RACE TRAIN DERAILED.

Five Persons Killed and Nearly
One Hundred More or Less Hurt.

WERE RETURNING FROM SHEEPS-
HEAD BAY RACES

Their Train Wrecked Under Coney Island Boulevard Viaduct and Passengers Crushed in Ruins.

TRAGIC END OF A DAY'S SPORT.

NEW YORK, June 20.—A train on the Long Island railroad upon which were about 1,000 persons returning from the Sheepshead Bay races was derailed this evening under a viaduct a short distance from Parkville, L. I. Two persons were killed outright, two died soon after being removed to the hospital and about 100 were injured, many so seriously that they will not recover.

PATRICK DALY, bailiff of the third district court, New York city.

H. S. PRINGLE, whose residence according to a card in his pocket is New York.

The following were removed to the Seney hospital, Brooklyn, and died soon afterwards:

HENRY SPINK, marshal at Jefferson
Market police court, New York city.

ROBERT CUTTING, a policeman, New York.

The badly injured, residents of New York city unless otherwise indicated,
are:

HERMAN A. MATNARD; leg injured.

NICHOLAS FOSTER; leg fractured.

L. P. JOHNSON; leg and body injured.

ANDREW BARTHOLOMEW, Seely Creek, N. Y.;
leg fractured.

JAMES FITZSIMONS; foot cut off.

PATRICK GRAHAM; internal injuries.

J. B. CHILDS, Elizabeth, N. J.; face cut, left
leg fractured.

E. C. HILLS; hand and arm injured.

BHONSON J. MCKENNA, Central Park policeman; compound fracture of the ankle.

FRANK J. FINN; face cut and leg injured.

RICHARD FLYNN; internal injuries.

WILLIAM HERRING, Auburn, N. Y., leg fractured.

JAMES BRADFORD, Patterson, N. J., internal injuries.

PATRICK GIBBS, Brooklyn; bodily injuries.

CHARLES HERRING; serious internal injuries.

HENRY RUSCH; internal injuries.

HUGH J. MCGONIGLE, Philadelphia; cut and bruised on leg and arms.

PHILIP ISAACS; leg fractured.

FRED SCHLOMBERG; body injured.

QUIMBY; serious injuries, unconscious.

ADDICKE; internal injuries, unconscious.

W. D. FORD; legs and body bruised and cut.

L. FOSTER; injured on body and face.

UNKNOWN MAN; unconscious, suffering
from internal injuries.

The condition of Andrew Bartholomew is serious and the physicians at the Seney hospital, Brooklyn, to which he was taken, and do not think he will recover. Many of the injured were taken in private conveyances or by their friends to New York hospitals or to their homes.

The accident happened upon what is known as the Bay Ridge division of the Manhattan railroad and about half a mile from the little town of Parkville,
which is at the junction of the roads running Coney Island and Manhattan Beach and Sheepshead Bay. The Bay Ridge division after leaving Park-ville passes under a viaduct of the Coney Island boulevard.

The train reached this point of the road at 6 o'clock. It had left Sheepshead Bay race track at 5:15. The train aboard were men, women and children who had been to witness the Suburban Handicap. The train consisted of six cars, the front and rear cars being closed and the others open. Every seat was taken and men stood in the aisles of the closed cars and shouldered shoulder upon the platform running along the side of the open cars. The train was derailed under the viaduct
over which the Coney Island boulevard passes. All the cars left the track and the passengers were crushed in the wreck.

CUSTOMS OFFICERS BOUNCED.

They Smuggled Chinese and Opium in Large Quantities.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The official heads of Patrick H. Winston, United States attorney; Thomas R. Brown,
United States marshal; Andrew Wasson, collector at Port Townsend; C. J. Mulkey, United States special agent, and six special inspectors of customs in the Puget Sound district, all in the state of Washington, have fallen into the official hopper as the results of reports made to Secretary Carlisle by Special Treasury Agents Wood and Lewis.

These reports are numerous and circumstantial as to details and tell the story of the most extensive and successful conspiracy ever formed to smuggle Chinese and opium into the United States across the far northwestern boundary. There has been hardly a day for the past two months that reports or telegrams have not been received at the treasury department from Agents Wood and Lewis and on these reports the above named officials have been summarily dismissed. The last batch of dismissals of customs inspectors was made Saturday but Secretary Carlisle thinks the ends of justice may be best served by making public their names.

These officials, it is charged by the reports received, have been doing a wholesale business for several years in connection with private parties in Victoria, B. C., in smuggling in Chinese by means of fraudulent certificates and in permitting opium smuggling either by connivance or otherwise. Scandals for the twelve past years have attached
more or less to these officials in the Puget Sound district whose duty it was to guard against the violation of law as to the illicit business of Chinese and opium smuggling into the United States. Politicians have never entered into it but the immense profit in the business seems to have corrupted many officials.

More than two months ago Agents

Wood and Lewis, new men from the east, were detailed to secretly investigate these alleged frauds with the result as stated. Uninfluenced by local surroundings or affiliations they went to work and who took what is regarded here as one of the greatest conspiracies in which government officials were ever implicated.

Not to defeat the continuance of the investigation all the officials named were removed by the president and their successors appointed without the usual announcements being made. The purpose was to keep the public in ignorance that other implicated persons might be caught. The new men appointed in the place of those removed were: James L. Saunders, collector at Port Townsend; James C. Drake,
United States marshal; W. H. Brinker,
United States attorney. More removals are apt to come and in due course of time the conspiracy will find its way into the courts.

WEBSTER IS CALLED DOWN.

President of Bering Sea Court Resents
His Bullying Tone.

PARIS, June 20.—Upon the resumption of the sitting of the Bering sea
tribunal of arbitration today Sir Richard Webster, of counsel for Great Britain, continued his argument in support of the British case. The proceedings were temporarily enlivened by the intervention of Baron de Courcel, president of the tribunal, who took exception to a statement made by Sir Richard and who took the opportunity to instruct Sir Richard that the tribunal knew its duties and powers and could not allow him to make statements leading to the inference that Great Britain would perhaps not abide by the decision of the tribunal.

Sir Richard availed part of his speech
to an indictment of the management,
or mismanagement, of the Pribiloff islands, both by the agents of the local United States authorities and by the Alaska Commercial company prior to 1889. These persons had for obvious reasons, Sir Richard declared, concealed the real state of affairs from the authorities at Washington.

In the course of his remarks, Sir
Richard maintained that both Great Britain and the United States were under moral obligations to sanction by legislation whatever regulations as to the seal fisheries the tribunal might adopt, but he added, this obligation
was not legally binding.

When Sir Richard had made this statement Baron de Courcel interrupted him before he could proceed further and in a sharp tone said to him:

"I cannot allow you to say that before us we are conducting a serious business. Neither country a party to this arbitration can break its word and reject the award made by this tribunal."

Sir Richard was a little taken back by the sharpness of the president's tone and hastened to explain that a moral obligation was as binding as a legal one.

JUNIOR AMERICAN MECHANICS.

That Organization in Annual Convention at Detroit.

DETROIT, June 20.—The national council of the Junior United American Mechanics met in twenty-fifth annual session this morning for a three days meeting. About two hundred delegates are in attendance from all parts of the United States, representing a total membership of 140,000. The meeting, which was held behind closed doors,
was presided over by National Councilor James Cranston of Pittsburg. After the presiding officer had made his annual address, which showed the order to be in a thriving condition, reports were made by the various officers and referred to committees. An interesting report was also presented by the national legislative board, showing what had been effected for the good of the order and the country during the past year. When this was completed a recess was taken.
Before adjourning the national council will work upon the revision of the constitution and make an almost complete change in it. Officers will also be elected and other routine business transacted. This evening a parade was held, participated in by the local members of the order, about one thousand of whom were in line.

MICHIGAN CROP REPORT.

Dry Weather the Past Week Has Improved Prospects.

DETROIT, June 20.—The weekly crop
report issued today by the Michigan weather service bureau indicates that the warm weather and absence of any excessive rain during the past week has improved the condition of the ground.
Generally crops are growing quite rapidly and the outlook at present is very favorable. All kinds of small fruits are in good condition prospects seem favorable for a large crop of pears, peaches, plums and apricots, but apples are below the average. Hay, potatoes and vegetables promise a good yield.

BROTHER AND SISTER SLAIN.

Shot Down at Their Gate by Unknown
Assassins.

SHEPHERD, La., June 20.—The bodies of Tom Cordway and his sister were found at the front gate of their home, eight miles east of Logansport, yesterday morning. Cordway was known to have a good deal of money on his person and it is supposed some one aware of this fact called him from his house and shot him. It is also thought his sister heard the shooting and, running to his assistance, was also shot.
There is no clue to the murderers.

OVER HALF A MILLION.

Most of Edwin Booth's Property Goes
to His Daughter.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The will of Edwin Thomas Booth, actor, who died June 7, was filed today. Mr. Booth leaves the bulk of his property to his daughter. The value of the personal estate left is estimated to be $605,000.

CHEERS FOR LIZZIE BORDEN.

Jury Declares Her Not Guilty of Killing Her Father and Stepmother.

SPECTATORS BREAK INTO ROARS
OF APPLAUSE.

Defendant Breaks Down for First Time
During Trial and Weeps While Her Friends Rejoice.

HER INNOCENCE DECLARED.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., June 20.—At the conclusion of the court's charge to the jury in the Borden murder trial today the attorneys consulted a few moments. The jury was allowed to retire and counsel agreed upon what exhibits were to be put into the case; after which they were brought in again, the oath administered by the clerk of the court and the jury took the case.

It was just 4:30 o'clock when the spectators, who had kept their seats patiently during the retirement of the jury, noticed a movement indicating their return. A moment later the twelve men filed into their seats and were polled. Miss Borden was asked to stand up and the foreman was asked to return the verdict, which he announced.

"Not guilty." Then all the dignity and decorum of the court room vanished. A cheer went up which might have been heard half a mile away
through the open windows and there was no attempt to check it. The stately justices looked straight ahead at the bare walls during the tremendous excitement, which lasted fully a minute.
Miss Borden's head went down upon the rail in front of her and tears came where they had refused to come for many a long day as she heard the sweetest words ever poured into her weeping ears. Mr. Jennings was almost crying and his voice broke as he put his hand out to Mr. Adams who sat next to him and said "Thank God," while Mr. Adams returned the pressure of the hand and seemed incapable of speech. Governor Robinson turned to the rapidly dissolving jury as they filed out of their seats and beamed on them with a fatherly interest in his kindly eye and stood up as Mr. Knowlton and Mr. Moody came over to shake hands with the counselor for the defense.

As soon as possible the room was cleared, although it was a hard task, since everybody wanted to shake hands with Miss Borden. When the spectators had finally gone she was taken to the room of the justices and allowed to recover her composure, with only the eyes of friends upon her and the caresses of devoted admirers. At the expiration of an hour she was placed in a carriage and driven to the station,
where she took a train for Fall River,
her home no longer probably, but still the only objective point for the immediate present.

RAIN IS STILL NEEDED.

Forest Fires Still Raging in Vicinity
of Ashland.

ASHLAND, Wis., June 20.—Forest fires continue to rage and rain is needed to save a large amount of property from destruction. The body of an unknown man with papers on his person indication that he came from Fargo, N. D., was found. The clothing on the body was badly burned and everything indicates that the unfortunate man took refuge in the water from the fire. He was evidently about 52 years of age,
with smooth face and a stout build.
Another bridge of the Omaha road burned this morning. A homesteader named Duncan near Nimickagon reports that his two sons are missing. They were out hunting for stock and were caught by the fire.

CANNOT CARRY RED FLAGS.

Thus Chicago Anarchists Get Permission to Parade.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Matthew Schmidinger and William Urban called upon Mayor Harrison today to secure from him a promise that the anarchist parade on the day of the dedication of the monument at Waldheim cemetery shall not be interfered with by the police. They secured the concession on the condition that no one of the paraders should do anything calling for interference by the police and that no
red flags should be carried in the procession except those bearing the name or device of some society.

ELLIS SPOILS THE FUN.

Michigan Militia Cannot Camp at the World's Fair.

LANSING, June 20.—Before adjourning the state legislature passed a resolution authorizing the State Troops to hold their annual encampment at the World's Fair this year. All preparations had been made to take this outing but it is now decided it cannot be had. Today Attorney General Ellis issued an official opinion declaring that it is against the statutes to hold an encampment outside of Michigan.

WALKED THROUGH A WINDOW.

Somnambulist Meets With Fatal Injuries at Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Daniel Lord, Jr., of New York, a guest at the residence of H. R. McCormick, Erie and Rush streets, walked through an open window while asleep last night, breaking a leg and an arm and receiving a fracture of the skull. The unfortunate somnambulist died today of his injuries. He was twenty-three years old.

Cholera Raging at Mecca.

LONDON, June 20.—Advices from Mecca show that 317 deaths from cholera occurred in that city from June 13 to 16.

MARQUETTE, MICH., JUNE 21.

Entered as mailmatter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

A DEMOCRATIC exchange raises the objection to Governor McKinley, of Ohio, that he is a "one-idea man." Well, if he has one idea in statesmanship he is just that much ahead of a great many of the public men who are filling the public eye just at present.

EWEN escaped a scorching in the saturnalia of fire that has laid several of her sister towns waste. Possibly a merciful Providence deemed that the presence of a newspaper conducted by an ignorant dead-beat, who isn't capable of putting a sentence of good English together, was affliction enough for Ewen. It is "extremely" likely.

WE FAIL to see that the religious people who don't want to see the glories of the World's Fair on the Sabbath have much cause for complaint. They have six days in the week on which they can visit the fair without any qualms of conscience and they ought to be willing to let the unregenerate ones who are doomed to perdition have the privilege of enjoying it all alone by themselves on the seventh.

ALREADY there is talk of Cleveland for a third term, but it is rather early for speculation of that kind. It is quite a spell yet before the end of his present term—at least the end seems a long way off to the fellows who are gradually surrendering the offices—and no one can tell what will turn up during the next three years. Let's not have any discussion of who the next contestants for the presidency will be while the weather continues so awfully hot, for goodness sake!

THE Chicago Record, Sunday closing organ, says the decree of the court under which the fair will be kept open seven days in the week is "a victory without a vindication." Inasmuch as the victory was all that the champions of Sunday opening wanted they can afford to forego the vindication. That will come in the shape of stacks of dollars for the management and a vast amount of satisfaction for the many hundreds of thousands who could not attend the fair at all unless it were open to them on Sunday.

Those enterprising persons who went into the hotel business at Chicago expecting to make a fortune during the few months that the World's Fair would be in progress are the worst disappointed lot of speculators that this country has yet produced. It is doubtful if one of them will come out even, and it is certain that many of them will be ruined. The anticipated crush has not come and it is not known that the accommodations for sheltering and feeding visitors provided specially for the big fair are vastly in excess of the requirements. The new hotels near the fair grounds are doing no business of any consequence and every one who is losing money every day it is run. In many respects the opportunities for money-making that the exposition would afford were over-rated, but in none more so than in the hotel line.

SECRETARY CHARLES' statement showing what the government's operations in silver have been and how they have affected the nation's finances has done more to enlighten the public on the real workings of the silver purchase and coinage laws than all that has been written on the subject in the newspapers or spouted about it in campaign speeches. The secretary gives the figures in such a manner that all can gather their meaning and the story they tell is convincing. We have been draining the treasury of gold to please the owners of silver mines and storing the silver that we got in return for it in government vaults, where it is practically of no more use to us than a collection of last year's birds' nests would be. A more stupid financial policy than that adopted with respect to silver could not well be devised and it is no wonder that it has wrought disaster to our business interests.

ONE of New York's "four hundred," a Mrs. Paron Stevens, has visited Chicago and the World's Fair, and gushes inordinately over the grandness of the fair and the "niceness" of the Chicago people, and the Chicago papers are republishing her gush with a relish that they cannot help revealing. Here is a sample of her laudation of Chicago "society," and the Chicago people must stand in very great awe of Gotham to be pleased with such twaddle: "In Chicago I received cards for Mrs. Palmer's reception and a very warm invitation from Mr. Chatfield-Taylor. The Chatfield-Taylor are the very nicest people there, you know. He is a brother-in-law of Mrs. Reginald de Koven, one of the very nicest people there, you know. But they are all nice people. I want to insist upon that, for I very much appreciate the tone the eastern newspapers adopt toward Chicago and its people. * * * Their houses are palaces, but there is no display of wealth in them; they are in the best taste; quite like the New York houses, the same tone—ple-crusty—the same tone do you know." Why of course we know. Those ple-crusty New York houses in which the "four hundred" dwell and on whose front porches the men never appear sitting in their shirt-sleeves and fanning themselves with straw hats while they squirt tobacco juice over the lawn in front, as is the custom in Chicago—hasn't Ward McAllister told us all about them? And so they have the same kind of houses with the same kind of nice people living in them in Chicawago! Gracious, but aren't we coming on famously out in the wild and woolly west.

THE question of iron-workers' wages for the ensuing year to be discussed by the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers may or may not be an easy matter of adjustment and accord, observes The Age of Steel. "It is certain," says that authority, "that in the present conditions of trade there are urgent and forcible reasons for thoughtful and prudent action. We presume that manufacturers, as a rule, are not prepared to carry on business for another year on the present basis, and it is perhaps equally probable that the workers are not in favor of making any material concessions. The character of the negotiations may necessarily assume some complex and acrimonious conditions. It is, however, not to be overlooked as an important factor in the case that there is an intelligent disposition to do what is manifestly fair and honorable. Inconsistency and unreasonableness are, of course, still in business and boots, and some men are stubborn and others willfully obtuse and foolish, but if the experiences of late years have not done good educational work on both sides of the question it will be an anomaly in human history."

A LIST of the deaths from typhoid fever in that city during the preceding week is published in the last number of the Ironwood News Record. It is an appalling long one. The News Record is after the company that holds the water franchise at Ironwood, and to whose criminal indifference to the quality of the water supplied its people the epidemic that is decimating that city is directly attributable. The paper insists that the company has forfeited its rights by violating every obligation imposed upon it by its franchise. The proper thing for the people of Ironwood to do is to annul the franchise and install its own pumping plant. In that way they will get a much better and cheaper service, and can always control it. There is no satisfaction to be obtained from companies which have secured such franchises, for they will impose on the people to the limit of endurance rather than incur expense to give proper service. The only safe and sure way of avoiding the imposition is to have the people own and operate the lighting and pumping plants, as in Marquette and other cities that have not allowed corporations to delude them into granting franchises for furnishing water and light to their people under guarantees that are made only to be disregarded.

$100 REWARD, $100. The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that their is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: P. J. It is expected that the French societies in the iron district will be well represented at this annual gathering. 6-15-9d.

A New Certain Cure for Piles. We do not intend to indorse any except articles of genuine merit; we therefore take pleasure in recommending to sufferers from Piles in any form, a prompt and permanent cure. The following letters speak for themselves.

Mr. Mary C. Tyler, of Heppner, Ore., writes: One pkg. of Pyramid Pile Cure entirely cured me of piles from which I have suffered for years, and I have never had the slightest return of them since.

Mr. E. O'Brien, Rock Bluffs, Neb., says: The pkg. of Pyramid Pile Cure entirely removed every trace of itching piles. I cannot thank you enough for it. The Pyramid Pile Cure is a new, certain, painless cure for every form of piles. It is safe, sure and cheap. Any druggist will get it for you if you ask him.

A Surgical Operation. For the cure of Piles is always painful, often dangerous and useless, and invariably expensive; on the other hand there is a new, certain cure, perfectly painless, gives instant relief and permanent cure and costs but a trifle. It is the Pyramid Pile Cure. It is a more certain cure than a surgical operation, without any of the intense pain, expense and danger of the operation. Any druggist will get it for you.

GOV. SWINEFORD WANTS IT.

He Would Like to be Appointed Governor of Alaska Again.

AND HE IS A DICKINSON MAN TO START WITH.

The Ex-Governor Thinks the Seals Are a Detriment Rather Than a Benefit to Alaska.

From the Detroit News. WASHINGTON, June 20.—Ex-Governor Swineford, formerly of Michigan, then of Alaska, and now of Wisconsin, drops into Washington occasionally to look after some interests at the land office and also to be on hand if Mr. Cleveland desires his services again as governor of Alaska. Mr. Swineford is a candidate for the place, with some very strong backing from northwestern people.

He was one of the first Michigan men to be chosen for office at the beginning of Mr. Cleveland's first administration, and at that time the Dickinson influence secured his appointment. Now, however, Mr. Swineford makes his home at West Superior, Wis., and does not expect so much from the Michigan leaders. A short time ago Mr. Dickinson said in an authorized interview that he thought a "little interference" on his part, in the matter of federal patronage, might be of some help to Michigan in securing some share of the places in the diplomatic, departmental and territorial branches of the government service. So far as the diplomatic and departmental branches are concerned, Michigan has already received considerable attention. But as yet she has not secured any of the plums in the territorial line, which comprise the governorships, judgeships, etc. of Alaska, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Utah.

It is understood that the Dickinson influence, so far as it relates to Alaska, is being exerted for an Ishpeming (Mich.) candidate for United States marshal of Alaska. The Ishpeming man was appointed deputy marshal during Mr. Cleveland's term, and was so competent that he held over during the Harrison administration. He is now looking for advancement from deputy to chief marshal of Alaska, and he is likely to get it. The place is an important one owing to the seizures and court proceedings against Bering sea poachers. Incidentally, however, Mr. Dickinson is doing what he can to secure the reappointment of the ex-governor, who is a staunch Dickinson man.

Mr. Swineford has been keeping track of recent political events in Michigan and he gives unqualified indorsement to Dickinson in the Dickinson-Campau affair.

"In the Michigan state convention of 1884," said the ex-governor, "Dickinson was working his hardest to bring Campau to the front and give him a prominent place among the party leaders. At that time little was known of Mr. Campau. I was a delegate to the convention, and I recall that Dickinson came to me and urged that Campau be put on the committee to notify the candidate for president of his nomination. This was subsequently done at the convention and it was Mr. Campau's start in national politics. The fact is that Michigan actually needs the influence of a man like Dickinson here at Washington. If that influence is withdrawn Michigan will get little or nothing. It is fortunate for the state that it has a man who is able to exert such an influence with Mr. Cleveland. In my judgment Michigan has had just three men of conspicuous national importance—Levis Cass, Zachariah Chandler and Don M. Dickinson."

If the Bering sea arbitrators who are now before the court in Paris could hear the ex-governor of Alaska on the seal question there would be something of a sensation. Just at this time, when the arbitration is in progress, the ex-governor is loath to express his views freely for publication. In a general way, however, it can be said that he takes very little stock in the talk that the seal industry is of such vast value to the United States and to Alaska in particular. Indeed, the ex-governor believes that the seals have been more of a detriment to Alaska than a benefit, as they have diverted attention from the natural resources of Alaska. The progress of the country has been greatly retarded, Mr. Swineford says, by this centering of attention on the seal, and by the monopoly which the sealing companies enjoy, not only on the seal, but on everything else. So far as the seals have been a benefit to any one, the benefits have flowed mainly into the pockets of this gigantic monopoly, instead of into the United States treasury. For this reason the great care which is in truth a care for the benefit of this sealing monopoly, instead of a benefit to the United States or the people of Alaska. To be sure the sealing company has paid a rental for its privileges, amounting in the aggregate to a sum equal to the purchase price of Alaska. Yet these rentals have been only an insignificant percentage of the sums realized from the catching of seals.

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many of the age of 30 to 50 who are troubled with too frequent evacuation of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting sensation and weakening of the system in a manner which the patient cannot account for. On examination it will be found that the urine deposits a rosy sediment and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear or the color be of a thin or milky hue, again changing to a dark and turbid appearance. There are many who die of this difficulty ignorant of the cause which is the second stage of weakness.

LADIES

Finding it inconvenient to call at the office can be treated by mail by sending a full description of their case. Examination and advice free to all. Remember the place, Adams Block cor. CANADIAN CHEESE AHEAD.

Domestic Products Lead All Others in June Competition at the World's Fair.

TWENTY-ONE LITTLE CALIFORNIA GIRLS ARRIVE.

They Won Trips to the World's Fair as Prizes for Scholarship-White City Notes.

RAIN OUT OFF THE CROWD.

CHICAGO, June 26.—For a time today it looked as if the attendance at the World's Fair would equal that of Germania Day. People poured in until after the noon hour when it was estimated there were about 75,000 on the grounds.

The complaints that benches were lacking in the fair, especially in the vicinity of the music pavilions on Administration plaza and around the grand basin where the fireworks are usually set off, induced the management to take action.

CANADA'S MONSTER CHEESE.

Canada has outstripped its competitors in the June exhibit of cheese. The big eleven-ton cheese manufactured at the Dominion experimental station at Perth, Ont., under the supervision of Professor Robertson has been tested by the judges.

The United States signal service bureau has made arrangements with the officials in charge of the captive balloon to make three or four ascensions each week for the purpose of making scientific observations.

CALIFORNIA'S BEST EXHIBIT.

The party of twenty-one girls sent here from California as a reward for fine scholarship in the public schools were given a reception in the Children's building today by the board of lady managers.

WEST VIRGINIA'S BUILDING.

The West Virginia state building was dedicated today. Governor McCordle was down for a speech but he found it impossible to be present.

OPENING THE FERRIS WHEEL.

All the arrangements have been completed for the dedication tomorrow afternoon of the big Ferris wheel in Midway Plaisance. Over five thousand invitations have been issued.

THE COLUMBUS CARAVELS.

Another big celebration will soon be given at the fair over the arrival in this port of the Spanish caravels from their long and circuitous voyage via Halifax and the chain of lakes. The historic ships weighed anchor at Montreal tonight for a direct run to Chicago.

Mexico's exhibit in the forestry building was opened to the public today. The display occupies a prominent position in the building situated in the southern portion of the grounds.

HONORS TO MR. HUNT. Richard M. Hunt, the New York architect who was honored by having conferred upon him the queen's medal at the meeting of the Royal Institute of British Architects in London yesterday for his work in designing World's Fair buildings, will in a day or two receive the congratulatory message by architects in Chicago and other cities.

"LAST DAY OF SCHOOL."

Exercises Arranged for the Graduating Class of Ishpeming High School.

TRAMPS QUITE FREQUENT ABOUT THE CITY.

The Lindeman Concert—Not a Case of Sunstroke—Sunday School Picnic on July 3 at Deer Lake Grove.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

This year's commencement exercises at the Ishpeming high school will take place next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Parents and others interested in the schools are cordially invited to be present.

In the evening the Alumni association will give a reception and banquet at the A. O. U. W. hall, in the Anderson block, for which the Hughes orchestra, from Marquette, will furnish the music.

Vagrants Plenty.

The police officers are kept quite busy these days ridding the town of vagrants, who have become quite numerous here of late. They are very adroit in keeping out of the officers' reach, but they are frequently seen bobbing up from behind some barn or fence in the residence part of town. One fellow, Jacob Jackson, was run in Monday night and was committed for ten days in the county jail by Judge Kennedy yesterday.

The Lindeman Concert.

Tonight at the A. O. U. W. Hall, Anderson block, a concert will be given under auspices of the Lindeman choir for which a very pleasing program has been arranged. The choir will be assisted by the Bethany orchestra, Professor C. D. Crim's orchestra and several talented musicians here not connected with any musical organization. Following is the program:

- PART I.
- Orchestra Selection, Bethany Orchestra.
 - Song, "Hvor herlig er bist du Bolig!" F. Slicher.
 - Lindeman Choir.
 - Orchestra, "Home Circle," Overture, Schlegelgrieg.
 - Professor Crim's Orchestra.
 - Quartette, "Come Where the Lillies Bloom" Miss Johnson, Mrs. Romsdahl, Rev. Mr. Romsdahl and Mr. C. Hovsath.
 - Violin Solo, Selected, Professor H. Almua.
 - Orchestra Selection, Bethany Orchestra.
 - Vocal Duet, "Hear Me Norma," S. Nelson.
 - Misses Eva Gravenor and Olga Hovsath.
 - Piano Solo, "Moonlight Sonata," Op. 27, L. Beethoven.
 - Vocal Duet, "The Sinking Ship," Messrs. George Tucker and R. Moyle.

PART II.

- Song, "Sons of Zion," E. Nauman.
 - Lindeman Choir.
 - Orchestra, "Tonight We Say Farewell," Medley Professor Crim's Orchestra.
 - Violin Solo, Selected, Paices Lindeman Choir.
 - Orchestra Selection, Bethany Orchestra.
 - Piano Duet, "Tancred," B. Rossini.
 - Miss Bessie Thompson and Mrs. Romsdahl.
 - Orchestra Selection, Professor Crim's Orchestra.
 - Song, "Bon om den Helligand," C. Krentzer.
 - Lindeman Choir.
 - Quartette, "Good Night Gentle Folks," Miss Johnson, Mrs. Romsdahl, Rev. Mr. Romsdahl and M. C. Hovsath.
- The admission will be twenty-five cents.

Wasn't Sunstruck.

The report current on the streets Monday afternoon and evening that a man working at the Lake Angelina mine had been prostrated by sunstroke proved untrue. The man was William Texton, who was taken down with cholera morbus, and he was removed to the Ishpeming hospital for treatment. He was so very sick before arriving at the hospital that those who saw him concluded that his illness was due to sunstroke, and the report had its origin in this impression. The man was slightly overcome by the heat, but after he had the care of a physician for a short time he rallied and was soon able to walk home.

Sunday School Picnic.

The Swedish Methodist Sunday school classes will hold a picnic at the Deer Lake grove on Monday, July 3. The church string band will furnish music, songs will be sung by the children and addresses will be delivered by some of the prominent members of the church. Refreshments in abundance and variety will be served on the grounds.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.

It was 90 in the shade in Ishpeming yesterday and 92 the previous day.

THE DAILY MINING JOURNAL can be found for sale in the Michigan building at the World's Fair.

As yet Ishpeming has not been endangered by the forest fires, although it is apparent that the woods a few miles distant from here are burning, as the city has been filled with smoke the past few days.

Marshal Peterson scattered the gang that makes a leading rendezvous of the Division street school house grounds yesterday. The janitor of the school has the power of a police officer and he should use his authority in a case of this kind. All he needs is a lie back home to make the offenders keep outside of the grounds.

The marriage of Mr. J. Vanchestine and Miss Mary Lorette took place at St. Joseph's church yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. After the nuptial ceremony a reception was given the young couple at the home of the bride's parents on First street. In the evening a dance took place in honor of the event at the K. of P. hall, which was largely attended by the friends of the contracting parties.

IMITATORS AND IMPOSTORS.

The unequalled success of Alcock's Porous Plaster as an external remedy has induced unscrupulous parties to offer imitations, which the endeavor to sell on the reputation of Alcock's. It is an absurdity to speak of them in the same category as the genuine porous plaster. Their pretensions are unfounded and are not supported by facts, their alleged superiority to or equality with Alcock's is a false pretense.

The able medical practitioners and chemists and thousands of grateful patients unite in declaring Alcock's Porous Plaster the best external remedy ever produced. Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Alcock's, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

THIRD ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE.

TO THE SHRINE OF THE GOOD SAINT ANNE.

The 1893 pilgrimage to this famous miracle working shrine is being organized by the South Shore under the auspices of the Clergy of the Upper Peninsula of Michigan, leaving Wednesday, June 21, 1893, and promises to be the largest ever sent out from the upper peninsula. Tickets from Houghton, Marquette and intermediate stations will be $3.00 for the round trip. They will be good going only on the special train leaving June 21st, but will be valid for return passage on all regular trains until July 21, 1893, and will allow passengers to stop off at any point en route in Canada.

The special train will be run leaving Houghton 8:00 a.m., stopping at all stations to take on pilgrims; leaving Marquette 12:40 p.m., arriving at Sault Ste. Marie 6:10 p.m., where connections will be made with a special train over the Canadian Pacific R.V., arriving at Montreal the following afternoon. The special train will be run to Montreal only, as it is expected the majority of the pilgrims will want to stop over in that city for the grand celebration of the St. Jean de Baptiste societies, which takes place June 24.

The journey from Montreal to Ste. Anne de Beaupre and return home to be made on regular trains at any time within the limit of the tickets.

A feature this year will be the Palace Sleeping cars and Tourist Sleepers that will be attached to the Canadian Pacific special train. The rate per double berth in the former from Sault Ste. Marie to Montreal will be $4.00 and berths in the Tourist Sleepers will be at a nominal price.

Anticipating that a number of excursionists will want to visit the World's Fair on the return, arrangements have been made by which excursion tickets entitling holders to return via Chicago will be sold at the low fare of $3.00 for the round trip. This will be one of the choicest summer excursions offered to the people of this section, as it includes not only a visit to the principal cities of the Dominion of Canada, but also gives the tourist an opportunity of visiting Detroit and the World's Fair on the return trip home.

FIREMEN IN FOR FUN. Negaunee's Fire Laddies Will Dance at Home on the Evening of July 3rd.

WILL ALSO TAKE IN PICNIC AT ISHPEMING JULY 4.

More Negaunee Views Promised--School Board Meeting Tonight--Mooney Mourns the Loss of a Horse.

VOTED TO GO. At a special meeting of fire company No. 1, held Monday evening, the invitation to attend the ball to be given by fire company No. 2 at McDonald's Opera House Monday evening, July 3, was accepted.

A committee, consisting of B. K. Webster, L. Trenya and Hugo Muck, was appointed to confer with No. 2 regarding the acceptance of the invitation from the Ishpeming fire department to attend the firemen's picnic at the Lake Superior grove in Ishpeming on the Fourth. It was generally understood that company No. 2 accepted the invitation of the Ishpeming firemen at its last regular meeting, but it was reported at the meeting of company No. 1 Monday night that the matter had been laid on the table, to be taken up for final consideration at a special meeting to be held previous to the Fourth. For this reason the special committee was appointed to ascertain if company No. 2 would agree to stand its share of the expense of securing the English Oak band for the day.

The members of company No. 1 are very desirous of going to Ishpeming on the Fourth, but they are anxious to have No. 2 go up also in order that as good a showing as possible may be made.

Well Equipped. J. T. Thomas, manager of Gogran's art studio, has been constantly adding new material to the gallery, such as scenery, instruments, etc., ever since taking hold of the business a short time ago, until now he has a very complete outfit. On Monday he received a new patent instantaneous shutter, which can also be used for time exposures, and he also received a new 11 by 14 portrait camera. With the addition of these two instruments Mr. Thomas says that he is prepared to do any kind of work in his line.

Within the next few weeks Mr. Thomas intends taking a full series of Negaunee views, these to include several of the street railway, electric light plant, and other improvements made in and about the city since he took his last series of view a few years ago.

Mr. Thomas recently made several fine views of the Iron Cliffs company's office, T. M. Well's store, also M. A. Gibb's residence and horse and buggy, which he is just finishing up.

School Board Meets Tonight. The Negaunee school board will hold a meeting tonight at the high school, when considerable important business will be presented. Among other things to come up for consideration will be the applications of teachers for the ensuing year. It was the intention of the school board to have held a meeting some time ago to consider these, but as a full board could not be got together because of the absence of one or more of its members from town at different intervals the meeting was deferred until this evening, when all the members will be present.

Mooney's Misfortune. One of Jim Mooney's horses was found dead in the open pit at the Grand Central mine yesterday morning.

LOCAL LACONIOS. F. M. Beney got home from Chicago yesterday morning.

Dr. Drake left on Monday for a visit to the World's Fair.

It was 90 in the shade here yesterday before the shower set in at 4 o'clock.

H. R. Enos, the Oshkosh paper man, called on his Negaunee patrons yesterday.

Hon. John Mulvey left for Chicago on a visit to the World's Fair yesterday afternoon.

The "Union" base ball team will play the "Rivals" of Marquette in that city next Sunday afternoon.

The Negaunee band stand painted in the national colors--red, white and blue--presents a very striking appearance.

Official notification of C. B. Driscoll's appointment as postmaster at Negaunee was received by that gentleman yesterday.

W. P. Kinsman, manager of the Ishpeming co-operative store, transacted business in Negaunee yesterday morning.

Very few Negaunee people will take in the Ste. Anne de Beaupre excursion, which leaves here at 11 o'clock this morning.

Duncan Clark's female minstrels, booked at almost every town on the peninsula, have not concluded to play an engagement in Negaunee.

Upper peninsula readers of THE MINING JOURNAL visiting the World's Fair can find the paper on sale in the Michigan building at the Columbian Exposition.

The English Oak band recently acquired three new members, this making twenty-two players in the band. It is now the largest band on the upper peninsula numerically, as well as musically.

Mrs. Ever and her sister, Miss Trezono of Hurley, Wis., are in town visiting friends. The ladies are former residents of Negaunee and are consequently right at home among their numerous friends here.

The fellow who occupied a seat on a dry goods box near Barabe's store repairing umbrellas yesterday morning entertained a crowd that congregated to see him work. He is an artist in his business.

WILLING TO MAKE ALLOWANCES.

A Kind Hearted Farmer Who Said Perhaps the Furrows Were Sun Warped. A certain eminent clergyman, who is greatly loved for his gentleness and forbearance with offenders, recently told a man that an experience of his own in years long gone by taught him the grace of ready excusing. When he was a boy, he was a very poor boy, but he had already a strong theological bent and was studying hard during the winter and working even harder during the summer trying to get a preparation for college. He wanted to be a preacher, and the fact that he didn't seem to be good for anything else tended to convince him that he had not mistaken his calling.

One spring he was entirely out of money and had to get out of school and go to work. Not being able to find anything to do in the small college town where he had been studying, the youth--call him Richard Vernon--went out among the farmers to see if he could get work from them. He found a man who was very busy with his spring's work and in a hurry to get the furrows plowed in a big field for potato planting. The weather was favorable for planting; the farmer's boys would be home from school the next day, which was Saturday, to do the dropping and covering. He told Richard that he might mark out the field with the plow for the planting, and if he suited he might be hired for two or three months. Meantime the farmer saw that the boy was very anxious to stay, and that he had evidently a very good disposition.

So the young theologian went to work with tremendous vigor. He did not stop to take breath until he had marked off a large tract of ground with deep furrows. Then came his employer from his work in another part of the farm and looked at the boy's work and leaned up against the fence and laughed until he shook. The potato field had been scraped and scalloped all over with the ridiculously irregular and wabbling little ditches which Richard had turned. There was not a clean, straight furrow in the lot. The ground looked as if an insane elephant had tossed up the earth. The furrows were of all depths and at all distances from one another. Richard had driven the horse most of the time at a smart walk, and he had been too much occupied with keeping up and maintaining a precarious grasp upon the plow handles to be able to pay any attention to the regularity or evenness of his work.

Richard Vernon laughed, too, as he stood and looked over the field. He wiped the sweat from his brow and looked very anxiously at his employer. There was no chance for regular work there, that was evident. His laughter faded away, and there was a certain faint twitch in the corners of his mouth as the boy said: "I guess you don't want any more of my work, sir?" "Oh, yes--yes, I do," said the farmer. "Maybe 'tain't your fault that the furrows are crooked. You see, the sun's pretty hot today, and I reckon the heat warped 'em"--Boston Transcript.

Only a Little Thing. A hospital for incurables is a very noble and worthy charity, and I am glad that no prominent city is without a provision for this class of sufferers. I wish, however, that the brutally descriptive name of such institutions could be so modified as not to contain the death warrant of every person received within their doors. "A place to die in" is not a cheerful title for one's last earthly home, and the omission of this reminder from the official name could so easily be supplied in the rules for admittance that to parade it seems worse than useless. It is wonderful how a little consideration sweetens the bread of charity.

I once visited a home for broken down gentlefolks, presided over by a woman who made giving and receiving alike blessed. I alluded thoughtlessly to the old people as "inmates." "We never call them 'inmates,'" said she in a tone of gentle reproof. "I always have them spoken of as 'guests.' It makes so little difference to us and so much to them."--Kate Field's Washington.

Noah Left the Ark on April 29. Saturday, April 29, is the day marked in all ancient calendars as being the one upon which Noah and his family quitted the ark after having withstood the siege of the great deluge. The day is marked in all ancient calendars, especially British, as egressus Noae de arce, the 17th of March, the day upon which Noah, his family and their great floating collection of natural history specimens set sail, being designated in the same class of early printed literature as intrituous Noae in arca, "the day of Noah's entrance into the ark." Why these days were chosen as the ones upon which the supposed embarkation and debarkation were made are enigmas which the antiquarians have not yet solved.--St. Louis Republic.

A Comforting Assurance. Mrs. Placey, an old lady who had been dying for the last 10 years, was drawing upon little Robbie's sympathy one day by telling him she wouldn't be here much longer and he must think of her often. "Never mind, Mrs. Placey," said Robbie, who had just been taking part in the Decoration day exercises; "I'll put flowers on your grave every Saturday and a United States flag."--Springfield Homestead.

Sweet Revenge. M. Colombis, a merchant of Paris, had his revenge on a former sweetheart, a lady of Rouen, when he left her by will a legacy of $6,000 for having, some 20 years before, refused to marry him, "through which," states the will, "I was enabled to live independently and happily as a bachelor."--San Francisco Argonaut.

Days of Grace Abolished. In California, Vermont, Oregon, Idaho, Utah and Wisconsin days of grace on maturing notes, drafts, acceptances and bills of exchange have been abolished, unless there is express stipulation to the contrary.--Detroit Free Press.

WHEN ARE WE "LADIES"?

Mrs. John Is Surprised to Discover That It Is Not All of the Time. "I had an experience today," said Mrs. John as she broke off a bit of her soup bread last night and began daintily to sip her cream of asparagus.

"You have so many," I replied, "that it should be no novelty, and they are all interesting." I finished invitingly, though I knew I should get the "experience" without this little soap.

Mrs. John merely arched her eyebrows. "It was a small one," she went on, "but it is one of so many similar that it set me to thinking afterward during my ride up town."

I waited. "I was in a shop near a crowded counter to which I vainly tried to get access, when I saw a woman complete her purchase, pay her money and stand waiting for the change. I thought this an opportunity, and I spoke to her: 'May I have your place, please, if you are through?'"

"Not until I am through," she replied coldly, without even turning her head, and she stood there nearly five minutes longer before parcels and coins were handed to her."

"I think," I replied, "she was a telephone girl."

"She was a very disobliging woman, certainly," said Mrs. John, "and at the elevated station I met another."

I was carving the joint, so I only scowled.

"I stood waiting my turn in the line with two men before me," continued Mrs. John, "when this woman walked up and along the line and calmly thrust herself before us all."

"Well, isn't that what you call woman's progress?" I couldn't help inquiring. "It was one woman's progress," retorted Mrs. John, "and everybody hated her for it."

Then she dropped her vehemence and became discursive.

"It was this double experience which, as I said, set me to thinking. I began to wonder when we are 'ladies,' if at all."

"We are not certainly when we do either of these selfish and unjust things, nor pushing and scrambling around a bargain counter, nor spreading our skirts over two seats in a filling street car. We are not when in church or elsewhere we are overcome with the consciousness of being better dressed than our neighbors, nor when we are devouring a bit of gossip, repeating and enlarging upon it; nor, indeed, when we are scolding the children, quarreling with servants or regarding, if we are boarders, our landlord as a neutral enemy."

"Nor when," I helped Mrs. John, "as last summer in the mountains that healthy young woman refused to give up her big room over Sunday to accommodate four persons with no other shelter, while a perfectly comfortable single room was at her disposal, and it had been in the bond of her contract at low rates that she should occasionally, if required?"

"No, indeed," echoed Mrs. John, who was one of the unhappy four, "I shall never forgive that girl!"

Then she caught my eye, and we both laughed.

"It's no laughing matter," she finished defiantly, "then or now. It is a pity rather that there should be so many women who would scorn to be called 'ladies' who have only a thin parlor veneer of manners."

And I said "So it is."--New York Times.

The All the Year Round Bathing Club. The All the Year Round Bathing club of London was up to a few years ago quite a prominent institution in the eyes of sanitary scientists, though of late years it seems to have relapsed into a condition of innocuous desuetude. Its members simply pledged themselves to bathe in the Serpentine river every morning in the year. It is hardly necessary to say that none but the strongest constitutions are able to comply with the regulations, but a sturdy body of men of varying ages for several years carried out the obligations to the letter, and when it was necessary they would cheerfully break the ice before entering the river.

Medical men frequently accompanied the bathers, and quite a number of papers appeared in the medical journals setting forth the good and bad effects of bathing every morning before 5 a. m. in running water.--St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Influence of Association. One sometimes wonders at the singular lapses into slovenly and illiterate blunders conspicuous in men and women who "should know better." True, they should and probably do know better, but in daily practice few people rise very much above the ordinary level of those with whom they always converse. A city bred girl went to live in a part of the country where provincialisms are the currency of daily talk. Returning a few years later to her home, no one would have supposed her to be the same person, so many queer little phrases and downright forms of speech, inelegant and lacking in good form, had she, a very susceptible person, picked up and adopted.--Harper's Bazar.

In a Restaurant. A customer once ordered a brace of grouse with chips for a party of nine. On my bringing them to table his face was a perfect study, and he exclaimed: "Why, I thought they were as big as geese!"

He then took me on one side and explained that he was unable to pay for grouse all round, and finally they all had grill.--London Tit-Bits.

Too Dangerous. "It is said that Sam Ruggles, the lady killer, is dead gone on that pretty Miss Green. Why don't you warn her?" "Thanks, I never play with matches."--Detroit Free Press.

Just as Easily Warded. Mrs. Cumso--I advertised for a plain cook today.

Mr. Cumso--While didn't you advertise for a pretty one while you were about it?--Truth.

HEADQUARTERS DESTROYED.

Lumbering Headquarters of the Nester Estate at O'Brien Completely Wiped Out.

SCORES OF BAY DE NOQUETTE HOMESTEADS ALSO BURNED.

An Ardent Fisherman Encounters a Forest Fire to His Sorrow—Ely School Commencement.

RESULT OF FOREST FIRES.

A belated report gives the information that all the headquarters buildings of the Thomas Nester estate at O'Brien have been destroyed by forest fires. The buildings constituted one of the largest lumbering headquarters on the upper peninsula and included a large store, an office and warehouse, large barns, stables, etc., all being destroyed with their contents, including a big logging outfit of sleighs, tools, etc. The fires have been very severe in that vicinity and an immense amount of damage has been done to standing pine, while the railroad company has had its hands full guarding its bridges and trestles.

On the Bay de Noquette grant nearly all of the homesteaders have been burned out, most of them losing their entire outfit. Among the first to suffer was the Alice Salter claim while Berry, the Reichels, Clendenning and Mahany have also suffered from the fire, the latter's claim being swept Monday and his house, clothing and supplies all going up in smoke. The pine is so badly damaged that it will have to be cut during the coming winter and the charge is made in some quarters that the fires were started by lumbermen operating in that vicinity with that end in view. The territory covered by the fires embraces nearly all the standing pine in the grant.

Expensive Fishing.

A well known traveling man who is an ardent follower in the footsteps of Izaak Walton and who always plans to hit this portion of the United States in time for the June fishing, has confidentially informed THE MINING JOURNAL that his trout this year cost him $6.85 a piece, and yet he folded up his rod and left the upper peninsula with regret. As he is a prince of good fellows his hard luck this year is worrying all the boys greatly and they have promised him that if he will return before the end of the season not even the threatened visit of President Cleveland shall rob him of some of the choicest fishing to be found in this part of the state.

The forest fires are responsible for the bill of expense attached to each of his fish this season. With three others, all knights of the grip, he started out from an upper peninsula town last week with a team and road wagon for a jaunt to the headquarters of one of the best trout streams west of Marquette, being advised to stop in an old lumber camp where a stove and complete cooking outfit would be found. The place was reached all right and on the morning after the arrival the party left camp at 7 o'clock to try the fishing, leaving the horses loose in the barn but closing the doors securely. At 1:30 camp was reached again and consternation struck the crowd, for during their absence the bush fires had swept down to the stream, crossed over to the barn and then rushed off down stream. The barn was the only building destroyed, but that had been completely wiped out and within it were the horses and harness, the blankets, overcoats and other paraphernalia belonging to the party. The wagon had been left standing near the barn and that had been destroyed, while, as if in cruel irony, the old blacksmith shop standing only a few feet from the barn and surrounded by chips, shavings and other highly inflammable material, had not been touched at all.

The only thing left to do was for some one to walk out seven or eight miles to the nearest place where a team could be secured to come in for the rest of the party and this THE MINING JOURNAL's friend did—then he prepared to reach down into his pocket for his share of the value of the team and rig. Most men would have foresworn fishing on the spot but he is not built that way and in spite of his hard luck was out with a rod near Marquette yesterday in time to catch the full benefit of the thunderstorm in the afternoon.

Do Not Run West of Nestoria.

That the public may not be misled by a typographical error which appeared in THE MINING JOURNAL yesterday it is again stated that until the burned bridges on the Duluth division are repaired, the trains leaving Marquette at 9:05 a. m. and arriving here at 5 p. m. will not run west of Nestoria, running between Marquette and Houghton only. The train leaving Marquette at 11:15 p. m. and the train arriving here at 3:50 a. m. will run through as usual, transferring passengers and baggage at the burned trestle near Bruce's Crossing. The entire road will be opened again before the end of the week, it is expected, judging from the present rate of progress.

Christian Endeavor Convention.

The Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic has succeeded in arranging a summer excursion trip to Montreal and return on the occasion of the twelfth international convention of the Young Peoples' Society of Christian Endeavor, which will be held in that city July 5th to 9th.

The itinerary of this delightful excursion is as follows: Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic and Canadian Pacific railways, the direct all-rail line to Montreal, thence via the C. P. R'y. to Toronto and Detroit, including a free side trip to Niagara Falls. From Detroit to Chicago, returning home by either of the direct all-rail lines between that city and the upper peninsula.

The fare for the entire trip will be $32.50. Tickets will be on sale at all the principal ticket offices between Houghton and Sault Ste. Marie from June 30th to July 4th and will be good to return until September 15th, 1893. After the close of the meeting excursionists will have ample time to visit Toronto—the Queen City of Canada—the Falls of Niagara, the City of the Straits and the World's Fair. Intending excursionists are referred to the ticket agents of the D., S. S. & A. R'y. for further information.

A Lake Flyer.

On next to her last trip, in spite of delays en route, the steamer Pioneer, owned by the Cleveland-Ciffs Iron company, made the trip from Cleveland breakwater to Marquette and return in four days and four minutes. This was good time but her captain declares that before the season is over he will make the round trip from Marquette to Cleveland and return in four days, if he succeeds this will be an unparalleled feat as it will include the time occupied in unloading at Cleveland.

Last week the Pioneer left Marquette with 1,670 tons of ore on Wednesday night. Friday morning at 7 o'clock she passed Detroit, reached Cleveland, unloaded, took on her fuel and passed Detroit again on the way up at 10 a. m. Saturday, leaving Marquette after midnight Sunday with another cargo of ore. Can any of the noted lake flyers beat her record?

Ely School Commencement.

The commencement exercises of the Ely school will be held tomorrow, the first five grades holding forth from 1:30 to 3 p. m.; the sixth and seventh grades from 3 to 4 p. m., and the eighth grade in the evening, beginning at 8 o'clock sharp. To avoid a crush, admission will be by ticket, the parents and friends of the pupils being supplied gratis.

It is Strange

That people suffering from Piles will endure them for years or submit to dangerous, painful, cruel and expensive surgical operations, when all the time there is a painless, certain, lasting cure, which gives instant relief and costs but a trifle. It is called the Pyramid Pile Cure and can be found at all drug stores. Any druggist will get it for you if you ask him.
