ELEVEN MEN MURDERED.

Cripple Creek Strikers Dropped Dynamite Down the Strong Mine Shaft.

EVERY MAN IN THE MINE BLOWN TO PIECES.

Officers Wait Reinforcements and Fetched Battle Expected—Rioters Calmed by Bayonets.

GAVE WORKERS NO CHANCE.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., May 25.—The mayor this morning received a message that the miners from Bull Hill had surrounded the Independence and Portland mines and that a battle was in progress.

Another message said the Strong mine had been blown up. A wagon load of powder was backed up against the shaft house and exploded. Several men were in the house a short time before. Whether they got out alive is not known.

The special train bearing 150 armed deputies on arrival at the Victor was immediately surrounded by 400 miners and a pitched battle ensued in which the deputies took refuge behind rocks. It is not known whether any were killed. They finally made their way to the Independence mine, where they are besieged by a party of the miners.

The Anna Lee shaft house was blown up as well as the Strong. A mob is on the way to the Victor and Pharmacist mines to blow up the shaft houses and will then proceed to the Summit mine for the same purpose.

Sheriff Brisbane is coming from Colorado Springs and will deputize all available men to fight the strikers.

Twenty deputies in the cabins below the Independence mine surrendered to the strikers at 1 p. m., after receiving assurances that if they would hand over their guns they would not be personally injured. They are being marched into the city under strong guard.

The deputies from Denver are now in the hills somewhere east of the Independence mine.

Hundreds of miners armed with Winchester are patrolling the roads about the Victor to the west, south and north. At the summit of Bull Hill near the Victor property, the miners have a fort of logs and rock well supplied with ammunition and provisions.

ELEVEN WORKERS MURDERED.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., May 25.—Eleven men killed with strong probability that the number will be increased when all is known, is the record of the first day's trouble here, although the real fighting has not yet begun, as the deputies are awaiting reinforcements before beginning active operations.

Eleven men started to work this morning in the Strong mine on Battle Mountain. Shortly afterwards a large party of strikers blew up the shaft house with powder, causing a loss of $25,000, and then dropped 100 pounds of giant powder down the shaft, which also exploded, killing all the men at work.

Not more than 300 yards from the shaft house sixteen men who had engaged to go to work in the Independence mine were surrounded in their bunk house and after a long parley agreed to surrender. Each one was armed with a rifle and a brace of revolvers, which are now in the possession of the strikers.

It is rumored that the strikers attacked the Anna Lee mine, overpowering the guards, after which they blew up the shaft house, but the rumor is not verified.

When the deputies are finally massed and the two forces come together a most terrible battle will doubtless be fought. The situation tonight is one of most painful anxiety. Not a few believe the town will be a smoldering mass of ruins by another sunset if the strikers are not restrained.

At the Victor, where fully 1,000 people reside, a reign of terror exists. Within half a mile from town all day long fully 300 strikers, armed with rifles, paraded up and down the hillside. An occasional detour into the village was made and people whom the strikers thought would be objectionable ordered to leave the place.

The guards from Denver upon their arrival at Victor went into camp on a neighboring hill. The strikers threw out a picket line, entirely surrounding them but at a distance that guarantees their safety from the deputies' rifles. It is said that the strikers have planted under their fort on Bull Hill a quantity of dynamite with the intention of blowing it up if it should be taken and occupied by the deputies.

All telephone connections are broken and it is feared the telegraph wires will go next. The deputies from Denver have withdrawn to a less exposed position, where they will await reinforcements. No one is permitted near the seat of war and the streets of Cripple Creek and Victor, as well as the passes, are patrolled by strikers carrying Winchester and revolvers.

The capture and disarming of eighteen deputies was accomplished by women and ever since that feat two of the Amazons have been holding high court in a saloon, where the strikers shower congratulations upon them. Two wagons loaded with powder and cartridges for one of the mines were captured by the strikers.

Sam McDonally, superintendent of the Strong, Anna Lee and Gold King mines, and Charlie Robinson, foreman of the Strong, are missing, and it is feared have been murdered by the strikers. It is raining furiously and any further move tonight is not looked for.

WILL INVADE ILLINOIS.

Indiana Strikers Preparing for Descent Upon Pana Miners.

BRAZIL, May 25.—About one thousand miners left the city this afternoon on a special train furnished by the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad for Coal Bluffs. The meeting there was one of the largest demonstrations ever seen in this locality. The strikers are greatly agitated over the report that miners are working at Pana, Ills., and quickly voted for a raid in mass. Over six hundred strikers left on the Big Four for that place. The meeting was very enthusiastic and the strikers repeated the vote to stand firmly until their demands were granted.

Representatives of the Terre Haute Brewing company were in the city this afternoon endeavoring to induce the strikers to consent to let the company operate its own mines, claiming that unless they did the establishment would be forced to close at great loss. This brewing company offered to pay big wages and to contribute $200 weekly to strike funds, but the strikers flatly refused the offer.

GATHERING AT TERRE HAUTE.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 25.—Over seven hundred striking miners tonight captured a freight train on the Big Four railway at Grant, a few miles east of here, and rode into the city. The train was sidetracked at this point and the miners are now waiting to capture the next westbound train. They intend to go to Pana, Ills., to force the 600 miners of that place who are working to join them. The leaders claim that over 3,000 Illinois strikers are also on their way to the same place. The men are very quiet and state that they do not intend to use any violence. Over four hundred strikers are also headed for Terre Haute over the Van-dalla and Evansville & Terre Haute railroads and are expected to reach here in the morning.

PANA PREPARES FOR WAR.

PANA, Ills., May 25.—This city is in a state of great excitement over the reported approach of foreign strikers on their way here to force out the miners now at work. Late telegrams from central offices say two thousand men are en route to Pana from the southern districts, also one thousand from the northern district and a large contingent from Indiana.

All day citizens were being sworn in and all working miners who desired arms and cartridges were armed. There are about fifteen hundred deputies armed and on duty. They are drilling this evening and are held in readiness to get into line at a moment's notice. Everything is in readiness for the rioters' arrival and they will be given a warm reception.

DEATH, Ills., May 25.—A crowd of two hundred strikers was around the coal shaft when the men came to work, kept all except twelve from entering and beat two severely.

BAYONETS LOOK CHILLY.

La Salle Rioters Somewhat Subdued by Presence of Troops.

LA SALLE, Ills., May 25.—Six companies of the Third regiment, Illinois National Guard, under command of Colonel Fred Bennett, are now under canvas on the bluff in the eastern part of the city and their presence seems to be having a salutary effect on the turbulent strikers. There was another serious outbreak this morning before the arrival of the militia when a number of strikers went to the Carbon shaft, mobbed the engineer and made him leave the engine room.

The strikers held a meeting later and speeches were made by General Orendorf, Mayor Matthiessen and Hon. David Rose, who counseled the men to be calm and orderly. There was afterwards a meeting at which only strikers were present. The speeches at this meeting were of a very vicious and incendiary character and it looked as if there might be another riot. But finally the cooler heads persuaded them to be quiet. The thing now irritating the strikers is the detention of two of last evening's rioters in the Ottawa jail and if these men are not given a speedy trial there will yet be serious trouble.

A brawl occurred in the northern part of the city this evening, when a number of strikers brutally beat and kicked a Polish miner named Birkowski whom they accused of being a spy. The mine is very seriously injured and late reports are that he is likely to die. The only trouble at the military camp so far was a slight collision between the strikers and the pickets. The mob closed in around the picket line and it was necessary to drive them back at the point of the bayonet. One Meisenbach became very abusive and received a prod, being subsequently taken to the guard house. The attitude of many of the more unruly strikers is very threatening and more trouble may be looked for at any time.

OTTAWA READY TO FIGHT.

OTTAWA, Ills., May 25.—The condition of affairs among the rioting miners at La Salle this evening not only created excitement in that city but is the source of considerable trouble to the citizens of Ottawa. Three miners, leaders in last night's riot at La Salle, are imprisoned here and the rumors afloat here that their fellow-strikers were coming to Ottawa to demand their release were substantiated by a message from the deputy sheriff at La Salle stating that if the prisoners were released and brought here for trial the strikers would make no trouble.

States Attorney Duncan replied that the strikers could not run this county and the prisoners would not be taken from Ottawa for trial. According to the latest reports the strikers at La Salle, Oglesby and Spring Valley are preparing to march to Ottawa to liberate the prisoners by force. The city authorities have made ample preparations for defense and should the rioters come to Ottawa they will receive a warm reception. Officers are stationed on all roads leading into Ottawa, armed

EDWARDS WILL NOT TELL.

Declines to Name Persons Who Told Him Senators Were "Sugared."

INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE CAN NOT COMPEL HIM.

Buttz Did Offer Senators Bribes but They Were Probably Based Simply on Wind.

INVESTIGATORS ARE STUMPED.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Judge Dittenhoeffer, counsel for Correspondent Edwards, appeared before the sugar trust investigating committee today and announced that he had advised his client not to give the committee the names of the persons from whom he received certain information bearing upon the subject under investigation. He quoted the supreme court decisions in the Hilbourne and Counselman cases in support of his position.

The committee overruled Judge Dittenhoeffer's objections, called Edwards and repeated the demand that he give the names requested and received his final decision not to comply with the demand. He was then excused and the committee again went into secret session. No decision as to the future course of action was reached.

Senator Caffery and ex-Congressman Lefevre of Louisiana were before the committee later in the day and absolutely denied the story of their participation in the alleged conference with sugar trust people at the Arlington Hotel.

BUTTZ HAD NO MONEY.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The committee to investigate the senatorial bribery charges reported to the senate today, saying that there was no evidence to corroborate the charge that a syndicate of bankers and capitalists had raised money to defeat the tariff bill, or that they had any agent in Washington for the purpose of bribing senators. The report, after reciting the facts of Buttz's offer of money to the son of Senator Hunton and to Senator Kyle, says:

"Your committee is abundantly justified in stating that these facts were established by the evidence, notwithstanding the denial on the part of Charles W. Buttz. Buttz also denies that he made any statement regarding a syndicate of bankers or that he had any knowledge of the existence of such a syndicate, or that he was agent or representative of anyone. He further denies that he has any money himself."

SENATORIAL COURTESY.

Hoar and Harris Squabble Over That Ridiculous Subject.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Kyle's Hawaiian resolution came up again at the opening of the senate. Its consideration was not concluded when the time for resuming the tariff bill arrived and it went over again, but not till there was a sharp passage-at-arms between Messrs. Hoar and Harris. The former insisted that it was highly important that the senate take some action in the matter of Hawaii, whose fate was hanging in the balance, while Mr. Harris insisted on the regular order. During the colloquy each took occasion to remark on the paucity of the assets of the other in the matter of senatorial courtesy.

The rate for shotguns, rifles and pistols was fixed at 30 per cent.; table and carving knives and forks and razor blades, scissors and spoons, wholly or partly finished, 35 to 45 per cent, according to class; crosscut-saws, six cents per lineal foot, mill saws, ten cents, pit and drag saws eight cents; circular and other saws 25 per cent.; crude aluminum ten cents per pound; pins and pins commercially known as jewelry 25 per cent.; watches and clocks, 25 per cent. After an executive session the senate adjourned.

"ROSE BY ANY OTHER NAME."

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Mr. Springer gave notice to the house that the first thing tomorrow he would call up the bill for the repeal of the state bank tax law. The entire afternoon was consumed in the discussion of an omnibus resolution from the committee on war claims, grouping together thirty-seven claims for cotton, etc., aggregating $1,040,000. The only business transacted during the day was the passage of a bill for the relief of Thomas B. Reed (not the ex-speaker) and the success of this bill seemed due in no small degree to the name. At 5 o'clock the committee rose and the house took a recess, the evening session to be devoted to private bills.

"THE WICKED PARTNER."

Schwab Blamed for the Frauds in Armor Plate.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Captain W. T. Sampson, chief of the bureau of ordnance, appeared before the house committee investigating armor plate frauds and said he considered blow-holes a serious defect. He related how suspicion was aroused by finding that plates were invariably improved on the second test. The conclusion was irresistible that the plates had been surreptitiously doctored between tests. Captain Sampson said he believed the heads of the Carnegie company knew nothing of the operations of Schwab, the general superintendent. The latter had a certain amount of stock in the company and so his interests would be advanced by the acceptance of defective plates. The committee then adjourned till Monday.

HOUGHTON.

Fire broke out in Jacob Gartner's residence adjoining his store about 7:30 last evening. In a few minutes the store took fire and although the fire department was very prompt the flames made such rapid headway that the stock, consisting of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes and millinery, valued at $25,000, was damaged to nearly the full extent of the insurance. The insurance is $15,000, placed through Wright & Stringer's agency in the Delaware, Caledonia, Commercial Union, Continental, Michigan Fire & Marine, Phoenix, Traders, Hartford, Prussian and Union of Philadelphia, in policies of about $1,500 in each company except the Commercial Union, which has $2,000. The origin of the fire is unknown. It was first discovered by Nicholas Everett. The loss on the furniture is about $600. The buildings were owned by Adolph Ruhl and were damaged about $3,000, partly covered by insurance.

NO BUDDHISTS IN INDIA.

A Very Common Impression is Here

India has served many gods, he says, and the monuments raised in their honor are countless. It appears to be generally believed at the present day that the religion of India is Buddhism. How this common impression gained ground it is hard to say. When Sir Edwin Arnold published 'The Light of Asia,' he did not think it necessary to state that Gautama the Master had no longer any following in the country which witnessed his birth and holy life; but Sir Edwin's book produced a religious revival, or something very like it, among a certain class of semi-intelligent readers who are continually foraging for some new tidbit of religion with which to tickle the dull sense of their immortality into a relish for Heaven.

There are no Buddhists in India. There are many in Ceylon, and there is a sect of them in Nepal, an independent territory to the north, on the borders of Buddhist Tibet. The religion vanished from India in the early centuries of the Christian era. The neo-Brahmans set up anti-Buddhas, so to speak, in the figures of Krishna, Mahadeva and Rama—demigods and idols of the great neo-Brahmanic religions, Vishnu-worship and Siva-worship; and these swept everything else before them until the Mohammedan conquest; and at the present day, in one shape or another, these forms of belief are adhered to by five-sixths of the population, the remainder being Mussulmans. The Buddhists are gone, though not without leaving behind them a rich legacy of philosophic thought, and many monuments of their artistic genius.—Marion Crawford, in Century

BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Has Been Proven to Be Catarrh of the Kidneys.

A letter from Mrs. Mary A. Shear of Jennings, La., states: 'I am recommending your Pe-ru-na to every one I hear complain. Several people have already commenced taking it. My disease was Bright's disease of the kidneys and catarrh of the bladder. I am quite well now.'

The symptoms of Bright's disease are: Dull pain in the back; scanty, high-colored urine, containing albumen and various sediments; nausea, and sometimes vomiting; puffiness of the face and feet; dropsy of the legs; shortness of the breath and general weakness; palor and dryness of the skin; chilly feelings, alternating with fever and sleeplessness. The treatment is: A teaspoonful of Pe-ru-na before each meal, between meals, and at bed time, and each night to produce one natural action of the bowels each day.

Send to the Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing company of Columbus, O., for a free copy of the Family Physician No. 2, devoted to catarrh in all forms and stages.

WHAT IS EGYPT?

The Land of the Pyramids as She Appears to the Observer.

What is Egypt? Is it a great farm? An unrivaled archaeological museum? A delightful health resort? A valuable naval stronghold and place of arms? An important center of Mediterranean trade? In truth, it is each of these things and all together, even to the most casual and cursory glance of the most irresponsible and indolent holiday maker. But what it is not to him—and herein he takes courage from the thought that neither is it to those ninety-nine out of every hundred Europeans who have longed and most eagerly studied it, Mr. Wilfrid Blunt being the hundredth—the home of a nation.

If there is one fact that seems to stare him out of countenance which—ever way he turns—one fact with which the present and the past alike confront him; which meets him in the tomb and the temple, in the river meadow and the hamlet which looks at him out of the eyes of pictured Pharaohs, and of almost as mute and monumental fellahs; which takes voice and motion in the many-colored, chattering crowd of Cairo, and which is almost audible in the very silence of the desert itself—it is that Egypt is a land without a people.

It has an aboriginal race of cultivators, as much a part of the soil as its palm trees, it has an infinitely mixed community of settlers, the deposit of successive conquests, permanent in the sense in which the desert sands are permanent, but no more to be built upon than they. From time immemorial, the beautiful country has been the spoil of every reviser who was strong enough to seize and hold her—Ethiopian, Assyrian, Persian, Macedonian, Roman, Arab. Every rising or risen power upon her borders, European, African or Asiatic, has in turn possessed her, and, as its strength declined, has in turn been forced to yield her up to a stronger hand. To the chief states of the world she has been all that her famous queen was to successive masters or competitors for the mastery of Rome.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping coughs, and is the most effective remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Sec. 6. All fines imposed under this ordinance shall be collected by the clerk of the city treasury and covered into the general fund of the city of Marquette.

Sec. 7. The said board of health shall meet at the common council chamber of the city of Marquette at such times as the members shall decide, and the recorder of the city shall be clerk of the board and shall keep a record of the proceedings of such meetings and preserve the same in his office. BOTTOM PRICES REACHED.

That Fact Is Recognized Fully in the Iron Ore Market.

SENATE'S VOTE BROUGHT ABOUT MANY SALES.

Scarcity of Fuel Has Stiffened Iron and Steel Prices Materially Both East and West.

STATE OF THE IRON TRADE.

CLEVELAND, May 25.—The Iron Trade Review says: That iron ore had touched the lowest point was recognized by sellers and furnace men alike.

The scarcity of coal is now severely felt even by the largest Pittsburgh producers, whose accumulated store of coke has diminished to small proportions.

Better prices are being secured but the high fuel cost makes the advances inoperative. Bessemer pig reached $13.50 at Pittsburgh.

Selling points report a scarcity of some grades of Southern irons and quotations advanced twenty-five cents on these.

SCALE IS SATISFACTORY.

PITTSBURGH, May 25.—The scale which was determined upon by the Amalgamated association of Iron and Steel Workers at the Cleveland convention meets the approval of organized labor in the Pittsburgh district.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

People Are Bound to Buy Despite the Dull Times.

NEW YORK, May 25.—R. G. Dun & Co's Weekly Review of Trade will say: Storms and floods, prolonged strikes and large exports of gold have done their utmost this week to give business a vacation.

Prices of products still tend downward without much speculation, while the iron industry especially and many others to some extent are restricted by the scarcity of coal and coke.

The number of works resuming was greater than the number stopping from other causes but it is a symptom not to be overlooked that the demand for manufactured products appears rather smaller than before.

INSOLENT OANUCKS.

Pulled Down American Flag Over the St. Thomas Consulate.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—United States Consul Willis at St. Thomas, Ont., today reported to the state department through United States Consul General Riley at Ottawa that the United States flag flying over the consulate was hauled down yesterday by Canadians and asked for instructions.

POPULISTS ARE TRAITORS.

Admit Raising Armed Force to War Upon the State.

TOPEKA, Kan., May 25.—At a meeting of the "Home Guard" in the Populist league rooms here tonight G. C. Clemens said: "I do not hesitate to say that one object I had in view when I advocated the raising of 'Home Guards' was to have a force available so that in case regular troops or National Guards are ordered out to stop the Commonwealers anywhere west of the Mississippi we can stop the regular troops or the National Guards."

CENTRALIA, Ills., May 25.—Despite the capture of a quarter of their number yesterday the Duquoin strikers at daylight again attacked the Centralia miners.

The militia arrived at 9 a. m. and the town was at once put under military guard. The Duquoin raiders were overawed and tonight the town is very quiet with no indications of trouble as long as the troops remain.

SCHOONER HATTIE FREE.

HOUGHTON, Mich., May 25.—The schooner Hattie was released from her position on the beach near the ship canal Thursday afternoon. The steam barge Maine and consorts, lumber laden, towed the Hattie into Houghton yesterday forenoon, making a stop at Cleave's dock where a steam pump was taken on and the injury to the bottom received temporary repairs.

MARINE NOTES.

The steamer Calvin and consort Augusta are loading square timber south of No. 1 dock.

CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

Charity concert next Tuesday night. Frank Parent was down from Iron Mountain.

Members of the G. A. R. will attend church parade tomorrow forenoon escorted by Company G.

Marquette was gladdened by a glimpse of the genial features of John Quincy Adams yesterday.

Next Wednesday, May 30, being Memorial Day, the postoffice will be closed from 10 a. m. until 5 p. m.

Samuel Erickson and Anna Olander were married yesterday in the Swedish Lutheran church by Rev. M. Johnson.

Rev. Fr. John Chebul was in the city yesterday on his way to Negaunee, where he will shortly take charge of the Catholic congregation.

A. Brant, formerly with Neuberger in this city; has again made Marquette his home and opened a merchant tailoring and repairing shop over Werner's store, Front street.

Theodore Lee, formerly connected with St. Mary's hospital here, has been awarded a gold medal by the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Chicago, and also the faculty prize for highest standing in his class.

The streets presented a sort of Chicagoesque to coin a word—appearance at 8 o'clock last night. The delightful weather of the past few days is thawing everybody out and the lower city pavements are crowded with strollers every evening and by no means deserted during the day.

THE PAWNSHOPS.

Their Helpful Mission Among the Poor of New York.

The one hundred and thirty licensed pawnbrokers in New York, firms and individuals, are believed to be as a class honest and straightforward men of business. They are in the business to make money and in ordinary times undoubtedly do make money. These one hundred and thirty pawnshops are the poor man's banks. They perform a proper and useful work that is sanctioned by the law and they are of vital commercial importance to a very large portion of the population.

For the wage-earner, laborer, and the poor the pawnshop is a very practical bar against eviction and starvation. The pawnshop or some institution like it that will loan small sums on pledges or on chattel mortgages or furniture and personal effects, is even more useful to the people generally than the banks. It is certainly more important to prevent starvation and eviction than to prevent a mere commercial failure. Besides this, the small borrowers outnumber the large borrowers ten to one.

The terror of poverty in New York is rent. A poor woman once said to an East Side missionary who stood beside her dying bed, "Heaven, sir, I'm thankful to hear what you say about it. I'm glad to go for I hear they pay no rents in Heaven." Every thirty days, summer and winter, is the demand for money—money, always more money. Rent seems so utter lost and sunk that it is no wonder that it appears as the one unending terror of life. Heaven would begin at once for many people on the East Side—if there were no rents. It is this necessity of paying every thirty days (and oh! how few days are these thirty) that makes the pawnshop so necessary. It is estimated by persons familiar with the great district east of the Bowery that almost the entire population holds one or more pawn tickets at all times. The majority of families have a dozen or more in their rooms the greater part of the year.

Next to rent stands the always certain uncertainty of employment. There are few trades without their dull times when wages are low or extinct. These dull times must be lived over somehow, and the pawnbroker appears then a friend indeed. Sickness and death are expensive, and demand ready money that often only the pawnshop can supply.—Charles Barnard, in Chautauquan.

Housekeeper—Those eggs you sold me were stale, and I asked you for fresh-laid eggs.

Dealer (patronizingly)—Those eggs are fresh, madam, not staled, and they are laid eggs, madam, not manufactured. Had you desired eggs recently taken from the nest you should have asked for freshly-laid eggs.—N. Y. Weekly.

Success speaks volumes. Geo. Moebis & Co.'s cigars are the best sellers. (5-23-94)

Many of those who daily wield pens and endure the confinement of office work, now go out to the fair grounds in the afternoon to daily with the festive ball and blister-raising bat. Then they come home and brag about it but this feature is easily overlooked when note is taken of a new layer of tan and glow of health on each face.

Curing Sick Headache. If you ever have sick headache, and want it cured quickly and effectively, with none of the debilitating effects of anti-pyrene or kindred drugs, just take a tablespoonful of red pepper, mix it with vinegar to a thick paste and spread upon a cloth, cotton or linen, bind upon the forehead with a handkerchief, from temple to temple, then take about two grains of the red pepper in a teaspoonful of vinegar and swallow it. The mixture on the forehead will burn, but will not blister, and in the course of ten minutes the headache will disappear under the stimulating effects of this remedy, leaving the patient feeling as if such distressing things as sick headaches were unknown to the human family.—N. Y. World.

A MAN OF BROAD ACRES.

What Thomas Harrison of North Dakota Owes to Paine's Celery Compound.

The world has had in all just fifteen decisive battles. But every man has in his lifetime more decisive battles than this. The important epoch in man's life that settles his wealth, position, and often life itself, come without warning. Weakness, indecision, lack of nerve force at these turning points is fatal. In long and doubtful sickness, when life itself trembles in the balance, a little more strength and power of resistance to disease make the difference between life and death. The people with depleted, diseased blood run big risks. Careful men and women all over the country are building up their systems and storing the nerve centers with energy now it is spring. They are taking that remarkable blood purifier and nerve food, Paine's celery compound. It cannot be repeated too often that the blood is the fountain which supplies every part of the body. If this life-giving medium lacks vigor and richness, nerves, brain, heart, kidneys and lungs immediately suffer. The weakest spot will give way first. If you find yourself growing thin, nervous, without appetite—look out. You are starving some important organ through inappropriate nutrition. Thomas Harrison is the proprietor of the famous Harrison farms of North Dakota. He holds the office of notary public and is coroner of Traill county. He writes from Blanchard, N. D. "Two years ago, when the grip was prevalent in this country, I suffered very much from this trouble. The disease lingered with me until it developed into catarrh of the head. For this loathsome trouble I tried many remedies advertised for catarrh without any permanent relief, and while spending the winter of 1892-93 in Los Angeles I was treated by a specialist without any better results. Seeing Paine's celery compound advertised, I tried it, not expecting much relief, as I thought that I could not be cured. I used one bottle as directed, and was entirely and permanently cured. This was over six months ago and I have not experienced a return of any of the symptoms, though I have been exposed to the inclement weather in North Dakota and have not caught the least cold this winter, when had I been troubled with this catarrh I would have had cold after cold all winter. I will cheerfully answer any inquiries as to the correctness of my statements. Many around here are using the compound on the strength of my recommendation. It makes people well."

WHAT DO YOU NEED IN DRY GOODS?

COME THEN AT ONCE, while you can make your money do double duty. Spend two dollars here instead of four dollars some where else.

Do you know that at my prices goods will vanish like frost on a June morning, and that vain regrets will not replace lost opportunities.

You do know that a chance like this is the rarest event in this city, and that it will pay you to take prompt advantage of a closing sale in which every item of stock is included without a single exception as the intention is to give buyers a bonafide chance to supply their wants at bottom, bargain, bonanza figures.

Do you know that for a dollar in money you can get two dollars in handsome, staple, bright, serviceable, seasonably dry goods?

Have you heard that Regnier & Gauthier's stock of Dry Goods, Notions, Boots and Shoes is being sold out by a man from Chicago who is afflicted with an incurable mania for large quick sales and low prices.

To help shorten the time of the sale, I will give to the lady buying most goods in this store during the 10 days May 19 to May 28 both inclusive a Cash Prize of $25.00. CAUTION—Save all your checks and see that they are properly dated before you leave the store.

Ishpeming Horsemen Beginning to Take an Interest in Coming Races.

Must Play Ball Somewhere Else—One Moving Freely—Passenger Train Delayed by a Wreck.

BECOMING INTERESTED.
The proposed trotting race and also the horse-bicycle race at Union Park on the afternoon of Decoration Day has been the means of creating considerable interest in racing matters among the local horsemen, especially those who have horses that they consider speedy. The fine weather of Thursday and yesterday got them all started and several have devoted considerable of their time to tracking their nags and getting them in trotting trim.
Yesterday the air here was full of horse discussion. Many bets were proposed but few were actually made. Several private purses, aside from those offered by the management of the park, are talked of for matches to take place on Decoration Day or the day following.

There appears to be some difference of opinion as to what class of horses will be allowed to trot; in the gentlemen's driving class, in which four prizes are offered. The management states that only horses that have never been tracked or made records will be allowed to enter for this race. Any driving horse in the upper peninsula entering under the above conditions, will be given a place in the contest.
The backer of the trotting broncho desires THE MINING JOURNAL to state that he will back that horse for $25 against Jacob Harper's trotter for a race of from five to ten miles, or over, to take place within thirty days after the signing of the articles of agreement. It has been said that Harper's horse has greater speed than the broncho, hence the challenge. The speed of Harper's horse, which has never been in a race here, is not known, but the horse is said to be a fast traveler. The broncho is not a slow horse by any means and can hold his own in a one-mile race as well as in a long-distance trot. In the gentlemen's driving race at the park last fall the broncho went a mile, coming in a close second, that was registered 3:05. The backer of the broncho would put up his money for a race to take place in a week or at any time suitable to the other parties had the animal had any training this year. The horse has not been out of the stable for ten or twelve days and is not in condition to race now.

Memorial Services Tomorrow.
Members of Charles Towne post, G. A. R., will meet tomorrow morning prior to 9 o'clock to be in readiness to take the street cars for Negaunee at the corner of Main and Pearl streets at 9:15. Each veteran will appear with regulation hat and wearing the Grand Army and memorial badges. The old soldiers will be under the escort of the Robert Emmett Light guards. The guards will be at the corner of Main and Pearl streets in time to board the street cars at the same hour with the "Vets."

The order issued by the acting adjutant with reference to getting off the street cars at Negaunee to form in line for marching to the Methodist church, where the services will be held, has been changed. Instead of getting off at the corner of Cyr and Main streets, near the Salvation Army barracks, they will go to the Breitung House, whence they will march to the church.
Tomorrow evening special memorial services will be held at the Presbyterian church in this city, conducted by the Young People's society. An interesting program, including the reading of several short papers by prominent members of the society and others, has been arranged. All will be made welcome.

A Long Way Around.
The drawhead on a southbound ore train on the Chicago & Northwestern line broke near Goose Lake yesterday morning, causing four of the cars to leave the rails and pile up in a heap beside the track. As the northbound passenger train and the pay car were directly in front of the ore train, and would have passed it on a siding somewhere in that vicinity, they were shut off from the main line. A short time after notifying the train dispatcher at Escanaba of the wreck the passenger train and pay car conductors received orders to take the Cascade route and come around to Ishpeming by way of the Foster and Winthrop mine. As the track was quite rough and the distance several miles greater, they were an hour late in arriving at Ishpeming. From here the passenger train backed down to Negaunee and unloaded its baggage and passengers.

They Annoy the Worshippers.
Since the mild weather set in a number of boys have begun frequenting the Division street school yard for the purpose of playing baseball Sundays. They annoy the members of the congregations in both churches adjoining the school grounds. Last Sunday morning their talking and yelling and racing about the yard after their ball could be heard quite distinctly by those attending services at the churches. Some of the members of these congregations have asked THE MINING JOURNAL to call the attention of the authorities to the matter and also to warn the boys that they had better find some other place to play ball on the Sabbath.

Keeping Them Busy.
Yardmaster Smith of the South Shore road is about the busiest man in Ishpeming these days. At present he has eleven switch engines and crews working in the yards of Ishpeming and Negaunee. Considerable ore is being shipped from the mines and several of them are doing their loading with steam shovels, which accounts, to a

Yesterday morning the Winthrop Iron company's steam shovel was brought down to the Ames mine and after dinner loading of the ore there began. If the weather remains favorable and the ore is not frozen too hard the Ames stockpile can be loaded and hauled away in about a week.

That's what Dr. Fenner's Golden Relief is. It is a specific for INFLAMMATION, reaching and curing it wherever it exists. Swelling and pain accompany inflammation, so it always cures swelling and pain.
Under whatever name inflammation is found, (and the list is a long one) there will Golden Relief cure. Thus it is that it will cure a felon, applied externally, and also a consumption, taken in 5 drop doses on small lump of sugar internally. You have a sore, bruised finger. Put the Relief on it and be surprised how quickly it is well. On any other sore it is the same. One drop applied to an old sore will cause it to heal after all else has failed. Cold sores on your lip are cured by it in one night. You have tried it for sore throat and found yourself cured almost at once. Now your lungs are sore—inflamed—it quickly cures inflammation of the lungs. A chronic cough—Consumption is on you. It will cure your lungs. No inflammation, no consumption. It will permit inflammation to exist. This is why it cures consumption—just as it would sore throat, or flux, a toothache or a neuralgia. The sore in your lungs is healed and you are well. One sore is not much unlike another. No inflammation, no sore, no consumption. A tablespoonful cures La Grippe. It satisfies not given money refunded. It never disappoints. Take a bottle home to-day.

While Mrs. Deck listened to Mr. Higgs, Tommy was busy far away sailing a mud puddle lake with Harry Tucker, for it was Saturday, and when he went home Mollie was too busy finishing her new dress to note that his feet and legs were wet.

It ached in Tommy's head the next morning when he got up, but he did not think to tell anyone about it. His mamma had been too busy thinking of her part in the coming entertainment to ask if he had learned his Sunday-school lesson.

"The symptoms are rather obscure, just now," said the doctor, who never told anything of which he did not feel very sure. "There's a good deal of scarlet fever about and measles, and I'm bound to say there's smallpox over in Bagdad."

MRS. DECK'S NEW LEAF. How Tommy's Sickness Taught His Mother a Lesson.

Mrs. Deck was troubled about many things. She craved the newest fashion in sleeves, not only for herself, but for her little girls, and wanted to have every sort of dish and silver appliance fancy has invented to clutter the table, and enrich the shopkeepers.

Tommy was so often called an awful boy, it is probable he had his faults. To sail on a mud puddle on a bobbing bit of board, he would scour the little city over, and if there was a ticklish spot of tree climbing necessary to the rescue of some fellow's kite, Tommy was always the boy to undertake it.

Tommy was big, and the sort of gray that often looked black. His hair was brown and as thick on his head as his nose was a thick sprinkling of freckles. The little boys all liked Tommy, and so did the cats and dogs, and so did Miss Bramhall, his teacher, though he was stupid in number work.

Unluckily Mrs. Tucker herself was kept close at home with her boy Harry who was sick with the dreaded smallpox, so the story of the wild bear could not be repeated. Plenty of other stories were, however, and just gathered in the pretty parlors, and the spring bonnets came, and the spring bonnets came, and still Mrs. Deck thought of nothing but Tommy. But at last there came a day, and what a happy day it was, when he knew her, and old Dr. Sanders announced that, if he did not catch cold, and if he did not have the drops, or half a dozen other complications, he would soon mend and be about again.

Tommy always chose the moment that would disturb her most to play wild Indian with a select party of friends, just under the window. So it fell out that by degrees Tommy fell more and more to the charge of Mollie, the nurse, and consoled himself when in trouble by visiting the Tuckers, who lived just around the corner in a brown house. Mrs. Tucker somehow kept bread in the mouths of her brood of six by washing; and what she called "days' work." At night they gathered about her, and the one lamp, and in all Shoreleigh there was not a happier group. She was busy at something always, patching usually, but it was wonderful the amount of work she could get through with swarmed upon by six pairs of arms, and talked to by six eager tongues.

The literary club was going to hold its annual banquet at Mrs. Deck's, and that lady determined to make the occasion one long to be remembered. "There may be costlier ones by and by, when Shoreleigh is a great city," she told Mr. Deck, "but there shall not be a prettier one."

"Well," assented Mr. Deck, "so it don't cost too dear, Sally, I've nothing to say. I do not mean in dollars, for you are always sensible about spending them, but yourself. You spend yourself too lavishly sometimes." Mrs. Deck only laughed at this, and went off to the florists' and spent the whole morning deciding whether she would have roses or chrysanthemums for decoration.

"Chrysanthemums is newer, mum," said Mr. Higgs, rubbing his hands together so they rustled. "An' you gits great variety. Take this 'ere white. Looks like a big dahlia, an' this 'ere white again ere like a mop o' 'air a droppin' back from a gal's face, an' this 'ere one again is piled up like a lot o' thin-sliced cabbages, an' this one again ere like a sunflower for its shapes, an' pink an' white, or orange, or—then again all lavender pink, or all gold color is 'andsome. Roses ain't what you can call old, but they ain't no ways new, though I ain't one as is too ready to force my opinion. Ladies knows what they has and what they wants."

While Mrs. Deck listened to Mr. Higgs, Tommy was busy far away sailing a mud puddle lake with Harry Tucker, for it was Saturday, and when he went home Mollie was too busy finishing her new dress to note that his feet and legs were wet.

It ached in Tommy's head the next morning when he got up, but he did not think to tell anyone about it. His mamma had been too busy thinking of her part in the coming entertainment to ask if he had learned his Sunday-school lesson.

He had an old-fashioned teacher, had Tommy, and had to commit six verses to memory each week. For quiet he retired behind the curtains in the bow window, and no one thought of the redness of his face when he came out. But when at dinner he ate little of his chicken, and said he was too sleepy to wait for his pie, his father discovered that Tommy was a sick boy, and sent off for Dr. Sanders.

"Is it something contagious? Will I have to give up having the banquet here?" asked Mrs. Deck, when the doctor had felt of Tommy's pulse, and looked at his tongue and his breast.

"The symptoms are rather obscure, just now," said the doctor, who never told anything of which he did not feel very sure. "There's a good deal of scarlet fever about and measles, and I'm bound to say there's smallpox over in Bagdad."

Mrs. Deck threw up her hands, exclaiming: "Smallpox!" "Yes, but I suppose he has not been over in that region. It may be simply a slight stomach trouble. Children, especially of a nervous, sanguine temperament, are liable to fever for slight causes."

"Have you been over to Bagdad?" demanded Mr. Deck of Tommy. "Yes, sir," replied Tommy, unflatteringly. "I went yesterday morning with Harry Tucker. We wanted to see the thing old Uncle Lijah Blake's made. It's a man sawing wood and goes by wind like a paper windmill. Uncle Lijah said he'd whittle me one for two nickels."

"Bless my soul!" exclaimed the doctor. Then he looked at Tommy's vaccination spot. "It never took good, you know," said Tommy's mamma. "The girls' were all right, but Tommy's was contrary."

Now, if anyone can have the heart to hold a rose over a hot fire and see it quickly shrivel and wilt, he can have some idea of what befell Tommy Deck within the next week. He did not have the smallpox, but something nearly as bad, scarlet fever, and after that first day he knew no one. He clung, however, closely to his mother, whom he took to be Mrs. Tucker, and he wrung her heart by imploring her not to go away. "I like you so," he would whisper, huskily. "I 'spect I'd like mamma, if I could get a chance to get acquainted with her. But she's awful busy, and I guess she don't like boys as well as girls. I forget and rumple her bangs and her frills, and I do forget about the forks and spoons. But you're so cozy to have round. Mrs. Tucker, and please do tell me that story about the wild bear of county Clare again."

Unluckily Mrs. Tucker herself was kept close at home with her boy Harry who was sick with the dreaded smallpox, so the story of the wild bear could not be repeated. Plenty of other stories were, however, and just gathered in the pretty parlors, and the spring bonnets came, and the spring bonnets came, and still Mrs. Deck thought of nothing but Tommy. But at last there came a day, and what a happy day it was, when he knew her, and old Dr. Sanders announced that, if he did not catch cold, and if he did not have the drops, or half a dozen other complications, he would soon mend and be about again. To look at Tommy was a sorry spectacle. His hair had grown so thin it looked like the wiry seed vessels of wood moss, and stuck straight up, dry and dead. His cheeks were thin, and his fingers were skinny, and, for that matter, the whole of his body was peeling. He trembled when he tried to sit up, and he wanted to do a thousand things he could not, and if he had never really been an awful boy, he became one during the weeks of his convalescence. But it was his mother who read to him, played dominoes with him, and taught him to use his paint brushes. All things end, even unhappy things, and after sulphur had made the whole house sweet, and whitewash and paint and scouring had purified Tommy's sick room, and Tommy himself was allowed to go out on sunny days, Mrs. Deck scanned him and surprised his sisters and Mr. Deck by the declaration that she was going to turn over a new leaf. Tommy, with quick remembrance of the days before his illness, broke out impetuously: "O mamma, don't! Just go on."
