ANOTHER BANK SUSPENDS.

Lansing Seems Hanging on the Verge of a General Financial Smash.

WHY DID THE INGHAM COUNTY BANK CLOSE?

Commissioner Sherwood Did Not Advise Any Such Action and Says It Was Not Necessary.

DIRECTORS WERE COWARDLY.

LANSING, Mich., April 27.—The public here were startled this morning in passing the Ingham County Savings bank to see a placard on its doors reading: "This bank closed and in the hands of commissioner of banking." Very little is known of the cause as the bank officers are very reticent. It is said, however, that it was caused by the failure of the Peninsular Savings bank of Detroit to keep its agreement to furnish the Ingham County bank with sufficient currency to do its business.

Commissioner Sherwood says the closing was entirely without his advice or knowledge. He would certainly have advised against it had he been consulted. He can make no prediction as to the future of the bank and is confident there was no necessity for closing. There is a conference of all the bank directors of the city in session at the office of the commissioner of banking to determine what course to pursue. The situation is extremely critical.

The Ingham County Savings is the bank on which the run began Wednesday, April 19. At that time Bank Commissioner Sherwood made a speech which calmed the excitement for some time, but it appears the trouble did not end there. The closing of the bank is due to the inability of the officers to realize on some of its securities. The Peninsular Savings bank of Detroit held $137,000 face value of these and gave the Lansing bank nine certificates of deposit of $5,000 each, thus making $45,000 available for use at any time. Since then $40,000 has actually been paid over.

Yesterday the cashier drew a draft on a New York bank for $7,000 and telegraphed the Peninsular bank to place that amount to their credit at New York. Cashier Moore telegraphed back that the Ingham County Savings bank had reached its limit and that he was not disposed to advance any more money. As a consequence the draft will go to protest.

The directors of the embarrassed bank met last night and discussed the situation. It became evident that the bank could not continue payments under the circumstances and the directors decided to close the doors until some satisfactory arrangement could be made. They attribute the present difficulty to the unsatisfactory condition of the money market quite as much as to the complications of the Barnes companies.

The directors did not consult Bank Commissioner Sherwood about the closing and that official is very indignant, especially in view of the fact that his address to depositors stopped the run of last week. He says he would have had no difficulty in raising $7,000 from at least twenty different sources. The bank had $20,000 actually in its coffers this morning and there were no signs of a run. Mr. Sherwood asserts that the directors were guilty of rank cowardice in closing under such circumstances. The bank is now in charge of Commissioner Sherwood and an examination of its affairs will be speedily made.

CASHIER MOORE IS WARM.

DETROIT, April 27.—Joseph B. Moore, cashier of the Peninsular Savings bank, says his bank has given the Ingham County bank at Lansing, which closed its doors today, $60,000 for which the Peninsular bank is well secured with good paper.

"We have gone out of our way to help that bank," said Mr. Moore. "and have done more for it than other banks. We felt, however, that it was time for them to paddle their own canoe and so notified the officers yesterday. They have plenty of good paper, $150,000 in securities I believe, but on account of the pressure of the money market we were forced to refuse them further accommodations. In the matter of the $7,000 they asked us to assume that amount of obligation for a New York bank. They had no such amount on deposit with us and we naturally refused. I believe, though, that the bank will pull through yet with what paper it has and the help of the directors."

FECHHEIMER & CO. IN TROUBLE.

Wholesale Liquor House Gives Mortgages to a Trustee.

DETROIT, April 27.—H. C. Fecheimer & Co., wholesale liquor dealers, are financially embarrassed. They have given a chattel mortgage on all their stock, horses and trucks, accounts, warehouse receipts and goods in transit to John Trouessine as trustee for their creditors, whose claims are based on thirty-six notes and two checks of the aggregate amount of $73,309, in which sum the firm's chattels are mortgaged. Members of the firm say that for the present they cannot make a statement but believe that they will be able to continue in business.

LARGEST ON THE LAKES

The Steamer S. S. Curry Successfully Launched at Bay City.

BAY CITY, Mich., April 27.—The proud boast of being the largest boat afloat on the lakes can no longer be made by the Selwin Eddy as today the steamship S. S. Curry, built by P.W. Wheeler & Co., was successfully launched in this city. The steamer is the largest on the Great Lakes. She marks the return to early principles of marine architecture in that her boilers and machinery are placed amidships instead of far in the stern, as has been the common practice on the lakes. The change is the direct result of the loss of the steamers W. H. Gilcher and Western Reserve last season. The Curry's dimensions are as follows: Length of keel, 370 feet; length overall, 378½ feet; molded depth, 25 feet; beam, 45 feet. The triple compound engines are the first of the large lake engines to be constructed by Wheeler & Co. and the cylinders are 23.37 and 63 inches in diameter and 44 inches stroke. Steam will be supplied by three boilers. The estimated capacity of the vessel is 4,000 tons.

MORTGAGED ITS PLANT.

Electric Light Company That Tried to Buy Aldermen.

DETROIT, April 27.—The Detroit Electric Light & Power company, whose Manager Fitzgerald was arrested a few days ago for alleged attempted bribery of several members of the city council, this afternoon filed a mortgage for $350,000 to the Central Trust company of New York, covering the company's plant in this city.

TOO MANY ACCIDENTS.

Railroad Commissioner Looking Into Ann Arbor Engines.

OWOSSO, Mich., April 27.—E. F. Moore, railroad commissioner, is here with an expert today making an examination of the Ann Arbor engines No. 28 and No. 40, which recently exploded. The state officials propose to make a thorough investigation as to the causes of the many accidents of late on the road.

CANNOT LABEL HUGHES HALLETT

No Label to Say a Swill-Barrel Contains Swill.

LONDON, April 27.—Colonel Hughes Hallett, who married Miss Emily Schauburg of Philadelphia, from whom he is now separated, has brought an action for libel against John Passmore Edwards and The Weekly Times and The Echo for a statement to the effect that Sir Charles Dilke would be the fittest colleague of Hughes Hallett in parliament and that Sodom and Gomorrah would be their proper constituencies, the allusion of the libel being to a certain scandal in which Sir Charles Dilke and Colonel Hughes Hallett, then Conservative member of parliament for Rochester, were involved and which at the time led to the withdrawal of both men from political life. Mr. Gill, who appeared as counsel for Hughes Hallett at the hearing of the case today, stated that while Passmore Edwards posed as a moralist he was really a hypocrite. Mr. Willis, counsel for the defense, asserted that no reader of the statement alleged to be libellous would think any worse of Hallett on account of reading it, since Hughes Hallett's life was known to everybody.

AHLWARDT'S ALLEGED CHARGES.

German Parliament Honors Blatant Demagogue With Attention.

BERLIN, April 27.—The committee of the reichstag which was appointed to consider the charges of misappropriation of funds made by Ahlwardt against Dr. Miquel, minister of finance, and the late Baron Bleichroeder was in session today. Dr. Miquel was present and Director Aschenborn of the imperial treasury was likewise in attendance. The committee discussed the so-called documents presented by Ahlwardt in support of his charges. Ahlwardt stated that he had submitted all the evidence in his possession excepting that which he had withdrawn. The documents laid before the committee by Ahlwardt appeared only to be pamphlets and extracts from the Eisenbahn Zeitung, including a letter signed by the president of the Roumanian senate. The committee after some discussion about the documents adjourned.

FELL DEAD AT HIS DESK.

William C. Goudy, Well Known Chicago Lawyer, Passes Away.

CHICAGO, April 27.—William C. Goudy, the well known lawyer and politician, fell dead at his desk today. Heart disease was his ailment. His assistant, C. S. Darrow, was at his side when death came almost without warning. Mr. Goudy was sixty-nine years old and was looked upon as one of the leading Democrats of this state. He was general counsel for the Chicago & Northwestern railway. Mr. Goudy had addressed himself to business as usual and was engaged in writing a telegram when suddenly he fell forward. Besides Mr. Darrow the usual force of the railroad's legal department, comprising about a dozen men, was present at the time. The moment Mr. Goudy's condition was noticed the men in the office ran to assist their chief. A physician was summoned but the venerable lawyer was beyond help.

BUFFALO'S GRAIN BLOCKADE

Late Opening of Erie Canal Causes the Difficulty.

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 28.—The grain fleet has blocked the harbor and elevators and the canals being closed there is threatening a grain blockade. The railroads are carrying away large quantities but cannot handle the whole. Superintendent Hannan has issued an order in which he states that the western division of the Erie canal and the Champlain canal will open for navigation Wednesday, May 3. The eastern and middle divisions of the Erie canal the Oswego, Cayuga and Seneca canals and that portion of the Black River canal between Boonville and Rome will be opened for navigation Friday, May 5.

OPEN OR CLOSED SUNDAY?

Another Lively Wrangle Over That Question at the World's Fair.

JUDICIARY COMMITTEE CONSIDERING THE MATTER.

Chicago Workmen Will Labor Sunday and Rest Monday if the Gates Are Closed Sunday.

GREAT WORK IS NEARLY DONE.

CHICAGO, April 27.—Today's bright sunshine seemed to infuse each individual workman of the 15,000 at the World's Fair grounds with the restless spirit of activity that characterizes the officials. This was notably the case at the Woman's building, work on which had to be suspended yesterday but was today resumed with redoubled energy. A large force of painters attacked the exterior and it is expected to be completed by Monday. The cars for the elevator were received and are being put into place so that Monday visitors will not be compelled to climb flights of stairs when they desire to reach upper floors.

Commissioner Massey of the judiciary committee of the national commission has called that committee together to meet at 10 o'clock tomorrow. This is the committee to which the Sunday opening resolution of Commissioner Robeck of Iowa was yesterday referred. Mr. Massey said this morning that he would have called the committee today were it not that Commissioner Sewell of New Jersey had not yet arrived. The probabilities are that the committee will not make a report until Saturday and perhaps not until Tuesday. Commissioner Massey, who is the head of the Sunday closing people, and Commissioner St. Clair of West Virginia, who is the leader of the movement in favor of opening the fair on Sunday, are both members of the committee and consequently will fight the matter out in committee meetings, thus insuring a long session.

Director General Davis' report to the national commission on the present condition of the World's Fair shows that thus far the enormous total of $33,243,930.55 has been raised for the purposes of the fair, without taking into account the cost of the exhibits which will amount to many million dollars more. Four hundred separate buildings have been erected, bringing under roof an area of about three hundred and fifty acres.

BAD BREAK OF COLUMBUS

City Fails to Provide for Handling Liberty Bell Crowd.

COLUMBUS, April 27.—The Liberty Bell en route to Chicago arrived here at 8 p. m. and departed at 11 o'clock for Indianapolis. Extensive preparations had been made to give the committee in charge a reception and to this end the local military companies, Grand Army posts, members of the senate and house, state officials and others turned out in parade. Owing to the construction of a new viaduct at the Union station facilities for reaching the train were very poor. Over 20,000 people crowded into the space and the immense throng could not be handled. The result being that very few people saw the bell. The committee in charge retired to their private cars disgusted with the crush and the lack of any system of handling the crowd.

NO DISCRIMINATION MADE.

Canadian Banks Treat All United States Currency Alike.

MONTREAL, April 27.—No significance should be attached to the reports that the Canadian banks are discriminating against United States treasury notes or silver certificates. What movement there is in this direction is absolutely confined to small banks with branches on the American border. These banks hope to extend the circulation of their own bank notes by forcing American currency out of the country. The leading banks never doubted that the United States government would take whatever steps might be necessary to maintain all its different kinds of currency on a gold basis. Gold has been brought here only by such bankers as allowed the reserves of their banks to run low and who wanted to appear strong at the close of the month at which time they make a sworn statement to the government.

NOVA SCOTIA COAL MINES

Yankees Showing Sluggish Blue-Noses How to Hustle.

HALIFAX, N. S., April 27.—William Hussey, a coal merchant of Danvers, Mass., who a year and a half ago bonded the Broad Cove coal mine, paying at the time 10 per cent. of the purchase money, has paid the balance, which amounted to over $100,000. Hussey is believed to have gotten the biggest bargain yet in the way of coal. His acres are estimated to contain 140,000,000 tons of coal. A connecting railway will be at once built and the mines properly developed. Hussey has at his back influential moneyed men of the United States.

SAILORS' WIDOWS INSANE

Wives of Naronic's Captain and Chief Officer Crazy.

LONDON, April 27.—The wife of Captain Roberts of the White Star steamship Naronic, which has been missing since February 11, and the wife of Chief Officer Wright of the same vessel have both gone insane through despair caused by the loss of their husbands and have had to be placed in an asylum.

The way of the "walking delegate" is getting to be a thorny one. He has counseled honest workmen to their detriment too often and the victims of the thorny sealawag's misleading advice are beginning to turn on him in anger. Which is as it should be. The sooner the mischief-maker's occupation is gone the better for honest labor.

MILWAUKEE is now considering a scheme to have the Ashland monolith transported to that city and erected with imposing ceremonies to the memory of Columbus some time during the summer, while the World's Fair is in blast. We have heard so much of that monolith that it would be a relief to have something done with it that would take it out of print. There is merit in the Milwaukee scheme and it ought to go.

THAT astute financial authority, the New York Herald, thinks from Washington that the government can get along without New York bankers, and the government is not going to be dictated to. Bah! It looks to a man up a tree as if the New York bankers could get along better without the government at Washington than the government can without the New York banks. The above is from The Wall Street Indicator, which may be taken as voicing the sentiment of the banks of Gotham. No doubt the financial institutions of the big metropolis imagine that they are of more importance than all of the rest of the country, but they will be taught differently before they get through with the job they have undertaken in the matter of crowding the government into making a new issue of bonds. The gall of those bloody New Yorkers passes understanding anyway.

In the recent local elections in Kansas the Populist party was so uniformly unsuccessful as to leave no doubt that a violent reaction against that political conglomeration has set in among the deluded voters who were for a time persuaded to affiliate with it. This is a natural consequence of the disgraceful record made by that party in the Kansas legislature early in the winter, when the Populists in that body sought to carry their purposes by usurpation of authority and violation of law to such an extent as to imperil the peace and bring disgrace on the state. The Populists showed themselves utterly undeserving of confidence by their conduct in the legislature and their party is rapidly going to pieces in Kansas, where it had the strongest hold and achieved its greatest victories, as a natural and inevitable consequence.

It is learned that the news of the Pennsylvania Steel company's embarrassment was as much of a surprise to the majority of the stockholders in that corporation as to the general public. The company was supposed to be entirely solvent and prospering and its regular semi-annual dividend of 6 per cent had been paid up to a very recent date, one being due this month, while its stock was quoted above par until just before its affairs were placed in the hands of a receiver. The Boston Herald, in commenting upon these facts, observes with justice that the corporation laws of Pennsylvania must be extremely lax or it would not be possible for the public to be kept in the dark concerning the condition of a corporate concern whose stock was on the market. The law should enforce a showing of the business of such corporations that would enable investors to judge for themselves of the value of their stocks and bonds.

In an article discussing the financial situation the Baltimore Sun says, with force and point, that— The ruinous policy of purchasing depreciated silver bullion, on which coin certificates are issued, and then paying these coin certificates in gold, cannot be continued indefinitely without exhausting every dollar of gold in the country and sending it to Europe. Even the credit and faith of the United States will break down eventually under this system and the currency of the country will rest upon nothing but the tons of constantly depreciating silver that the Sherman law is piling up in the treasury vaults. The issue of bonds would be only temporarily effective until the Sherman act was repealed. The gold acquired by the sale of one issue of bonds would be quickly absorbed and another issue, and another, would be necessary. The basis for the present faith in the government is the only thing that prevents a run on the gold at once for hoarding purposes and the belief that the Sherman law is to be repealed. The administration is pledged to this repeal and all the influence the president can bring to bear on congress will be exerted in an effort to bring it about at an early day as possible.

If the Democrats had acted on the advice of Mr. Cleveland near the close of the last congress and had repealed the Sherman act the crisis that now confronts the administration would have been, in all probability, averted. But they were too stubborn or too stupid to do this. The lesson they have since been given ought to bring them to their senses and teach them the danger of coquetting with the free silver fallacy any longer. The president is a good deal ahead of his party on the financial question, but he may be able to bring it up to him now, since the folly of hesitancy in dealing with that question has been so signally demonstrated.

The Pittsburg Post predicts that the largest strike that has ever taken place in the iron trade in that region will occur the coming summer unless the Amalgamated association makes liberal reductions in the scale of wages for the year beginning July 1, which will soon be submitted to the manufacturers. The latter declare that a reduction in the wage rate is imperative owing to the competition they are compelled to meet from southern makers of iron as well as from other quarters. The iron workers in the Pittsburg district have been paid higher wages than the manufacturers in other districts are paying, and the furnace and mill owners there say the time has come when they must cease doing this or go to the wall. They have not yet taken concerted action with reference to the scale for the next year but it is evident that they intend to do so when the time comes for considering that which the Amalgamated association will present. It is well known to the trade that the conditions which at one time gave the manufacturers of Pittsburg such supremacy in the iron and steel business that they were able to fix prices exist no longer, and there seems to be force in the argument that they make in support of the proposition that they are no longer in a position to pay higher wages than competing concerns in other parts of the country. On the other hand the men claim that the wage rate has been brought down by repeated reductions to a point where they only get a fair living for their work and they are not disposed to stand any further cut. A strike is, therefore, imminent and it will be an extensive and stubborn one if it comes, for the Amalgamated is fighting in the last ditch now and if it is forced to make the concession the manufacturers will demand it might as well disband.

Conscienceless Newsboys. A couple of thoroughly disreputable newsboys, who I suppose will some day sit in an electrocution chair and deserve their fate, have formed a syndicate to cheat the benevolent.

They find the benevolent people whom they defraud in the restaurants and hotel lobbies in the vicinity of Twenty-third street. They have in their employ the finest boy I ever saw. He doesn't seem to be more than a foot high. He is dressed in long trousers, a little jumper and a peaked cap. With a demure air he enters the restaurant with an armful of evening papers. Apparently he is in business on his own account, and dozens of people, amused at his size and struck with compassion, buy of him.

They don't want the papers, but the little imp presents such a comical appearance that he is irresistible. Those who don't buy will hand him a nickel or a dime maybe out of compassion, thinking that it must be a family far indeed that has driven one so young to peddling.

The real things that have driven the boy to do what he does are the pair of urchins outside. They wait patiently until the small child reappears, and then they take all the money he has made. To prevent this from happening they search his pockets, make him open his mouth to show that there is no coin concealed there, and examine his fists. So well does the scheme pay that the syndicate doesn't have to sell a single paper, being able to make a good enough living off the youngster.

I questioned the two the other day and learned that the small child receives only a few cents' worth of candy a day for his labor.—New York Herald.

MEDICAL TESTIMONY.

W. Thornton Parker, M. D., Recorder, Association of Acting Assistant Surgeons of the U. S. Army, "ST. ALBANS, Mass., March 23, 1891. "When at Stuttgart, Germany, during the winter of 1881-82, I was suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis, with the attendant threat of pneumonia. I met at the Hotel Marquardt, Commander Bearselee, of the United States Navy. In speaking of my sickness, he remarked: 'Don't you cure that chest trouble of yours by using an Alcock's Porous Plaster.' That may be true, I answered, 'but where can I get the plaster?' 'Anywhere in the civilized world, and surely here in Stuttgart.' Whenever I have a cold, I always use one and find relief. I sent to the drug store for the plaster, and it did all that my friends had promised. Ever since then I have used it whenever suffering from a cold, and I have many times prescribed it for patients. "The Alcock's Plaster is the best to be had, and has saved many from severe illness, and undoubtedly, if used promptly, will save many valuable lives. Whenever one has a severe cold they should put on an Alcock's Plaster as soon as possible. It should be placed across the chest, the upper margin just below the neck; some hot beef tallow, or milk will aid in the treatment. "This is the best of the objectionable sense of the term, but a standard preparation of value. The Government supplies for the U. S. Army and Indian hospitals. Stores contain Alcock's Plasters, and the medical profession throughout the world are well aware of their reliability and excellence. I shall always recommend it, not only to break up colds, but as useful in allaying pains in the chest and in the back. It is a preparation worthy of general confidence."

POLLITNESS PAYS THE RECIPIENT

She was fair and persuasive, and she stood about third in the line extending from the box office window of the Hollis Street theater.

CHINESE STOKERS

John Chinaman makes a capital fireman. He performs his duties with machinelike precision and is obedient to a degree that is service. It is doubtless this quality of obedient submission to the commands of his superiors that makes him such a favorite with marine engineers.

PITY FOR AN AGRIEVED DEITY

I knew one sensitive, loving little girl, in whose character conscientiousness and pity were remarkably prominent. The slightest fault committed, the lightest reproach, caused her intense suffering, and the pain and distress of others affected her still more deeply.

AN ARCHITECTURAL CURIOSITY

There are many churches throughout England which are without tower or spire, but there are few churches which have a cant of having a tower and spire side by side. One of these is the parish church of Ormskirk in Lancashire. The tower is built over the porch at the west end, and the spire is placed as closely as possible to it.

FOR THE INNER MAN

"And now, my good woman," said the learned man who was applying his coat, "will you be pleased to inform me, for the benefit of my wife and family, what the gastronomic possibilities of your table are that there may be no future misunderstanding on that point? What do you have upon your board three times a day in the shape of sustenance for the inner man?"

TRUBLE IN A CO-OPERATIVE STORE

The Kilmarlock store once kept two cats—a black cat and a tabby cat—to eat the mice of the store. A prudent member, thinking this double feline expenditure told unfavorably on the dividends, called attention to it. At a board meeting one night the question was thoroughly discussed. There was a black cat party and a tabby cat party. It was agreed on both sides that the two could not be kept, and a strong partisan of the tabby cat moved the adjournment of the debate.

DESERVING PRAISE

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell so well, or that have given such universal satisfaction.

IT IS STRANGE

That people suffering from Piles will endure them for years or submit to dangerous, painful, cruel and expensive surgical operations, when all the time there is a painless, certain, lasting cure, which gives instant relief and costs but a trifle. It is called the Pyramid Pile Cure and can be found at all drug stores. Any druggist will get it for you if you ask him.

A MILLION FRIENDS

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. If you have never used this great cough medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of throat, chest and lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free a H.H. Stafford Son & Co.'s drug stores. Large bottles fifty cents and $1.

A NEW PILE REMEDY

Has created a sensation among physicians by its wonderful effects in speedily curing every form of Piles. It is called the Pyramid Pile Cure. It is cheap and simple to use, but nothing removes the disease so quickly, safely and surely. Any druggist will get it for you.

YOU HAVE NOTICED

That some houses always seem to need repainting; they look dingy, rusted, faded. Others always look bright, clean, fresh. The owner of the first "economizes" with "cheap" mixed paints, etc.; the second paints with

STRICTLY PURE WHITE LEAD

The first spends three times as much for paint in five years, and his buildings never look as well. Almost everybody knows that good paint can only be had by using strictly pure White Lead. The difficulty is lack of care in selecting it. The following brands are strictly pure White Lead, "Old Dutch" process; they are standard and well known—established by the test of years:

WITHOUT THE
Wax-pull-out

It is easy to steal or ring watches from the pocket. The thief gets the watch in one hand, the chain in the other and gives a short, quick jerk—the ring slips off the watch stem, and away goes the watch, leaving the victim only the chain.

This idea stopped that little game: The wax pull-out device has a groove on one end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the groove, firmly locking the wax pull-out to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

Pete Baker Saturday Evening

"Better than ever." Such was the universal verdict rendered yesterday by the large audience as it passed out through the lobby at the conclusion of the performance at this house, and the jovial, jolly German comedian, Pete Baker, and his clever supporting company made an excellent impression in the new "Chris and Lena." It is not the stale old story so many managers present, in calling an old play new when simply a few specialties, or perhaps a few lines, are changed; but "Chris and Lena," as presented yesterday, is new in the full sense of the word, for so many changes have been made that it virtually can be called a new play with an old name. The hundreds who have heard the comedy before hardly recognized it. The dialogue, the story, the songs, the costumes and the company are witty, fresh, melodious and entirely new.

Pete Baker is the same; time has dealt lightly with him; no wrinkles furrow his brow; he has the same youthful, handsome German face, the same sweet, melodious voice and the same magnetic mannerisms. His songs, "The German Shepherd Boy," "A German is Just as Good as Any Man," "The Jolly Farmer," etc., made a good hit, and his dancing combined with his original wit and humor, which he intersperses throughout the piece, strengthened his popularity. The company in the main is of unusual strong quality. Miss Martha George as Lena shared the honors with the star. She sings beautifully. She is a young German girl and speaks the English language with a charming German pronunciation, and consequently is naturally adapted to the character she portrays. The wonderful little child, Luella Shirley, scored a hit. Her specialties were received with enthusiastic applause. "The Enquirer, Cincinnati."

Dwyer is moving into the Russell residence on Hewitt avenue.

The Masonic party last evening had near the old-time attendance than the one immediately preceding it and was a very enjoyable affair in every particular.

Dr. C. G. Hussey, the Pittsburg millionaire who died on the 25th inst., was closely connected with the early development of the copper mining industry in the Lake Superior district. In 1848 he and others formed the Boston Mining company, and he proceeded to personally explore the Lake Superior copper region. He sunk the first mining shaft in that region near what is now known as Copper Harbor. In the summer the operations proved highly successful. He established the Pittsburg copper and brass rolling mills, an institution which is the largest of its kind in the world. He was also the inventor of a process for making the best quality of crucible steel, and was the head of the establishment of Hussey, Howe & Co., which has for many years been engaged in that enterprise.

A Peculiar Light.

On a winter night two years ago a friend of mine was sound asleep. Being very weary, and in order that he might sleep as late as possible, the green holland shade of his window was drawn to the bottom, and there was no way by which any light could penetrate his room. His wife was sleeping in a room adjoining with the door open between. She was awakened by hearing him call her name. She opened her eyes and saw his room flooded with a soft, yet intense yellowish light. She called and said, "What is that light?" He replied, "I don't know. Come in and see." She then went into his room and saw that it was full of this light. They lighted the gas, but the other light was so much stronger that the gas flame seemed lost in it. They looked at their watches, and it was about five full minutes before it faded away. During this time he kept muttering, "Surely. He said he was awakened by a strong light shining directly on his face. At the same time, on opening his eyes, he saw the figure of a woman standing at the foot of his bed.

He noticed that it was a woman in a white garment, and looking sharply recognized it as one of his patients who had died some three or four years ago. He was very ill. Then he realized that this could not be so, and with the vague thought of a possible burglar thus disguised he sprang out of bed and grasped his revolver. This brought him face to face with the figure not three feet away. He saw every detail of dress, complexion and feature, and for the first time recognized the fact that it was not a being of flesh and blood. But the moment he called his wife's name the figure disappeared, leaving, however, the intense yellow light behind which they both observed for five minutes by the watch before it faded out.

The next day it was found that one of his patients closely resembling the figure he had seen had died a few minutes before he saw his vision and had died calling for him.—Minot J. Savage.

Climate For Consumption.

Climate is an important matter in the treatment of consumption. Moist, irritating air, dust, sudden changes of temperature, in short, all the conditions which predispose persons to this disease, are also to be dreaded as promoting its continuance. Removal from such conditions to a place where the air is dry, pure, equable, free from wind and dust—this sometimes acts like magic. The progress of the malady is staid, even if the patient is not radically cured.

But, except at certain seasons of the year, places where such conditions prevail are not easy to find, and furthermore are seldom easy of access. The change may involve the invalid's removal to a long distance, with inevitable exposures to harm by the way, and on that account alone a delicate climate may be impracticable.

Before sending from home a person in delicate health, no matter what the disease, friends should take careful account of the question how many of the comforts of home the patient is likely to miss in his new quarters. If he is liable to be poorly looked after, to become homesick, or in any way made unhappy, he will probably be better off to remain where he is. The one who will be at least sure of good nursing, proper food and cheerful surroundings.

But if he is to stay at home let every care be taken to make the house, or that part of it which he occupies, conform as nearly as possible in cleanliness, airiness, evenness of temperature, to the ideal of a climate to which it is found impracticable to send him. It is one of the principles of a physician to instruct families how to do this.—Youth's Companion.

She Beat the Conductor.

"That belongs to me!" This frank expression is not new on the surface street cars when the conductor or a passenger hunting for a coin on the floor.

It makes no difference whether the coin belongs to the conductor or to the passenger. It belongs to the conductor, just the same, provided no one saw the passenger drop it.

Not so, the conductor argues that any money that is found on the floor is his because he handles more money on board than any one else.

It's a course of reasoning plausible enough usually, but it didn't work yesterday when an extremely self important conductor marched into a Pullman car and saw a lady working to get something from the wooden slats on the floor. All the other women in the car were looking at her with that sort of contempt which implied that they wouldn't stoop to such a thing, and meanwhile, very red in the face and with considerably bodily effort she tugged to get the object out.

As the conductor came to a stop and held out his hand she recovered herself and said sweetly:

"Certainly, please get it out."

The conductor leaned over, got on his knees and simply fished out "solitaires," a metal ornament used by women to fasten their gloves.

Silently he delivered it to the owner and retreated to the rear platform. Then she shot a triumphant glance at her sisters in the car.—New York Herald.

Begging For Time.

"And so, on reflection, Mr. Eastby, I have determined that it is best to terminate our engagement."

"But, Clara, Clara!" exclaimed the heart-broken man, wringing his hands, "won't you wait until I can find a substitute?"—Exchange.

A BENEFIT TO MARQUETTE PEOPLE.

HEALTH, WEALTH AND PLEASURE.

North Galveston, Tex., combines every advantage which appeals to the investor, homeseeker or invalid.

The soil is peculiarly rich and fruitful and fortunes can be made in growing pears, plums, strawberries, etc. Manufacturers will find it a factory site without an equal, as there is an abundant supply of raw materials near at hand, and the city has excellent land and water transportation facilities. Every breath of air inhaled in this delightful climate is a pure, invigorating tonic, and the temperature is the most equable to be found anywhere. Sea bathing may be enjoyed many months in the year.

M. E. Asire, the North Galveston Association's local agent will furnish full particulars regarding this coming industrial city. The address of the general office is, Box 363 Minneapolis, Minn.

Howles is the general agent, to whom inquiries in regard to the company's plans of insurance should be addressed, and with whom special agency contracts may be made. (4-15-1w)

CELEBRATIONS PLANNED.

Ishpeming Rechabites Arrange to Hold a Large One July 3 and 4.

DECORATION DAY CHOSEN BY ANOTHER SOCIETY.

Sunday Delivery Hours Hereafter at the Postoffice-Bicycles in Great Variety.

RECHABITES' CELEBRATION.

Lilly tent No. 155, Independent Order of Rechabites of Ishpeming, will hold a grand annual celebration in this city July 3 and 4. They have perfected arrangements to have a young ladies' cornet band from Liverpool, Ohio, here to give two concerts, one each evening. The band consists of fourteen talented young lady performers. They have appeared before the leading people of the country and are capable of giving a very fine concert. It is the intention of the lodge to arrange dates for the band at Negaunee and Marquette, and to give one or two nights in the copper country while in this section.

All the Rechabite lodges of the upper peninsula will be invited to participate in the celebration of the local lodge. Lilly tent contains about two hundred members and is in a flourishing condition financially.

On Monday next the grand district officers of the Rechabites will convene in the K. of P. Hall, this city. About fifteen officers will be present.

Annual Celebration.

Superior Castle No. 12, Knights of the Golden Eagle of Ishpeming, will hold its annual celebration in this city on Decoration Day, May 30. The Negaunee castle has been invited and will unite with the local lodge in making the affair a success. The English Oak band of Negaunee will accompany the castle from that city, while the Ishpeming Temperance band has been engaged by the lodge here.

It is the intention of the castle to secure Union Park for the day and make games and sports of various kinds a feature of the celebration. The day's observance will close in the evening with a concert in one of the Ishpeming halls.

Change of Delivery.

The patrons of the postoffice will please remember that, beginning on Sunday, April 30, the "General Delivery" and "Carriers'" windows will be open from 11:30 a. m. to 12:30 p. m. for the delivery of any mail that may be called for.

As all the mails arrive in the morning instead of the afternoon this arrangement will allow the employees of the office a full half day on Sundays, and will at the same time give the public better service, as the people will have more time to answer letters that may need an immediate reply.

The Wheels.

The Kirkwood pharmacy boys, O. A. Sinclair and T. J. Healy, have taken the agency for the "Imperial" bicycle, which is considered one of the very best wheels in the market. Parties who have ridden this wheel maintain that it is the best. They will have an "Imperial" on exhibition at the pharmacy in a few days. They are also agents for the "Planet," "Rustler" and "Clio" bicycles, all of which are fine wheels. The "Clio" is a ladies' wheel and is sold at a reasonable price. A "Planet" was received yesterday and can now be seen at the store.

Pete Baker Tonight.

Pete Baker and his company will appear in "Chris and Lena" at the City Opera House tonight. The Pittsburgh Dispatch says of Pete and his people: "The German immigrant will always be a favorite upon our stage apparently, and of those who portray his happy innocence and good-natured foolishness today there is no one who comes closer to nature than Pete Baker. That is what makes Mr. Baker's Chris a lovable as well as an amusing creation—his naturalness is even subtle and minute. But Pete Baker is an old friend here, and when he appeared in his familiar character last night at the Bijou Theatre he received a warm greeting. Some of his songs were new and they were enjoyed, for he sings them well. The audience appeared to enjoy the performance thoroughly, and it is pleasant to be able to style it wholesome and clean in every respect."

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

A son was born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pryor.

"Our Boys" Dancing club gave a social hop at Andrew's Hall last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Berquist are rejoicing over the birth of a daughter, born Wednesday.

T. E. Martell has jumped his job at the Nelson House and yesterday returned to his home in Marquette.

Pete Baker, the funniest of all German dialect comedians, will appear at the City Opera House tonight in "Chris and Lena." Don't miss seeing him.

The funeral of the late John Varcoe was held yesterday afternoon with religious services at Grace Episcopal church. The attendance was quite large.

The Ishpeming public schools will not observe Arbor Day. The very poor weather that has prevailed for several days past has knocked the idea of planting trees in the head.

Chas. Towne Post, G. A. R., will hold a meeting at Negaunee one week from tonight to make arrangements for the proper observance of Decoration Day. The exercises will be held in Negaunee in the afternoon and divine services in Ishpeming in the forenoon.

William Larson, the fruit and produce merchant, has removed his office from the Hampton coal office to his newly acquired warehouse on East Ridge street. Carpenters are remodeling the warehouse and will have it ready for the reception of goods in a few days.

Decoration Day.

Charles Towne post, Grand Army of the Republic, will hold a special meeting in Negaunee next Friday evening for the purpose of completing arrangements for the proper observance of Decoration Day, May 30. It is the intention of the post to hold the exercises, which will consist of a specially prepared program here. Divine services will be held at Ishpeming. The church in which the services will be held has not been selected yet.

The different civic societies of Negaunee and Ishpeming will be invited to turn out and assist in the celebration. The observance of the day last year at Ishpeming was very successful in every way. The different lodges responded largely and the turnout was one of the most imposing ever seen in the upper peninsula. There is no reason why this year's observance of the day shall not equal that of last year.

Gave Him a Surprise.

A number of T. J. Hayes' gentlemen friends gave him a farewell surprise at his room in the Breitung House Wednesday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in rendering musical selections, feasting, etc.

Mr. Hayes will depart for Detroit, where he will assume the management of the Northwestern Benevolent Society of that city, in a few days. While a resident of Negaunee he has made many warm friends who will be loth to see him depart.

Removed the Case.

The defendant in the Arndt-Inch cow case has removed it from Justice Prineau's court to that of Justice Jones, where it will come on for trial Monday morning next. The cow will be rather an expensive animal by the time the dispute between the parties is adjusted.

Coughing Leads to Consumption.

English Railroad Rates.

There is sufficient evidence to show that English railway rates, if they have not been so high as to interfere with the natural development of a trade that has in the past years enjoyed redundant prosperity, have at any rate been notably higher than the average rates charged on foreign railroads. And not only so, but while the rates on other systems have been more or less reduced in the last few years, English railway rates have remained comparatively unaltered.

Reductions have, no doubt, been made here and there, and in some cases over a considerable area, but the railway companies adhere to their established principle of charging as much as the traffic will bear, which means in good many instances fully as much as they can get compatibly with keeping the traffic alive. It is this admitted practice which has led to a species of revolt on the part of large bodies of traders, which has evolved the Manchester ship canal, and which has now for many years threatened the evolution of other canals designed to provide transport between the midlands and the sea, as well as the revival of the whole canal system of the country, in active competition with railway lines.

The railways again plead the high efficiency of the service they render, and for this no doubt, they are entitled to all praise; but, to use an aphorism of the late Lord Beaconsfield, you are not likely to allay the pangs of hunger by regaling your guest with a bottle of Marschino.—Fortnightly Review.

A Monster Insect.

A distinguished naturalist of the California Academy of Sciences was traveling in Australia, when he saw a kangaroo in session and flung a stone at it.

The kangaroo immediately adjourned, tracing against the sunset sky a parabolic curve spanning seven provinces, and vanished below the horizon. The distinguished naturalist looked interested, but said nothing for nearly an hour. Then he said to his native guide:

"You have pretty wide meadows here, I suppose?"

"No, not very wide," the guide answered; "about the same as in England and America."

After another long silence the distinguished naturalist said:

"The hay which we shall purchase for our horses this evening—I shall expect to find the stalks about 30 feet long. Am I right?"

"Why, no," said the guide; "a foot or two is about the usual length of our hay. What can you be thinking of?"

The distinguished naturalist (of the California Academy of Sciences) made no answer, but he looked as if in the shades of night they journeyed through the desolate vastness of the great, lone land, he broke the silence:

"I was thinking," he said, "of the uncommon magnitude of that blanketed grasshopper."—San Francisco Examiner.

Handling Crockery.

A merchant was anxiously watching the terrible pitching and tossing which this case of Dresden ware received, and recounted his early experience: "I was employed as a clerk in a crockery store at $60 a month, with the understanding that I was to pay for all I broke. I lasted in that establishment just one month, and at the end of my time had to pay the proprietor $4 for the privilege of quitting. That is to say, I had broken $64 worth of crockery in the month. I then went into the hardware business, but in a few days was driven back into crockery."—New York Tribune.

There is more car arr in this section of the country than all other diseases put together and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. C. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: P. J. THE WEEK AT REPUBLIC.

Distressing Accident, With a Lad of Six Years as the Victim.

Starting in Business as General Dealers—To Have a Band Once More.

Miscellaneous Notes

Peter Niebois' boy, aged six years, met with a very painful and serious accident last week while playing with mining percussion caps. One of the caps exploded, taking the thumb and forefinger completely off at the first joints of the little fellow's left hand.

As this is not the first instance of accidents of this nature among innocent little ones here it would seem that parents are not overly cautious about leaving such dangerous playthings within reach of their children and it is to be hoped that this distressing case may prove to be a lasting warning against such wanton carelessness.

"Homes for Visitors to the World's Fair" is the title of a book containing a list of about nine thousand families who will accommodate visitors to the city during the time of the Fair. It gives their names and addresses and the number of rooms each will have to spare; also gives a list of the hotels and their locations, and any amount of other information which will be found invaluable to those who may contemplate taking in the great exposition. Price fifty cents. Inquire for it at the D. S. S. & A. ticket office.

Helmae Kingstedt and William Hoelting have entered into partnership to conduct a general store, which they will open on May 1st in one of the best blocks in town. They also contemplate embarking in the wholesale commission business here at an early date. This is indeed comforting news to the Republic people, as it goes to show that these popular young gentlemen have not lost confidence in the stability of Republic. They have the well wishes of the entire community in their enterprise.

Cyr Bros' combination will give an exhibition at the town hall tomorrow evening. It is needless to dwell upon the merits of these modern "Samsons" in view of the very flattering accounts of their wonderful performance which have appeared from day to day in THE MINING JOURNAL from the various cities and towns where they have appeared. They will no doubt be greeted with a full house here.

Our citizens will be rejoiced to learn that "Jelmars band" is soon to be reorganized. It is considerably over a year since this excellent acquisition to the town was disbanded and the void thus left has been keenly felt. Now that Jelmars has come back to stay with us and has undertaken to re-establish the band it is to be hoped that he will meet with proper encouragement.

The Northwestern Insurance company, through its Ishpeming representative, Mr. I. Lallander, is to be commended for its extremely prompt settlement of the $1,000 claim of the widow of the late Chas. Hoagland of this place.

Jacob Davidson, the popular young manager of one of Menominee's best dry goods establishments, spent a week or ten days here as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. Levine. He made a very favorable impression in society here.

Mr. C. G. Towne, formerly of the P. E. & M. V. R'y., arrived here on Tuesday evening to act as day operator and clerk at the Shore depot. He comes well recommended and will no doubt fill the bill creditably.

Mickie Moore, who left here some weeks ago thinking he would like to experiment upon stock "ranching," has returned and taken his old post as night clerk at the Pascoe House.

THE MINING JOURNAL now arrives here at noon, instead of in the evening as heretofore, an improvement which is greatly appreciated by its many readers.

Where was our marshal Wednesday evening when that mob made such a disgraceful raid upon the dentist's office?

Attorney J. L. McClear of Negaunee and Fred Collins of Ishpeming were visible on our streets Wednesday.

Maurice Levine spent Sunday with relatives in Iron Mountain. He says business is very dull there.

ACCEPTS CHICAGO POSITION.

Superintendent John Ward of the Street Railway Takes a New Road There.

A PIECE OF OLD MARQUETTE HISTORY BROUGHT OUT

Will Be Married in Chicago—The Laundry Starts—Rock for the Breakwater—Other Notes.

RISE IN THE BUSINESS.

Superintendent John Ward has notified the Marquette City & Presque Isle Railway company of his acceptance of a proposition to take charge of a new Chicago suburban electric road early in May and will probably leave for the World's Fair city the first of next week. Mr. Ward has had the offer under advisement for some time and though an effort was made by the company last week to retain him here he has finally decided that the opening had too much to offer in the way of valuable experience to make it wise for him to refuse it although his inclinations would naturally lead him to remain here especially as all the other conditions were made equal.

Mr. Ward has been with the Marquette road ever since the installation of its steam and electrical plant was first commenced and it is the splendid record made in this time that brought him to the attention of the company which is just completing the equipment of the new Chicago line to which he is called. He has always kept the plant in perfect condition and under his charge it has been brought up to a far higher state of efficiency than it possessed the day it was turned over to the road. Beginning as superintendent of the power house Mr. Ward was over a year ago given full charge of the line as superintendent and by his record has well justified the wisdom of the directors in making the appointment.

The line to which Mr. Ward goes is about fifteen miles long, running out of Chicago towards the Indiana line, and has 1,000 horse-power in its power house so that his new position as superintendent will be one of great responsibility. Mayor Kaufman is said to be one of the parties interested in the road.

His successor here will soon be announced as the company naturally began to look about when it first became known that Superintendent Ward might accept the Chicago offer and has already found a gentleman whose experience with machinery and in the charge of men is such that he would seem to be in every way fitted for the position.

A Strange Find.

On the west end of the Longyear grounds yesterday morning while removing earth to form a slight undulation required by the plans of the landscape artist, Frederick D. Olmsted, Mr. French's forces uncovered a find which brought to light something in the early history of Marquette which had long been forgotten by the older citizens and had probably never come to the knowledge of those of recent date. In removing the clean sand with the shovels dark earth was suddenly reached and the next shovelful threw out bones, a full sized skeleton being speedily reached. The skull had beside it tufts of hair which were reddish in hue and the general supposition is that the skeleton was that of a woman. The lower teeth were perfect though the lower jaw was of very peculiar shape while it was found that the four upper front teeth were false, being on a well preserved plate.

The find started old citizens to figuring and it was remembered that way back in the early days of the city the first Protestant cemetery was where Cedar street now is, reaching as far east as the site where the Hewitt residence stood until recently removed by Mr. Longyear. It didn't extend as far as the site of Mr. Longyear's new residence but that point also has historical importance as the site of a famous Indian lookout, maintained for countless years by the tribes living along this part of the shore.

In 1858 or 1859 the present cemetery was opened and all the bodies were removed from the point cemetery, as it was supposed, though it is evident that for some cause one was overlooked. It is equally certain therefore that this must have been one of the very first interments in the cemetery, else all signs of the grave could not have vanished so completely as to cause it to be overlooked when the cemetery was abandoned. At that time there were no streets laid out in that part of the city and it is therefore very hard now for anyone to establish the limits of the old cemetery but it is believed to have extended a little distance west of Cedar street so that that thoroughfare probably covers what was once the principal portion of the city's first cemetery.

Will Take Place at Chicago.

The marriage of Mr. Samuel Swenson of this city and Miss Minnie Eastman of Chicago will take place at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Matthews, 3524 Dearborn street, Chicago, on Monday, May 8. Miss Eastman is well remembered here, where she has many friends, her parents having only recently moved to Chicago from up the line. Mr. Swenson also has relatives living in Chicago, his brother and sister, and after the ceremony in the afternoon his sister will start immediately for their old home in Norway for a visit.

Mr. Swenson is the representative for Marquette and Neganance of William Larson, the noted Green Bay fruit dealer, and has worked up a large trade among the merchants of the two cities, where he is immensely popular. He has made Marquette his headquarters for a little over three years now and in that time has established a wide acquaintance and is recognized by all as a thoroughly reliable young man of correct habits and good business judgment.

After his marriage Mr. Swenson will spend some time in Chicago with his bride and will take in the sights at the World's Fair fully, hoping to stay over long enough to witness the formal opening of the Norwegian department on May 17. On their arrival in Marquette Mr. and Mrs. Swenson will occupy the Murray cottage on East Arch street which is now being made ready for them. The Mining Journal extends its heartiest congratulations in advance.

Laundry Starts Up.

The Marquette Steam Laundry on West Washington street will be in shape to resume business by a week from Monday, Mr. Gould having concluded arrangements which will enable him to put in a new boiler and in other ways increase the efficiency of the plant and make it possible for him to care for the growing volume of his business in better shape. For the present the business will be conducted at the old stand but by fall it is expected that larger quarters will be occupied in a more central location. Mr. Gould has demonstrated his ability to do first-class work and to build up the business in a remarkable degree and the announcement of his reopening will be read by his many patrons with great satisfaction. His dyeing and cleaning business will be continued as before. A first-class laundryman will come here to assist him in the business.

Rock for the Breakwater.

Owing to the short-sighted kick of parties on Crescent street the breakwater contractors, Powell & Mitchell, have abandoned the idea of a railroad to take out rock from the vicinity of the intersection of Front with Prospect and Crescent streets and will haul out the remainder of the rock which they take from there by wagons, while they will transfer their main quarrying operations to the old breakwater quarry near the buildings of the life saving station where they can still get out a very large quantity of rock within easy reach of the structure for which it is intended. The removal of all the rock in the vicinity of Crescent street would have greatly enhanced the value of property in that part of the city but some people are constitutionally unable to see as far as the end of their own noses.

Lighthouse Changes.

It is announced that several important changes will be made in the lighthouse service in this vicinity this season. Captain McGuire has been looking for another light for some time, feeling that the Marquette light was too much of a burden for him to care to keep it longer. Accordingly he has been assigned to the Huron Island light while Wm. H. Wheatley of the Granite Island light is given the Marquette light and his father, James Wheatley, who was his assistant on Granite Island, is made keeper of that light. All are valuable men and well merit their appointments.

Will Run to Marquette.

Representatives of the Smith-See company of Duluth, which has just purchased the steamer Otego from J. H. Jacobs and others of this city, were in town yesterday making arrangements to extend the run of the vessel to this port during the coming season instead of running her between Portage Lake and Duluth as at first contemplated. By extending the run to Marquette they expect to largely increase her business as there will be considerable business between this port and the Entry, especially, which they can catch.

J. H. LaROCHELLE.

Fashionable Ladies Furnisher.

There is no one instrument, unless, indeed, it be a large pipe organ, capable of the variety of effects that are obtainable on the Aeolian. Unlike the pipe organ, however, the Aeolian is adapted to all classes of music; overtures and symphonies can be rendered on it with all the softness and delicacy of the flute and violin and cello and all the snap and brilliancy of the piano. See and hear them at Conklin's.
