FIGHTING OVER SILVER.

Missouri Democrats in Convention at Kansas City Wrangle Fiercely.

CHIEF FIGHT IS OVER SILVER QUESTION.

Howlers Cease "Sixteen to One" Wall and Admit Readjustment of Ratio Is Necessary.

BLAND IS THEIR IDOL.

KANSAS CITY, May 15.—The Democratic state convention assembled here today. Temporary Chairman Trimble tried to pour oil on the waters by saying this convention was not met to nominate a president. This expression was in a measure a slap at Bland. When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his talk about the first thing he uttered was a denial of Trimble's proposition. State conventions, he declared, expressed the thoughts of the people of the state, which crystallized at national conventions.

ALL YELLED FOR BLAND.

When he concluded the delegates yelled themselves hoarse for Bland but the chairman rapped them to order. Committees were then appointed and a recess taken till 3 p. m.

The convention scarcely assembled for the afternoon session when there were loud calls for "Bland" from all parts of the house. The delegates would not be quieted until they were told Bland could not then respond as the committee on resolutions was not ready to report. The convention proceeded to nominations but none were completed when the committee on resolutions arrived.

FIGHT OVER THE PLATFORM.

Two reports were submitted. The majority report renews allegiance to Democratic principles; favors a revenue tariff; denounces the McKinley act; favors an income tax; declares that under the Constitution congress has no rightful power to refuse the coinage of either gold or silver; demands free bimetallic coinage of both gold and silver and the restoration of the bimetallic standard silver as it existed prior to the demonetization of the standard silver dollar in 1873, with such readjusted ratio as may become necessary in order to maintain the two metals in circulation; opposes any further increase of the interest-bearing debt of the government; endorses the action of President Cleveland and the Democratic congress in the repeal of the federal election laws.

The minority report simply reaffirms the declaration of Democratic principles placed before the country by the last Democratic national convention.

TWO CANDIDATES NAMED.

Before a vote on the reports could be taken a motion to adjourn was made and seconded. A roll call was demanded, which now (2 a. m.) is proceeding.

The following candidates were nominated: Justice of Supreme court, Francis M. Black; superintendent of public schools, W. J. Carrington. The remaining nomination—railroad commissioner—will probably not be made until tomorrow as there are nineteen candidates in the field.

ALL DIFFERENCES SETTLED.

Great Northern Will Reinstate All Except Men Arrested.
MINNEAPOLIS, May 15.—All differences existing between the Great Northern Railway company and its employes growing out of the recent strike were adjusted tonight in a manner satisfactory to all parties. The report of the arbitration committee, which was unanimously adopted, provides for the restoration of the salaries of certain employes of the company in accordance with the original proposition and also that all classes of employes shall be taken back to work except those charged with the destruction of property or who are in the hands of the law.

MOSTLY ABOUT BRIGGS.

Leading Topics of the Presbyterian General Assembly.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 16.—The Presbyterian general assembly began its four days session here today. It is strongly anti-Briggs. Among the questions to be considered are: Proposition to frame charters of theological seminaries so that they cannot divorce themselves from the general assembly, as Union seminary did in upholding Dr. Briggs; appeal of Henry Preserved Smith of Lane seminary, Cincinnati, charged with heresy; motion to depose Dr. Briggs from the ministry for cause since his suspension; discussion of the alleged rebellious circular issued by the Briggsites; federation of the different branches of Presbyterianism.

ITALIAN CABINET SUSTAINED.

Must Be General Reform of the Public Service.

ROME, May 15.—During the discussion of the war budget by the chamber of deputies Prime Minister Crispi declared that the government must have full powers to effect economies by a general reform of the public service. The present military burdens of the country, he added, were not due to Italy's obligations to the triple alliance. All nations were pacific but were not inclined to disarm. To be in a thoroughly prepared condition for defense was the best guarantee of their independence. A motion expressing want of confidence in the government was defeated by a vote of 199 to 135.

MISSING SON RETURNS.

Delirious With Small-Pox and Was Lost for Weeks.

JANESVILLE, Wis., May 15.—Arthur Marsden, son of Supervisor Henry Marsden of Edgerton, would have graduated from Rush Medical college in Chicago this spring, but he left his seat in the midst of the final March examinations, said he felt sick and was going home. An hour later he had disappeared as effectually as if the earth had swallowed him. His parents searched high and low, but the search was fruitless. The boy was given up for lost, but today he reached home very weak and emaciated. He knew nothing, he says, until he came to his senses a week ago in a small-pox hospital in Savannah, Ills. After his discharge he got as far as Roscobel, when he ran out of money and had to write home.

SHOES WERE FULL OF FEET.

Crawled Under Bed but Did Not Hide His Boots.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown, of 1192 Sheffield avenue, returned to their home Sunday afternoon to find that thieves had been in the place. An investigation was made and a pair of boots containing the owner's feet were seen sticking out from beneath a bed in one of the upper rooms. Patrolman John McGann took the fellow to the station. When searched it was found the thief had $150 worth of jewelry in his possession. He gave his name as Thomas Jones and it is suspected that he is an old offender.

BLOOMER DAM GOES OUT.

Chippewa Falls Expects Disastrous Flood to Arrive Today.

CHIPPWEA FALLS, Wis., May 15.—The Bloomer dam, forty miles north, has gone out and disastrous consequences are looked for when the water reaches here this morning. The people living along the bottoms of the Chippewa river and Duncan Creek will not retire tonight. The storm raged furiously in this city tonight and much damage was done to the streets. The railroad bridges are being guarded by section men but it is feared nothing can be done tomorrow to save the log booms.

FATHER KILLED BY HIS SON.

Sixteen-Year-Old George Blakemore Protects His Mother.

WHEELING, W. Va., May 15.—Frank Blakemore accused his wife of kissing her brother-in-law and in his jealous rage swore he would kill her. Their sixteen-year-old son George interfered, when Blakemore seized a hatchet, started for the boy, who drew a revolver and fired two shots, both piercing his father's heart. He fell dead. The boy is in jail, but public sympathy generally is on his side.

SLEW HER BETRAYER.

Carrie Wendell Kills Faithless Father of Her Child.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Carrie Wendell of Maquoketa, Ia., this afternoon shot and killed J. P. Royal, until recently a detective employed by the Rock Island road. After shooting him she attempted to kill herself but only succeeded in making a ragged wound in her forehead, from which she will recover. Miss Wendell says that Royal was the father of her illegitimate child and had been faithless to his promises to marry her.

FOUR STUDENTS DROWNED.

Their Boat Capsized in a Squall in Boston Harbor.

BOSTON, May 15.—Some clothing and a wrecked catboat were found on Thompson's island today. Four Harvard students, W. O. Truesdale, Newark, N. J.; E. S. Bach, New York city; R. F. Brown, Philadelphia, and Frank Whitehouse, hired the boat Sunday and have not been seen since. The bodies of Brown and Bach were recovered late this afternoon.

LAND LIARS ARRESTED.

Land Office Business Is Simply Honeycombed With Perjury.

DULUTH, May 15.—United States Marshal Bede this afternoon arrested Attorney George W. Post for subornation of perjury and John Grady for perjury. The arrests are the result of investigations by Special Agent Gray, who says the perjury done before the land office is beyond computation.

MINERS AND OPERATORS

They Meet and Begin to Wrangle from the Very First.

CLEVELAND, May 16.—The conference of miners and operators assembled here today. After organization was effected the report of the committee on credentials was presented and precipitated a row. After much fiery discussion the report was adopted and the meeting adjourned till tomorrow.

COUNTY SAVED EXPENSE.

Murderer Blows Out His Brains to Avoid Arrest.

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 15.—Dave Williams last night killed Mrs. Sue McNally because she refused to reciprocate his affection. A posse ran him down this morning but he blew out his own brains before he could be disarmed.

Dalzell and Stone Renominated.

PITTSBURG, May 15.—Congressmen Dalzell and Stone were renominated without opposition today by the Republican conventions of the Twenty-Second and Twenty-third districts.

HUNDREDS ARE HOMELESS.

Fire Sweeps Through District Adjacent to Boston Baseball Grounds.

FLAMES STARTED UNDER THE BLEACHING BOARDS.

Five Hundred Families Burned Out and Property Loss Will Reach One Million Dollars.

TORCH OF AN INCENDIARY.

BOSTON, May 16.—By the torch of an incendiary tonight over a million dollars worth of property lies in ashes and over five hundred families of the poorer class, consisting of over 3,000 people, are homeless. Many of them had no time to save any portion of their furniture and are sleeping in the open air tonight. As far as can be learned only six persons were injured and none fatally.

STARTED IN BASE BALL GROUNDS.

The fire started in the Boston League Park in a pile of lumber lying under the right field bleachers. In a moment it leaped out to the seats and fanned by a brisk breeze swept towards the grand stand, the occupants of which were forced to flee for their lives. The left field bleachers were next ignited.

Meanwhile sparks had fallen upon houses on Berlin street and the flames surged toward Tremont street, reaching out to the right and left until the entire square between the ball grounds and Tremont street and extending north from Waldo street to Burke street was a mass of burning buildings.

FLAMES SPREAD RAPIDLY.

The flames then spread down towards Coventry street for three squares, devouring the homes even before the people could remove their belongings to places of safety. At 5 o'clock the flames swept across to the opposite side and soon engulfed the buildings for four blocks.

By this time the residents of tenements for nearly half a mile around had become alarmed and were moving all their property into the streets and seeking for places of safety. So rapidly did the fire eat its way, however, that those in the blocks adjoining Tremont street did not have time to save household effects and barely escaped with their lives. By 6 o'clock the conflagration had crossed Tremont to Cabot street.

FIREMEN'S EFFORTS VAIN.

Shortly after 6 o'clock several steamers arrived from Lynn, Salem, Beverly and Brookline and every effort was made to stop the fire at Cabot street, but it could not be checked and not until it had burned Cabot street half way through to Warwick street and north to Burke street was the limit of the burned district on the southeast side of the ball grounds reached.

While the firemen were fighting on this side the fire was spreading from Walpole street toward Medford place on the southwest side of the ball grounds and in half an hour all buildings in this block were in ruins and the fire burned on until it reached Ruggles street at one point and consumed houses on both sides of Chapel street and laid low structures on Sudbury street.

FIRE FINALLY CONTROLLED.

On Ruggles street on the west and Cabot street on the southeast the fire was practically stopped and at 7:30 o'clock was under control and in no danger of spreading further.

It is estimated that about one hundred buildings were burned and five hundred families rendered homeless.

A special meeting of the board of aldermen was called this evening to take action upon the case and voted to use the surplus of $4,000 now held by the trustees of the Johnstown flood fund for the relief of the 2000 people made homeless by the conflagration.

Prominent insurance men place the loss at $1,000,000 and the insurance at about two-thirds the loss.

IRON WORKERS IN SESSION.

Annual Convention of the Amalgamated Association at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, May 16.—The delegates to the annual convention of the Amalgamated association of Iron and Steel Workers assembled here this morning with President Garland in the chair. Mayor Bloss welcomed the delegates and the convention went into executive session on the wage scale for the year beginning July 1 next after which it adjourned till tomorrow.

SASH FACTORY BURNED.

Struck by Lightning and Totally Destroyed by Resulting Fire.

MERRILL, Wis., May 15.—The Central Manufacturing company's sash, door and blind factory was struck by lightning and consumed by fire today. The loss is $60,000 on buildings and $30,000 on stock with total insurance of $38,000.

Receiver for Stove Works.

NEW YORK, May 15.—A receiver has been appointed for the Simmonds Manufacturing company, makers of stoves; liabilities, $445,513; assets, $335,000.

Smith-Butler Fight Finishes.

There is another complaint against the administration. It is that Mrs. Cleveland is paying too much attention to her babies and too little to her social obligations.

The uprising against Breckenridge in his district foreshadows his ignominious defeat in his campaign for a "vindication" by re-election to a seat in congress.

The case against Attorney General Ellis is set for trial early in June, it having been put on the calendar for special call on the 4th of that month.

WE HEAR that Waite, the ambitious Menominee attorney, intends to go to the legislature from his district this year with the avowed purpose of being a candidate for speaker of the house next winter.

It is asserted that the employees of the Great Northern road will again go out and tie up the line, owing to an alleged failure of the company to abide by the terms of the agreement on which the recent strike was adjusted.

AN IMPORTANT RULING. Elsewhere we print a ruling just made by the officials of the land office here in the case of a homestead application covering a tract of land embraced in the old railroad land grant to aid in the construction of a railway line from the Wisconsin state line to Ontonagon that will definitely dispose of a large number of homestead cases if the decision of the land office officials here is sustained by the secretary of the interior.

Hereafter the land office at Marquette has held that these lands are not subject to homestead entry. On this ruling holds that they are, and on grounds that appear to THE MINING JOURNAL to be tenable and just.

The grounds on which the ruling of the local officials are based are fully and clearly set forth, and the attitude of the register and receiver seems to be amply warranted by decisions of the department interpreting the act of congress forfeiting the lands to which it relates.

awaited with considerable interest by the homesteaders up here, whose right to make entries on the lands involved has hitherto been denied under the construction given by predecessors of the present officials to the forfeiture act and the rulings of the interior department thereunder.

Important Decision of Local Land Office Officials in a Homestead Case.

U. S. LAND OFFICE MARQUETTE, MICH., May 11, 1894.

In the matter of the homestead application of Charles L. Kenzie, involving the north 1/4 of the northeast 1/4, southeast 1/4 of northeast 1/4 and northeast 1/4 of southeast 1/4 section 33, township 47 N. R. 35, Marquette, Mich.

The land embraced in this application was granted June 3, 1856, to the state of Michigan in trust to secure the construction of a railroad from the Wisconsin state line to Ontonagon in said state. (See II stat. at large, page 211. This was a present grant and passed the fee simple title burdened only with conditions subsequent to all land granted. The state could, subject to certain conditions, dispose of these lands only for the purpose of attaining the object of the grant, to-wit: the construction of said railroad.

A reference to this map or diagram shows the lands herein involved to be forfeited and to come within the scope of said act, and a reference to said instructions will show the following language used therein: "In view of said act you are directed to give notice by publication for at least thirty days, that the lands forfeited by said act have been restored and that the books of your office are open for entry of the same at $1.25 per acre under the pre-emption, homestead and other laws relating to unoffered land."

We do not find that the Honorable Secretary of the Interior has ever revoked or modified said instructions, or taken any further, or other, action with reference to these lands. All applications heretofore made for them have been rejected by our predecessors for the reason that they were approved to the state of Michigan for the benefit of the Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon Railroad company, May 16, 1873, the opinion being based on the proposition that said approval passed the legal title to said land and that only a decree of a court of competent jurisdiction annulling said approval could operate to restore the same.

We do not understand that the approval passed the legal title to said land, because at that time it was in the state of Michigan and the United States did not have the legal title to pass. The Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon Railroad could not select as indemnity lands within the granted limits of another grant, as was said by the Honorable Secretary in the case of the Northern Pacific railroad, 18 L. D., P. 256: "Granted lands are not subject to indemnity selection by the company to which they are granted or by any other company." (See also 17 L. D., P. 448.)

Even in the absence of the instructions of the general land office and the Honorable Secretary of the Interior, directing the treatment of these lands as a part of the public domain, we would not deny the power of congress to restore them, but this question has been decided many times. In case of New Orleans Pacific Railway company, 14 L. D. P. 321 this identical question was passed upon, and following the uniform decisions of the highest court in the land it was held that a legislative declaration of forfeiture was legally equivalent to a judicial recovery in all such congressional land grant cases. (See St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern R. Co. v. McGee 115 U. S. Reports P. 469, supra, Schulenberg vs Harriman supra.)

On the eighteenth day of July, 1892, the Honorable Commissioner of the general land office in the case of Daniel Erickson, which said case went upon an appeal of claimant from decision of this office on the same question, held that the forfeiture act operated to restore the land notwithstanding the approval of the same to the state, reversing the decision of this office.

On Dec. 1, 1893, the Honorable Commissioner of the general land office passed on the case of Amasa Daily, which was an appeal from the decision of this office also, and on the same question held as follows: "The records of this office show the land to have been approved to the state, as set forth in your rejection of Daily's application. The act of March 2, 1880, 25 stat. 1008 forfeited the grant to said company opposite the uncompleted portion of its road and as the tract in question is beyond the completed part of the road it must be held under departmental decision in case of New Orleans Pacific R. R. 14 L. D. P. 321, that upon the passage of the forfeiture act the tracts in question were restored to the public domain and became subject to entry, notwithstanding the previous approval of the same to the state. It is so held, and your decision rejecting said application for the reasons stated is reversed."

To the same effect is the decision of the Honorable Secretary of the Interior (Smith) in the case of Elsie A. McKernan vs Ella F. Bailey, decided on October 23, 1893. The land forfeited in this last named case had been approved to the state July 21, 1869, for the benefit of the Marquette & Ontonagon railroad company, yet it was held that when Miss Bailey tendered her declaration statement on the 10th of April, 1889, the land involved belonged to the public domain by the terms of the act of forfeiture hereinbefore mentioned, and the fact that the title to the land was erroneously believed to not be in the United States is no excuse for a failure to pursue the remedy of appeal.

As applications for lands of this character have been heretofore uniformly rejected by this office and as we have been requested to pass on this question by the applicant presented, accompanied by the request of the claimant that we set forth our reasons for our conclusions with reference thereto, and also for the purpose of calling the attention of the Honorable Commissioner of the general land office to the situation of these lands, and our action herein so as to best enable him to correct the action of this office should it be found to be in error; and believing it to be our duty to pass upon all applications presented at this office in conformity with the law and the rules of the department as we understand them, we will accept the application for the reasons herein set forth, in the belief that we are acting in harmony with the rules of the department and the principles of justice.

AN INSECT COMMUNITY.

Socialism and Communism in Successful Operation Among the Wasps. Wasps act as architects, builders, carpenters and papermakers. They go abroad into the fields and gardens in search of provisions; with their keen care for the public welfare they eat out the sunny side of your peaches and carry away meat from the lamb chops in your larder.

Every successful wasp, when he returns to the nest with a piece of prime beef or a wingless fly, or a cargo of sugar saved for the community from the grocer's barrel, perches on the top of the dome among his assembled fellows, and, disgorging all spoils, divides them equally among nurses and paper-makers. His two main doctrines are, "If any wasp will not work, neither shall he eat," and "Every wasp to labor according to his capacity, and receive according to his needs, in a free community."

Division of labor, I believe, goes a long way in the nest. Some of the workers seem to be specially employed as foragers and soldiers; others appear to be told off as nurses and guardians, while yet others are engaged as paper-makers and masons. It is even said that these last work by definite shifts (I know not on what authority), and that they each have a space of about a square inch allotted to them to fill with cells, on which no neighboring worker is permitted to encroach with impunity.

LAKE LINDEN. Attorney Halsey of L'Anse was in town Monday evening.

The firemen expect a large attendance at their ball next Friday evening.

C. E. Berry and family have moved to Baraga.

MANCOCK. A letter received from Great Falls, Mont., where so many copper country workmen have gone, states that there are about a thousand idle men at that place but that good men from Lake Superior have a better opportunity for getting employment than others who are unfamiliar with the class of work required.

Prosecuting Attorney Streeter was at Justice Finn's court Monday afternoon to attend to the case of Joseph Pettier, accused of stealing hay from Andrew Johnson's barn. After hearing the testimony the court sentenced Pettier to pay $20 and costs or to spend sixty days in the county jail.

The reported case of attempted robbery at North's store on the Quincy hill Sunday evening turned out to be a case of bad whiskey that made a young man so wild that he did not remember his parents smashed the store windows. His parents paid the damage and the complaint previously made was withdrawn.

Rice, Wolford & Sheridan's company has been playing to good houses in St. Patrick's Hall. The company gives a matinee this afternoon and plays "Underground" this evening. The satisfaction that this company has given will assure it full houses should it ever return to the copper country.

HOUGHTON. Superintendent Evans and daughter returned yesterday from Great Falls, Mont.

Father Eis arrived here Tuesday noon.

NEWS OF BARAGA.

Checkers seems to be the favorite sport here during the disagreeable weather and if THE MINING JOURNAL reporter is any judge of the game Baraga has some first-class players. Sunday the Stars and Stripes team were defeated by the Rivals, score 15 to 5. The Rivals expected to beat their opponents, but those imported players from down the road didn't show up to good advantage.

The members of the fire department downed their rubber goods Monday night and turned the water on just for practice. It would seem that the more existence of the department keeps fires away. The boys have been called out but twice in the last half year.

Several bridges and culverts on the roads leading out of town need looking after. The highway commissioner had better look after these dangerous places or some one will be trying to recover damages.

In the absence of some of the members of the council Monday night a very peaceful meeting was held. Business was promptly attended to and everybody seemed happy.

The band practiced regularly and is beginning to turn out what critics would consider pretty fair music. One of the features of the ball game Sunday was the music furnished by the band.

During the fine days so far this spring a number of small sail boats were out on the bay. Sailing seems to be a more popular pastime here now than ever before.

The Bruce, one of Nester's tugs is ready to go into commission as soon as required. The Colton has been doing work for Hebard of Pequaning.

Baraga is becoming quite popular among the travelers. They prefer stopping here over Sunday rather than up the road.

The fair at L'Anse Tuesday night for the benefit of St. Joseph's church was largely attended. A number went over from here. A curio gatherer here is the possessor of an almanac of 1763, published by Nathaniel Ames.

John Funke has started his mill and intends to work a night shift shortly.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

Is What Makes a Remedy Valuable.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Are Good Because They Do Good—Because They Cure.

Testimonials are good things, and we are always glad to get them, but they don't make our remedy any better.

They prove that the Tablets have helped other people, but it is yourself you are most interested in, and whether they will cure you is the question. It is very easy to find out—try them. A package only costs fifty cents. They are worth that if they only help you a little bit. The chance is worth taking.

We put it on that basis because you don't know about the Tablets. If you knew as much as we do, you would have perfect confidence. We have seen them cure the very worst cases of Dyspepsia. Cases of long standing and obstinate—cases that all other medicines and even the best doctors had failed to subdue.

We honestly and firmly believe that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best medicine ever prepared for the cure of stomach troubles. Don't mistake our meaning. We don't claim that the Tablets will cure anything but Dyspepsia and stomach disorders. Just the one thing is what they are made for, but that one thing is the cause—the starting point of nearly all the sickness in the world. Keep your stomach in good condition, and you can never be very sick.

Here are a couple of testimonials if you care to read them. We have thousands of them. Each package of the Tablets contains a lot of them.

I received your tablets and gave them a thorough trial. They did me so very much good that I have recommended them very highly to my friends and the result has been that I have got orders for eighteen packages which I want you to send me as early as possible. I am a responsible business man and refer you to the First National bank of Pittsburg.

Yours truly, HARRY HANES, Furniture and Carpet House, 635 Wabash street, Pittsburg, Pa.

Please send my wife another box of your Dyspepsia Tablets, as her health is improving very rapidly.

With many thanks, SAMUEL R. LUKE, Springfield, Mo., Box 468.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are prepared by Stuart Chemical Co., Marshall, Mich., and are sold by all druggists at fifty cents a package.

A Genuine Castle in the Air. It will be quite in order now for every world's fair to try to eclipse in point of novelty all of its predecessors.

Antwerp is in line with a castle in the air in the form of an immense balloon. This will be anchored by strong cables, and will float some hundreds of feet above the ground. Elevators holding about a dozen persons will make trips consuming from six to eight minutes.

The gas bag is to be made of extra heavy fabric, and every precaution is to be taken to insure safety; a necessary precaution when one reflects that the balloon must sustain a large car, fashioned after the kiosk idea, as well as the cables, of which there are upward of thirty, and the entire elevator machinery. It will unquestionably be a novelty, but one that timid and conservative persons will be quite willing to study and admire at a distance.—N. Y. Ledger.

Flower Ghosts. Any child who wishes to see the ghost of a flower has only to make a very simple experiment. Let him go up to a cluster of blossoms and look very intently for several minutes at one side of it. Then very suddenly he must turn his gaze upon the other side of the same cluster. He will at once distinctly see a faint and delicate circle of colored light around this second half of the cluster. The light is always in the hue which is complementary to that of the flower. The specter of the scarlet poppy is of a greenish white. The ghost of the primrose is purple. The ghost of the blue fringed gentian is of a pale gold tint. In these circles of light are always faintly but clearly seen.—St. Louis Republic.

TARIFF MILL GRINDS ON.

Senate After Seven Weeks Still Engaged With the Chemical Schedule.

TREASURY ESTIMATE OF CUSTOMS REVENUE

Hatch Thirsts for the Gore of Hopkins and Invites the Latter to Say It Outside.

END IS NOT EVEN IN SIGHT.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Senator Allen (Neb.) introduced a resolution calling on the secretary of the treasury for information as to the number of persons engaged in protected industries; the number whose wages are claimed to be affected by protection; the proportion of the population of the United States dependent on foreign markets for the sale of their products; the number of native-born citizens, naturalized citizens and aliens engaged in protected industries; the proportion of native-born or naturalized citizens now being replaced in protected industries by aliens.

After some discussion as to whether the information wanted was in the possession of the treasury department, Allen declaring that he knew that such a resolution was passed in 1886 and a comprehensive answer returned, the resolution went over until tomorrow and the senate then took up the consideration of bills on the calendar.

COMPROMISE AMENDMENTS ADOPTED.

The Jones amendment restoring the rate on coloring for brandy, wine, beer and other liquors (50 per cent.) was adopted; also the Jones amendment transferring from the free list and making dutiable at 10 per cent. drugs and woods used expressly for dyeing. The Jones amendments increasing the duty on sulphuric ether from thirty-five to forty cents, on nitrous ether from twenty to twenty-five cents and on fruit ethers of oil or essences from $1 to $2 was agreed to; also the Jones amendment placing a duty of five cents per pound on licorice. The Jones amendments placing an additional duty of 30 per cent. on calcined magnesite; on epsom salts of one-fifth cent and reducing the duty on morphine from seventy-five to fifty cents per ounce, were agreed to and at 5:40 o'clock the senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

ESTIMATE OF REVENUES.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Senator Voorhees, chairman of the finance committee, today submitted to the senate the treasury estimate of the revenues which will be derived under the rates proposed by the latest senate revision of the tariff bill as compared with the rates under the McKinley law and those under the house bill. The estimate is based upon the importations for the last year. The estimate shows that if the pending bill becomes law $96,454,219 will be collected. Under the house bill the collections would be $49,108,011 and under the McKinley act they were $73,846,452. The greatest difference is in the sugar schedule, which under the senate bill will yield $43,478,957, under the house bill $16,832 and under the McKinley act yielded $193,294.

NAVAL BILL IS PASSED.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The naval appropriation bill was taken up when the house met. Mr. Cummings' substitute providing that hereafter no naval cadet shall be appointed who is not an actual resident of the congressional district which he is appointed to represent, was agreed to. Mr. McKeljohn offered an amendment providing for the appointment of a select committee of nine members with full power to investigate the alleged armor plate frauds by the Carnegie Steel company and the assessments of penalties made against that company by the president. Mr. Cummings made a point of order against the amendment which the chair sustained. When the consideration of the bill in committee was concluded the committee rose and the bill was passed.

HATCH THIRSTS FOR GORE.

The agricultural appropriation bill was then taken up and read in full. During the reading Mr. Hopkins accused Mr. Hatch of "juggling" with the salaries in the department of agriculture. Mr. Hatch angrily retorted that he would not allow any such imputation on his action and assured Mr. Hopkins that if he (Hopkins) had made any such remark outside the house he (Hopkins) would have had the words rammed down his (Hopkins) throat. No amendments had been made to the bill when the committee rose and the house adjourned.

THE SOCIETY GIRL.

Her Life Not Solely One of Pleasure and Selfishness.

The society girl is popularly supposed to belong to the butterfly order of women. Her sisters, less fortunate than she, who have to toil and spin, fancy her a radiant being with heaps of beautiful clothes to wear, unlimited money to spend, luxurious food to eat and passing her life in a whirl of delightful engagements. Sometimes they speak of her in a cynical manner, imagining that in her life of pleasure she is idle and selfish, absorbed in that which can give her gratification and minister to her vanity.

The young woman plodding along patiently day by day through rain and sleet to her place behind the counter thinks of the society girl at the same hour making her leisurely toilet, and if the former be weak and silly, she feels a slight pang of envy as the contrast in their lives presents itself to her mind. She girds at the idleness of this other girl, for whom everything is done, and who may buy what she chooses.

In point of fact, there are few people busier than the society girl. In the first place, it is no light task to keep up a wardrobe such as one needs who is perpetually going to luncheons, dinners, and receptions. One or two gowns in a season are not enough; there must be bewitching changes for numerous occasions. Every costume must have its dainty accessories—gloves, fans, slippers, ribbons, laces, flowers, and what not. The slightest carelessness in the details of a beautiful costume may ruin its effectiveness. All fathers are not equally lavish, and all society girls do not possess an income commensurate with their wants. Some of them have to skimp and plan in a way that is very trying. Possibly the other girl, whoever she is, would not wish to change places if she were behind the scenes.

The society girl's life, even if she be the airiest of butterflies, implies a certain amount of devotion to classes of various sorts, which are fashionable if they are nothing else, and they are a great deal else. Browning, Shakespeare, and Tennyson the girl must have at her fingers' ends. She must be clever at repartee. She must have on hand plenty of the small change of conversation, must understand classical allusions, and must be able to hold her own in the battlefield and shuttlecock of gay talk which goes on among clever people. All this makes study and application essential to some extent.

Whatever had been uppermost, the girl must have her white hand in it. Whether or not she likes cards, she must at least have a bowing acquaintance with the scientific game of whist, though she will be wise to abstain from that intellectual amusement unless she can hold her own to the satisfaction of her partners. A stupid whist-player in society is a decided bore, not accepted serenely by any means.

It goes without saying that the society girl keeps up her music. If she does not herself play, she at least understands what is good in music, and hears the best singers and players, and has her enthusiasms for which she is ready to do battle valiantly.

As there are but twenty-four hours in the day, one must be alert in order to keep up with everything which the social life of a city presents, and the society girl has always her favorite philanthropies. If a series of tableaux is given in aid of an orphan asylum or a fresh air fund she must bear her part. She is not without interest in fairs and festivals, and often as manager of an institution or member of a benevolent association she is pledged to raise a liberal amount of funds necessary to carry these on. To do this requires an immense amount of ingenuity, exertion and personal magnetism.

In her club or clubs she prepares and reads papers, takes a hand in discussions, is responsible for a share in whatever the club has on hand.

It must be acknowledged that the society girl sets a good example in one regard. She is almost always a specimen of high health and of beauty. Her regular bathing, her out-door exercise, her horseback-riding and tennis-playing, and the long walks she takes, give her firm muscles, bright color, and a general air of vigor.—Harper's Bazar.

TRAMPS ARE TURBULENT.

Eldon Refuses to Feed Kelly's Bum-botsmen and Orders Them to Move On.

DEPUTY SHERIFFS ASSAULTED WITH STONES.

Coxey, Browne and Jones Denied New Trial and Must Appear Thursday for Sentence.

SENSIBLE AND PLUCKY TOWN.

ELDON, Ia., May 15.—One hundred boats of Kelly's navy are camped half a mile below the city tonight. The rest are scattered on shoals, rocks and sand bars for ten miles above. The Rock Island has run all its engines out of the city, taking this precaution against attempts to steal trains. Deputy sheriffs were in profusion and had orders to allow none of Kelly's men to land. One boat did so and the deputies ordered it to move on. As they passed the Commonwealers threw stones at the sheriffs. Two men were arrested and gave bonds for their appearance in the mayor's court in the morning. There was more trouble between the Kellyites and the deputies this evening. Deputy Alex Nelson was hit by a stone. George Jones was arrested for the assault on Nelson. Several Commonwealers were clubbed in the disturbance.

OTTUMWA, Ia., May 15.—Kelly's navy rose early and had breakfast. The authorities ordered the men to move at noon and the start was made at that hour. Eldon is the next objective point. The people there intend to keep the navy out of the city and will refuse to feed them.

NEW TRIAL IS DENIED.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The trio of Commonwealers, Coxey, Carl Browne and Christopher Columbus Jones, met with another rebuff in the police court today. After six hours and a half spent in arguments on the motion for a new trial Judge Miller overruled the motion and notified the defendants to appear Thursday for sentence. Mr. Pence gave notice that he would apply to the District supreme court for a writ of certiorari to restrain the police court from exercising jurisdiction in the premises and would also ask that the United States marshal be restrained from obeying the orders of the police court.

Affairs were very quiet today in the Coxey camp at Bladensburg. But few visitors were at the camp and the number of men seems to be dwindling.

STOLEN TRAIN CAPTURED.

GREEN RIVER, Wyo., May 15.—The Industrials with the stolen train on the Union Pacific arrived here early this morning 200 strong. Marshal Rankin with a force of armed deputies stopped them and the engine was run into the round house. The Commonwealers left the cars and went into camp.

TRAIN-STEALERS KICKED OFF.

GOSHEN, Ind., May 15.—About daybreak this morning sixty-eight Commonwealers under the command of Sullivan captured an east-bound Lake Shore freight train. They held possession until Butler was reached, fifty miles down the road, and there they were made to dismount.

COXEY NAMED FOR CONGRESS.

CANTON, O., May 15.—The Eighteenth district Populist convention held here today nominated Coxey for congress, endorsed his plans and denounced the Washington police for clubbing Brown.

Illinois Veterans in Session.

ROCKFORD, Ills., May 15.—The twenty-eighth annual encampment of the Illinois Grand Army of the Republic opened this afternoon with a parade in which over two thousand veterans participated.

DATE OF THE EXODUS.

It Would Seem to Lie Somewhere Between 1430 and 1300 B. C.

Although the monuments and papyrus give us no direct information upon the subject of the exodus, they do indirectly indicate a certain period within which it must have taken place, says a writer in Scribner's Magazine. "Thothmes III., who was the most powerful king of that dynasty (the eighteenth) which finally drove the Hyksos invaders out of Egypt and reunited the whole country under one scepter, extended his conquests as far as Mesopotamia, overrunning Palestine on his way. He left lists of the conquered nations, but does not mention the Israelites among them. Rameses II. of the nineteenth dynasty, the supposed oppressor, who reigned about two hundred years later, also subdued Palestine and left lists of the conquered peoples, but he, again, does not mention the Israelites among them. What is, perhaps, still more important is that, while the Israelites have left records of invasions by Mesopotamians, Moabites, Canaanites, Midianites and Philistines, they do not mention any invasion by the Egyptians, and the conclusion is that the Israelites were not settled on the west side of Jordan till after the wars waged by Rameses II. at the commencement of his reign, which began not earlier than 1888 B. C., or, as some now say, 1906 B. C. It has been attempted to explain this difficulty away by suggesting that Rameses II. kept close to the seacoast on his march through Palestine and did not strike inland till he was some distance to the north of the Israelites, but it is inconceivable that he should not have secured his long line of communications by establishing posts so far inland that they must have been brought into contact with the Hebrews if the latter had at that time been settled in their own country. The earliest date, therefore, at which the Egyptian history will permit the exodus to have taken place, even when full allowance is made for the time spent by the Jews in the wilderness and in conquering Palestine, would seem to be about 1430 B. C., while, if the shorter chronology be adopted, it could not have been much earlier than 1300 B. C.

HER HAIR FULL OF WEALTH.

How a Young Lady Stole Gold Dust and Diamonds.

"A young lady employed by a gold and silversmith in New York has only her good looks to thank for the fact that she was allowed to resign without being prosecuted for theft," remarked a resident of Brooklyn, according to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. "She has an extraordinarily fine head of hair, which she allows to hang loosely over her shoulders and nearly down to her waist. From time to time it was noticed that the gold used in the room in which she worked did not go so far as it ought in making jewelry and gem settings, and that even allowing for the filings, which are most carefully preserved, there was a distinct leakage.

"Steps were taken to subject the employee to a more rigid search, but no discovery was made until the young lady with the long hair quarreled with her roommate over a love affair, and in a fit of jealousy her rival gave away the most interesting story. The young lady had kept her hair well greased, and then while at work would frequently pass her fingers through it casually, as though it were a mere matter of habit.

"By the process she accumulated a good deal of gold dust in her hair and sometimes dropped some diamond chips as well. Every night she combed out her locks with the smallest of tooth combs, carefully collecting the peculiarly purified treasure-trove and sold it without any difficulty. She broke down completely when taxed with the offense, made restitution as far as she was able, and her tears and promises were so profuse that she was then allowed to depart in peace, although her employers somewhat inconsistently took measures to prevent her obtaining further employment in the business in which she was an expert."

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

James McKenna was up from the Soo yesterday. Lawson Webster of Ishpeming visited friends here yesterday. The Charity Chorus will rehearse to night in Morgan Memorial chapel.

Ex-Governor David H. Jerome of Saginaw is a Queen City guest at present. A new baseball club is organizing and will shortly announce its membership to the public.

Mrs. J. W. Stone and family returned yesterday after four months absence at Old Point Comfort and Washington.

It was noted that not a few of those who had so bravely bestrode prancing steeds Monday afternoon seemed to have a strong predilection to an upright posture yesterday.

Thomas Marshall, late night clerk of the Hotel Marquette, now has a position as porter at the prison. George Bourque succeeds him at the Marquette.

W. W. Cady has been appointed by Superintendent Lytle to succeed T. F. Riley as South Shore agent at Bessemer. Appointment to take effect May 15.

The heaviest rain fall and first genuine electrical storm of the year wasted its fury on Marquette all yesterday making almost every street a miniature stream.

The United States local inspectors of steam vessels left yesterday for the Grand Haven district to make inspections at different points. They will be absent about two weeks.

Inadvertently the name of Dr. Youngquist, one of Colonel Kaufman's most efficient aides in Monday's parade, was omitted from the list published in yesterday's MINING JOURNAL. The omission was due solely to pressure towards press time.

Gaw, 123 Superior street, places an advertisement in this issue announcing a closing out sale during which he will sacrifice prices on watches, clocks, jewelry, etc. Everything at half price. The big stock of music recently bought from Stanton Rowell will go at five cents a copy.

The Marquette Ideal orchestra was in great demand Monday. In the afternoon its members played as part of the Marquette City band. In the evening from 6 until 8 o'clock for the reception and banquet to visiting aldermen and the remainder of the day and part of the next for the Masonic banquet. The music was pronounced excellent, particularly some of the newer Spanish waltzes, which were called for a second time. Manager Hancock invites attention to the orchestra's card and says he is ready to take care of all bookings.

From The Republic Press, conducted by the New York Printing company, comes a neatly-bound little book of 134 pages on "Uses of Compressed Air" from the pen of Addison C. Rand. The volume is replete with excellent half-tone illustrations and is a model of tasteful press work. It contains clear descriptions of the air compressor, applications of compressed air to tunneling and drilling, pumps and pumping, railway appliances, operating shops, tools and engines, guns, torpedoes and tubes, aeration and atomizing and application of air pressure. The book will be found of decided value to engineers and mechanics.

BEESEON'S MARINE DIRECTORY. Beeson's ever valuable and always welcome Inland Marine Directory for 1894, has reached THE MINING JOURNAL'S marine table. This is the seventh annual edition of the work and it is as much of an improvement on last year's issue as that was on those of previous years.

A total of about 5,000 vessels with the owner's names and residences, where and when built, gross tonnage and class appear on its pages. Thirteen hundred of these are Canadian craft of which for the first time a complete list appears in this directory.

Besides a list of vessels the book contains a wealth of tabulated data regarding marine matters, which are of the greatest value and almost every ship builder and chandler of any note in the world has placed an advertisement in its pages. Among manufacturing concerns doing marine work is noticed the Lake Shore Iron works of Marquette. Their page is entirely taken up with a well executed half-tone engraving representing Light House Point during a storm. The idea is a happy one and is the best possible advertisement this enterprising company could have adopted.

Each year Beeson's directory improves and increases in value until it is one of the handiest reference books of the local editorial desk. The book may be had for $5 of the publisher, Harvey C. Beeson, Chicago, Ills.

ACCOUNTING FOR GOUT.

Hereditry and the Present Evil Passions in the Soul of Man.

If we are really to take human nature exactly as we find it and provide respectably for its manifold demands, heaven help our descendants! The imperious natures of our grandfathers called out for wine in such liberal quantities that they ended their repasts under the table. Thence the imperious nature of our gout. Truly a more insane mistake than that of consulting the mass of evil habits, evil hereditry, evil instincts which flourish in that rich soil which our social system has provided for so many centuries, is hard to conceive; yet the practical person enjoys the credit of calm and mature judgment who assures us that in all these matters the nature of man must be our guide.

It is in vain to oppose it. One forgets that just such an individual can found a robust dynasty of tyrants in his body and his soul, so can an entire race enthral itself; in which case, however, be it observed, the demonic possession will not be regarded as disease, but as a normal state, which indeed it is, but not the healthy or the necessary one. The practical person is opposed to revolutions, even when directed against the tyranny of evil habits. When such habits engender gout and rheumatism and consumption and heart disease, the sufferers have to bear their pains, for they have not yet found the means to thrust these things directly on to other shoulders.

But when the folly and wickedness that circulate in the blood, bequeathed by the sins of ancestors, break forth in the form of fierce passions, then their force may be expended to the injury of other human beings who are plentifully provided by the foresight of society as its scapegoats. All pain and trouble thus are spared—for the moment—to the heir of the ages. He settles his account later on.—Westminster Review.

—William, the German name, signifies defending many. It has always been a favorite name in royal families.

SPECIAL RATES FOR HUNTING, FISHING AND CAMPING PARTIES.

The South Shore have placed on sale at their Marquette, Negaunee and Ishpeming ticket offices, excursion tickets to the stations on their Duluth extension west of Nestora to Lake Gogebic inclusive, at the very low rate of single fare for the round trip. HARD ON STENOGRAPHERS.

New York Is No Place for the Idle or Incompetent.

A High Standard of Proficiency Set by Employers—Applicants Are Subjected to a Thorough Examination.

That New York is the grand center for competent stenographers and a short-lived rendezvous for incompetents is frankly admitted. Yet, of the estimated thirty thousand stenographers and typewriters in the city to-day, the proportion who are a credit to the shorthand profession is said to be surprisingly small. A veteran phonographer in touch with the progress of the art recently said: "Here in this city there are every year a legion of young people who commence the study of shorthand through the ill advice of parents or friends, without making the first inquiry into the mental or physical qualities requisite in the make-up of a skillful stenographer; hence it is that only about one person in twenty ever reaches the goal of success."

One instructor says much more is expected of a stenographer to-day than ever before, and more talent is required here in New York city than in any other place he knows of in this country. Business men no longer tutor and humor incompetent employees. Schools are demanding a higher standard of excellence than ever before. We will not recommend a pupil for a position until he has passed a technically rigid examination in taking from dictation and properly transcribing all forms of office correspondence, legal matter in the form of complaints, answers, affidavits, agreements, testimony, specifications, amendments and other details. Besides this, we frequently dictate extracts from magazines, newspapers and encyclopedias.

Only a few years ago the prediction was made that shorthand schools must decrease their production of graduates, or, as a natural result, one of two things was imminent among shorthand writers—a reduction of wages or a raising of the degree of excellence required for the obtaining of employment. The latter alternative seems to be rapidly approaching. Probably fifty per cent. more shorthand skill and general education is to-day required to hold a good position in New York city than was needed five years ago. When questioned as to this the above instructor said:

"Work here is done quickly and systematically, and the stenographer who succeeds in this busy metropolis must know a great many things besides having the mere ability to make marks and operate a typewriter. He must have education, skill and discernment, and be able to use shorthand and to typewrite with great intelligence. One year's training in a business house here is conceded to be as valuable, from a practical point of view, as three years' training in many other large cities.

"That this fact is rapidly becoming known and appreciated is shown by the steadily increasing number of young people who come here from a distance to learn and practice the art. They come to this city from Florida, Kansas, California, Cuba, Spain, and, indeed, from all over the world; yet, despite this great influx, salaries here range higher than in any other part of the country. In Chicago, for instance, many stenographers last summer accepted positions at three or four dollars less per week than they would receive here.

Our best short-hand schools now require an entrance education. Candidates for admission are closely examined in spelling, punctuation, penmanship, English composition, geography and many other vital points, and there is no hesitancy in rejecting any applicant who is disqualified. Only a few years ago the average speed necessary to answer the requirements of an amanuensis was seventy to one hundred words per minute, while at the present time a rate of less than one hundred and twenty words per minute is deemed inadequate.

"Of high-grade stenographers," said Mr. Snyder of the Remington bureau, "there is not half enough to meet the demands. Through this agency alone, three thousand stenographers and typewriters were last year recommended to paying positions. Of this number, probably two-thirds were young women.

"It is curious to note," he added, "that the young men who come to New York from the country meet the requirements far better than those who are residents of the city. The former come here with a definite aim and purpose, look upon their position and surroundings more seriously, and work with much greater earnestness and sincerity."

MORE DEATHS THAN BIRTHS.

A Rapid and Ominous Decrease in the Population of France.

Statistics are very dull, and dullness is a thing to be shunned by all well-regulated persons, says a writer in the Philadelphia Telegraph, but an article has just appeared in the Journal Officiel which is not quite uninteresting to France and the French. During the year 1893 the deaths in France exceeded the births by over twenty thousand. Hitherto the population had been about stationary, but this national deficit is serious. The French, from the highest to the lowest, do not care for large families, alleging, justly enough, that children are expensive articles. Did not a cook the other day lay her woes over the death of her first born open to her sympathizing mistress? "That baby cost me first and last not less than three hundred dollars," quoth the bereaved mother, "and after all that expense it only lived three weeks!" The birth-rate is about as usual in France, at the ratio of twenty-two births for every thousand inhabitants, but the increase in mortality is frightful, and is attributed by the medical authorities entirely to grippé, which they state has made more victims than the great cholera epidemics ever killed in one year. It is also solemnly set forth that the children who were born at the time of the war of 1870 are adding to the mortality by expiring now; but as these great medical lights state that the children born during the siege generally died in their infancy, owing to their privations, it is difficult to see why the mortality among the "war babies," as they were called, should have ceased for twenty whole years to spring up again suddenly. However, there is the unpleasant fact that the population of France, if something is not done, will speedily resemble, in this large and pleasant land, the relative proportions preserved by a single huckleberry sailing gravely in a very large bowl of milk.

TRUE GENTLEMEN.

Rough Workmen Who Are Respectful to Women.

It has been demonstrated on many occasions that it is not necessary for a man to have his clothes cut in the latest fashion, to have diamonds sparkling on his shirt front and to wear silk underwear in order to come under the head of "gentlemen." An example of this is given daily on Plum street, near Twelfth, says the Cincinnati Times-Star. The thoroughfare above the last named street is used by the young ladies of the college of music, who live in the West end, for by using the rear entrance to the college they save themselves a walk of almost two squares. Just below the entrance to the college is located one of the large depots of the Cincinnati Ice company, and here daily there are from six to ten men employed loading the wagons of the company. In order to do this it is necessary to lay a chute from the house to the wagons, and in no case have the men failed to remove the chute in order to let the young ladies pass. In other ways, too, do these rough, honest fellows show their respect for the ladies, and it is an accepted fact at the college that it is much safer and more pleasant for a young lady to go by the way of Plum street than to run the gauntlet of the medical students on Twelfth street. The ogling and the remarks that are usually made when a young lady passes a crowd of well bred (?) young men are entirely foreign to these men, and they show their deference for the fair sex by being discreetly quiet and keeping their eyes to themselves.

Horace Greeley once wrote to an applicant for a job: "My friend, if you are indeed qualified for a first-rate proof-reader or can easily make yourself so, you need never fear. But don't fancy the talent and knowledge required for a mere secretary of state, president or any such trust will be sufficient."

"Sometimes," said a New York citizen, "you drop a penny in the slot of a candy machine and it doesn't work; you go on and leave your penny behind. It is not unusual to see small boys try the machines that are within handy reach as they pass along. It costs nothing to try and sometimes they get returns; it may be that the pull they give is just the one that was needed to make the machine work."

The Horace Greeley statue committee in New York has issued an appeal for subscriptions to enable it to complete the Horace Greeley statue. Oliver Summer Teall has practically assumed the labor of raising the money.

SCIENCE HAS DONE IT!

How Food Is Artificially Digested Before Being Eaten.

A WONDERFUL PROCESS.

It is Revolutionizing Modern Living and Certain to Advance the Condition of the Nation.

But a short time ago some eminent scientists made a great discovery. They discovered that fats and oils didn't fatten this people. Everything seems simple after someone else has found it out. If we had thought we would have remembered that for ages doctors have forbidden starch foods to people who wanted to get thin.

It follows they ought to recommend starch foods to people who want to get fat. Nobody knows why they didn't do so. Nobody knows why they don't all do so now. But they are learning. More are recommending it every day. They are beginning to believe in Paskola, because Paskola is a starch food.

It has long been known that starch food is the most natural food for man. Of the four chief chemical divisions of human food, viz.: Starches, fats, albumens and salts, starch is the most important, fats the least important. If we had only starch we could do without fatty food. We would die if we tried to do without starch foods.

Many people are dying today because their digestive organs cannot digest starch foods. They eat plenty of starch, but they can't digest it. They keep thin. They keep getting thinner. There is but one hope for them: Paskola. One reason that Paskola will help them is because it is a pure starch food. Another reason is because it is a pre-digested food.

Nothing but starch food will ever make you fat, strong and hearty. Meat or albuminous food merely repairs waste tissues. But even if it were pre-digested, it would not make you fat. Fat food cannot be pre-digested, but even if it could, it would not make you fat. Paskola is only a pure starch, pre-digested food, combined with natural vegetable ferments which aids the digestion of other food.

The old old notion about fats and oils and fatty foods making a person fat is fast fading away. The most eminent scientists and medical men have long since ceased to believe in it. The rank and file of the profession are fast following their example. Even if fatty food could make people strong and fat, all the good it would do would be to well people, for it is only well people's stomachs that can stand it. Well people don't need food that will make them fat. They are generally fat already. If they were not fat they would not be well.

It is just the people who need food to make them fat whose stomachs can't stand fatty foods. We can't fight nature. Thin people have a very decided aversion to fats and oils. They ought to be sufficient proof to us that fat is not what they need to make them well. Even the thinnest and sickest people like Paskola.

They like other starch food, too. They probably eat a good deal of starch food. Nature allows them to do so. They have no decided aversion to it. This is proof that starch food is a good food.

The reason that the food thin people eat does not make them fat is simply that they do not digest it. They are sick, and that is the sickness they suffer from. Most dyspeptics cannot even retain starch food in their stomachs. It ferments and forms a noxious gas. They are in the unhappy state of needing starch food so badly that they are slowly dying for the want of it, and yet they cannot digest it. The most delicate stomach can retain Paskola.

The great difference between ordinary good starch food and Paskola is that Paskola is pre-digested. Paskola would make you fat if you hadn't a stomach. With a stomach, no matter how sick it may be, Paskola makes you fat all the quicker. Paskola is superseding cod liver oil, because it is pleasant to the taste and is far more effective in its operation.

A pamphlet giving full particulars respecting Paskola will be sent on application to the Pre-Digested Food company, 30 Reads street, New York city.

Hope Suddenly Destroyed. DeMillion—You want to marry my daughter, eh? How about your financial condition? Marigold—Well, sir, I have expectations.

DeMillion—Expectations! You can't marry my daughter on expectations! What are they? Marigold—Well, if that's the case, I haven't any.—Truth.

His Only Refuge. Temperance Advocate—My friend, pause before you enter that gilded den—reflect—you have a family, no doubt—children waiting for you at home!

An Orthodox District. Congressman—Mary, I believe every man in my district votes as he prays. Wife—That's good.

HE WAS BASELY DECEIVED.

A Woodman Mistakes Corner Stone Ceremonies for Fourth of July.

PROCEEDS TO CELEBRATE AND IS PLACED IN LIMBO.

An Entertainment for All-Circuit Court Opens—Portage Entry Having Fun With Bears.

GOT DATES SADLY MIXED.

He reached town about Monday noon from Redy Bros. camp. He had walked a greater part of the latter portion of his journey and as the exercise was fatiguing he refreshed himself from time to time from a glass reservoir which, when in repose, made a small swelling on his hip. Both walking and refreshing seemed to have somewhat twisted him and when he found the stores closed, flags flying and societies parading in gay attire, he was perplexed. Standing at the corner of Spring and Front streets he ruminated thus: "Have I lost count of the days back in the woods? Have I worked two months longer than I thought and struck this bloomin' burg on the Fourth of July?" Then he took a small calendar from his inside pocket and studied it carefully but it did not seem to reassure him. While still figuring he heard the lively strains of a band and all his martial spirit—to say nothing of other brands—rose within him and he gave a wild whoop and made a bee line for the nearest jag emporium, muttering: "Holy Moses! Just to think how near I was missing the Glorious Fourth."

It was while the entire police force was in the parade he came forth and began to celebrate. His course was marked by a broad band of deepest vermilion and a succession of yells that would have made a Comanche green with envy. At the corner of Washington and Third streets he steadied himself and attempted an oration to the memory of "George (his) and his tomahawk" and while making a sweeping gesture knocked a citizen into the gutter. Then he was carefully gathered in and placed in the municipal ice box to cool off.

Yesterday he had an interview with Justice Cray and was given an opportunity to explain how he came to get so woefully mixed in his dates. He did not seem very clear on the matter and could only say that he had become convinced it was the "Fourth" and that it was a part of his religion to never allow a Fourth of July to pass without getting entangled with a roaring jag. When informed that what he had mistaken for the "Fourth" was simply part of the city's jubilation over laying the new city hall corner stone, he looked deeply hurt and told the court he had been basely deceived. He thought nothing short of the Fourth of July was an excuse for so much display and rejoicing. As he still seemed entangled and blurred and would persist in consulting the same faulty calendar which had before led him astray, the court sent him into retirement for ten days to get his bearings.

Captured the East.

During the past three or four months Marquette has been favored with a more than ordinarily good class of theatrical entertainments. They have not come very close together but they have been of good a character as to make amends for the lapse of time between visits. Not only have the offerings been of a superior nature, but they have been varied. We have had melodrama, comedy, tragedy and now we are to be treated to genuine refined minstrelsy. Al G. Field's big company of minstrels, which appears at the opera house a week from last night, is acknowledged the most pretentious show of the kind on the road. He has equipped the most brilliant efforts of Thatcher, Primrose & West, Dockstetter, and that veteran of minstrels, Haverly, and the management of the opera house may well congratulate itself on securing such a first-class attraction, one which may be attended by our best theater goers of all ages and both sexes and result in satisfaction to all. Speaking of a recent entertainment by this company in Springfield Mass., May 9, The Republican of that city, a conservative newspaper, says:

Field's minstrels appeared for the first time in this city at the Court Square theater last evening. The numerous audience found considerable in the entertainment that was enjoyable, and on the whole, it can be said that the organization made a favorable impression. Al G. Field and E. M. Hall are good black-face comedians, and the latter, especially, found favor. Tommy Donnelly, who claims Springfield as his home, was enthusiastically received, and a large bouquet of roses was passed over the footlights to him. Mr. Donnelly is a comedian and is a useful member of the company. The singing in the first part was creditable. Arthur Yale sang "Home, sweet home" in falsetto with striking effect and was loudly applauded. The olio was made up of the specialties usually found on such programs. The Alvarez family appeared in a musical act, and there was drilling by the company, a clog tournament, acrobatics, and a fine display of juggling with rattles, etc. by Fradoe. A laughable sketch called "The Barbers' Picnic" brought the performance to a close.

After Bruin's Blood.

A letter from Portage Entry tells of an exciting bear chase in the neighborhood of the quarries a few days ago. J. W. Wychoff, P. W. G. Puffer, C. E. Edgerton and several others started out with rifles, shot guns, pistols and clubs but Mr. Edgerton was the only fortunate one, bringing down a male bruin weighing about 200 pounds. Three or four more of the animals are still prowling and the chase will be kept up until more are killed.

Circuit Court Begins.

The May term of the circuit court of Marquette county began yesterday forenoon, Judge J. W. Stone presiding. The customary motions and allotments of cases occupied the morning session and got the way cleared for taking up the calendar after the noon recess.

There are only two criminal cases to try this term and they were placed under way before the court adjourned. The session will likely prove an uneventful one for the general public as the cases of greatest importance are on the civil docket. The criminal docket will likely close today.

Ore Trimmers Are Happy.

A MINING JOURNAL representative happened on a group of ore trimmers yesterday just as they came from the hold of a vessel and their smiling faces prompted him to enquire how they were getting along under the new arrangement. "Oh splendidly!" was the hearty response. "Everything is going along as well as we could wish and we are not finding any fault. The vessels are being trimmed as well as they ever were, the captains seem pleased and our foreman, John Dwyer, cannot be beat. He looks after all the boats, keeps things running smoothly and gives us entire satisfaction. We are getting along as well as the times and circumstances could possibly allow."
