WERE NEARLY STARVED.

Four Hundred and Fifty Refugees from Virginia Are Brought Into Duluth.

THEY WERE ALTOGETHER TOO HUNGRY TO TALK.

Fatalities Reported but Not Verified—Virginia Was in Ruins in Less Than an Hour.

REFUGEES FROM THE MESABA.

DULUTH, June 19.—The first train bearing refugees who escaped from the mining town of Virginia, in all about 250 people, mostly women and children, arrived in Duluth at 1:30 this morning and the weary and hungry passengers hurried from the coaches to the baggage rooms where elaborate lunches were spread.

Of all the crowd the greater portion were penniless and dependent absolutely upon what charity might be offered. Few had saved anything beyond the most meager effects and for the whole train load there was but a single trunk.

The crowd could not stop to eat. Sandwiches, coffee, anything to eat, disappeared faster than it could be supplied. They had little or nothing to eat during the day.

The houses burned like tinder and the whole town was in ruins in less than an hour. The terrified people gathered about the Mesaba depot, where the officers of the road were doing everything for their safety. A train of ore cars was backed into the depot and the people loaded in. All the way down the train came through a lane of fire.

Another train load of about 300 people from the burned towns on the Mesaba range reached this city at noon. A number of fatalities are reported, but confirmation of the report is lacking. A couple of actors went back after their wardrobe in a burning theatre and have not been seen since. A woman who tried to rescue her child was also missing and it is feared may have perished. Many have been injured.

MILES OF FOREST IN FLAMES.

Destructive Fires Sweeping Country South of Ashland.

ASHLAND, Wis., June 19.—Forest fires are sweeping over miles of country. Hundreds of homesteads are in danger. John Meagher perished near Moquah. Two children, names not known, burned to death at Sanborn and the town is wiped out. The Northern Pacific bridge at Minersville is gone and a bridge 300 feet long on the South Shore at Sanborn was destroyed. Many freight cars are destroyed. The total property loss is in the millions.

VIKINGS GOT RUN IN.

Brooklyn Police Are Sleepy and Stupid as Usual.

BROOKLYN, June 19.—Captain Magnus Andersen of the Viking ship and five of his crew were arrested at 4 o'clock this morning as they were proceeding through Hamilton avenue on their way to New York. They had been to a reception and banquet given in their honor by the Norwegian societies of Brooklyn and while quietly passing along the street an intoxicated man ran up behind the chief mate and struck him. The captain and his men attempted to defend the mate and an officer ran up and arrested the party, charging them with being drunk and creating a disturbance. The man who started the row escaped. Notwithstanding the protestations of Captain Andersen and his men they were locked up. At 8 o'clock this morning they were arraigned before Police Justice Tighe. The officer who made the arrest did not appear but the driver of the patrol wagon in which the men were conveyed to the lock-up swore out a complaint against them. They were held in $200 bail each for appearance next Monday. Bail was furnished and the prisoners left at once for the City Hall in New York, where a reception was tendered to them in the governor's room attended by prominent citizens.

CHINESE DIPLOMATIC AGENT.

Mr. Chen She Lum Maintains a Diplomatic Reserve.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—Among the passengers on the City of Pekin from China was Chen She Lum, said to be an ambassador of the imperial Chinese government dispatched to the United States for the purpose of ascertaining the actual state of public opinion relative to Chinese residents here and of the intentions of the government in the enforcement of the Geary act. He will proceed to Chicago to attend the World's Fair and then go to Washington in pursuance of his mission. When interviewed by a reporter Chen She Lum refused to make any statement as to his identity, plans or the object of his visit.

UNWATERING THE MINES.

Will Take Thirty Days to Dry Ludington and Hamilton.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., June 19.—[Special.]—Active operations commenced this morning on unwatering the Hamilton and Ludington mines. There are ten balers and one Cornish pump at work with a capacity of 9,000 gallons per minute. According to the estimate amount of water in the mines it will take twenty-eight days, working day and night, to take the water out. Then both mines will commence mining over as soon as possible. With the prospects of the Hamilton and Ludington and Chapin and Lewable working full forces Iron Mountain promises to be the best mining town on the upper peninsula.

RESTRICTION OF PRODUCT.

Iron-Workers Prefer Less Work to Lower Wages.

PITTSBURG, June 19.—The scale committees of the Amalgamated association of Iron and Steel Workers and of the manufacturers held their first joint conference today. In the morning the steel sheet manufacturers met the workmen and were in session several hours. The iron manufacturers met the committee this afternoon and discussed their scale. The workmen asked for last year's scale with a few slight changes.

A suggestion will probably be made in conference that manufacturers improve the condition of the market by restricting production. The workmen have gotten tired of having the statement that there is no money in the business and the Amalgamated conferees will suggest that shut-downs be tried rather than wage-reduction if that claim is put forward and adhere to the ground that over production has reduced prices.

The gentlemen who give this information believe that an annual vacation of two or even three months during the heated summer months would be of great benefit to the workmen and ought to remedy the market if there is anything really the matter with it. Both sides seem to favor the shut-down proposition. A conferee stated that it was improbable that a settlement would be arrived at during the present conference.

TREASURY GOLD INCREASING.

Financial Flurry Has Checked Exports.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Gradually, and in the absence of exports, the gold in the treasury is increasing. Today it is $93,719,546, and increase since Saturday of more than $700,000 and a gain of nearly $5,000,000 during the past three weeks. The fact that American grain is now finding foreign markets is given as the reason for the cessation of the gold exports and the fact that the west is receiving large quantities of money from the east accounts in a large measure of the building up of the treasury gold as gold is being deposited in New York in exchange for currency reserved by the government in western cities.

Some changes are announced in the composition of the departmental board in charge of the government exhibits at the World's Fair. Chief Clerk W. W. Rockhill takes the place of William E. Curtis as the representative of the state department; Lieutenant Commander E. D. Taussig succeeds Commodore Meade as the representative of the navy department and Frank W. Clark will represent the interior department in place of H. A. Taylor.

MURDERED BY A BOY.

Lad of Fourteen Fatally Wounds a Smaller Boy.

ASHBURY PARK, N. J., June 19.—The murder of Bertie Wagner, the little son of Louis Wagner, a farmer near Howell, N. J., by George Wood, a boy employed by Mr. Wagner, has caused intense excitement in that portion of Monmouth county. Young Wood ran away and has not been arrested. Wood came from Williamsburg, where he lived with his widowed mother, about ten days ago. He was a strong, sturdy lad fourteen years of age.

Saturday he was in an ugly mood and Mr. Wagner decided to send him back home. Wood went up stairs. Bertie followed him. In a few minutes there was a loud report. Wood ran down stairs, and meeting Mrs. Wagner, said: "Bertie did it." The child was lying in a pool of blood with the left side of his face and head blown off. Across his breast lay his father's shot gun, one barrel of which had been discharged. The child bled to death in three hours. The neighbors flocked to the house and stood in the yard discussing tragically. When Wood heard the farmers talking about having him arrested he fled.

WILL REDUCE HIS FAT.

President Cleveland Reported to Intend Taking Obesity Cure.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Herald says: "President Cleveland is to take again the Schweninger cure for obesity. This is asserted on the authority of Dr. John Wesley Gibbs, who treated Mr. Cleveland two years ago for the same disease. Professional etiquette forbade the doctor from saying he would administer the treatment. He will, however, for he is said to be the only American practitioner using the system, which gave Bismarck a new lease of life seven years ago."

DEASY CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.

Servant Girl Brings Action Against an Irish Member.

LONDON, June 19.—A young girl employed as servant in a boarding house in Pimlico today applied to a police magistrate for and received a summons against John Deasy, a member of the house of commons who is a boarder in the house where the girl is employed, for a common assault. Deasy represents the west division of Mayo in parliament, is a member of the anti-Parnellite section of the Irish parliamentary party and acts as one of the whips.

CAUGHT IN A CAVE-IN.

Two Swedish Miners Killed Yesterday in the Chapin.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., June 19.—[Special.]—A cave-in occurred at No. 1 shaft of the Chapin mine today. Two Swedes named Larsen are buried. A force of men is at work trying to recover the bodies.

CHURCH EXHIBITS TO STAY.

Religious Societies Who Kick on Sunday Opening Cannot Remove Their Displays.

BECAUSE THEY PUT THEM THERE FOR SIX MONTHS.

Brother John Wanamaker's Suit to Close World's Fair on Sundays Only An Advertising Dodge.

THE DAY IN THE WHITE CITY.

CHICAGO, June 19.—In spite of the fact it was very warm today visitors at the World's Fair did not suffer to any great extent from the heat. There was a refreshing breeze all day long from Lake Michigan and it made life pleasant at Jackson Park. The attendance was not large, however, and those who ventured out had plenty of elbow room to take in the sights. It was estimated by the bureau of admissions to-night that today's attendance would number about 80,000 to 90,000 people. It was about the same as that of yesterday which was 81,920.

WILL BE OPEN EVERY NIGHT.

The council of administration decided today to keep the World's Fair open every night until 11 o'clock. Heretofore the gates have been opened to visitors only on Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights. There has been such a clamor, especially among Chicago people, that the council of administration, responding to the force brought to bear, held a special session to consider this matter. It was the general sense of the council that this concession be made to the public and a resolution to this effect was adopted. Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday nights, however, will continue to be known as special nights and entertaining features will be devised for the crowds who attend on these evenings.

The people of Chicago naturally expect to profit most by this new departure. Aside from Sundays and the nights on which the fair has heretofore been open business men, clerks and working people in general have had no opportunity of seeing the sights at Jackson Park. The railroads, car lines will make a special effort to get the people to and from the fair in the shortest possible time, so as to make the trip as easy and pleasant as possible.

THE FOURTH AT THE FAIR.

The committee on ceremonies has prepared a program for the observance of the Fourth of July at the White City. The military and civic organizations of the city will be invited to parade through the grounds and take part in the ceremonies. General Nelson A. Miles will be requested to furnish a battery of artillery to fire the salutes at sunrise.

At 10 o'clock in the forenoon there will be an international parade in which all the foreign nations having exhibits at the fair will be requested to participate. The denizens of Midway Plaisance will also be in line.

The Declaration of Independence will be read at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at half a dozen different points in the grounds. In the evening there will be a grand electric display and the grandest display of fireworks the fair has yet had. During the day the chiming of bells in the towers of Machinery Hall and in the German government building will be rung at frequent intervals.

Augustus St. Gaudens' statue of Columbus is now in place under the balcony at the east front of the Administration building. All that remains to be done is to patch a few breaks in the plaster that were made in the transportation.

AN ADVERTISING DODGE.

Green B. Raum, ex-commissioner of pensions, and Attorney Clelland, representing Wanamaker & Brown, a New Jersey corporation of which John Wanamaker is the head and which has filed a bill asking that the World's Fair be closed on Sundays, hunted around the government building most of the morning trying to find a United States circuit judge to set a date for the hearing of their case. They were unsuccessful, however, so the matter went over until tomorrow.

Edwin Walker, attorney for the exposition company, who had been cited to be on hand, was rather disposed to make light of the whole thing. He said that for the life of him he could not see how a single one of the 30,000 stockholders could maintain such an action against their own directors, and besides that Wanamaker & Brown is a New Jersey corporation and as such is not entitled to hold stock in an Illinois corporation. Mr. Walker rather thought that the suit was nothing but an advertising dodge on the part of Wanamaker & Brown and was disposed to treat it as such.

CHURCH EXHIBITS MUST STAY.

The Methodist and other church societies which threaten to remove their exhibits from the Liberal Arts section because the exposition is to be kept open on Sundays will find themselves balked when they come to do so. The director general will inform them, as he has other exhibitors who wanted to take out their displays, that the goods were entered for the period of the fair and that they must remain till the fair is over.

John Stainer, the organist of St Paul's cathedral, London, has been asked by a cable message to act as one of the judges on the piano and organ exhibits.

Professor Hiram A. Gooch, principal of the Inter-Collegiate Preparatory school of the Chicago University, will on Wednesday open a summer school for the practical study of the exposition. The enterprise has received the sanction of the officials and Professor Gooch will be assisted by a competent corps of assistants. One hour lectures will be given the class after which the teachers will go with the pupils for a

MARQUETTE, MICH., JUNE 20.

Entered as mailmatter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

There is a man going to put in a factory of some kind at Escanaba if the people there will give him a bonus of $35,000. As they are sure to put up the cash, THE MINING JOURNAL feels that it is safe to congratulate Escanaba in advance on the acquisition of another valuable bonused industry.

If WE ARE to judge from its editorial utterances, the disgruntled Democratic organ in this city does not approve of a single appointment made by the administration in this district since President Cleveland was installed. Either the administration is a failure or the organ is out of touch with the party to which it professes to belong. How is it?

IT HAS BEEN found that a shortage of $6,647 the funds of the Detroit water board exists on account of misappropriation of the board's receipts by persons connected with it in various capacities. If there is any branch of Detroit's municipal government outside of the executive department, that stealing isn't going on in it has yet to be discovered.

ACCORDING to the unacknowledged organ of that party, the Democracy of this county is in a bad way indeed. Its condition cannot be much worse than that of the organ alluded to, which is merely keeping alive to save funeral expenses. The party may be "all broken up" because the editor of the organ failed to get an office but THE MINING JOURNAL hasn't noticed any Democrats wearing crape on their hats on his account.

Two of the Wisconsin land offices, that at Wausau and the one at Menasha, are to be consolidated by the abolition of the latter and making the Wausau office serve for the territory in the two districts. The insufficiency of the appropriation for maintenance of land offices throughout the country is given as a reason for this step. As there is but little land office business left in the districts thus consolidated it is probable that the public will not be in the least inconvenienced by the change, but there will be a set of land office officials who will not approve of it just the same.

The principal towns on the Mesaba range have received the inevitable "baptism of fire" and hundreds of families are left homeless and destitute by the visitation. It is singular that with the experience of other places before them these young towns should have been so oblivious to the danger that threatened them and had made no provision for averting or combating it. As a consequence they have sustained a disaster that leaves them terribly crippled for the time being, but they will recover from its effects and build more wisely the next time. In the haste to make money the persons who invite such set-backs as Virginia and Mountain Iron have received by neglecting the commonest precautions against destruction by fire, while those who follow act with more prudence, thereby reaping the harvest that the first-comers lost by over-eagerness.

The last congress having made provision that the president shall detail army officers to serve as Indian agents at agencies where vacancies occur hereafter, except in cases where he may deem it for the good of the public service to have the places filled by civilians, President Cleveland has assigned several officers of the army to fill a number of these posts in the western states and territories. Under the terms of the act the officers thus assigned are under the orders and direction of the secretary of the interior. The change has been made on account of the dishonest use made of their opportunities by many of the civilians who has served as Indian agents and on the presumption that a higher standard of honor obtains among military men than prevails among the civilians who are most eager to secure these positions. The change throws quite a number of political workers out of fat jobs, but if it will prevent the imposition that has been practiced on the Indians it is a wise change.

In a recent number of the New York World was printed an exhaustive compilation showing the condition of the leading manufacturing industries of this country and the effect on these of the financial stringency from which business generally has suffered for several months past. From what the World finds it appears that the iron and steel men feel more keenly than others the effects of the stringent money market. The suspension of building operations throughout the country has curtailed their market for structural iron, which has in the past made up in part for the decline of the steel rail market, and weather conditions have curtailed the demands of farmers and flattened the market for agricultural implements. Uncertainty as to the action of employes in view of a scaling of wages has added to depression in the iron and steel market. The decline of building has also affected the hardware trade adversely, but it is thought that the action of trusts in stiffening prices is to some extent responsible for slack demand for articles controlled by them. A comparison of the exports of copper for the month of April and the period of nine months ended March 31, in the years 1892 and 1893, show a heavy falling off in the foreign metal trade.

We reprint from the Bulletin of the American Iron and Steel association this article defending the secretary of the treasury against an unfounded charge:

Injustice has been done to the secretary of the treasury by the publication in a number of newspapers of a story, more or less elaborated and embellished, to the effect that the statistics of the production of tinplates and tern plates in this country in the first quarter of the present year, compiled by Colonel Ira Ayer, special agent, were being withheld from the public until the secretary could find time to edit and rearrange them that they would be diverted of any argument which they might possess in support of the present duty on tinplates. One Washington dispatch states that "Secretary Carlisle proposes to consider the matter carefully before taken final action, but it will not be surprising if he declares that plates made abroad and simply dipped in this country are not properly classified as American tinplates."

At the time this and similar statements were being telegraphed over the country the secretary had not seen Colonel Ayer's quarterly statistics, above referred to, and had issued no order whatever concerning them. Their delayed publication was probably caused by the neglect of a subordinate. As the secretary's attention had not been called to them he had therefore not withheld them from the public. We are advised that Colonel Ayer's report is now being prepared for publication, and that it will appear substantially in the form in which previous reports from the same officer have been published. Nothing is to be gained for any cause by hasty, hot-tempered and partisan statements which are not justified by the facts.

GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS IN SILVER.

A statement concerning the government's silver purchases has been furnished by Secretary Carlisle, in which he gives these statistics and facts relative to the operations of the nation in that metal:

The operations of the United States mint commenced in 1892, and from that time to 1873 the total amount of silver dollars coined was $,045,838. In 1873 the coinage was stopped by act of congress, but in 1878 it was resumed under the so-called Bland-Allison act, and between the date of that act and July 14, 1890, a period of twelve years, there was coined $78,166,703. In addition to this there has been coined from trade dollars $5,075,472, and from the selignorage of bullion purchased and coined under the act of July 14, 1890, the sum of $6,641,109, making in the aggregate $89,886,374 in full legal tender silver money issued by the government since 1878. Of this amount only $85,016,019 was in actual circulation on the first day of the present month, the remainder being held in the treasury as part of the assets of the government or being represented by outstanding certificates.

The act of July 14, 1890, required the secretary of the treasury to purchase 4,500,000 fine ounces of silver bullion each month, and it provided that he should continue the coinage of silver dollars at the rate of $2,000,000 per month until July 1, 1891; and under this act there has been coined $20,408,461, which makes the total coinage of silver dollars under all acts since 1878, $109,294,835, or more than fifty times as much as was coined during a previous period of eighty-one years.

In addition to the silver bullion purchased by the government since 1878 and coined, the act of July 14, 1890, required the secretary of the treasury to purchase under the act of July 14, 1890, and now holds in the vaults of the treasury, uncoined, 124,294,532 fine ounces of silver bullion which cost the people of the United States $114,299,930, and is worth today, at the market price of silver, $105,411,386, thus showing a loss of $10,888,544.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Special passenger coaches will be attached to the morning train leaving Marquette at 9:05 a. m. These coaches will be attached to a special train at Humboldt, running through to Republic without change; and a special train will leave Republic the same evening for Marquette and all intermediate stations. It is expected that the French societies in the iron district will be well represented at this annual gathering. 6-15-9d.

Restored to his family.

Who say the clouds of life have not a silver lining? Look at little 4 year old Grover Reynolds, Watson, Ill. His father, Daniel W. Reynolds, after describing the little sufferer's long illness, continues: "Finally a gravel was forced into the urethra and remained there, producing blood poisoning and dropsical effusions. He was treated by a council of eminent physicians. They made incisions to let the water out and finally properly advised an operation, but confessed the little sufferer was so weak death would likely result. I refused and began giving him Dr. Fenner's Kidney and Backache Cure. Before one bottle had been entirely taken the stone had become so far dissolved by the remedy that it passed out of itself and the child is well and sound to-day." This shows its power in dissolving stone. It is equally powerful for good in all kidney diseases. Money returned if satisfaction not given. Take a bottle home to-day.

DAVIS TASTELESS CASTOR OIL

A strictly pure Castor Oil, from which has been extracted its disagreeable flavor or emetic properties, without in any way impairing its cathartic qualities. This result is accomplished by a special process of washing, on which experiments have been made for nearly two years. A minute aromatic flavor is added, to make the oil even more palatable. It is a fact beyond question that there is no remedy known which is equal to Castor Oil as a cathartic, but its use up to the present has been limited on account of its extremely nauseous taste. This difficulty being entirely overcome in the DAVIS' TASTELESS CASTOR OIL, we believe that its use by the public will be largely increased. We quote verbatim from the United States Dispensatory, which is the best known authority on the value and uses of drugs of all kinds: "The dose of Castor Oil for an adult is a tablespoonful; for an infant from one to two teaspoonfuls. It is difficult of administration, from its peculiarly disagreeable taste, and from its clammy and adhesive tenacity to the mouth. In a few cases the disgust which it excites is utterly unquenchable by any effort of resolution." In the DAVIS' TASTELESS CASTOR OIL, we have retained all the good qualities mentioned above, and have eradicated all of the disagreeable qualities. Price 25 cents. For sale by—

COPPER COUNTRY NEWS.

COLORADO STUDENTS INSPECTING GREAT MINES.

French Societies Preparing for an Elaborate Celebration of St. John's Day at Portage Lake.

(All communications for copper country department intended for publication should be addressed to A. F. Isler, Houghton.)

RED JACKET.
The "White City," in the same space that the sidewalks of Fifth street of Red Jacket embrace, probably did not contain more people than did that street on Saturday evening. The occasion was the reunion of the iron and copper country Temples of Honor with four or five bands parading the street and making lots of good music. Then it was the monthly payday of the Osceola Tamarack, Tamarack Junior, Kearsarge and the great Calumet & Hecla mines. Nearly a quarter million dollars was distributed among the laborers who were hustling to the several stores to pay their bills. And to crown the whole it was a glorious summer evening and after a hot and dusty day a cool breeze wafted from Lake Superior only five miles away.

Professor Magnus C. Hlseng with his twenty-five students from the Colorado School of Mines at Golden, arrived here Saturday evening and will spend a week with them looking at the mammoth machinery and underground workings for which these copper mines are noted. The party spent last week among the mines of the Portage Lake district. THE MINING JOURNAL reporter left the professor and students at a late hour admiring the beauties of the Superior hoisting engine lit up with numerous incandescent electric lamps.

Heber G. Cargin of the Hecla & Torch Lake railroad force and Miss Kate E. Chipman will be married today. After the ceremony a wedding banquet will be given at the hotel and the bride and groom will leave on a wedding tour to the World's Fair.

The Atlantic Mining company is now rushing the construction of the new railroad to the mill site near the Salmon Trout river.

The Latest Thing in Petitions.
The latest thing in petitions to parliament is the petition of a single household. A. B. of Some street, Somewhere, entertains an objection to a bill which is before the house, and straightway he and the members of his family draw up a protest, sign it and forward it to the member of the division in which they reside for presentation to the house of commons. This may be a highly proper proceeding, but if it should become popular it will add largely to the duties of the honorable members.—London Tit-Bits.

GLEN ELLYN.
When Mr. Jacob Levine of Champion, was in Chicago recently buying goods, he made it a point to visit Glen Elynn, the Chicago suburb in which he and so many Chicago people have purchased lots, property, and for the benefit of which he may contemplate investing there, he wishes to state through the columns of THE MINING JOURNAL, that he found Glen Elynn, to be all that it had been represented to him and more.

"Briefly sized up," said Mr. Levine, "Glen Elynn ranks among the very best residence suburbs of Chicago and certainly excels most of them. It has a population, I should judge, of 2,000 to 2,500 people composed almost wholly of people, who do business in the city. There are at present about thirty residences in course of construction—buildings that will cost from $3,000 to $10,000."

"One of its most noticeable advantages of Glen Elynn is its altitude. Coming out of Chicago you gradually rise to a height of 375 feet, and at the Chicago & North-western depot you can look down the grade for fully six miles. Glen Elynn proper slopes slightly toward the lake within its border and the lots Mr. Hastings is selling here are splendidly situated a few feet above the lake. They are as desirable as any in this beautiful suburb. At Wheaton, a suburb a mile and three quarters west of Glen Elynn, lots are selling for $800 to $1,000. It is probably further advanced than Glen Elynn, but the lots as regards the topography of the land are not so good.

Wheaton is considerably older than Glen Elynn, has a population of 7,000 or over, but I do not see how property there can ever attain the value that is possible at Glen Elynn, for the reason that Wheaton possesses none of the natural advantages of Glen Elynn. The latter's high altitude, forest trees, immense park, beautiful lake and celebrated mineral springs insure its rapid population and development by Chicago's richest people."

The suburban train service on both roads was excellent, the running time being from 35 to 40 minutes, and Mr. Levine closed the interview by saying he was glad that he brought when he did.

I fully endorse the above. J. LEVINE. CHAMPION, June 15, 1893.

Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past thirty-five years. On the 26th of May, while in Des Moines en route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past seventeen years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 25-cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. The excitement and change of water and diet incident to traveling often produce a diarrhea. Every one should procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. For sale by H. H. Stafford, Son & Co.

A DAY AT THE FAIR.

How a Glimpse of the Columbian Exposition Impresses a Visitor to the Great Show.

CHICAGO, June 18.—No word painter, however, appreciative his sense of the sublime and the beautiful, can do justice to this great work of art. Words fail of satisfactory expression, tongue cannot tell of the wonders of this art gallery, the greatest perhaps the world has yet known; the pride of a great western city and the admiration of the world.

Within this White City of the west even the most obstinate pessimist must renounce for a time his sour doctrine of life and the most confirmed dyspeptic forget that he has a stomach. Never before was opportunity offered for so profitable an investment of fifty cents, never was the outlay of so little money, the price of so much instruction, inspiration, real and substantial happiness.

As one passes in through the turnstile at the fair grounds the first and most lasting impression felt is, probably, a profound sense of awe and wonder, as you see architecture of snowy whiteness, a pleasing contrast to the blue sky, beautiful in design and masterful in finish, rising in majestic grandeur before you. There is so much to be seen and enthusiasm is so impatient that you will probably spend the first day of your visit in viewing everything in general and nothing in particular, and you will leave at night tired but not satisfied. You will wander here, there and everywhere enjoying new and varied sensations, as your attention is attracted by the works of art, the discoveries of science, the hand of genius.

You will perhaps wander through the Electrical building and the hall and see of wonderful mechanism, and you view the labors of master minds, and think of that mysterious power, so incomprehensible, your admiration and love will go out toward that common but great man Franklin, and other thinkers and toilers, who, perhaps amid poverty, want and privation, have added to the sum total of human felicity and utility. And no matter how much of a materialist you may be the thought must force itself upon you that beyond and greater than all subsidiary genius is the genius of the infinite.

And then too, you may visit the Fishery Building, and see there the World's Fair visitors from sea and lake and river. Big fish and small fish, prepossessing fish and those not so prepossessing, good natured fish and those troubled with dyspepsia or the gout, fish that eat men with a relish and no after drinks; and while you may be somewhat disappointed in not seeing the whale that made a mistake in not chewing Jonah before it swallowed him, yet you will see the captive shark and from a view of his mouth you will be able to form some idea of Jonah's delight when he slid into the mouth of that whale smoking a two-for-a-nickel cigar and wearing his silk hat, russet shoes and a sauntily smile. You will spend considerable time here, the lower part of the day is full of interest and doubtless so if you are a naturalist. The Transportation Building will interest you; as you pass the east entrance the first exhibit to enlist your attention is the miniature fac-simile of the ship that ran around America in 1492. You may admire its style very much and you will see an old row boat, such as you have often seen on Lake Superior, used by the fishermen. Its name is Grace Darling and you will recall that story of feminine heroism, you will wonder on what seat Grace Darling sat when she risked her life that nine others might live, and you will look at that boat fifty-five years old you will realize the fact that no matter how ephemeral all things else heroism outlives both the hero and the event that called it forth and touches a tender spot in the hearts of all who appreciate self-sacrifice. A miniature gain boats, the work of skilled hands and vehicles of every kind and description will meet your eyes at every turn.

Machinery Hall, the building of Liberal Arts and Manufactures and the many other exhibits will be visited hastily, and you will feel somewhat at home in the latter building, for Michigan has her exhibits of mineral wealth, and you will be proud of your state.

It is well to postpone your visit to the building of Horticulture a little; you may tire of the other exhibits and then the time to pay it a visit. As you enter this building—the air rendered sweet by the perfumes of flowers, blossoms rare and beautiful, plants and herbage from the tropics all all climates—will steal away your feeling of fatigue, and as you saunter along edified by simple nature and sit on some rustic bench in pensive quietness, your thoughts may revert to childhood's early days, which like the cessation of pleasing music are no more, when untrammelled by the cares, duties and temptations of mature days, you wandered through the woods, you some old pine bench dreaming of the conquest of future years.

You will see constantly passing you those in the winter of life, buoyant youth and the laughing child, all admiring the beautiful in nature, and when you leave this Eden of today you will carry with you through the coming years the memory of one of the happiest hours you have ever known.

The Fair is a great place to create an appetite and before you get through satisfying that World's Fair appetite, it may occur to you that it would have been wise to have filled your pockets with peanuts and lemonade before you entered the grounds. Hand sandwiches are always a good thing to start off on, and they are only a quarter piece, you may wonder where they got the ham, but don't question them too closely, ignorance is bliss sometimes.

At times during the day, as you sit in the shade and watch the crowd of people passing, you will find much that is interesting in this sea of humanity. No class or titled throng is there, it is a representative gathering. The poor man, rich in honor, the millionaire, the bare foot boy with cheek of tan, the dude who goes to the Fair, because the crowd does, the college student, who wears a broad-brim straw hat, belongs to a Greek letter society and looks wise, and old Salamander Slumpkins, Ma Slumpkins and their descendants from the country, they carry a lunch basket of respectable size, and a very antiquated umbrella, of a yellowish color, they are happy and so are you.

The Keewaydin came in Sunday night from a run down to the Anna River club with a small party. The cutter is doing very good work this season.

The Dead River Mill company's log booms are fast filling up now that the months of the river are closed so that there is water enough to store the logs.

G. Hallstrom sold his horse to an Ishpeming man last week. Sunday the animal got loose and made a bee line for Marquette, returning alone to his old master.

The festival by the ladies of the cathedral congregation in the double store of the Nester block will be given tomorrow evening, not Saturday as was stated yesterday through an error.

The work of underbrushing to enlarge the picnic grounds on the high ground at Presque Isle was commenced yesterday by Bob Hume with ten men and great progress was made during the day.

One Marquette hotel proprietor made his guests feel comfortable yesterday in a decidedly novel way. It was 96 in the shade down the street but he turned the hose on the hotel thermometer and when his guests saw that it registered just 59 they all felt relieved to see that the "sizzler" had passed.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Marquette City and Presque Isle Railway company will be held at the office of the president, Hon. F. O. Clark, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock for the election of seven directors and such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

The fire alarm yesterday afternoon was caused by the explosion of a gas-line stove in Mrs. Bro's house on Washington street near Fifth. The blaze was extinguished without laying hose and about the only effect of the alarm was to convince people that the famous blacks, now relegated to the hook and ladder truck, are still better than the new team of grays now on the cart.

The funeral of the late Mrs. H. S. Elliott of Duluth, who died very suddenly Friday night at the residence of her sister, Mrs. P. F. Fogarty, on Fisher street, whom she was visiting, was held from St. Peter's cathedral at 9 o'clock yesterday morning and was largely attended. The feeling of sympathy with Mr. Elliott, who was called down from Duluth by such sudden and terrible news, is very strong.

It is becoming painfully evident that Marquette is afflicted with too large a number of gossip-mongers, people who talk too freely "with their mouths" and who are more prolific of roachbacks than a campaign orator. There have been some very marked illustrations of this fact recently and there is a strong probability that some of the guilty parties will have abundant cause to go out into some remote corner of the city and kick themselves before they are twenty-four hours older, even if someone does not save them the trouble by volunteering to furnish the kicking. The whiteness of this whyness will soon become apparent.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to return the heartfelt thanks of myself and my little daughter to relatives and friends for their kindness and sympathy in our great and sudden bereavement, the loss of the wife and mother who was the central and best beloved figure in our little home circle. Their tenderness and sympathy will ever be a precious memory.

ANSWER YOUR LETTERS.

Some Thoughts For Careless and Slipshod Correspondents.

Few people know what a delight and an education correspondence may become. The reason is that few people know how to "answer letters." The chief cause of this condition of things is carelessness. A person receives a letter and is either too busy to read it when answering or too lazy to send it this trouble. If these slipshod letter writers could see the effect of their careless answers they would rarely drop a letter in the box. A careless answer to a friendly letter is not only rude, but unkind—sometimes positively cruel.

An invalid, after reading aloud to me a letter she had received from a common friend, laid it wearily aside. I asked if she had not enjoyed it. "Oh, yes," she said, "but it was such an effort to write to her, and she does not even mention my letter."

It hurts to give so much and receive so little.

More pointed instances come to my mind. An acquaintance who had been recently married lost her husband. The thought of her pain so filled my thoughts at the time that I felt I must mention it in a letter I was obliged to write. In the middle of the answer which caused me to send it I asked if she shamed about Mr. S.—? I feel so sorry for his wife." And that was all! The very choice of words irritated and wounded! The young man had died in the opening of his manhood, leaving his wife almost crazed with the loss, and my correspondent merely thought of a "shame!"

At another time I was in trouble of my own. I had to write to a friend, and forced myself to speak of it, thinking she would misunderstand silence. I mentioned the subject lightly, admitting that I felt it deeply, and made the rest of my letter as cheerful as possible. I received an answer a few days, but on the subject which was uppermost in my thoughts there was not a word!

Of course letters are often written merely to entertain or express friendship, and a specific answer is not required. It is all a matter of degree. In like manner, a light, frivolous response to a serious or deplorable letter is out of place and shows a lack of consideration for others. Again, a person writing to one older and wiser for information or advice should not be made to feel by the long delay and unwillingness of the answer that another has been put to great inconvenience.

We would not think of giggling at a person who came to tell us his troubles, nor would we deliver a discourse on vanity to the girl who calls for advice concerning her evening gown. Who would tell a student "I will answer you in a few days" on his way to school with an unsolved geometrical problem? Yet many people deceive themselves with the idea that lack of sympathy or heartiness is not visible in their letters, as it would be in their manner, if they face to face with their correspondents. A man who would have friends must show himself kindly in his letters as in everything else.

It is very true that answering letters is often a weariness and vexation, and that even a light correspondence is to some people a burden. This very fact should make every letter writer more careful. Correspondents of the answer that another has been put to great inconvenience.

A Romantic Wedding.

A wedding took place in St. Petersburg on Sunday which excited very general interest. It was the marriage of the daughter of the Semenovskiy regiment of the imperial guard with Lieutenant Alexander Redansky of the Eighty-sixth Infantry regiment. The young lady, who is now 18 years of age and has always gone by the name of Eugenie Semenovskaia, taking her patronymic from the regiment, was found as a baby, lying half naked in a ditch, by the men of the Semenovskiy regiment as they were marching from Plevna upon Constantinople in December, 1878.

The little Turkish foundling was tenderly cared for and after a time baptized into the Russian orthodox religion, her godfather being the surgeon of the regiment and her godmother the Princess Eugenie of Oldenburg. The regiment entrusted her education to qualified persons, and the bride now brings her husband a handsome dowry, provided by her military guardians.—St. James Gazette.

Court Dress For Embassadors.

Now comes the suggestion that our ambassadors abroad should adopt a diplomatic court costume. It is doubtful, however, if it is accepted. The stippled dress of an American citizen prescribed for our ministers abroad by Secretary of State Marcy in 1853 will answer every purpose. Prior to that time American diplomats had worn a simple uniform, in accordance with the directions of the state department. Mr. Marcy's circular, just after Mr. Buchanan was accredited to the court of St. James, troubled Victoria's master of ceremonies, and he intimated that Mr. Buchanan could not expect to be invited to court balls if he did not come in court dress. Mr. Buchanan answered that he did not care if he never appeared at court, and he stuck to his everyday suit, which was a black coat, a white waistcoat cut rather high, a broad white neckcloth, black trousers and dress boots.—Boston Herald.

The Latest Bowl and Pitcher.

Washbowls and pitchers are offered for sale at large china stores in charming patterns, the bowl very large and shallow, the pitchers high and slender. But the color, though beautiful within itself, does not commend itself to the finest taste. It is an exact reproduction of the brown earthenware usually relegated to kitchen crocks.—Philadelphia Press.

The far and "frontier" west does not appear to be peopled exclusively by tough citizens. At Winnemucca, Nev., a jury was formed last week of men whose average age was 37, who were all total abstainers from drink; none smoked cigarettes, and none had ever chewed tobacco.

Going to Montreal.

Cleo. Meilleur will leave here tomorrow morning on the Ste. Anne de Beaurp excursion train for Montreal as a delegate from L'Union Canadienne Francaise society of this city to the grand celebration of the St. Jean de Baptiste society, to be held in Montreal commencing on Saturday, St. John's day, and continuing until the following Tuesday, inclusive. One of the features of this great celebration is the unveiling of a monument in honor of Maisonneuve the saviour of the early French settlement of Montreal in the Indian wars.

The celebration will without doubt be the grandest affair of its kind ever held in Canada, as almost every French society in the United States as well as in Canada will be represented, while the societies within a reasonable distance from Montreal will be present with the full rank.

On Sunday the attending delegates will assemble in the great church of Notre Dame to hear mass. On Tuesday morning they will be tendered a grand banquet by the Montreal societies.

The majority of the Ste. Anne de Beaurp excursionists will stop over at Montreal to take in the celebration, their tickets being good on all regular trains within the time limit. A number of Ishpeming people anticipate taking in the trip.

Mr. Meilleur will not return for about three weeks as he intends stopping at Detroit and Chicago on his way back toward Montreal.

Less Loading.

The janitor of the Division street school requests the men and boys who make a loading rendezvous of the school yard to keep off the grounds hereafter. They lie under the trees nearly the entire day, in many instances interfering with the children before school is called and at recess. The greatest damage done by allowing them to utilize the yard is that they bring their dogs with them to tear and run around the place. The police officers' attention was recently called to the matter and they succeeded pretty well in keeping them off the grounds during the evening when they are on duty, but during the day they are not interfered with from that quarter and the janitor is unable to suppress them.

A Good Game.

The game of base ball at Union Park Sunday afternoon between the Setters of Ishpeming and the Rivals of Marquette, was well played and was interesting from start to finish. The score stood 8 and 9 in favor of the Rivals in the last half of the ninth inning with two men on when the center fielder dropped a fly. Then the baloon went up and the Setters scored two more runs, winning the game. The Rivals' left-handed twirler puzzled the Setters completely and would have won the game with ease had his outfield support been as good as his infield. Another game between the same nines will be played in the near future.

Hermann's Sons Charter.

Fritz Reuter lodge No. 11, Hermann's Sons of this city, recently received its charter from the grand lodge of the order. In the center of the charter is a beautiful picture of Hermann mounted on his steed, appearing as he did when he called on the Germans (nine years before Christ) to drive the Romans out of their country. Across the bottom of the charter are three pictures representing "friendship," "love" and "truth," the three main objects of the order.

A Convenient Book.

THIRD ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE.

TO THE SHRINE OF THE GOOD SAINT ANNE.

The 1893 pilgrimage to this famous miracle working shrine is being organized by the South Shore under the auspices of the Clergy of the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, leaving Wednesday, June 21, 1893, and promises to be the largest ever sent out from the upper peninsula. Tickets from Houghton, Marquette and intermediate stations will be $25.00 for the round trip. They will be good going only on the special train leaving June 21st, but will be valid for return passage on all regular trains until July 31, 1893, and will allow passengers to stop off at any point en route in Canada.

The special train will be run leaving Houghton 8:00 a.m. stopping at all stations to take on pilgrims; leaving Marquette 12:40 p.m. arriving at Sault Ste. Marie 6:10 p.m., where connections will be made with a special train over the Canadian Pacific R.V., arriving at Montreal the following afternoon. The special train will be run to Montreal only, as it is expected the majority of the pilgrims will want to stop over in that city for the grand celebration of the St. Jean de Baptiste societies, which takes place June 24.

The journey from Montreal to Ste. Anne de Beaurp and return home to be made on regular trains at any time within the limit of the tickets.

A feature this year will be the Palace Sleeping cars and Tourist Sleepers that will be attached to the Canadian Pacific special train. The rate per double berth in the former from Sault Ste. Marie to Montreal will be $4.00 and berths in the Tourist Sleepers will be at a nominal price.

Anticipating that a number of excursionists will want to visit the World's Fair on the return, arrangements have been made by which excursion tickets entitling holders to return via Chicago will be sold at the low fare of $35.00 for the round trip. This will be one of the choicest summer excursions offered to the people of this section, as it includes not only a visit to the principal cities of the Dominion of Canada, but also gives the tourist an opportunity of visiting Detroit and the World's Fair on the return trip home.

The Tadpole of an Angel. After all, in view of the problem of how to get sin out of the world and how to live happily in our own world without sin, there is a great refreshment for everyday men and women in the reflection that each one of us may be--probably is--the tadpole of an angel.

NATHAN HALE. The Brave Captain Who Regretted That He Had but One Life to Give. General Washington was occupying the house of Robert Murray, whose farm extended from what is now Thirty-sixth street to Fortieth street. Hence the well known name of Murray hill.

The route from Genoa to Pisa is over the longest underground railroad of which I have any knowledge. For at least a hundred miles of the distance along the coast we ran through an almost continuous tunnel under the high cliffs that look down upon the sea.

Pisa is one of the most ancient cities of Italy, although at present it does not offer so many inducements to tourists as do the cities of the north.

Its palaces, arsenals and warehouses still remain, but deserted halls and vacant arches send back their echoes to tell of a bygone age.

Historians have agreed that if he could have reached the general Washington's headquarters with the intelligence he had obtained the knowledge would have saved much of our disaster to the American cause.

It was like a poem and a picture, says one writer, to view the celebrated Baldak carpets, wrought with gold and silver threads and so brilliant and exquisite in light as to serve as canopies stretched upon poles to shield the royal presence.

During the last five years no less than 15 timber reserves were established, which included 1,200,000 acres adjoining the Yellowstone park, 4,000,000 in central California, 1,387,000 in southern California, 4,000,000 in Colorado, 967,000 in Washington, 1,850,000 in Arizona, comprising the grand canyon of the Colorado river, the site of the most rugged and magnificent scenery probably in the world.

WILL RUN EXCURSIONS.

"The Marquette Route" Announces Low Round-Trip Sunday Fares For the Summer.

DAY TRAINS TAKEN OFF DULUTH DIVISION TEMPORARILY.

The Fires Still Burning—Marquette Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., Will Be Named Osman Temple

TO LAKE SUPERIOR'S BREEZES.

"The Marquette Route" is coming to the front nobly. The people of Negaunee, Ishpeming and the towns at the west end of the county have always been quick to embrace every opportunity during the heated term of reaching the cool breezes of the great lake at Marquette's doors, but of late years the excursions have been few and far between. Now, however, the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic announces cheap round trip Sunday fares, the arrangement to hold good for the entire season, passengers to use the regular trains.

Up-the-road excursionists can come down on the early train, arriving here at 4 a. m. or on the trains arriving at 10:25 a. m. and 1:35 p. m. and after spending the day here can return home on the train leaving here at 11 p. m. The fares announced for the round trip are thirty cents from Eagle Mills, fifty cents from Negaunee and Ishpeming, and seventy-five cents from Humboldt, Republic, Champion and Michigamme.

The excursion steamer "City of New Baltimore" will run excursions every Sunday in connection with the cheap Sunday excursions on "The Marquette Route." She will leave her dock at the foot of Main street every Sunday at 10:45 a. m., 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. for short trips on the lake, each trip covering about two hours. Music will be provided on board and light refreshments will be for sale on the steamer. Bushnell & Son having secured the catering privileges. For the benefit of the up-the-road people the D. S. S. & A. ticket agents will sell tickets to those desiring them which will cover a ride on the steamer at one of the hours specified, the rate for the round trip on the railroad and the excursion on the steamer being fifty-five cents from Eagle Mills, seventy-five cents from Ishpeming and Negaunee and $1 from Humboldt, Republic, Champion and Michigamme.

Several years ago the D. S. S. & A. ran Sunday excursions into Marquette and brought people down from the up-the-road cities by the thousands though there was no chance for them then to get out on the water or out to Presque Isle unless they hired their own boats or their own carriages. Now the "City of New Baltimore" will give them a ride around the docks and out around the city to Presque Isle and the islands above it, giving a splendid view of the "Queen City of Lake Superior" from the water, while the electric cars of the Marquette City & Presque Isle railway will whirl them out to Presque Isle, the finest natural park in the northwest, where they can picnic in the groves, go boat-riding or give the children a chance to play in the sand and wade in the water on one of the finest beaches on the whole south shore of Lake Superior. If Marquette was worth seeing in the old day it is ten times more attractive now and with a steamer ride and Presque Isle thrown in there is so much to attract visitors during the heated term that THE MINING JOURNAL predicts that the railroad officials will find they have touched a popular chord in arranging these low rates for the summer.

Only Two Trains Through.

The burning of the D. S. S. & A. bridge at Sanborne did not knock out through trains on the road as Duluth could be reached on the Omaha tracks from Bibon, but when a 500-foot trestle near Bruce's Crossing was also swept away by the forest fires the blockade was complete and the officials of the road announced that it has been decided to discontinue running over the Duluth division the trains leaving Marquette at 9:05 a. m., and arriving at Marquette at 4 p. m., until the Bruce's Crossing bridge is rebuilt. In other words these trains will arrive at and depart from this city as usual, but will run between Marquette and Houghton only and not go west from Negaunee as usual.

The west bound night train leaving Marquette at 11:15 and the east bound train arriving here at 3:50 a. m., will continue to run as usual, passengers and baggage being transferred at the burned bridge.

It is expected that the bridge will be ready for the passage of trains before the end of the week and due notice will then be given the public of the resumption of the regular schedule. Large gangs of bridge builders are at work replacing the two burned structures and every effort is being made to get both ready for traffic at the earliest possible moment.

The Wylie-Gamble Suit Ended.

The supreme court has handed down an opinion affirming the decision of the lower court in the case of Wylie vs. Gamble. A large sum of money was involved in this litigation and the case has attracted considerable interest among lumbermen. In 1886 Wylie Bros. of Saginaw city sold on contract to Henry Gamble, also of Saginaw, a tract of pine timber located in Alger and Schoolcraft counties, estimated to cut about 19,000,000 feet, the consideration being about $80,000. Mr. Gamble paid $35,000 on the contract, then ceased payments and assigned his interest in the contract to Lindsay & Gamble, of Detroit. In September, 1890, Wylie Bros. instituted foreclosure proceedings and the case was tried in the Saginaw circuit court last fall. The defense put in the plea that the quantity of timber fell far short of the estimate upon which the purchase was made. The court found for the plaintiffs, Wylie Bros., and the case was appealed to the supreme court which, as stated, last week handed down an opinion affirming the decision of the lower court. The amount involved is about $76,000, being principal, interest and costs. The pine involved was tributary Grand Marais and both parties to the suit are well known here.

Fires Still Burning.

The bush fires north of the fair grounds were burning all day yesterday but the absence of any wind kept them from being dangerous at any time during the day, a small force easily turning them away from the fair ground fences. One arm of the fire reached down towards the big ice house on the Presque Isle road in the afternoon but night had not got near enough to be considered dangerous.

On Middle Island point there was a big blaze all day long and it took constant work to save the two summer cottages there. The blaze was started Sunday by a party which went over from Presque Isle in a row boat and carelessly started a fire near the beach. Sunday evening the cottage of the Cliff club was given up as lost at one time and everything was moved out of it and down on the rocks for safety but the fire turned off in another direction in time to save it. When seen from Presque Isle late in the afternoon the fire seemed to be worst on the rocks just north of the Adams cottage.

Osman Temple.

The Temple of the A. A. O. N. M. S. to be located at Marquette is to be known as Osman Temple, and Hon. John Q. Adams of Negaunee is to be the first Potentate. The other officers composing the divan have not been selected, but will be at meeting of the local Shriners to be held this week.

It is proposed to have the temple instituted at once so as to be ready to conduct a large class over the sands some time in September. Osman Temple will have a membership of considerably over 100 nobles to start with and will be equipped with the most modern and improved paraphernalia in the object of making the journey of the novitiate pleasant.

Camp Meeting This Summer.

The Marquette district of the M. E. church, Rev. A. R. Bartlett presiding elder, will hold a Lake Superior camp meeting at Deer Lake park near Onota this summer which is intended to be the first in a series of annual camp meetings at that place. A committee will soon go down to look over the grounds and decide upon the time for the meeting.

There is no one instrument, unless, indeed, it be a large pipe organ, capable of the variety of effects that are obtainable on the Aeolian. Unlike the pipe organ, however, the Aeolian is adapted to all classes of music; overtures and symphonies can be rendered on it with all the softness and delicacy of the flute and violin and cello and, all the snap and brilliancy of the piano. See and hear them at Conklin's.
