MANY CHANGES MADE.

Democratic Compromisers Bring in Numerous Amendments to Tariff Bill.

SUGAR SCHEDULE CHANGED THROUGHOUT.

Rates on Iron and on Woolen Are Increased and Generally Are Made Higher.

PRESENTED IN SECRET SESSION.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—During the executive session of the senate today Senator Jones presented the amendments to the tariff bill which were considered and agreed to by the Democratic senators known as the "compromise committee." There are over four hundred of them and they make a new bill or at least a measure greatly differing from the Wilson bill and from the senate bill in any form in which it will be presented. The amendments heretofore presented by Senator Vest and reported from the finance committee are endorsed by the compromise committee. There is a general increase of rates in the bill and in some schedules the increases are very marked.

Senator Harris announced yesterday that notwithstanding the consideration of the Chinese treaty was not finished he would oppose any more executive sessions or passing any bills during the morning hour until the tariff bill was disposed of. He also said he would now press for sessions beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning in order that more speed might be made.

The changes made in the tariff bill as a result of the Democratic compromise are in part as follows:

NEW SUGAR SCHEDULE.

The new sugar schedule provides that on and after Jan. 1, 1895, there shall be levied on all sugars not above 16 Dutch standard and on all tank bottoms, syrups of cane juice or beet juice, melada, concentrated melada, concrete and concentrated molasses a duty of 40 per cent. ad valorem, and upon all sugars above 16 Dutch standard a duty of 3-cent per pound in addition, and all sugars, etc., imported from or the product of any country which pays a bounty shall pay a duty of 1-10-cent per pound in addition; provided, that nothing herein contained shall abrogate or impair the provisions of any treaty of commercial reciprocity concluded between the United States and the Hawaiian Islands on the 13th day of January, 1875.

On and after Jan. 1, 1895, there shall be levied on molasses testing 40 degrees or less polariscope and containing more than 20 per cent. moisture and on molasses testing above 40 degrees and not above 55 degrees polariscope a duty of 2 cents per gallon; if testing above 55 degrees polariscope, a duty of 4 cents per gallon.

IRON SCHEDULE CHANGES.

The pig iron paragraph is amended to read as follows: Iron in pigs, iron kentledge, spiegeleisen, ferromanganese, ferro-silicon, wrought and cast scrap iron and scrap steel, $4 per ton. All structural shapes of iron or steel, 6-10 cent per pound. (Senate bill 35—House bill 30 per cent.) Railway bars, iron or steel, or in part steel and rails and punched iron or steel flat rails, 7-20 cent per pound. (Senate bill 22 1/2 per cent. ad valorem—House bill 20 per cent.)

CHANGES IN WOOL.

In the woolen schedule flecks, mungo, garnetted waste and carbonized nolls or shoddy are inserted and the rate is made 15 per cent. ad valorem (senate and house bills 25 per cent.) The paragraph relating to woolen and worsted cloths is changed to read as follows: On knit fabrics and all fabrics made on knitting machines or frames, not included in wearing apparel, and on shawls made wholly or in part of woolen or worsted, hair of the goat, alpaca or other animals, valued at not exceeding 40 cents per pound, 30 per cent.; valued at more than 40 cents per pound, 35 per cent. (House bill 35 per cent.—senate bill 40 per cent.) On blankets of wool and flannels for underwear and felts composed wholly or in part of wool or the hair of the camel, goat, alpaca or other animals valued at not more than 30 cents per pound 25 per cent. ad valorem; valued at more than 30 and not more than 40 cents per pound 35 per cent. ad valorem; on women's and children's dress goods, coat linings, Italian cloth, bunting or goods of similar description and all manufactures, including such as have any rubber as a component material, composed wholly or in part of wool, worsted, etc., and not specially provided for, the house rate of 40 per cent. is restored (senate bill 35 per cent.) and the following words added: valued at not over $1 per pound, 40 per cent. ad valorem; valued at more than 80 cents and not more than $1 per pound, 45 per cent. ad valorem, and all the foregoing valued at more than $1 per pound, 50 per cent. Ready made clothing composed of any of the above mentioned materials, 45 per cent. rate restored (senate bill 40 per cent.)

No change is made in the senate bill of the rate on iron ore, 40 cents per ton.

LOGGERS RETALIATION SCHEME.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Senator Lodge introduced an amendment to the tariff bill that as against Great Britain and her colonies double duties in amount of those imposed in the proposed bill be levied and 35 per cent on all articles on the free list until Great Britain shall consent to take part in an international agreement for the coinage and use of silver.

ALLEN WANTS INVESTIGATION.

Senator Allen (Pop. Neb.), who is defending Corey and his lieutenants in the police court, introduced a resolution for the appointment of a special committee of five senators to investigate the alleged clubbing by the Washington police of the leaders of the Comcon when the Coxeyites tried to break into the Capitol grounds last Tuesday. The resolution went over and probably will be called up as soon as the senate meets tomorrow. The senate spent six hours behind closed doors and then adjourned.

AFTER THE SUGAR TRUST.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The New York and New Jersey bridge bill passed the house. The committee on ways and means presented a resolution instructing the committee on rules to report a rule making it in order to amend any general appropriation bill so as to repeal the bounty on sugar or the tariff on sugar or either of them. The printing office site bill was discussed until 5 o'clock but long before that hour the debate degenerated into a tariff discussion. At 5:12 o'clock the house adjourned.

Mr. McGinn, chairman of the house committee on labor, will introduce a resolution for a joint inquiry by the house and senate into the present industrial depression and its causes, including the effects of tariff uncertainty, silver legislation, etc., and to report remedies.

WORK IS TOO HARD.

Why Croker Says He Resigns as Chief Tammany Sachem.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Boss Croker's intention of resigning as head of Tammany was authoritatively made known to leading New York members of congress today in a telegram from Croker himself. He says the work is so heavy that he is unable to stand up under it.

New York, May 7.—Concerning the report that he intended resigning the leadership of Tammany Richard Croker said today: "I have no intention of resigning the leadership of Tammany. I am going to ask the executive committee to relieve me of the routine work of the position. My physicians have advised me that I must get out of doors more. I shall ask the executive committee to appoint one or more sub-committees to relieve me of routine work."

SUCKERS RIGHTLY SERVED.

Lottery Players Cannot Obtain Their Ill-Gotten Gains.

KANSAS CITY, May 7.—Almost every mail brings a score of letters addressed to the public officials by victims of swindling lottery concerns, each of which has been doing an extensive business across the state line, under pretense of being the successor to the expatriated Louisiana lottery. The letters come from all sections of the United States and Canada and the victims all tell the same story of how they have been duped through answering nicely worded circulars of winning fortunes by the turn of the wheel. The principal concerns mentioned in the complaints are: The Louisiana Lottery company of New Orleans and Kansas City, and the E. Fox & Co., also claiming to be a Louisiana lottery. Their business is carried on through the express companies, and the winnings, the complaining writers say, they are unable to get, though they had long ago paid for their tickets.

SMALL CHILDREN DISAPPEAR.

Kidnapers Supposed to Be at Work in Missouri.

ST. JOSEPH, May 7.—The police are working on the theory that an organized band of kidnapers is at work in this city. In addition to the disappearance of W. H. Harrison, a well-known traveling man, and two little daughters of Patrick Day, the disappearance of three other small children was reported today. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Day's two daughters left home to gather greens. At night they failed to reappear. Although a search for them has been kept up ever since, nothing in the nature of a clue to their whereabouts has been discovered. Besides these, one child is also missing. All are under the age of twelve years.

These mysterious disappearances, the strangest part of which is that they all occurred in broad daylight, have so alarmed parents that little ones are guarded with the utmost zealously.

YOUNG GRIFFO WINS AGAIN.

Put Billy Murphy to Sleep in the Eighth Round.

BOSTON, May 7.—After one of the hardest fights seen in Boston for a long time Young Griffo was declared the winner over Billy Murphy at the end of the eighth round tonight. The men came together at the call and it seemed an even thing to the finish. The fight was in the Casino before 2,500 spectators.

ABBOTT AND BOWEN DRAW.

NEW ORLEANS, May 7.—Stanton Abbott of England and Andy Bowen of New Orleans fought for a purse of $2,500 at the Auditorium in the presence of 4,000 people tonight. The exhibition was clumsy and unscientific throughout. At the tenth round the contest was decided a draw and the purse was divided equally.

BARRY AND GORMAN MATCHED.

CHICAGO, May 7.—Jimmy Barry, the Chicago 105-pound champion, and Jimmy Gorman, the New York bantam, were matched today to box to a finish before the Olympic Athletic club of New Orleans for a purse of $1,000 May 31. They will weigh in at 100 pounds each on the afternoon of the contest.

Forecast of the Weather.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—9 p. m.—The weather bureau reports the following as its forecast for the next twenty-four hours: For upper Michigan: Fair; west winds, becoming variable.

MURDERED IN HIS BED.

Assassin Emptied His Shot Gun Through Window Into Victim's Back.

MASTOFF AND CORRIEK ARE UNDER ARREST.

Shocking Tragedy at Lonely Cabin Four Miles Back in the Woods From Baraga.

INQUEST IS IN PROGRESS.

L'ANSE, Mich., May 7.—[Special.]—Zadie Vizinaw, a farmer living four miles back from Baraga with his wife and family, was found dead in bed in his house Sunday morning with a load of buck shot in the small of his back. His wife went to Michigamme Friday and Vizinaw was alone in the house at the time. The bed on which he was found was close to the outside window, from which a pane of glass was broken. The shot undoubtedly came from a gun in the hands of an assassin standing outside. The doors of the house were locked on the inside.

Daniel Mastoff and Charles Corriek have been arrested on suspicion. Some sensational developments will undoubtedly occur at the inquest now being held.

The dead man was thirty years of age and bore an excellent reputation. He was a member of L'Anse lodge, No. 114, A. O. U. W., from which society his wife will receive a benefit of $3,000. His funeral takes place Tuesday and the interment will be at the Catholic mission.

COURIER-JOURNAL AGAINST HIM.

Waterloo Calls on Kentuckians to Repudiate Breckinridge.

LOUISVILLE, May 7.—The Courier-Journal, which has heretofore maintained a position of strict neutrality regarding the case of Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge since the beginning of Pollard scandal, breaks silence in an editorial declaring that Mr. Breckinridge should be beaten for renomination. The paper says:

The situation in the Ashland district, unfortunate as it is unprecedented, makes it imperative that every journal which has the good of the party at heart, which cherishes the honor of its state and which appreciates its obligations to society, shall protest with all its power against the reelection to congress of W. C. P. Breckinridge. We do not underrate what he has done for his party and the cause of tariff reform in the past. But even if his ability for future usefulness were not destroyed by the miserable scandal which has darkened his name, the party could not afford to accept his services at the price it would be forced to pay. It is idle to attempt to obscure the issue with sophistical distinctions between Colonel Breckinridge's public and private life. The case has gone far beyond the possibility of that. The question simply is, do the people of Kentucky propose to send as a representative to congress the man whom Colonel Breckinridge confessed himself to be in his testimony before a Washington jury? It is a question which transcends the limits of the Ashland district and of Kentucky itself. It is a question in which the people of the entire nation are deeply interested. That part of his speech yesterday devoted to the scandal in which he has figured were better passed over in pity. It is a strange exhibition of marvellous effrontery, wretched taste and mentally and morally oblique casuistry.

EMPEROR AS FIREMAN.

Kaiser Wilhelm Does Good Service With Bucket and Axe.

POTSDAM, May 7.—The emperor of Germany in the role of a volunteer fireman was the unusual sight at the neighboring village of Gatow this morning. The emperor was here and was notified of a fire threatening to destroy the village. He ordered out the Spandau garrison and directed engines to be sent from Berlin. Then he rode to Gatow and before the firemen arrived fought the fire in person as a member of the bucket brigade. He also wielded an axe valiantly, cutting down dangerous beams, and after the fire was out led in organizing succor for the homeless. Six large houses were consumed.

STEAMERS MUST GO SLOWER.

Barge Owners Get Injunction and Raise New Point.

CINCINNATI, May 7.—In the United States circuit court Judge Taft granted an order for two weeks restraining the steamer City of Louisville from running full speed past coal fleets. Meantime the case, which is a new one, will be heard on its merits. The petitioners are the United Coal Boat Owners of this city. They allege that the steamer imperils coal barges.

Wichita Bank Suspends.

WICHITA, Kan., May 7.—The State National bank suspended this morning. Great alarm prevails in the city as the institution was considered one of the strongest in the west. No statement of condition has yet been made.

MARQUETTE, MICH., MAY 8.

Entered as mail matter of the second class in the postoffice at Marquette, Mich.

ONE of the reasons given by Governor Rich for the appointment of Patton as senator is that he "is a representative of the young Republicans of Michigan." An excellent reason it is, too, for the younger voters of the party have not for some years been overwhelmed with recognition in the distribution of political honors. Governor Rich has a good deal more of a head for politics than most people had suspected. He certainly displayed rare judgment in selecting the new senator.

A MUSKOGON man named Campbell lays claim to the most of East End of Superior on behalf of himself and a sister who lives at Detroit, they claiming to be the legal owners of the property involved as heirs of their father and several uncles who pre-empted the land. A Duluth paper remarks that Campbell will be in more trouble than he ever experienced before if he succeeds in making good the claim raised. It is likely that if he would agree to make the present holders good for what the property cost them he could have it all without a lawsuit. Superior really isn't as lively in the market these days as it used to be when the booming times were on.

"A YOUNG LAWYER without a client," is what Luce is reported to have observed of Patton when informed that he had been given the senatorship. Well, "the atrocious crime of being a young man" is one that the new senator will get over as the years go by. He is no younger than Spooner was when he was sent to the United States senate from Wisconsin, and that state never had a more serviceable man in that body than John H. Spooner. It is to the credit of Mr. Patton that if he is a comparatively young man he is not an "old" office-seeker. As to clients, he has had his share of them. The ex-governor couldn't have been feeling well when he let that ill-natured observation escape him.

THE Lansing correspondent of the Detroit Tribune in describing the contest for the senatorial appointment, which eventuated in a victory for the supporters of Hon. John Patton, remarks that "a surprising feature in the canvass was the lack of endorsements for ex-Governor Luce. They were far less numerous than it was expected they would be, while the protests against his selection, principally because of his financial views, were numerous and emphatic." Just as they should have been. Mr. Luce has ceased to be a Republican on the financial question, the most important of those affecting the nation's interests now before the people. Holding the views he does as to what the financial policy of the government should be, it would have been a grievous mistake to have selected him to succeed the late Senator Stockbridge. THE MINING JOURNAL is pleased to know that Republicans generally objected to him on the grounds it raised against having him considered in connection with the senatorial appointment.

THE MESABA STRIKE.

The strike of the Mesaba miners came to a sudden and inglorious end Saturday, when the men were informed by Mr. Corrigan, through the citizens' committee which undertook to arbitrate the disagreement, that he had no proposition to make and did not care to receive any, as he had decided to suspend work at his mine, and would not consider a proposal from the men to return to work at the old rate. The men had gone out claiming that they could not live on the wages paid. If that were the case there was no use of going on with mining operations, for with market conditions as they are he could not pay any more for the work. He had ordered the pumps taken out of his mine and that was being done even while he was talking with the committee. His decision was unalterable and there was no use of discussing the matter further.

When this was communicated to the men they saw that the jig was up, of course, and there was nothing left for them to do but to accept the inevitable. They had succeeded in closing a mine that gave work to three hundred men, and that, with the death of the man who was shot by a deputy sheriff in self-defense, constituted the main results of their ill-advised strike.

At the other mines involved in the trouble the men have gone back to work at the old rate of wages, and everything is moving as before.

The presence of the companies of state militia sent to the range to prevent violence no doubt averted serious trouble, as the men were in a very ugly mood and the sheriff's force of deputies would not have been sufficient to restrain them.

No doubt the men are working for wretchedly low wages and have to put up with miserable accommodations. Their lot is much harder than that of the miners on the older ranges. But the mines on the Mesaba are making no sales of ore of any consequence, and those they do make are at prices so low that they can pay only starvation wages for getting out the ore, even with all the advantage that they have boasted of so much in respect to cost of production. If the men cannot live at the wages paid on that range there would seem to be nothing for them to do but quit and go elsewhere. They can compel the mines to close down, as was done in the case of the Corrigan property, but until Mesaba ore brings a better price in the market they cannot expect higher wages, and there is no sense in striking for an advance that their employers cannot grant without losing money on every ton of ore they sell.

A HOPEFUL VIEW.

In their weekly review of the financial and industrial situation Henry Clews & Co. give these reasons for anticipating a steady improvement in business from this time forward:

The weary discussion of the tariff question is apparently nearing its end, and the prospect, at the moment, is that by midsummer the bill will become law, and in a form much more satisfactory to the manufacturing interests than has hitherto been anticipated.

When that conclusion is reached, the industries and the trade of the country will be released from the bonds of suspense that has kept both idle for the last twelve months.

The present condition of the crop suggests a fair probability of an abundant harvest, which is always conducive to prosperous trade and to activity of transportation.

Europe, and especially its large industrial nations, is coming out of the severe commercial depression from which it has been suffering since the close of 1890; the recovery in England, France and Germany being especially marked. This change may be expected to show its effects in an increased demand for our exports and a better tone in the markets for our great staples, as well as in an improved inquiry for our investments at a later stage.

Europe is also emerging from its entanglements of conflicting international politics and tariffs, with the attendant constant dangers of war. For the last ten years, each successive spring has been expected to introduce some great international conflict; and, though ways have been found for staving off the seemingly inevitable struggle, yet it has been at the constantly increasing expense of exhaustive taxation and paralyzing distrust in international finance and enterprise. Thanks to the conservative councils of the emperors of Germany and Russia, there is now reason to hope that the causes of these political jealousies have been so far adjusted as to afford grounds for the hope of a lasting European peace. When these hopes come to be verified by a fuller knowledge of the facts of the new understanding, the revival of confidence at the great European centers, added to the now current improvement in commercial markets, can hardly fail to produce an unusual extent of revival in the various forms of investment, enterprise and speculation.

Next, it is to be considered that, while these influences are at work to bring about an important revival in the industries, the commerce and the financial spirit of the Old World, we are here on the verge of escape from the straits which have so long held the business of the whole country in suspense and extreme depression. Thus, on both sides of the Atlantic, we have ameliorating influences of the broadest kind coming into operation conjointly; and it is not easy to set a limit to the extent of recovery into which these tendencies may develop.

In this country the conditions favorable to a revival of business are especially important. The past twelve months of depression has been due almost entirely to artificial and accidental causes, and not to any general intrinsically unsound conditions of trade. The first contribution to the depression was a pure and simple money scare, the cause of which has already been removed by the repeal act. The next cause was a contemplated change in the productive and competitive conditions of domestic industries, which, for so long as it remained undetermined, produced a general collapse of production and a contraction of consumption. But those consequences have produced an unprecedented depletion of stocks of manufactured products. So soon, therefore, as the new tariff duties are legalized, what is there to prevent a resumption of normal activity in every branch of business, the consequent general employment of labor, and an attendant increase of consumption by the masses? The only cause of deferment of this recovery that can be reasonably suggested is the possibility that workmen may hesitate to yield the concessions in wages made necessary by the lower duties and, therefore, lower prices. As to that, it can only be said that already labor has conceded important reductions in wages, while the process of adjustment is still going on, and the real question seems to be, not whether wages will be reduced at all, but whether the concessions will equal the demands of employers. It is reasonable to expect that, when labor more fully understands the necessity for lower wages and finds that it is being compensated by correspondingly lower costs of living, there will be no great difficulty in effecting an equitable adjustment of the scale of wages. While, therefore, it is possible that some complaint may be heard of the stubbornness of the wage-earning classes, yet that is likely to prove only a transient obstacle to a complete recovery of business.

STOOD THE TEST.

Allcock's Painless Plasters are unapproachable in curative properties, rapidity and safety of action, and are the only reliable plasters ever produced. They have successfully stood the test of over thirty years' use by the public; their virtues have never been equalled by imitators who have sought to trade up the reputation of Allcock's by making plasters with holes in them, and claiming them to be "just as good as Allcock's," and they stand today indorsed by not only the highest medical authorities, but by millions of grateful patients who have proved their efficacy as a household remedy.

Beware of imitations. Ask for Allcock's, and do not be persuaded to accept a substitute.

THE GEM Pile Treatment A GUARANTEED CURE. WHAT IT IS AND WHAT IT DOES. IF YOU HAVE THE PILES, NO MATTER HOW BAD, IT WILL CURE YOU. THE GEM PILE REMEDY is the discovery of a man who for many years had suffered with a most stubborn case of piles, and who had tried many remedies without avail. He brought about a permanent cure by the use of the Gem Treatment, and since curing himself, has cured every one who has come to him with this painful malady, for treatment. The Gem Treatment is entirely vegetable and perfectly harmless. It is not repulsive; neither does it interrupt any person in the pursuit of his employment. There are no restrictions as to diet or habits. A cure is guaranteed in every case, no matter how long the patient may have been a sufferer, nor how serious the malady is. If you are a sufferer from piles, try a box. Instructions for using in every box. PRICE, $1.00 PER BOX. Manufactured by GEM TREATMENT COMPANY, Marquette, Mich. For Sale by Druggists Everywhere.

DERAILED BY THE WIND.

Strong Gale Forced Car Off Track on Portage Lake Bridge.

HAD TO BE HAULED AWAY TO CLEAR THE TRACK

Superintendent A. P. Thomas Again Stricken With Paralysis—Miscellaneous News Notes.

(All communications for copper country department intended for publication should be addressed to A. F. Isler, Houghton)

HANCOCK.

Superintendent Shields of the Mineral Range division of the South Shore says the gale of yesterday was the heaviest there for many years. Just before the arrival of the passenger train from Calumet and Lake Linden yesterday morning a freight train came slowly and carefully across the bridge from Houghton. When the caboose at the rear of the train reached the draw the force of the wind was so great as to move the draw in spite of the clutches and the car was derailed on the track. In order not to detain the passenger trains the caboose was hauled off the bridge and turned bottom upwards to clear the track.

William H. Mason and Thomas D. Mason of this place, who have had extensive wood contracts at Newberry for the furnace company there, will get home today with their horses and camp equipments, having finished their work.

Charles Rogers, who has assisted A. F. Isler at the Portage Lake end of the copper country in his MINING JOURNAL work for the past fifteen months, resigned Saturday evening to take another situation. Paul Schenk, copper country agent of the Van Blatz, Irving Company, returned from Negaunee with a splendid team of horses for delivery work. Another team will arrive in a short time for the Red Jacket agency.

The mother of Mrs. Krekela, about seventy-five years of age, died of paralysis Monday morning.

Remember the strawberry social at Germania Hall tonight.

The postoffice is now open from 9 to 10 a. m. on Sundays.

HOUGHTON.

Rice, Wolford & Sheridan's company played at the Armory Opera House last evening and will appear again tonight and tomorrow evening. This company is giving just as good satisfaction here as it has in other towns. All who see it speak in high terms of the company's scenery and acting.

During the blow of Sunday night Mr. Allan P. Rees' yacht Sylvia drifted from her anchorage to the Franklin stamp sands. The tug Valerie went to her rescue Monday about 8:30 a. m. The yacht was not damaged.

Mr. E. J. Hulbert, the discoverer of the Calumet & Hecla, has written Editor Meads of the Ontonagon Miner that he expects to arrive at New York next Saturday.

Superintendent Graham Pope went to the Conglomerate mine, Keweenaw county, Sunday morning in response to a message informing him that Superintendent A. P. Thomas was in a very critical condition from a second attack of paralysis.

Telephone and telegraph lines were out of order yesterday from the effects of the wind.

SOUTH LAKE LINDEN.

The heavy wind and sea on Sunday broke Contractor Bolman's boom at the Osceola mills and the logs drifted to the head of Torch Lake.

W. Mullins of the South Shore Houghton station took in the Hungarian Falls Sunday afternoon.

Walter King left yesterday morning for Buffalo to take a position in the office of the Calumet & Hecla smelting works.

LAKE LINDEN.

Jean Marie Daniell, aged sixty-four years, and a pioneer of this place, died at his residence near the head of Torch Lake Saturday afternoon. His funeral was held Monday morning from St. Joseph's church.

The Knights Templar of this place joined Montrose commandery at Calumet in attendance at divine service Sunday, going by special train over the Hecla & Torch Lake road.

James G. Cowan returned Friday from his visit to relatives in New York.

Many men who have been working in the woods left for Canada Monday.

CALUMET.

William S. Bennetts went to Houghton yesterday morning to meet his wife and the remains of his daughter, Mrs. Emily S. Williams. Mrs. Bennetts was visiting relatives at Phoenix, Ariz., when she received a telegram informing her of the death of her daughter at Butte City, Mont. She started for there and wired her husband that she would start for home with the remains. Mrs. Williams was well known here. The date for the funeral had not been fixed in time to announce today.

The Calumet Light Guard has accepted the invitation of the G. A. R. committee to go to Lake Linden to assist at the exercises on Memorial Day.

RED JACKET.

Presiding Elder Jacobson of the Norwegian Lutheran conference of Minneapolis left for home yesterday. He held quarterly meeting at this place Sunday.

J. Chynoweth says he has finished moving his merchandise and household goods for some time to come. He moved from the Anderson building to the Ryan building opposite the old postoffice a few weeks ago. He has now settled in Captain J. Hosking's building north of the Jewell House.

The large plate glass window of A. Ethier's store in the Shea block was broken Sunday night by the terrific wind which prevailed.

James F. Wiggins is awaiting the arrival of new fixtures before opening the saloon in the Jewell House.

Izzie Blumenthal of the Star Clothing store left yesterday morning for

Chicago and will be gone about ten days.

Sam Lawrence has removed the balance of the Ekman stock to his store in the Ryan building.

The St. Stanislaus Polish society had its annual parade and celebration Saturday.

YOUTHFUL DIVERS.

The Agility of St. Thomas Boys in Capturing Coins Under Water.

We were nearing St. Thomas, says a writer in St. Nicholas; all the passengers were on deck looking with interest at the pretty little city, with the hills at its back, and a fringe of palm trees at its feet. When within a short distance of the shore the captain signaled, down plunged the anchor, and before the water had ceased from troubling we were surrounded by a fleet. First came the fine long-boat of the health officer, with its gaudily striped awning, flag flying at the stern, and half a dozen dusky oarsmen, who rowed with great style and precision. Then there were the passenger boats, the sterns neatly cushioned, to which fact the owner called your attention while inviting your patronage. One of these men rejoiced in the possession of a tall hat, which raised him far above his fellows, while he was further distinguished by the name "Champagne Charlie." But hark! the dogs barking out to sea! Boys, boys, boys, and boys—all eager and ready for a dive!

Some one started the exhibition by throwing a dime overboard. Instantly there were a dozen pair of heels in the air—one splash and a train of shining bubbles rising to the surface showed us that the little divers were on their way down in search of fortune. The water was so clear we could see the coin slowly sinking, and see the little brown body dart after and seize it. On coming to the surface, the one who made the capture would display the coin in his hand, and then shrewdly pop it into his mouth. The cheeks of the lucky boys were round and hard as apples. It was so pretty to see the ease and grace with which they moved through the water; and they entreated for more so pleasantly (with eyes glistening and teeth shining) that the rain of silver and copper continued to fall over the rail until the ship's stock of small change was depleted.

A CIPHER TELEGRAM.

The Neighboring Country Operator Thought It Was Useful.

Another of the many good stories told at the expense of the "cipher telegram" of the modern business world came up the other day, said the New York Tribune.

A city broker, whose house is in New Jersey, was obliged by illness to lose a day from his business, so he sent word to his clerk at the office to let him know by telegram something of the day's transactions.

The hours wore on, but no telegram appeared, and the broker began to be mystified, not to say provoked, at the unaccountable negligence of his faithful clerk. The telegraph office was a mile from his home, and there was nothing to be done but to wait for the messenger, who didn't come.

Next morning the unhappy suburbanite stopped on his way to the station to make inquiries at the telegraph office. The operator was an old town gossip, with an interest in everybody's affairs, and greeted his visitor in a neighborly fashion.

"Good morning, sir; all well, I hope?"

"Yes; all right. I say, didn't you get a telegram for me yesterday?"

"Telegram for you? Let me see. Why, yes, I believe I did. But I couldn't make nothing out of it, so I didn't think 'twas worth while to send it up."

POSING AS A MARTYR.

Populist Orator Insists That Coxe is Prosecuted for His Opinions.

FACT IS THAT COXE WALKED ON THE GRASS.

Is on Trial for Violating Police Regulation for Preservation of Public Property.

MARTYR GAME IS STALE.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—The trial of Coxe, Browne and Jones of the Commonwealth was resumed this morning, the defense taking its turn. Several witnesses were introduced, mostly from the spectators of Coxe's march to the Capitol. They testified that Coxe did not walk on the grass and that Browne and many spectators went on the grass because the police drove them there from the pavements. Then Coxe took the stand and gave an outline of his movements and intentions. Then he told the story of the march to Washington without embellishments. Representative Bland of Missouri testified that the police had driven women, and children, and men over the grass in their charge. W. C. Shelby described Browne's arrest, telling how the police plied their clubs on the people. This closed the case and Assistant District Attorney Malloway made the opening speech.

Representative Hudson of Kansas, who began for the defense, said it was plain that the defendants were not tried on the technical charges against them, but because they held political opinions contrary to the opinions of those in power. "These men are not being tried for stepping on the grass," he said. "The district attorney will argue to you against Coxe himself and the Coxe movement." Mr. Hudson was followed by Mr. Lipscomb, also for the defense, and then the court adjourned.

COXEY ABDUCTED A GIRL.

MARSHALL, O., May 7.—The prospect of arrest on a criminal charge of abduction awaits Coxe and Browne when Judge Miller of Washington gets through with them. This charge arises in consequence of the appearance of the "angel of peace" in Coxe's May Day parade. The "angel" was Miss Mamie Coxe, who is still in Washington and who got there without her mother's knowledge or consent. Her mother, Mrs. Caroline Coxe, is the divorced wife of Coxe. She secured her decree on the ground of excessive cruelty and was made the legal custodian of the girl. Young Jesse Coxe was sent from Rockville, Md., and succeeded in getting his sister to run away with him. Mrs. Coxe announces her intention of having Browne and Coxe arrested the moment they put foot on Ohio soil and she may carry the war into the District of Columbia.

KELLY'S BOATS NEARLY DONE.

DES MOINES, May 7.—Kelly's army resumed work on the flat boats this morning. Ninety boats were ready last night except caulking and pitching. It is expected that the army will move some time tomorrow.

TO HIDE CRIME BY MARRIAGE.

Miner and Young Girl's Father Denied License.

PEORIA, Ill., May 7.—George Hilst and Katie Gerdes of Pekin, Tazewell county, made application before the county clerk for a marriage license, but it was refused them. Miss Gerdes is but thirteen years of age, but was accompanied by her father, who readily gave his consent to the union. County Clerk Walsh declared he would not issue the license under any circumstances, as on the face of it it was an attempt to compromise a crime.

Mr. Gerdes is a farmer and resides five miles south of Pekin. Hilst, who is a coal miner, has boarded with him for more than three years. Some six weeks ago while Gerdes and wife were at church Hilst criminally assaulted the girl and threatened her with death if she related what had occurred. She finally revealed her secret and while her father was in Pekin after an officer Hilst fled. A reward of $125 was offered for his apprehension but it was not until last week that he was captured. The case against him was continued and he gave bond. He seeks to escape prosecution and conviction by marrying the girl, who is the only person who can testify against him. After the refusal of the license the party returned to Pekin, but it is thought they will attempt to get married in some other county.

FATHER O'GRADY ARRAIGNED.

Attorneys Claim That Miss Gilmartin Tempted Him.

CINCINNATI, May 7.—Father Michael O'Grady, the Irish priest who murdered pretty Mary Gilmartin on Chestnut street ten days ago, was arraigned before Judge Kunler this morning to answer to the charge of murder in the first degree. The case promises to be one of the most interesting and notable in the history of the county. At present almost the whole weight of public opinion is against O'Grady. His counsel, however, are men of great ability, and they claim that they will be able to present a story such as Breckinridge attempted but failed in. In other words they will show the dead girl as the temptress in the Irish convent, at first ruined with his church, then deserted in a strange land and finally crazed by the perjury of his paragon. O'Grady's attorneys will maintain that the crime was the act of an irresponsible man.

MRS. LEASE FOR CONGRESS.

Much Talk of Nominating Her in Jerry Simpson's District.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 7.—There is talk here today of putting Mrs. Lease in nomination for congressman-at-large. The Populist leaders do not want to turn down Congressman Harris. They are willing, however, to give her the nomination in the Seventh district should Jerry Simpson not make the race.

CORDITE WORKS BLOWN UP.

When the Czar Buys Jewels.

The shopkeepers of Copenhagen make special preparations every year for the visit of the czar, who patronizes them extensively. He purchases goods at jewelers' shops, and gives Danish artists large orders. The jewelry is intended mostly for presents, especially among the police. The latter have during the czar's stay extra work, as they must watch sharply every stranger, and all ships and railway trains must be thoroughly examined. The Copenhagen police would not be able to do this without the assistance of the Russian secret police agents, who are there during the czar's visit. In spite of this, however, his visit is always awaited with the greatest pleasure in police circles, for their trouble is richly repaid by the large sums of money given them, and the valuable presents, such as rings, scarf pins, watches and charms.

Resuscitation Extraordinary.

A curious method of resuscitation in vogue among the miners of Scotland in the case of insensibility from exposure to choice-damp, and which is said to be very efficacious, is as follows: The half suffocated man is placed face downward over a hole freshly dug in the earth, and allowed to lie until he shows signs of consciousness. The idea involved in this proceeding is that the fresh earth draws the foul gas out of the lungs.

ARGUED WITH DYNAMITE.

Striking Miners Blow Up Engines and Boilers and Wreck Cars.

MINES WRECKED SO THEY CANNOT BE WORKED.

Ashland Ore Trimmers Fight the Police and Hunt the Mayor to Hang Him.

POOR WAY TO WIN STRIKE.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 7.—Two hundred strikers went at midnight to the mines of Thomas Price at Horse Creek, where the miners refused to join the strike. The mob blew up the boilers and engines with dynamite and then destroyed the main ways of the mine and all supplies and other railroad property.

Thence the mob marched to the Victor mines, blew up a railroad car loaded with timbers, turned several others loose down hill and wrecked them and then dispersed. Several ring-leaders are known and are being hunted. Troops are being held ready for duty in anticipation of further outbreaks.

ORE TRIMMERS RIOTING.

Mayor Seems Indiscreet in Selection of Special Policemen.

ASHLAND, Wis., May 7.—Mayor Hubbell this afternoon swore in as special police twenty-one men who are followers of Charles King, the man who has contracts with several boats to trim ore at 2 1/2 cents per ton, or half a cent less than the union price. The mayor's action angered the union men to such an extent that 400 of them this evening marched to the residence of Mayor Hubbell with the avowed intention of doing him bodily harm. The crowd could not find Mayor Hubbell and returned down town. Here they were met by a dozen special policemen appointed by the mayor and for a few minutes a free fight resulted. No one was seriously injured and the policemen arrested one of the mob. More trouble is looked for.

PLUCKY ARMLESS MEN.

Some Who Have Succeeded in Spite of Their Great Misfortune.

There are many persons who, through one misfortune or another, lose their arms. It is a terrible loss, but I have often admired the pluck and ingenuity of some persons, who would not let this misfortune overcome them. I knew a young fellow, seventeen years of age, who, at a celebration of some political victory, was aiding another young man to load a cannon, when the gun went off before they were ready, and while they were ramming home the charge, says the New York Advertiser, it blew both arms off both young men. One of them afterward died, but Bob, as we called him, survived and got well. For years he has successfully managed a good business, as the keeper of a restaurant and bakery, and employed his brothers and sisters to help him. It is wonderful how well he keeps track of the business and plans it, and he can open doors, go after the mail, and attend to a great variety of business. People who have lost their arms have become artists, some holding the brush in their teeth, and others training themselves to paint with their feet, holding the brushes in their toes. Some years ago there was in Brussels, Belgium, an artist with no hands, but who was very skillful in using his feet in painting. He handled the brushes and palette with great skill, and his paintings, which were mostly cafes, were very attractive.

Another young man, who lost both his legs and arms, learned to paint by holding his brush in his mouth, and painted sitting up in bed. Mr. Urthan, who performed in New York, is without arms, and holds a cornet in his toes and puts it to his mouth and plays, will eat and drink, feeding himself, loads and shoots guns with accuracy, and plays cards with his feet.

There are so many things that a man can learn to do, who is unfortunate, that we admire the pluck and persistence of these men, who will not let their condition chain them down, but show an adaptability that is wonderful. Let no one, no matter how unfortunate they may be, get discouraged, but strive to overcome their difficulties. They will grow stronger and be happier and better.

SUNSET COX KNEW HIS MAN.

How the New Yorker Limited the Time Allowed to Joe Cannon.

Representative Cannon, of Illinois, recently told a Washington Post man a good story on himself. It is reminiscent of the days when "Sunset" Cox was in congress. The New York representative had had some things to say about a citizen of Mr. Cannon's state, and the Illinois man wanted to defend his constituent.

"Will the gentleman from New York yield to me?" said Mr. Cannon.

"Certainly," said Mr. Cannon.

"For how long?" inquired the speaker.

"As long as the gentleman from Illinois will keep his hands in his pockets," said Mr. Cox, laughingly. Mr. Cannon accepted the terms and proceeded with his remarks. He uttered just one sentence and a half, and then his hands, which had been snugly stuck into his pockets, came out and were flying through the air like a couple of windmills.

"Time's up," said Mr. Cox, who knew his man, and then Mr. Cannon sat down.

Anybody who has seen Mr. Cannon gesticulate will appreciate the spirit with which he tells of his first and only effort to talk without the use of his arms.

Blood Poison

THE BANE OF HUMAN LIFE,
Driven Out of the System by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I was a great sufferer from a most persistent blood disease, none of the various medicines I took being of any help whatever. Hoping that change of climate would benefit me, I went to Cuba, to Florida, and then to Saratoga Springs, where I remained some time drinking the waters. But all was no use. At last, being advised by several friends to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I began taking it, and very soon favorable results were manifest. To-day I consider myself a perfectly healthy man, with a good appetite and not the least trace of my former complaint. To all my friends, and especially young men like myself, I recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla, if in need of a perfectly reliable blood-purifier."—Josi A. CITY FATHERS DELIBERATE.

Solemnly Grind Out a Big Grist of Regular Business.

COMPLETE ARRANGEMENTS FOR LAYING CORNER STONE.

Three Million Whitefish Planted in Iron Bay By Soo Branch Hatchery.

LABORERS TO GET $1.50 A DAY.

There was a deal of "legislation" up in the official civic last night and a full board of city patriarchy sat in solemn dignity making motions, amendments, reconsiderations and substitutions till the head of the un-sophisticated spectator grew dizzy and he put it out of the window to recover its balance.

Recorder Meads entertained the council and audience with a graphic account of council proceedings for the past two months, relieved at intervals by suggestions from Alderman Hennessey that certain chapters of the record be dispensed with. Then a grist of petitions was presented as follows:

From Johnson & McCarthy praying that the council appropriate a sum of money to aid in publishing their new map of Marquette. Disposed of by a resolution that the city buy $500 worth of the maps and distribute them throughout the upper peninsula as an advertisement of Marquette.

Clovis F. Duval wanted compensation for injuries received from falling on a slippery walk last winter. The matter was referred to the committee on claims, grievances and litigation.

The Marquette Opera House Building company claimed the opera house was not paying expenses, submitted documents to back the statement and asked the council to remit the license of $100. Referred for consideration and report to the finance and taxation committee.

Residents in Adams street, between Jackson and Genesee streets, and on Champion street, between Fisher and Genesee streets, were granted sidewalks and the street commissioner instructed to lay them as soon as possible.

A petition asking that no license issue for the saloon at the corner of Third and Prospect streets, was ruled out of order as the license had already been granted and the city council cannot exercise police court functions.

The Sixth and Seventh ward residents wanted an arc light at the corner of Fourth street and Hewitt avenue and the electric light and power commission was asked to place the matter under its hat.

William Frazer's application for the position of street commissioner was laid on the table.

Emil Bruce wanted the council to release his bond to the city for $2,500 as he wished to use the cash deposit in prosecuting the work and had fulfilled the requirements for which the bond was given. The request was granted.

Treasurer Mahts bond for $10,000 and liquor bonds of Andrew Trudeau and John R. Nesbitt were approved.

On recommendation of the finance committee $5,000 was ordered transferred from the general fund to the highway fund. Bluff street was ordered improved according to the petition of Alderman Hallstrom and the request of M. E. Asire and others to have a portion of Presque Isle avenue graded and macadamized was granted, both works to be done by the street commissioner and his regular force.

Special assessment roll No. 4 regarding High street sewer was ordered properly published and assessment No. 1 for the same purpose, was recalled and cancelled.

The committee on police, grievances and litigation reported that numerous complaints were being daily heard about the number of cows at large in the streets and recommended the council to divide the city into two districts and appoint two poundmasters. After some discussion the matter was referred back to the committee for fuller consideration.

The special committee appointed to arrange for laying the corner stone of the new city hall reported recommending that the ceremony take place May 14. That Judge Stone, Peter White and F. O. Clark be chief orators and that the different fraternal and civic societies of the city attend and invite sister organizations from Ishpeming and Negaunee. The stone is to be laid by the Masons with the customary ceremonies of that order and the city officials and councils of Negaunee and Ishpeming are to be honored guests of Marquette and to be entertained, together with other guests of the city, by a banquet in the evening. The South Shore road is to make a special round trip fare of fifty cents and the street railway-providing any arrangement is made to entertain the public and visitors at Presque Isle-will make a fare of ten cents, round trip. All of the foregoing struck the council as satisfactory and the report was adopted and the committee continued to make necessary arrangements.

The controller's report of audited accounts, aggregating $7,570.55, was adopted and the bills allowed on roll call.

John Charlton had sent the controller a bill for damages done by his buggy while driving along Washington street. He had run into a hole, caused by laying a water pipe, and broken a spring. The controller rejected the claim, as he thought Mr. Charlton might easily have dodged the hole, and the council backed his action.

G. H. Fraser and F. W. Sunbrook struck the same figures in bidding to supply city lumber this year and the contract was divided between them.

The park and cemetery fund got $500 from the general fund after Alderman Moore had made his regular objection to the fund being reinforced unless the commissioner reported work being done on Presque Isle.

A resolution offered by Alderman Hennessey that all laborers employed by the city be paid $1.50 a day and that nine hours be considered a day's work went through unanimously.

The council adjourned after adopting an ordinance governing matters of public health, which was presented by President Pearl.

Big Demand for Seats.

Mr. Keene is the last of the great American tragic actors now before the public. Barrett, McCullough and Booth having passed over to the great majority. Mr. Keene is now the only representative on this side of the water whose portrayals of Richelieu, "Hamlet," Louis XI, Shylock, "Richard III" and "Macbeth" have met with popular approval.

This great actor, with a competent and carefully selected company, will appear tomorrow night at the opera house in his masterly depiction of "Richard III" and Thursday evening as Shylock in "The Merchant of Venice." The interest the public is taking in this revival of the classic drama was illustrated yesterday morning by the long line of persons waiting at the box office an hour before opening time. For two hours the seats were rapidly taken. Ishpeming and Negaunee reserved an entire section, the high school pupils picked out choice seats and a number of groups of chairs were spoken for small theater parties. The engagement promises to be not only a dramatic but a social success. There are still good seats to be had and those wishing some of them should lose no time in calling at Bigelow's.

Kerber-Jacobs Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Kerber, Jacobs Redstone company was held yesterday afternoon in the First National bank. The following directory board was elected: D. W. Powell, J. H. Jacobs, Marquette; Carl Fendelsen, F. V. Gindele, Chicago; S. W. Goodale, Detroit.

The directors held a meeting and elected the following officers: J. H. Jacobs, president; Carl Fendelsen, vice president; S. W. Goodale, secretary; E. H. Towar, treasurer.

The stockholders were satisfied with the reports for the past year and the company contemplates pushing business this season. Improvements will be made at the quarries and a derrick will be built here for the purpose of transferring stone from the boats to the cars for rail shipment. The officers and directors will leave today to visit the quarries at Red Rock, Portage Entry.

Three Million Whitefish.

The Soo hatchery of the Michigan Fish commission sent a car to this city yesterday carrying 3,000,000 young white fish, which were transferred to the bay. The car was in charge of H. H. Marks of the hatchery, who looked after the planting and saw it properly done. This makes a total of 30,000,000 white fish, 500,000 brook trout and 250,000 salmon trout the Soo hatchery has sent out and has planted this spring.

A Slight Correction.

EDITOR MINING JOURNAL:—This morning's MINING JOURNAL has the following in relation to the ore trimmers cases disposed of on Saturday last:

"Mr. O'Meara was considerably influenced in his decision to drop the matter if the other side was willing on account of the prospect of further adjournment. Judge Brown was still absent from the city and a second continuance would have been asked by the men's counsel for this reason."

Mr. O'Meara's determination was in no way influenced by "the prospect of a further adjournment." Judge Brown was not "still absent from the city," but was present before the justice and ready to proceed with the trial. The marshal had prepared a list of names from which the jury were to be selected, when Mr. O'Meara declared that he desired all further proceedings to be dropped.

MARQUETTE, May 8, 1894.

THE MINING JOURNAL reporter who prepared the account of the trial can only say in explanation that his information was obtained from Judge Brown's written account of the trial and impressions received from talks with those interested. He was led to believe a continuance was asked and concluded Judge Brown was still absent. The reporter considered his sources of information reliable and must have received incorrect impressions.

THE VALUE OF BAKING POWDER.

A World's Fair Jury Settles a Much Mooted Question. The relative value of baking powder has been long discussed. The question has at last been answered by a World's Fair jury of award. Dr. Price's Cream Baking powder is declared to be the best. Several different points of superiority were claimed for it, and they were all found to exist by the jury, which was made up of scientific men best fitted to make a thorough analysis of all the various kinds of baking powder submitted for the prize. Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the United States department of agriculture, an expert and the highest authority on the healthfulness of food products in America, gave the jury the benefit of his analysis of the different brands and merit alone prompted the award.

Special attention is called to the advertisement of the Price Baking Powder company occupying the entire eighth page of today's issue.

NEARLY LOST HIS LIFE.

While Endeavoring to Beat a Railroad Out of a Ride to Ishpeming.

HOW A LUMBERMAN GOT HIS FOOT CRUSHED

Opening Day at Union Park—A Breezy Day—Ball Game Next Sunday. Society Entertainment.

HELL WALK NEXT TIME.

Thomas Murray, a lumberman, had quite an experience while stealing a ride on the northbound fast freight on the Chicago & North-western line yesterday morning. He was bound for Ishpeming and, having walked some distance between Escanaba and Lathrop, was somewhat fatigued. Reaching Lathrop he concluded he had walked far enough and sat down to await a train. He boarded the train all right and lay down on top of a box car.

At Little Lake he grew nervous, fearing the train hands would see him, so crawled between two cars and in doing this lost his hold and fell between them. His body landed outside the track but one wheel passed over his foot and fractured some of the small bones of the ankle. He wore an unusually heavy pair of boots which undoubtedly saved his foot. His cries attracted the attention of the train crew who immediately stopped the train and picked the unfortunate fellow up and brought him to Ishpeming, where he was placed in charge of the police officers.

His foot was badly swollen but apparently not seriously injured. An Ishpeming hospital surgeon attended to the injury and Murray remained in the city jail during the day. As he is a stranger here and has no friends on the peninsula he will be taken to the county house at Marquette.

Murray's object in coming to Ishpeming was to secure work on the Dead River Mill company's drive north of here.

Opening of the Park.

The lessees of Union Park held a meeting yesterday and concluded to make Memorial Day, May 30, opening day for the park for this season. They partially prepared a program for the day and intend to make it an interesting one.

Among the attractions proposed is a free-for-all trotting race and a gentlemen's driving race. Horses from any portion of the upper peninsula will be admitted to these races. There will also be a race between a horse and a bicycle rider. The distance to be run will be settled later on.

A team bicycle race between Ishpeming and Negaunee wheelmen will also be arranged for. This will make a very interesting contest as it will bring out the best riders in both cities. A baseball game between the "Setters" and a nine from some of the neighboring cities will also be one of the attractions. A tug-of-war between Ishpeming and Negaunee teams will also take place.

Each team will be composed of ten or a dozen men. There will also be cricket and football matches. If possible, clubs from this city and Negaunee will be organized to engage in these contests. The grounds are sufficiently large to admit of baseball, cricket and football being played at the same time and all can be seen from the grandstand.

In the way of prizes the management intends offering $300 in cash, to be divided to the best possible advantage. The list of prizes has not yet been arranged, but it is the intention to place the aggregate at $300.

A brass band will be on hand to furnish music and the admission fee will be reasonable. The management of the street railway line has promised to provide ample transportation accommodations.

The motor used on the snow plow will be placed under one of the open cars, so that five cars can be run.

The First Ball Game.

Manager Sinclair of the "Setters" base ball team expects to complete arrangements today or tomorrow for the first base ball game of the season, to be played at Union Park next Sunday afternoon. He is communicating with a couple of teams, one of which he feels certain he can secure. Mike Curley and Fred Webb of Negaunee, who did the battery work for the "Unions" last season, have been secured to play regularly with the "Setters." They are both fine players and will add greatly to the strength of the local team.

A. O. U. W. Entertainment.

A musical and literary entertainment will be given Thursday evening next under auspices of the local lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen. The Star Cornet band will play a few selections and there will be both vocal and instrumental music by local talent. Following the concert there will be dancing, for which the Twin City orchestra will furnish the music.

Yesterday's Gale.

The wind storm that prevailed here Sunday night and yesterday was of sufficient strength to blow down shade trees in different parts of the city. Several telephone wires were also crossed by the wind, causing some inconvenience to those having instruments. The man in charge of the system here was kept busy separating them. Aside from the damage to the trees there was no serious harm done by the gale.

The Superintendent of Poor Thinks Marriage a Winning Card in Negaunee.

HE FINDS APPLICANTS FOR AID ALL FIXED WITH FAMILIES

Lodge of Modern Woodmen to Be Organized—Pleasing Entertainment Promised—The New Orchestra

THEY'RE SCARCE IN NEGAUNEE

Superintendent Allen is of the opinion that there is a very small percentage of unmarried men in Negaunee at present. During the winter nearly every man, especially of a certain class of foreigners, who came to him for county assistance, would declare that he was married and it made but little difference how young the applicant was he invariably represented himself to be the father of from two to five small children.

A few days ago a young fellow, apparently not more than seventeen years of age, called on Mr. Allen and asked for assistance. "Are you married?" inquired the superintendent. "Oh, yes, and have two children," was the reply. This made the superintendent hot, so he showed the fellow the door as he knew that he was lying.

Church Entertainment

The entertainment to be given Thursday evening at the Methodist church will be a pleasant affair. Mr. W. L. Holmes of Detroit, the eloquist, is a fine entertainer and he will be assisted by local talent. Following is the program:

- Music... Choir Readings... Wm. L. Holmes. Quartette, "Sweet Magnolia Blooms" Messrs. Trembath, Goodman, Andrews, Readings... Wm. L. Holmes. Solo... Mrs. Dr. Hudson. Readings... Wm. L. Holmes. Instrumental music... Band Readings... Wm. L. Holmes. Quartette, "I'm Getting Old and Feeble" Messrs. Trembath, Goodman, Andrews, Treloar.

The admission will be twenty-five cents and the proceeds will go to the church fund. All will be made welcome.

To Organize Next Week

Deputy Counsel Charles J. Byrnes of the Modern Woodmen of America will institute a branch of that society in Negaunee a week from tomorrow night. He intended organizing it tomorrow evening, but owing to a number of the candidates who are going to Marquette to see Keene in "Richard III" the date was changed. The lodge will start out with a membership of thirty-five or forty. Considering the hard times and the limited amount of work Mr. Byrnes has done here, he has done well in securing so large a membership. The Modern Woodmen is an excellent society and is rapidly coming to the front as a fraternal organization.

Coming to the Front

The Twin City orchestra, composed of Negaunee and Ishpeming musicians, is fast growing in favor with the dancing people in both cities. Of late the orchestra has filled quite a number of engagements and has given entire satisfaction. It has a number of engagements booked now and expects to be kept quite busy during the next couple of months. This orchestra played for a party given at Ishpeming last evening by the ladies of the Inter-Urban Dancing club and will also play for a dance in that city next Thursday evening. Its prices are reasonable and the music furnished is good.

LOCAL LAOONIOS

Paul Scherk of Hancock did business here yesterday.

J. S. Wallace of West Superior was in the city yesterday.

A son was born Saturday last to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sawbridge.

Matt Dice is here from down the line on a visit to his sisters and friends.

George Willett is home from Newberry. He will return there in a few days.

C. A. Laurier has removed his household effects to Nesbitt's house on Lincoln street.

Christ White came down from Red Jacket Sunday on a couple of days' visit to his family.

Thomas Kuncy arrived from below Saturday with another carload of new milk cows. He also has a number of young pigs.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Quinn have returned from their wedding tour, during which they visited Mr. Quinn's old home and other places in Wisconsin.

The wind blew a board off the spire on St. Paul's church yesterday morning. It will be a difficult matter to replace it on account of its height from the ground.

Quite a number of Negaunee people will go to Marquette tomorrow evening to see Keene and his excellent company in "Richard III." The special train will leave here at 7:10.

ANCESTOR OF HOOFED ANIMALS

Its Bones Were Found in Wyoming and It Flourished 500,000 Years Ago.

In the rooms of Prof. E. D. Cope, of Philadelphia, the person fortunate enough to gain admission may see the creature which all naturalists, says the St. Louis Republic, are unanimous in pronouncing the first representative of the hoofed animal species. The animal is not alive, neither is it entire so far as flesh and blood are concerned, but to the paleontologist, who cares only for the fossilized bones, the specimen is perfect. It is not larger than a yearling calf and not nearly so tall, and was found in the Wind River country in Wyoming. Prof. Cope named it Phenacodus primævus when it was first discovered, giving it as his opinion that it was akin to a specimen which was found several years ago in France (the paleotherium), and which gave Cuvier and the other naturalists so much trouble to classify. At the time of the discovery of the French specimen the savants of Europe decided that it was the ancestor of "hoofed critters," but the Wind river fossil, which is easily distinguished as being the type of the same, is believed to be much more ancient. Cope's curiosity was found in rocks belonging to the eocene period, and the time when it grazed on the western prairies has been placed as far back as five hundred thousand years! Every bone is perfect and the specimen could not be purchased for ten thousand dollars.

Abandoned Western Farms

William Henry Bishop, writing of the abandoned farms of Connecticut in the Century, says: Nor was the inquiry largely from city men, like myself, who wished to take the places for summer homes, a demand in which some have seen the salvation of these farms, as others have seen it in more grazing, in sheep, tame deer, apples and wheat. The city men who inquire are only a very small party. The farms are being taken up by farmers for farming purposes. Many inquiries come from the west. One man that I know of, not having ready money to offer, proposed to pay for a place in bushels of wheat, at the market price, delivered at a western railway station. It is not so easy to prosper in the west as it once was, and many who have gone there turn back in desire to their New England birthplace. Prof. Brewer, of Yale, a most hopeful writer on the subject of eastern agriculture, asserts that there are more abandoned farms in Kansas than in New England, and that they are abandoned with better reason. There was a "dull streak," as some put it, in farming properly three years ago, and the issue of the catalogue coincided with the darkest moment of the depression; but the inevitable reaction set in, and it is the general testimony that ever since then things have been very much on the mend.

SWIFTER THAN IN AMERICA.

Telegraphic Business in England Compared with That in This Country.

William H. Preece, the celebrated English electrician, visited Chicago and other American cities last year, and recently published a paper in which the telegraphic systems of the two countries are compared. Mr. Preece says:

"It is quite impossible to inspect the telegraph system of the United States and compare it with our own system without drawing comparisons about the way in which the work is done in the two countries. The result of my visits to confirm my views that we do our work better in England than they do in the states. Our apparatus is better, our speed is higher. Messages are handled with greater reliability. A message can be sent and its reply received with certainty in an hour in England. I fancy such rapidity would astonish the users of the telegraph in the states, except those in such busy centers as New York and Chicago, and generally the speculative branches of the community. The domestic telegraph scarcely seems to have reached the United States, and this is owing probably to the fact that the districts of private residences, the small towns and the villages do not possess telegraph offices unless they are supplied by the railway company at the railway station or by the Western Union company, who do the work for the railway company.

"I fail to see any superiority in the manipulative skill of American operators. They certainly have not made the same advance in technical education that we have, and altogether it may be said that the management of the telegraphs in the hands of private enterprise does not compare favorably with the management of the telegraphs by the state at home. At the same time it must not be assumed, because the government has advantageously taken the telegraphs in hand at home, that such a process would be possible in the states. In my opinion it would be absolutely impossible. The civil service of the United States is in a very chaotic condition. The principal appointments are four-year appointments only and are filled politically. The reason why our post offices and our telegraph offices at home work so well is because the public exercises such a useful and such a determined supervision over the work. The free opening of the press to complaints; the readiness with which members of the house of commons ask questions—though at times, perhaps, irritating and vexatious—are undoubtedly good for the service, for they keep us all alive. Such a state of affairs is impossible in the states. The government of the United States must first reform its civil service and when it gets officials into the service whose tenure of office is secure and whose zeal is as unquestioned as it is in England, then there will be some chance of their government acquiring the telegraphs; but under existing circumstances the acquisition of the telegraphs by the government of the United States would amount virtually to the deterioration of the service."

IN THE DAYS OF OUR GRAND MOTHERS.

In the days of our grandmothers sulphur and molasses and other so-called "blood purifiers" reigned supreme in the spring time. Do you still live in the bygone days and continue the everlasting spring dosing, or have you adopted the use of Humphrey's Specifics and recognize spring by new life, flowers and balmy air, rather than by bad doses of medicine and consequent depression? When the stomach is deranged a few of No. 10 corrects the evil and you escape all the distressing symptoms of dyspepsia indigestion, weak stomach, and loss of appetite. No. 10 cures rising of food, water brash, coated tongue, yellow or earthy complexion, bad taste in the mouth, offensive breath, acid stomach, headache from indigestion, flatulence and bloating of the abdomen after eating. No. 10 consists of a small bottle of pleasant pellets just fits your vest pocket. Sold by druggists, or sent postpaid on receipt of price, 25c. or 5 for $1.25. Foremost Baking Powder in all the World.

World's Fair Medal and Diploma

AWARDED TO

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

The highest award was given on every claim, comprising superiority in leavening power, keeping properties, purity and excellence. The verdict has been given by the best jury ever assembled for such a purpose, backed by the recommendation of the Chief Chemist of the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., who made an elaborate examination and test of all the baking powder. This is pre-eminently the highest authority on such matters in America.

This verdict conclusively settles the question and proves that Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is superior in every way to any other brand.

NOTE—The Chief Chemist rejected the Alum Powders, stating to the World's Fair jury that he considered them unwholesome.

“The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table.”

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER is the standard for purity and perfection the world over, and is beyond comparison. Its purity and goodness are household words. Always full weight. Never varies. Never disappoints.

Dr. Price's is peculiarly adapted for export, as neither long sea voyages nor climatic changes affect it. Will keep fresh and sweet for years.

How Cream of Tartar Is Made.

Cream of Tartar—which enters so largely into the manufacture of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder—is obtained from the tart wines of France, Germany, Austria, etc. The Crude Tartar, called Argols, is deposited on the sides of the wine casks during the fermentation of the wine. After the wine is drawn off this crystal deposit is removed, dried and exported to America, where the elaborate process of refining goes on, producing the snow-white crystals of Cream of Tartar. Specimens of this product, in all its conditions, from the crude Argols in its original wine cask to the purified and refined article embodied in Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, were shown at the Price Baking Powder Company's late exhibit in the Agricultural Building, World's Columbian Exposition.

NOTE—The Cream of Tartar Refinery controlled by the Price Baking Powder Company is the most complete and extensive in the world.

It is a fact that certain envious manufacturers of Baking Powder, who lacked the temerity to even place their goods in competition with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder at the World's Fair, have, since it closed, advertised that they actually received an award. To an enlightened, appreciative public, comment on such an unfair and reprehensible act is quite unnecessary.
