HILL DESERTS HIS PARTY.

Republicans and Democrats View His Tariff Speech in That Light.

NEW YORK REPUBLICANS GIVE HIM THANKS.

Disreputable Political Trickster Should Be Cast Off by Both of the Great Parties.

HE IS NOT WANTED ANYWHERE.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Senator Quay introduced a resolution, objection to the consideration of which was made by Senator Cockrell, that the senate should hold a special session on Saturday, April 21, to hear the committees of organizations of workmen of the United States in opposition to the tariff bill.

The resolution introduced by Senator Allen (Neb.) requesting the secretary of the interior to inform the senate of the names and postoffice addresses of all pensioners of the government whose pensions have been suspended or cancelled since March, 1893, and the reason for such suspension or cancellation, went over.

Senator Wolcott's resolution for the coinage of Mexican silver dollars at the United States mint was laid before the senate. Senator McPherson withdrew his amendment to insert the words "for export" as he thought Senator Sherman's amendment covered the points of his amendment. The resolution as amended was then agreed to.

The resolution requests the president of the United States, with the view to encourage and extend the commercial relations of the United States with China and other Asiatic countries, to enter into negotiations with the republic of Mexico looking to the coinage by the United States of standard Mexican dollars and that the president be further requested to report the result of his negotiations to the senate.

After some discussion of minor matters Senator Lodge rose to address the senate on the tariff. He sprang a sensation by stating he wished to make a speech which he would read from the clerk's desk. He thereupon sent up the Associated Press dispatch stating that the New York legislature has passed a resolution of thanks to Senator Hill for his speech in opposition to the tariff bill in the senate yesterday. A laughing war was waged with some applause in the gallery which the vice president quickly checked.

Senator Gray said the legislature of New York was overwhelmingly Republican.

"Yes," replied Senator Aldrich, "but not such a majority as is shown by the dispatch. The Republican majority is fourteen on joint ballot, so at least forty Democrats must have voted for the resolution."

After an executive session the senate adjourned until 12 o'clock tomorrow.

HILL RECEIVED WITH JOY.

New York Republicans Welcome the Great Peanut Politician.

ALBANY, April 10.—Assemblyman Ainsworth (Rep.) introduced a joint resolution today extending the thanks of the legislature to United States Senator David B. Hill for what the resolution terms his "masterly arraignment of the foreign policy of the present administration, his exposition of the iniquitous income tax feature of the Wilson bill and his denunciation of the un-American features of the pending tariff legislation." The resolution was adopted, 102 to 3. The assembly stands seventy-six Republicans and fifty-two Democrats.

REED TRIES TO EXPLAIN.

His Boston Tariff Speech Returns to Vex Him.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—When the house met today Mr. Reed urged that it proceed to vote on the motion to discharge the warrants issued to the sergeant-at-arms under the resolution of March 19 for the arrest of absentees. Mr. Reed contended that the report of the sergeant-at-arms should be disposed of as a matter of privilege affecting members. After some argument it was decided to allow the subject to go over until tomorrow.

The house then went into committee of the whole and resumed the consideration of the postoffice appropriations bill. In the course of the debate Mr. Bryan (Neb.), ostensibly speaking to an amendment, made a reply to the recently published letter of Mr. Reed, addressed to C. L. R. Vaughan of Hutchinson, Kan., in which Reed criticized Bryan for using and garbling in his speech made in Denver an extract from one of his (Reed's) Boston tariff speeches. Mr. Bryan stated that the extract was not taken out of its context and that he had used all of the published report of the speech. Moreover, he said that Reed's letters of explanation had reiterated practically the idea contained in the speech from which he had quoted. He proceeded to characterize the speech as an appeal to sectionalism.

When Mr. Bryan had finished Mr. Reed arose and said the incident was of little consequence. Its only significance was that Mr. Bryan had taken what he had said in Boston and had put forth in Denver as Reed's positive declaration, that the passage of the Wilson bill would result in building up western manufactures to the destruction of those in the east. He was unwilling that this mistaken expression should go abroad uncorrected. No one here would have placed a wrong construction on his speech. After some further rather warm discussion the house adjourned.

FAVOR BANK TAX REPEAL. The house Democrats caucused tonight and adopted resolutions in favor of the repeal of the tax on the notes of state banks.

ASKS CONGRESS TO PAY.

President Palmer Hopes to Have U. S. Settled With France.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—President Palmer of the World's Columbian commission is here as usual on a mission of friendship and peace and good will. He wants congress to pay $91,000 to the French government to cover the damage sustained by exhibitors from that country from the fire in the Manufacturers building, as both the board of exposition directors and the government have declined to make it good. Secretary Gresham has formally notified the French minister that the United States does not consider itself responsible for the loss of any exhibit. He calls attention to the fact that all applications for space contained a condition that the exhibitor must insure his own property and would not hold the exposition responsible for damages of any sort. He also cites the rules and regulations of the exposition to the same effect and makes a pretty clear case for the government.

But President Palmer thinks as a matter of international courtesy somebody should pay this bill, and has asked the French minister not to communicate the contents of Secretary Gresham's letter to his government until he has a chance to confer with the committee on appropriation on this subject. He has seen Secretary Gresham, who was not in very good humor and would not commit himself, but he found Secretary Carlisle of his own opinion and got from him a promise that if a bill was introduced for the purpose and referred to him he would recommend its passage. Mr. Palmer has hopes of converting Chairman Sayers, of the house committee, and will make an attempt to inoculate Mr. Holman with some of the virus of his charity. Mr. Don M. Dickinson has promised to come down and help Mr. Palmer with congress.

SEAL POACHERS WARNED.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The president today issued his formal proclamation warning all persons, whether citizens of the United States or of other countries, against violating the recent seal fisheries act of congress.

SPOONER WROTE THE ORDER.

Convicted Judge Jenkins That Its Issuance Was Legal.

MILWAUKEE, April 10.—The Judge Jenkins investigation by the subcommittee of the house judiciary committee came to a sudden end so far as Milwaukee is concerned tonight. All the witnesses subpoenaed were examined and as there is no documentary evidence to go over the affair will now be continued in Washington. The labor chiefs who testified today spoke in the same strain as those who talked yesterday.

The feature of the day was the examination of ex-Senator Spooner. When he came to the stand the questions at once toward the authorship of the injunctive order. He said he partly prepared the first application and the order was probably written by his counsel, though he did not recollect whether he assisted Mr. Miller in writing it. Judge Jenkins held the application under advisement from Monday until Tuesday before issuing the order. Spooner said he was telegraphed to come to St. Paul Dec. 12, and there had a talk with General Manager Kendrick about the reduction of the wage schedule which seemed necessary. Later he was summoned to Milwaukee to meet the receivers and Kendrick. They consulted about the new schedule and the necessity for an injunction against a strike. He had a hand in preparing the matter for submission to the court. He presented the matter to the judge and called his attention to the portion which might be open to discussion, but which he told the judge was sustainable. He told the judge of the threats of certain factions of men along the road to make trouble because of the new wage schedule. The judge took the matter under advisement and the next day issued the order.

After getting at these facts the members of the committee showed quite a disposition to discuss the legal merits of the decision, but Mr. Spooner declined. Chairman Boatner asked if it were the common practice in western courts for judges to issue permanent injunctions ex parte in chambers. Mr. Spooner replied that it was not the practice anywhere and that this injunctive order was not permanent, nor was it meant to be permanent.

BOURBON, Ind., April 10.—A passenger train on the Lake Erie & Western struck a broken rail tonight near Tyne City. The mail, baggage and smoking cars rolled down a ten-foot embankment. HEAVY FALL OF SNOW.

Fifteen Inches at Iron Mountain and Still Coming.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., April 10.—[Special.]—One of the severest snow storms of the season has been raging here for the past twenty-four hours. Fifteen inches of snow has fallen and the storm shows no sign of abatement.

HE MUST HAVE KNOWN IT.

Prosecution Develops Its Line in the Joehim Trial.

MASON, Mich., April 10.—Today's proceedings in the trial of ex-Secretary of State Joehim developed the line of the prosecution. It is in brief that the defendant could not have been innocent of the manipulation of the returns by his subordinates, the work having been performed in his private office; also that in view of his personal interest in having his own salary raised from $800 to $2,000, and the fact the vote was questioned and discussed in various aspects, it would have been impossible for him to have been ignorant of the falsification.

DID HE ROB THE COUNTY?

Theiving Treasurer Wood Suspected of Another Crime.

MARSHALL, Mich., April 10.—In connection with the disappearance of James W. Wood, grand treasurer of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Michigan, the county treasurer is now investigating his books to ascertain whether he is short through Wood's alleged embezzlement. THEY MUST GO BACK.

Governor West Insists on Returning California's Paupers to Her.

OGDEN, Utah, April 10.—Governor Waite of Colorado today wired Kelly, the leader of the Industrials here, that they could stop in and pass through Colorado. But Governor West of Utah notified Kelly that his men would be forced to return west if they refused to go that way of their own motion. Kelly submitted the matter to his men, who refused to return. The Ogden Charity society today contributed 2,000 loaves of bread, 1,000 pounds of beef, potatoes, etc., for the relief of the army. The governor and Superintendent Knapp of the Southern Pacific held an interview, ending in Knapp's refusal to haul the army back without $35 for each person, the regular fare. Later on he said he would see what could be done. The mayor has ordered provisions enough to last the army to the Nevada border. A number of the men are sick and suffering and one man died today. At last accounts the army is destined to remain all night in Ogden.

MORE MAD DOG CAPERS.

Prendergast Breaks Jail Rules and Goes to the Dungeon.

CHICAGO, April 10.—Prendergast, the murderer of Mayor Harrison, while taking exercise in the jail corridor today, sat down in a chair belonging to Guard Ray Smith. The guard told him this was against the rules and he must go to his cell if he wished to sit down. After some words Prendergast struck the guard a vicious blow on the neck and in return received a crack on the nose that started the blood in a stream. Prendergast was taken to the dungeon, struggling like a madman, where he will be kept until he behaves himself.

Just what the honest buyer knows will save him money has been adopted at

Vertin Brothers Mammoth Store,

RED JACKET, MICH.

HERE IS THE POINT. A NEW DEPARTURE. On the old plan the honest, prompt paying customer pays for the loss incurred by the dead beats. On a cash basis there are no dead beats. Today many persons pay high prices for an entire year for the sake of getting a ten or eleven per cent rebate at the close of the year. We give 20 to 40 per cent when goods are bought which knock the wind out of waiting 12 long months. You want to know how we can do it. 1st—We have no high salaried bookkeeper; no manager to pay; goods sold at small profits turned over twelve times a year for cash only will make money for us. The mistake of the pass-books are avoided. Our sales people can sell three times as many goods as the credit dealing clerks. We invite your close inspection of our prices and methods to convince you of what we have said.

OUR NEW LINE OF

Groceries and Provisions

To our large variety of Dry Goods and Clothing, etc., we have added a large department of Groceries and Provisions which we will sell at Steinmeyers & De Cremer's prices. On only a few very heavy, low priced goods will we make any freight charges, and in this case our car-load rates are very much lower than you could get freight for. So if you now send your money away for goods you will be the loser as we will sell the best goods at the same prices charged in the large cities you send to. We also save you lots of bother and expense, as well as the risk of losing your money. With us you see what you buy. Come in any time after Saturday, March 17, 1894, and we will save you from 20 to 40 per cent. (3-16-1m)

Houghton County's New Board of Supervisors Meets and Organizes.

JOHN DUNCAN IS AGAIN ELECTED CHAIRMAN.

Clearing Up Around the Old Quincy Stamp Mill Site—Personal and Miscellaneous Notes.

At the meeting of the board of supervisors held at the county clerk's office Tuesday morning all were present with the exception of E. McM Stanton, Joseph Gregory and Elmer Desvoigne. A. D. Edwards presented his credentials and was admitted to a seat on the board as supervisor pro tem in place of Mr. Stanton. Dr. G. W. Orr still retains his seat on the board from Schoolcraft township until his successor, Joseph Gregory, qualifies. Mr. Gregory is now absent in California. John Duncan was again re-elected chairman of the board and he appointed the following committees: Finance, Smith, Scott, Bentley; county buildings, Harris, Parnell, Wright; highways and bridges, Stanton, Parnell, Sheldon; county lands, Sheldon, Stanton, Gillespie; equalization, Parnell, Smith, Wright; poor, Scott, Harris, Bentley.

A communication from Register of Deeds Jashig notifying the board that the plat of the village of Houghton of record in his office had become torn and mutilated and is likely to become so defaced as to become illegible, said plat being filed in the register's office in 1855, was read and Mr. Sheldon made the following motion relative thereto, which was adopted:

Whereas the register of deeds for the county of Houghton has notified the board of supervisors that the plat of the village of Houghton of record in his office has become torn and mutilated, and whereas after due investigation this board deems it necessary to preserve the record of said plat from being lost or destroyed, therefore be it Resolved, That R. C. Pryor, deputy county surveyor, be employed in connection with the register of deeds to transcribe and re-map of a size now required by law, the plat of the village of Houghton made by Ernest F. Pletscher, surveyor, December, 1854, and recorded on pages 383 and 382 of liber 2 of deeds in the office of the register of deeds for the county of Houghton.

The usual number of bills were allowed and the board adjourned.

CALUMET. The new machine tools for the large new Hecla carpenter shop are all on hand now and in a few days they will be set up and doing work. Among those the reporter saw was a planer that will plane a stick of timber two feet square and forty feet long, the knives of which make 12,000 revolutions a minute. Two hand saws, a large one and a smaller one, are in operation. A sawing machine and a mortising machine with augurs that will make square holes of the required sizes and depth are among the novelties in wood-working machinery. The wood-turning department, formerly in the Hecla machine shop building, will be placed in the basement of the new carpenter shop. The work of turning out wooden rolls for the skip ways in the shafts is quite extensive, as over six hundred hardwood rolls per month are used.

Rehearsals for the production of "Crawford's Claim" are being held regularly three times a week in the town hall.

The roads had begun to dry up and men were about to don the garb of spring when all hopes were baffled by a heavy fall of snow Monday night.

Grabower's store is nearly completed. The glass is in and the room is all ready for the painters. He intends opening the store Saturday.

Several Baraga people attended the engineer's ball at Houghton.

The band, for whose benefit "Crawford's Claim" is to be produced, antipating the moral and financial support of their townspeople, have sent for a set of new instruments, which are expected to arrive in the near future.

The telephone formerly in Harris' drug store has been placed in Jerry Real's pharmacy where communication may be had with L'Anse.

Miss Lizzie McGillan, who visited her parents here and her sister in Houghton during the past week, has returned to Matchwood.

Mr. Louis Grabower of Marquette came to Baraga Monday and intends staying till after his new store is opened and in running order.

The Sutherland Comedy company is billed to play at the Town Hall Friday night.

Rev. Joiston of L'Anse was in Baraga Monday visiting his numerous friends.

NOT WHAT WE SAY, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla Does, that tells the story of its merit and success. Remember HOOD'S CURES.

A Surgical Operation. For the cure of Piles is always painful, often dangerous and useless, and invariably expensive; on the other hand there is a new, certain cure, perfectly painless, gives instant relief and permanent cure and costs but a trifle. It is the Pyramid Pile Cure. It is a more certain cure than a surgical operation, without any of the intense pain, expense and danger of an operation. Any druggist will get it for you.

Mrs. A. M. Adams has returned from Chicago with her trimmer, Miss Campbell, who will be remembered by many of the ladies, having trimmed in this city last summer. 4-7-3d.

It is Strange That people suffering from Piles will endure them for years or submit to dangerous, painful, cruel and expensive surgical operations, when all the time there is a painless, certain, lasting cure, which gives instant relief and costs but a trifle. It is called the Pyramid Pile Cure and can be found at all drug stores. Any druggist will get it for you if you ask him.

GALLANT KENTUCKY COLONEL.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Attorney Carlisle continued and concluded his address in behalf of the plaintiff in the Pollard-Breckinridge case today.

Colonel Thompson is an ex-member of congress from Kentucky. He made a speech of an exceedingly vigorous, not to say virulent, nature. He attacked Miss Pollard in a heated manner.

Every man in this court room has told lies about these little domestic matters. If there are any who have not they had better go out, because they are too sanctimonious.

If there had been any great men who were not fond of women they were also great hypocrites. There was Bonaparte—Washington—all of them had their affairs in love as well as in war.

HORRORS OF THE COMMUNE.

Terrible Times When Even the Women Became as Wild Beasts.

A young linesman staggered into the courtyard, bareheaded, ghastly pale, his tunic half stripped off.

With a last effort the soldier flung the woman toward us, stammering out hoarsely: "She has killed my captain; she has killed two of my comrades; she has cut my throat, and yet I bring her to you alive!"

APPEARANCES DECEIVE.

An Illustrative Instance Recently Witnessed in New York.

A young man who walked up Fifth avenue the other evening wore a silk hat and an extremely long "paddock" coat.

When a horse runs away in New York, says the Tribune of that city, there is an earnest desire on the part of all the people in the street to take a hand in the proceedings.

But the calm young man who strolled along in so leisurely a manner was evidently not going to interfere with a runaway horse.

When the horse had nearly reached him his form straightened and he became alert.

At the minute when the cab was opposite him he swung out into the middle street, and running like a deer, was almost instantly at the horse's head.

Then the young man's arm shot out swiftly, and he had the plunging animal by the bit.

As he ran he drew down the horse's head until the animal had either to stop running or stumble and break its neck.

In the crowd which pushed into the street was an impulsive old gentleman, who nervously threw open the door of the cab.

He assisted a man who was inside to alight, and then, seizing him by the arm, led him up to the young man who had stopped the horse.

He was scolding the driver in a mild voice for being so careless as to allow his horse to get the bit between its teeth.

"There," cried the excitable old gentleman, in an admiring voice, "is the young man to whom you are indebted for saving your life."

But the young "life saver" said, with almost a drawl: "No thanks are necessary. It's a very easy matter to stop a runaway horse."

Then he stooped over and rolled up his trousers, bowed to the man whom he had "saved," and, regaining the sidewalk, sauntered up the avenue.

It sometimes costs more to keep up a big reputation than it is worth.—Galveston News.

Superior Tent No. 28, K. O. T. M., last night instituted a council of the Grand Orient. There were twenty-five charter members and it required four drays to cart their remains home through the alleys at 1 o'clock this morning.

The Baptist Aid society met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Coles, High street. There was an excellent attendance. A good program was presented and the guests partook of a dainty luncheon after which the usual work of the society was taken up.

President Pearl of the city council yesterday received from the Rifles a cheque for $143, being the amount from Company G's charity entertainment allotted to this city. Mr. Pearl will probably place the money in the hands of the Benevolent society for judicious distribution.

Grabover, the pushing dry goods man of this city, will open a branch store in Baraga. The doors will be thrown open to trade Saturday and the people of that burg have the pleasure of inspecting the largest stock of dry goods, boots and shoes and clothing in Baraga county. Albert Grabover will have charge of the Baraga branch.

The chorus will rehearse tonight in Morgan Memorial chapel. A good attendance is urged particularly of those who have attended former rehearsals. The treasurer of the managing committee, who is responsible for the slight expense connected with the rehearsals, would not feel particularly put out tonight if members of the chorus were to proffer the small fee determined on at the first meeting.

THE MINING JOURNAL force had to engage a freight car last night to carry its vote of thanks to Mrs. Volk of the New Cliff for a generous and highly appreciated luncheon sent down for the midnight repast. There were sandwiches galore, cake of all brands, first class coffee, hot cream and all the necessary frills. It would not be wise to tell Mrs. Volk all the good things the boys said about her.

Ex-Mayor Sidney Adams returned yesterday from his trip to California where he spent three months looking after his fruit interests in that state. He was very much surprised to find so much snow here as the greater part of his home-coming journey had been marked by very warm weather. Passing through New Mexico he had found coat and vest a burden owing to the dizzy height to which Mercury had flown.

Rev. J. B. Bonar has reached Wilmington, N. C., where he will remain for a time. A letter received by Dr. Bonar yesterday gave a graphic and humorous description of the experiences of Rev. and Mrs. Bonar during their ocean trip from New York to Charleston. The aged divine never loses an opportunity to joke and in his letter briefly remarked that he ate heartily of the ship fare during the voyage but Mrs. Bonar, for reasons which she did not care to have explained, preferred the seclusion of her cabin or the expansive view offered from the ship's railing. Friends of Dr. Bonar will hear with pleasure that he has very materially improved in health.

A CAMEL IN GRANITE.

One to Be Found in Arizona That is a Perfect Likeness.

One of the most curious rock formations in the world is to be seen in Arizona. It is a short distance east of the stage road between Tucson and Oracle, and stands on a knoll several feet above the surrounding sandhills. When first seen the effect is startling, and the mind has to get over a shock before the peculiar object can be comprehended. It is a most perfect representation of a camel, and is formed of one piece of granite.

This curiosity, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch, is of colossal size, but perfectly proportioned. It is about sixty feet high and very wide and smooth. There are very few fissures on the surface, and they, strangely, are in the proper places to form features. The only real projection from the surface is exactly placed for an eyebrow. The two humps are plainly to be seen, and the neck is curved beautifully. The rock is really a solid piece rising from the ground, but the effect of legs is produced by a clump of dark-colored brush that grows beside the stone. The white stone shows plainly on both sides of the brush, and the effect of the legs is unmistakably produced. The strangest part of it is that it looks like a camel from all sides and at all times of the day or night. There is no disguising the resemblance.

APRIL'S NEED OF SLEEP.

Business Men, Over-Tired Housekeepers, Teachers, Students and Men and Women in the Whirl of Society Lack Rest.

Sweet sleep is nature's soft nurse. Half the fretfulness, sickness and complaining might be laid at the door of lack of sleep.

There is not one man or woman in ten thousand who can afford to do without seven or eight hours sleep. All the stories about great men and women who slept three or four hours a night make interesting reading, but no one ever kept healthy in body and mind with less than seven hours' sound sleep.

Americans need more sleep than they are getting. This lack makes them thin and nervous, weak and complaining.

But one cannot will one's self to sleep. If sleep will not come, there is an evident derangement of the nervous system. The tired, worn-out nerves need better nutrition to restore them to their healthy action. The rapid building up of nerve tissue is what makes Paine's celery compound so pre-eminently the great modern nerve and blood remedy.

Sleep is the time of lowered expenditure of nerve force and of increased repair all over the body. Paine's celery compound quiets the disturbed nervous system, feeds its impoverished tissues and robs them of all irritability; sound, refreshing sleep ensues and the tired, despairing invalid starts at once on the way to assured health and strength.

A freshness in the countenance and an absence of that pained, worn expression comes in a short time after taking Paine's celery compound. Neuralgia, rheumatism, palpitation of the heart, headaches and the host of discouraging signs of shattered nerves are banished by this great remedy. It makes people well. Students and teachers stand the fearful strain of preparing for spring examinations by building up the body, strengthening the nerves and purifying the blood with Paine's celery compound. It gives vigor to mind and body.

He Gave It Up.

The Boston Transcript tells how a teamster kept beating one of his horses unmercifully, and how the animal still refused to go forward. Unable to endure the sight of the lashes upon the horse, the lady of a neighboring house rushed out. "Oh, is there any use of whipping him so—is there any use in it?" she implored, timidly, patting the stubborn animal's head. The teamster dropped his lash. "No use at all, ma'am," he said, in a tone of resigned despair; "I've licked him till I'm tired out, and it ain't a bit of use."

Bayard Taylor's Home.

Kennett Square, Chester county, Pa., where Bayard Taylor was bred, where his home, Cedarcroft, was and where a library is to be established as a monument to his memory, is a village of about thirteen hundred inhabitants. The region has a strong Quaker element, and the pride of Mr. Taylor's neighbors in his literary distinction was tempered by what they esteemed his worldliness. It was known that he lived much as other men of the world lived and that he drank wine and smoked cigars. The good people of Kennett Square decided once, however, to forgive all this and welcome Mr. Taylor home in triumph, but many of those present at the reception were shocked by the address of a speaker from another state, who praised the honored guest of the occasion for having freed himself from narrowing trammels and lived the larger life of the great world.

NEWS OF ISHPERING.

A Suggestion from a Minnesota Town That Paralyzed Fred Collins.

INVITED TO TAKE A PUMP ALONG TO SHOW OFF HIS NEW NOZZLE.

Building Up a Trade in Farm Machinery. How a Commercial Traveler Lost His Grip.

QUITE A MODEST REQUEST

Fred Collins, who has been exhibiting the Perfection nozzle in this section for the past two or three months, very frequently receives letters from fire departments throughout the northwest asking him to visit them and show what the nozzle can do. Occasionally some very peculiar letters come to hand. A few days ago he received one from the chief of a fire department in a small town in Minnesota. In explaining what the town possesses in the way of fire fighting facilities the chief stated that they obtained water from a well fifty feet deep and that in case of fire a five-horse power pump was used to raise the water and throw it where needed. The chief was in doubt whether their outfit would be suitable for the exhibition of the nozzle. He suggested that in case their pump is inadequate they would endeavor to secure a ten-horse power threshing engine, as there were two or three of them in the town. If the three-horse engine wouldn't suffice the chief further suggested that Mr. Collins might take along a pump such as is used up in this country.

Fred thinks that letter is about the funniest thing that has struck him to date in his experience in selling Perfection nozzles, and he delights in showing it to his friends.

Farming Implements

N. Losselyong has in stock at his mammoth warehouse at the corner of Bank and Lake streets a line of farming implements. He is agent for the celebrated Champion and McCormick mowers and also carries a full line of other implements, including the Smalley Champion plows. Mr. Losselyong is making close prices on these goods and can supply any article desired in that line.

In his warehouse he has several of the machines set up ready for service and will be pleased to show them to anyone interested. Mr. Losselyong has a handling farming machinery and tools a little over a year ago. Thus far he has had a very satisfactory trade.

Yesterday morning as Mr. J. A. Deveier, a commercial traveler, was driving along Third street in the direction of the cemetery his hand satchel fell out of the cutter and has not since been found. When he reached the end of his journey he missed the satchel and immediately went back over the road, but evidently some person had picked it up. The satchel contained photographs. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving the grip at J. T. Burke's livery stable on First street.

An Improvement.

J. J. Leffler, the enterprising meat dealer at the corner of Division and Lake streets, will erect a brick-veneered barn at the rear of his lot, facing on Division street, within the next couple of months. The structure will be 16 by 35 feet, two stories in height, and will have sewer and water connections. The upper floor will be used for the storage of hay, oats, etc. It will occupy the ground on which the wooden structure at the rear of his business block stands. Work on the building will be started as soon as the frost leaves the ground.

On Monday last Mr. Leffler tore down his old slaughter house in the western part of the city. The place was being damaged by boys and as there is very little killing done here now he decided to get it out of the way and use the lumber obtained from it for firewood.

Got a Button.

C. J. Byrnes, who was recently appointed deputy counsel of the Modern Woodmen of America for the upper peninsula, has been presented with a "hustler" button by Head Counsel William A. Northcutt of Fulton, Ill., in recognition of the good work he is accomplishing in connection with the order. Since engaging with the Woodmen Mr. Byrnes has secured between seventy-five and one hundred new members for the local camp of that society. Monday evening twenty-one new members were initiated and at the next regular meeting about fifteen more will be taken in.

Death of John Coakley.

T. J. Dandon returned Monday from Menominee, where he had been called a few days previous on account of the death of his uncle, John Coakley, whose funeral occurred at that place Sunday. Mr. Coakley died of old age, he being in his eighty-ninth year. For several years prior to fifteen years ago Mr. Coakley resided at Clarksburgh and was known to many of the older residents of Marquette county.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Treloar of Champion, whose daughter died in this city while visiting friends a week ago last Monday, desire to publicly express their thanks to Mr. John Penglass and family and other friends in Ishpeming and Champion who so kindly assisted them during their bereavement. Their many acts of kindness will ever be remembered by them.

Millinery Opening.

J. H. Quinn announces his regular spring opening of millinery goods, to take place at his dry goods store in the Anderson block, 203 Main street, Thursday and Friday of this week, April 12 and 13. Miss Kennedy, who has charge of this branch, has been quite busy since her return from the market preparing a very select line of pattern hats which will be on exhibition during the opening, these being the result of her observations during her late visit to the Emporium of Fashion. These hats are exact copies of Parisian styles. The display for the season will surpass all former ones. Ladies are cordially invited to attend.

ISHPERING IN BRIEF.

Mike Griffin expects a carload of new muleh cows from below this morning.

Mrs. Boehm and her daughter Charlotte have returned from Chicago.

Miss Rose Lennon, housekeeper for Rev. J. A. Keul, pastor of St. John's church, has gone to St. Ignace on a few weeks' visit to friends.

John Milroy, superintendent of poor for the western district of the county, was down from Michigamme on a visit to Supervisor Maxwell yesterday.

An extra switch engine was set to work in the local yards of the South Shore road Monday. The shipment of ore from some of the mines has made this necessary.

Anybody who has in mind the purchase of a driving horse can find a fine one by applying at 103 South Main street, this city. See advertisement in the Marquette want column today.

About four hundred persons applied for naturalization papers here Monday. After Mr. Smith closed his office for the night about twenty-five or thirty others came around and wanted to give him their names.

The third of a series of entertainments by the Ishpeming lodge of United Workmen will be given tomorrow evening at the society's hall in the Anderson block. An interesting program has been arranged for the event.

At a meeting of Hook & Ladder company No. 1 Monday evening A. W. Gibbs resigned, his duties in connection with the water works system being such that he could not attend to the duties of a fireman. His name was placed on the honorary list of the company. James Rule, who has been an honorary member for the past six or seven months, was again placed on the active list.

THE INDIAN MONEY LENDER.

He is as Hard-Hearted and Mercenary as a Skyhook.

The Indian money lender almost everywhere is a thorough Skyhook. Rajah Brooke tells me that in Sarawak, where land may be sold for debt, unless as a penalty for swindling, and where a limit is put on the interest that his courts will enforce, the Indian money lender has been found as hard and merciless as the Chinaman and Malay are fair and reasonable. With men like these, says the National Review, and an ignorant peasantry, one would have thought that English judges would have done their best so to administer the law between the two as to give the debtor a fair chance, while allowing the creditor what was justly due. But they are so hide-bound, such slaves to the letter of the law and to English precedents, that not a helping hand can the debtor get, and the courts are mere machines which the money lender sets in motion or directs at his pleasure.

I remember a case in which a Mohammedan lady, one who never appeared in public, and the owner of a valuable village, was sued for something like fifty thousand rupees, the money advanced being, so far as I could ascertain, not more than two thousand rupees at the outside. The court of first instance, a native subordinate judge, appointed a committee to examine the creditor's accounts, which reported them as very suspicious. Still, a bond for the amount sued for had been given, and in face of rulings by the high court, the sub-judge had no alternative but to give a decree for the full sum. And an appeal to the high court of Bombay, which was prosecuted by the lady's friends, met with no success. However, the lady might have been defrauded, they decided the bond was in order and the village must go.

He Was Sensitive.

Courtesy at sea is a scarce and highly valued commodity. The mate of a whaling vessel once announced to the captain that he saw a whale breaching and blowing, and gave the location. The captain looked, and said he could not see it. The mate again announced the fact, but the captain could not make it out, and finally said, impatiently: "If you think you see a whale, go and catch him." The mate promptly ordered out a boat, and, sure enough, found the whale and captured him. He returned triumphant with his prize, and of course, the captain was highly gratified. "Mate," he said, cordially, "you have done well. You shall have the thanks of the owners and perhaps a reward." The mate replied: "Capt'n Jones, I don't want no mention; I don't want no thanks, and I don't want no reward. All I wants is civility, and that of the commonest civil kind."

SPECIMEN CASES.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawaba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by H. H. HARDY REWARDS OF GENIUS.

Millet's Widow and His Greatest Painting, "Death and the Woodcutter."

A few days ago, writes the Paris correspondent of the Philadelphia Telegraph, there passed away from a troublesome life the widow of the great artist, Jean Baptiste Francois Millet. It is rather a commentary on the strange ways of this world, the fact that the man whose picture, "The Angelus," brought so fabulously high a price, sold that and many other masterpieces for sums ranging from fifty to two hundred dollars apiece, and after toiling miserably and hopelessly in the vain effort to earn money enough to keep the wolf from his shabby door suddenly broke down under the strain and died of a malady brought on by anxiety and privation, not knowing that his fame would speedily be landed to the skies.

His family survived to see the apotheosis of his glory; but whether the fact of "The Angelus" bringing at a sale over one hundred thousand dollars consoled the artist's widow for the fact that, within a week after this amount of money had been paid for her husband's work, she herself, then in the depths of poverty, was ejected from her little house at Barbizon by the foreclosure of a mortgage for two thousand dollars and had it not been for the charity of her son-in-law, would have been reduced to begging her bread, is an unsolved mystery.

Millet's greatest work remains in Paris: it is the property, I think, of Mme. Charcot, widow of the great physician, who inherited it from her father, the celebrated millionaire tailor, Laurent Richard. It is called "Death and the Woodcutter." The grisly form has laid one bony hand on the shoulder of the old and weary man, bending under his load of wood and the worn, haggard face is raised in absolute ecstasy to meet the summons. One hand is loosening the cord that binds his burden of branches and the other is laid willingly in the welcoming clasp of the Great Consoler. It is not an illustration of Lafontaine's fable; it is merely the utter weariness of life of an unsuccessful and wretched man, translated and transferred to canvas with the intensity of personal expression that transforms talent into momentary genius and renders genius transcendent.

THE EARLIER symptoms of dyspepsia, such as distress after eating, heartburn, and occasional headache, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla if you wish to be cured.

OLD MEXICAN MINES.

All New Mexico and southern Colorado are excited over the rediscovery near Santa Fe of rich gold mines that were worked by the Spaniards more than three centuries ago and were lost during the Pueblo insurrection in 1680, when the Indians, oppressed beyond endurance, suddenly arose, massacred the priests, destroyed churches and drove the last Spaniard out of the country.

GETTING BACK AT HER.

Young Man Fined for Sassing Saloon Keeper's Better Half Retaliates.

CAUSES HIS ARREST FOR KEEPING OPEN ELECTION DAY.

Pool Rule that Won't Work Both Ways. Will Closely Consult Clock and Calendar Hereafter.

LIKELY TO GET RIGHT EVEN.

James Miller, which is said to be an interpretation of Yonkoskie, by which appellation he was known when first locating in this city, appeared before Justice Cray yesterday charged with keeping open his saloon in Fifth street Sunday and last election day contrary to law and the "peace and dignity of the people of the state of Michigan," etc. He waived examination in both instances and was bound over to the circuit court in the sum of $200 for each charge. The bonds were promptly furnished. The charges were made on complaint of John King and Fred Miller and a slight glimpse of the interior of Miller's saloon election day may throw a calcium glare on the young men's reason for causing the saloon keeper's arrest.

Monday April 2, while the electors of the Queen City were hustling from poll to poll rolling up a good fat majority for Mayor Kaufman, John King and Fred Miller whirled away the weary hours seated at a table in Miller's saloon. The demands of a consuming thirst were looked after by Mrs. Miller who acted as handmaiden to Bacchus on that exclusive festive occasion. As the wine went in the wits went out and Mrs. Miller was shortly engaged in a warm controversy with her customers during which King is said to have departed from strict parliamentary usage, showering upon the head of the gentle barmaid several offensive remarks. At least Mrs. Miller considered them of offensive enough to cause her to swear out a warrant for King's arrest and he found himself standing at Justice Cray's instead of Miller's bar the following day getting refreshment which cost him $25 and did not produce the exhilaration resulting from Mrs. Miller's potations.

It is presumed King hunted up Miller and told him about the twenty-five beautiful wheels which blind-fold justice had squeezed from his exchequer and also pointed out that it was a very poor rule that would not work both ways. He had been pulled up short for breaking one law, let his complainant be hauled over the coals for smashing another. No matter what the arguments used, Fred Miller joined issues with his chum and the saloon keeper will explain to Judge Stone how the young man happened to be in his place of business election day. It is understood that after this when Mrs. Miller deems it necessary to complain of any person as a law breaker she will first carefully consult Father Time and the calendar and run no more risks.

Played Cards for Charity.

The most enthusiastic and most largely attended card party of the season just closing, was held last evening in the New Clifton. In response to invitations from Mr. and Mrs. Volk about sixty members of the Eucbre club and the Pioneer club, the leading card organizations of the city, gathered in the spacious Clifton dining hall and for more than three hours contested briskly for both honors and prizes. The room presented a scene both animated and fascinating as the spectator looked in on the three score players evidencing all the varying phases of temper produced by the good or ill-fortune resulting from the hands they held. When the sharply but pleasantly fought battle was ended Mrs. Merritt proved the winner of the lone-hand prize. Mesdames Goodwin and Schaffer and Mr. Toombs were awarded prizes as winners of the greatest number of stars.

A well-discussed spread was enjoyed after the game which was enlivened by lively conversation and hearty laughter. All the more pronounced and relished on account of the enforced silence of the card contest. The supper was served in the accustomed finished manner of this well-conducted hostelry and added one more laurel to the collection already in possession of the host and hostess.

Sweet charity was the main object of the delightful gathering. Each member present contributed a dollar and the entire fund thus raised will be sent to swell the number of dollars so far given by Marquette citizens to help their less fortunate neighbors.

Long Nose for Opium.

Ed. O. Wood of Detroit, special agent of the treasury and one of the most valuable officers in the federal service, who spent a few days in this city two weeks ago on government business, has been in Washington and the Free Press thus recounts the results of that visit. It may be recalled that during his visit here THE MINING JOURNAL mentioned a few of Mr. Wood's exploits in running opium smugglers to earth and the following may prove interesting as showing his keen scent for the drug when the revenue stamp is absent from it.

It takes Detroit federal officers to do business whether at home or abroad, on the Pacific slope or under the eaves of the capitol of our great country. Special Agent of the Treasury Ed. O. Wood, who is now in the city, went up on Capitol Hill this evening to call on Congressman Richardson. Mr. Wood had an eye to business as well as pleasure and as he passed Quong Kee's Chinese laundry and tea store on Pennsylvania avenue, he thought he would see in and do business. This place is just at the bottom of Capitol Hill. Mr. Wood went in and mysteriously inquired if he could buy some opium.

"Very good," observed Quong Kee's eyes partner, Quong Lung, and he pressed several 5-gram cans of opium and Quong Kee showed one with the government seal and others without it. The stamped ones were worth $19 a pound, he said, and when Mr. Wood complained of the price he said they could sell the unstamped article for $14 a pound. The special agent expressed a desire to buy the cheaper article, and indicated that he wished to have it in quantity, when the speculative heathen proposed to sell it by the basketful. Then Mr. Wood informed the bland Chinese dealer in contraband goods that he was an officer of the government and promptly seized the goods and arrested the dealer. There was great commotion in Chinatown when the seizure was reported. It is the first discovery of smuggled opium that has been made in the capitol in years. Later in the evening Mr. Wood reported the seizure to Collector of Customs Molony, who is also in the city, and he assisted in securing sufficient evidence to warrant the commissioner of customs in holding Quong Lung for trial. The firm is very wealthy and owns several valuable pieces of real estate.

They Always Please.

That the young women composing the Lake Superior Mission Band of the Presbyterian church do not do things by halves was well exhibited last night by the artistic entertainment and dainty supper given at the church under their auspices. The main part of the church was centred when the Autoharp club opened the program with a selection which was encoored and responded to. Dorris King, a wee tot about four years old and two feet high, was lifted onto the platform by her father and gave in a most charming manner a short recitation which would have "brought down the house" and demanded a unanimous recall had the audience not been requested to refrain from applause as it would frighten the little artist. You see, she is not yet old enough to wish for adulation.

Mrs. Patrick, who has now become a permanent feature of Marquette musical occasions, sang acceptably a selection solo and was followed by Professor Sihler who charmed the large audience with his finished execution on the zither. To hearty rounds of applause the professor generously responded with a second selection which was warmly greeted as the first.

Mrs. A. E. Brown filled the large building with richest harmony drawn from the grand organ—the finest in Northern Michigan. Her first selection was a gavotte in E flat from Roeder which made the windows tremble and every nerve in the audience tingle with pleasure. Then she gave an odd composition from Sodermann, a Swedish Wedding march. Mrs. Brown was so continuously encoored for her pleasing selections that she was compelled to respond before the program could continue.

A sweet solo, "Homeward," well presented by Mrs. Toles, brought her back a second time and pleasantly paved the way for Professor Sihler, who repeated the triumph of his first appearance with two more zither solos. The excellent program closed with a duet, "The Pale Moon," by Mesdames Patrick and Palmer in which both voices delicately blended, the last charming tones being followed by generous and prolonged plaudits.

This concluded the feast of reason and the audience filed in such numbers as could be accommodated, down to the church parlors, where members of the band, tastily arrayed and bedecked with dainty white caps, dispensed coffee and cake at a half-dozen small tables. A more enjoyable social has not been held in this city, nor never has a better pleased audience left a local entertainment.

The Uuweloms "Beautiful."

Observer Patrick said yesterday the official snowfall was nine and six-tenths inches but every person who in the early morning plodded through the heavy, soggy banks of the "beautiful" would willingly have made affidavit it was at least two feet deep and had fish glue liberally mixed with it. At midnight Monday enough snow had fallen to whiten the ground. At 2:30 it was over ordinary shoe tops and at day-break two electric cars were joined together, forcing the heavy white mantle from the street railway tracks. Yesterday's storm was the heaviest for April since that of 1887, when a fraction over ten inches of snow fell on the 4th. There was no marked wind accompanying the fall and the heavy water-laden flakes fell where they pleased and lay there heavy as sheets of lead. During the day the snow appreciably disappeared and as the wind began veering toward the east and south by midnight and a light rain was following it is expected that not many more hours will see the ground whitened, at least with yesterday's snow.

Frenchmen Trip Lightly.

The committee from the local French societies which gave the dance last night in Fraternity hall is congratulating itself on the success of the event. Notwithstanding the very inclement weather there was a good turnout and quite naturally every one present managed to get a full share of enjoyment out of the dancing, the pace of which was set by Hughes' orchestra and controlled by Joe Mack's judicious prompting.

Refreshments were served on the stage back of the curtain by Landford French of the Brunswick and were pronounced O. K. by every couple partaking. The dance was kept up until a goodly portion had been worn off the shank of today and it was not entirely confined to our French citizens either.
