aids. An interesting lecture was given in the evening by John H. Vaughan, his subject being "Ireland's Wrongs and Glories."

There was a large attendance at the Macabees entertainment at Odd Fellows' Hall Thursday evening and the members felt flattered over its success. Fred Danielson officiated as stage manager. P. Willis Jr.'s elocutionary abilities were well displayed in the "First Adventure in England" and "Timothy Dooley's Will." The vocalists were Mrs. Trewartha, the James sisters, Miss Grace Chelley and Miss Granville, also W. C. Kinsman and John C. Glasgow. The latter conducted the minstrel band very finely.

John Anderson of North Tamarack was taken to the county jail yesterday to await trial on a charge of bastardy brought against him by Mary Karala.

J. C. Dunstan of Dollar Bay was in the city on business yesterday.

HANCOCK. St. Patrick's Day was celebrated in true Irish style. In the morning at 9 o'clock the different societies attended high mass at St. Patrick's church. At 2:30 in the afternoon there was a parade of the Irish societies, consisting of Division No. 1, Ancient Order Hibernians, Company A, Hibernian Rifles, and St. Patrick's Benevolent society. The Rifles turned out in uniform and went through the military maneuvers in good style and received much praise from the spectators. In the evening St. Patrick's Hall was packed to its utmost capacity. Hon. John Power delivered a very stirring address and was loudly applauded. The singing by Miss Gaffney was very much enjoyed and she was recalled a number of times. The other members of the program were well rendered. The evening program was thoroughly enjoyed and the large audience went home well pleased.

Miss Gaffney of Negaunee arrived at noon yesterday in time to participate in the entertainment in the evening.

The curtain recently painted by Hans Busch and placed in St. Patrick's Hall was used for the first time last evening. It is a fine piece of work. Mr. Busch is now busy on his Calumet contract.

The monthly meeting of the members of the Y. M. C. A. was well attended and a fine program was rendered.

Houghton. The concert given last evening by the ladies of St. Ignatius' church was very largely attended, over one hundred and fifty seats being sold in advance. The lecture on "Hibernianism" by Rev. Fr. Manning was well delivered and was enjoyed very much. The drama was a very pleasing affair, all the performers taking their parts well.

Another party of about twenty-five or thirty will leave for North Galveston on the 22nd with G. A. Hurd.

The repairs on the electric light engine house were finished yesterday and both cities were again lighted last night.

Captain Johnson Vivian returned home yesterday noon.

Joseph Seifer and John Schultz left yesterday noon for a short vacation in the World's Fair city.

Orders for G. A. Watts, the piano tuner, can be left at Quirk's jewelry store.

I. D. Hanscom of Marquette made a flying business trip to this city Thursday coming up at noon and returning the same evening.

The second year class of the Mining school will visit the Franklin mine today.

JACOBVILLE. Between 3 and 4 o'clock Wednesday morning the saloon and residence of Frank Feeleau was entirely consumed by fire. The origin of the fire is unknown. The insurance is reported to be $1,000. The loss is probably much more as nothing of value, save a few trunks and some bed clothing, was saved.

Rev. Father Gerard of Chassel held services at the school house Wednesday morning.

How Savages Walk.

Savages always walk with their toes turned in, for two reasons. In the first place, the foot naturally falls in that position when it has never been confined by boots or the ankles distorted by high heels. In the long stride of the savage the leg swings freely like a pendulum round the center of gravity, which is somewhere between it and the other leg. In the swing the abductor muscles of the inside of the thigh bring the sole of the foot under the center of gravity, and in doing so slightly rotate the foot toward the inner line, turning it and remarkably self-poised is the result of the natural position of the foot in the case of the savage, for he has to do much walking through long grass and undergrowth in forests.

A moment's reflection will show how very much his progress would be impeded if he turned his toes out to catch these obstacles instead of brushing them aside and outward as he now does. Lastly, the savage uses his foot much more as a help to his hands than we do, and it is obvious that in doing this he must turn his toes in.—Yankee Blade.

Behavior of Children.

A New York woman spending several weeks in a European hotel, where the windows of her room opened on a gallery that was common to the entire floor, noticed the difference between the English children romping there all day and some American children who called it for a play-day. The English youngsters called and laughed without the shrill screams and noise of her little compatriots, and in running by her windows the former never thought of looking in, while the latter Americans frequently stopped and stared in pleased curiosity at her movements.

The system of the English household teaches the children to respect the rights of others, the reverse of which is a great fault of American children. With a little more of this courtesy the world would hold no peer of the American child, whose beauty and remarkable self-poise is the result of his composite heritage from all nationalities.—New York Times.

ENTIRELY SATISFACTORY.

W. J. Arkell, publisher of Judge and Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, writes: JUDGE BUILDING, Cor. Fifth and Sixteenth streets, New York, Jan. 14, 1891.

"About three weeks since, while suffering from a severe cold which had settled on my chest, I applied an Alcock's Peruvia plaster and in a short time obtained relief."

"In my opinion these plasters should be in every household for use in case of colds, coughs, sprains, bruises or pains of any kind. I know that in my case the results have been entirely satisfactory and beneficial."

THE MANHARD-JOPLING CO.

A Consolidation of Marquette's Largest Heavy and Shelf Hardware Companies.

THE CHANGE WILL TAKE PLACE ON JUNE 1.

THE DEAL CLOSED YESTERDAY.

Yesterday the details of the most important business consolidation Marquette has known in years were arranged, the deal giving Marquette by far the largest and strongest heavy and shelf hardware concern in northern Michigan. By its terms the Manhard Hardware company, limited, formed two years ago by the consolidation of the business of David H. Jerome & Co. of Saginaw with that of M. R. Manhard of this city, and the Jopling Hardware company, formed by the consolidation of the establishments of A. O. Jopling & Co. and White, Packard & Co., later the Jopling Hardware company, will be merged on and after June 1.

The Manhard company has a capital stock of $5,000. The new corporation, which will be known as the Manhard-Jopling company, limited, will have a capitalization of $100,000 and will have as its first board of managers Hon. D. H. Jerome, Hon. Peter White, A. O. Jopling, M. R. Manhard and E. A. Moye. M. R. Manhard will be the chairman of the company, E. A. Moye secretary and Hon. Peter White treasurer. The new company will occupy the Manhard block, now occupied by the warehouses on Lake street now used by the separate firms. It is understood that Mr. Moye will be manager of the business.

Both companies have been carrying very heavy stocks and from this date on will begin preparing for the consolidation. The change will be a splendid thing in many ways as the new corporation will be able to cover the whole peninsula as well as the separate companies did while the expense of carrying on the business will be very appreciably diminished. It will also combine under the one management the agencies for the leading makes of pumps, wire cable, rubber goods and mining, manufacturing and lumbering supplies of every description, both firms having carried about $100,000 worth of goods of this description when the stock carried on manufacturers' account was figured in. The Jopling company is the oldest concern of the kind on the upper peninsula, being the immediate successor to James Pickands & Co. The Manhard company has done a steadily increasing business since its organization and together the two, as the Manhard-Jopling company, will make the fur fly all through this upper country. Governor Jerome, who has been in the city for several days on business connected with the consolidation, left for home last night.

Though occupying the Manhard block, the finest for this line of goods on the peninsula, the company will be crowded for room and it wouldn't be surprising if before very long it found it necessary to put up a big building of its own.

At the Opera House.

The Theatre Royal company, which appears at the Marquette Opera House in a week's engagement, beginning Monday evening, its first upper peninsula appearance, will open with "Rob Roy" instead of "The New World" as first announced. All the plays in its repertoire are said to be entirely new here and the week is expected to give great pleasure to Marquette theatre-goers.

During the week the company will give away three gold watches, purchased at Conklin's, the first on Monday evening, the second on Wednesday evening and the third on Saturday evening, numbered coupons being given throughout the week good for the drawing on any of the three nights.

The sale of seats will begin at the opera house box office this morning at 9:30 o'clock, popular prices prevailing for the week, balcony, 25 cents, parquette 35 cents, divans 50 cents.

A Short-sighted Polity.

Some people take delight in biting off their own noses to spite the rest of their physiognomy when they get a chance and if reports which reach THE MINING JOURNAL are not at fault some of the residents of Crescent street are about to make a spectacle of themselves in this very direction. Powell & Mitchell, the breakwater contractors, are doing a grand work for the city in tearing down the big bluffs on North Front street to obtain rock for their breakwater extension and are greatly adding to the value of adjoining property. Last fall the council granted them permission to build a railroad track from the bluff around to the breakwater, under proper restrictions, for the easy and economical removal of the rock, rightly judging that the city should do everything in its power to facilitate the removal of those bluffs. Now these shortsighted individuals are hatching up a scheme to contest in the courts the right of the contractors to lay any such track down their street even though they know that it would be only a temporary affair. The material for the road is all ready and it has been the intention to put it in just as soon as the final spring break-up came and ended the sleighing.

THE MINING JOURNAL is confident that the great body of citizens of Marquette, proud of the fact that home-contrators captured the big breakwater job and well aware of the benefit they are conferring in the removal of the Front street bluffs, will roundly denounce any attempt to embarrass them, especially in such a manner as is threatened by these parties, who propose to carry the matter up to the supreme court, well aware that any such delay as they would cause if they were able to fulfil their threat would be ruinous to the contractors.

The road as laid out would not traverse a single well settled street, would not interfere in any way with the business or pleasure of citizens generally and would not injure any man's property one cent's worth. However, if the obstructionists really attempt to carry out their program it is suggested that the people on Ohio street east of Pine street would be only too glad to have the contractors tackle the great bluff on that street and would be willing to see a dozen tracks put in if necessary as long as that obstruction was removed, enabling them to have the street opened though to its natural length at a reasonable cost; as the contractors seriously thought of one thing of getting their rock from that place it may be that they will decide to change even at this hour.

The only amusing feature in the whole mulish business is the fact that Mr. Powell, who now stands in danger of having his own little railroad joined, was one of those who caused the annoying and expensive delay to the street railway company last fall by the injunction proceedings which, though knocked higher than the late Mr. Gilderoy's kite by Judge Stone when he finally got a crack at them, resulted in the company being unable to complete its Third ward loop before the frost got into the ground and thereby shut it out of a large amount of business which would have fallen to it had it been able to operate the full loop line during the winter. It is another illustration of the fact that street railroading of any description is often ticklish business, only in this case the alderman from the Third is likely to appreciate the situation more keenly than he and the other "signers" probably did last fall. But while the street railway company will probably refer Mr. Powell jokingly to the Shakespearean quotation relative to the "whirligig of time" THE MINING JOURNAL trusts that he will come out of the legal battle, if the threat need issue is ever joined, with colors flying and with as much cause for feeling good-natured over the affair as did the M. C. & P. I. company.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Excellent music will be a feature of the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. The male quartette promises to prove an invaluable attraction at the afternoon services hereafter. Mr. B. O. Pearl's address should attract a large attendance.

By mistake the Rev. Mr. Johnson, pastor of the Lutheran church, advertised to speak on March 19. The date fixed for his address is March 26.

The attendance at the business men's gymnasium class yesterday afternoon proves that the advent of spring has had little effect on the enthusiasm of the class.

Convention of Congregational Churches.

For the convention of Congregational churches to be held at Calumet March 28th and 29th, agents of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic R'y have been authorized to make a rate of a fare and a third and issue special tickets from their stations to Houghton and return. Tickets will be sold March 25th to 28th, good for return until March 30th inclusive.

THE KEELEY INSTITUTE.

The Keeley Institute of Menominee, Mich., is an outgrowth of my eleven years' business in Dwight, Ill., and is established especially for the treatment and cure of the opium and liquor habits through the exclusive use of my preparation of double chloride of gold remedies, and as such has my endorsement. The physicians in charge are men of mature years, fine social standing, and regular graduates who have had large experience in their profession and who have identified themselves with this specialty after becoming thoroughly familiar with my methods of treatment through personal instruction at Dwight.

The character and quality of the gentlemen connected with this enterprise are such as to merit the assurance that nothing will be left undone in the conduct of treatment to reach successful results. To the thousands of deserving people who desire to be freed from a death-dealing addiction and restored to the full dignity of manhood and lives of usefulness, I commend, with every anticipation of success, the Keeley Institute of Menominee, Mich.

LESLIE E. KEELEY.

DWIGHT, Ill., March 1, 1893.

TO THE PUBLIC.

For the purpose of extending our usefulness and aiding as far as possible those unable to bear the expense imposed by travel a long distance, we have determined to open a Keeley Institute at Menominee, Mich., April 11, 1893, for the cure of the liquor, opium, morphia, cocaine and kindred habit by the use of Dr. Leslie E. Keeley's double chloride of gold remedies. This is the only place in the upper peninsula of Michigan using the Keeley remedies.

All those interested in the cause of temperance can aid us greatly by sending us names of those in need of our treatment to whom we can send literature.

All correspondence confidential. Address, THE KEELEY INSTITUTE, Menominee, Mich.

Among the strictly truthful advertisements found in the Hotel World is one inserted by Proprietor Volk of the New Clifton, Marquette, which reads: "The best hotel in Marquette, Mich., is the New Clifton."—The Hotel World, Mch. 4, 1893. Rates $2 to $3 per day.

There is no one instrument, unless, indeed, it be a large pipe organ, capable of the variety of effects that are obtainable on the Aeolian. Unlike the pipe organ, however, the Aeolian is adapted to all classes of music; overtures and symphonies can be rendered on it with all the softness and delicacy of the flute and violin and cello and all the snap and brilliancy of the piano. See and hear them at Conklin's.
