FOR STRICT CONSTRUCTION.

Senator Palmer's Strong Argument Against Admission of Three Appointive Senators.

LEGISLATURES SHOULD BE HELD RESPONSIBLE

People Should Know That Legislative Factions Will Deprive Their State of Its Representation.

THE CONSTITUTION AS IT IS.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—In the senate today the report of the committee on privileges and elections in favor of seating the three senators from Montana, Washington and Wyoming under appointment by the governors of those states was taken up and Mr. Chandler (N. H.), a member of the committee, made an argument in support of the resolution. He opened his speech with reminiscences of John R. Hale of New Hampshire, the first anti-slavery senator (1845), quoting some verses by Whittier written in honor of his memory and reviewing the history of some gubernatorial appointments of senators from that state. He said that he had formerly supposed that the governor had not the power to appoint senators in cases where the legislature had failed to elect but he had now reached the conclusion that the governor had that right.

Mr. Palmer, a member of the committee on privileges and elections, argued against the majority report and replied to some of Mr. Chandler's propositions. He recalled the impressive reading (by Senator Manderson) of Washington's Farewell Address on the 22nd of February last and referred to that part of it which reminded the people that the constitution could be amended and altered in but one way and which warned them against constructive alteration of it. He was impressed with these words of the Father of his Country in view of what had been said today by the senator from New Hampshire. That senator admitted that for many years after the forming of the constitution the construction for which he (Mr. Palmer) contended was the received construction. But the senator from New Hampshire had discovered that the constitution might be changed by construction. Our fathers had accepted what the senator called narrow and illiberal construction of the constitution but he, their wisest son, had found another method better than theirs. The senator's discovery reminded him of a Calvinistic preacher who on a certain occasion said to his congregation: "My brethren, there is a man going up and down through the country teaching that all men can be saved. Thank God, we teach better than this" [laughter]. That was an illustration of the senator's method. Illiberality characterized the fathers of the constitution and their contemporaries. Liberality distinguished the senator from New Hampshire and those who thought with him. For himself (Mr. Palmer) he preferred to be reputed as illiberal with those who won the independence of the country and who framed its admirable form of government rather than follow the new light preached by the distinguished senator from New Hampshire. He had been referred to by the senator as desiring to alter the constitution in order to give the election of senators to the people of the United States. He desired this, but he desired to have the constitution altered by formal provision to have it changed deliberately and solemnly. No inconsistency could be predicated or charged because, while the constitution existed, he favored adhering to it rigidly. And it would be found that the most dangerous class of the politicians in the country were those who believed and taught that the framework of the government, the constitution, was to be modified, not by formal action by one of the methods prescribed by the constitution, but was to be altered by construction so as to meet changed conditions, real or imaginary. He (Mr. Palmer) asked senators to stand by the constitution as it is. He had no right to be liberal in construing an instrument which he had sworn to support. Neither his judgment nor his conscience would allow him to follow the senator from New Hampshire in the path which he had marked out for the senate to pursue.

Mr. Palmer went on to argue the question in detail against the right of governors to appoint senators under the circumstances existing in the case in question. He argued in conclusion that if the line of construction insisted upon by the majority of the committee were pursued the time would not be far distant when the power of state legislatures to elect senators would be very largely abridged and when there would be combinations in states to defeat the choice of senators by the legislature so as to ensure their appointment by governors. The process was an easy one. The safe course was to restrict the power of the governors to appoint senators. If the legislatures failed to elect senators those legislatures should be held responsible to the people. The object was, not as the majority contended, that the senate should be "full, always full." The object was that the senate should be filled by representatives of the states, selected by the state agencies to which the selection had been confided by the constitution. If the people of Montana, Washington and Wyoming had no representatives in the senate, whose fault was it? Had not their legislatures had ample time to elect? If they had failed to discharge their duty they could have elected senators, but they were obeying the voice of faction, which would some time sacrifice free institutions for the sake of mere party advantage.

Mr. Palmer obtained the floor and the matter went over until tomorrow.

Resolutions were reported to the senate from the committee on contin-gent expenses as follows: Directing the commissioner of labor to make a report at the opening of the Fifty-third congress as to the total costs of various iron and steel products and of textile fabrics and authorizing the committee of finance to make such further investigation of the matter as it may deem important—laid over; instructing the committee on immigration to inquire into the condition and character of alien immigrants coming into the United States, whether the laws against the importation of contract labor are properly enforced and as to the execution of the immigration laws—agreed to; instructing the committee on Indian depredations to inquire concerning Indian depredation claims presented in the court of claims under the act of March 3, 1891—agreed to; instructing the committee on commerce to sit and examine the Pacific coast with a view to determining the best location for the construction of a deep water harbor—laid over after discussion.

In the course of the discussion Mr. Frye, a member of the committee on commerce and its chairman in the last congress, made a statement as to the claims of San Pedro and Santa Monica for the site of the harbor. He spoke of reports of the army engineers in favor of San Pedro but said notwithstanding these reports he still favored Santa Monica, after a personal visit to both points. The building of the deep water harbor would cost $3,000,000 so that it was of the utmost importance that it should be located in the right place and that no mistake should be made. He thought that the testimony of the coast survey people, of ship owners and sailors should be taken and he believed that the decision of the committee would be in favor of the Santa Monica.

Mr. Sherman thought that the question was one of engineering, not of investigation. The opinion of engineers, skilled men taken from the army and navy, would be much more reliable than an examination by five or six senators. Mr. Frye added to his former remarks that it was not his purpose to go with the committee. The matter then went over without action.

RAKING UP BOAC'S RECORD.

Mr. Chandler offered a resolution desiring the secretary of the treasury to furnish the senate with copies of all the reports of the Citizens' National bank of Washington, D. C., (the bank of which Senator Boac was cashier from 1870 to 1882) and all reports made by bank examiners as to its condition during that period.

Mr. Gorman—Let that resolution go over, Mr. President.

THE RESOLUTION WENT OVER AND AFTER A SHORT EXECUTIVE SESSION THE SENATE ADJOURNED TILL TOMORROW.

HURT BY HEAD-LINES.

Grover Worried by Jokes About Mr. Maxwell's Guillotine.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The postoffice department yielded a genuine sensation today. It was all due to the order issued by the postmaster general to the chief of the appointment division of the fourth assistant's office directing him to give out no information in regard to the appointments of postmasters of the fourth class. Heretofore complete lists of the changes made daily have been furnished to the press and the sudden change in what has been the custom for years naturally excited remark. It is learned that the order has been issued because of misstatements and exaggerations that it was alleged had been made in the newspapers relative to the changes. It was said that the president was beginning to dislike seeing so much in the public prints relative to "Cutting off heads," "the guillotine" and other terms more or less sportive that have been used to characterize the work of Mr. Maxwell. So it was resolved to cut off the source of information.

Later in the day, however, Mr. Bissell decided not to apply the order to the list of appointments made today and so these were given out. It is probable that this quasi suspension of the order will be continued and that the list will be given out as usual. Assistant Postmaster General Maxwell today appointed 134 fourth class postmasters. Of this number thirteen were in Indiana, twenty-two in Pennsylvania, and fourteen in Kentucky.

PLACE FOR PARTNER EWING.

Stevenson's Cousin and Partner Made Minister to Belgium.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The president sent the following nominations to the senate today: James S. Ewing of Illinois to be envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary of the United States to Belgium; Thomas T. Crittenden of Missouri to be consul general of the United States at the City of Mexico; Louis C. Hughes of Arizona to be governor of Arizona; William T. Thornton of New Mexico to be governor of New Mexico; William M. Maiz of Ohio to be surveyor of customs for the port of Columbus, O.

Thomas T. Crittenden of Missouri, who is named as consul general to Mexico, is perhaps best known to the public through his pursuit and destruction of the celebrated James brothers, who terrorized the state for many years. He achieved this feat while governor of Missouri. He was a lieutenant-colonel in the army during the late war. Mr. Crittenden is a lawyer.

James S. Ewing of Illinois, who is nominated to be minister to Belgium, is a law partner and cousin of Vice-President Stevenson, the firm consisting of Stevenson & Ewing. He is about fifty years of age and lives in Bloomington, Ill. He is one of the old Ewing family of Kentucky, where he was born and educated.

Louis C. Hughes, who becomes governor of Arizona, edits a newspaper at Phoenix. He is about fifty-four years of age and was a delegate to the Chicago convention.

William T. Thornton, the newly appointed governor of New Mexico, has resided for seventeen years in the territory and practices law at Santa Fe. He operates one of the richest mines in southern New Mexico.

GUARDS THE CONSTITUTION.

Ex-Justice Cooley Before the Supreme Court in the Barkworth Mandamus.

PROBABLY THE VENERABLE JURIST'S LAST APPEARANCE.

He Protests Against Court's Interference With the Powers of Another Branch of the Government.

MICHIGAN'S GREATEST JUDGE.

LANSING, Mich., April 5.—[Special.]—The hearing before the supreme court in the mandamus proceedings instituted by Representative Barkworth against Speaker Tatum and Clerk Miller of the Michigan house of representatives to compel them to print in the house journal his protest against a certain action was continued this morning. Mr. Barkworth occupied an hour and a half in a very careful and able argument in behalf of the relator. At the close Judge Cooley spoke briefly, saying that he had retired wholly from the activities of judicial and political duty, but in this case he could not resist the call to make this, perhaps his last public appeal, for the continued preservation of the sacredness of the constitution and to lift his voice of warning against the interference of the highest judicial tribunal with the powers of a co-ordinate branch of the state government. The decision was reserved.

CONCERNING RAFT TOWING.

Vesselsmen and Lumbermen Appear Before Board of Engineers.

DETROIT, April 5.—This morning at 10 o'clock the board of army engineers appointed to investigate the subject of raft towing on the lakes met in General Poe's office. The Lake Carriers' association has sent a committee to the meeting to present the vesselsmen's side and to demand that the rafts be reduced in size. Prominent lumbermen are also present to fight any proposed curtailment of their privileges.

LAND OFFICE PLACES.

Secretary Smith Will See Applicants for Vacancies Today.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Secretary Hoke Smith announces that tomorrow he would see at the department all persons who are interested in the selection of suitable persons to fill vacancies now existing or which will exist within the next thirty days in the offices of the registers and receivers of land offices and also in the offices of surveyors-general. He also requested those who intend to present charges upon which removals are asked either of registers or receivers or surveyors-general to file their charges in full at once with the commissioner of the general land office.

The secretary today directed the removal of twenty-five pension examiners now in the field. In making the selections for dismissals the politics of the examiner has not been considered but that the only question taken into account was that of proficiency. Secretary Smith today received a telegram from Indian Agent Bennett in which he recommends that the Choctaw nation be placed under martial law. This he believes to be the only way in which peace can be maintained. Secretary Smith has as yet taken no action on this recommendation.

CHINESE ACTORS COMING.

One Thousand Celestial Theatians for the World's Fair.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—United States Consul Seymour, at Canton, China, has cabled the state department that one thousand Chinese actors belonging to rival companies have left Shanghai for the World's Fair where they will give exhibitions. These Chinese will land on this continent at Vancouver, Tacoma, San Francisco and other places. In accordance with this information Assistant Secretary Spaulding of the treasury department has telegraphed customs officers on the Pacific coast and northern frontier to exercise the closest scrutiny that none but bona fide exhibitors or employes whose services are required by the exhibitors at the World's Fair be permitted to enter this country. An exception as to the Chinese exclusion act in favor of exhibitors, etc., was made by congress to cover just such cases as this.

GREAT COMMANDER'S BIRTHDAY.

Galena Will Celebrate April 27 With Appropriate Exercises.

GALENA, Ill., April 5.—The birthday of General Grant, April 27, will be celebrated on a large scale here. The idea of a celebration originated with H. H. Kohlhaas of the Chicago Inter Ocean, who two years ago presented the city of Galena with a bronze statue of General Grant. The program will consist of a parade followed by exercises in Grant Park. Major William McKinley will be invited to deliver the oration and should accept a public reception will be tendered him in the evening. A committee of five was appointed to draft a bill for presentation to the Illinois legislature making Grant's birthday a legal holiday.

NO STRIKE IS FEARED.

Carnegie Company Anticipates No Trouble at Homestead.

PITTSBURGH, April 5.—The discovery said to have been made by the Carnegie company that another strike was brewing at the Homestead mills was no discovery at all according to Secretary Lovejoy of the company. Mr. Lovejoy was seen today and said there was no truth whatever in the report and that the company was not anticipating any trouble in the direction stated.

NO ANIMOSITY IN OURS.

Marquette has passed through a tolerably animated municipal election, with the outcome of which about three-fourths of the people of the city are more than pleased. It may be said, in fact, that they are delighted with the result achieved in the contest of Monday. THE MINING JOURNAL fully shares in the general satisfaction, because it feels assured that good will come of the change that is to follow in the conduct of the city's affairs. But it is mainly on that account that this paper is gratified. Neither THE MINING JOURNAL nor any person connected with it seeks or expects anything of Mr. Kaufman beyond a prudent, harmonious and capable administration of the municipal government. He will not be asked to reward any friend of the paper or punish any of its enemies. In fact it has no enemies that it cannot attend to without outside assistance, and its friends are of the kind who can take care of themselves without its aid.

And now if the few who gave their support to the defeated candidate will only consent to drop the contention in which they have been so signally unsuccessful and join with the rest of us in doing all that we can unitedly do for the advancement of Marquette they will be cordially welcomed to co-operation with the victors. Let the feeling developed in the campaign die out with the echoes of the contest and let harmony reign from this time forward.

Some misguided individuals have been led to suppose that THE MINING JOURNAL'S only interest in municipal politics was a selfish interest; that its support was given only to the side that promised it some advantage in its business or through recognition of persons connected with it. That misapprehension has been assiduously cultivated by a parcel of plotters who have been inimical to the paper because, through its devotion to the real interests of the city, it has been forced at different times to thwart their dangerous schemes or unwise ambitions. This sentiment against the paper has not injured it in the least. It came to a head under the administration repudiated by such an emphatic adverse vote in Monday's election. Without the paper or its publishers in any manner seeking to have it so, "THE MINING JOURNAL" and "Jim Russell" were an issue in the contest, and if the men who kept that issue to the front are satisfied with the verdict rendered at the polls by the voters of the city, certainly the paper and its friends have no occasion to complain.

We can afford to be magnanimous under the circumstances, and are willing to be if the "other fellows" will consent to accept magnanimous treatment. But if they are not, the elements that prevailed in the late election have lost none of their vigilance or courage by reason of the success that crowned their efforts in that contest, and stand prepared to win future victories on the same kind of an issue should they be forced to meet it.

"OUR MICHIGAN."

The outcome of the spring election in this state demonstrates that Michigan is reliably Republican, the vote showing that the return of the Democratic party to power in the nation has not had the effect of inclining the people of this commonwealth to place further trust in it.

The Republicans have elected their candidates for justice of the supreme court and regents of the state university by a decisive majority, making gains even in portions of the state where the Democrats looked for a turn in their favor as an after consequence of their victory in the nation at large last fall.

Michigan's position in the column of Republican states is one that every Republican within its borders has cause to be proud of. In the general election of last year, when ancient strongholds of the party capitulated to the enemy almost without a struggle, this state was redeemed from Democratic rule by good management and hard fighting. It was the one state of the sisterhood where the Republicans made an actual gain in the election of last fall. The election just held has established that the victory then won was an enduring one, and places Michigan Republicans in the van of the movement to redeem the nation, even as their state was redeemed in the campaign of 1892.

It is an honorable place to hold and one worth fighting to retain, for the day is coming when the Republican party will again enjoy its old-time ascendancy in the nation at large, and when that day arrives the record the Michigan Republicans are now making will rebound to their credit and glory. They constitute the invincible "old guard" of the party, whose courage cannot be broken or fealty impaired by disaster and defeat.

This people of Bessemer used Hon. F. C. Chamberlain very ungratefully when they defeated him for mayor while he was absent at Lansing laboring for their interests. Mr. Chamberlain did good work for Bessemer in the charter fight between that city and Ironwood a month or so ago, but the Bessemerites seem to have already forgotten the service he then rendered their city. It usually happens that way. The man who seeks to discharge his duties faithfully and well in a public capacity is seldom even thanked for what he does, while the noisy demagogue who makes promises that he neither intends nor is able to make good catches the wind of popular favor and "gets there" with discouraging frequency. It would serve the Bessemer people right of Mr. Chamberlain were to shake the dust of their city from his feet and locate at Ironwood, where his weight in the scale might topple the county over on the county seat issue the next time it comes up.

HARRISON'S election in Chicago is more a personal than a party victory, for he owes it largely to his personal following, the strength of which was shown in the preceding contest, when he came near being successful as an independent candidate with the Democrats and Republicans having regularly nominated candidates in the field against him. It must be admitted that Carter is a "whale" when it comes to running for an office that he is really anxious to gather in.

WELL, Harrison's election doesn't exactly suit THE MINING JOURNAL, but in view of the excellent choice made by the voters of Marquette on Monday we can stand Harrison's elevation to the mayoralty of Chicago with considerable equanimity. THE MINING JOURNAL would prevent the election of bad men to office everywhere if it had the power, but Chicago is rather without the reach of its elevating influence, which is very unfortunate for Chicago.

NEWS OF REPUBLIC

Results of Election—Death of Charles Heguard—Other Notes.
REPUBLICAN, Mich., April 5.—The local election is over and quiet again reigns. The Citizens' ticket was fully elected, the winners being as follows: Supervisor, David T. Moran; clerk, James G. Gibson; treasurer, Samuel E. Munson; justice of the peace, Edwin G. Dunne; highway commissioner, Gilbert Beauchamp; overseer of highways, William C. Knottwell; school inspector, Eric E. Extrum; member of board of review, William R. Polkinghorn; constables, Charles E. Erickson, Oscar Frisky, Elmer Brackman and Byron M. Cook. There was a close race for first constable between Charles E. Erickson and Gus Johnson, the present incumbent, so close, in fact that it was found necessary to make a second count of the ballots, which disclosed the fact that Erickson was actually elected by three majority.

Owing to Mrs. George Bennett's present critical condition Conductor Bennett thought it prudent to lay off for a few days in order to be at hand, expecting his invalid wife to succumb at any hour to the disease that has prostrated her for the past two years. He has the sympathy of the entire community in his present dire trouble. He is relieved by Conductor McKereghan.

The Theatre Royal company arrived last Saturday and endeavored to draw audiences at the Opera House for a few nights and would undoubtedly have done so had not their costumes and other effects, so necessary for the proper rendition of the plays that they advertised, been detained down the line for reasons best known to themselves.

Charles Heguard, who had been employed at the Republic mine a number of years, died somewhat suddenly at his home on School street Sunday evening of acute inflammation of the lungs. He was only taken down the previous Sunday. He leaves a wife and two children. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon and was largely attended.

A very jovial surprise party gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Goodney Tuesday evening to pay their parting respects to Mr. Goodney and his son Albert, who left Wednesday evening for their new home near Jamestown, N. D. The rest of the family will follow later on.

Fred Collins, the enterprising commission merchant of Esplanade, did some tall hustling here for a few hours Monday morning and succeeded in securing several profitable orders despite the fact that it was election day.

There will be a meeting of the K. O. T. M. at the usual hour Thursday evening and as business of unusual importance will be transacted it is desired that all members shall make a special effort to attend.

A. Foesberg, late chief engineer at the Republic mine, left last Thursday to enter upon his new duties as superintendent of one of the mines on the Mesabara range. His family will follow him tomorrow.

Carl Peterson wants to know if anybody thought for a moment that he was included in the Citizens' ticket that was elected on Monday. If so, he wishes it understood that he wasn't in it.

James Carey has gone to West Duluth, where he has secured a position as traveling salesman for one of the leading wholesale houses of that city.

LETTER FROM CYRUS W. FIELD, JR.
8 EAST 56TH STREET,
NEW YORK, May 8, 1883.

Several times this winter I have suffered from severe colds on my lungs. Each time I have applied Alcock's Porous Plasters, and in every instance I have been quickly relieved by applying one across my chest and one on my back. My friends, through my advice, have tried the experiment, and I also found it most successful. I feel that I can recommend them most highly to any one who may see fit to try them.

Too Sensitive.

In a certain household where the doctrine of kindness is continually preached to the youthful members there was observed to be a look of extreme gloom on the face of one of the boys.

"What is it, Fred?" asked Fred's older sister.
"Well, I'll tell you," grieved the small boy. "You an mamma are always telling me to be kind to animals and never to hurt them. An I was in the kitchen when the groceryman came, and we've got animal cakes and animals of candy. An it hurts my feelings to eat 'em."

"Fred," said his sister, "do you know what turkey is?"
"Turkey's turkey," replied the small boy.
"But a turkey is an animal—a bird—a live bird."

"What!" cried the startled Fred, and when it was finally made plain to him he wept and refused to be comforted.
The moral of this story is that a boy should be taught natural history before becoming a member of societies for preventing cruelty to animals. Knowledge might affect his decision about joining.—New York World.

When a Snake Eats a Frog.

The disproportion between the diameter of a frog and the serpent's slender neck is indeed marvelous, and snakes have been observed to split themselves open by attempting to swallow a frog. After perhaps half an hour of laborious contortions, all that is seen of the poor frog is a great swelling that the contracting muscles are rapidly forcing down the reptile's neck. If one liberates the captured frog before it is too late, the wretched animal often seems so overcome by fear, or perhaps stupefied by the serpent's saliva, that it will not leap, but crawls in a painful manner.

We must not allow ourselves to be duped into a mistaken sympathy, however, for such is the poetic justice of the case. Large frogs esteem small snakes a particular delicacy.—A. G. Mayer in Popular Science Monthly.

"Shadows are always larger and blacker than the objects that cause them," said some one. This is particularly true of the shadows of the trouble that never comes.—Boston Saturday Gazette.

NEWS OF NEGAUNEE.

The Last Inter-Urban Dance an Exceedingly Successful and Enjoyable Affair.

Closing Meeting of the Old Council Tonight—Real Estate Changes Hands of St. George Officers.

AN ENJOYABLE PARTY.

The party given by the Inter-Urban Dancing club at McDonald's Hall Tuesday evening was, without doubt, the most successful social event of the season. About seventy-five couples were present, twenty-five of whom were from Ishpeming.

The decorations in the hall were very pretty. The reception committee's booth at the right hand corner of the upper end of the hall was handsomely ornamented with rugs, parlor chairs, piano lamps, cut flowers, etc.

The music by Hughes' Ideal orchestra was great. There were eight pieces in the orchestra, including the trap drummer, whose skill on his instrument added greatly to the musical effect.

Refreshments were served in the hall as usual. The ladies and gentlemen present from Marquette were: Mr. and Mrs. Peter White Phelps, the Misses Mapes, Murray, Burt and Watson and the Messrs. V. B. Cochran, Dr. Will Walter, A. E. Miller, W. A. Watson and W. Northmore.

The program consisted of eighteen numbers and four extras were danced. To the reception committee, Messdames Mattland, Sporey, Cole, Elliott and E. Adams, a large share of credit is due for assisting so well in making the event the grand success it was.

The ladies and gentlemen from Marquette, together with the members of Hughes' orchestra, returned home yesterday morning on the 10 o'clock train.

The retiring common council will hold its last regular meeting tonight, after which the newly-elected board will have charge of the machine. All the unfinished business of the year will be brought before the council and disposed of tonight.

Real Estate Transfers. F. M. Beney, Negaunee's energetic real estate and insurance agent, disposed of two different properties yesterday.

Elected Their Officers. At a recent meeting of the Uniform Rank, Sons of St. George, the following officers were elected: Captain, R. C. Treloar; lieutenant, J. A. Redfern; ensign, A. Richards; clerk, E. J. Goodman; accountant, R. G. Williams.

LOCAL LAONICONS Richard Eddy is expected home from Butte City, Montana, in a few days. "Hercules" will be presented at Ishpeming tonight. The street cars will be run to accommodate those who wish to attend.

Messrs. Dick Quinn, Joe Suess, T. J. Hayes, F. M. Beney and C. B. Driscoll were over to Ishpeming yesterday afternoon.

A number of Negaunee ladies and gentlemen attended the dedication and ball of the K. of P. lodge at Ishpeming Tuesday evening.

Two Italian musicians, with violin and harp, struck town yesterday. They will make the Reeling House their headquarters for a week.

Si Williams, representing an Ishpeming wholesale fruit and produce house, was in town with a carload of his goods yesterday, disposing of the same to the local trade.

The charming little actress, Katie Putnam, who appears at Ishpeming Tuesday evening next, will not visit Negaunee. The only towns her company will visit in this section are Ishpeming and Marquette.

Some samples of ore from the Republic and Champion mines and wide boards from Charles Hibbard's mill at Pequaing, en route to the World's Fair, were side-tracked in Negaunee for a few hours yesterday afternoon.

Numerous are the aspirants for the office of city assessor. The new adherents have all got their thinking caps on. The office is an important one and some one who understands the details of the work will undoubtedly be selected.

When the Italian musicians came to town yesterday morning a number of young fellows got together and engaged them to play for a dance which they held last evening at Johnson's Hall. About twenty couples were present and a very enjoyable time was had.

The street car line did double service yesterday morning about 3 o'clock when the Inter-Urban party was over. After bringing the ladies and gentlemen who attended the party home the cars were loaded coming back with people who had been attending the K. of P. party at Ishpeming.

The members of the local K. O. T. M. lodge have received an invitation from the members of Marquette to visit them to present the barbers' play, "Ancient Order of Hercules", in that city at a near date. The boys have not yet accepted the invitation but it is more than probable that they will very shortly.

Mrs. William Bennett of Ishpeming, who died at her home in that city yesterday morning, was a Negaunee girl before her marriage, her name being Sarah Billideau. Her parents, three brothers and three sisters now reside here. Her funeral will be held Saturday morning. The remains will be brought to this city and given interment in the Negaunee cemetery.

The Use of Sudden Wealth. The disposition toward mad extravagance, so often seen in wealthy young men, is not always the result of means to gratify overstrong desires, but of positive "foolishness," or mental incompetence, which, under the pressure of narrow means, would not only never have developed itself, but never have existed.

We have seen a man who inherited a fortune very large for his wants become during the remainder of his life almost or quite miserly, but that was only on a large scale, the result of the impulse to save, which on a small one had been pronounced a "wise economy," aggravated a little, it may be, by a failure—timidity about spending, which is constantly noticeable also in men who were born rich. But we have also seen a lady previously suspected of meanness become habitually and rather splendidly liberal.

Serenity, which we hold with the Quakers to be an eminent virtue, often comes with unexpected good luck, and graciousness, too, the latter being the result we conceive of the disappearance either of a grudge or of some inner fear of being suspected of "booning" on account of poverty.

Where Kauri Gum is Found. Kauri gum is formed of the turpentine that has exuded from the kauri tree, a species of pine which is the finest and for general purposes the most useful forest tree in New Zealand.

After a few years' exports the Maoris began to dig for the gum a few inches below the surface. As the use for it increased, its market value rose, and presently Europeans betook themselves to digging for it, until at the present time there are probably 4,000 whites and 1,000 Maoris engaged in the work in the Auckland provincial district, where alone the gum is to be found.

Within a measurable period of time the production of the gum must cease, although it is expected that at the present rate it will take 50 years to exhaust the deposits in the Auckland district. In some places gum bearing land has been purchased from the crown for settlement purposes, and the gum unearthed in plowing it has been sold for enough to pay the purchase money of the land and for plowing, fencing and sowing it as well.—London Times.

A Conductor's Apology. One evening not long ago I successfully boarded a car in spite of the fact that the conductor tried to carry a friend away without me and the tickets. He had evidently had a good deal of trouble during his trip from Georgetown, and he was one of those little men who get flustered. A gentleman on the platform took him to task for the carelessness in my case, to which he replied, "Well, people think we ain't got nuthin to do but look after the accommodation of passengers!"—Washington Post.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the hearing restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CUNNEY & Co., Toledo, O.

For a number of years I have been subject to violent attacks of inflammatory rheumatism which generally lasted about two months. On the first of this month I was attacked in the knee and suffered severely for two days, when I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it relieved me almost instantly. I therefore most cheerfully recommend it to those who are similarly afflicted everywhere.—R. D. WHITLEY, Martindale, N. C., Feb. 1888. Mr. Whitley is a very prominent man in this place as he suffered such severe pain. W. M. HOBSTON & Co., Merchants, Martindale, N. C. 50 cent bottles for sale by H. H. Stafford, Son & Co.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. A certain cure for Chronic Sore Eyes, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Old Chronic Sores, Fever Sores, Eczema, Itch, Prairie Scratches, Sore Nipples and Piles. It is cooling and soothing. Hundreds of cases have been cured by it after all other treatment had failed. It is put up in 25 and 50 cent boxes. For sale by H. H. Stafford, Son & Co.

A NEWSPAPER MAN,

Connected With the Great Paper, The Albany Express.

Makes Statements Which the People Should Know and Understand

They Will Interest Not Only the Newspaper Fraternity but Everybody.

The popular and well-known Thomas A. Lindsay, who is connected with Albany's (N. Y.) leading morning paper, the Albany Express, makes an interesting revelation. Everybody connected with the newspaper has known of the facts for some time, and can vouch for their truth in every particular.

"For many years," said Mr. Lindsay, "I have been subject to severe spells of headache and nervousness, at times almost enough to drive a man to insanity from pain, loss of sleep, etc.

"Medicines, narcotics, patent and prescribed, did not give relief, and the ailment increased continually. Having read in the Albany Morning Express, at different times, the advertisement of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I concluded to try this remedy, and after the use of six or seven bottles, found not only relief, but almost a radical cure.

"The headaches are a thing of the past, while the terrible nervous spells have gradually become less and less until now I have little or none of them left and my sleep is natural and refreshing.

"I do not hesitate in saying that this remarkable change is entirely due to Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and I heartily recommend it for ailments like my own, no matter the cause of them."

It is a fact that our great business and professional men are fast finding out the wonderful invigorating and strengthening powers of this most valuable discovery, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is the medicine for the weak and nervous. It restores health to the sick.

Its remarkable cure of Mr. Lindsay, after everything else had failed, makes another conspicuous person, restored to health by its use to add to the long and constantly increasing list of prominent and well-known people who are almost daily publishing in the papers statements of their cures by this grand medicine.

It is beyond all question the greatest curer of disease known at the present day, and is the very best spring medicine for blood and nerves. Everybody needs a spring medicine, and this is just the remedy to take. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and is sold by druggists for $1.

This great remedy is the discovery and prescription of the famous physician, Dr. Greene of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York, who is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases in the country. We add that the doctor can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

CUNNING BRITISH TRICK.

Trying to Get Additional Evidence Before the Bering Sea Arbitrators.

TESTIMONY NOT SHOWN IN ITS REGULAR PLEADINGS

Mr. Phelps Objects Strenuously to New Evidence Which United States Lacks Time to Rebut.

PARIS, April 5.—The court of arbitration regarding the Bering sea resumed its session at 11:45 a. m. today.

Mr. Phelps, counsel in behalf of the United States, continued his argument. He contended that the British supplementary report was inadmissible. The admission of new evidence at this stage, Mr. Phelps said, was a gross injustice to the United States because it deprived the United States of any chance to adduce rebutting testimony.

After luncheon Mr. Phelps continued his argument for the rejection of the British supplementary report. His address was interrupted several times by an exchange of criticisms between the counsel for the two powers.

"If I had been guiding the policy of the United States," said Mr. Phelps, "when Great Britain presented the counter-case at the last minute, I would then and there have refused to proceed with the arbitration. Great Britain's conduct was not only unjust but humiliating for the United States."

Mr. Phelps in continuing said that he had not been aware of this. The whole report, he said, was untrue. Sir Charles Russell interposed the remark that Great Britain had announced in her counter-case the production at a future date of the Bering sea commission's report.

Whisky Feeds the Fames.

LOUISVILLE, April 5.—Allen, Bradley & Co.'s distillery warehouse burned this evening. Twelve thousand barrels of whisky were destroyed; loss, $500,000.

An Object Lesson In Futility.

They were talking about futility and for some reason known only to each other failed to agree. Finally she asked: "Well, now, suppose you give me an example of what you call futility."

Cost of Living in Australia.

I now believe that a workingman can live here for as small a sum as he can in England. On a Saturday night, in order to see a workingman's market, I went off to one of their big markets to see the prices paid. I found good beef 4d. to 5d. per pound; mutton, 3d. to 3½d.; half a lamb, 3s.; rabbits, 8d. per couple; any quantity of prime hares at 9d. each; cauliflower as big as your head, 1d. each; potatoes about half English price.

Origin of the Coast Indians.

In 1876 a large canoe was sent to the Centennial exposition from the northwest coast. This canoe was made after the pattern of a Japanese junk, of one piece of timber. Again the carving followed the Japanese skill and design.

Two New York Clubs.

If a gentleman or one whom you have always regarded as a gentleman were to remark to you that he was a "tough," you would be excused if you looked at him in amazement and silently meditated on the possibility of his insanity.

Photographic Evidence.

Photography now plays such an important part in providing testimony for inquests and law courts that many railway companies retain permanently the services of a photographer, whose duty it is to hasten to the scene of the collision or any kind of railway accident and secure a picture under the slightest possible delay.

Never Had Heard of It.

House Hunter—And how about the neighborhood's health? Is there any fever and ague here?

Agent—Fever and ague? Well, let's see. Just what is that?—Harper's Bazar.

Clever Spiders.

I took a large spider from his web under the basement of a mill, put him on a chip of wood and set him afloat on the quiet waters of the pond. He walked all about the sides of his bark, surveying the situation very carefully, and when the fact that he was really afloat and about a yard from shore seemed to be fully comprehended he looked out for the nearest land.

This point fairly settled upon, he immediately began to cast a web for it. He threw it as far as possible in the air and with the wind. It soon reached the shore and made fast to the spires of grass. Then he turned himself about and in true sailor fashion began to haul in hand over hand on his cable. Carefully he drew upon it until his bark began to move toward shore.

As it moved the faster, he the faster drew upon it to keep his bowser taut and from touching the water. Very soon he reached the shore, and quickly leaping to terra firma sped his way homeward.

Thinking that he might be a special expert and an exception in that line of boatmanship to the rest of his companions, I tried several of them. They all came to shore in like manner.—New York Advertiser.

A Knowing Turkey Gobbler.

"I own a turkey gobbler at my home up near to Crestaline," remarked an Iowa farmer at Hotel Barnum last night. "That's got more good horse sense than any jaybird, and, damn my picture, a jaybird's neck to a legislator, by gum! But as I was saying, this turkey's er great big whorping fellow what'd weigh high onto 30 pounds. He's about 30 years of age. I'll bet he knows a preacher as fur off as he can see 'im, an' for Christmas an' Fourth of July an' Thanksgiving, by gum, he is 'dead on,' as my boy what went to the Dubuque college would say. Just before these days come along old gobbler gets sick and mopes 'round 's if he's almost dead. But as soon 's the holidays have passed Mr. Turkey begins to strut and strut, an' you can see him laughing to himself about how he had fooled me. But sick or well, poor or fat, he will have to go soon, because he is getting so old it won't be long before he's got to be no account at all."—St. Louis Republic.

Coloring Butter.

The most universally colored article is butter, and it may with great confidence be asserted that there is hardly a pound of butter sold at the present time in this country which has not been doctored, mostly by the aid of a harmless coloring matter—annatto—in order to impart to such butter a rich golden color. After naturally varies much in color according to the season, the breed of the cow and mainly its food, and it is but rarely the natural butter possesses the color to which the public is now accustomed. The desire of those who introduced this admixture was obviously to make their produce appear richer and more enticing to the consumer than had intended. One after the other the rest of the butter merchants had to follow suit—Food, Drugs and Drink.

Surprising the Gas Man.

The self-esteem of the meter interpreter of the gas company in Biddleford and Saco received a terrible blow at one house last week when he was on his quarterly round. He rapped on the back door of one house which was almost immediately opened by a woman, who held out a pail of swill for him to take. She had caught a glimpse of some one coming into the yard and thought it was the swill man, whom she had been expecting for a week. The gas monopolist and the swill bucket almost fell simultaneously from the effects of the shock.—Bangor Commercial.

A Glass House.

Professor Morse of Salem, Mass., has solved the problem of house heating in a curious fashion. He has built a house with all its rooms fronting southward and only a passage on the north. Almost the whole southern front of the house is made of glass, and by means of reflectors Professor Morse is enabled on sunny days to heat his whole house with sunshine alone. At night and on cloudy days he has heard fire going. He believes that by this contrivance he has the most wholesome heat that is attainable.—New York Sun.

The Way to Get Rest.

It is getting harder and harder for women to keep out of society's whirl. One who since her return from the country has accomplished a vast amount of work for sweet charity's sake, declares that the only way to rest is to go south or to California. The only wonder is that literary and semi-literary characters accomplish as much as they do.—Exchange.

The misprint of which Colonel Babcock of Connecticut was the victim has become classic. "Is there no and in 'Gilded'" pathetically inquired the colonel in one of his stump speeches. "Is there no barn in Guilford?" the local paper made him say, and he never heard the last of it.—Washington News.

Not Too Deep.

House Hunter—This well is very shallow, seems to me. Suburban Agent—Yes, indeed. You'll never find any Chinese leprosy in that well.—New York Weekly.

The cost of irrigation per acre in Colorado on the average is about 50 cents. Farmers there pay to take water in this way as the products of the soil are so much more abundant.

Its Usefulness Gone.

Mamma—Why don't you play with that clockwork elephant Santa Claus brought you? Little Dick—It doesn't scare the cat any more.—Good News.

REPORTORIAL PENCILINGS.

The cold wave which struck town yesterday wasn't appreciated a little bit.

The first Masonic dance after Easter will take place on the 13th inst. Cards will be issued in a day or two.

The Winslow Comedy company is drawing enormous houses at the Casino every evening and is giving a very good show.

April 5th is past and April 6th is here and still THE MINING JOURNAL has its eyes towards the east and is keeping its ear to the ground.

The mystery is explained-THAT MIXING JOURNAL'S attention is called to the fact that it wouldn't be an Adams corpse if it wasn't talking.

Presque Isle lodge No. 130, K. of P., gives its grand Easter party at Fraternity Hall this evening. Hughes' full orchestra will furnish the music.

The funeral of the late Barney Martin will take place from the St. Jean Baptiste church on Friday morning at 9 o'clock, the interment being in the old Catholic cemetery.

All ticket-holders in Ishpeming and Negaunee will be granted half-fare when coming down tomorrow evening to attend the fourth annual ball of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen at the Casino.

The opera house box office opens this morning at 9:30 o'clock for the sale of seats for Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin company on Saturday evening; prices, parquette, seventy-five cents; balcony, fifty cents; gallery, twenty-five cents.

There will be no reserved seats for the matinee by Stetson's Uncle Tom's Cabin company on Saturday afternoon-first come, first served. Prices, adults, parquette, fifty cents; balcony, thirty-five cents; children, fifteen cents to any part of the house when accompanied by parents.

The dance by Pere Marquette tent, K. O. T. M., at Fraternity Hall last evening was very largely attended, over eighty couples being present. The officers of the tent all wore the beautiful badges of office presented to the tent by N. M. Kaufman about a month ago. The music was furnished by the Hughes orchestra and was magnificent while the refreshments, served by the ladies of the L. O. T. M., were very fine.

THE MINING JOURNAL appreciates a man who can face the music when necessary and smile placidly while his opponents are dancing on his mangled remains in honor of a victory which he has received until April 25th. Specifications may be had on application. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Address J. K. VAN EVERA, Warden. Marquette, Mich. (4-6-3e 21w)

GARDENS OF SIDON.

An Ancient City Noted For Its Many Groves and Gardens-Phoenicia as She Appears Today-The Dress of Its People. Their Garments and Their Arms.

The dewdrops glittered in the light of the just rising sun, and the air was heavy with sweet odors of hundreds of orange and lemon trees with white blossoms. The scene was a picture of marvelous fertility. Orange thickets, yellow and white with their double burden of fruit and flowers; lemon, apricot and fig trees, interspersed with the more tropical palm and date, all growing in the greatest luxuriance. At times we saw the queer shaftlike leaves of the banana, often 10 feet in length. An occasional mulberry orchard explained the presence of an enterprising silk manufactory near by. Every few yards little brooks babbled along, the absolute essential of this luxuriance.

It is not strange that this paradise of flowers and fruit is much frequented by the inhabitants of the crowded, dirty town. No one can ride through these fair gardens and fail to perceive why the worship of the old Sidonians was so closely connected with the grove, and how from nature's rich profusion about them they learned to worship the idea of fertility, which was the essence of their religion. The ancient Sidon, too, was not crowded down close by the sea, but was situated farther back in the plain, and this was enriched by a ring of emerald.

On the outskirts of the gardens we came to the catacombs of old Sidon, which have been excavated by the French. In the soft limestone rock extend long series of connected chambers which have contributed a few rude statues, several sarcophagi and mummies to the very few monuments which we have of that enterprising people who carried it to Greece, and thus transmitted, with certain changes, the letters with which we communicate our 19th century ideas. More of the aesthetic art of Phoenicia is to be seen today in Athens than in all Palestine. There in the Mycenee room one can see the richly inlaid daggers, the beautiful ornaments and the facsimiles of the beaten gold cups which were also manufactured by these artisans of oriental antiquity to grace the temple of Solomon at Jerusalem. Every ruin of that ancient world, whether in Phoenicia or not, when laid bare bears ample testimony to the skill and enterprise of this Semitic nation of traders.

Leaving these old tombs and the thoughts that they inspired, we were soon studying Phoenicia as she appears today. On our left extended the Lebanon range, while in the distance rose Mount Hermon, clad in snow, glistening like Pentelic marble in the midday sun. On the right was the blue sea, into which we ere long took a plunge. Before us the narrow bridge path extended, now through fertile fields, now over a rocky promontory, which often jutted into the sea. Habitations were rare and generally huddled together for protection against the Arab incursions.

On the highways we often met these modern representatives and probable descendants of the ancient Medianites. Tall, muscular fellows, with the dark Semitic countenance and black beard, clad with the striped abba, a square piece of goat hair cloth folded and sewed above the shoulders, the chief garment of the patriarchs and the mantle of Elijah the Tishbite. Underneath they wore the kimbez, the long flowing tunic, which appeared when they throw back their abbas. About their heads was tightly wrapped the silken kofiyeh, crowned with the two heavy goat hair coils, which encircled the tops of their heads like a large black serpent. About the waist was tightly bound the girde, adorned with huge, odd shaped knives, or, if he be a civilized Arab, with pistols.

An ugly looking spear 15 or 20 feet long completed the outfit, an outfit well calculated to engender green envy in the heart of an American cowboy. A little detour enabled us to visit the black tents of Kedar, the abode of these perennial campers out. It is a rectangular edifice 15 or 20 feet long, supported on poles which 40 or 50 centuries of inherited experience has taught them to skillfully place at exactly the right angle. This palace of thickly woven goat hair cloth is held in position by strong guy ropes. The sides are raised or lowered at will, according to the position of the sun or the direction of the wind.

Within a curtain separates the women's apartment from the common reception room. The cooking outfit, like the dwelling, is characterized by its severe simplicity, since fortunately the Arab does not demand a many course dinner, and long years of practice have taught him to dispense with a superfluity of dishes, which is generally more than one for a family.-Chicago Inter Ocean.

He Finally Paid the Fee. A man lately went to a Leviston clergyman with his betrothed to be married. He drew the minister aside and whispered, "I have no money." "Well, you can pay me when pay day comes around." The marriage was performed. Then the man whispered, "We want the certificate." "Well, you can have that when you pay the fee. I'll reduce the fee to $2." "Well," said the man, putting his hand into his pocket, "I may as well pay you now," and he did.-Bangor Commercial.

A Sleep Walking Feat. In the swampy districts of France the men are accustomed to walk over the marshy ground on stilts. A sleep walker on one occasion buckled on his stilts and crossed a swollen torrent in the dark. On awaking he had not the courage to perform the same feat in daylight.-Boston Globe.

GROUNDLESS JEALOUSY.

My wife is jealous of each maid I work for in my vine, And every dollar I am paid For them she deems a curse.

And though through them I buy Bergomans, Pay doctors' bills and rent, At their fair nothingness she frowns, Displeasure dire to vent.

One little secret I'd explain - 'Twould set her mind at rest - But no, 't would render her too vain If she but dimly guessed.

Those evils I have for aroid self Should go unwhipped of blame, For every one is just herself, Called by another name. -St. L. Hendrick in Harper's Bazar.

Frost Crystals. The hard weather is favorable to the study of frost crystals, and Professor Mel-dor has drawn attention to the beautiful arborescent patterns sometimes produced by frost on our muddy pavements. Snow and ice crystals, like other crystals, are normally rectangular, but when their free growth is impeded they are sometimes curvilinear. These curving forms, resembling vegetation, such as ferns and mosses, are also seen in the crystallization of metals from solutions under the influence of electric current and in the "dendrites" of geology, an example of which is seen in the "moss agate." We may add that the aborescent figures produced by lightning and electric sparks are very similar to these. All these phenomena are connected, in some way not yet understood, with stresses in the ether.-New York Commercial Advertiser.

An Instinctive Choice. Uncle (to little Moses, aged 8)-Moses, as a reward for your diligence at school I will buy you a new book. What kind would you like? Moses-Well, if I may choose, get me a savings bank book.-Exchange.

SOCIETY HALL DEDICATED.

Ishpeming K. of P. Dedicate Their New Assembly Hall With Impressive Ceremonies.

HISTORICAL SWORDS USED IN THE EXERCISES.

An Elegant Menu Card—Business Opening for Somebody—Hageman's Entrance House Ready for Business.

THE K. OF P. DEDICATION.

A more successful social event than the dedication of the new assembly hall of Zenith lodge No. 33, Knights of Pythias, which took place Tuesday evening, has not been held in Ishpeming in many years. Seats to accommodate 400 people had been arranged and before 8 o'clock every chair in the room was occupied while those who came late were content to stand in the corners of the hall and in the reception rooms while the dedication ceremonies were in progress.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the gathering was called to order by chancellor commander of the lodge, Mr. James Bryden, when Rev. C. D. Jacobs offered prayer. Then came the dedication ceremonies, conducted by the deputy grand and subordinate officers. Every member assisting in the exercises had his part thoroughly committed. The exercises were very impressive. Hon. John Q. Adams of Negaunee delivered an address on the "Knights of Pythias," which was highly instructive and was attentively listened to.

The musical part of the program came next. A vocal solo, "My Fate and Mine," was sung by Miss Minnie Sullivan in a very pleasing and effective manner. Miss Sullivan was given a hearty encore and responded with "After the Ball." An instrumental duet by Miss A. Cuppernall and Mrs. T. W. Durham, with violin accompaniment by Mr. Aug. Kilstrom, was then given and called out merited applause. Mr. Moyle next sang a solo that was very favorably received. They came a recitation by Miss Tillie Roberts, followed by a banjo solo by T. J. Harrington. A violin solo by Mr. Helge Almen followed and was enthusiastically received. A selection by Crim's orchestra was the next number, after which the Misses Bice gave a mandolin duet, "Love and Duty," that called out an encore. The program closed with an instrumental duet by the Misses Cuppernall and Ready.

The chairs were then removed and dancing began. The dance program consisted of fourteen numbers and several extras were added. The grand march was led by Mr. John Jones, Jr., of Ishpeming and Miss Eva Fillion of Escanaba, followed by the members of the Uniform Rank in fatigues dress. About one hundred and thirty couples took part in the march. Dancing was continued until a late hour in the morning.

The hall was tastefully decorated with bunting, Japanese lanterns and parasols of various sizes, portieres, flags, emblems, etc. The electric light globes used were of different colors, which gave the hall a very brilliant appearance.

A large number from Negaunee and a few from Marquette were present.

A Fine Card.

J. P. Outhwaite of the Nelson House received yesterday an Easter menu card from A. L. Chase, manager of the Piankinton House, Milwaukee, that is a thing of beauty. Mr. Outhwaite says it is the handsomest card he ever saw and that is saying a great deal, as he is always on the look-out for menu cards, and has a fine collection of them. The Piankinton House will head Mr. Outhwaite's list.

Wants to Sell Out.

Thomas Pearce, who has conducted a saloon business in the Mildon block, corner Main and Bank streets, is desirous of selling out his business, as he is about to retire from the trade. He says he will sell at a reasonable figure. The opening is a good one for some enterprising man. For particulars call on or address Mr. Pearce.

The New Restaurant.

George Hageman has the second floor of his restaurant fitted up in good shape. The bedrooms have all been converted into wine and lunch rooms. Both floors are connected by electric lifts and tubes, and elevators are run from the dining room below to the floor above. The place has been painted throughout and both floors are now lighted by electricity. The employees of the place, from the cook down, will be men and the intention of Mr. Hageman is to conduct a first-class eating house.

Their Tin Wedding.

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. John H. Quinn celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage. About thirty-five of the lady friends of Mrs. Quinn assembled in response to invitations at the residence of Mr. Quinn where they were highly entertained. The ladies amused themselves playing "progressive pedro" until the time came to serve lunch, which was very elaborate. A large number of unique tin presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Quinn. Among the ladies present from neighboring cities were Mesdames James Dwyer, James Russell, and M. C. Scully of Marquette and Mrs. M. C. Quinn of Negaunee.

A Remarkable Occurrence.

During the dedication exercises of the local lodge K. of P. Tuesday evening the two swords that lay across the book of law were the property of two gentlemen who were members of Zenith lodge some twenty years ago. One was owned by Mr. Peter Ouder-kirk, who was a prominent business man of Ishpeming for a number of years, and the other was the property of Hon. A. P. Swineford, who was for a long interval editor of THE MINING JOURNAL. The names of these are engraved on the blades, and the fact that these two particular swords were by chance put to use on this occasion was commented on by several members of the lodge yesterday.

A Victim to Consumption.

Mrs. William Denette died yesterday morning of consumption after an illness of several months. Mrs. Denette was twenty-two years of age and is survived by a husband and one child, a son four years of age. Deceased was married five years and was a resident of Negaunee previous to her marriage to Mr. Denette. The funeral will be held Saturday morning at 9 o'clock with religious services at St. Joseph's Catholic church. The interment will take place in the Negaunee cemetery.

Carnegie's Mill at Homestead.

In the third act of Miss Putnam's new play, "An Unclaimed Express Package," the first scene shows the village church in midwinter by moonlight, and on a distant hill can be seen a huge blast furnace in operation. The scene is said to be an excellent reproduction of the famous village church at Homestead, the scene of the late strike, with Carnegie's steel mill in the distance. Opera house, Tuesday, April 11. Reserved seats on sale at Tilson's tomorrow.

Changed Hands.

Thomas Pearce purchased the old Milwaukee House property on Pearl street from James Coade, the deal being closed and papers delivered yesterday. The place is used as a boarding house and saloon at present and is commanding a good rental. The property was bought at a reasonable figure, the consideration being private.

DELAYED BY LIGHTNING.

Why The Mining Journal Did Not Get Copper Country Election Returns.

TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMMUNICATIONS GONE.

New President of Red Jacket After Altered Official Listers—Personal and Miscellaneous Notes.

(All communications for copper country department should be addressed to A. F. Tiler, Houghton)

RED JACKET.

The spring election seems to bring with it every year severe atmospheric disturbances as well as the emotional disturbance that is caused in the breast of the unsuccessful candidate. THE MINING JOURNAL reporter, as is customary, made his plans to get complete returns to his paper by wire and the beautiful weather that prevailed during the day made him feel certain that his plans could be carried out. At 8 p. m. as the Mineral Range and Hancock & Calumet trains pulled out from the Hancock station a severe electrical storm arose which subsided in about one hour. Arriving here the reporter visited the different precincts and obtained complete reports from this place, drove to Lanes Linden and there got reports from Schoolecraft and Torch Lake townships. It was nearly midnight when the reporter approached his telephone to call up the Houghton telegraph office to wire his paper the result of the ballots. Imagine his feelings to find that the storm had destroyed the telephone and there was no other way of reaching the Houghton office.

The severe lightning had also burnt out the armature on one of the incandescent electric light machines and all stores and residences using those lights were in darkness last night and perhaps tonight, as a new armature must come from Chicago.

A regular meeting of the common council was held yesterday afternoon. There was a pretty warm discussion between the president and the late clerk, also with the street commissioner. The president seems intent on having the city affairs run with rigid economy and that no member of the city's force shall receive compensation not earned. A number of bills were allowed. The new clerk, W. W. Ellis, officiated.

Councilman Vivian reported that Engineer Loweth reported that some samples of brick sent for the sewers had been rejected by him. On the proposition of Civil Engineer F. H. Close of Hancock, he recommended the council to accept the latter's services to superintend and oversee the work of the contractors.

Health Officer McLeod's report was read and his suggestions as to the collection of garbage and keeping streets and alleys clean were favorably received and will probably be acted on. The appointments of marshes to superintend night watchmen will be made at the next meeting.

Mr. Richard Oates, who has opened an office near the postoffice, has sent to England for his family to join him next month.

August Norbon, aged seventeen years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Norbon, died of consumption yesterday. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

After tonight the stores of this village will be open until 10 a. m. The clerks are quite put out about it as they felt that the 8 o'clock closing agreement should be kept until May 1.

CALUMET.

The total vote cast in Calumet township was 1,787. Over one hundred ballots were void by being improperly marked. The total Republican vote was 887; Democratic, 351; Populist, 116; Prohibition, 153. The only office over which there was any excitement was that of justice of the peace. Martin B. Kuhn of Calumet village received 788 votes; Daniel T. McDonald, 463; John B. Curtis, 373; Kuhn's plurality, 326.

A dress rehearsal of "Dorothy" will be held by the Calumet Musical Union next Monday. Hans Busch, scenic artist, finishes the work of painting new scenery today. The Musical union has consented to present the opera at the Armory, Houghton, on Friday evening, April 21.

The Ladies Parish Circle of Christ's church will hold a fair for the sale of useful and ornamental articles made by them about the middle of this month.

Reserved seats are on sale at Fitchel & Ruppert's drug store for the "Uncle Tom's Cabin" show tonight.

The subscribers of the telephone exchange must be patient for a day or two as the late electrical storm has mixed things up pretty badly.

Col. F. B. Lyon, assisted by Adjutant Merton, will inspect company D Fifth Regiment, M. S. T., at the Armory tomorrow evening.

The first convention of the Episcopal diocese of northern Michigan will be held at Grace church, Ishpeming, May 31. Bishop Davies of Detroit will be the guest.

President Agassiz of the Calumet & Hecla was returned to Boston from the West Indies.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whiting have a brand new daughter at their residence.

Among the strictly amateur photographers in this vicinity Dr. W. S. Whiskey takes the lead.

President Agassiz will make his regular visit to the mine next month.

The miners in the cross cut from No. 4 shaft to the Osceola vein blasted into the Osceola amygdaloid Tuesday evening and found it heavily charged with copper. It will take several days to cut through it to ascertain its size and richness.

his opponent, W. L. Hagen, received 237. On the state ticket the Democratic vote was 236; Populist, 108; Republican, 106; Prohibition, 53.

The criminal libel case against Sessions and Phipps of The Conglomerate brought by Ed Vauchesteing of Lake Linden for the slanderous article printed by them at the time that Professor Gignac, teacher of St. Anne's academy, skipped out, was opened at Justice Finn's court yesterday morning. Attorneys Dunstan and Riggs are counsel for the defendants and Prosecuting Attorney Streeter for the people. The following jury was empanelled: Adolph Buhl, Louis H. Richardson, Andrew Kauth, Charles Coom, C. A. Stringer and J. Dyer. There were twenty-three witnesses subpoenaed. The boys ranged from thirteen to fifteen years of age. Two young ladies and two men were examined. No very damaging evidence was given. It is expected that it will take all day today to finish the case.

Hard work or, easy work, just as you choose. If you find it hard work, it's because you won't use Pearline. You'd rather waste your time and your strength with that absurd rubbing and scrubbing. Of course it's hard—that's why Pearline was invented—that's why Pearline is a household word. You don't know how easy it can be, until you let Pearline do the work. Then house-cleaning slips right along. It is over before you know it.

A Kind of a "Morituri to Salutamus" Council Meeting Held Last Evening.

PREPARATIONS FOR SEVERAL IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS.

All Bills Hung Up Until the Controller Provided for by the New Charter Is Appointed

BY THE COMMON COUNCIL.

The common council met last evening in an adjourned regular session. President Powell was in the chair and Aldermen Kearney and Ward were the only absentees. The minutes of four meetings were read and approved.

Alderman Powell's petition for permission to connect his residence with the Michigan street sewer was granted.

An attempt was made to consider the election bills but Alderman Desjardins called attention to the fact that the city is now under its new charter and all such bills must first be passed upon by the controller. His point was sustained and as there will probably be no such officer until Mayor Kaufman takes his seat the bills can be considered hung up for the next thirty days.

The profile submitted by the city engineer for the Ohio street sewer was adopted and a resolution was passed directing the controller to prepare and submit to the council a plat and estimates on a sewer and laterals from the Third street sewer 500 feet west on Ohio street.

The street committee, to which had been referred the petition for the opening of Adams street through to Fishers street, reported that the snow was so deep that an examination of the ground had been impossible. More time was accordingly given the committee and the city engineer was meanwhile directed to prepare a profile of the street.

The claim of C. C. Van Iderstine for a rebate on an excessive sewer assessment was reported with a favorable recommendation and on motion the amount claimed was credited to him on his Prospect street improvement assessment.

Peterson, Johnson & Holl made a formal offer to do the extra work desired by the city on their Crescent street contract for $155 and the offer was accepted.

By a formal vote the deed for Spring street through the Harlow property was accepted and ordered recorded. The city engineer was directed to prepare a profile for the extension of the street.

The annual reports of the city treasurer, the city recorder and the board of water and fire commissioners were reported by the finance committee as correct and on motion of Alderman Williams were ordered printed. The recorder's report showed that the orders drawn by him during the year amounted to $69,845.43.

By vote of the council five $1 orders issued in payment for condemned property on Hewitt avenue and never called for were ordered cancelled, also three orders of 47 cents each drawn on the general fund.

The books showing $7,891.60 owing the school fund in back taxes from many years back and that sum having been stricken off from the school board's books the amount was ordered credited to the general fund in order to wipe it off the city's books. The same was done with $1,911.11 owing the water board.

On motion of Alderman Williams it was ordered that the Marquette Gas company be notified to place its pipes under the Front street bridges within sixty days.

The council then adjourned until this evening when it will finish the business left over and will also canvass the vote cast at the charter election.

Convicted His Man

State Game Warden Charles S. Hampton was in the city a few hours last evening, leaving for his home in the lower peninsula on the Lake Superior limited at 11 o'clock. He was called up by a case against Wm. H. Acker, head sawyer in Carr's mill at Shingleton, for a violation of the deer law. Acker was arrested two weeks ago and was disposed to fight the case but Mr. Hampton came up and arrested J. M. Carr himself, whereupon Acker came off his perch and was fined $50 and costs by Justice Knox at Munising, Carr being released in consideration of his telling the truth.

Violations of the game laws have been frequent and gross at Shingleton and Carr and his satellites have boasted that they would kill all the deer they pleased, hence Mr. Hampton was deeply pleased at being able to teach them a lesson yesterday.

The Fire Alarm System.

Mr. A. H. Knott, the representative of the Gamewell Fire Alarm Telegraph company, has the work of putting up the circuits for Marquette's new fire alarm system well under way and expects to have the circuits completed by Wednesday next. Three climbers and three helpers are at work on the job. The Marquette system will be in every respect the equal of that recently installed at Calumet by Mr. Knott and which is called the finest installation in Michigan. The wire used is copper, very heavily insulated, and there will be ten miles of it used in the circuits.

Injured at the Shops.

Eugene Kreig, pattern maker at the South Shore shops, was badly hurt at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. John Stull was the only person around when the accident happened. Kreig was standing on a short ladder trying to pull out some pieces of lumber from the lumber loft and just then as Stull looked around he saw Kreig and the ladder coming down together, he cannot tell what caused the fall. He rushed forward and tried to catch the falling man but was too late, Kreig striking the floor heavily, fracturing his left shoulder blade and cutting his head very badly. It was thought that he had been fatally hurt when he was first picked up but he rallied in a few minutes and was taken home on a stretcher, Dr. Youngquist dressing his injuries.

At the Dead River Mill.

The cold snap may delay the start at the Dead River mill a day or two but if necessary a little dynamite can be used to start the ice so that the logs can be run down to the mill hoists. It was expected that the start would be made today but Monday is now named though some sawing may possibly be done this week. The machinery is all in readiness and the men are nearly all ready for the start.

The company's store just beyond the office is finished and the first lot of goods was received yesterday. The floor is of hard maple and the whole interior is finished in native woods, oiled, making a very handsome little store of it. The last of the piles for the foundation of the big warehouse adjoining the store will be driven by noon today and this morning a large force of carpenters will commence framing the timbers for the building.

"Pleased Them Very Much."

Among the messages of congratulations addressed to Marquette's mayor-elect, Hon. N. M. Kaufman, under the supposition that he was at home here, are the following from L. There is no one instrument, unless, indeed, it be a large pipe organ, capable of the variety of effects that are obtainable on the Aeolian.
