WHITE WINGED PEACE.

Marquette County Members Settle Their Little Dispute Over the New Charters.

WAGNER AND JONES AGREE ON A COMPROMISE.

By Which Ishpeming Is to Have Ten Wards and Marquette Is to Rest With Eight.

CHARTER PASSES THE HOUSE.

STATE HOUSE, LANSING, Mich., March 23.—[Special.]—The white dove of peace descended slowly over the seats of Marquette county's representatives in the legislature early this morning and before noon the two were as good friends as before coming to Lansing.

This condition of affairs was effected through the influence of friends of both parties, who suggested a compromise, the basis of which should be that the Ishpeming charter was to be amended in the senate by reducing her wards from twelve to ten, which would be three more than she has at present, and that Marquette's charter should go through the house without amendment and when it reached the senate committee, where the Ishpeming charter is hung up, the chapter creating the new wards be stricken out entirely.

Personally both Jones and Wagner agreed to the terms but Jones would not give his final decision until he had heard from the Ishpeming city officials. While awaiting a reply to his dispatch Jones and Wagner went arm and arm through Representative Hall and assured their friends jointly that they had agreed to let the Marquette charter go through.

Wagner also embraced the opportunity to make up with the Detroit newspaper men, whom he had antagonized ever since he went to Detroit and left Jones to open his mail.

Before the house convened this afternoon Jones received the sanction he had expected and as soon as the roll call was completed Wagner moved a suspension of the rules to take up the Marquette charter bill. The motion prevailed and Jones explained that he was now satisfied to have the bill passed.

On motion of Representative Chamberlain, one of Jones' warmest friends, the clause legalizing the issuance of the water works and electric light bonds authorized by the last legislature, which had been stricken out of the present bill yesterday, was reinstated. The bill was then passed—72 to nothing.

Chairman Weiss of the senate committee which now has Ishpeming and Marquette charter bills says they will report both of them out early tomorrow afternoon with the amendments referred to above.

The territory annexed to Marquette, so as to include the city's electric lighting plant within its limits, is added to the Seventh ward. Both the Marquette and Ishpeming charters will probably reach the governor for signature Saturday.

Yesterday's circus is still the talk of the capital and already a parody on "John Brown's Body" has been written in honor of the occasion with the names of Jones and Wagner cutting quite a figure therein. It is being sung with considerable gusto every few minutes by the legislative choir, which embraces every member and employe of the house.

Among the bills passed today were: Authorizing Menominee to join with Marinette in building a bridge across the Menominee river, which had previously passed the senate; reincorporating Wakefield, Gogebic county, which was given immediate effect; authorizing Ontonagon to issue bonds for $30,000 to establish water works and an electric light plant, also previously passed by the senate; raising the test for illuminating oil to 120 degrees.

In committee of the whole the senate approved the Flesheim bill authorizing a railroad company to sell its property and franchise to another road organized outside the state, which had once before passed through the committee and sent to the senate and then was recalled and referred to the original committee.

Other bills approved in committee of the whole were: Amending the law relative to the voluntary dissolution of corporations and the abatement of suits so as to admit of an appeal from a dissolution; prohibiting circuit judges from practicing as attorneys either in their own or in other circuits.

The most prominent committee report in the house favored the passage of the Gordon bill repealing the mortgage tax law of 1891. It has been made a special order for tomorrow afternoon and will be productive of considerable discussion.

Among those who made arguments before the special committee on taxation today was Charles E. Spencer of Marquette, who had to difficulty in convincing the committee that what he did not know about taxes was not worth anybody's while trying to learn. The house has concurred in the senate amendment fixing May 29 as the day of final adjournment.

MINING MEN'S CONVENTION.

Delegates Visit Several Large Mines and Choose Officers.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., March 23.—[Special.]—This has been a miserable spring day but the delegates to the Lake Superior Miners' convention have enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The morning was spent in the inspection of the pump at the Chapin mine, which is the largest in the west, and the bailing system now in operation at the Hamilton-Ladington mines which were flooded about one year ago and now are being unwatered.

After dinner the delegates boarded a special train and went to Norway and Vulcan where the system of mining used by the Aragon, East and West Vulcan, Curry and Norway mines was inspected, a large number donning suits and going underground. The party returned to Iron Mountain for supper.

The second session was held in Wood's Hall and was full of interest. Mr. Brady of L'Anse addressed the convention briefly, urging the necessity of making a proper exhibit of Michigan minerals at the World's Fair.

De Nelson P. Hulst of Milwaukee was then introduced and read an interesting paper on "The Geology of That Portion of the Menominee Range East of the Menominee River." Maps were shown of the various range mining properties and of the range, showing the geologic formation.

DULL DAY IN THE SENATE.

Crowds of Office Seekers Fill the Capitol Corridors.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—There was a small attendance of senators and only a few people in the galleries from the time of opening today but the crowd in corridors was about as large as usual. Mr. Allen, ex-senator from Washington and now awaiting the decision of the senate upon the questions growing out of his appointment by the governor of that state, was upon the floor conferring with members relative to his case.

Mr. Call offered a resolution in regard to the commission to inquire into the several executive departments of government, which had been the subject of discussion in yesterday's session. The resolution declares that the provision of the appropriation act providing for the appointment of three senators and three representatives of the Fifty-third congress by the presiding officers of the two houses in the Fifty-second congress as such commission is in derogation of the constitutional rights, privileges and prerogatives of each house, is otherwise violative of the constitution and is absolutely null and void.

Mr. Gorman suggested the reference of the resolution to the committee on privileges and elections. Mr. Call said that he preferred to have the resolution printed and laid on the table as he wished to make some observations upon it. It might then be referred to the committee on privileges and elections. That order was made and then the senate proceeded to executive business.

After spending about three-quarters of an hour in executive session the senate adjourned till Monday.

ROBINSON GETS A JOB.

Secretary Morton has appointed Henry A. Robinson of Detroit statistician of the agricultural department, vice J. R. Dodge, resigned. Robinson was labor commissioner of Michigan under Governor Winans. He was backed for the place by Don M. Dickinson and Private Secretary Thurber.

One of the most interesting developments of the day at the White House was that the commissioners of pensions had been offered to ex-Congressman Wheeler of Michigan, and declined. Mr. Wheeler had a long talk with the president yesterday upon the subject and at that conference the offer was made. Mr. Wheeler told Mr. Cleveland that he did not feel himself capable physically of assuming the laborious duties involved in this important position, although he appreciated very highly the compliment.

CALLED UPON THE POPE.

Princess of Wales and Her Children See the Sights.

ROME, March 23.—The princess of Wales and her two daughters Victoria and Maud and the duke of York were received by the pope today. The royal party arrived in Rome on the 20th and visited King Humbert and Queen Margherita. They promised King Humbert and the queen that the duke of York would represent the representative of Queen Victoria on the occasion of the silver wedding of the king and queen of Italy on the 22nd of April. The princess of Wales and her children afterwards went the rounds of the city in conventional tourist fashion, visiting the Coliseum by moonlight, the leading galleries and several of the more celebrated palaces, as well as the Vatican and St. Peter's.

Cardinal Rampolla, papal secretary of state, in behalf of the pope formally returned the visit of the royal party today and in the afternoon the princess of Wales and her children started for Naples and Pompeii. After exploring the ruins of Pompeii they will sail in the yacht Osborne for the Levant.

DELIRIOUS INVALID'S DEED.

Murders His Friend and Drives Latter's Wife Insane.

BLOOMFIELD, Ky., March 23.—Joseph Houston while delirious from pneumonia last night shot and killed Allen Murphy, a business man and his friend. Houston made an attempt on the life of his wife. Her screams attracted Murphy, who was the first to reach Houston's home. As he started towards the sick man Houston drew a revolver and shot him dead. The combined strength of four men was necessary to overpower him after being taken to the hospital he had been the invalid went to sleep. The doctors say Houston will die as a result of the expenditure of strength and exposure.

Mrs. Murphy has become a gibbering idiot and at intervals a raving maniac and for her restraint constant force has to be employed.

STRUNG UP THE MURDERER.

William Frazier Killed His Wife, Her Sister and His Little Child.

ENRAGED PEOPLE SWIFTLY HUNT DOWN THE BRUTE.

Brawny Miners Strung Him Up to the Nearest Tree and Quietly Return to Work.

FOUL DEED SWIFTLY AVENGED.

ALBIA, Ia., March 23.—William Frazier killed his wife and sister-in-law and cut off the leg of his little baby at Hiteman yesterday. Within three hours the murderer had been pursued, captured, beaten nearly to death and hanged to a tree by the infuriated people.

Frazier was forty-five years old and lived at Carbondale. A few days ago his wife left him on account of his drunkenness and abuse, taking her baby to Hiteman to stay with her sister, Mrs. Harry Smith.

Frazier came to Albia Tuesday and went on to Hiteman yesterday. Within ten minutes after he arrived he the terrible deed was committed. Finding the residence of Mrs. Smith he walked in and plunged a knife into his wife's heart, struck his sister-in-law in the breast, killing her almost instantly, and then cut off the leg of his babe.

Neighbors heard the disturbance and instantly gave pursuit to Frazier, who had made for the woods. After about two hours exciting chase by nearly all the citizens of the town he was caught and turned over to the deputy sheriff, who undertook to bring him to this place.

Step by step the officer and his prisoner advanced and Frazier felt somewhat encouraged, feeling the jail might possibly be reached before the mob could make up its mind what to do. His feeling of security was of short duration for soon a brawny miner stepped up to Deputy Lewis and said gruffly:

"We want this man!"

"He is in the hands of the law, and you can't have him," responded the deputy.

No other words were spoken, for the miners sprang upon the officer, and tore his prisoner from him. Although the deputy fought manfully he was like a straw in a whirlwind.

Frazier gave vent to despairing shrieks and prayers, intermingled with curses, but they were unheeded. The mob, quiet a minute before, was suddenly transformed into a pack of demons and in its anger nearly tore the wretched murderer to pieces.

As he was dragged along the ground his executioners kicked and beat him with fists and feet and every imaginable weapon. When he at last reached the tree that was to serve as his gibbet he was nearly dead. In an instant a rope was tied around the neck of the wretch and he was swinging from a limb.

As soon as it was certain he was dead the mob quietly dispersed and the miners went to work again as coolly as though nothing had happened, leaving the bruised and mangled corpse hanging in its rags like some ghastly fruit upon the tree.

BERING SEA ARBITRATION.

Nearly All the Representatives Are Now in Paris.

PARIS, March 23.—The work of the Bering Sea arbitration had its actual beginning today and the presence of almost all the representatives of the parties warrants the assumption that the matter will be soon brought to a definite conclusion. The latest to arrive are Messrs H. W. Blodgett, Fredrick R. Couderc and James C. Carter, who will act as advisory counsel of the United States. Among others here expected are ex-Secretary of State Foster of the United States; Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court, the American arbitrator; Marquis Visconti Venosta, the Italian arbitrator; Baron Alfonse de Concel, the French arbitrator; C. H. Tupper, Canadian minister of marine and fisheries, here as British agent; J. T. Williams, counsel for the United States; Sir Richard Webster and Sir Charles Russell, counsel for Great Britain; Judge Gram of the Christiana supreme court, the Swedish arbitrator and Mr. De Velle.

MOTHER MANDELAUM DEAD.

Noted Receiver of Stolen Goods Ends Her Criminal Career.

NEW YORK, March 23.—"Mother" Mandalaum, the noted "fence" and accomplished criminal, is dead. For nearly nine years she had lived like a princess in Canada where she found refuge when she fled from this city, leaving her bondsmen in the lurch. "Mother" Mandalaum was the most notorious "fence" this country has ever known. In her time she received millions of dollars worth of stolen property and was personally known to every noted thief in America and Europe.

TESTING THE VAGRANT LAW.

Missouri's Peculiar Statute to Be Tried in the Courts.

MEXICO, Mo., March 23.—The sale of the negro Joe Thompson today was stopped by habeas corpus proceedings instituted by G. o. e. Robtson, an attorney of this city, who will probably test the constitutionality of the vagrant law of this state. The habeas corpus case will be heard next Thursday by Judge Edwards.

MARQUETTE, MICH., MARCH 24.

Entered as mailmatter of the second class
in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

IT IS BETTER THUS.

As will be seen from dispatches printed elsewhere, the wrangle over the charters for this city and Ishpeming which developed in the legislature has been amicably ended by an adjustment that leaves Marquette the same number of wards as before and gives Ishpeming
ten, an increase of three for that city, instead of five, as asked for.

This settlement of the matter is entirely satisfactory to the people of Marquette, who have no desire to have the number of wards increased, and ought to be so to the people of Ishpeming, who are given wards enough to secure them what they have claimed they were seeking—representation on the county board proportioned to the population of their city and the share of the county taxes that it is called on to pay.

THE MINING JOURNAL has not approved of the proposed increase of wards for Marquette, holding that it would operate to give us a cumbersome council and to considerably increase election expenses, etc. We are therefore greatly pleased that an adjustment has been arrived at by which the wards remain as before, and feel confident that the representation which this city will have on the next board will be found ample for the protection of Marquette's interests provided the right men are elected to serve as supervisors this spring.

The squabble has been a senseless
one, in THE MINING JOURNAL's opinion, and it is to be regretted that it was allowed to reach the legislature. It has put both cities to some expense, and to very little purpose, for the agreement that was reached at Lansing could easily have been made at home if representatives of the two cities had been chosen to adjust their relative representation on the county board on an equitable basis, the conference taking place at some neutral point in the county, say Eagle Mills, where local sentiment would not operate for or against either city's interests.

A LATE number of The Engineering and Mining Journal has this piece of distracting information concerning the Republic mine:

The machinery of this mine is to be transferred from its old grounds on the Marquette range to the new Mesaba. The difficulty is, it is stated, that while the ore
has been of fair quality, it had to be mined under pumps and at a depth of several hundred feet, and it could not hope to compete with the new Mesaba, where the ore is superior to that of the old Republic, and more easily mined, besides. As a result,
the stockholders, who comprise Cleveland,
Chicago and Detroit capitalists, have decided to abandon the old mine, where it costs $2 to produce a ton of ore, and move their plant to Mesaba, where better ore can be mined for fifty or seventy-five cents a ton. A site has been purchased, and the removal will soon be made. By it the town of Republic, Mich., with a population of about 12,000, will be left with nothing to support it.

As we do not exchange with the pretentious vehicle of mis-information in which the above originally appeared it would have escaped the editor's notice
had it not been that the Escanaba Iron Port "caught onto" and commented on it tartly, remarking that "the impudence of calling the Mesaba ores better than the Republic is only matched by the ignorance of the facts in the case" displayed by the Engineering and Mining Journal. It is hardly necessary for this paper to explain that the Republic company has not decided to do any of the things it is alleged to about to do in the paragraph reprinted from the Engineering, etc. And Republic has never claimed quite as large a population as that publication generously accords it. The Engineering, etc., is a massive fraud.

We take this interesting article on copper production from the Boston Transcript of the 20th:

In the consideration of the figures of production of copper in the United States in January and February in Friday's Transcript, the full facts were not shown.
It seems that the monthly statements include copper produced in this country from imported ores, pyrites, etc. For the two months this copper was about one-eighth of the whole output. Our figures were given in pounds, and it may not be uninteresting to give complete figures of production under the agreement between foreign and domestic producers in long tons, of 2,240 pounds.

	Jan. 1 to Feb. 28	Feb. 29
Reporting mines in U. S.	8,313	17,400
Pyrites and outside sources	1,042	2,031
Total, United States	9,355	19,431
Total	16,017	31,929
Exports from U.S. (fine cop'r)	1,815	4,986
The two months' production in the United States of 19,431 long tons is equiva- lent to 43,325,440 pounds. In 1892 the total product of the year was 333,380,000 pounds. This was at the rate of 27,948,333 pounds per month, or 55,896,666 pounds for two months. Thus in the first two months of 1893 the United States output of copper appears to have been reduced by over twenty million pounds, or by twenty-two percent. At the rate of January and Feb- ruary products, we should have for 1893 a total of about 261,000,000 pounds, or 74,000, 000 pounds less than in 1892. A year ago we were having a strong market for copper, which rose during March from 10 1/2 to 12 1/2 cents per pound for lake ingot. This was accompanied by material strength in copper shares. As the annual reports of Lake Superior Mining companies show, the price received for their copper in 1892 ranged from 11 1/4 to 11.9 cents, the average being just above 11 1/4 cents (11.547 cents, to be exact) for five mines. Even on the present quiet market, a better price than this is realized, enough better, probably, to offset decreased production. Of course, it is more profitable for the companies to make less copper at a higher selling price than more copper at a lower price. Now if United States production is to be reduced by anything like twenty per cent. or so from the 1892 total, it is not reasonable to expect that there must be an improved demand later on as stocks of the metal get low and as monetary conditions improve.

The year began with stocks on hand 30-40,000,000 pounds less than at the beginning of 1892. Exports thus far this year have been less than last year, by nearly five million pounds. At this rate, the year's exports would be about thirty million pounds less.
The matter, then, summarizes thus: Production, seventy-four million pounds less;
stocks at beginning of year twenty million pounds less; total, ninety-four million pounds less. Contra, decreased exports by thirty millions; net decrease in supply, sixty-four million pounds. Of course,
these figures are mere approximations,
based on only two months' results, but it is quite evident that it is not going to take much improvement in demand for copper to harden the price materially.

THE discussion of the Marquette and Ishpeming charters in the legislature took the best part of two days time and cost the state a pretty penny. The two cities were the only places in the state in any manner affected by the changes considered. Other charter revisions have taken a large share of the time of the legislature thus far during the session, and the trouble over special legislation for municipal corporations is not yet ended. The fact serves to illustrate the disadvantage to the taxpayers of the state at large of having cities incorporated under special charters instead of under a general law. If the latter plan of incorporation should be adopted it would operate well in another respect. A city once incorporated would then be obliged to work under municipal regulations that would not be subject to constant change, as is now the case, and a vast amount of useless charter tinkering would thereby be avoided. It is hard to see why the simpler and better plan of incorporation for cities is not adopted, but perhaps the legislature is not well inclined toward it for the reason that it would, if adopted, materially shorten the sessions and thereby limit
the period for which the members draw their per diem.

CLEVELAND is making haste very slowly in the matter of putting Democrats into places held by Republicans.
Meanwhile the business of the nation is being transacted with neatness and dispatch, but that brings no consolation to the chaps who are waiting to get in.
The president, being comfortably installed in office, can well be more patient than those heirs expect-tant of fat places that they regard as theirs by right of conquest who are not yet permitted to enter upon and enjoy them. There will be a howl go up soon unless an accelerated motion is given the decapitating machinery.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED
by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition
of the mucous surfaces.
We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

SIDE OF THE ENGINEERS.

Chief Arthur Makes Public His Version of the Ann Arbor Engineers' Strike.

SAYS THAT DUE NOTICE WAS GIVEN THE ROAD

If Men Cannot Quit Without Notice They Ought Not to Be Discharged Without Notice.

ANN ARBOR ROAD HAS NO HEAD.

CLEVELAND, March 23.—Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has deemed it advisable to set before the public in an official communication the position which the brotherhood occupies in the Ann Arbor strike. Mr. Arthur's statement is as follows:

"After reading the various comments and criticisms in the different papers on the Toledo, Ann Arbor & Northern Michigan strike and Judge Rick's decision I feel compelled to state my side of the story.

"In the first place I find it very hard to make the public understand that I do not order any stoppage of work and could not if I wanted to. The men themselves vote upon it and if a majority decides to stop work of course it is done. In all cases where the engineers and firemen have a contract with railway companies we have no trouble and find it much the best way to do.

"The great trouble has been that on some few roads, on the small roads especially, there is an effort or a disposition to take advantage of the men in making them work for less wages and giving no pay for over-time. In the last case every honorable effort was made to adjust the difficulty, but without success.

"It is said that the men stopped work without giving notice, which is not true, as I myself addressed a letter to General Manager Ashley of the Toledo, Ann Arbor & Northern Michigan road informing him that his engineers and firemen had determined to leave his service at 6 a. m. Wednesday, March 8, thus giving him ample time to decide whether he would grant the reasonable request of his men or not.

"Mr. Ashley, the general manager, when I informed him that I would appeal to his father, the president, remarked:

"He is an old man. He does not know whether I am paying two cents a mile or $2 and must not be disturbed."

"If there had been a head to the Ann Arbor road that believed in living and letting live we would not have had trouble, but so long as this grinding process is carried on by the railways just so long will be there trouble.

"An engineer's life is a hard one at best. He must report for duty many times when not fairly able to do so or lose his situation and if he is a man of family it is not an easy thing to do. Besides, many times the men are made examples of to gratify the petty spite of a superintendent or master mechanic and are removed on the slightest pretext.

"It does not take some men long to forget that they came from a switchman's to a superintendent's position or from a wiper to a master mechanic.

"All the engineers and firemen ask is fair pay, and there will be no trouble. If men are not at liberty to quit work at any time it suits their convenience, then certainly the same rule will apply to railway companies and will deny them the right to discharge a man at any time they choose without consulting his convenience or comfort.

"We are at any time ready to subscribe to any rule that will apply alike to employer and employee.

P. M. ARTHUR, Chief Engineer, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

THEY HAD RESIGNED.

Defense of Lake Shore Engineers in Ann Arbor Case.

TOLEDO, March 23.—The Lake Shore engineers were on the stand as witnesses for the defense in the Ann Arbor strike trial today. It was the intention of their attorneys to show that when they refused to handle Ann Arbor cars they were not like St. Louis employees, having previously resigned. The engineers all testified to the same thing, that they knew nothing of the court's orders and were not aware that there were any Ann Arbor cars in the trains they were asked to haul. On several occasions during the morning the court room broke into applause when witnesses stated that they would not become scabs. Judge Rick's number of times threatened to eject any one making such demonstrations.

MUST SHOW HIS FITNESS.

"Influence" Fails to Induce Carlisle to Wive Examination.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—Secretary Carlisle evidently intends to support President Cleveland's civil service policy as strongly as possible. This was shown by his emphatic refusal to appoint a special agent for the department at $6 a day until the applicant had passed an examination showing his fitness for the position. He took this action in spite of the fact that an influential senator earnestly requested that no examination be required.

Postmaster General Bissell stated today that no editor was placed under an iron-clad rule. "If a postmaster chooses to sit up until late in the night writing editorials," he said, "we certainly will not object, nor will we if a postmaster writes anything after office hours for a weekly paper."

Dressing So as to Keep Warm.

The woman who wears warm, loose gloves, carries a muff and wears warm overshoes in which her little squeezed feet cannot get cold will keep warm these cold days, and what is more important, will keep a nice complexion and not have a red nose unless she always has one."

It was a fashionable woman who made this positive statement, and she continued: "I know you wonder why I do not say undershirts too. That is because it is wiser for women who in the evening are going to wear an evening gown requiring the omission of almost all underwear to wear only very light underwear above the waist at all times. When they go out they can make up the difference by wraps. Below the waist it is different, and the needed even temperature should be maintained by good, warm wool or silk next the skin. But there are those who think such wear makes them bulky, and for those foolish folks there is only red noses."

"If you keep hands, feet, wrists and knees warm the circulation will be good, and you are going to be not only fairly comfortable, but your skin will be clear and evenly colored, as it cannot be if the blood gets cold and sluggish in the ears. Now all which is better, more important, a nice clear winter or a figure less than a half inch slender than if you were warmly dressed. If the figure is more important, still knee muffs, warm knits, and that fit over the knees as wristlets over the wrists and keep them warm, and at the same time give support, that is a comfort when the ground is slippery."

Fought the Fire Instead of Trying to Escap.

FIREHOUSEVILLE, Ind., March 23.—Fire broke out in the shop of the Craggett Saddle company in the east wing of the state prison at 11:30 o'clock this morning and that portion of the prison was soon in ruins. The fire then spread to the tailor shop and dining rooms and was soon beyond the control of the Jeffersonville fire department. Engines sent over from Louisville and the flames were confined to the east wing. The loss $75,000—$25,000 to the state and $50,000 to the Craggett company, which carried $25,000 insurance. The convicts made no attempt to create a panic and escape. All of them turned to and assisted the firemen greatly by the use of buckets.

CAUGHT IN A FIRE TRAP.

Five Women and a Baby Suffocated in the Morgan Flats, Cleveland.

ONE OF THE WOMEN WAS BLIND AND HELPLESS.

Frightful fatalities in a Fashionable Apartment House—Indiana Convicts Are Very Well Disciplined.

FIVE WOMEN SUFFOCATED.

CLEVELAND, March 23.—Fire broke out in the Morgan, a fashionable apartment house on Prospect street near Granger, shortly before noon today. Before help arrived the building was enveloped in flames and smoke and a terrible panic ensued. Five women and a baby were burned to death and several others were more or less suffocated in the smoke.

The house was a handsome one of three stories. A central hall runs through the building with rooms on either side. The only escape was by the front stairs. People in the third story had no time to gather their goods together and before they were aware of any fire they were surrounded by flames and smoke. The scene was a terrible one and the excitement and consternation of those in safety and unable to aid the suffocating women was great.

The body of the first woman was that of Mrs. Somers, a blind lady who had groped down the stairs only to die at her foot. Three other women with the little child were all found lying on the floor of the second story front hall dead, suffocated by the smoke. Their bodies are huddled together but it was evident from their positions that they died without pain.

The fire started in the basement. The building is a total loss. The names of four of the victims have been learned, as follows:

MRS. MARY E. ABBEY, widow of Judge Abbey, aged 65 years.

MRS. SOMERS, a blind woman, aged 40 years.

MRS. MESSIE HUNT, a daughter of Mrs. Somers.

INFANT DAUGHTER of Mrs. Hunt.

The bodies of two other women, at present unknown, have been taken from the ruins.

After the fire started Mrs. Somers and Mrs. Abbey were seen at a front window in the vain endeavor to escape the deadly flames. Mrs. Somers then left the window to go her room for her pocketbook. When she returned she struck the window. The flying glass struck her face and she fell back out of view and was seen no more. Mrs. Abbey fell shortly afterwards, overcome by the smoke.

True as Preaching.

What is the use of worrying at what angle a chair stands in the room, so long as the chair is a comfortable chair? I have known a poor tired woman to walk upstairs and down stairs and into every room in the house simply to make sure that every shade was pulled just so far down in each window, so that it would look nice from the outside; then she was too tired to go out that afternoon. Was it worth while? Hardly. True, there are some people who are never so lumpy as when they are miserable, and are never so content as when they are finding fault.

Have we not known housewives, blessed among women, who, when they cleaned their homes, were never so writhed as when they could not get more than half a dustpan full of dirt after sweeping a room? Rip Van Winkle's wife burst a blood vessel in scolding the peddler who crossed the freshly sanded floor. She cared about the floor; the peddler didn't. She died; the peddler lived. —Eliza D. Keith.

The Leaflets Were Popular.

There is a story of an officer in command of a troopship who, having embraced a somewhat sensational form of religious belief himself, was active in distributing tracts setting forth these views among his men. To his extreme gratification these leaflets were received with thankfulness and even asked for. So great indeed was the "run" on these special publications that the amateur missionary's stock was soon exhausted, and he had to fall back upon a collection of less exciting religious literature.

"These tracts are not equal to the old ones," remarked the officer as he dealt them out to the sergeant. "I dare say the men find the difference." "Yes, sir, indeed that's" was the prompt reply. "There never was such good paper for piglights as the first lot made, them others ain't to be named with them." —Manchester Times.

He Had Been There Before.

"Lay off your overcoat. You won't feel it when you go out," remarked the proprietor of a Park row restaurant to an infrequent customer one evening during a cold spell.

"That's just the reason that I keep it on," replied the other. "The last one I took off here I have never felt or seen since," and with these words he buttoned his coat tightly around his form and pointed to the glazed sign on the wall, which read: "The proprietor is not responsible for overcoats or umbrellas lost or stolen." —New York Herald.

Courage In Elephants.

An elephant with a good malout gives perhaps the best instance of disciplined courage—courage, that is, which persists in the face of knowledge and disinclination—to be seen in the animal world. They will submit day after day to have painful wounds dressed in obedience to their keeper and meet danger in obedience to orders, though their intelligence is sufficient to understand the peril and far too great for a man to trick them into a belief that it is nonexistent.

No animal will face danger more readily at man's bidding.—London Spectator.

ALABASTINE

"It won't rub off."

EVERYBODY knows that wall paper, with its vegetable past and its coloring animal glue, is unsanitary and that to apply repeated layers of such is a "nasty practice," as well as dangerous. Kalsomin is temporary, rots, runs off and scales; paint stops "wall respiration" needed to purify walls. Send for a paper from Michigan State Board of Health reports on this subject, recommending Church's Alabastine and plastic only for walls of dwellings.

Alabastine forms pure, permanent and porous coatings, and does not require to be taken off to renew from time to time; is a dry powder, ready for use by adding water (the latest make is used in COLD water and is never sold in bulk); can be easily brushed on by one; made in white and twelve fashionable tints, and in three shades, from which decorators make the balance of forty shades shown on their card.

Miss Foster, daughter of the secretary of the treasury, has great ability as a decorator of china, in which branch of art she has attained such proficiency as to warrant the building of a kiln at her own home in Ohio. Miss Foster is an enthusiast in her work and attends to every detail of firing each piece as it is finished, never seeming to tire of even the most uninteresting or laborious details.

Belgium is agitated over an invasion of political women under the name of the Belgian League for the Rights of Women. The Italian minister is a great champion of women's rights, and is present at the meetings of the society. It seems to be an unwritten law nowadays that there should be at least six cushions to each sofa, and as many more as the accommodation warrants. Silver name checks to attach to traveling bags are shown among new things in small silver. These make a pretty gift for either a man or a woman.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

A PRINCESS WHO IS REGARDED AS A CRANK AND A NUISANCE.

New Ideas for Fairs-Dressing So as to Keep Warm-Mme. de Lesseps and Her Family-Trouble with Dress Reform. She Catches Fish for a Living. Princess Theresia of Bavaria, who has just been elected a member of the Royal Academy of Science at Munich, is the first woman to be admitted to that institution, which is one of the most ancient and important in Europe, equal in rank and prestige to the French academy.

Princess Theresia is a daughter of the prince regent of Bavaria and one of the most remarkable women of the kingdom. While it is impossible to deny that she is very accomplished and clever, she possesses more than the ordinary share of the eccentricity which usually accompanies genius.

Strong minded, unprepossessing and masculine in appearance, always dressed in the most extraordinary fashion and with the most antiquated and dowdy of hats, she looks anything but a royal princess, and as she is accustomed to travel about the world with a very small suite, she has frequently been exposed to adventures and treatment the reverse of pleasant. Indeed on several occasions she has actually been turned out of hotels where she has been staying, the lack of hospitality on the part of the bonifaces being due to her mania for having pet animals with her.

Like Sarah Bernhardt, she has always a number of wild beasts and noisy birds in her train, and on one occasion she arrived at Madrid from South America with a young puma, three monkeys, several parrots and a couple of pet snakes. Naturally hotels are disinclined to receive guests of this character, all the more when their owners happen to be as close fisted and as cautious in money matters as in her royal highness.

The princess has traveled all over South America and has spent a considerable time in this country incognito. Indeed she is always traveling about, being the most restless creature that it is possible to conceive. She has written several very remarkable works on Brazil and on Russia, and has published her impressions concerning the United States. As a rule she is not popular among the reigning families of Europe, who regard her both as a crank and as a nuisance.

A novel form of entertainment which does not require elaborate preparations is a clipping party. Ropes are stretched from end to end of the room, each line having a price fixed upon it. All the contributions are wrapped so as to conceal their contents and suspended by strings from the lines at a height which will bring them within easy reach. The packages are arranged according to their value on the five, ten or twenty-five cent line. The young ladies who preside over the entertainment are provided with scissors, and the would be purchasers are allowed to clip any parcel from the row by paying the required price.

The humble snapdragon may introduce a novelty as a substitute for the grab bag. Have a large wooden hoop suspended from the ceiling with parcels tied all around it. The hoop is made to revolve, and while it is in motion an attempt is made to cut off one of the packages. If each table is trimmed in the color of the flower or fruit chosen for its emblem the result will be a perfect rainbow of color. If preferable the artificial fruit or flower may be used instead for decoration.-St. Louis Republic.

The condition of the Paris shopgirls is described as one of great hardship. They have to be in the shop from thirteen to fourteen hours a day, receive very small pay and are expected to dress well. The new Russian silver in solid turquoise blue enamel is the novelty of the season. It is used chiefly for perfume bottles, boxes and other articles for the toilet table.

R. McSweyn recently received a patent wall paper display rack from S. A. Maxwell & Co. of Chicago that is a very unique and serviceable arrangement. It will display paper and border at the same time, and can be folded up similar to a leaf table so that the samples are protected from dust. It will hold 300 samples of each—paper and border combined. Mr. McSweyn has a very neat store in his new stand and has a complete new stock of wall paper and paints.

Muffs Hung by Gold Chains.

The latest fancy is the elegant one of suspending our muffs about our necks with the long gold chains with which our grandmothers, and our grandfathers, too, used to attach their watches. Of course it is only the wise woman who has treasured up these discarded chains instead of cutting them into short lengths or exchanging them at the jeweler's for more modern trinkets. The muffs will naturally be large in size to appear old world, too, and the whim has the merit of utility to recommend it to favor, for it is a comfortable and convenient way of wearing the muff, particularly to the careless woman who are always leaving theirs in shops and theaters.—New York Letter.

The Injustice of Suffrage.

During the lecture of Miss Kate Field in this city one could not help commenting upon the absurdity of our suffrage when he stopped to think that the Sicilian bandit, the Russian dynamiter or the Bohemian beggar could in a few years after getting through the ports obtain privileges and assume rights that are denied to this brilliant woman by reason of her sex. What a monumental exhibition of folly it is to deny to pure, educated, brainy American women, wives, sisters and daughters, the right that we fully extend to the sweepings of European prisons and almshouses.—Lowell (Mass.) Arena.

WHERE ARE WE AT NOW?

Mixed Up Weather Market Probably Caused by Official Changes at Washington.

"JOHNNIE JONES AND WAGNER TOO" BURY THE HATCHET.

Vote for Good Roads at the Coming Election—Program for Tuesday Evening's Orchestral Concert.

AT SIXES AND SEVENS.

The weather has been of several different varieties during the last twenty-four hours and each variety has had a dozen different peculiarities of its own. The circus started with a light snow fall at about midnight Wednesday night and then at a few minutes after 3 o'clock in the morning came a vivid flash of lightning and as flash succeeded flash, blinding one with the bluish glare reflected from the snow, the hail came down in an icy torrent while the thunder was deafening.

Most of the people of the city were awakened by the thunder and as the telephone bells began to ring a great many got up to put in the lightning plugs. Those who happened to be out on the streets at that early hour found the lightning almost blinding. At the street railway power house it came in on the wires in sheets and it also made things lively around The Mining Journal motor.

Fully three inches of hail fell, making the thunder storm about as peculiar as it possibly could be. Later came a heavy dash of rain and then after a heavy fog all day and all the evening a steady rain set in at an early hour this morning, changing later to sleet and hail.

Taking it altogether the combination is the queerest Marquette has struck for years and the only explanation The Mining Journal can give of it is the fact that its telegraph editor, failing for some reason yesterday morning to receive the "weather market" as usual from Washington, made up a forecast of his own and with dire effects.

The Crucial War is Over.

Although The Mining Journal had received several telegrams announcing the condition of affairs at Lansing long before the Superior street paperette went to press yesterday afternoon that publication could give the public no further information about the Marquette charter than it could mention as forecast in a long "special to a newspaper"—leaving no doubt as to its identity, as Marquette has only one—and, as indicated in private telegrams supposed to have been received.

The telegrams were received all right and at this office. The first was from Representative Chamberlain asking if a compromise on the number of wards would be satisfactory to Marquette and other dispatches followed indicating the progress on the bill. Finally came Representative Wagner's dispatch: "Marquette charter just passed the house in original form with eleven wards. The crucial war is now over and peace is restored between Jones and myself." Later came dispatches stating that the compromise leaving Marquette with her present wards undisturbed and cutting down Ishpeming would be arranged in the senate in accordance with the telegrams received from this city in response to Representative Chamberlain's first dispatch.

The rejection was the talk of the city all day, the interest taken in it being mainly excited because of the Kilkenny cat footing to which the representatives from this country had been brought. The dislike to additional wards here was general and relief was very freely expressed when the fight ended with honors for Marquette and no additional wards to encumber the administration of city affairs.

As far as the county seat part of the question is concerned there has been more talk at Lansing than here in this city and Ishpeming can rest assured that no one here is keeping awake nights for fear that Marquette will lose the magnificent court house which so fittingly represents the wealth, dignity and importance of the county of Marquette.

Vote for It.

By joint resolution No. 11 the legislature has voted to submit to the people at the coming election an amendment to the constitution of the state in the shape of a new section to be added thereto to be known as section 49 of article 4, conferring power upon the legislature to enact laws for the creation of county and township boards of highway commissioners as follows:

Sec. 49. The legislature may provide for the laying out, construction and maintenance of township roads, and may provide that any road heretofore laid out shall be a county or township road. County roads may be maintained at the expense of the county and township roads at the expense of the township.

County roads shall be under the control of a board of commissioners not to exceed five in number who shall be elected by the people, the number of said commissioners to be fixed by the board of supervisors of the county.

For the construction and maintenance of county roads the commissioners may provide for an annual tax not exceeding $2 upon each $1,000 of the assessment roll of the county for the preceding year.

No county shall incur any indebtedness or issue any bonds for the construction or maintenance of county roads except upon a vote of two-thirds of all the supervisors elected, and then to be approved by a majority vote or at a general or special election; nor shall any such indebtedness at any time exceed 3 per cent. of the valuation of the county upon the last preceding assessment roll.

The legislature may modify, change or repeal the powers and duties of the township commissioner of highways and overseer of highways. The legislature may pass all necessary laws to carry this amendment into effect. Provided, That any act or acts passed by the legislature to carry this amendment into effect shall provide for a county and township system, and the county system shall become operative only in such counties as shall adopt it by a majority vote of the electors of said county, after the said question has been submitted to them by a two-thirds vote of all the members elect of the board of supervisors of such county, at a general or special election called for that purpose.

The above provision for a county system of roads is in direct line with the organized effort now being made throughout the United States to secure good roads and is deserving of the vote of every elector. An address to the people of the state issued by the supervisors of Bay county, where the county system has long been in use though recently knocked out by the supreme court, gives the following explanation of the special features of the amendment:

The amendment will authorize the legislature to provide for the laying out, construction and maintenance of county and township roads; the county roads are to be maintained at the expense of the county and the township roads (the same as now) at the expense of the township. The commissioners who will have charge of the county roads are to be elected by the people. A tax, not exceeding two mills on the dollar of the assessed valuation, is authorized. Counties cannot incur indebtedness for the construction or maintenance of county roads except upon a vote of two-thirds of the supervisors, approved by a majority vote of the electors of the county. Such indebtedness cannot at any time exceed 3 per cent. of the valuation.

If this amendment should be adopted and the proper statute passed by the legislature in pursuance thereof, even then it would not become operative in any county which did not want it; for by the amendment itself it is expressly provided that "The county system shall become operative only in such counties as shall adopt it by a majority vote of the electors of said county, after the said question has been submitted to them by a two-thirds vote of all the members elect of the board of supervisors of such county at a general or special election called for that purpose."

Every elector in the state should vote for the amendment. It is well known that there are some counties in the state where the present highway system does not afford all that the business interests require. In those counties for several months in the year, the roads are practically impassable for the purpose of hauling loads. Such counties need relief, and the electors of the state should be willing to give it to them. There are counties where no such relief is needed. Under the amendment as now proposed each county determines for itself whether it will adopt this county system or not; counties not desiring it need not have it; it will be only operative in those counties, which in the future, see fit to adopt it. The question must be proposed by a two-thirds vote of the board of supervisors, and then be adopted by a majority vote of the electors of the county. This is the principle of local option, letting each county of the state determine for itself what it needs and what it will do.

On Tuesday Evening.

A MINING JOURNAL reporter was present at the last rehearsal of the Ideal orchestra for its concert at Fraternity Hall on Tuesday evening next and is confident that the program and the manner in which it will be executed will prove a great surprise to the public and even to those who have been the warmest admirers of the musical organization of which Marquette is so proud.

The orchestra now consists of ten pieces and is under perfect control. Every member is doing elegant work and all play together perfectly. The program for the concert, which should be attended by every lover of fine music in the city, will be as follows: Concert March—"Roman Carnival".....Isenman

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Mr. Eply's music class tonight at 8 o'clock.

The address on "The Divinity of Christ" Sunday afternoon will be the first to be delivered before the Y. M. C. A. by the pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church, Rev. F. A. Johnson. The numbers by the Swedish choir, which is to furnish the music, will prove an exceedingly attractive feature of the service.

In the absence of Mr. E. J. Schultheis, the young men's gymnasium class has suffered disintegration. But the young men are sure to find an excellent physical instructor in Mr. Henry Ochsstad, who, commencing now, will conduct the class during the absence of Mr. Schultheis. The gymnasium committee hopes to see all members of the class on the floor hereafter on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings.
