COXEY'S army may not capture Washington, but it is capturing the "coolers" en route without much difficulty.

Now if Pete Doran would only explain how the "referee system" in Michigan brought about the Democratic reverses in Wisconsin and several other states in the elections of this week he would render a great service to an anxious public.

From an official statement it appears that the revenues of the government for the first nine months of the current fiscal year have fallen $55,432,000 short of meeting its expenditures.

He finds no difficulty in believing, also, that the editor of The Herald, who is an astute political manager, had little to do with the adoption of a plan that failed of success.

The Duluth News Tribune of Thursday printed this concerning the Rainy Lake gold region and the Mesaba iron district:

Richard A. Parker of Marquette, an expert mining man in both gold and iron fields, who represents the fee owners of the Biwabik and other Mesaba mines and who intends to make his home in Duluth, has more than an ordinary reputation in the branches in which he is an expert.

Lincoln's Great Purpose. It Gives Him Not Only Local Celebrity, but World Fame, Too.

The conviction that Lincoln was much more than the Great Emancipator is pronounced with a full sense of the possible shock it may bring to those who love to think of Lincoln's chief renown as connected with the race he freed from bondage.

All our thankfulness and honor to the man who made the act of emancipation a weapon with which to strike rebellion must not blind us to the fact that this splendid stroke of policy, this noble deed of statecraft, was only an incident and not the aim of the struggle.

Viewed in its relations to the long world history, the development of mankind, the work of civilization, the American people under their great leader were engaged in determining whether the great principle of federation, the peaceful coexistence of great states, should succeed or fail.

A FEARFUL SUSPENSE

She Thought It Would Never End.

Suspense is an awful thing. People suffer month after month from various troubles hoping, yet doubting.

There is not the slightest need to live on this way, for you can be cured just as well as not.

"I was completely broken down in health. My nerves were all unstrung and exhausted. I could not sleep nights and my limbs trembled all the time.

"I took all kinds of medicine but neither they nor the doctors did me any good. I became fearfully discouraged and thought I should never get well.

"Having heard of the wonders of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy I determined to use it.

"I cannot speak highly enough of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is a God-send to us poor sufferers.

"I ask yourself this question honestly and fairly and if you knew a medicine would surely cure you, would you not take it?

"The more Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used the better it is liked. We know of no other remedy that always gives satisfaction.

Good Reason for Faith

Cured of Scrofula by Hood's Scrofula permeates humanity. It is thoroughly infused into the blood.

"I am justified in thinking Hood's Scrofula a splendid medicine by own experience with it. I was a great sufferer from scrofula, having discharges from my ears and on my head, sometimes like large boils, discharging all the time.

"My Appetite Improved, and I felt somewhat better. I bought another bottle, and by the time I had half gone the scrofula had entirely disappeared.

How about Mrs. Columbus? Now Christopher went on discoveries bent, And captured more honors than ever meant For mortal to wear. But Mrs. Columbus, I think—yes, I know it, Is pining for notice from rhymster or poet, Let her have her share. While Christopher studied a dingy old chart, She doubtless did washing—a heroine's part, And dreamed of the "Fair." While Christopher's life was so brightened by hope, Her task would have lightened if Santa Claus Soap Had only been there. She might have had time to be famous herself, If she'd had aid from this jolly old elf. Yes Santa Claus Soap, the good housekeepers say Is the choicest of soaps manufactured to-day.

Just what the honest buyer knows will save him money has been adopted at Vertin Brothers Mammoth Store.

RED JACKET, MICH.

HERE IS THE POINT. A NEW DEPARTURE. On the old plan the honest, prompt paying customer pays for the loss incurred by the dead beats. On a cash basis there are no dead beats. Today many persons pay high prices for an entire year for the sake of getting a ten or eleven per cent rebate at the close of the year. We give 20 to 40 per cent when goods are bought which knocks the wind out of waiting 12 long months. You want to know how we can do it. 1st—We have no high salaried bookkeeper; no manager to pay; goods sold at small profits turned over twelve times a year for cash only will make money for us. The mistake of the pass-books are avoided. Our sales people can sell three times as many goods as the credit dealing clerks. We invite your close inspection of our prices and methods to convince you of what we have said.

OUR NEW LINE OF

Groceries and Provisions

To our large variety of Dry Goods and Clothing, etc., we have added a large department of Groceries and Provisions which we will sell at Steinhilber's & De Cremer's prices. On only a few very heavy, low priced goods will we make any freight charges, and in this case our car-load rates are very much lower than you could get freight for. So if you now send your money away for goods you will be the loser as we will sell the best goods at the same prices charged in the large cities you send to. We also save you lots of bother and expense, as well as the risk of losing your money. With us you see what you buy. Come in any time after Saturday, March 17, 1894, and we will save you from 20 to 40 per cent.

Communications for copper country department intended for publication should be addressed to A. F. Lister, Houghton.

A number of the ladies who attended the inspection of Company F Wednesday evening afterwards viewed the recent improvements made in the building and noticing that the rooms as yet had not been furnished asked to be allowed to furnish the parlor, which generous offer the members of Company F very gratefully accepted. A few more donations such as this would help wonderfully to put the boys' new home in excellent shape.

Wednesday afternoon and evening next the ladies of Grace Methodist church will hold their annual fair and supper at Miller's Hall. Numerous fancy and useful articles will be for sale and an excellent supper will be served from 5 o'clock on. All are cordially invited to attend.

Postmaster Dube is having several changes made in the Houghton office. Carpenters are now at work putting windows in the new wing making other repairs. The painters and paper hangers will be the next to get to work.

The reserved seat sale for "The Confederat Spy" will begin at 8 o'clock Monday morning at Ruhl & Barry's drug store. Those intending to secure seats had better go early as the rush will be great.

Henry Wagner, bookkeeper for L. Hennes & Co., who has been ill for some time, has gone to his home in West Superior where he will take a much needed rest.

Contractor Frank Voith is rushing the work of rebuilding the Poisson house and it already presents a much better appearance.

The town is full of chimney sweeps—a sure sign of spring.

ATLANTIC MINE. The Eureka band of this place will, with the assistance of some of the best local talent, give a concert in the school house on Saturday evening, April 14, to be concluded with the laughable farce, "The Irish Tiger."

HANCOCK. The village trustees have decided that it is necessary to procure some system of keeping tabs on the movements of the nightwatchmen and a committee consisting of Messrs. Coughlin and Linder was appointed to investigate appliances for the purpose and report at the next meeting of the council.

This city is to have another drug store in the near future. The firm will be Lindholm & Jaderholm of Ishpeming and will occupy the west half of the North block. The stock of Mr. Jaderholm at Ishpeming will be moved here and other new stock will also be purchased.

The fire department has been increased from 15 to 21 men, the increase having become necessary for several reasons. This move by the common council will no doubt meet the hearty approval of every citizen.

Yesterday morning the exchange of orders for tickets for the Y. M. C. A. exhibition began at the association building and at noon 129 seats had been reserved. This goes to show that the boys will have a crowded house here on the 13th.

Ley Bros, yesterday had a temporary office built on the site of their old store. It will be found more convenient for customers than to have to go to one place to order their goods and to another to pay for them.

George W. Emery has been wearing a big smile the past two days. A young Republican arrived at his home on Wednesday. Mother and son are doing nicely.

The social given in the Congregational church parlors last evening under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. was largely attended and an excellent program was rendered.

The beautiful weather yesterday helped about two feet of snow away.

Landlord Linder has placed a fine drinking fountain in the office of his hotel.

No one has yet been found to the parties who broke into Volmer's shoe shop.

There will be quite a contest for the office of marshal when the council meets.

CALUMET. The Calumet & Hecla has just one colored man working underground. He went to work in the Calumet branch of the mine with the timbermen this week. His name is Tom Brown. He is a musician and came here to work on the Red Jacket sewers last summer.

Mr. Charles W. Whiting left yesterday noon for the east but will return before May 1 to take his family.

RED JACKET. Peter Hein wanted to bet $50 with the Auditorium proprietor that there was five feet of snow on the street in front of his store. After he got his money up Hein backed out and shoved the cash in his pocket. Then he measured the snow and found it only four feet six inches.

At a meeting of the Calumet Light Guard, Company D, Fifth Infantry, Thursday evening Edward Lean, John Maschin and John McDonald were elected members of the company. This completes the full muster roll of eighty-six members. The boys now feel that they stand No. 1 in all respects.

BEAR AND SERPENT.

A Strange Battle Witnessed in an Indian Jungle.

Some clemeters were setting their nets for game in an Indian jungle when their attention was attracted by hideous noises—roars of pain and rage, and a prolonged hissing, like the escape of steam from an engine. They hastened to the spot—or toward it, as seems most likely—and beheld what the Madras Mail describes as a "Homicide conflict." A jungle bear was fighting for his life with a colossal serpent. Probably the serpent had been sunning itself in the game track when the bear came along, and as neither animal would yield the path to the other, a contest became inevitable. What the clemeters saw is thus described:

The serpent wound its enormous folds around the bear's head and rolled on the ground in its frenzied attempts to get free, roaring angrily all the while and snapping its jaws like castanets at the serpent's folds. It could not reach them, however, on account of the way in which they were tightened around the bear's quivering body.

Thus engaged, the combatants swayed to the brow of a hill, down which the bear cast himself with a velocity that plainly disconcerted the serpent, for it uncoiled two or three of its folds and threw its tail around a tree, hoping so to anchor the bear. The maneuver resulted in its own undoing, in more ways than one.

The rigid, outstretched line of tail gave the bear a chance to seize its assailant, a chance which up to this time had not been afforded. The bear was quick to seize its opportunity, and fastened its jaws in the snake's quivering flesh. The hissing was now frightful, as the snake rapidly uncoiled itself and struck savagely at the bear's jaws.

By way of response the bear roared furiously, dashing from side to side, and worrying the mouthful of serpent in its jaws in paroxysms of rage and pain. Once more the serpent wound itself about the bear, the bear howled and gasped, and both, still struggling, rolled out of view into the high grass of the forest.

Their track was marked with pools of blood; and when they were again seen they had parted. The snake was coiled in an attitude of defense, with its head erect, and hissed apprehensively. It had had enough, and wished only to be left alone.

Not so the bear. Though almost crushed to death, it would not retire from the combat. After a moment's pause it rushed upon the serpent, seized it by the head and dragged it about with roars of triumph. The undergrowth was beaten flat by the convulsive strokes of the great serpent's tail as the bear crushed its head to pieces, and finally it lay dead beneath the assaults of its vindictive enemy.

HEAT OF THE HUMAN BODY.

The Variations of the Temperature Are Influenced by Food and Exercise.

Owing to the common use nowadays of the clinical thermometer, most persons are aware that the normal temperature of the human body is about 98.6 degrees Fahrenheit. It is, however, subject to important daily fluctuations, which have to be considered in estimating any decided alterations, says the Fortnightly Review. It is sufficient here to notice that the human temperature falls to its lowest about one or two o'clock a. m., while the maximum daily temperature occurs some time in the afternoon. These variations are influenced by food, but as they occur in fasting persons they are not altogether dependent upon the supply of nourishment. Exercise has a decided effect in raising the temperature, a fact of which every one is conscious. The application of cold, as by a cold bath, lowers the temperature of the skin, but raises temporarily that of the internal organs, as it causes an increased volume of blood to be forced into them. In hot countries the bodily temperature is raised—at all events, in newcomers.

Perhaps the most wonderful phenomenon connected with the bodily temperature is the preservation of its general level under all external circumstances of heat and cold. This power seems to exist in man in a higher amount than in most other animals, since he cannot only support but enjoy life under extremes which would be fatal to many. The accounts of degrees of cold frequently sustained by arctic voyagers are almost incredible. We read of temperatures 80, 90 and even 102 degrees below the freezing point. On the other hand, in the tropics the temperature often rises through a large portion of the year to 110 degrees, or even higher, and we know that workmen can remain in furnaces at a temperature of 300 degrees or more without inconvenience. In all these cases the air must be dry and still; similar extremes of heat or of cold, accompanied by moisture, would prove intolerable.

A Claret-Drinking Dog.

A tiny West Indian dog, owned by Charles R. Price, of St. Ann's avenue, New York, has a history. The dog was born at St. Thomas, West Indies. When the ready-made cruiser America, which was fitted out in that city for the navy of Brazil, to fight Admiral Mello, touched at St. Thomas, Gunner's Mate John D. Price, of the ship, a brother of the present owner of the animal, bought the dog. He was then but nine days old, and when he was taken aboard the America the sailors initiated him into a life of sin by feeding him claret for breakfast, beer for dinner and whisky for tea. The dog was brought to that city by Gunner Price, who resigned from the America at Pernambuco. Since his arrival he has been out down on his allowance of liquor and eats like other dogs, although for three months after his birth he lived a life of constant intoxication. The animal is very valuable and takes kindly to New York's climate. He has been named Mello, after the rebel chieftain.

THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

They Are Situated Many Miles Distant from Honolulu.

The group lies in a chain distant from Oahu seven hundred to twelve hundred miles, west by northwest. There are several records of its discovery. Ocean Island was quite well known as early as 1800.

Years ago two whalers went ashore in one night on Pearl and Hermes reef. The vessels were lost entirely and several men drowned. In 1855, the English craft Dunmatar Castle, coal laden from Newcastle, was wrecked on an Ocean Island reef.

At one time the carrying of guano and phosphates to the United States from the midway group promised to become a great business. The discovery of phosphates in Florida and other states along the Atlantic coast had a depressing effect on the fertilizer traffic in the United States.

Canadian rusties never answer "Entree" when a knock is heard at the door. They invariably respond: "Ouvrez." This is founded upon the old legend of a young woman who replied "Entree" to such a summons, when the devil came in and carried her off.

A MOTHER'S CURSE.

Mrs. Samuels Called Down Vengeance on the Heads of Her Son's Enemies.

Mrs. Zerelda Samuels, mother of those notorious bandits, train robbers and ex-guerrillas, the late lamented Jesse and the still living but reformed Frank James, is reported lying seriously ill, with but slight hope of her recovery, said the Buffalo Inquirer, in a recent issue.

"I'll never forget," said a gentleman recently, "the scene when she caught the first view of Jesse's dead face in that little undertaker's shop in St. Joseph, where the body was removed soon after Bob Ford killed the notorious outlaw."

"She had aged years in the short twenty-four hours since her boy fell a victim to the treachery of one he had befriended. She seemed stunned by the tragedy. Here, for twenty years and more, she had lived in the full knowledge that every hour of each day might bring her tidings that one or both of her boys had met with a violent death, but when it came the shock well-nigh shattered her reason."

"The ice box in which Jesse's body lay was opened, and for full two minutes the gray-haired mother looked on the face of her dead son; then all her vigor seemed to return, her bent figure straightened up, and in tones which could be heard half a block away she began such a tirade of abuse against his slayers as I never could have imagined mortal mind capable of framing."

"Whether it was in answer to her prayers I am not prepared to say, but certain it is that Charlie Ford never knew an instant of peace from the day that Jesse was shot. Unlike Bob, he did not even pretend to conceal his real feelings under an air of bravado. Both boys were in mortal terror every minute until Frank surrendered that he would cross their path unexpectedly some day and that their lives would pay the forfeit. Bob hid this fear by assuming a blustering boldness, which at times he was far from feeling. His was the stronger character of the two. Charlie, on the contrary, passed his nights in restless sleeplessness and his days in terrified expectancy of vengeance. Even the short period of security which he enjoyed while Frank was in custody afforded no lasting peace for him. As soon as Frank was released the old terror returned with renewed force, and so preyed upon his nerves that he soon became a mental wreck. It drove him to a suicide's grave at last."

PETTY DISHONESTY.

The Little Impositions That Some Women Think All Right.

A Charming Girl Who Was Highly Elated at Her Success in Bluffing a Street Car Conductor Out of a Nickel.

The readiness and enthusiasm with which fair women will beat the restaurant keepers, soda water dispensatories, railroad companies and all other institutions of civilization for the collection of nickels, dimes or other small change is one of the strangest phenomena of these fast-striding days.

I was discussing a lunch the other day with a very charming girl, says a lady writer in the New York Herald. The first thing she said after removing her gloves and arranging her rings so that they would show to the very best advantage to the other women present was:

"Well, my ride down town didn't cost me a cent. That stupid conductor never came around for my fare."

Here she held up the nickel exultantly and laughed in an almost fiendish glee.

At the moment a pretty blonde girl passed our table and saluted my companion. The sight of the nickel upheld seemed to inspire pleasant thoughts. She stopped and began to giggle. Then they giggled together and winked at each other.

"That nickel reminds me of something funny, Susie," laughed the blonde girl, whose costume cost her husband a cool three hundred dollars. "I have ridden in five horse cars to-day and it hasn't cost me a cent."

My companion instantly grew serious and knitted her pretty brows.

"How did you manage it?" she inquired, eagerly.

"Easily enough," retorted the blonde beauty. "In two cases the impudent conductor never even asked me for my fare, and of course I didn't call him and beg to be taxed. Three of the cars I rode on were crowded, and when I boarded them others did so at the same time. The conductor was way up in front. He didn't know who or how many got on."

"Finally he came around with his eternal cry of 'Fare, please.' I looked straight ahead of me, for I wanted to see what he would do. He passed and repassed, collecting nickels from idiotic women who were fumbling in their purses. Each time he looked suspiciously at me. At last he said, snappishly: 'Have I got your fare, ma'am?' I looked over his head as haughtily as I could. He became humbled. 'Did I get your fare, lady?' he lisped. 'How many fares do you want?' I replied, sternly. At that the poor man faded away to the back platform, thoroughly crestfallen. Several good-looking fellows glared at it they had a mind to throw him out of the window."

The girls laughed long over this experience, but when the blonde charmer was gone I remarked savagely that I thought such tactics dishonest.

"Nonsense!" observed my lady, ironically, and refused any further discussion.

In due time the waiter brought me my check.

"Let me see it," said my beautiful philanthropist. Of course she got it. She studied it for a moment seriously, then an amused expression crept around the tempting mouth and finally she burst into a peal of laughter.

"See," she said, eagerly, bending across the table. "He has cheated himself out of fifty cents. Now, don't be a simpleton and have him correct it. It's none of your business, anyway."

But I thought it a first-rate opportunity for a lesson in morals. I called the waiter and showed him where he had erred and you may believe he was profoundly grateful.

As I collected my change and rose to go I noticed an ominous frown settling over her lovely brow and I am sure the word "fool" issued from between her set teeth.

Duties of the French Academy.

The Academie Francaise was founded by Cardinal Richelieu in 1635, lived long enough to snub Corneille and Moliere, was abolished in 1793, was revived two years later and made a useful body by Napoleon in 1803. Since then it has been a part of the Institute of France. It elects its own members, who are now known as the Forty Immortals. Its duties are to preserve the purity of the French language, to encourage and preserve French literature and to distribute several queer prizes, such, for instance, as two thousand dollars each year to that member of the working class who has performed the most virtuous action of the year, and three hundred dollars every other year to the rising genius who is considered to be most in need of and most worthy of encouragement. The members are supposed to meet twice a week, and are paid three dollars and eighty-seven cents—a Napoleon—for every meeting they attend. They receive, besides, a salary of three hundred and sixty dollars a year. Zola, who has been rejected some six or seven times, holds to the tradition that membership in the academy is the highest literary honor that can be bestowed upon a Frenchman.

Bound to Be Comfortable.

Mme. du Deffand, a celebrity of the last century, was a great invalid. One day, when she was in bed, several guests arrived and were admitted. They all began to shiver and pull their cloaks around them. "What," exclaimed the invalid, "is it cold here?" "It is simply freezing," answered a guest. "Thank you for telling me," said Mme. du Deffand. She rang a bell. The guests supposed she was sending for a maid to make a fire, but when the servant came in, Mme. du Deffand said: "Annie, bring me in my down coverlet!" Having given this order, she began a conversation about other matters.

PUBLISHER OF DONOHUE'S.

What the Great American Catholic Monthly Owes to Paine's Celery Compound.

The name of Donohue's Magazine, founded by Mr. Patrick Donohue of Boston, in 1819, is known and respected throughout the English-speaking world. Within the past year it has achieved almost marvelous success, and stands today peerless in its field, doing splendid work for greater religious tolerance and better economic conditions. This success has been won under the direction of its new publisher, Hon. Daniel P. Toomey, who, in addition, is at the head of one of Boston's best publishing companies and is a representative from that city in the legislature of Massachusetts. Mr. Toomey writes as follows in a candid and interesting letter: "I believe in Paine's celery compound. If I tell you why, you may, perhaps, wish to publish my words. But even that does not deter me from writing you the truth. I have no sympathy with the man who helps tear down the bridge that carried him over. Neither do I sympathize with the man who hides facts just because their publication may promote the success of others. Paine's celery compound helped me. That's the fact of the case. "Finding myself run down and getting into a state of nervousness, recently, I took the advice of a medical friend, and bought Paine's celery compound. Its use gave me strength, energy and buoyancy. Business cares were made lighter than before. "I believe in the efficacy of Paine's celery compound." Mr. Toomey's experience is like that of thousands of others. Brain workers, those who suffer from debility, exhaustion, mental depression, sleeplessness, find Paine's celery compound a certain rejuvenator of the vital portions. Hard study among students is a direct cause of debility. Energetic action cannot be kept up in the brain and stomach at the same time. If the mind be intently occupied with profound thought the nervous power will be concentrated in the brain, and the stomach being deprived of it, indigestion and disease ensue. Hence the weak digestion and sallow complexion of literary men and their constant complaint of ill health. It is also true that a hopeful man or woman can do more work and get well faster than one in despair. From the first taking of Paine's celery compound a feeling of confidence in recovery comes over the invalid. New blood and fresh nervous energy give a hopeful outlook. Paine's celery compound hastens convalescence wonderfully. In the spring, if ever, there is need of food for the nerves and brain. Paine's celery compound makes the weak strong; makes people well. Try it.

GONE OUT OF BUSINESS.

Ishpeming's Old Council Closes Its Work for the Year and Retires.

VOTE CAST IN MONDAY'S ELECTION CANVASSED.

Finished the Season's Work in the Woods—Brought to Ishpeming for Burial—Died at a Ripe Age.

COUNCIL'S LAST MEETING.

The city council met in special session Thursday evening and disposed of the business presented in rapid order. In the absence of Mayor Osborn President Johnston presided. A full board of aldermen, with the exception of Alderman Jenkins, was present.

The minutes of a special meeting held March 21 were then read and approved. Alderman Heyn, from the claims and accounts committee, presented a number of bills, including the claims incurred on account of the city election, and recommended their payment. On motion, the report was adopted.

Alderman Swanson, from the committee on water works, reported favorably on the petition of Mrs. Christ Nelson, asking to be exempted from the payment of water taxes. The report was adopted.

Alderman Beerling, from the lighting committee, reported that he had been unable to close a contract with the Negaunee & Ishpeming Street Railway & Electric Light company for city lighting for the ensuing year.

Alderman McNamara, from the committee on police, reported favorably on the monthly reports of Justice Kennedy, the chief of police and the poundmaster, and recommended that the claims of each be allowed. The report was adopted.

The street commissioner's report for the year was presented and on motion was accepted. It showed a total expenditure of $17,596.05, less $337.10 received for sidewalks repaired and constructed, leaving the total net expenditures $17,258.95. The amount charged to garbage account is $3,000.56. The cost of the garbage trestle at the dumping grounds was $773.81. Labor and teaming for the year on street work was $9,622.87. The cost of tools, lumber and other materials was $4,199.01. The total of street grading done was 11,901 lineal feet. The Greenwood road was graded from the Carp River west of the city limits, the amount of grading being about 3,000 feet. The old sewerage filled with rock amounted to 600 feet and that filled in with sand to 685 feet. There was 18,528 feet of street curbing put in. For repairing the road leading to Negaunee $106 was expended. The amount expended on repairing the Winthrop road was $320.75. Clearing snow and ice from walks and crossings cost $424.90. Opening roads with the snow plow and shoveling cost $353.30. Curbing and grading streets cost $6,197.05. The amount expended on street repairs was $445.18.

Alderman Persons, from the finance committee, reported that the $30,000 of bonds issued last May had been taken by James W. Longstreet & Co. of Boston and offered a resolution to the effect that the issue of the bonds be made legal according to the desire of the purchaser. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

The council then proceeded to canvass the vote cast in the city election. The recorder read the result of the election in the different wards, after which Alderman Rood offered a resolution declaring the successful candidates elected. On motion the resolution was adopted and the council then adjourned.

Pulled Up Stakes.
All work at the Dead River Mill company's camps north of Ishpeming was suspended Thursday and the men employed there came to town yesterday. Since resuming operations in the woods a couple of weeks ago the company has succeeded in doing a large amount of the work left unfinished when the last soft spell broke up the roads. Nearly all the logs cut during the winter have been hauled to the river and are ready for the drive. About eight million feet of logs have been cut by this company at its camps north of here this season.

A Few Men Taken On.
About thirty men were set at work on the stockpile at Section 16 mine of the Lake Superior Iron company Thursday. As soon as navigation opens several more will be given work on the company's stockpiles.

Seven men were taken on at the Cleveland Lake mine to work on the new underground electric tramway being built there. A few more may be added to the force in a short time. The rumor about town that 200 men would be given work at this mine next week is unfounded.

Was Buried Here.
The remains of Alice Homestead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Homestead of Humboldt, aged seventeen years, arrived in this city for burial yesterday morning. The deceased had been an invalid for a number of years, but had not been seriously ill until a few days ago, when she was taken down rather suddenly and died Wednesday. The religious services were conducted at the Division street Methodist church.

Going to Hancock.
E. Jaederholm, the Finnish druggist who has conducted a business in this city for the past year and a half or more, has packed up his stock of goods and will leave today for Hancock, where he will open a store. Mr. Jaederholm is a competent pharmacist and a gentleman worthy of the respect and patronage of the people of Hancock and vicinity.

More Brick Come Down.
Yesterday morning some more brick and pieces of brick fell from the cornice on the front of the McKay block on Main street. There are a couple rows of brick loose and crumbling, and as the weather becomes warm the pieces fall away. A man was engaged yesterday afternoon to place a board temporarily a few inches below the cornice to prevent the brick from falling to the sidewalk. In a few days, as soon as the weather becomes mild enough to admit of the work being done, the old brick will be removed and replaced with new.

Died of Old Age.
Brita Jellen, aged eighty-three years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hans Olson, at the Winthrop mine location Thursday. She was a native of Sweden and had resided in this country a number of years. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the Swedish Lutheran church.

ISHPEMING IN BRIEF.
Ex-Secretary of State John W. Jochim and wife left for Lansing Thursday evening.

Try one of those fifty-three-cent ladies' black corsets at Grabowsky's dry goods, millinery and shoe store.

The Negaunee & Ishpeming Electric Light company will shortly add a number of new commercial lamps to its Ishpeming list.

Religious services will be conducted at Grace Episcopal church tomorrow morning at 10:30 by Rev. Brown-Serman of Marquette.

J. E. Swanson found a pair of valuable spectacles on the street yesterday. The owner can have them by calling at Jochim's hardware store and proving property.

Rev. M. Brown-Serman will conduct services at Grace church, Ishpeming, tomorrow morning at the accustomed hour. Sabbath school will be held after the morning service.

Joseph Pope of Negaunee will take charge of the saloon business now being conducted by Thomas Williams, at the corner of Main and Division streets on the first of next month.

Harwood's drug store will receive dimes and coupons for Picturesque America from now on. This will save subscribers sending by mail for each number. Harwood will also deliver the books.

The newly-elected aldermen and the other officials of the city have been notified by the city recorder that they have been declared duly elected by the city council and have ten days in which to qualify.

At the Division street Methodist church tomorrow morning Rev. Joslin's subject will be "The Claims of God and of God Equally Imperative." In the evening his theme will be "Sabbath Observance."

The Inter-Urban party Thursday evening was a very enjoyable affair. About forty couples were present. This was the last of the club's series of dances for this season. Hughes' orchestra of Marquette furnished the music and gave general satisfaction.

Rev. J. H. Green, pastor of Calvary Baptist church, will preach tomorrow morning on the theme, "Divine Healing." His evening subject will be "Sabbath Observance, or the Christian Sabbath Compared With the Sinner's Sabbath." A special invitation is extended to strangers.

MICHIGAMME MENTION.
A. G. Johnston was advised yesterday by telegram that the defendants in his Huron Bay railroad case had been denied a new hearing by the supreme court. This is welcome news for Mr. Johnston and virtually settles the case as far as he is concerned. He is to be congratulated, as it is a matter of some $14,000 of a claim held by him against the railway company named.

Thomas Gillespie is the proud father of twins, both boys; Henry Meyer is rejoicing over the birth of a son; G. L. Maker is happy over the arrival at his home of a girl, and the advent of a young son has brought added happiness to the household of Andrew Jacobson.

Ladies of the Catholic church are conducting a fair at Odd Fellows' Hall this week for charitable purposes. Very enjoyable evenings are had by those who attend.

Read & Co. have a pile-driver at work building a trestle, which will greatly facilitate the work of handling logs.

The township election passed off very quietly, with results that are satisfactory to the people at large.

It's an ill wind that blows no one good. Ask Andrew Johnston about his cuspidor and the youth.

Nels Moline, who has been quite unwell the past week, is so far recovered as to be up and about.

H. J. Atkinson went to Ishpeming Thursday.

J. C. Fowle was in town this week.

THE CLAQUE.

How It Operates in the Theaters of Paris and London.

In Paris a determined resistance has for some time been brought to bear against the claque-men hired to applaud in the theaters.

Clagues, however, have flourished from time immemorial and are not likely to die out yet awhile. In the time of the Romans as many as five thousand men were hired to cheer a single man, and to be a member of a claque was to be considered an artist.

Not only had they to shout, but they were required to imitate the clashing of broken jugs by snapping their fingers in unison and to imitate the patter of hail and the droning of bees, for these were recognized signs of approval.

Coming to more recent times the leader of a French claque considered himself very poorly off unless he made considerably over five thousand dollars a year. Indeed, the post of leader was so much sought after that as much as twenty-five thousand dollars was exacted as premium before a man was permitted to fill a vacancy. The chief was paid no stated salary, but was allotted a certain number of seats, which he could sell at his own price, and these, together with the presents he received from the actors, amounted to a very substantial sum.

The claque was and still is nothing more than a gigantic fraud. Men are deemed to laugh immoderately at jokes, to applaud speeches, and women are actually employed to sob audibly and become hysterical during affecting scenes. In fact, in some foreign theaters such member of the claque is given a printed list of instructions, which he or she is expected to follow to the letter.

Things came to such a pass some years ago that a play was placed in jeopardy through the machinations of rival clagues. Jealous actresses would employ their own clagues, and the ridiculous spectacle was presented of an actress being applauded from one part of the house and soundly hissed from the other.

Circumstances are considerably modified in France now, but we still have our clagues here, says an English paper. They consist chiefly of deadheads, persons who are expected to applaud in exchange for free admission. They appear for the most part the first nights, when the fate of a play is in the balance, and are to be seen frantically clapping their hands when the remainder of the audience is half asleep.

At other times foreign actresses fresh to the English stage hire men to applaud them on their first appearance. The whole business, however, is carried out so unartificially that the presence of a claque is nearly always detected.

Success speaks volume. Geo. Moebis & Co.'s cigars are the best sellers. (5-23-4m)

HEALTHY FOOD FOR MAN. Fortunately It Has at Last Been Discovered.

WHAT A PROFESSOR SAYS. He Holds That No Man or Woman Need Be Troubled Any More With Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

THE THING FOR WOMEN. Cold Water is a Perfect Cosmetic When Properly Used.

It requires considerable courage to take a cold morning bath in winter, but there can be no doubt that it is highly beneficial.

To take a cold bath, first lay upon the floor an old rug or a strip of carpet that will not be injured by a wetting, and fill the bowl with cold water.

Bathing of every description has always been a prominent factor in the toilet processes of famous beauties.

A hot sea-bath at night is luxurious, and it is now possible to purchase a prepared sea salt that will render an ordinary bath a very good imitation of sea water.

It is very unwise to bathe too long or too vigorously, as the fatigue that is sure to follow will counteract whatever good may accrue from the bath.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well.

Co. Drivers of fine cigars should read advertisement of The New Daisy 45 Cigar.

A HOUSEHOLD TREASURE. D. W. Fuller of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery and has always found it the very best remedy for all the ailments that he would not without it, if procurable.

Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy that he has used in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it.

MACHINISTS HOLD CARNIVAL

Armory Hall Literally Crowded at Their Third Annual Ball.

TREASURY THAT HAS HELPED MANY MEMBERS.

Mutual Benefit and Fraternal Objects of the Order Freely Indorsed by the Public.

IN SPITE OF "DULL" TIMES.

The third annual ball of Iron Bay lodge No. 104, International Association of Machinists, was given last night in Armory Hall and was from first to last one of the most pronounced successes of the season. One hundred and seventy-five couples passed the ticket seller's table and from the appearance of the dancing floor during a quadrille it seemed as though the entire number were trying to dance. Notwithstanding the big crowd everything was conducted in the most approved fashion and while the dancers were crowded, they took the jostling of their neighbors good-naturedly and had as much fun, perhaps, as they could comfortably stand. Hughes put up his customary first-class band of music and Joe Mack managed to keep the human kaleidoscope, which the floor presented, from getting hopelessly tangled.

Iron Bay lodge does not seem to have lost any of its popularity. Three years ago its members gave their first ball in Fraternity Hall and thus placed themselves and the merits of their order, in a measure, before the public. The following year at their second annual event the public showed approval and endorsement by crowding the big Casino rink to its capacity and now comes their third appearance at a time generally accredited "dull," and they gather the biggest attendance of any other dance of the season, save the charity ball. The machinists may be pardoned if they conclude the public approves their methods and objects and grants a hearty and unreserved support.

The chief object of the association is that of mutual benefit and assistance. The fees and all receipts from such social efforts as that of last evening form a fund out of which members who may be ill or out of work are cared for and kept from want. During the past winter there has not been work enough for all following this line of trade and the treasury of Iron Bay lodge has been severely taxed, yet without becoming bankrupt. Not a few out of work here received needed assistance from the order while all the sick have been amply cared for.

Secondary to the benefit object comes that of closer companionship. The association has sought to unify all following the machinists' line of work, to break down all false lines of division and produce a compact whole, banded to do the most possible for each other and for their fellows. The history of the local lodge will bear out the statement that in their aims the Machinists have accomplished much and it is a matter for congratulation that the splendid and enthusiastic turnout of last night will add very materially to the necessary element in their commendable work.

Notice of the ball would be incomplete without mention of the excellent supper furnished and served by the women of the Firemen's order. There was an abundance of wholesome food and dainties to suit all palates and appetites and furnished at a remarkably low figure.

Among those on the dancing floor were noticed quite a number of visitors from Escanaba, Negaunee and Ishpeming.

Training for Society.

The school of Physical Culture opened its session at Fraternity Hall last Thursday afternoon. The talk of Mrs. Youmans to the ladies was one of exceeding interest and the exercises, given always with music, proved to be of practical value and fascination. It is the intention of the school to conduct a series of lessons in physical culture, without additional charge to the dance pupils, meeting again next Tuesday at Fraternity Hall at 4 o'clock, lesson beginning at 4:15 sharp.

Ladies not desiring dance lessons may arrange to join the physical culture class by calling on Mrs. Youmans at the Hotel Clifton. Mrs. Youmans' thorough application to this branch of culture, which she has selected as her life work, has gained for her a most favorable reputation. Her practical and efficient methods of instruction appeal to pupils of all ages and capacities and this marks one of the strongest features in her pronounced success.

The school of Physical Culture is proving a success beyond the expectations of its projectors. The classes are being very well attended and the interest seems to increase with each lesson. Marquette society may yet thank Mrs. Youmans and Mr. Hughes for sending into it many well trained recruits.

Nester Block Again Threatened.

In some mysterious manner yesterday fire broke out in the office of Cochran & Brown, second floor of the Nester block, and was discovered just in the nick of time to prevent another disastrous blaze in this building. M. H. Foad changed to be passing along the second floor in the forenoon when he saw through the glass partition of the office tongues of flame creeping two-thirds of the way up one of the window casings. He hastily summoned City Attorney Sherwood from his office across the hall and together they managed to subdue the flames by dashing water on them out of drinking glasses, the largest vessels at their command.

From the charred woodwork it is easy to see that a few minutes longer would have given the flames a start that pails of water would not easily have conquered and might have threatened the destruction of the entire block. From the fact that the waste paper basket stood directly beneath the burned window and seemed the source of the fire it is supposed that a match or perhaps piece of cigar thrown in among the papers may have started the trouble. From the waste paper the flames readily set fire to a box containing blank papers and thus to the oil finished pine woodwork. There was no one in Cochran & Brown's office at the time of the blaze and it was fortunate indeed that Mr. Foad happened along just when he did.

Opening of Navigation.

Among the first announcements of steamer lines for this season which have reached THE MINING JOURNAL office is that of the well known Lake Michigan & Lake Superior Transportation company. The managers evidently contemplate an early opening as they announce that the first boat will leave Chicago for the Soo and points beyond as soon as ice and weather may permit.

Freight will be received on and after Wednesday, April 11, at the company's warehouse, Rush and water streets, Chicago, for all points on the line and its connections. The handsome new passenger steel steamship Manitowish will enter the Lake Michigan division of the company's service about May 15th. This will be without exception the finest passenger boat sailing the great lakes and the company quite naturally expects the traveling public to take advantage of this floating palace when starting on their trips to the upper lakes.

If ice and weather are all which will prevent this company sailing their boats after next Wednesday it is a pretty safe venture to say that the deep-mouthed whistles of the Peerless, Jay Gould, etc., will soon announce their arrival off this port.

Lycium League Debates.

There was a well-attended meeting of the Lycium league in the High school building last night and the members managed to entertain visitors in a satisfactory manner. The program was opened by a recitation by Albert Jacobs, followed by a reading by Thomas Tracy.

The subject of debate was, Resolved, "That despotism is not a good form of government for an ignorant class of people." George Gatz and J. A. Thoney made a solid affirmative stand which was stoutly contested by Alfred York and O. Brown. The fight of the negative was spirited and clever but was not quite strong enough to win the day, as the jury decided in favor of the affirmative.

Then came an oration by O. Brown, a recitation by Miss L. York, rendered in excellent style, as indeed was each item of the program. The league appears to be keeping up to the highest mark with its work and non-members are showing growing interest in the deliberations and proceedings of the weekly sessions.

Call for Number Four.

Number 4 of Picturesque America has reached THE MINING JOURNAL office and is now at the disposal of subscribers. Ten cents and three MINING JOURNAL coupons are all that is necessary to secure a number of this standard work of art and literary excellence.

For the benefit and convenience of Negaunee and Ishpeming subscribers an arrangement has been made whereby the different numbers may be obtained with very little trouble. People at Negaunee may leave their dimes and coupons at Perkins' drug store and Ishpeming residents at Harwood's drug store. The forwarding of money and coupons will be promptly attended to from both these places and the delivery of numbers of Picturesque America made from them also. This will save subscribers paying postage sending for each number and help materially in the distribution.

Bring in your coupons and dimes for No. 4 and keep your files complete.

That Baby in Demand.

The story of the unfortunate girl mother who left her child at the convent a few days ago—as detailed in yesterday's MINING JOURNAL—appears to have created very general interest and sympathy. Yesterday the young girl had several woman callers at the jail all eager to convey comfort and inspire hope and cheerfulness and Justice Cray had half a dozen applications for the child, two of them being telephoned from Ishpeming. It looks as though the future of the young girl and her child is not likely to prove as dark as the events of the fore part of the week may have led her to anticipate.

New Episcopal Chapel.

Archdeacon Williams has returned from Manistique where he officiated last Sunday and will preach at St. Paul's church tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. While in Manistique he secured two desirable and centrally located lots from the company and made arrangements to begin the erection of a chapel which it is expected to occupy this summer.

Did Men Good.

Rev. John W. McCleary, who has just left Ironwood after a stay of two years, is followed by public expressions of the highest esteem not only from the congregation of St. Paul's Episcopal church but from all classes of people who appreciate his work during the fever and public distress.

Mrs. A. M. Adams has returned from Chicago with her trimmer, Miss Campbell, who will be remembered by many of the ladies, having trimmed in this city last summer.
