The slopes which were not reached last fall are now being sodded and the rest of the ground is being prepared for seeding as rapidly as possible. There is also 2,000 feet of artificial stone walk still to be built within the grounds. A force of stone entires and iron to be built within the grounds. A force of stone cutters and iron workers is busy under Mr. Van Ider-stine's direction in the work of putting up the iron fencing on the top of the walls surrounding the square occupied by the residence and grounds and in hanging the great iron gates. All of the iron more more forward be the hanging the great iron gates. All of the iron work was manufactured by the Lake Shore Iron works.

A Birthday Pleasantly Observed. Madam Williams, mother of J. N. Williams of this city, passed her eightyecond birthday yest-rday, April 25, and received many tokens of loving interest from both young and old.

Madam Williams' father, Judge Norton of Steuben county, N. Y., was for years before his death a ruling elder in the Presbyterian church. Her husband was also an elder for many years. It seemed most fitting that a few of her church friends here should meet at the Presbyterian parsonage yesterday for hindly creetings and an enformile rekindly greenings and an enjoynble re-past prepared in honor of the occasion. It certainly happens to but few to reach such an age with faculties so lit-tle impaired and physical condition so vigorous. Her whole life has been one of creat activity.

of great activity. Many a man in this city can remem-ber when a few years ago, before Mar quette could boast of a Young Men's Christian Association, that it was this energes is Christian woman who once a week gathered a class of half-grown duarters of an hour, dwelling especialized in the part of the generic Christian woman who once a week gathered a class of half-grown boys together, ostensibly to read to boys together, ostensibly to read to host of the generic terms.
 A response was made by Mr. A. E. Miller who proposed a resolution of the wery enjoyable entertainment which thanks to the host of the evening for the very enjoyable entertainment which school, managing most successfully from the infant room.
 The following hades waited upon the tables and helped make the affair the success that it was: Misses Bali, Mabel Bali, Marray, Stone, Edith Stone, Burt, Knirkt, Beatley, Thiell, Gill, K. Gill and Palmer, with Mesdames Phelps and Johnson.
