YPSILANTI IS IN RUINS.

Cyclone Demolished the Business Center of That City Last Evening.

SEVERAL PEOPLE HURT BUT NO LIVES WERE LOST.

Chief Hotels, Postoffice, Business College, Carriage Factory and Many Stores Wrecked.

SWEPT BY THE STORM BLAST.

DETROIT, Mich., April 12.—A tornado struck Ypsilanti, Washtenaw county, about 7:30 o'clock this evening and caused heavy damage to the business section by demolishing almost all the buildings and several residences. As far as can be ascertained at present nobody was killed, but quite a number of persons received injuries, more or less serious. It is impossible to obtain any news from the town as all telegraph and telephone wires are down. The Associated Press representative saw Mr. H. Mason, manager of the telephone exchange at Ypsilanti, and obtained some particulars of the storm from him. Mr. Mason came here after the storm in an injured condition. He said:

"About 7:30 o'clock this evening, during a heavy rain storm, a tornado struck Ypsilanti and swept through its center, leaving destruction in its path. As far as I can remember twelve or fifteen of the principal business blocks in the city were demolished and others had their roofs torn off and were otherwise damaged. Several dwellings were also wrecked. Nearly all the buildings on Huron street between Congress and Pearl streets suffered. Among the principal blocks blown down are the Opera House, Hawkins House, Union block, Occidental Hotel, business college and the postoffice building. The telephone and the Western Union telegraph offices suffered severely, the former losing all of its main wires. A box factory was also wrecked.

"I heard of nobody being killed. Quite a number of people were injured but it is not known how many or the extent of their injuries. Among them is Mrs. Westfall, whose husband is proprietor of the Hawkins House. Everything was in confusion when I left and it was impossible to get anything more definite than what I tell you."

NO LIVES WERE LOST.

DETROIT, April 13.—12:45 a. m.—The following dispatch was received from Ypsilanti by the Associated Press: This city is in ruins. A cyclone struck here tonight, coming from the southwest and sweeping everything in its path. Thousands of dollars of damage was caused by it.

The storm took a strip through the business portion of the town, moving houses from their foundations and razing others. Cleary's business college and the Curtis carriage factory are in ruins. The Hawkins House and Occidental Hotel are badly damaged and roofs of half of the stores were blown off. Twenty store fronts were also smashed in.

On Huron street the rubbish is piled ten feet high. The postoffice building was demolished and the mail scattered in the street. All telegraph, telephone and electric wires are down, leaving the city in complete darkness. Everybody is up watching property that has been exposed to the storm. No one was hurt severely.

The cyclone struck Royal Oak, in the Western part of Wayne county. The course of the wind was about two blocks in width and it swept everything in its path. Five houses and several barns were demolished or overturned and other damage of a minor nature was done. The total destruction at Royal Oak will not fall short of $5,000.

THREE CHILDREN CREMATED.

CHICAGO, April 12.—Three children lost their lives and a fireman was badly injured during a fire this evening. The dead and injured are:

OLGA JENSEN, five years old.
GEORGE JENSEN, three years old.
EDWARD JENSEN, seven months old.

FIREMAN ALBERT C. GERCKE, struck by a falling scantling, will recover.

The three children were alone in the house and it was not known that they had lost their lives until after the firemen had extinguished the fire. Mrs. Jensen was preparing supper and having lit the burners of a gasoline stove left the children and went to the meat market, less than one square distant. While she was absent the house caught fire and before she returned the children were burned to death. It is supposed the children started the fire by playing with the gasoline stove. The accident has driven Mrs. Jensen temporarily insane.

WAS THERE MUTINY ABOARD?

Curious State of Affairs on the Schooner Alla Storer

NEW YORK, April 12.—What may develop into a tragedy of the sea was discovered Monday by Captain Catherine of the Ocean Steamship company's line, plying between this city and Savannah, Ga. Off Cape Lookout Monday morning Captain Catherine sighted the three-masted schooner Alla Storer a few miles to starboard and drifting aimlessly about. Captain Catherine hailed the men aboard and asked if any thing was the matter. The reply was a gruff assurance that everything was all right. "Want any help," asked Captain Catherine.

"No, we are resting," was the reply. "Any officers aboard," asked the captain of the steamer. To this there was no response. As there was nothing more that Captain Catherine could do he had to go on and leave the schooner bobbing about in the trough of the sea. Captain Catherine believes that there was a mutiny on board and that the officers were imprisoned or else were murdered.

FIRST BOAT STARTS EASTWARD

MILWAUKEE, April 12.—The first boat for the straits from this direction the present season will be the Northern Michigan line steamer City of Charlevoix. She is to leave Chicago tonight and Milwaukee tomorrow morning for northern Michigan ports, including St. James on Beaver Island and Mackinac City and Cheboygan in the straits, provided ice is not encountered in sufficient quantities to prevent. The City of Charlevoix has been put in fine shape for the season's business. She is under the command of Captain Finucane.

STEAMERS CAN PASS STRAITS.

MACKINAW CITY, Mich., April 12.—A heavy east wind yesterday and last night took the ice out of the north passage. Early this morning the wind changed to southwest and is now blowing hard with weather very warm. The remaining ice in the straits is likely to blow out at any time. There is not the slightest reason to doubt that steamers can now pass through without encountering material hindrance from the ice.

MENOMINEE, Mich., April 12.—A brisk and warm southwest wind has broken up the ice in Green Bay and if these conditions prevail until tomorrow the bay will be clear by that time.

NAVIGATION IS OPEN.

ALPENA, Mich., April 12.—Navigation opened at this point yesterday with the arrival of the steamer Pilgrim from Detroit. No ice has been seen in this vicinity for the past week and the Alpena fleet will clear at once.

MUSKOGON, Mich., April 12.—The steamer City of Racine of the Goodrich line arrived here at 8 o'clock a. m. on her first trip this season. She is now lying storm-bound at Grand Haven. LUDERSON, Mich., April 12.—The following vessels loaded with lumber are sheltered here this morning: Steamers—Francis Winton, M. F. Butters, Mark B. Covell and J. M. Allendinger; schooners—Mercury and Island City.

THEY WANT A NEW CREED.

Detroit Presbytery Has No Use for Westminster Confession.

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., April 12.—The Detroit presbytery, which includes the counties of Wayne, Macomb, Oakland, and Washtenaw, met in semi-annual session today. Rev. W. S. Jerome of Pontiac, Rev. George H. Allace of Plymouth and Hon. S. M. Catehon of Detroit were selected to represent this presbytery at the meeting of the general assembly in Washington, May 18 next. Every man of the delegation belongs to the liberal class. They are in favor of the revision of the creed and hold to the opinion that Dr. Briggs has never said nor done anything to forfeit his place in the church either as preacher or professor. The delegation will vote to sustain the action of the New York presbytery in acquitting Dr. Briggs of heresy.

A resolution was adopted favoring all the changes proposed by the revision committee with one exception. That was Section 7, Chapter 3 of the Westminster confession, which is in effect that the belief of the church is that some persons are born to be everlasting damned and the heathen will share the same fate. Rev. R. J. Service of Detroit presented a motion which was carried unanimously. It was that the general assembly be asked to appoint a committee to prepare for the use of the Presbyterian church a short evangelical creed to take the place of the Westminster confession of faith altogether.

TROUBLES IN COREA.

Uprising of Natives Against Foreigners Is Threatened.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—A general uprising of natives against Christians is threatened in Corea and prompt steps have been taken by the state and navy departments to avert bloodshed. Beyond the fact the trouble arises from a hatred of the missionaries and that citizens of the United States are in danger no information has been received.

A cable was received by Secretary Gresham yesterday from a diplomatic officer in Seoul standing that a serious uprising against foreigners was threatened and asking for aid. Mr. Gresham laid the dispatch before Secretary Herbert who immediately cabled Admiral Harmony, commanding the Asiatic station at Hong Kong, directing him to send a vessel to the scene of the trouble. Secretary Gresham said this afternoon that the action of the government in directing Admiral Harmony to send a war vessel to Corea has been taken simply as a precautionary measure. No trouble had occurred, he said, but Christians in Corea had been threatened and it was to avert possible bloodshed that the United States had sent an armed ship to that country.

UNITED STATES ARE AHEAD.

Bering Sea Court Rejects the British Supplementary Report.

PARIS, April 12.—The court of arbitration on the Bering sea controversy has decided not to admit, for the present, the British supplementary report. This is a victory for the American side in the contention in that question.

PROSPECT IS VERY GOOD

For the Upper Peninsula to Get That Much-Needed Insane Asylum.

BILL APPROVED IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

Believed That It Will Become Law Without Serious Opposition in House or Senate.

IS NEEDED BADLY ENOUGH.

STATE HOUSE, LANSING, Mich., April 12.—[Special.]—The bill appropriating $75,000 for the establishment of an insane asylum in the upper peninsula passed the house committee of the whole this afternoon without opposition and will undoubtedly pass on the order of third reading at an early day.

Representative Hicks of Menominee and Chamberlain of Gogebic made forcible speeches in behalf of the bill—also Representatives Sullivan of Chippewa, Jones of Marquette and Lyon of Houghton.

The arguments advanced were chiefly the matter of expense in transporting this class of unfortunates to the lower peninsula institutions, the general necessity for more room and the better opportunity afforded relatives and friends of visiting patients in asylums.

The bills appropriating $55,000 for the Traverse City asylum and $60,000 for Kalamazoo also passed the committee of the whole.

DEATH OF JOHN A. BELL.

He Rose from Galley Boy to Managing Editor.

DETROIT, April 12.—Mr. John A. Bell, managing editor of The Free Press, died this afternoon of typhoid fever after an illness of less than two weeks. He was compelled to cease work on the night of March 31 and during most of the time between then and his death he was in a raging delirium. He was forty-two years old. He leaves a wife and six children. Mr. Bell entered the service of The Free Press in July, 1865, at the age of fourteen years as galley boy in the composing room. In a little while he became the proof reader's assistant and before he reached his majority he was graduated from the chair of principal proof reader and installed as a full-fledged member of the editorial staff. With the exception of a brief experiment in the law his connection with The Free Press covered a period of about twenty-eight years and when he left his desk to lie down upon his bed of death he left the title and responsibility of managing editor.

NET EARNINGS STATIONARY.

Flint & Pere Marquette Railroad's Report for the Year Past.

SAGINAW, Mich., April 12.—The report of the Flint & Pere Marquette Railway company for 1892 shows total earnings of $2,886,715; total expenses, $3,024,504; net earnings, $861,961. This shows but a slight increase over the net earnings of 1891, which were $861,212. The report of the land commissioner shows that during 1892 there was sold 5,917.05 acres at an average price of $7.58, amounting to $45,560. In addition thereto sales of timber were made, retaining the fee, to the amount of $680, making the aggregate sales $43,240.

HANDSOME RESIDENCE BURNED.

It Was Unoccupied and Was Probably Fired by Lightning.

MUSKOGON, Mich., April 12.—The handsome residence of J. C. McLaughlin, on the corner of Muskegon avenue and First street, was destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock this morning. The building and contents were valued at $13,000; insurance $9,500. It cannot be ascertained how the fire started. The house was unoccupied, the owners being absent in Mexico. An electrical storm was prevailing at the time and it is thought that the lightning caused the flames.

OLD AND ROTTEN MAST BROKE.

Mate Matteson Fell to the Deck and Was Killed.

MILWAUKEE, April 12.—Gustave Matteson, mate of the schooner A. B. C. F. M., was killed by a fall on that vessel at 11 o'clock this afternoon. The accident occurred in a rather peculiar manner. The schooner had been towed under the derrick at the Milwaukee Dry Dock company's south yard to have her old foremast replaced with a new one. Matteson went aloft to loosen some stay and while so engaged the foremast head broke at or just below the cross trees. Matteson was precipitated to the deck of the vessel and instantly killed and the top mast and short piece of foremast fell into the river. Matteson was about thirty years of age and leaves a wife and child. He had command of the schooner Four Brothers last season up to the time she was driven ashore.

CLAYTON MURDER CASE.

Great Interest in Arkansas' Celebrated Political Assassination.

MORHILLTON, Ark., April 12.—Officer Welser with Nat Landers, alias Burkhardt, the Clayton informer, arrived here this morning from Little Rock, and Hickey, the alleged assassin of John M. Clayton was brought in from Russellville. Along the route Burkhardt was besieged at every station by crowds anxious to see the man who asserts so much knowledge of Arkansas' darkest murder. The crowd delayed the train so that the car in which Burkhardt was had to be locked. Lawyer Jefferson Davis of Russellville is aiding the prosecution, which Burkhardt says will be complete, so far as evidence is concerned, if he tells all he knows.

MARSHAL PAUL'S CAPTURE. James Freehill Arrested for Shooting Samuel Hellem at Crystal Falls.

ADMITS THE CHARGE TO MINING JOURNAL REPORTER. Will Be Held Until Officers Arrive from Iron County--Crime Was Committed Last Fall.

HUNTED DOWN AT LAST. Some weeks ago Marshal Paul received a photograph, on the back of which was given the name, age, weight, complexion, etc., of James Freehill, who was wanted at Crystal Falls for the shooting of one Samuel Hellem on the 9th day of last November.

Freehill and Hellem were boarding together at the boarding house of Mr. Darson at the Dunn mine location, near Crystal Falls. A day or two after the presidential election they became involved in a quarrel, in which Freehill got a bad drubbing, from the effects of which he laid up for two days.

Freehill is twenty-three years of age, and is of Irish and German parentage. His father resides at Bayo, New Jersey, while his mother and the remainder of his relatives live at Mount Oak, New Jersey.

Destroyed by Fire. Monday evening about 8 o'clock the Swanzy mine "dry" house was destroyed by a fire that started, it is supposed, from the stove in which there was quite a hot fire.

Quite Ill. Rev. Robert Wood of St. John's Episcopal church is reported quite ill. A few days ago he was taken down with a severe cold which was followed by an attack of erysipelas which has settled in his head and face.

Paid the Claim. J. H. Robertson, special agent of the London & Lancashire Fire Insurance company, was in Negaunee Tuesday and adjusted and paid the loss on the contents of Andrew Rock's barn at Rock's Kilns, which was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago.

Ice Cream Social. The Busy Bee society will give an ice cream and cake social in the basement of the Presbyterian church tomorrow evening.

For a number of years I have been subject to violent attacks of inflammatory rheumatism which generally lasted about two months. On the first of this month I was attacked in the knee and suffered severely for two days, when I procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it relieved me almost instantly.

LOCAL LACONICS. Ira A. Clark was confined to his room by sickness yesterday.

Thomas McKenna of Quinnesec was in town calling on old friends Tuesday.

Watts, the piano tuner, will be in town today. Parties desiring his services can leave their orders with Professor Davis.

A boys' race will be held at the Adelphi roller rink tomorrow evening. No extra price of admission will be charged; music in attendance.

Owen McGarry, who has had a logging contract in the woods adjoining here during the past winter, has closed his operations and returned to town.

The street railway company will begin running cars to the Breitung House at this end of the road and Lake Angeline at the other end in a few days.

The firemen are very enthusiastic over their choice of chief of the department, Henry Lee, for they have no doubt of Mr. Lee's confirmation by the council tonight, as he is the unanimous choice of both companies.

Dialogue between two political economists, sitting one cold evening upon a bench in the Tremont street mall waiting for the cars.

First Political Economist--Now mind me words, Jim, and you'll see they're true all the time. The ailer and chaiper it is to go anywhere, the harder it is to get there.

Second Political Economist--Bogor, Bill, you're right there. It's meself that's of the same opinion.

First Political Economist--Don't you see, thin, that it ain't no use to try to hinder the blocks of the street cars so long as they asks only a nickel for a ride, Jim?

Second Political Economist--Yer don't want to pay more than a nickel, do you, man?

First Political Economist--Why not, to be shure? Wouldn't I rather be on my way to get my supper this blessed minute, if it did cost another nickel, than to've been crowded out from that last car?

Second Political Economist--But you couldn't have got on if you'd a-paid a quarter-dollar.

First Political Economist--But don't you see, man, half of them wimmin folk and childer wouldn't be after riding at all if they'd had to pay two nickels. 'Tis too chape travel that makes all the crowdin' of the cars. 'Tain't no sort of use to widen the streets.

Second Political Economist--Eigs! You'd better put that idee, Bill, into Mar Marther's head.--Boston Transcript.

Early Prejudice Against Potatoes. The way of the potato was said to have been barred by the prejudice that it was never mentioned in the Bible.

Ramsay says that George Henderson went about 1750 for a bag of potatoes to Kilsyth, where the Irish method of field culture had lately been tried, and introduced the potato into Mentith, where a few had been known, but only in kale yards. The old folks, however, did not take kindly to the new food.

Nature and Art in Greek Statues. Archeologists have observed that in Greek statues the male eye is strongly arched, while the female eye has rather a flattened surface, and referring to accounts by the older anatomists who have affirmed such a difference to exist they have seen in this a fresh proof of the exact observation of nature by the ancient Greeks.

California has formed an association for the preservation of the old mission buildings. Each member pays $1 a year and obtains special rates on the railroad when the club gives an excursion to any of the mission ruins.

Queen Elizabeth, it is said, was the first person to use a fork. If she were alive now, she would be bothered to find out what a good many articles of dinner service were meant for.

HER NEIGHBORS KNOW. And All Her Friends Know About the Matter. And Now She Wishes That Everybody Should Know all the Facts.

For That Reason She Makes a True and Straightforward Statement.

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. Ira Henderson, who resides at Arnsda, Mich., know all about the matter, and she now wishes that everybody should know all the facts just as they occurred.

"For nearly four years," she says, "I had suffered. I was so nervous that I could not write or read, could not even bear my children's company. I would have such a strange feeling in my head it seemed as if I should lose my mind."

"I was very weak and nervous and would get all in a tremble and my heart would beat so hard that it would almost take my life. I would have dizzy spells and what little sleep I would get did me no good. I could not eat anything that tasted right. It did seem as if everything had changed. I was greatly depressed and thought if only the Lord would enable me to keep my mind until I could get help."

"I doctored for two years without benefit, and then I took Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I received help right away and I could see that the first bottle was helping me. I cannot be thankful enough. I have recommended it to others and they have been helped by it."

MRS. IRA HENDERSON. "It has also cured my little girl of a nervous trouble. She would get up in her sleep and be out of her head. At such times she would talk strange and it would be some time before she would know where she was. She is all right now and we praise Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for the cure."

"My neighbors and friends know how I have suffered from weakness and nervous disease. I have lived here forty years and am known to all. I do wish I could help every sufferer to a bottle of this wonderful medicine so that all might be cured."

It is by the wide-spread publication of facts like these that the great curative powers of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy can be made known to every invalid and sufferer in the land. It is true that this medicine performs astonishing cures and all who are ailing should avail themselves of its wonderful powers.

VIRGINIA, MINN.

Is the most centrally situated town on the great Mesaba iron range. It has a great natural location, sloping gradually from the mines to the shore of two beautiful little lakes and surrounded by charming scenery. The Duluth, Mesaba & Northern has reached the place and building is going on at a lively rate. The townsite surrounded by one of the best groups of mines on the range, mines capable of producing anywhere from 1,000,000 to 3,500,000 tons of ore annually. The surrounding country is well timbered, pine predominating. A saw mill is now operating and a large one is about to be erected, the lakes affording excellent booms. The village has a system of water works, a bank, feed stable, several stores, saloons, restaurants and hotels. A post-office and newspaper is now established, the latter by Dr. Fred Barrett. Virginia is destined to have a population of at least 5,000 and people seeking new locations would do well to look it over. For further information write to

FIFTEEN PERSONS KILLED.

Death Roll of Tuesday's Cyclone in Eastern Kansas and Western Missouri.

THAT NUMBER OF FATALITIES ALREADY REPORTED.

Thirty or Forty Injured and Death List May Grow—Buildings, Trees and Crops Greatly Damaged.

MOURNING IN TWO STATES.

LEXINGTON, Mo., April 12.—A most destructive cyclone passed through this city last night, accompanied by a violent electric storm and a fearful down-pour of rain. In the path of the storm, about three hundred yards in width, everything was destroyed.

The storm first struck about a quarter of a mile east of Mayview, where the house of Mr. Kelly was destroyed and the family injured. The house of Mr. Wentz was next demolished but no one injured. W. S. Fountain's house was torn into kindling wood and Mr. and Mrs. Fountain both seriously hurt, the latter probably fatally.

The house of William Walker, county assessor, a two-story brick, was but a straw before the force of the wind. Mr. Walker, his wife, three children and a hired man were buried in the debris. Mrs. Walker succeeded in freeing herself.

The hired man had in the meantime freed himself and together with Mr. and Mrs. Walker and Mr. John Walker, his wife, and a hired man who lived near by and had arrived to render assistance, succeeded in extricating one of the children alive but probably fatally injured. The other two were dead before they could be gotten from under the immense pile of brick, mortar and timbers with which they were covered. Mr. Walker was badly cut about the head and much bruised elsewhere but Mrs. Walker and the hired man were not seriously hurt.

The railroad water tank at Page City was next demolished and then came the house and barn of Mr. Hutchinson, a few hundred yards further northeast. Both are utterly destroyed. Mr. Hutchinson may not recover. The others escaped with slight injuries.

A tenant house upon the farm of Captain Tothman was next in the path of the storm. The roof was blown off and a small negro child was killed by a flying brick. The house of John Luke in the immediate neighborhood was blown to atoms and Mrs. Luke and her brother killed.

Innumerable outhouses, fruit trees and fences were destroyed. Chickens have all their feathers picked off and at the Walker place an iron pump was taken from a thirty-eight foot well and deposited in an adjoining field.

The storm after arriving in the vicinity seems to have risen from the earth as no damage in this county is reported north of that place. It was by far the worst and most fatal storm which has ever visited this county.

DAMAGE IN TWO STATES.

KANSAS CITY, April 12.—As communication gradually becomes opened up with the small towns and hamlets through Kansas and Missouri which were cyclone-swept yesterday and as the news, always making accessions to the lives sacrificed and property damaged, is received, the real extent of the storm becomes known. It is impossible to get the names of the victims, however, and in most instances the accounts of destruction wrought are incomplete. Even in some places where communication has been restored news is not available, the stricken citizens being engaged with the important duty of caring for the injured, taking care of the dead and putting together what were once their happy homes.

Fifteen people are known to have been killed, thirty or forty were injured while numberless houses as well as smaller buildings were destroyed. Much stock was also killed. Fruit trees were broken and twisted and hay stacks were scattered in all instances and some anxiety is felt lest there be a shortage in fodder.

In Kansas the area of the storms was bounded by the three tiers of counties from the eastern border, nearly every county suffering more or less.

Montgomery county, in the extreme southeast portion, suffered the most. Perter, a hamlet ten miles south of Independence, was almost totally destroyed. Many houses were demolished and many others were badly wrecked.

Walnut, a village in Crawford county, also in the southeastern portion of the state, suffered severely in wrecked houses but there was no loss of life. A meager dispatch from that place states that it is feared that the loss of life in the outlying county districts has been great.

A dispatch from Hiawatha states that the storm wrought great havoc in Brown county, in the northeastern portion of the state. Several towns in the county were more or less damaged and many lives are reported lost.

The cyclone struck Garnett, Kas., about 10 o'clock, going from southwest to northwest and leaving much debris in its wake. Nobody was seriously hurt here, though the houses of Walter Hawley and Henry Sykes among others were completely demolished.

Near Robinson E. P. Felton was struck by lightning and killed. At Mascotah several houses were unroofed and a Mrs. Burns and her baby injured.

That part of the cyclone which struck Walnut, Kas., continued northward and following the Missouri line struck the small towns of Mayview, Page City and Higginsville, where after doing considerable damage it spent its force.

At St. Joseph, Mo., a cyclone working from west to east and covering a strip of country two miles wide and five miles long caused considerable damage. Several people were killed, among them a Mrs. Ward. Her husband was seriously injured, as was also John Shelton. An unknown woman was also killed. Most of the people saw the cyclone coming in time to get into the cyclone caves and escaped injury. The loss here will amount to thousands of dollars.

The damage to crops over both states will be great. Fortunately in most places in Kansas the corn has not been planted and had it been it would surely have been washed out.

MADRID MILLS BLOW UP.

Ten Dead Bodies Already Taken From the Ruins.

MADRID, April 12.—There was an explosion in the Sala Caladia company's mills in Mataroth this morning. The roof of the building was blown off and struck the ground more than a hundred yards from the foundation. The walls were rent and most of the floors collapsed. All the men employed by the company were at work when the explosion occurred. Most of them were blown in the wreck. The fire which broke out immediately after the explosion was extinguished and the work of rescue was begun at once. The dead bodies of nine workmen and the manager have been removed from the ruins. Fifty men are trying to recover the rest of the bodies. The number of dead is not yet known.

TESTING THE GEARY ACT.

Rights of Chinese to Be Determined at Once.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Extraordinary efforts will be made to secure an adjudication upon the Chinese exclusion act by the supreme court at this term. The matter has been the subject of correspondence between the governments of the United States and China and at the request of the state department the department of justice has completed the necessary preliminaries in conjunction with counsel for the Chinese government and its subjects in this country.

Under the terms of the law, commonly known as the Geary act, all Chinese laborers in the United States are required to register themselves with the proper officers and secure certificates thereof within one year from the taking effect of the law, May 5, 1892. Therefore a case to determine the validity of the law cannot be begun until the 5th of next month.

In ordinary circumstances it would be impossible to bring the case before the supreme court of the United States before the adjournment for the summer recess. But by concurrent action of all parties interested, which has been secured in view of the important international character of the questions involved, the standing of the law will be decided within a few weeks, obviating a long, tedious and expensive litigation.

The arrangement entered into contemplates the arrest of a Chinese laborer in New York for the violation of the terms of the law, a prompt decision in the lower courts and an appeal to the supreme court of the United States, which may be heard on the 8th of May. If the program be carried out the decision will be rendered by the middle of May, at which time the court expects to adjourn sine die for the term.

Commissioner Mason received a telegram from the collector of internal revenue at San Francisco stating that some of the Chinese who were registering desired for their own protection to file with their paper copies of their photographs. He asked if there was any objection to this in view of the recent circular issued by Secretary Carlisle on the subject. He was informed that there was no objection if the act was voluntary.

ECKLES IS CONFIRMED.

Senate Assents to His Nomination After a Wrangle.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The resolution offered by Mr. Call (Fla.) March 20 declaring that the committee on finance, naval affairs, military affairs, judiciary, foreign relations, appropriations, commerce and interstate commerce shall each consist of fifteen members was taken up in the senate today and Mr. Call made an argument in support of it. At the close of Mr. Call's speech his resolution went over without action. A resolution was reported by Mr. Vance from the committee on privileges and elections and was referred to the committee on contingent expenses (under the rule) for investigating the claim of Joseph W. Ady to a seat as senator from the state of Kansas. The senate, on motion of Mr. Faulkner, proceeded to the consideration of executive business.

The senate in executive session considered the nomination of James H. Eckles to be comptroller of the currency and a considerable opposition, mainly Republican, was manifested. At 2:45 p. m. Eckles' nomination as comptroller of the currency was confirmed and the senate engaged in routine business.

A small snag was struck when the nomination of Albert B. Fall, to be associate justice of the supreme court of the territory of New Mexico, was taken up. Objection was made and under the rules the case went over.

Other confirmations were: Hannis Taylor of Alabama, minister to Spain; James S. Ewing of Illinois, minister to Belgium; William Lochren of Minnesota, commissioner of pensions; Louis C. Hughes of Arizona, governor of Arizona. The senate then adjourned until tomorrow.

The president today sent the following nominations to the senate: Andrew Fyfe of Michigan, to be surveyor of customs for the port of Grand Rapids, Mich. Postmasters: Illinois—Jos. C. Thompson, Quincy; Michigan—Jos. F. Uhler, Mt. Clemens; Wisconsin—Jackson Silbaugh, Viroqua.

FIFTY-THREE BODIES FOUND.

The Pont-y-Pridd Coal Mine Disaster Continues to Grow in Horror.

NO HOPE FOR THE MEN IN THE BURNING MINE.

Up to 3 O'clock This Morning Fifty-Three Corpses Had Been Brought Up to the Surface.

DIED LIKE RATS IN A TRAP.

LONDON, April 13.—At 11 o'clock last evening the coal pit at Pont-y-Pridd, Wales, had become so cool that three exploring parties were able to descend and go some distance into the seams. They found three dead men but discovered no trace of the main body of miners who were cut off by the flames from escape yesterday.

Up to 2 o'clock this (Thursday) morning fifty-three corpses had been taken from the pit. The searching parties had found no signs that any of the missing miners were still alive.

The bodies of eleven men were found huddled behind a door, as if they had sought shelter there from a hurricane of fiery sparks sweeping by. Other bodies were found in the return air ways where the victims were caught while trying to escape.

A doctor who has examined the bodies reports that all of the victims died of suffocation. There are no external injuries on the bodies. There was no unusual excitement when the bodies were brought to the surface as the crowd that had been around the pit mouth all day dispersed at nightfall, believing that a search for bodies would be impossible before morning. The searching party are of the opinion that other bodies will be found under the piles of debris lying everywhere in the mine.

ANARCHIST GROUP DISPERSED.

Pittsburg Police Unearth Gang of Russian Bomb-Throwers.

PITTSBURG, April 12.—A group of 108 Russian anarchists has been unearthed in this city by the police after a search of several weeks. Immediately after the attempt of the French anarchists to blow up the police headquarters at New York and Chicago notified the local police that an organization of bomb-throwers had been recently organized in Pittsburg and that their purpose was to make war on the police. The group was organized by Bauer and Noid, who were recently sent to the penitentiary as accomplices of Bergmann. Meetings have been held nightly in Sharpless Hall on Fifth avenue and circulars have recently been distributed calling upon the workmen to prepare for what was termed "an approaching crisis." The meetings have been stopped and the leaders have promised to leave the city at once.

SHERIFF REQUESTS TROOPS.

Fears the Black Brute Hudson Will Be Lynched Yet.

SALINA, Kas., April 12.—The sheriff has requested Governor Lewelling to send troops to Salina to protect the negro Hudson, charged with criminally assaulting Mrs. Frost. In his dispatch the sheriff stated that the sentiment was so bitter against the negro that he believed that the force at his command was inadequate to protect him from mob law.

BROOKLYN BOODLERS IN COURT.

They Plead Not Guilty but Appear Extremely Despondent.

BROOKLYN, April 12.—All the city officials indicted for passing fraudulent bills in payment of expenses incident to the Columbian celebration appeared before Judge Moore in the court of sessions today and pleaded not guilty. The trial of the first case was put down for April 24. The accused all appeared extremely depressed.

HOUSE FIRED BY LIGHTNING.

Mr. Baker Glad to Escape With Life and Trousters.

DULUTH, Minn., April 12.—Early this morning lightning struck the residence of B. E. Baker at Lester Park, the east end residence suburb, and it was entirely destroyed. The house cost $10,000. Mr. Baker was alone in the building and escaped, carrying out only a pair of trousers. The insurance on the dwelling is $5,000; on the furniture, $3,400.

Their Appeal Was in Vain.

ALBANY, April 12.—The court of appeals has affirmed the judgment of the lower courts in the cases of three convicted murderers who will now, if Governor Flower does not interfere, have to die in the electrical chair. The condemned men are John L. Osmond and Thomas Pallister of New York city and James Martel of Saratoga.

Charged With Conspiracy.

NEW YORK, April 12.—President Hornthal and others of the Clothing Manufacturers' association were arrested while considering terms of settlement of the garment cutters' lock-out on a charge of conspiracy made up of individual garment cutters.

Conductor Brown Killed.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., April 12.—A freight train was wrecked on the Big Four near London, this county, this morning. Conductor Brown was killed and several other persons are reported fatally injured.

A Man With Merits.

Mr. Ardesolf, a young man of vast fortune and position, was an ardent cock-fighter, and with one fowl had won many matches. This unhappy bird, however, chanced on one occasion to be beaten, whereupon his owner had it tied to a spit and roasted before a large fire alive. Its screams were so affecting that even Mr. Ardesolf's cockfighting friends expostulated, whereupon he seized the poker, and exclaiming that he would be the death of any one who interfered fell down dead upon the spot. This circumstance is recorded in The Gentleman's Magazine for 1789. "If Mr. Ardesolf had his fowls," says the editor, "his merits greatly outweighed them."

A Crusher.

Harlem Girl—I met a gentleman friend on the avenue yesterday.

Simpkins—I beg your pardon, Miss Clara, but the best usage of English, you know, do not permit the expression "gentleman friend."

Miss Clara—Oh, indeed. Well, there is one case in which I never did use it.

Simpkins—What case is that, Miss Clara?

Miss Clara (savagely)—Your case.—Texas suffrage.

REPORTORIAL PENCILINGS

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cole last night, a 12 pound son.

Mrs. William Oliver left Tuesday for Louisville, N. Y., for a protracted visit. Mr. and Mrs. Kit Bushnell have commenced housekeeping at No. 131 Bluff street.

The Upper Peninsula Brewing company will place its bock beer on draught Saturday.

Mrs. Richard A. Parker leaves today for a four or five weeks' visit with her parents in Boston.

The street cars were packed full last night on their trips after the entertainment at the opera house.

Mr. A. Corbeil of Lake Linden arrived in the city yesterday to accept a position with E. LaRoche.

Everyone in town glared at that cold wave flag all day yesterday. No one is pinning for cold waves up here just now.

Mrs. M. E. Kennedy will continue her spring opening display of pattern hats and bonnets, Thursday and Friday, April 13 and 14.

Kassel Oshinsky invites the ladies of the city to call and look over his fine line of ladies' jackets and wraps before purchasing elsewhere.

The rain blackened the ice in great shape and the heavy gale from the south yesterday drove out all the ice north of lighthouse point but that in the bay still holds fast.

THE MINING JOURNAL'S water motor will be connected with the street main today and the office will then be equipped with water, steam and electric power.

The opera house box office will be opened at 9:30 o'clock this morning for the sale of seats for Turner's English Gaiety girls company which will appear here on Saturday evening.

The first of the post-Lenten Masonic dances will be given this evening with music by the Ideal orchestra. The refreshments will be served at the usual hour and a very large attendance is expected.

By some mistake the following names were omitted from the honor roll of the public schools for March: Arvina Miller, Sadie Pendill, Lottie Pendill, Pearl Powell, Alice Reynolds, Henry Reynolds, Bada Schmidt.

Mrs. H. B. Emery (Katie Putnam) has two old school friends in Marquette, Mrs. Charles E. Spencer and Mrs. Louis Kiedinger, the latter taking her for a drive throughout the city yesterday afternoon. Her last visit to Marquette was made about fifteen years ago.

Mrs. Florence Wilson, who last season held the position as milliner with Mrs. Adams, is now in Appleton holding the responsible position of first milliner with the well known firm of Pettibone & Co., one of the largest millinery houses in that city. Mrs. Adams has many words of praise for Mrs. Wilson, knowing her to be a competent milliner, and her many friends here were very glad to learn of her success.

THE DUEL.

There, in the merciless moon's first glow, Grim, defiant, I faced my foe—

He who had wronged me with savage hate— Face to face on the field of fate.

And I said, "He must die; he hath played his part; My sword shall cleave through his hateful heart!"

Then to the battle, with one true trust He stood defenseless, his sword in dust.

I marked the spot where his false heart lay, I lifted my glittering blade to slay.

When lo! in my fury I seemed to feel A hand that clutched at the lifted steel.

A hand that warded the blow I dealt, And wild before me a woman knelt.

I could not strike him, my hated foe; In wrath and mercy I bade him go—

Fool! forgetting the wrongs of years— To drown revenge in another's tears." —Frank L. Stanton in Atlanta Constitution.

Be a Gentleman.

Since the theory of justification by combat has been exploded there seems to be no way in which a gentleman can be sure of keeping his sacred honor free from specks except by plain, ordinary, decent behavior and respect for the rights of other people. If he does wrong, he cannot fight his way right. He simply has to repent and apologize or take his punishment quietly according to the rules of the game. If he is injured and the law cannot help him, the best way for him is just to grin and bear it and let time wreak its own revenge. To be sure, if the injury is desperate and he resents it in hot blood the law may excuse him, but society has come to a point of sophistication where it is able to recognize the man who endures his wrongs, a stronger and nobler creature than the man who gives rise to his temper.

The notion that one's "honor" can be damaged by the action of another person is pretty generally obsolete. It is not so good a dog as he was. But it will not go so far. The code that regulates in these days the manners of the highest and most influential type of American gentleman is actually to be found in the New Testament—Scribner's.

A Detroit Woman's Way.

"Last fall I had a dress dyed at the dye shop, and paid $2.50 for the work," writes Mrs. Irion of 1482 Antoine street Detroit. "I could only use part of the goods as they were not all the same color. Last week I bought a package of diamond dyes for ten cents, and dyed a whole dress with it. The dress is just lovely, and everything is an even color." Any one can have the same success if diamond dyes are used.

The Upper Peninsula Brewing Co.'s Bock Beer will be on draft in this city Saturday April 15. (4-13-93)

AN ETRUSCAN BOOK.

An Egyptian Wrapped in the Folds of a Very Old Manuscript.

The Etruscan alphabet can be read with as much ease as the alphabet of Rome; the words of a text are usually divided from one another by means of points, and yet the meaning of these words cannot be fixed. Like the geologist who comes to a "fault" in the strata he is examining, so in Etruscan the philologist finds a linguistic "fault"—a language which refuses to be compared with any other that is known to him.

A discovery made by Professor Krall of Vienna has removed the first difficulty which stands in our way. It can no longer be said that it is impossible to decipher the Etruscan language because the materials for doing so are insufficient. Three-fourths of an ancient Etruscan book, written on linen, has been discovered, and discovered, moreover, in the most unlikely of places—the coffin of an Egyptian mummy.

The mummy was brought from Egypt some 40 years ago by an Austrian traveler and deposited after his death in the museum of Agram. When unrolled, it was found that the linen bands which were wrapped around it were covered with written characters. They were examined in 1867 by Brugsas, who imagined them to be Ethiopic, and in 1877 by Sir Richard Burton, who suspected that they were Nabathean. It was reserved for Professor Krall to point out that the characters were the well known letters of the Etruscan alphabet, and that the words they embodied occurred in the inscriptions of Etruria.

Professor Krall's discovery was made at the beginning of 1891. Since then he has been occupied in transcribing the text, portions of which are difficult to read, and in determining the order in which the fragments should be arranged. The result of his work has been published by the imperial academy of Vienna. His memoir is an exhaustive account of the discovery, and contains a transliteration of the text, as well as photographs of the linen wrappings, together with the report of experts on the condition of the linen and the character of the ink. Part of the memoir is devoted to the removal of any doubts that may be felt as to the genuineness of the newly discovered book.

The text originally contained 12 columns, the greater part of which has been preserved. More than 200 lines of it remain, including the last paragraph of the work. It was divided into sections or chapters, distinguished from one another by spaces, and the single words are separated by means of points.—Fortnightly Review.

The Prices of Skeletons.

Domestic skeletons are generally the work of amateurs. Janitors in medical colleges rescue bones from the dissecting rooms and cure and articulate them. They find purchasers among the students, who on the completion of their studies resell the skeleton, if happily the market is not glutted. A second-hand skeleton may thus be had at quite a reasonable figure—occasionally as low as $15.

The imported article ranges from $50 to $100. The very high priced ones are necessary because of the preservation of the nervous and circulatory systems. Of course, they are beyond the reach of modest purses, and as a taste for medical and scientific research has not yet developed among the millionaires very few $100 skeletons are sold. They are always a specialty order. A very fine French skeleton may be had for $150, and that is as high as the general run of purchasers care to go.

Skulls, hands and feet may be purchased separately, but to obtain a rib, an arm, or a collar bone the whole affair must be bought. A skull and an arm are suitable for decorative purposes cost but $10. The skull has but one cut. It may be pretty; it is not artistic. For $2 a skull that will unbind and reveal its hidden contents is possible. The bones of the ear are compressed in this treasure.—Boston Herald.

Better Hygienic Conditions.

Since the Crimean war the military authorities, aided by the excellent hygienists among the medical officers of the army, have placed the health of the army in a much more satisfactory condition, and the result is that the mortality of the army is now less than half what it was before the war. But it is not in our army alone that such results have been produced. Formerly the deaths from sickness in campaigns were four times as numerous as those from wounds. Every campaign now lessens the proportion, because the sanitary conditions of a soldier's life, both in peace and war, is much better attended to.

In the Crimean war, after the sad experience among our own troops owing to defective sanitary organization, we sent out a sanitary commission and improved the hygienic conditions of our troops, while France failed to do so, and the final result, according to Chenu, is that, while we lost 12 per 1,000 of our men, France lost 155 of hers. Formerly the rate of mortality in the chief towns of British India, such as Calcutta and Bombay, was appalling, not by hygienic improvements and in spite of the tropical climate it scarcely exceeds that of Manchester, Liverpool or Glasgow.—Lord Playfair.

William Booth's Health.

William Booth was born in 1829. He seems to have been fortunate in his parentage. His biographer says, "His mother was of so amiable a disposition and saintly a character that he regarded her as the nearest approach to human perfection with which he was acquainted." At 17 William became a local preacher. As to entering the ministry, he had grave doubts on account of his health. He underwent examination by a skilled physician, who pronounced him totally unfit for the strain of a Methodist preacher's life and assured him that 12 months of it would land him in the grave and "send him to the throne of God to receive punishment for suicide." In the light of after events this seems very surprising. No man has done harder work than William Booth or done it for a longer time. He has never spared himself or allowed any one to suggest his inability to keep it up indefinitely.—New York Herald.

How Eskimos Count.

"The Eskimos of Greenland for 'twenty' say 'a man,' and for 'one hundred' they say 'five men,' but the generality of them are not such learned arithmeticians as they, and therefore when the number is above twenty they say 'innumerable.' For 'eight' they say 'three on the other hand,' and for 'four' they say 'one on the second man.' The Eskimos use similar terms. The Ahts for 'five' say 'one hand'; for 'six,' 'one on hand'; for 'seven,' 'two on hand'; for 'eight' they say 'two hands less two'; 'nine' is 'two hands less one,' and 'ten' is 'two hands.'—Chicago Mail.

THE DAY NURSERY.

The day nursery in the Everett residence is now open. The object of the nursery is to take care of poor children while their mothers are out at work. Children can be taken there at 7 a. m. and left till 6 p. m. for five cents a day. There will be a matron and a nurse. The nursery has been established by Mrs. J. M. Longyear and she hopes the ladies of the city will take such an interest in the establishment as to give it their assistance; it is open to investigation at all times. It occupies the south wing of the Everett building. (4-6-93)

Olav Neilson's Partly Furnished Residence in North Ishpeming Reduced to Ashes.

THE NEIGHBORS KNEW NOTHING ABOUT THE FIRE

Until They Got Up and Saw Only Ashes Where the House Had Stood the Day Before.

HIS NEW HOUSE DESTROYED.

During the early hours of yesterday morning the newly erected residence of Olav Neilson at North Ishpeming (the Deer Lake addition) took fire from one of the stoves used in drying the plaster and burned to the ground. There are two families living within 200 feet but the fire was not observed by them until morning, when they found nothing but ashes remaining of the fine new structure that stood there the night before. The house, as far as completed, was worth $1,100, on which Mr. Neilson held a builders' risk insurance of $900. The contractor will be the principal loser.

Grand Lodge Meetings.

The annual celebration of the Temple of Honor lodges of the upper peninsula will be held this year at Calumet June 10. The lodges from Iron Mountain and Ironwood have already announced their intention of going to Calumet on that day.

The Improved Order of Redmen of Michigan will hold its grand lodge in Ishpeming this year, June 21, 22 and 23. A great many of the lodges on the upper peninsula will be represented by a large turnout of members while all the lower peninsula lodges will send delegates. The meeting will be a big one and will bring many visitors to town.

CHICAGO.

The ladies of the Mozart Symphony club, Misses Milton and Toulmin, were to be pined Tuesday evening. The manager, in order to economize his hotel expenses, kept the company all day Tuesday until 6 p. m. at the Hotel Linden at Lake Linden. Then the five male members of the club ordered the ladies to get into one conveyance with them and ride over the miserable road to this place. Mrs. Heughens, the landlady, took pity on the ladies, ordered her own sleigh out for them and accompanied them here. A terrible rain and thunder storm came up and after the concert they were forced to ride five miles through a pouring rain and intense darkness. Richard Maddern, who was mentioned in yesterday's issue as being in a critical condition from pneumonia, died at 9 o'clock Tuesday evening. The funeral will be held from the Jewell House this afternoon. The deceased has been in America a little over two years and was fifty-six years of age. He leaves three sons and a daughter. The latter resides in Duluth.

LOST HIS TEAM IN THE LAKE

Yellow Dog Stage Team Drowned in Sauk's Head Lake, Driver Barely Escaping.

LAKE STREET WATER MAIN TO BE LAID AT ONCE

Katie Putnam Wins All Hearts—Steamers Start North—Big Hemlock Orders for Onota Mill.

JACK BUTLER'S CLOSE CALL.
Jack Butler, who has driven the Yellow Dog stage all the winter for Reno, came very near losing his life yesterday afternoon and did lose his team. All during the winter the stage road has led directly across Sauk's Head lake in order to save the time necessary for the detour around the lake by the regular road. The ice has been firm all the spring and seemed all right yesterday but when Butler was about half way across his team broke through and both horses were drowned while he came within an ace of sharing their fate.

New Water Main.
The board of fire and water commissioners has arrived at a satisfactory understanding with Mr. George L. Burtis, whereby the latter withdraws his objections to the laying of the main started last fall across his property at the saw mill in order to get into Lake street. An agreement satisfactory to both parties has been drawn up and signed and the work of laying the Lake street main which has been planned so long by the board will begin immediately. Twelve-inch pipe will be used and the main will extend around on Lake street to Washington street, where it will connect with the new main recently laid on that street. The improvement will save pumping all the water used down town up over the Ridge street hill and is expected to lighten the work of the pumps and at the same time increase the pressure in the business portion of the city.

Katie Putnam.
Katie Putnam and her excellent company were greeted with a splendid house last night at the Marquette Opera House, every seat in the house having been sold hours before the rising of the curtain, leaving only standing room for the late comers. It was a crowded house in every sense of the word, while in addition the character of the audience reflected credit upon the city and the keen appreciation of every point of the play was very gratifying to the members of the company.

The little Michigan actress charmed everyone in the house. Her new play, "An Unclaimed Express Package," has a well-sustained plot and gives her ample opportunities for the display of her varied talents, opportunities which she certainly improved to the utmost last evening. Her acting has a piquancy that is all its own and no more charming portrayal of a juvenile part could be imagined than her "Chirk" last evening. She was especially good in the second and third acts and while delighting all in the lighter passages of the play was equally strong in the parts involving strong feeling and rare pathos. Her singing was warmly applauded throughout the evening. Her entrance was made with the national song of the Hawaiian Islands. Mr. Emery's presentation of the character of Jeff Chirk, the Bohemian of Bohemians, was also very fine and was well sustained throughout the play. The remainder of the company, while entirely subordinate in last night's play to the characters mentioned above, is splendidly balanced and each did thoroughly and well all that his or her part called for.

As a whole the performance was in every way deserving of the warmest praise and everyone regrets that the company did not book for a second night here in order to produce "The Little Maverick."

The Hughes orchestra received warm applause throughout the evening, capturing the house completely by Bucchioni's "Hunting Scene" played between the first and second acts.

D. & C. Steamers Start.
A telegram received yesterday at the general offices of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic gave the information on the authority of General Passenger Agent Schantz of the Detroit & Cleveland Steam Navigation Co. that the first steamer of the season on their Lake Huron division will start from Detroit Monday, if the ice there will permit, visiting all points on Lake Huron and St. Ignace as usual. Their Detroit and Cleveland steamers have been running regularly for some time.

Big Orders for Hemlock.
Schaffer & Belnap are furnishing 800,000 feet of hemlock for the South Shore's coal dock in this city. The entire floor of the dock, except the center where the coal is piled, is being raised two feet and three inches, the change making the grade up from the dock very much easier. As it was necessary to give the dock a new deck this spring it was decided to raise the level at the same time. Besides this order the Onota mill also has an order for about 700,000 feet of hemlock for the Grand Marais harbor improvements, making a very good business for the mill's first season.

He Is Climbing Fast.
Many people in Marquette will remember a young clergyman, Rev. James Reid, who at the time the South Shore road was built into Sault Ste. Marie spent some time in Marquette, having arrived in the city on some business which left him practically stranded here. He was nothing daunted, however, and being determined to earn an honest living in some manner he applied to General Superintendent Watson for railroad work. There was no opening here so Mr. Watson sent him down to the newly opened station at the Soo where he became assistant baggage master and hustled baggage as energetically as anyone even if he did persist in wearing a white lawn tie. The boys on the road remember him well and state that he put in all of his spare time at hard study. That was in 1888 and the following notice, taken from the columns of a recent St. Paul paper, tells indirectly the story of the ex-Soo baggage man since that date:

Rev. James Reid, president of the college of Montana, is at present in the Twin Cities, calling upon his friends in the interests of the college. Mr. Reid succeeded Dr. J. J. McMillan, who became secretary of the home mission board in 1880. President Reid is making an effort to close out all the debts, which at present amount to about $4,000. The debts last November amounted to over $80,000. A mortgage on the college has been cleared off, and the balance has been provided for on condition that the debts shall be paid. There remains only $4,000 of a deficit. This being secured, the condition upon which the whole is payable will be fulfilled. Mr. Reid expected to raise the balance in Montana, but owing to the depression in business on account of the low price of silver, he has come east, believing an appeal to the generosity of some friends will bring the needed help. The wealth of Montana has contributed largely to the wealth of the east. No state has given so much and received so little. The wealthy men of Montana have not yet learned to give to the cause of education. President Reid is very intimately associated with the educational interests of the state of Montana, being the president of the state council of education and a member of the state board of education. The College of Montana is doing a most important work, and we hope for President Reid full success in his worthy effort.

The Whole State Covered.
Mr. D. H. Merritt, who returned this week from his extended trip through Mexico and California, declares that he has already been home long enough to make up his mind that Marquette is all right. He has not seen a "For Sale" or "To Let" sign since his return while in every place he visited in California every third house on the average bore one of the ominous placards. It was the same way with orange orchards and fruit farms and before he got out of the state he had arrived at the conclusion that outside of the Southern Pacific road and the Earl Fruit company a huge sign of "For Sale" could be plastered over the whole state without doing violence to the actual state of affairs. The California boom is very dead, the supply of eastern suckers having fallen off almost entirely.

Dynamiting the Ice.
At the Dead River mill yesterday the ice saws were discarded for the dynamite cartridge and great execution was effected. The explosions were great sights, ice and water being thrown high into the air, but unfortunately the amateur photographers hadn't been posted and there was no one there to press the button. The work will be continued today and by night the river will be pretty well opened. A few pike were killed by the explosions yesterday.

Another Cold Wave.
A telegram from Washington to the observer in this city, received yesterday morning, announces another cold wave. It was as follows: "Hoist cold wave signal; the temperature will fall to below freezing by Thursday or Thursday night."

Married Yesterday.
Mr. Harry Wall and Miss Jennie Trombly, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. I. Charland, were married yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Wall are both very well known in the city and have a host of friends to wish them long life, prosperity and happiness.

Mr. K. S. Ervin is the artist cutter at Neuberger's. A trial will convince you that you will appreciate style, comfort, durability and fit.

There is no one instrument, unless, indeed, it be a large pipe organ, capable of the variety of effects that are obtainable on the Aeolian. Unlike the pipe organ, however, the Aeolian is adapted to all classes of music; overtures and symphonies can be rendered on it with all the softness and delicacy of the flute and violin and cello and all the snap and brilliancy of the piano. See and hear them at Conklin's.
