MANY MINERS ARE DEAD.

Appalling Accident in the Great Coal Mine at Pont-y-Pridd, Wales.

PROBABLY TWO HUNDRED MINERS ARE KILLED.

Explosion of Gas Sets the Mine on Fire—Several Rescuers Succumb to the Deadly Fumes.

SCORES OF LIVES WIPED OUT. LONDON, April 11.—A spark from an engine ignited the gas in the coal pit near Pont-y-Pridd, Wales, and caused an explosion. A large number of miners were at work at the time and the explosion caused terrible havoc. The number of lives lost is not known but it is reported that twenty persons were killed and many others more or less seriously injured. Two hundred miners are entombed in the mine. The engine house is in flames and there is greatest fear that hundreds may have perished. The rescuers who went down were driven back without being able to bring up more than five of the dead and the fate of the other miners is in doubt.

Later advices from Pont-y-Pridd do not lighten the calamity and the worst fate is feared for hundreds of miners. The pit is worked in sections, one above another. The fire broke out in the eastern section. From this section seventy men succeeded in reaching the surface through the Mendip working, led by a miner who knew the roads. They had a terrible struggle to get out, forcing their way through fire and smoke. Many of them were scorched and all were terribly exhausted when they emerged to safety. They brought no good news as to those who were left behind but on the contrary expressed their dread that all those in the mine had perished.

At 9:45 o'clock this evening it was still impossible to obtain more than meagre details of the accident in the coal mine. The first alarm was given at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Flames and smoke gave to the 300 men at work in the seam the first warning of approaching danger. All ran toward the landing. Many were overtaken by the fire and smoke and fell and were left to their fate by their comrades in advance. Comparatively few of the men who were in the seam at the time of the explosion reached the landing. At the entrance of the shaft a rescuing party was formed by the pit surveyor. The party got as far as the landing at the seam where the fire started but was driven back almost immediately by the dense smoke issuing from the seam. The surveyor took his men back to the surface.

After a half hour's rest they went down again and forced their way ten yards into the workings. They found four dead bodies which they brought back with them. Attempts to go further into the workings were vain as the woodwork was burning and large masses of ruins were falling incessantly from the roofs. One of the rescue party who ventured too far was killed.

The men who saved themselves immediately after the fire broke out were too much confused and frightened to observe the positions of their fellow workmen. They were unable to give any clear account of the distribution of the miners and the work of rescue must therefore proceed under all the difficulties of uncertainty.

Not only are scores of miners' families at the mouth of the pit but also the miners who were saved and the men of the other shafts. There are numerous volunteers to undertake the work of rescue as soon as it becomes possible. There is little doubt that most, if not all, the men below have been suffocated or burned to death.

Hand grenades, barrels of water and pipe attached to fire engines on the surface are being used to extinguish the flames in the mine. In two sections of the mine the fire was put out. The extinction of the flames has been followed in each case, however, by the accumulation of gas and it is feared that explosions may follow shortly.

Another attempt to enter the seam in which the fire started has proved resultless. Although the party saw six dead bodies they were prevented by smoke and heat from reaching them. Where the fire had been extinguished they were also unable to make any progress, as they could not remain in the foul atmosphere.

The number of men still in the mine cannot be ascertained, although it is known to be well above fifty. There is a little hope that some of them found refuge at such a distance from the burning sections that they are still alive.

At midnight the fire was again burning in all directions of the mine near the shaft. The surface pipe, which was used to pour water into the mine, has burst. The difficulties in the way of quenching the fire have increased and the rescue of the men below is regarded as hopeless.

CROPS ARE LOOKING WELL.

First Report of Re-established Michigan Weather Service.

DETROIT, April 11.—The first official weather crop bulletin of the Michigan weather service was issued today. The mean temperature of the past seven days was 6.7 above the normal in all sections and the total precipitation 6.8 above the normal. In the northern section, where the ground is exposed, wheat is reported as looking well. In the central section nearly all stations report the weather as having had a favorable effect on the crops. Wheat and fruit prospects are good and spring plowing is general. All the southern counties except one report crop prospects as good, the warm rains having started a vigorous growth of wheat and fruit. On the whole the season is starting out with better prospects than last year.

WILSON PLAN IS ILLEGAL.

New York Still Hunting for Rapid Transit Facilities.

NEW YORK, April 11.—A meeting of the rapid transit commission was held this afternoon at the home of William Steinway. The session today was understood to be chiefly for the purpose of hearing John M. Bowers' opinion on the legality of the scheme for building underground road proposed by R. T. Wilson & Co., the bankers. On Saturday last that firm proposed to raise $15,000,000 of private capital and have the city lend its credit for $35,000,000 additional capital and then build the road at an estimated cost of $50,000,000. Commissioners Steinway, Spencer, Bushe, Starin and Inman, Mr. Wilson and his son, Mr. Bowers, and Mr. Beaman were present when the meeting was called to order. Mr. Bowers presented his report. The city, he thought, could lend its credit to carry on the construction of the road. He cited the case of the Brooklyn bridge. The city, however, could not interest itself in any corporation. Mr. Wilson's first proposition was not complete, he said, in several important particulars. It meant a distinct loan by the city and would be a violation of the law. The proposition that Mr. Wilson build from the Battery to Fourteenth street and the city the remainder of the line was next examined. Mr. Bowers said that he thought it would be lawful to build from Fourteenth street north but Mr. Wilson's condition that the line must be sold on certain terms after completion would, he thought, be construed by the court as a mere evasion of the law. He was satisfied that the plans proposed were not feasible, basing his opinion on the verdicts in test cases already made in this state. The Wilson plans were withdrawn.

LYNCHING WAS POSTPONED.

Kansas Mob Induced to Leave Hudson to the Law.

SALINA, Kas., April 11.—John Hudson, the negro arrested for the assault upon Mrs. J. M. Frost, was taken from the jail by a mob last night, a rope was placed around his neck and he was hastened to the National Hotel, where Mrs. Frost was lying. She positively identified him as her assailant and the mob took him to the street. He was given a chance to speak and protested his innocence. He was told to prepare for death. At this point a number of citizens began to protest and the sentiment grew so strong in favor of Hudson that proceedings preparatory to the hanging were stopped. He was finally returned to the jail. In the fight between the mob and the deputies at the jail Policeman Meyers was knocked down with a club and one or two men slightly wounded by accidental pistol shots.

CLEANING UP THE RUBBISH.

Two Thousand Men Sweeping the World's Fair Grounds.

CHICAGO, April 11.—The World's Fair officials today increased the landscape force to almost two thousand men. These men are working a wonderful transformation. The great gang is commencing up at the north end of the grounds where the state and foreign buildings stand nearly all complete. As the wave of shovels, rakers, sweepers and teamsters rolls along the great possibilities of the World's Fair in gala dress are presented. Each building becomes a palace, each door yard a beautiful garden spot, the whole threaded by wide, sweeping boulevards, smooth as a piano cover and winding gravel paths undulating in a shimmer in the sunlight. All debris is hauled to the open stretch of ground, some sixty acres in extent, at the south end of the exposition. Here it is buried.

HE MIXED HIS COAL.

Gas Nearly Suffocated Max Schiedemeyer and Children.

APPLETON, Wis., April 11.—Four deaths from asphyxiation nearly occurred in the home of Max Schiedemeyer before retiring for the night Mr. Schiedemeyer mixed some soft coal with the hard coal and started a fire in the stove. When the three children awoke they entered the dining room this morning and were overcome by foul gas. The father hearing them fall went to see what the trouble was and he too was overcome. His wife at once discovered the cause of the trouble and threw open all the doors and windows and ran for a doctor. The children and Mr. Schiedemeyer were brought to consciousness after half an hour's work. The two younger children, however, are in a critical condition and it is feared they will not recover.

THE EARTHQUAKE IN SERBIA.

Two Villages Destroyed But Loss of Life Was Small.

VIENNA, April 11.—Serbia suffered most from yesterday's earthquake but the loss of life appears small. Two villages in the province of Svalajnac were destroyed. The chief judge was killed at Jagodina by his house collapsing. It is believed that these earthquakes are a continuation of the recent earthquake in Asia Minor, which was meagerly reported, where the town of Malatia with three thousand houses was destroyed and one hundred and thirty persons perished.

Forecast of the Weather.

WASHINGTON, April 11, 9 p.m.—The weather bureau reports the following as its forecast for the next 24 hours, for upper Michigan: Local rains; dangerous southeasterly gales, probably shifting to the south during the day and to the west on Lake Michigan during the evening.

UPPER PENINSULA ASYLUM.

Fate of Representative Wagner's Bill Will Probably Be Decided This Afternoon.

IT APPROPRIATES $75,000 FOR THE PURPOSE

Upper Peninsula Members Will Work for Three Normal Schools. One of Them Up Here

SIMPLE HUMANITY DEMANDS IT.

STATE HOUSE, LANSING, Mich., April 11.—[Special.]—At a joint meeting of the upper peninsula members held today it was unanimously decided to support Senator Flesch's bill providing for the establishment of three new state normal schools. The bill stands an excellent chance of passage. It calls for an appropriation of $75,000 and fixes the location of one institution in the upper peninsula and two in the northern and central parts of the lower peninsula.

The upper peninsula delegation has also solidly united on Representative Wagner's measure calling for an appropriation of $75,000 for the establishment of an upper peninsula insane asylum. The bill has been reported without recommendation by the committee on state affairs and together with all other appropriation bills will be considered in special order at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. A lively discussion is expected.

The bill giving railroad companies the right to consolidate with other roads and introduced principally in the interests of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and Milwaukee & Northern railroads, passed the senate this afternoon. The bill is an important one as it will encourage these corporations to complete their extensions in the upper peninsula at an early date.

After a discussion lasting the greater part of the afternoon the house today voted to attend the dedication of the Michigan building at the World's Fair on April 25 at the expense of the state. However, the matter of railroad transportation will amount to nothing, as the Michigan Central and the Wagner Palace Car company have placed a special train at the disposal of the lawmakers.

Hon. Jay A. Habbell of Houghton arrived here tonight.

DUNNIVANT'S CASE DISMISSED.

Newsboy Probably Made Some Compromise With Millionaire Potter.

CHICAGO, April 11.—The much speculated $100,000 damage suit brought by ex-Newsboy Eugene Dunnivant against Millionaire O. W. Potter, alleging false imprisonment for presuming to aspire to the hand of Mr. Potter's daughter, was taken up before Judge McConnell today. Dunnivant's counsel moved that the case be set at the foot of the docket. If this motion prevails there will be 534 cases ahead of this one and its trial will not be reached for several months. No explanation was given of Dunnivant's desire for this long delay.

Later in the day the motion to remove the case to the foot of the docket was refused and the case of Dunnivant against Potter was dismissed, the plaintiff deeming to present any evidence in support of his suit.

ACCIDENT OR MURDER?

Hermann Dunkel Burned to Death in His House.

APPLETON, Wis., April 11.—The house of Hermann Dunkel, who lived alone in the outskirts of the Fourth ward far from neighbors, burned at an early hour this morning and Dunkel perished in the flames. The fire was unnoticed by the neighbors and no alarm was turned in. When the loss of the house became known it was several hours before Dunkel's absence caused any uneasiness. It being supposed he was with friends. About noon a search was made in the ruins and Dunkel's remains found burned to a crisp. Dunkel kept a small chicken farm and was somewhat of a recluse. The origin of the fire is unknown at present.

WIFE MURDERER LYNCHED.

James Jeffcote Rode a Mule Into the Hereafter.

MEMPHIS, April 11.—News reached here today of a wife murder and lynching near Pickens, Miss., a town without telegraphic communication. Saturday evening James Jeffcote reported to his nearest neighbor that his wife had been murdered. A crowd gathered and found evidence to warrant Jeffcote's arrest. He broke down Sunday and confessed that he had quarreled and he had killed her with an axe. A mob gathered, Jeffcote was put on a mule's back and a rope around his neck was thrown over the limb of a tree. The mule was touched up and Jeffcote's body left hanging. It was then riddled with bullets.

LODGE SWINDLER SENT UP.

Vail's Career of Imposture Interrupted for One Year.

MARINETTE, Wis., April 11.—A. A. Vail, the swindler who worked the Knights of Pythias here for considerable money, was taken before Judge Holgate today, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to imprisonment at Waupun for one year. William Lester, a young man residing in this city, also appeared before Judge Holgate and pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary. He was sentenced to state prison for one year.

A LAW has been passed by the California legislature making it a misdemeanor for the publisher of a newspaper to misrepresent the circulation of his paper for the purpose of procuring advertising patronage. A wise measure, too. Of course, the framers of the law proceeded on the theory that a man engaged in the publishing business should be held to a higher standard of rectitude than is exacted from persons engaged in other callings, but that is a compliment to the newspaper fraternity that its honest members will approve and appreciate. And as for the others, they don't count.

BALFOUR, the Tory leader, is now counseling the truculent Orangemen of Ulster to get ready to make armed resistance to home rule if the bill providing for an Irish parliament to legislate for Ireland passes the English parliament and become operative. Balfour's unfitness for the trust that he held under the administration recently unseated in Great Britain needs no stronger confirmation than this. A man who counsels resistance to law is not fit to assist in either making or administering the laws of a great nation. Balfour represents a type of statesmen who once had things pretty much their own way in England, but their power and influence wanes as that of the people grows, and they will soon be shelved as completely as the royalist party is in France, and antiquated isms in liberal countries generally.

A MINISTER named Payne is quoted as saying that when the news of Carter Harrison's election to the Chicago mayoralty was bulletined in hedges "the devil laughed and all hell held a jubilee." Just such dampfools as this minister make the success of such men as Carter Harrison possible, for their ignorant ranting and brutal intolerance drives good citizens from the support of what the blatant pulpit bangers advocate, and not infrequently to the injury of a good cause which has in them its most ardent advocates. Carter Harrison may not be a saint, but he is not so wicked as to call for much of a hurrah in hell over his election as mayor of a city that had Washburne in the mayor's chair before him. It must be admitted that he knows enough to run a newspaper successfully, and a man who is capable of doing that ought to be easily equal to the task of running the municipal government of even as big a city as Chicago.

CONSIDERABLE comment is being made in the European press on a speech recently delivered by the Russian crown prince in which he pointed out the advantages that would accrue to Russia from a closer alliance with Germany and the danger of too great intimacy with France. The speech was delivered at a dinner of the Proebashenski guard given in honor of that despot expectant. He declared that it is a grievous mistake for Russia to invite the enmity of Germany, particularly when this is done by promoting the interests of France. In the course of his talk he furnished the key to his sentiments by alluding to the faulty system of government that, according to his belief, now has control of the affairs of France, mentioning the Panama scandal as typical of its rottenness. This came with a good grace from the prospective heir of the Russian crown, for it is well known that in addition to being the most villainous and heartless government in the world that of Russia is the most veiled and corrupt. It is not a matter for surprise that the crowned heads of the old world have no friendship for the French Republic, for the success it is meeting with in its efforts to give the French people a just and liberal government is teaching their subjects to be very restive under oppression and to look forward to the day when they, too, shall enjoy the blessings of free institutions. The czars and emperors and kings and queens of Europe have no love for the French Republic, and just as little for our own.

This Boston Transcript's special New York correspondent informs that paper as follows regarding the copper market: Notwithstanding manufacturers are very busy with orders, the copper market does not reflect the activity reported among consumers. In the face of steadily decreased supplies abroad, and restricted output the market has gone on declining in price. Current quotations are the lowest since last October, and the future of copper is problematical. Lake is quoted at 11 1/2 @ 11 3/4. Buyers probably would find no great difficulty in having their orders filled at the inside figure. Considerable business has been put through within a few days on this basis. While electrical people are planning for a brisk business, the demand from this source has not been great enough as yet to make any decided impression on copper. The season for active operations has arrived, and when the numerous new electric railways actually are under way, a decided stimulus may be imparted to the copper market. There is no question but that copper is getting down to figures which should attract free buying. Dilatory purchasers may wait too long and thus miss their opportunity, as the conditions are not altogether in favor of buyers. There are several factors favorable to copper, and an examination of the situation makes them apparent. Shipments of Lake abroad have been renewed to the extent of several hundred tons, but no new business for export account comes to the surface. Montana matte shipments have increased in volume. Casting copper is dull, and the market is quoting about a cent a pound under the price of Lake.

Isn't the Lansing Journal a bit off in what it says concerning the extent to which the A. P. A. has managed to obtain a foothold in the state capital? THE MINING JOURNAL must believe so until it has better evidence of the truth of that paper's charges than the mere assertion of even so conscientious and honest an organ of the opposition as Mr. Rowley's paper is conceded to be. Let us have proofs that the Republican party is so dominated by the A. P. A., friend Rowley, and THE MINING JOURNAL will turn with a will to the task of weeding the last vestige of that detestable form of intolerance out of it. By the way, isn't there some A. P. A. sentiment in the Democratic party also? If not, why is it that so many Saginaw Democrats have voted for a couple of years in succession to place members of that baleful society in office? It is just possible that our Democratic contemporary at the state capital has given so much thought to the influence the A. P. A. is obtaining in the Republican party that it has failed to observe the grip it has secured on its own in certain parts of the state. Ignorant bigotry and intolerance are not the distinguishing vice of any particular party. Fools are to be found in all parties, and if there are some of them in the Republican ranks that party is not any less unfortunate in that respect, to put it mildly, than is the political organization which has in the Lansing expositor of its doctrines so able and adroit an advocate and defender.

How Many Words Do You Use? It is astonishing how few words are really needed to transact the business of life and how often these are called into requisition. Some expert in such matters computes that with 1,000 words an ordinary man can transact all the business of life, and of these he commonly uses only 400 or 500, reserving the remainder for extraordinary occasions, when some idea out of the usual line of his thinking occurs to him, compelling an uncommon strain of his verbal resources. In just such emergencies the blessings of slang are manifest, one slang or cant word being made to do duty for a dozen. When he wishes to convey the idea that the weather is extremely cold, he says it is awfully cold; a few months later he discovers that it is awfully hot; at dinner his pig is awfully nice; the young lady on whom he is called last evening was awfully pretty, and so on he goes, making one word answer the purpose of a whole vocabulary.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Strange Advice. Doctor—You seem to have lost all zest for life, my dear sir. You must rouse yourself and take more interest in your business. Patient—Good gracious, doctor, I'm a money lender!—Exchange.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When the tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. P. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. THEY NEVER FAIL.

J. N. Harris, 3 Fulton Market, New York city, says: "I have been using Brandreth's pills for the last fifteen years. There is nothing equal to them as blood purifiers and liver regulators. But I wish to state how remarkably they cure rheumatism and how easily; I was affected by rheumatism in the legs. My business (wholesale fish dealer) naturally leads me to damp places. I could not walk, and at night I suffered fearfully; I tried balsams, sarsaparillas and all kinds of tinctures, but they did me no good and I was afraid of being a cripple. I finally commenced using Brandreth's pills. I took two every night for ten nights, then I began to improve. I continued taking them for forty days and I got entirely well. Now, whenever sick, I take Brandreth's pills. They never fail."

"ROYAL RUBY" PORT WINE. If you are reduced in vitality or strength by illness or any other cause, we recommend the use of this grand old Port wine, the very blood of the grape. THEIR CHOICE FOR CHIEF. Negaunee's Firemen Name Henry Lee for That Responsible Place. The Retiring City Recorder - Society Entertainment and Ball - Laid Hands on His Sign.

HENRY LEE FOR CHIEF. Hose company No. 1 held a meeting Monday evening, principally for the selection of a chief of the fire department. The merits and claims of several good men in No. 1 company were discussed by the boys prior to the meeting but none of those considered desired the place. Company No. 2 also had one or two men in view whom its members would like to have chosen.

His Last Day. City Recorder Joseph H. Primeau will complete his official work as municipal recording officer tonight, when his successor, Mr. George McDonald, will take the oath and enter on the duties of that office. Mr. Primeau would have retired a day or two after election but was desirous of finishing up all the work on hand before turning the office over to Mr. McDonald.

Entertainment and Ball. Bills will be issued today announcing the entertainment and ball to be given by Jackson, Rebecca Lodge No. 111, I. O. O. F., of Negaunee, on the evening of the 25th inst. The English Oak orchestra, under the leadership of Professor John Blackwell, will assist.

Wanted a Barber Sign. A number of big boys, or young men, stole Christ Gauthier's barber sign Monday night about 11:30 o'clock and in making away with it were interrupted by one of Christ's friends, who rescued the sign and carried it back to the shop. It was somewhat scratched, besides the ball ornament on the top was missing. Christ says the boys may have had a heap of fun while they were damaging his property but the next time they attempt anything of that kind he will get after them with both feet.

LOCAL LAGONICS Mayor Anthony was a visitor to Marquette yesterday. T. M. Wells, Negaunee's enterprising merchant, spent yesterday in Marquette. A number of Negaunee people took in the Katie Putnam show at Ishpeming last evening. Ira A. Clark made a business trip to Republic Monday, returning home yesterday morning.

The painters and paper hangers report business booming in their line. Everybody is getting ready for warm weather. Woolner & Elliott received a consignment of baby carriages recently. They are now putting them together preparatory to putting them on sale.

Miss Lizzie Laboullie will give a social party to a number of her young friends at the residence of her parents on Ann street this evening. The hearing in the case of Fred Pleau was again held adjourned to await prosecuting Attorney H. O. Young's return from Lansing. Meanwhile Pleau remains in jail. Awful good place for him, too.

The newly elected officers of the Negaunee branch, Uniform Rank, Sons of St. George, will go to Ishpeming tonight, where they will be installed in their respective offices by Major General Griffith of Chicago. A suit of clothes was lost by a Cascade man between Ishpeming and Cascade about three weeks ago. The finder of the package will be suitably rewarded by returning the same to Frank Turner of Negaunee or S. Johnson & Co. of Ishpeming.

Coughing Leads to Consumption. Kemp's Balsam stops the cough at once. BRECHIAN'S PILLS for a bad Liver. A New Certain Cure for Piles. We do not intend to indorse any except articles of genuine merit; we therefore take pleasure in recommending to sufferers from Piles in any form, a prompt and permanent cure. The following letters speak for themselves:

Mrs. Mary C. Tyler, of Heppner, Ore., writes: One pkg. of Pyramid Pile Cure entirely cured me of piles from which I have suffered for years, and I have never had the slightest return of them since. Mr. E. O'Brien, Rock Bluffs, Neb., says: The pkg. of Pyramid Pile Cure entirely removed every trace of itching piles. I cannot thank you enough for it. The Pyramid Pile Cure is a new, certain, painless cure for every form of piles. It is safe, sure and cheap. Any druggist will get it for you if you ask him.

AN ELECTRICAL SNAKE. A Tall Story About a Fiery Monster That Left a Trail of Glass. Mark Weston, a farmer living near the town of Alexandria, Ind., relates a most wonderful phenomenon which occurred at his place.

He says: "Just after dark night before last I had occasion to go out to the barn to look after the horses. A public highway passes within 200 yards of my house, and the barn is built on a slight rise from the house to the south and somewhat nearer the road. I started from the house in the direction of the barn and had gone perhaps half the distance when I noticed something playing along the ground that looked like a tremendous fiery snake.

"I was perfectly conscious all the time, but try as I would I could not move from the spot. After the thing had remained in an upright position for a minute, three or four minutes there was a sudden explosion like the discharge of a cannon, and the thing disappeared entirely. With the disappearance of the strange phenomenon I felt a shock like the first one I had felt, and at the same time I gained control of my limbs. I hastened to the house, told my wife what I had seen, and she thought I was crazy, but upon my insisting she consented to accompany me to investigate the matter.

"You can imagine our surprise upon reaching the barn to find it covered with a remarkable network of smoldering rails of fire. They appeared to pass around the building in exactly the way the fiery monster had passed. It was not ice, however, but seemed to be more of a crystal, for it would not melt even when we held a flame to it, and when struck with a hatchet it simply gave a dullish sound and did not splinter.

"Upon entering the barn we were amazed, as two good horses stood in their stalls immovable. They were alive, but neither could move a muscle. They seemed to be paralyzed and stood there more like statues than anything else. They were warm and limber, but when I touched them, as if I could not tell they were alive, I applied the whip, and they never flinched. A dog that sleeps in the barn was dead and appeared completely petrified. He was lying on the ground with his head on his paws just like he was sleeping. When I left home this morning, I carried with me as I have described it to you." - Cor. Chicago Mail.

Life In Hawaii. Of the people of the Hawaiian Islands it can be truly said that they are the most amiable, courteous, irascible people in the world. The nearest approach to work of any of them is in their employment as cowboys on the stock ranches. They are wonderfully expert horsemen and also become adept in the use of the lasso. A native man, or a native woman for that matter, is never so happy as when on a spirited horse, going at a hard gallop, decked out with flowing leis and streamers of bright colored cloth, in screaming conversation with a whole troop of companions. They ride their horses to death, they kill their babies with neglect and improper food, and yet it cannot be said that there is a grain of conscious cruelty in their nature.

There is no record of any violence ever done by them to a woman. A white woman is absolutely safe among them without any protection and is exempt from insults or even disrespect beyond what may come from an unconscious usage of etiquette. Many of them pass the greater part of their lives squatted on woven grass mats before the doors of their huts chatting inconsequently and eating their meal of fish when the inclination comes to them. Presidents Who Married Widows. Three of the first four presidents of the United States married widows. The wife of John Quincy Adams, who received her education in England, created a great sensation in the nation's capital. The wife of Martin Van Buren, Hannah Hoos, lived but a short time after her marriage, dying about 17 years before her husband's election to the presidency. President Tyler's second wife was an ardent Roman Catholic, and Mrs. Polk was a calm, mannered Presbyterian. Mrs. Millard Fillmore had been a schoolteacher, and the courtship was carried on under difficulties, as the lover could rarely afford the expense of a journey to see his fiancée. Mrs. Franklin Pierce was the devoted daughter of a clergyman and made the White House a center for charitable and religious enterprises. - Detroit Free Press.

An American Greeting. An American naval officer says that once when a great function took place in the harbor of Cherbourg several vessels of our Atlantic squadron were present and were drawn up in line to salute the empress's yacht as it passed. The French sailor manned the yards of their ships and shouted, "Vive l'Imperatrice!" Knowing that he could not school his men to repeat those words in the brief time left to him, the American admiral ordered his crews to cry, "Beef, lemons and cheese!" The imperial yacht came sweeping on, and as it reached the fleet a mighty roar went up of "Beef, lemons and cheese!" that entirely drowned the voices of the Frenchmen. And the empress said she had never been so complimented. - San Francisco Argonaut.

S PONGES AND CHAMOIS SKINS. VIRGINIA, MINN. Is the most centrally situated town on the great Mesaba iron range. It has a great natural location, sloping gradually from the mines to the shore of two beautiful little lakes and surrounded by charming scenery. The Duluth, Mesaba & Northern has reached the place and building is going on at a lively rate. The townsite surrounded by one of the best groups of mines on the range, mines capable of producing anywhere from 1,000,000 to 2,500,000 tons of ore annually. The surrounding country is well timbered, pine predominating. A saw mill is now operating and a large one is about to be erected, the lakes affording excellent booms. The village has a system of water works, a bank, feed stable, several stores, saloons, restaurants and hotels. A post-office and newspaper is now established, the latter by Dr. Fred Barrett. Virginia is destined to have a population of at least 5,000 and people seeking new locations would do well to look it over. For further information write to

YOUNG MEN

Who may be suffering from the effect of youthful follies or indiscretions will do well to avail themselves of this chance.

DR. SPEER & CO.

Will guarantee a perfect cure in all cases of weakness or private disease of any kind or character they undertake or forfeit $50. They will therefore say to the unfortunate sufferers who may read this notice that you are treading on dangerous ground when you longer delay in seeking the proper remedies for your complaint. Then for the first time you will realize what negligence means. Our success in such cases can be best understood when we will positively declare that over 100,000 have been treated by us in different parts of the world. Call and get the benefit of our experience.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many of the age of 30 to 50 who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting sensation and weakening of the system in a manner which the patient cannot account for. On examination it will be found that the urine deposits aropy sediment and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear or the color be of a thin or milky hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of weakness.

LADIES

Finding it inconvenient to call at the office can be treated by mail by sending a full description of their case.

DR. SPEER & CO.

Will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases and a healthy restoration of the organs. Examination and advice free to all. Remember the place, 146 West Washington street, Marquette.

P. S.—See our testimonials in the different papers from well-known people. Never put off until tomorrow what you can do today. If you feel alarmed about your lungs take Dr. Speer & Co's, new lung treatment.

A Very Strange Case.

Two little girls, Jennie and Edith, near Boston, were in the friends and companion. Diphtheria broke out here and was taken with it, and at noon, Wednesday June 5, Jennie died. Edith's parents and the physician, too, took particular pains to keep from her the fact that her little playmate was gone...

Right here is the important point to be noted in this narration. Dying persons usually see or think they see those and only those that they know have passed away.

Edith died at 6:30 p. m., Saturday, June 8. She had roused up and bidden her friends goodbye and was talking of dying and seemed to have no fear. She appeared to see one and another of the friends she knew were dead...

Wellington and Wellington.

Imagine the astonishment of the merchant on beholding the counterfeit presentation of the two heroes, Luther in the black garb of a priest, and Wellington in the red uniform bespangled with stars and orders.

The dealer refused to keep the bowls, and the painter would not take them back. The public got wind of the affair, everybody laughed at the mistake and wanted to have a china bowl with the heroes of Waterloo and Waterloo.

ANOTHER CANTATA PROMISED.

Musical Members of Ishpeming's Division Street M. E. Church to Produce It.

Sewer Intake Gives Way Partially. About to Build New Place of Worship.

"REBECCA AT THE WELL"

The members of the Harmonic society of the Division street M. E. church who so very successfully presented the cantata "Queen Esther" on three different occasions will produce the cantata "Rebecca at the Well" on the evening of May 30, Decoration Day. Rehearsals for the performance will begin at once.

The Harmonic society has promised to raise $1,000 within a given time for the new church building fund. The Ladies' Aid society of the church has also promised to donate a similar amount, $500 of which has been already raised. For organization of their limited membership those named have undertaken a large task, but their members have no fear of their ability to accomplish it. The money will be raised principally by giving entertainments, socials, suppers, etc.

Intake Damaged

The intake leading from Partridge creek to the sewer on Third street near F. W. Read & Co.'s wood yard sprang a leak yesterday morning and the water washed away a portion of the filling on both sides, causing a cave-in. The lauder is eighteen feet long. The damage done is slight. Superintendent Hawkins had a force of men at work during the day repairing the lauder. Considerable water is flowing into the sewer at this point.

Will Build.

At a meeting of the trustees and members of the Division street M. E. church, held Sunday last, it was decided to begin the erection of the society's new church on North Third street as soon as preliminary details can be arranged. A committee consisting of thirty members of the church was selected to solicit aid from the citizens. The contract for building the church will be let in a few weeks, when it is expected the work will be commenced. The church will be built of solid brick with sandstone trimmings, and will have a seating capacity of between eight and nine hundred.

Realism in Acting.

A remarkable illustration of this was presented to a Lincoln audience during the presentation of Bleak House at the Lansing theatre. In the third scene of the last act Miss Jane Coombs as Lady Dedlock lies dead in the center of the stage with one arm around the iron gate which leads to the old burying ground. The set is an elaborate snow scene, as the fates are drawn off the snow is seen falling and from the church organ comes the beautiful notes of "Nearer My God to Thee." The characters came upon the stage led by poor Jo and Bucket, the detective. Suddenly there was a rise in their seats, and the very high at the Lansing having been insecured fastened fell, one over the footlights causing the orchestra to stampede and the audience to rise in their seats, and the rest of the wings fell across the stage in utter confusion driving every one from it. It was at this juncture that Jane Coombs gave the audience such an exhibition of absence of life and complete identification with character as she lay upon the stage absolutely motionless with the scenes falling about her that it was almost terrible in its realism.—The Hub, Kearney, Neb.

Church Officers.

At the Grace Episcopal church vestry meeting held at the residence of Wm. Sedgwick Monday evening, the following officers were elected: Wm. Sedgwick, senior warden; Wm. H. Rood, junior warden and secretary; A. W. Myers, treasurer; H. F. Heyn, executive.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank our friends and neighbors, also the pall-bearers, for the kindness and sympathy shown during the death and funeral of our husband and father, Cornelius Connors. Their many acts of kindness will ever be held in grateful remembrance and we desire to publicly express our appreciation of the same.

GENERAL MANAGER PHILBIN LEAVES FOR HIS NEW PLACE.

The Board of Canvassers Adjourns to Friday—A Slick Swindler's Successful Visit—Other Notes.

THE DEAL NEARLY CLOSED.

Negotiations are nearly closed for the purchase of the new and staunch steamer City of Marquette, which has been running all the winter across Lake Michigan in railroad service, by Marquette parties who will place her in the excursion and general freight and passenger business out of this port. The Marquette is only about three years old and is one of the best boats of her size on the lakes. If she is brought up here she will make two round trips a week between Marquette and Grand Marais and Marquette and Portage Entry, taking in the shore points. This will accommodate the Huron Mountain, Onota and Anna River clubs, the lumbermen up the shore from Marquette and the fishing firms and people of Grand Marais, while the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic in connection with the boat will make a special feature of the trip to the Pictured Rocks and will also devote special pains to the working up of excursions from this point.

It is believed that there is a fine opening here for a steamer to work up the business indicated and certainly the establishment of such a freight and passenger service would prove of great advantage to Marquette merchants who would be enabled to gather in a large trade now enjoyed by other places.

Among those actively interested in the plan of putting on the steamer is Captain Smith Moore who has a splendid reputation all over the lakes as a nifty and thoroughly capable vessel master. The captain is prepared to take a large interest in the steamer himself and would undoubtedly command her and no better man could be found for the place.

Off for Duluth.

Mr. D. M. Philbin, now the general manager of the Duluth, Missabe & Northern road with headquarters at Duluth, left last evening for the Zenith City to assume the duties of his new position. During his connection with the South Shore road Mr. Philbin showed himself a thorough railroad man in every sense of the word and as General Manager Fitch's right hand man exerted a powerful influence in the affairs of the road. There is no better posted man in the country on the ore business than Mr. Philbin, his experience having been gathered at Escanaba, Ashland and Marquette, and the Mesaba range's new ore road certainly made a ten strike when it secured his services. Mr. Philbin leaves a very large number of warm personal friends in Marquette who greatly regret his departure and yet at the same time are forced to extend their congratulations because of the decided promotion which the change means. Their fervent wish is that all of General Manager Philbin's future changes shall be in the same line.

Mr. Philbin takes with him to Duluth Mr. J. W. Kreiter, his chief clerk here, who will become his private secretary in his new position. Mr. Kreiter is an admirable office man and his friends hope to hear from him frequently in the coming years.

Board of Canvassers.

The county board of canvassers met at the court house yesterday to canvass the vote at the recent election. A contest over the position of supervisor from Ishpeming township was brought to light and in order to give it the necessary attention the board adjourned to 10 a. m. Friday.

On Saturday Evening.

Turner's English Gaiety Girls company is the attraction at the opera house Saturday evening, April 15. The performance begins with a one-act burlesque entitled "A Parlor Rehearsal." Other features are the serpentine dance by Misses Russell, Fleming, Hazel and Rose Mountain; Fred Barth, eccentric, grotesque and leg mania comedian; Frank Lalor and Ada Gill, sketch artists, Mauvel and Lorraine, who do some clever work on the trapeze; Lillie May Hull, who sings a number of new and original songs; May Clark and George Kazillians, the acrobatic wonders. The performance concludes with a three-act burlesque known as "Cleopatra or Our Merry Female Club."

An Arrant Knave.

Some weeks ago a man styling himself J. D. Masterson canvassed Marquette for orders for medical and legal publications, representing himself as the agent of "The Law and Literary Exchange." The exchange apparently has no existence, at all events Masterson is shown up as a swindler of the worst kind. He got a number of Marquette physicians to renew their subscriptions to various professional journals through him and now they find that they might as well have thrown the money in the lake so far as its ever reaching publishers is concerned. Wm. Wood & Co. of New York, the publishers of The Medical Record and The American Journal of Obstetrics acknowledge that they have received complaints from points all through Minnesota where Masterson had canvassed and state that "this man Masterson has canvassed the United States throughout the past two or three years pretending to represent all sorts of establishments of the 'Literary Exchange' order and engages to take orders for anything at any price he can collect in advance" and yet the only steps they have taken to protect the subscribers to their publications seems to have been a reference to Masterson published over two years ago. Under the circumstances it is not surprising that their Marquette subscribers are hot and are discontinuing the Wood publications. Masterson will find himself in hot water if he ever ventures into this neck of the woods again, but his visit is a warning to people not to pay money in advance for subscriptions, unless to a local subscription agency in which they know they can have confidence or to the publishers direct.

The Day Not Set.

Mayor Kaufman has been heard from to the effect that he expects to leave Chicago for home this week but as yet he does not know just what day he will get away so there is a probability that he will not call the new council together until some evening next week as he will want time after his arrival to find out something about where he is at as far as political affairs are concerned.

Escanaba's New Line.

Escanaba is waking up to the advisability of securing a connection with the Soo line and at a meeting held in the Sandy City Monday evening a committee was appointed to take the preliminary steps for a railway to North Escanaba to make the desired connection. Frank Brotherton will be asked to make the preliminary survey.

"HA!-HA!-HARVESTS!"

A great man once said in speaking of a remarkable fertile spot. "If you tickle it with a hoe, it laughs with a harvest." This saying is indeed true of North Galveston, for the fruit growing lands of the region yield, in response to cultivation which is here played compared with the arduous toil of farmers in northern climes, immense crops of pears, plums, figs, strawberries, etc., etc.

These "ripples of merriment" on the part of the rich soil are perennial crops—were never known to fail. The fortunate fruit growers laugh, too, at their good fortunes; manufacturers who are profiting by the splendid resources and shipping facilities, investors who see their dollars multiply and investors who have found health in this mild and equable climate join in the merry making; and it is with a laughing, happy, prosperous community. If you are interested in North Galveston as an investment or a home, or both, apply for full particulars to M. E. Asire.

THE DAY NURSERY.

The day nursery in the Everett residence is now open. The object of the nursery is to take care of poor children while their mothers are out at work. Children can be taken there at 7 a. m. and left till 6 p. m. for five cents a day. There will be a matron and a nurse. The nursery has been established by Mrs. J. M. Longyear and she hopes the ladies of the city will take such an interest in the establishment as to give their assistance; it is open to investigation at all times. It occupies the south wing of the Everett building. (4-6-1m)

There is no one instrument, unless, indeed, it be a large pipe organ, capable of the variety of effects that are obtainable on the Aeolian. Unlike the pipe organ, however, the Aeolian is adapted to all classes of music; overtures and symphonies can be rendered on it with all the softness and delicacy of the flute and violin and cello and all the snap and brilliancy of the piano. See and hear them at Conklin's.
