STOCK-JOBBER SCHEME.

Ann Arbor Strike Alleged to Have Been Forced to Depreciate Stock.

REMARKABLE STORY THAT COMES FROM TOLEDO

Officials of Road Said to Have Forced Quarrel With Engineers Deliberately for This Purpose.

POSSIBLE BUT IMPROBABLE.

TOLEDO, April 26.—Ann Arbor stock has dropped from thirty-nine cents to thirteen cents since Monday in the New York stock market. To the public this looks panicky and forebodes disaster and ruin for the company. The public may worry but some Toledo people are not the least bit concerned. The recent fight with the engineers of the road was but a means to this end. This information was given by a man who has profited by similar manipulations of Ann Arbor. This party said some time ago that the engineers were purposely imposed upon in order to precipitate a strike and depreciate the floating stock. Ann Arbor at that time was bobbing from thirty-seven to thirty-nine cents which is as high as it was ever quoted. It was afterward learned that George E. Pomeroy, one of Toledo's solid business men, had picked up a large block of Ann Arbor at fourteen cents and sold at thirty-four cents during a similar manipulation last summer and an interview with Pomeroy now confirms the report. Developments of the last two days indicate that the little information given was correct. The stock was boomed to thirty-nine cents by the transfer boat scheme and knocked down by precipitating a strike.

President Ashley of the Ann Arbor road, in an interview today on the remarkable slump in the stock on the New York exchange, says: "I do not think that the decline in stock will materially affect the road. The road does not own the stock; the people hold it. I have seen our stock down lower than that. It has been down to five cents and yet it made no difference in the road. If the stock declined to one cent on the dollar I do not see how it could hurt us any. We have had more serious trouble than this. I am an optimist, you know. Our earnings are larger than ever before. They are going up steadily," he continued. "We had a bad winter, which affected the business of the road but despite storms, washouts and the destruction of bridges our earnings were better than last year."

General Manager F. W. Ashley was more conservative than his father in expressing his views. He said: "The only way the decline in stocks can affect the railroad is by creating a general distrust of its securities, which will injure the credit of the road. Other than that I do not see how it can affect the property. The company itself has not had any loss. If the creditors think they have been jeopardized and once have their confidence shaken it may in time create an indirect distrust."

BROTHERHOOD NOT IN IT

Chief Arthur Knows Nothing of the Ann Arbor Strike.

CLEVELAND, April 26.—Grand Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers was shown a telegram today from Toledo, stating that it was rumored there that he had declared the Ann Arbor strike off. "I have just returned from St. Paul," replied Chief Arthur, "and know nothing about it. The matter is not in my hands, so far as that is concerned. The brotherhood did not declare the strike on and of course will not declare it off. The strike is being conducted by the men on the Ann Arbor road."

SIX CRUSHED AND SCALDED.

Runaway Train Accident Results in Loss of Six Lives.

SOMERSET, Pa., April 26.—Six persons were killed and a number of others hurt in a runaway train accident on the Bare Rocks railway last evening. The train, loaded with stone and carrying about twenty workmen besides the crew of the train and several passengers, while coming down the heavy grade became unmanageable and crashed into a number of loaded cars standing on the track. The engine was completely demolished and the cars piled on top of one another in a huge mass. James Pile, his wife and daughter, two laborers, names unknown, were instantly killed. John Neff, son of Engineer Neff, was so badly scalded that he died a few hours after the accident. Of the injured Engineer Neff is the most seriously hurt, being badly scalded and one of his arms broken. He will recover.

PURGING THE PENSION ROLL.

Particular Attention Will Be Given to Fraudulent Cases.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The acting commissioner of pensions, Mr. D. I. Murphy, has transferred about fifty clerks who have heretofore been employed on what is known as statistical work but which, so far as he can see, is of no value to the office, to current work in order to facilitate the bringing up of the business to date. Mr. Murphy is decidedly of the opinion that among the 958,000 pensioners on the rolls of the bureau there are many fraudulent cases and with a view to purging the lists of such as can be reached he has issued an order to special examiners in the field directing them to use all diligence in searching out such cases as require the attention of the bureau. The order is in part as follows: "The examiners are instructed to use extreme caution and wise discrimination, as it is not the intention to disturb any just allowance of pensions. Nor is it intended that special examiners should be made parties to the petty quarrels and spite work of unfriendly neighbors. In addition to making inquiry of those with whom the special examiner comes in contact while engaged in the examination of claims it is believed that postmasters, especially in rural districts, may be relied upon to furnish accurate information. In the larger towns and cities information may be sought from the real veterans of the war who believe that the pension roll should be a roll of honor, members of councils, assessors and such other persons who may be found to possess information in their various neighborhoods. But all statements so obtained should be corroborated before the matter is reported to the bureau."

PULLED CARSON'S NOSE.

Illinois Legislators Act in a Most Disgraceful Manner.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 26.—"Did you throw that inkstand at me?" demanded Representative William Burke of Chicago, advancing on Representative Carson of Champaign county in the lower house of the Illinois legislature today.

"Yes, I did," answered the Champaign member, who, though short, is plucky and was full of rage. "I did not throw any paper at you," said Burke, "and I have a notion to pull your nose."

"You don't do it," snapped Carson. Burke's only reply was to reach forward, seize Carson's nose firmly and give it several hard twists. Then he walked away, leaving Carson speechless with rage. The legislators were all feeling in a bad humor, and their noses out on joint, as one member expressed it, over the news that the World's Fair committee on ceremonies had decided to not admit the members of the legislature to the platform on opening day. Several "statesmen" were consoling themselves by throwing paper wads about the house. One of the paper wads struck Mr. Carson on the head. He grabbed a heavy inkstand and with an oath hurled it at the revellers. All dodged and the heavy missile barely grazed Representative Zimmerman's head and crashed against the side of the room. Then it was that Mr. Burke capped the climax. There is talk of expelling both Burke and Carson.

DON M. DICKINSON NAMED.

Chosen Government Director of the Union Pacific Railway.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The president today announced the following appointments: To be government directors of the Union Pacific Railway company, Henry F. Dimock of New York, Don M. Dickinson of Michigan, J. W. Doane of Illinois, Fitzhugh Lee of Virginia, James W. Haddock of Nebraska; Otto Derlelein of Illinois to be consul of the United States at Leipsic; David C. Browne to be collector of customs for the district of Montana and Idaho.

DETROIT, April 26.—Hon. Don M. Dickinson was asked this afternoon by the Associated Press representative here if he would accept the appointment made by President Cleveland today as one of the government directors of the Union Pacific railway. The announcement was news to Mr. Dickinson, who said he had heard nothing about it and therefore he could not say positively whether or not he would accept the position. He said: "The appointment was made without my knowledge and is a surprise to me. I cannot say yet whether I shall accept the position or not. Until I receive official announcement of the appointment and know the reasons and conditions with which it was made it will be impossible for me to answer any questions. My already expressed stand on accepting office under this administration will, however, probably govern my decision in this case."

CAN OLD SOLDIERS VOTE?

That Right Denied When They Live in Soldiers' Home.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 26.—The right of the inmates of the Soldiers' Home to participate in local elections in the precinct in which the Home is located is being tested in the city civil court on quo warranto proceedings instituted by W. G. Saunders, who claims the Home vote defeated him for justice of the peace. He asks that the entire vote of the Home precinct be thrown out. In the bill of the petitioner it is claimed the Home is an asylum and that residence therein does not gain for the inmate the right to vote in the precinct, but that if they would vote they must go to their former residences. The defense will be presented by ex-Attorney General Moses Taggart tomorrow.

SANTA FE MEN RIOT.

Strikers Return to Work and Drive Out Non-Unionists.

KANSAS CITY, April 26.—The ex-strikers of the Santa Fe's mechanical department at Argentine celebrated their return to work last night in a peculiar manner. At the close of the day's work the ex-strikers gathered in a body and drove the non-union men by force from the yards. Then they went to the boarding cars where the non-union men had been housed and wrecked them, after having driven out the cooks and other waiters. Then hiring a brass band they paraded the streets, visiting all the saloons, which provided free beer for the crowd. The company will probably take action against the ring leaders.

HORSEWHIPPED A REVIVALIST.

Odor Says Preacher Hoffman Stole His Wife's Love.

MONNETT, Mo., April 26.—Charles Odor of Pierce City this morning publicly cowdied Rev. A. T. Hoffman, an evangelist who has been holding protracted meetings at one of the Christian churches here. Odor charges that Hoffman alienated his wife's affections,

AFTER OTHER BOODLERS,

Several More Aldermen Are Estimating the Width of the Detroit River.

MAYOR PINGREE HAS THE GANG DEAD TO RIGHTS

Hoffman and Wesch Say They Were Approached by Electric Light Company's Vote Purchaser.

FITZGERALD IS BAILED OUT

DETROIT, April 26.—No additional arrests have been made today as a result of the expose in the city council last evening of the attempted bribery of aldermen by the Electric Light company. Manager W. H. Fitzgerald of the Detroit Electric Light & Power company is still under arrest. He has nothing to say in respect to the matter further than to deny that any money had been given to Alderman Protiva or to any other members of the city council to influence their votes.

It was stated this morning that the mayor has had a detective watching several east side aldermen for several weeks and that new evidence has been secured against three of them to warrant their arrest. Aldermen Hoffman and Wesch have stated to the prosecuting attorney that they had also been approached by the electric light people. Prosecuting Attorney Fraser says that he has been keeping tabs on the boodlers for weeks and had been informed of every move they made. He declares that there are quite a number of aldermen mixed up in the affair and that he has a good case against all who are implicated.

Late this afternoon Manager Fitzgerald was taken before Police Judge Whalen and arraigned on a charge of bribery. The prisoner pleaded not guilty to the charge and his examination was set for Friday of next week. Bail was fixed at $5,000. Walter S. Crane and Gilbert W. Lee qualified as bondsmen and the prisoner was released. Fitzgerald and his attorneys refused to give any intimation as to the line of defense to the press.

No further arrests have been made. The city council investigating committee got to work tonight and when the matter shall have been sifted to the bottom more startling disclosures will be made it is said.

UNION PACIFIC'S ANNUAL

Better Showing Made Than for Many Years Past.

BOSTON, April 26.—Mr. Charles F. Choate presided over the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Union Pacific railway company, which was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning in Horticultural Hall. The meeting was to elect directors and to vote upon a proposed change of the by-laws so as to provide for the creating of the office of chairman of the board of directors for the annual election of such officer and prescribing his powers and duties. The directors' ticket is the same as that of last year with the exception of George J. Gould and Sidney Dillon Ripley, who fill vacancies caused by the death of Jay Gould and Sidney Dillon. After the acceptance of the annual report balloting was begun and a recess taken for two hours.

The report is the most favorable that the stockholders have received for many years. The company earned about 3 1/2 per cent on its capital stock, which was twice the stockholders' surplus in the previous year and compares with a deficit of $275,000 in 1890. Out of $2,069,757 surplus for the year, $1,986,000 remain in the form of actual cash, the total cash on hand Dec. 31, 1892, being $3,989,178. The reduction in expenses has been quite general. The funded debt of the system in the hands of the public, less the current resources due from individuals and companies outside the system, is $220,558,646, or an average per mile of $28,712. Cash receipts in all land departments were $1,546,312. The amount of stock in Massachusetts and New England shows a slight increase over a year ago. New York has somewhat increased while foreign countries have correspondingly diminished. The number of stockholders has become less in all these cases.

FLEEING FROM THE FLOODS.

People Living Opposite St. Louis Are Moving Out.

ST. LOUIS, April 26.—As a result of the swelling of the Mississippi the inhabitants of East Carondelet and the American Bottom, opposite St. Louis, are beginning to move out of the district to the high ground and many of them came to this side of the river to escape the high water. They anticipate almost as much of a rise this year as last and the lesson they learned by bitter experience and suffering then will long be remembered. This is one of the districts where many people were caught in the second stories of their houses and on their roofs by the floods last spring.

BOSTON'S COMMANDER DEAD.

Officer Who Hoisted Our Flag at Honolulu Passes Away.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—A telegram was received at the navy department today from New York announcing the death there of Captain Gilbert C. Wiltze from congestion of the brain. Captain Wiltze commanded the Boston during the troubles in Hawaii and led the marines that hoisted our flag, establishing a protectorate over the islands.

The funeral of the late General Beale will take place Friday morning. The remains will be taken to Baltimore for cremation and then to Chester, Pa., for interment.

MARQUETTE, MICH., APRIL 27.

Entered as mailmatter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

A CYNICAL state exchange observes that "there are too many 'Alvin Jossins' in the present legislature," which is about the dimensions of it.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND will be absent from Washington for the next six days, which gives office-holders not in accord with his administration just that length of respite from the inhalation of anxious breaths.

With $100,000,000 of gold in reserve, other resources in abundance and the very best of credit, Uncle Sam has no occasion to lose any sleep of nights worrying over the condition of his finances. He is in a good deal better condition as far as money matters go than quite a few of his neighbors.

Those who are in Chicago on the first of May to witness the opening of the World's Fair will be treated to an incomplete exhibition of the wonders of the great exposition. But they will find enough to satisfy them, for the exposition is so big a thing that whatever of incompleteness there may be will hardly be noticed.

REPRESENTATIVE WAGNER'S idea of having the upper peninsula exhibit at the World's Fair gives to the state after the big exposition closes is a good one. The people of Michigan need to be educated—that is, those of them who abide in the lower section of it—regarding the products and resources of this peninsula fully as much as the average of visitors to the World's Fair and the exhibit would be an excellent object lesson for them in that respect.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S informal message to the public concerning the state of the treasury is conceded to have had a wholesome effect in allaying popular apprehension as to the danger of a financial crisis. The people appear to have a great deal of confidence in Mr. Cleveland, and as long as he keeps cool the speculators will find it a difficult undertaking to stampede them. After all, good common sense is the essence of statesmanship, and Grover appears to have a fair share of that, notwithstanding that he is a Democrat.

As expressed in the silver purchase act, it is the purpose of the government to maintain the parity of gold and silver. Under that law the secretary of the treasury is empowered to redeem treasury notes in either gold or silver, at his discretion. And yet, now that there has arisen an unusual demand for gold, the mere suggestion that the secretary might use the power vested in him by the law and redeem a portion of the treasury notes in silver has had a disturbing effect on business. Where is the parity of value between these metals that the government has striven to maintain. We ask? There must be something wrong with financial system that fails so utterly to accomplish what it was designed especially to do. Have we no financiers who can tell where the defect lies and how it may be remedied?

MAYOR PINGREE of Detroit is after the venal lighting companies of his city with the sharpest kind of a stick. He is determined to put an end to the robbery of the tax-payers through lighting contracts at exorbitant rates procured by bribing aldermen. His exposure of one of these companies in the open council the other night was a paralyzer for the corrupt crew that has so long held Detroit under tribute by practicing on the venality of the aldermen and municipal officials there. The howl that the rings and their allies raised a short time ago about the injury Mayor Pingree was doing Detroit by driving manufacturing concerns out of the city through his endeavor to make them pay a fair share of the taxes has subsided. It didn't fool the people of the city in the least, and the organs of the rings wisely concluded to drop it.

The Lansing Journal somewhat hotly challenges the correctness of THE MINING JOURNAL'S assumption, based on disclosures attendant on the recent financial flurry in that city, that Lansing is not a desirable location for manufacturing enterprises generally. The Journal makes out a good case in defense of its city as a favorable point for industrial concerns, and this paper is willing to concede that it may have drawn its conclusions hastily. But these were founded on reports sent out from there as to the causes of the embarrassment in which the banks that backed young Barnes in his manufacturing ventures, and if these were true the deductions of THE MINING JOURNAL were sound. It was not the purpose of the article to which our Lansing contemporary takes exception to strike a blow at Lansing, our aim being merely to make use for another purpose altogether of what seemed to be a good example of the worthlessness to any city of industries that are not able to stand on their merits, and which could be operated to better advantage in some other location. IF THE MINING JOURNAL did LAUSING an injustice in the matter it is quite willing to be freely forgiven.

PROFESSOR HARRINGTON of the weather bureau is a scientist of high reputation and unquestionable achievements. To displace him would be a disgrace to the Cleveland administration unless he himself could be disgraced. Therefore a series of petty charges have been brought against him by Assistant Attorney Colby of the interior department, who is himself under investigation by the senate for irregularities before the court of claims. There is every probability that Professor Harrington will come out with flying colors and be vindicated, but for all that he will have to give way to some Democratic politician who knows as much about the science of meteorology and weather predictions as a Sioux Indian knows about the precision of the equinoxes. The lake regions and the marine interests are particularly and financially interested in the conduct of the weather bureau.—Detroit Journal.

Well, if the Democrats should replace Professor Harrington with a man who afflicts the country with such weather as we have had for the past six months he will deserve to be electrocuted without trial by judge or jury. There will be no mourning over the passing of Harrington if his kind of weather goes with him.

Our financial dilemma may be annoying to the government and possibly has an unsettling effect on business for the time being, but it is manifestly of our own making and the way out of it is plain and easily taken. No so with other countries, where the expense of maintaining the government is wrong from the people by direct taxation and where the people are restive under the burden they are compelled to bear to maintain a titled governing class in luxury and idleness. Even Great Britain, rich and prosperous as she is, furnishes an example of the difficulty with which the government revenues are kept at a point where they meet the expenditures. On Monday of this week the chancellor of the exchequer in England introduced the budget for the coming fiscal year in the house of commons, and his estimates showed that the expenditures for the year would be considerably in excess of the receipts. The deficit can only be made up by an increase of taxation. His estimates showed that the revenues of the government are decreasing while the expenditures are growing, a most unsatisfactory state of affairs from a business point of view.

AMERICAN sentiment on the Irish question is in the main just and impartial, a fact that is exceedingly creditable to our people. As an example of this we reproduce the following from the Minneapolis Journal: It seems from the rioting the Orangemen are indulging in at Belfast that the incendiary speeches of Balfour, Chamberlain and other Tories and Union Liberals, are having the effect upon the mob element in Ulster which was intended. The English Tories make it a part of their war on Gladstone's home rule bill to stir up Orange riots in Ireland to frighten Englishmen into relentless opposition to any relief for Ireland. It is a mean and dastardly policy, and should the Orangemen become more violent it is the duty of the imperial government to promptly crush them, or any other body of men disturbing the public peace.

The criticism passed on the dastardly Tory leaders and their equally dastardly tools in Ireland is none too severe. The spectacle of an organized and truculent opposition in Ireland to having the Irish people accorded control of their own affairs is an amazing one, or would be were the explanation of it not to be found in the methods employed by the English Tories for generations to render the task of oppressing Ireland easy by fomenting and keeping alive unnatural dissensions among her people. But the days of Toryism in England and Orangemen in Ireland are nearly numbered, thanks to the grand work of Gladstone and the liberal-minded Englishmen who are laboring with him in the good cause.

MEDICAL TESTIMONY.

W. Thornton Parker, M. D., Recorder, Association of Acting Assistant Surgeons of the U. S. Army, writes:

"When at Stuttgart, Germany, during the winter of 1881-82, I was suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis, which seemed to be a case of pneumonia, and I used the Allcock's Plaster. That may be true, I answered, 'but where can I get the plaster?' 'Anywhere in the civilized world, and surely here in Stuttgart.' Whenever I have a cold, I always use one and find relief. I sent to the drug store for the plaster, and it did all that my friends had promised. Ever since then I have used it whenever suffering from a cold, and I have many times prescribed it for patients.

"The Allcock's Plaster is the best to be had, and has saved many from severe illness, and undoubtedly, if used promptly, will save many valuable lives. Whenever one has a severe cold they should put on an Allcock's Plaster as soon as possible. It should be placed across the chest, the upper margin just below the neck; some hot beef tea, or milk will aid in the treatment.

"This is not a patent remedy in the objectionable sense of the term, but a standard preparation of value. The government supplies for the U. S. Army and Indian Hospital Stores contain Allcock's Plasters, and the medical profession throughout the world are well aware of their reliability and excellence. I shall always recommend it, not only to break up colds, but as useful in allaying pains in the chest, and in the back. It is a preparation worthy of general confidence."

RED JACKET.

The indications given of fair weather for the Odd Fellows' anniversary yesterday were unreliable for the day set in cold and windy and at noon rain began to fall. When the special trains from Lake Linden and Hancock arrived it rained hard with a strong wind blowing from an easterly direction. The local lodges went to the Calumet Mineral Range depot to receive the Portage Lake societies. The several societies, headed by the Fifth Regiment band, Lake Linden band and Houghton Cornet band followed by the Daughters of Rebecca in carriages, proceeded to the opera house, where Councilman H. J. Vivian made the address of welcome and Grand Secretary Whitney and Grand Master Heineman made appropriate addresses. In the evening the Calumet Musical Union presented the comic opera "Dorothy" for the benefit of the Odd Fellows. Extensive preparations were made for the entertainment of the visiting lodges. The miserable weather interfered greatly with the outdoor programme and decreased the numbers who intended to participate in the celebration.

The manner in which the Hecla lodge team did the work of conferring past degrees Tuesday evening was quite a surprise to Grand Master Heineman and Grand Secretary Whitney, who complimented them very highly. One of the features of the evening was the presentation to the grand master and grand secretary of very beautiful charms made from copper bearing rock from the Calumet & Hecla, ornamented with native copper and silver and trimmed in gold. The grand master's emblem represented the sun, sword and scales of justice with the initials of the master. The grand secretary's was a book with two pens.

People from this vicinity desiring to witness the Houghton production of "Dorothy" by the Calumet Musical Union April 28, may purchase seats at Fuhtel's drug store, Red Jacket, after next Sunday, April 23. A special train will be run, leaving Red Jacket at 6 p. m. and stopping at Calumet and Osceola.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hurd left yesterday noon for North Galveston, accompanied by about twenty-five persons from here. At Houghton they were joined by some Lake Linden and Portage Lake people.

Len Fuller, finding this climate very severe on him, intends to go to the Pacific coast early in September.

Superintendent Johnson Vivian was at the Centennial yesterday and reports work going on very satisfactory in the coast.

Mr. John McNaughton and Miss Rose Kane were married Tuesday morning at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McNaughton, parents of the bridegroom, by the Rev. J. R. Knowell, pastor of the Congregational church at Lake Linden. A large circle of friends join THE MINING JOURNAL in congratulating them.

The locomotive of the special train conveying the Odd Fellows frightened the horse ridden by Marshal Frank Ward. In its efforts to get away the animal backed into the ditch, nearly throwing its rider.

Mrs. E. C. Welden left last evening for Mount Clemens to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson went to Houghton yesterday to attend the funeral of a grandchild.

Miss Olaf Krarner, the native Esquimaux lady, will deliver a lecture on "Greenland" at Germania Hall Wednesday evening, May 3, under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church. Miss Krarner is thirty-five years old, 40 inches high and weighs 100 pounds. Reserved seats are now on sale at Scott's drug store.

Dunstan & Hanchette are busy taking inventory of G. Deimel's stock of jewelry and will shortly sell it at mortgage sale.

Fred Boehm and Miss Lena Saam, both of this city, were quietly married Tuesday evening. Fred just wanted to surprise his many friends and he succeeded.

Tuesday morning a party of men were working in No. 4 shaft at the Quincy mine when the hoisting rope broke and the skip falling away struck Erik Landas on the head. The man was a little better yesterday but is still in great danger.

Edward Barkell, who left here some time last summer for Butte City, Mont., returned yesterday and will again make his home in this city.

W. R. Todd, secretary and treasurer of the Quincy Mining company, arrived here yesterday noon.

John Watson left for Marquette yesterday with the switch crew that has been at work in the South Shore yards at Houghton. His family will remain here.

Ed Demar returned to Ishpeming yesterday noon.

The Winslow Medicine and Concert company is playing to packed houses every night.

The funeral of the five-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Lavine of the Quincy location was held yesterday afternoon. Houghton.

Circuit court opened yesterday with the case of the People vs James Laurenti, charged with assaulting a little girl. It took quite a while to get a jury but as soon as that task was finished the case went on very rapidly. All the witnesses were examined and the testimony was all in by noon. lorney Streeter opened the case for the people and made a very able speech. Attorney R. Skiff Sheldon made a brilliant speech in favor of his client, after which the prosecuting attorney closed the case and the judge delivered his charge to the jury. The jury was out about an hour and brought in a verdict of guilty. Laurenti will receive his sentence in a few days.

Pete Abramson of Calumet owed Ley Bros. of Hancock a debt amounting to $39.18. Yesterday their collector found out that Pete intended to take the noon train for North Galveston. He went to Justice Finn and got out a warrant and Marshal Malherbe captured his man at the South Shore depot. At first Peter said he had paid the bill but when he found out that the marshal would not let him go he settled by paying the amount and the costs in the case and went on his way to North Galveston rejoicing.

The excursion party that left here yesterday noon for North Galveston was not as large as the agents expected. Only about thirty-five left and it was expected that one hundred would go. Among those who left was Mrs. G. A. Hurd, who accompanied her husband, and Mrs. Briggs, sister of John Slockett, the agent here.

Just before the noon train left here yesterday a number of people got on to bid their friends who were going to North Galveston goodbye. The train pulled out, taking the crowd with it and had got well under way before the conductor found it out. The train was stopped and they were let off about a mile from the station.

Attorney Scott W. Shaul of Peters & Shaul, Marquette, yesterday noon set a divorce case in circuit court here and left for home last night.

McCabe & Young's minstrels will be at the Armory Opera house tonight. They will parade this afternoon.

"Dorothy" will be presented by the Calumet Musical union at the Armory Opera house tomorrow evening. No doubt they will have a good house as the sale of seats is quite large in both cities.

The three month's old child of Mr. and Mrs. Bennetts of the Atlantic mine was buried yesterday.

The red waters of Portage Lake are beginning to show up in good patches in several places. The heavy winds and rains of yesterday helped along wonderfully. It will be but a short time now before the small crafts will be plying between the two cities.

Judge Hubbell returned yesterday from Chicago.

every day that you try to worry along without Pearline. And what's the use? What do you gain? You can't have washing done more safely than it's done with Pearline. And it can't be done more cheaply—if it's done safely.

Where you lose is in time and labor. Pearline saves half of both. You lose in clothes, too. You can't rub them clean in the old way on the washboard, without rubbing them to pieces. All these things that you lose are money.

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled; if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back.

The World's Fair tickets now on sale are good to Nov. 15, not Nov. 30 as first stated.

Hughes' orchestra made quite a show when marching down to take the tram for Iron Mountain yesterday afternoon.

Married, at 8 o'clock last evening at the Alpena House by Justice Crary, Miss Lizzie Sisson of Sands and James Davis.

The opera house box office will open at 9:30 o'clock this morning for the sale of seats for Pete Baker on Saturday evening.

Married, April 25, by Rev. J. B. Bozar at the Presbyterian parsonage Mr. Anrus Leitch and Mrs. Jennie Quigly, both of Marquette.

Mr. Harry De Hass having associated himself with A. R. Morgan, the shoe man, would be pleased to see his friends at his new place of business.

It requires two sixty-foot baggage cars to transport the scenery, costumes, electric effects and paraphernalia of the "Spider and Fly" company. There are sixty people in this season's production.

Mr. James Dwyer has leased the Thompson & Russell residence on Hewitt avenue and will take possession at once. The residence which he leaves on East Arch street will be leased by Gad Smith.

Mr. Gus Lundberg and Miss Tillie Larson were married Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at 302 Adams street, a reception following the ceremony at which a very large number of the friends of the contracting parties were present.

The Daughters of Rebekah give a party at Fraternity Hall tomorrow evening with music by Hughes' orchestra, the ladies furnishing the supper. Those wishing to attend who may not have received invitations should call upon J. F. Zerbel at his store.

There being a case of scarlet fever in a certain family living on North Third street the officials by mistake placarded the next house. That is occupied by a washerwoman, Mrs. Spence, and in consequence she has lost her business though there has never been a case of scarlet fever in the house.

The Masonic dance this evening in Masonic Hall is expected to prove one of the jolliest of the season and a large attendance is anticipated, there being only one more party in the series. Hughes' orchestra will furnish the music and the committee will spare no pains to see that the refreshments are fully up to the high standard of the past.

The miserable weather was undoubtedly responsible for the poor house which greeted Mahara's original McCabe & Young's minstrels last evening, for the entertainment possessed many unique features and was well worthy of patronage. Gill Garay's dancing was really superb and no serpentine dancer who has yet visited this part of the country can manage skirts to equal him while the boy acrobats and contortionists were remarkably good.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hilton of Quincy, Mass., with their little daughter, are the guests of Mrs. Hilton's parents, Captain and Mrs. C. D. Blanchard of Spruce street. Mr. Hilton made decide to locate either here or at the head of the lake in business.

It Isn't Much of a Picnic. To THE MINING JOURNAL:—Please allow me space to reply to "Citizen" in this morning's issue. The article was evidently aimed indirectly at the principal of the Ely school.

While I know that there are pupils there who are guilty of such things, there are also two other guilty classes. First, the Business College students, as I can testify from personal observation, and second and worst, a crowd of street loafers and vagabonds who make a practice of hanging around until school time and then seeking other places of amusement. If "Citizen" had been in the shoes of the janitor of the Ely building the past few months he (or she) wouldn't have been so ready to find fault with the Ely school management.

A NOVELIST'S VIEWS.

F. MARION CRAWFORD'S OBSERVATIONS ABOUT AMERICA.

Changes in American Taste For Art and Better Architecture—American Hurry and Vexing Is Subsiding—Handicapped by a Lack of Traditions.

"What changes in this country have impressed me most during my last visit?" repeated Mr. F. Marion Crawford, the novelist, as he bent over his large trunk which he was packing for his departure homeward. "I have noticed so many changes that it is difficult for me to put my impressions in shape. When I came here 10 years ago, after long absences in Europe and in the east, I was most struck by the remarkable growth of the cities that I saw, but during my present visit I have been particularly impressed by the development in taste which I have noticed among the people here.

"It seems to me that my brother Americans—you know I am really an American myself, and a thoroughly loyal one in spite of the fact that circumstances have obliged me to spend most of my life abroad—have made a great advance in their knowledge and appreciation of the arts. This is shown most conspicuously in the architectural improvements in the various cities that I have visited.

"There are fewer monstrosities in the way of buildings now put up, for instance, than there were a few years ago, and among the new ones there are some magnificent specimens of architecture. The interiors of the houses, too, show a similar improvement. Instead of rooms filled with bric-a-brac of inferior quality and poor designs brought at a fabulous price by misguided collectors I have found less crowded rooms, but far more taste displayed in their adornment. Where formerly the walls would be covered with many poor etchings I have noticed a very few in the best taste.

"Then, too, I have noticed a marked change in the physical appearance of the people here. The women seem to have developed and are now healthier and finer looking than they were when I last came. I have observed that the men carry themselves better, walk from the waist, so to speak. I attribute their improvement to the increase in games and physical exercise in general in this country. I presume that this increase is due in part to the fact that American men are now beginning to have a little leisure in which they can devote themselves to other pursuits than those of business.

"There is much to be hoped for from the increase of leisure in this country. I have no doubt that before many years America will have a leisure class just as each of the old European countries has. Indeed I have already seen signs of its formation. There are at the present time plenty of rich men in New York who have no business and who spend most of their time at their clubs and in sports, which are practically the resources of the average man of leisure here.

"The business pressure in London is, in my opinion, far greater than in New York; and as for the social whirl New York doesn't compare with Rome. Roman society during the four months of the season goes practically no sleep at all. In New York society is far more moderate.

"And this brings me to the subject of the conditions of American life. The most interesting of these conditions, in my judgment, is the complete absence of tradition in the usages here. Of course there are many Americans who like to follow European traditions; they swallow these at a gulp, and the effect is like that of taking a pill. Practically America must make her own traditions, and as she has not as yet had time to do this the American people are still untrammelled and can develop themselves in a natural and spontaneous manner. The complete absence of tradition here has struck me superficially and yet most forcibly and amusingly in American social customs.

"For example, I can't tell you what a strange sensation I have had when I have dined at luxurious American houses where all the appointments have been of the most magnificent description, and where at table I have been confronted with the spectacle of a butler wearing a mustache. No one who has not been brought up abroad amid the iron clad rules of society which prevail in European countries can understand the utter incongruity of that butler's appearance. As a matter of fact, I don't care a rap about that sort of thing, but nevertheless I can't help being amused by it. The incident I've mentioned is only one instance of a large number of incongruities that I have noticed in American society.

"The lack of tradition in America affects even the arts. Every other country has long established tradition by which its whole artistic life is regulated, but America has as yet to develop its schools of literature, painting, sculpture and music. We have not thus far produced one great writer. Ah, yes, Emerson, Hawthorne, Lowell and the little group of New England writers of 25 years ago did admirable work, but judged by the standards of Sophocles, Shakespeare, Dante, Goethe and Schiller they must be rated as second class men. Hawthorne was the greatest writer that we have ever produced, but he was only on the fringe of the first class.

"Every country—that is every ancient country—has had its great aristocratic class. As a rule it comes only once, though in the case of Rome, through its schools of literature, painting, sculpture and music. We have not thus far produced one great writer. "Every country—that is every ancient country—has had its great aristocratic class. As a rule it comes only once, though in the case of Rome, through its schools of literature, painting, sculpture and music. We have not thus far produced one great writer. Ah, yes, Emerson, Hawthorne, Lowell and the little group of New England writers of 25 years ago did admirable work, but judged by the standards of Sophocles, Shakespeare, Dante, Goethe and Schiller they must be rated as second class men. Hawthorne was the greatest writer that we have ever produced, but he was only on the fringe of the first class.

Coroner's Jury in the Varcoe Case Finds That His Death Was the Result of an Accident.

Swedish Lutheran Seaside to Pay Expenses Another Visit—A Badly Afflicted Man—Pete Baker.

"ACCIDENTAL DEATH"

The coroner's jury in the case of John Varcoe, who met death at the Lake Superior mine Tuesday afternoon by falling down a shaft, assembled at Coroner Rodgers' office yesterday morning and after hearing the evidence given by Varcoe's fellow workmen found a verdict of "accidental death."

The funeral of Mr. Varcoe will occur this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Religious services will be held at Grace Episcopal church. A meeting of the countrymen of the deceased was held last evening when arrangements were made by them to attend the funeral in a body. The remains will be met at section 14 mine by the men in line. The funeral will be largely attended, as Varcoe had many friends.

Come Here

The Swedish Lutheran Seaside and the Olive Trolley Concert company combined will give a performance in Ishpeming some evening between the 17th and 20th of next month, under the management of members of the Seaside orchestra, to which organization the net proceeds will be given. The Seaside is well known throughout this section, having appeared here several times.

In Hard Luck

Mr. Dave Helicette, whose wife died two months ago, lost his four-month-old baby boy by death Tuesday. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with religious services at St. Joseph's Catholic church.

Numerous and Lively

The Haymarket drew its usual packed audience Saturday evening to see Pete Baker, one of the most deservedly popular of German dialect comedians. In his revised version of his well-known comedy, "Chris and Lena," the play is improved, made brisker and snazzier, but without material change in essential. Baker's special good points were recognized with all the favor accorded him for many seasons; his roadsters are competent, and the whole performance humorous as well as lively and brisk.

At the City Opera House tomorrow evening. Seats on sale at Tillson's.

A PRAYER. Dear Lord, to thee my knee is bent, Give me content Full pleased with what comes to me, What'er it be, An humble roof, a fragrant board And simple board; The wintry frost laid beside And homelike cheer, While the enveloping flames up sprout And twine about The barren dogs that guard my hearth And homelike cheer, Tinge with the ember's ruddy glow The rafters low, And let the sparks snap with delight, As flames might; That mark soft measures of some tune The children croon. "I have," said he, marking the lines on the floor as he proceeded, "this land case, Beginning at A and running to B, my course and poleage (distance) is all right, and the same from B to and from C to D. But in running from D to the beginning of A, my course is all right, but my poleage overruns. Now why can't I lend out and get my poleage?"

"Well," said Winston, looking intently at the diagram, "no reason at all except this fellow has here, a remarkable sinning that is, you don't you bend in and get your poleage!" "Ah," said Jones in a passion, "that is preposterous, sir—perfectly preposterous." —Green Bag

An Incident at Lloyd's. An interesting incident in connection with the loss of the Peninsula and Oriental steamship Bokhara has lately come to light. At the door of Lloyd's is stationed a porter, whose duty it is to prevent the entrance of unauthorized persons and to shout out the contents of telegrams received. One day, just before the steamer Bokhara reached London, an underwriter at Lloyd's took a risk on the vessel at 80 guineas. Just as he was in the act of signing the slip the porter, in the exercise of his duty, bawled out, "Bokhara"—pausing for a moment in order to make the announcement impressive. The underwriter, pen in hand, believing that the rest of the telegram would be "has arrived," snatched the slip from the broker, exclaiming: "I have it!" In another instant the porter continued: "—is totally lost." The remarks of the underwriter are not on record.—Million.

Old English Silverware. Old English silverware is much in demand just now, and genuine pieces, especially those of historic interest, fetch high prices. There is a special interest in tableware of the seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. As both tea and coffee came into use in England near the middle of the seventeenth century, some of the earliest of English make. Even then the device of the wooden handle, designed to interpose a nonconductor between the hand and the metal, had come into use. The best of the coffeepots are large, stable vessels, with little ornament and no striking grace of form, but rather a look of solidity and a suggestion of coziness and comfort. Those bearing the hall marks of the old silversmiths are usually to be accepted as genuine.—Chicago Herald.

The Clergyman's Holiday. Sunday is the clergyman's working day, and Monday is his day of rest. In eastern cities it is common for the ministers of the town and its neighborhood to assemble at convenient points, usually the publishing houses, to discuss the duties of their respective denominations, and to spend some hours in the discussion of topics not always religious. They dine in little groups at a good restaurant, and if their consciences allow they go to a concert or a theater in the evening. This pleasant custom had its origin in Boston, and probably no performance has been given at the Boston Museum on Monday night in 40 years when clergyman did not form a part of the audience.—New York Sun.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. "ROYAL RUBY" PORT WINE. If you are reduced in vitality or strength by illness or any other cause, we recommend the use of this grand old Port wine, the very blood of the grape. A grand tonic for mothers nursing and those reduced by wasting disease. It creates strength; improves the appetite; Nature's own remedy, much preferable to drugs, guaranteed absolutely pure and of age. The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is indicated especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, and is the most effective remedy known for these diseases. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by H. H. Stafford, Son & Co.

HOSPITAL SECRETS. They Often Meet With Such Cases Which Baffle Them.

And the Very Cases They Fail in Yield to a Simple Remedy.

The Curiosity of People Amply Satisfied on This Subject.

We do not believe in publishing the secrets of hospitals, but very often they make failures to cure when a remedy we know of has afterwards perfectly and completely cured.

A well-known and highly respected gentleman, W. N. Lowers, by name, who resides at 117 East Hamtramck street, Mt. Vernon, Ohio, tells his experience, as follows:

"Two years ago I was taken down with rheumatism, and the doctors could give me but little relief, and I spent all I had and was no better. In fact, I got worse and I suffered beyond description.

"I was taken to St. Francis hospital at Columbus, where the best doctors of the state could try their skill, but got no better.

"Then they took me to St. Anthony hospital in the same city. The doctor said I could not get well, that nothing would cure me.

"I went home thinking I never could get well. I got worse and I went to the drug store to get some thing to relieve me of my suffering. I talked with the druggist about Dr. Greene's Nervina blood and nerve remedy, and I got a bottle of it and commenced using it.

"The fourth day I began to feel a change. That terrible tired feeling began to disappear, and when I commenced using it my weight was 136 pounds; now I weigh 144 pounds.

"My friends and acquaintances are looking at me with wonder. They think I get perfectly well. I make this statement public so that those who have suffered as I have may be benefited as I have been.

"I thank my Maker for guiding me to this medicine."

There are thousands of people suffering from poor blood, weak nerves, rheumatism, neuralgia and other weakening and painful diseases, who can certainly be cured by using Dr. Greene's Nervina blood and nerve remedy. It is purely vegetable and harmless and druggists keep it for $1. Doctors recommend this remedy because they know its cures, and because it is the discovery and prescription of a noted physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases. The doctor can be consulted, free of charge in all cases, personally or by letter.

For years the editor of the Springfield Junction (Mo.) Post has been subject to cramp colic or fits or indigestion, which prostrated him for several hours and unfitted him for business for two or three days. For the past year he has been using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy whenever occasion required, and it has invariably given him prompt relief. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by H. COUNTY BOARD ORGANIZES.

Supervisor A. E. Sterne Re-Elected
Chairman and Usual Standing Committees Appointed.

ANOTHER LUMBERMAN NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH BY GAS.

Engine in the Lake at St. Ignace—Real Estate Transfers—The Detroit News Explains.

FIRST BY THE NEW BOARD.

The county board of supervisors met yesterday morning at the court house pursuant to call and organized by the selection of A. E. Sterne, chairman of the old board, as temporary chairman. A temporary auditing committee consisting of Supervisors Bradt, Ross, Maxwell and Vandenberg was appointed to audit the bills presented and later by unanimous vote, on motion of Supervisor Fay, the organization was made permanent, electing Mr. Sterne chairman for the coming year.

In the afternoon the auditing committee made its report, allowing all bills except a number of justices' and coroners' claims which the prosecuting attorney was not present to "O. K."

Chairman Sterne then announced the following standing committees for the year and the board adjourned on Wednesday, June 7:

Finance and Taxation—Fairbairn, Elliott, Maitland, Ross, Roberts, Sedgwick, Walker, Quinn, Asre, Eggan, Barnett, McNamara, Vandenberg, Taylor, Read, McFarland, Billings and Moore.

Equalization—Maitland, Maxwell, Billings, Johnston, Pearce, Quinn, Bradt, Fay, Fitch, Morgan, Barnett, Wells, Eggan, Moore, Wells, Roberts, Elliott, Fairbairn, Taylor and Walker.

Auditing Committee—Bradt, Ross, Maxwell, Fay, Wells, Menhennet and Johnston.

County Officers' Accounts—Fitch, Asre, Gorman, Johnston, Morgan, Clark and Fairbairn.

Supplies and Expenditures—Maxwell, Fay, Tregambo, Skoglund, Brewer, Menhennet, Quinn, Finlay, Gregory, Billings, Bahman, McFarland, Eggan, Bradt, Fitch, Superintendent of the Poor—Wells, Read, McNamara, Finlay, Brewer, Gregory, Skoglund, Billings, Sedgwick, Wells and Potts.

Another Lumberman Dies.

Another lumberman from Redy Bros. camp came near meeting his death from gas at the Summit House Tuesday night, within a week of a fatal case of the same nature at the Bay View House where the victim was from these camps. The clerk, Mr. Palmer, while examining a room early yesterday morning, detected the smell of gas and at once started a vigorous search for the source. He located the room and broke it open, finding the inmate already pretty well gone. Prompt measures were taken to resuscitate him, his mouth was wiped open and stimulants administered and by afternoon he was able to leave the house. The man was perfectly sober when he went to bed but when he had recovered from the effects of the gas he was unable to explain whether he had blown it out or had made a mistake in turning it off.

Trouble at the Straits.

Reports reached the city yesterday of a very serious storm at the straits which made it impossible to transfer cars. The floating ice seems to have done considerable damage to the ferry slip for the switch engine which handles the cars on the dock went through into the lake, the crew escaping without serious injuries. Superintendent Lytle is down there and the wrecking train is also down to fish out the engine which is said to be in deep water.

Purchased a Residence.

Carson Bushnell, of H. Bushnell & Son, has purchased of Mrs. Friedrich the property on North Front street, near the corner of Michigan, where she has resided for the last year or two, the consideration being understood to be about $2,000. Mrs. Friedrich is preparing to move to Detroit to spend the remainder of her days and Mr. Bushnell will take possession of the house this week or early in next.

Notice to Odd Fellows.

The Odd Fellows of Marquette and vicinity are invited to meet with Tenthon lodge, No. 236, I. O. O. F., on Saturday night next at Fraternity Hall to receive and properly entertain the grand master and grand secretary of the state. Refreshments will be served, etc., etc. All past grandmasters are notified that a special session of the grand lodge will take place at Negaunee on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock for conferring past official and grand lodge degrees.

Detroit News Takes It Back.

The criticism put upon Representative Wagner's conduct in accepting a gift of a pair of costly diamond sleeve buttons on the return of a party of legislative junketers from a two weeks' trip in March, of which he was a member, the inference being that he connived at having the price of the buttons taken from a purse of $100 raised as a token for Colonel Baylies, the passenger agent who conducted the trip, is said by persons in a position to know to be unjust to the representative.

The facts, as given by these persons, are that Wagner would not have received the buttons but for a misunderstanding. When the purse had been raised for Colonel Baylies, one of those who helped to raise it suggested that they purchase an inexpensive token for Wagner out of the fund, the cost not to exceed $5. The desire was to simply compliment Wagner, who had been with two or three parties of legislators over the same route in previous years. It was arranged to present the purse to Colonel Baylies at the Detroit club. A telegram was sent to a Detroit firm to engrave a pair of sieve buttons for Wagner.

On the night for the presentation the buttons were sent by the firm to the club. To say the committee was surprised at finding that the sieve buttons were worth about fifteen times what they expected to pay is putting it mild. They had forgotten to specify in the order the kinds of buttons they wanted and the firm took it for granted that nothing short of diamonds was good enough for a state law maker. The diamond buttons being engraved with Wagner's initials could not well be returned so the committee made the best of it, paid the bill from the fund raised for Colonel Baylies and gave the buttons to Wagner.—Detroit News.

The Unity Door Check.

Mr. J. W. Madden, of Madden & Son, proprietors of the Fraternity block store, has been made agent for the upper peninsula of the combination door check, bolt and bumper manufactured by the Unity Door Check company of Chicago. This device will hold a door open, partly open or closed as desired and is fast becoming an indispensable adjunct for a door as is the sash lock to a window and Mr. Madden should find a splendid sale for it in his field. The following are among its good qualities:

1. It holds the door firmly in any position, open or closed.
2. It regulates the draft of air, little or great, as you desire.
3. It gives fresh air and keeps small children in the house.
4. It saves slamming of doors and the breaking of glass and plaster.
5. It can be set or released with the foot without stooping, and is never in the way.
6. It will not wear the floor or the carpet, as it has a rubber foot.
7. It acts as a bumper, and saves the wall from the door knob.
8. It can be set as a deadlock at night, and cannot be picked or forced without breaking the door.
9. It is operated in an instant, and is always ready.
10. For that swing door it is indispensable.
11. For the office door it is practical.
12. For all doors a modern convenience.

An Appeal for Funds.

The state committee of the Young Men's Christian association has issued the following circular to friends of the cause throughout the upper peninsula:

"Thirty-six thousand young men on the upper peninsula! An army larger than the English contingent at Waterloo. Collectively they constitute a tremendous power for good or evil. Everything depends on how they are headed. The Young Men's Christian association exists for nothing else than to turn them in the right direction, and keep them headed that way. The supervision and extension of this work is entrusted to the state executive committee, represented on the upper peninsula by Mr. E. W. Allen of Marquette. Under the direction of this committee a decided advance has been made in the past three years.

In 1889 there was only one association on the peninsula—Marquette. At the close of 1892 there were five—Sault Ste. Marie, Menominee, Hancock, Mining School and Marquette. These associations have a combined membership of 675. The four city associations have an aggregate of about five thousand visits to their rooms each month. Nearly two hundred and fifty young men are gathered each week in their religious meetings. Two of these associations own the buildings they occupy though neither is entirely clear of debt. At Calumet a provisional organization has been formed with a membership of over two hundred. A reading room has been opened and the full-fledged association will follow in due course.

The committee is continually being pressed to enter new fields. Bessemer, Escanaba, Houghton, Iron Mountain, Ishpeming, Lake Linden, Manistique and Negaunee are each large enough to support flourishing associations. Several smaller places could be put in the way of doing something. One man could be employed to advantage in special work for miners. Two men should be sent into the woods every fall to spend the winter working for the 1000 men (nearly) who are employed in the lumber camps. Such work is very effective in other states. What hinders it here? The state committee has men—it has experience—it has facilities for doing double the work now attempted. Why not take up these new lines of work that press for the doing? Lack of funds—that is all. The committee has no resource other than the gifts of those good friends who believe in its work for young men—the future citizens of the commonwealth. Are you one of the number? If so you will perhaps be glad to give practical expression to your interest by sending a moderate-sized contribution to E. W. Allen, Nester block, Marquette, Mich. You will receive reports regularly of what your gift has helped to accomplish.

There is no instrument, unless, indeed, it be a large pipe organ, capable of the variety of effects that are obtainable on the Aeolian. Unlike the pipe organ, however, the Aeolian is adapted to all classes of music; overtures and symphonies can be rendered on it with all the softness and delicacy of the flute and violin and cello and all the snap and brilliancy of the piano.
